Community To Honor Alter Boyman

Election Board Formulates Plan Berger Named Board Chairman

On Monday evening, the Providence Zionist Election Board met and formulated plans for the elections to the World Zionist Congress, to be held on June 20. It was voted that the following polling places be used to facilitate a large turn-out of votes: Temple Beth-Israel, South Prov. Hebrew Institution, Temple Emanuel, B'nai Jacob Congregation, Jewish Community Center, Barrington—(Dr. Ilie Berger's home) and Narragansett Pier.

Dr. Berger was elected chairman of the Board, with Henry Burt as secretary. Following is a list of those on the Election Board: Morris Beeber, Arthur Korman, Sol Lightman, Harry Chaet, and Mr. Burt, all representing the Poale Zion; Maurice W. Hendel, Jacob S. Rabinowitz and Dr. Berger, representing the Providence Zionist District; Mrs. Saul Abrams and Mrs. Frank Markensohn, representing Senior Hadassah and Miss Claire Ernstof of Junior Hadassah, representing that organization.

Dr. Morton Berman, associated with Rabbi Wise, and director of the Institute of Religion in New York, will address members of the R. I. Jewish Congress and presidents of local organizations belonging to the Congress, on Wednesday evening at the Biltmore Hotel.

"If any organization has not received an invitation," said Mrs. Shoham, secretary, "they are to consider this notice as an invitation to the meeting."

Conditions in Europe, especially those affecting the Polish Jews, will be among the topics that will be discussed. Although plans are not completed, it is expected that several local speakers will also appear on the program. Dr. Joseph Smith, president of the organization, will preside.

Christian Science Progress Reported

Boston — Progress of Christian Science expressed in the organization and recognition of fifty-nine new churches and societies; in sales increases of 66 per cent for the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science; in an increasingly friendly public thought as reflected by legislative bodies when handling measures involving medical and religious freedom; and in much good healing work; featured reports today by church officers at the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist

The drive in this city will start today and continue for two weeks. In announcing the committee Mr. Meller declared: "We hope to

Accident Injuries Result in Death

Palestine Mourns Death of Actor

Tel Aviv (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Playgoers from all parts of Palestine who had been stirred by the performances of Moshe Avital thronged to this city to follow to the grave the coffin of the noted Habima actor who was killed as a result of a bus accident.

The Habima theatre here was draped in black and the Zionist colors were at half mast in tribute to the Hebrew player. Great crowds passed his coffin and many messages of condolence were received by the Habima, including one from the Jewish Agency Executive.

Dress Markings Annoy Fascists

Rome — Objections were raised today by the newspaper, Il Lavoro Fascista, to the use of quotations from Mussolini's speeches as decorative motifs on women's print dresses.

The paper described the dress of one young girl as being stamped all over with "memorable fighting phrases of Mussolini." "The Fascist war cry—A Noi—(Let's Go) was repeated several times," the paper said, "and in some cases was located on the dress where, because of the association of ideas, it took on a meaning, the least of which can be said, was unexpected."

Civic Organizations Arrange Testimonial Dinner for Sunday

Next Sunday evening at half past six there will gather in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel some 500 Jews of Providence for an occasion unique in the history of this city. The event will be a Testimonial Dinner in honor of Alter Boyman by the many organizations in this city with which he has been affiliated for many years, in appreciation of his countless services to them and as an expression of respect and friendship.

Blum Demands Muzzled Press Charge Senate Shackles Reform

Paris — Premier Leon Blum returned to the Parliamentary fray on the first anniversary of his regime today after personally calling on the Senate to approve the governments press reform bill.

Taking conservative Senators to task for amending the bill passed by the Chamber of Deputies, the Premier declared "legislators must not shackle reforms by inertia and resistance."

The Premier demanded that press defamation cases be tried in police courts without juries instead of in assizes where he said the difficulty of obtaining convictions made for the loose enforcement of laws.

While the Senate gave Blum scant applause, the Chamber passed, 420 to 141, a bill extending for six months collective labor contracts and compulsory arbitration of labor disputes.

The working classes represented in the Blum's People's Front, while awaiting more reforms, are celebrating those achieved under the leftist coalition which won a majority in the Chamber elections of 1936.

