Sopkin to Direct '45 Fund Raising Campaign for GJC

Call Special Meeting for R. I. Hospital Building Fund

There will be a special meeting of the memorial gifts committee of the Rhode Island Hospital Building Fund this Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the foyer of the Biltmore Hotel.

Alvin Sopkin, associate chairman of the committee, is calling this meeting so that members of the Jewish community may become thoroughly familiar with the program for the enlargement of the Rhode Island Hospital.

Harris H. Bucklin, president of the Rhode Island Hospital, and chairman of the building fund, Godfrey B. Simonds, chairman of the memorial gifts committee, G. Pierce Metcalf and other leaders of the campaign will be present to explain the movement and to answer any questions which may arise.

Mr. Sopkin, in calling this meeting, stated that "urgent present needs and those anticipated in the post war period require that the Rhode Island Hospital be enlarged and made equal to the demands the community will make upon it for service. After studied and deliberate consideration, the trustees of the hospital and the members of its medical and surgical staffs have decided upon a program to replace the present main hospital and make other urgently required improvements. As public-spirited citizens of Providence, it is our responsibility to cooperate to the utmost in this endeavor."

There will be no solicitations of funds at this meeting.

Hits Isolationism In Jewish Life

SAN FRANCISCO — Isolationism and those isolationist groups in American Jewish Life that have prevented the establishment of an all-inclusive united Jewish front at the United Nations Conference on International Organization in the face of the gravest crisis that has ever confronted the Jews of the world were vigorously scored here by Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, of Cincinnati, national director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations

Hate Gets You Nowhere

A social worker won cheers of 2,000 teen-age students at a London conference on world citizenship when she told them they must "learn to hate." Without hate she does not think we can bring this war to an irrevocable conclusion and build a decent world.

It is simplification to personalize hate. But if we think we can get anywhere by making scapegoats of one man, or a dozen, or a million, we are off the track.

We must hate not men but things. Men are mortal, mere mouthpieces for the forces they are identified with. We doubt whether hating anybody is a sound basis for citizenship in a nation, or the world.

Smear Tactics

Whom does the American Council for Judaism think it is serving by spreading the implied libel that Zionism and Americanism are incompatible?

The Council's program is a definite disservice to the Jews of Europe, and to Jewish Palestine. Now their smear of American Zionists is becoming increasingly dangerous for American Jewry as well. Jewbaiters will sooner or later pick up bodily, some of the statements strewn about and use them to the disadvantage of all Jews.

We are certain that the American Council for Judaism is not unaware of these dangers, and yet it persists in pursuing this course, ready to take any risks in its determined effort to intimidate Zionists.

This indiscriminate smearing will only speed the process of exposing all the dangers inherent in the Council for Judaism, for one need not be a Zionist, to appreciate the precarious implications of the Council's anti-Zionist propaganda.—Chronicle.

Zionist War Bond Credits Surge To $1,700,000

A surge of bond credits this week sent the Zionist war bond total to $1,700,000, it was announced by Dr. Myron Keller and Dr. Ilie Berger, chairmen of the Providence and Rhode Island District committees, sponsoring a war bond drive to name a carrier of the Franklin Delano Roosevelt type. The state campaign is in conjunction with a national drive for $95,000,000.

"We are naturally very happy to report this new total," the chairmen said. "But this accomplishment in no way alters the fact that we must sell a lot of bonds during the last week of the drive in order to exceed the total we achieved during the fifth war loan drive. We urge no let-down in the efforts of Zionist workers. We still have time to beat the three million dollar mark."

Campaign for Meyer Levin Memorial

NEW YORK — A campaign to raise $150,000 to build a Memorial Hall in honor of the late Sgt. Meyer Levin, was launched here by the Meyer Levin Memorial Hall Association of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States.

The hall, to be built in Brooklyn, will serve as a community center to provide recreational and educational services for Brooklyn youth and as a meeting place for returned service men.

Excommunication of Prof. Kaplan Scored by Assembly

Members of the executive council of the Rabbinical Assembly this week in a strongly worded protest condemned the excommunication of Professor Mordecai Kaplan, of the Jewish Reconstructionist Foundation, by the Union of Orthodox Rabbis.

The following resolution was adopted by the council:

"The Rabbinical Assembly of America voices its strong condemnation of the recent action taken by a group of rabbis called together under the aegis of the Agudat Harabbanim (Union of Orthodox Rabbis) at a New York hotel convoked through an advertisement in the daily press. At this gathering, the Sabbath Prayer Book issued by the Jewish Reconstructionist Foundation and edited by our revered colleague Professor Mordecai M. Kaplan and three associates, was burned and he himself "excommunicated" by the Agudat Harabbanim, which is one of several organizations of orthodox rabbis in the United States.

"The Rabbinical Assembly of America, the national organization of the Conservative Rabbinate denies the authority of any outside body to sit in judgement on one of our colleagues.

"We do not intend here to enter into a discussion of the merits of the Reconstructionist prayer book concerning which there is considerable difference of opinion within the ranks of the Rabbinical Assembly. In fact, an authorized prayer book, prepared by a Joint Prayer Book Commission of the Rabbinical Assembly and the United Synagogue, has been prepared and will appear in the fall.

