

Faith, Family, and Freedom: Early America Through the Eyes of Two Jewish Women

A Lecture by
Keith W. Stokes
1696 Heritage Group

Catherine and Slowey Hays were part of the earliest Jewish families in America. Their story is one of courage and faith as they formed a strong sense of religious, social and racial justice for all that would transcend their lives from the American Revolution to the Civil War.

Annual Fall Meeting
RI Jewish Historical Association
Sunday, November 4, 2018
2:00pm - 4:00pm
401 Elmgrove Avenue, Providence