Zionist Bodies Meet at Hotel

A combined meeting of the Providence Zionist District, Providence Chapter of Senior Hadassah, and Junior Hadassar, will be held on Tuesday evening at 8.15 o'clock at the Biltmore Hotel, at which time Mrs. Archibald Silverman will be the guest speaker.

Philip V. Marcus, president of the Providence Zionist District will preside. Mrs. Saul Abrams, president of Senior Hadassah, and Miss Claire Ernstof, president of Junior Hadassah will address the meeting, stressing the importance of getting out the vote for the elections to the World Zionist Congress, to be held on June 20.

Dr. S. Zemach to Speak at Meeting

Dr. Schumiell Zemach, delegate of the Histadruth of Palestine, will be guest speaker of the Poale Zion and Women Pioneers organizations Thursday evening June 17.

The event will be unique because no particular date calls for its planning and execution. It is not the birthday of the guest of honor, nor does it signalize his election to some high office. Because this dinner is being given without an special cause or motive, but spontaneously, it becomes what is perhaps the greatest tribute that has ever been paid by the Jewish community of this city to any individual. In times when dinners and meetings for this, that and the other cause or reason are so common as to constitute almost daily fare for Providence Jewry, it requires a deep-seated motive to evoke the enthusiastic planning of this event. The motive is to be found in the career of Alter Boyman since he first came to Providence.

It would be impossible either to find the data upon which to base a statement of all that Mr. Boyman has done without months of research or to publish it without devoting several issues of the Jewish Herald wholly to the purpose. Only the highlights can be given in the brief biographical sketch which follows.

Alter Boyman first came to Providence in 1909, twenty-eight years ago. He came from Russia, already well educated in Europe, and particularly well-grounded in Hebrew and the Talmud; but he was nevertheless an immigrant so far as America was concerned. He had to start from scratch, not altogether without handicaps.

He devoted his first few years to becoming acquainted and building the foundations of friendships which have since endured. In 1912 he returned to

At the Theatres

"KID GALAHAD"

With three famous stars heading its cast—Bette Davis, Edward G. Robinson and Humphrey Bogart—a drama of the prize-ring called "Kid Galahad" will have its local premiere today at the Majestic Theatre.

Made from the best selling novel by Francis Wallace, ace sports fictionist, this Warner Bros. thriller deals not only with those elements of the boxing ring with which the behind-scenes maneuvering of fighters and managers.

"The man in the Mirror" with Edward Everett Horton and Genevieve Tobin is the second feature presentation.

"THE MAN IN BLUE"

"The Man In Blue," the Universal picture which opens at Fay Theatre today, is the dramatic story of a policeman who adopts the son of a burglar whom he kills in self defense during a gun battle. It is a powerful, inspiring story of hate and love; of distrust and suspicion; of faith and redemption. Through it is woven a beautiful romance that makes a man's life whole again.

The cop is portrayed by that fine character actor, Edward Ellis. The boy is played by Billy Burrud in the early sequences and by Robert Wilcox in the main situations of the play, while the girl in the story is Nan Grey, one of the "Three Smart Girls."

A great vaudeville show will be presented on the stage.

300 Persons at Paul Robin's Dinner

At a testimonial dinner, held in honor of Paul J. Robin, last Thursday evening at the Narragansett Hotel, United States Attorney J. Howard McGrath, Democratic leader, pleaded for "tolerance" and asked for a better understanding of the "true meaning of Americanism."

The dinner, at which Harry A. Hoffman was toastmaster, was arranged in appreciation of Mr. Robin's ten years service in behalf of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, Rhode Island Post, No. 23. Nearly 300 persons were in attendance. Among the speakers were Wilfred J. Pacquin, chief of the Division of Motor Vehicles, where Mr. Robin is employed; Senator Dennis J. Roberts, and General Henry D. Hamilton.

Alter Boyman

This coming Sunday, some hundreds of the members of the Jewish Community of Providence will gather at the Narragansett Hotel to do honor of Alter Boyman. Planned spontaneously with no special motive such as an anniversary or an election to office to justify its celebration and without money-raising for a special cause to awaken dormant eagles, this Testimonial Dinner is perhaps the most unusual gathering ever held by Providence Jewry.