"Nonetheless, we are all unanimous in voicing our condemnation of the hysterical step taken by the Agudat Harabbanim."

Further Evidence Heard in Synagogue Mortgage Dispute

Further testimony was given this week before Judge C. Frederick Frost in Superior Court in the suit to enjoin Samuel Bomes from foreclosing a mortgage he holds on the Congregation Sons of Abraham. Nathan Wasserman, a charter member of the Congregation, stated that he never heard any talk of buying the synagogue building from Bomes.

Charles Bresler, also of the Congregation, testified that he had heard members asking Bomes why he had gone to such expense on the building and that Bomes had replied, "Why worry about it? I started it and I'm going through with it."

Wasserman also stated that they (the charter members) complained to Bomes about the extent of the reconstruction and that he was told by Bomes that "he didn't ask money from nobody," and that he "was going to put up a nice building."

Paul Levinson Mindanao Casualty

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levinson, of 121 Mitchell street, were informed this week by a Government message that their son, Cpl. Paul P. Levinson, was killed in action at Mindanao on May 6. He had been overseas since March of this year.

A native of Utica, N. Y., Corporal Levinson entered the service in November, 1943. Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Pfc. Sidney Levinson, serving in France, and a sister, Pearl Alice Levinson of this city.

The Providence Army and Navy Committee of the Jewish Welfare Board will honor the many volunteers who have been active in servicemens' programs since the inception of the committee in 1941 during exercises that will take place this Monday night at the Jewish Community Center, it was announced this week by Paul J. Robin, general chairman of the committee.

Benning, Georgia, with packages each month and other services have been rendered on special occasions and throughout the year.

Make German Generals "Sweat," Baruch Demands

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The German General Staff, Army, industrial and diplomatic leaders, the braintrusters and geopolitikers, must be made to "work in the labor battalions which they so freely drew from other countries," Bernard M. Baruch declared n a memorandum on the peace settlement with Germany, submitted to Senators and government officials here.

Mr. Baruch said that Germany's reparations should be fixed according to its ability to pay, without contributing to the revival of her war-making potentiality. He said loot stolen by the Germans must be returned to their rightful owners, and suggested that funds smuggled out of Germany by Nazis be returned to Germany.

Doctor to Probe Health Conditions

TEL AVIV — Dr. Menachem Shumert, Hadassah specialist on communicable disease, has left for Mauritius to investigate the health conditions of the Jews interned there. The British government had announced some months ago that as soon as transportation was available, the internees would be permitted to come to Palestine. A recent outbreak of infantile paralysis on the island, however, has delayed the emigration and it is believed that Dr. Shumert is going to Mauritius in an attempt to speed transfer of the internees.

PLEDGES RESTITUTION

ATHENS — The Greek Government has pledged full restitution of property to the Jews of Greece who suffered under the Axis occupation.

The Job Will Be Finished
When Japan Is Finished
— Not Before!

THE END of the Fascists was splendid. The end of the Nazis even better. But the whole war is just one war to G. I. Joe and it won't be over till the Pacific is cleared of aggression too. The boys who have done so famously in Italy and Germany will go on to do as well in China and Japan. And the civilians at home who have done well in previous War Bond drives must do still better in the current campaign.

When our boys let up in fighting the Jap, then, and not until then, can we let up on investing in War Bonds.

NOTES OF A NEWSPAPERMAN:

Telegram "Poetic Justice. The dramatic reversal of the Reichstag trial. Goering prosecuted Georgi Dimitroff in the frame-up blaming Dimitroff for starting the Reichstag fire. And today Dimitroff is prosecuting 'Meyer' Goering! Isn't it wonderful?—Ralph Berendt, New York City."

A Russian delegate to the Securities Conference was trying to throw some light on the muddled situation in China (for a perplexed journalist) before Chiang "technically" resigned his premiership.

"But why," asked the writer, "is unity so hard to establish in China, if both the Chungking Gov't and Communist guerrilla forces want to destroy the Japanese?"

"Perhaps it is best explained by saying that it is an old custom for Chiang to fight the Communists," replied the delegate, "and he has such love for ancient institutions that he will not look at the new moon, out of respect for the old one."

British soldiers who witnessed the capture of Lord Haw Haw gave him the English equivalent of the Bronx cheer. One yelled derisively: "Boys, take a look at Lord Hee-Haw, the man who brayed like a donkey!" Another Tommy (in the group standing at ease) commented: "That reminds me of the time all the donkey-cart drivers in Britain went on strike. They sent a delegation to 10 Downing street, and the man who was spokesman told Winnie: 'We're going to stay off the job until you do something about that fellow in Berlin, named Lord Haw Haw. Our donkeys have been listening to his broadcasts, and now every jackass thinks he can be a radio commentator!'"