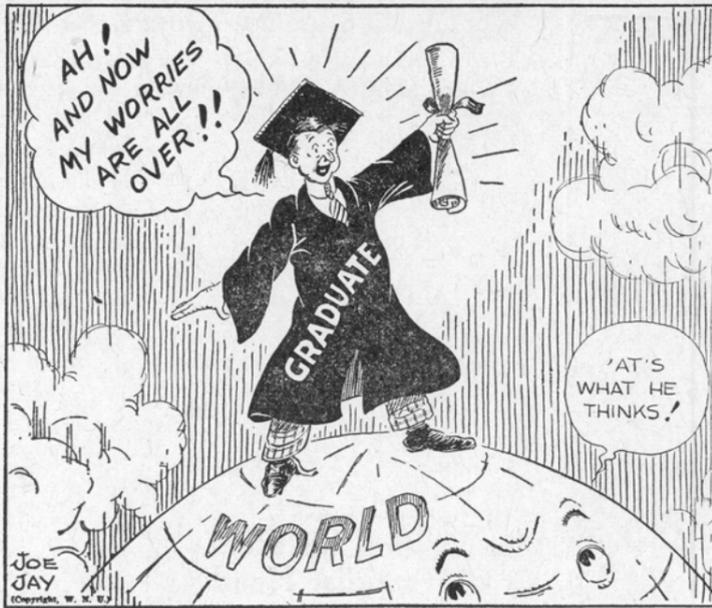

Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews wrote "The Perfect Tribute", a little volume that will live for all time, telling of the reception given to Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—not the thunderous applause usually given to a great oration, but complete silence, so stunned was the audience at the exquisite beauty and power of those few gems of speech so aptly chosen and so modestly presented. Without any special reason, but simply because there lives in our community a man who has unselfishly given his life for the good of others, Providence on Sunday will pay "The Perfect Tribute" to Alter Boyman.

But elsewhere in these pages, we relate the facts regarding this man and this dinner; and Alter Boyman least of all would wish us to devote these paragraphs merely to further praise. That has been done and on Sunday will be done—in the words at Gettysburg—"far above our poor power to add or to detract". But there is a further significance to this gathering.

The lifetime of endeavour by Alter Boyman should serve as an example to many others in this community. He has not merely rendered lip service; he has worked. He has not merely accepted honors and rested on his oars: he has for years done all the running and planning and worrying that is an essential factor in worth-while achievement. If as a result of this dinner, a number of others—especially the younger men in this city—would follow the example and devote their energies, not just for a week, but for years if necessary until a result was genuinely accomplished, the festivities of this coming Sunday would have a by-product that would make "The Perfect Tribute" exceed perfection.

And one more thing. The fact that this Providence Jewish Community can, thus spontaneously, gather together to honor a most worthy individual in this manner is evidence of an enormous amount of dormant energy in our midst. If this same energy can henceforth be used, with equal or greater vitality, to bring about the achievement of many other things in Providence, for the sake of the Jewry of Providence and elsewhere and everywhere, some of them sorely needed, then indeed will this coming Sunday signalize not only a unique event in this city but an historic date. Then indeed will Providence Jewry really do honor to Alter Boyman and to the men like him who give of themselves for the good of others.

Hadassah Re-Asserts Faith in Palestine

Mrs. Frieda Silbert Ullian, member of the National Hadassah Board, in her address at the dinner of the New England Hadassah Convention, held on Sunday evening, at the Biltmore Hotel, said that Jews are determined to re-establish Palestine as the national homeland, even at the expense of having to cope with the problem of economic and social adjustment that would rise out of mass migration to the country. "The great number of Jews settling in Palestine as exiles of Germany and Poland will constitute an overwhelming force for eventual and complete assimilation of Palestine," she said.

Chairman of the dinner was Mrs. S. W. Myers, who was also chairman of the convention. Grace was said by Mrs. Abbott Epstein, and the president's message was delivered by Mrs. Anna Rostler, heading the New England Hadassah Region. Mrs. H. H. Rubenovitz was toastmistress. Music during the dinner was furnished by the Kadimah Choral Society.

Early Sunday morning, delegates, coming from Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, assembled at the hotel for registration and convention sessions. The convention was opened at 10 o'clock by the chairman. Greetings were brought the assembly by Mrs. Saul Abrams, president of the Providence Chapter; Philip V. Marcus, president of the Zionist District; Miss Claire Ernstof, Providence Unit of Junior Hadassah and Mrs. Jack Davis, president of the Council of Jewish Women.

On Monday, at the close of the conference, Mrs. Anna B. Rostler of Lowell, Mass., was re-elected president of the New England Region of Hadassah. Among other officers elected was Dr. Clara Loitman Smith of Providence, named as one of the six vice-presidents.

Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth Israel addressed the luncheon meeting, praising the health and medical work of Hadassah women in Palestine. Mrs. Morris L. Cowen, who recently returned from Palestine, gave her impressions and observations of the work being done there. The convention concluded with the reports of various committees.

Scene Around Town

By JACOB LEICHTER

OPEN SESAME

Came the morning mail, redundant with facts figures and a bit of gossip for yours truly . . . Number one item—a note from Selig and Bea Greenberg, post marked Tel Aviv, in high praise of the beauty, etc., abounding in Palestine . . . Selig's articles, appearing in a local paper, will soon give a more detailed account of the political situation of the Promised Land . . . Also a note from Mr. Stern, J. D. C. official, who with Adolph Mellor, have quietly started this annual worthy campaign in our city . . . It would be well for all of us to dig down properly with a real contribution for same, seeing as how ninety-four cents out of every dollar contributed goes to direct relief and rehabilitation for our unfortunate brothers in Europe . . .

HOUSE PARTY

Also a note from our favorite stooge . . . She, describing well the open house party at the Ben Alpers last Sunday . . . Which, in part, is as follows:—"After helping reduce their stock of liquor and devouring my just portion of caviar, I noticed that daughter, Helen, looked like a bit of Paris in the Spring, clad in chiffon with orchids,—and they were orchids . . . Sally and Charlie Brown, she in picture hat stopped in to congratulate . . . The Morris Bliss's, she wearing a silver fox cape . . . Florence Brier, doing her bit as an assistant hostess . . . The Morris Cohens, who are leaving for points West . . . The Sheins . . . Koplans . . . Louie Kramer, surrounded by female admirers . . . The jovial Lou Fain, and a swarm of others, whom I knew not" . . . E. X. S.

BRIDES TO BE

Apparently June is the month . . . The Rakusins celebrated for daughter, Hannah, last Sunday . . . Eleanor Fishman and Murray Botvin sealed it on the same day . . . This Sunday will see the Ginsberg-Goldstein nuptials . . . Same, by the way, will open the new Weinstein Banquet Hall . . . Jessica Goldman was guest of honor at the 'Gansett last Sunday also—Sid August being the first party of the second part . . . Sadie Weiner and Irving Siegel announced theirs, as well as Beatrice Sorgman and Murray Weinberg . . . AHEAD OF SCHEDULE:—Informed by an aide that the Reichstag was on fire, on that fateful February night in 1933, General Goering consulted his watch and exclaimed: "Already?" . . .

MAN WANTED

In New York, they are looking for a first-class Democrat, with a record of many Anti-Nazi utterances to give LaGuardia a battle . . . Harry Mincoff reports sales for POSTRAMI-TURKEY far ahead of expectations, which broadens his smile, since he gets a rake-off on every one sold . . . Howard Presel proved himself a man of firm convictions in the city government debate, held recently . . . Although the battle went against him, even his political opponents admit he fights a good, clean fight . . .

JUNIOR MUSICIANS

Junior musicians, Joan Sentler and William Gertz, of Providence, were recipients of prizes in recent competition, sponsored by the R. I. Federation of Music Clubs . . . They are pupils of Ida Haminovitz . . . It'll soon be bon voyage for Mildred Wine and Lee Brookner, who are Europeanizing it, with no set destination . . . Sammie Grossman, with a s-well known miss, at the 'Gansett, Tuesday nite, chatting with Ada Cohen and company . . .

SIDELIGHT OF NEW YORK

The Jewish question in Poland is one of the subjects Al Smith was supposed to discuss with the Pope when he was received at the Vatican. But, I wonder . . . The first authorized biography of Leon Blum is now being written by two European journalists . . . "One Man Against Europe" is the title of the second volume of Conrad Heiden's biography of Hitler . . . The New York telephone book contains the names of two Hitlers, twelve Streichers, and four Goerrings . . . The British government is reported to be greatly concerned over the Anti-Jewish ban, in certain Bermuda hotels, but cheer up folks, we can recommend some mighty fine places up in the White Mountains, if you're vacation bound . . .

Community Will Pay Tribute to Alter Boyman

Europe for a visit which included among other things a trip into Palestine.