According to the best-informed gossip, Joe Davies' flying trip to see Churchill was for the purpose of soft-pedaling the anti-Soviet hysteria which has been emanating from the London-Washington pipeline in recent weeks. Capitol politicos have dug deep into "the guess-what-for" basket. In a discussion between two Administration Senators, one remarked: "I doubt if Davies will be as successful with Churchill as he has been with 'Uncle Joe'."

"Don't worry," counselled the other. "Davies is a wise and honest man. Trouble with most of our diplomats is that we appoint them to avert situations which would never occur if they weren't our diplomats in the first place."

When about to bury Himmler, it's said that a British soldier assigned to the job speculated in ironic vein: "Don't you think, sergeant, that we ought to pay some touching tribute to the deceased?"

"Yes, indeed," mused the top-kick. "I will now say a few words," and he began: "Dear Lord, we are now delivering up to you —" at which point he was stopped by one of the Tommies, who spat and said: "Let's get 'im underground, 'e smells awful!"

To which the sergeant intoned: What do you expect from a skunk —perfume?"

THE LOVE LETTERS OF A COLUMNIST:

In a broadcast from Tokyo, the other day (heard by the FCC) the Mikadomei News Agency heaped praises on Joe Stalin for his "powerful leadership based on Sovietism," which "finally overcame a danger of defeat far greater than the one facing the Japanese at present."

When the item was carried in the Russian press, it was the cause for some ironic comment by the down-to-earth Muscovites. One gray-beard was overheard remarking: "When the fox begins to praise the rooster, and tells him he is a fine bird, the rooster had better be ready to fly for his life."

Ledgemont
Country Club News

By BERT BERNHARDT

The President's tournament, with 32 qualifiers, has already started. First reports indicate that Harry Fowler had a difficult time licking Ben Trinkel, 1 up. Irwin Kane (recently returned from California) found that the good, invigorating Rhode Island climate gave him the necessary pep to dispose of Paul Heymann, 7 and 6. Ben Ruttenberg valiantly struggled to finally top Martin Silverstein, 2 and 1. Murray Trinkle, chairman of the tournament committee, eliminated Morton Smith, 7 and 6. Dr. Archie Albert did a neat job of extracting Al Shore from further competition. Arthur Kaplan beat Nate Samors, 3 and 2. One of the upsets of the week—Al Pilavin 3 up on Lou Stone at the end of the first nine holes. Lou will have to shoot some mighty fine golf to pull out this match! Ten more teams will play off during the week.

Boston Team Visits

Pinebrook Country Club visited Ledgemont last week and took a golf lesson from the home team. But the Beaneaters had a grand day and voted an "E" to Ledgemont for their hospitality. Tommy Masso's orchestra provided the danceable music for the Saturday night hop. Tommy will be a feature attraction during the summer season. Dancing will be held outdoors, weather permitting.

Ramblings

Ben Rossman and Hy Rosen spent the better part of Sunday telling everybody who would listen, the number of fish they caught in Oakland, Maine.....sounded like an inflationary fish market.....Ralph Krauss and pipe, Arthur Kaplan, president of B'nai B'rith, Ed Goldstein, Irving and Jack Fain settling affairs of state.....Kiddie Korner.....Helene Pilavin looking very cute taking lessons from Ledgemont's Pro, Lou Meyers. The juniors are showing better form than the senior players.

Sunday evening on the terrace after a hot round of golf—informal entertainment sparked by genial Hy Cotton, master of ceremonies par excellence, ably assisted at the piano by Moe Borod. Arthur Kaplan helped out with "One Meat Ball". Bobby Borod is a chip off the old block. He knows how to put a song across, too. Dr. and Mrs. Leo Cohen, Sam and Martha Oresman, Bette Rand Berman and little Joey, Mollie Fain, Rene Rapaporte and her parents, Hope, Muriel and Bunny Fain joined in the group singing.

Next Sunday, the 24th, the second Scotch foursome tournament will be run.

Expresses Thanks

DEAR EDITOR:

Permit me to express a few sentiments through your publication in connection with the recently completed Nachlath Roger Williams project.

The consummation of this effort which took place on Tuesday, June 12, at the dinner given in honor of Dr. Uri Berger, did not happen accidentally. It was the result of amazing labor and unstinted devotion given by a number of leading people in the community. But on this occasion I want to salute Mrs. Samuel Michaelson who, since the inception of the project, has been the moving spirit and galvanizing force behind the effort.

In fact, it was her faith in ultimate success that moved the writer to plan such a formidable undertaking. When I offered the thought of associating the name of Roger Williams with some National Fund project in Rhode Island, it was Mrs. Michaelson who immediately proposed a Nachlath Roger Williams, having confidence that the community would spur on it and see it through. Ever since then she labored unceasingly in interesting scores of people to work and to contribute generously. She was personally responsible for the raising of a considerable part of the total funds.

Her enthusiasm and unbounded loyalty to the Jewish National Fund inspired all that rallied around the cause, and she has every right to be proud of the fact that her efforts proved successful. Without her counsel and cooperation even my modest part would have been much more difficult to perform. I am happy to express publicly that both the Jewish National Fund and I personally are truly grateful to her. This cause, which has been her love throughout the years, wishes her well indeed.