Returning to Providence in 1913 he began immediately to interest himself in public matters of every kind and character. Devoting himself to the establishment of his own business, he always reserved some time for matters outside the field of making money. In his business career, it is obvious that he has deliberately from the beginning turned away from large money-making enterprises. It is not the least of the characteristics of Mr. Boyman that he has never sought to be rich, that he has minded his own business, has purposely limited its success to the extent of his own needs and requirements, has never asked favors and that he has without question sacrificed a large amount of personal gain in order to give his time to his public interests.

In 1913, Mr. Boyman became a member of Paole Zion of Providence, the labor group of the Zionist movement. Since then he has become its leader and spokesman. In 1917 he joined the Jewish National Workers' Alliance.

When the war broke out, very soon after he came to Providence, Mr. Boyman was one of the very first to join with Col. Harry Cutler in planning for the relief of European Jews by the organization of the American Jewish Relief Committee. When Col. Cutler became R. I. chairman, he was successor as Providence chairman, and led in the raising of thousands of dollars for relief.

In 1921 he became a member of the R. I. Workman's Beneficial Association, became its president in 1923 and for ten years since 1928 has been chairman of its Advisory Board.

In 1922 he became a member of the building committee for the Jewish Orphanage of Rhode Island and occupied an outstanding part in the raising of funds and the erection of the present outstanding institution.

In 1923 and 1924, after already serving for ten years as a member of the Board of Directors of the Hebrew Free Loan Association, he served as Vice President, and in 1925 he became its President.

In 1924 he helped to organize the National Labor Committee for Palestine and inaugurated its popular "Third Seder" which still continues.

In 1924 he took a leading part in establishing the South Providence Hebrew Institute. He was for a time chairman of its Educational Committee, and when unable to find a suitable teacher of Hebrew, he undertook the task of teacher himself.

In 1925 he assisted in the organization of Miriam Hospital and was elected first vice president in 1928, an office which he still holds. He has often been called executive vice president. Mr. Boyman devotes several hours every day to the business of the hospital, and is probably more largely responsible for its active management than any other individual.

In 1932 he became a director of the Jewish Home for the Aged, was active in its building campaign and construction, and is now chairman of publicity.

He is now chairman of the Advisory Board of the Providence Section, American Jewish Congress, was delegate to the A. J. C. in 1919 and was elected delegate to the World Jewish Congress in 1935.

Since 1925 he has been a director of Jewish Family Welfare Society and is now a member of its Executive Committee and its Vice President.

He is also a member of Touro Fraternal Association, New England Council of the Jewish National Fund, South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association Board of Directors, Jewish Federation for Social Service, Providence Council of Social Agencies, and doubtless of many other organizations which the Herald has not been able to determine at the time of going to press.

Speaking of Women On Do's and Don'ts, for the Summer Vacation Season

By EDYTHE JAY

With June hardly thru, bidding a fond farewell to May, and July getting ready for a thirty-one day reign, why don't you—

Get your permanent, so that by the fourth your hair will have that look "au naturel" . . . Start assembling a colorful beach wardrobe—but colorful . . . Do lots of bicycling and take off some of those mean little things that tip the scale the wrong way . . . Plan your vacation now—whether you want the kind that will let you rest, or the kind that'll make you forget the meaning of rest . . . Shop for summer gowns, and buy this one—and that one—"and the other one, too, please" . . .

Start (at this early date) your bank account for next winter's cruise . . .

DO AND DON'T

Get in closer touch with your friends (personal and/or casual), so you can have a perfectly swell social life this summer . . . Be thankful you're alive in this grand world . . . Shorten all your dresses and don't walk around looking like the acme of 1936 . . . String your three-strand pearls, and wear them lots in the summer, as a striking contrast to your tan, and as a pleasant complement to your very white teeth . . . Wear a large moire hairribbon to a picnic, and get that naive feeling out of your system . . . Buy some costume that zips closed from top to tip, and get the thrill of what a quick change means . . . Be a real patriot, and wear a red, white and blue shirtmaker blouse on the fourth day in July . . . Either finish or start "Gone With the Wind," and make your good intention a fact . . .

MORE "SHOULD DO'S"

Buy some delightful, airy eau de cologne, and let your heavy perfume retire until "Sept-ober" . . . Quite properly push up your long sweater sleeves when you get warm—or excited . . . Try going around with a shiny, unpowdered glow on your face, and see if they all laugh . . . (Footnote: They won't) . . . Renew your auto license—if it's due, as so many are in June . . . Get orange make-up, if you plan to tan . . .

LAST SUNDAY'S RESULTS

Beery A. C. 18, R. I. Workmen 4.
Orioles 8, Kavodians 6.

The Beery A. C. and the Eaton A. C., undefeated members of the Jewish Inter-Club Baseball League, chalked up victories last Sunday and continue to top the league standing. The Beerys trounced the R. I. Workmen's Assn., 18-4, at Dillon Field while the Eatons scored a shutout over the Providence Fraternal Assn., 6-0, at Roger Williams Park. The Orioles gained an even break in their four starts by stopping the Kavodians of Fall River, 8-6, at Davis Park.

This Sunday at Hopkins Park at 10:30 o'clock the Beerys and the Eatons will fight it out for the League lead, and a fine contest is in the offing. Last year these clubs split even in two games during the regular season, with the Beerys winning the play-off game for the League championship.

At Dillon Field at 10:30 o'clock the spirited Orioles pay a visit to the newly formed R. I. Workmen's Assn. nine. The Orioles are playing winning ball again, while the Workmen club promises to improve weekly.

The Providence Fraternal Assn. travel to Fall River to meet the Kavodians. This game is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock at Lafayette Park.

Between the Lines On Disarmament, and Contradictory Evidence Concerning Hirsch's Death

By WALTER RUTMAN

PETTY REVENGE

A jar of ashes is all that remains of Helmuth Hirsch, the 21-year old Jew who was guillotined by Hitler's henchmen. The charges of old Jew sprayed into a concocting fog by Nazi propaganda-men somehow seem artificial. Even the U. S. Government is unconvinced; and Ambassador Dodd has been instructed to obtain a copy of the charges against Hirsch.

An examination of known facts results in the following contradictions:

(1) Hirsch entered Germany on a passport visaed by German Consular authorities in Prague who would not have permitted him to leave Czechoslovakia if they suspected him of planning the death of a Nazi leader;

(2) Hirsch, who fled from Germany when the Nazis came into power could not have returned to the Reich if the Nazi secret police were not interested in getting him there;

(3) His visa identified him as "a stateless Jew" hence he could not have obtained the visa unless there were persons who wanted him to get it;

(4) When the German Custom authorities examined his baggage at the border they found no dynamite; but on his arrest in Stuttgart dynamite was allegedly found in his belongings; it would be insane for anyone plotting an assassination by dynamite to carry it with him while crossing the border;

(5) Hirsch was a known opponent of terrorism, having publicly criticized David Frankfurter;

(6) Hirsch was not a member of any political group;

(7) Hirsch was arrested with two other men, one of whom was executed the same day the Jew died; but the third, whose name was never made public, was secretly freed.

These facts would indicate that Helmuth Hirsch was the victim of a Nazi frameup. Friends of Hirsch point to the cremation of Hirsch's body, without his family's permission, as evidence of having been brutally beaten during the months he spent in prison.

It is hardly likely that any investigation into the where's and why's of Hirsch's death will get anywhere. "It's done and what are you going to do about it" attitude on Germany's part will discourage any attempts to obtain the real truth.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Weinstein will open their new restaurant and banquet hall, Sunday June 17, 1937, at 205 Weybosset street, Providence.

Fifteen years ago the Weinsteins started in the restaurant business at 156 North Main street, and a few years later moved to a location downtown, where they remained until they leased their present location at 205 Weybosset street. They have always run a Kosher restaurant, and will continue to do so now. They have been noted for excellence in cooking and catering service.

The new restaurant occupies two entire floors, and has been beautifully decorated. With a seating capacity of over six hundred people, it will be the largest Kosher restaurant in Rhode Island. The main dining room occupies the first floor, with the banquet hall on the second. Equipped with a dance floor and wedding canopy, the banquet hall also has a movable stage for orchestra. In the main dining room, Mr. Weinstein has installed a complete cocktail bar and delicatessen counter, which will be under the supervision of Max Rosenberg.

The new restaurant will feature daily specials from the delicatessen counter, with regular luncheon specials, as well as a full a la carte menu. Mr. and Mrs. Weinstein extend a cordial welcome to all their old friends and customers.
