Mme. Lupescu on "Vacation"

Mme. Lupescu (shown here on the right of King Carol) has found it Convenient to "vacation" in Paris while anti-Semitic Goga is in power. It is sort of poetic justice for Mme. Lupescu, as Carol's sweetheart, wielded great power in Roumania. She utilized it however for her own gain and is reputed to have amassed a large fortune. A short while ago she flirted with the anti-Semitic Iron Guard and was roundly condemned for her actions.

Goga Turns Table on Carol's Favorite; Jews in Despair

Vienna.—Mme. Magda Lupescu, King Carol's sweetheart for years, and for whom he once renounced his right to the throne, is expected to leave Rumania soon for a long "vacation" in France. The reason: her Jewish descent.

Accession of Goga to power as Premier has prompted her trip abroad for at least three months, according to information received from Bucharest. Some reports have it that she has already left the country secretly. It is understood that whatever part of France she will go to, French Secret Police will co-operate in concealing her identity.

It is noted that Rumania's new government has brought a sharp business slump to Jews. Jewish merchants have almost stopped placing orders because of uncertainty, and were selling their existing stocks without ordering replacements.

Jews are crowding into synagogues, while cantors are singing "Has Chivenu," a chant reserved for times of great persecution, and Premier Goga prepares more decrees of Jewish suppression.

Two Grave Diggers Shot in Palestine

Arab Families Desert Village

Jerusalem—Two Jews, father and son, were shot and seriously wounded near Herod's Gate. Professional grave diggers, they were returning from the Jewish cemetery on the Mount of Olives where they dug graves early this morning.

Families from the village of Taybeh, near Tulkarem, arrived at Jaffa, carrying their possessions, and asserted that the village had been deserted because of a collective fine of $10,000 imposed by British authorities in penalty for ambush of British troops.

The fine was the result of an attack by thirty armed men on a British troop convoy.

It was disclosed that eleven Arabs, killed in a clash with police on the Trans-Jordan frontier, all died of wounds from one British Royal Air Force airplane bomb.

Anti-Nazis Convene in German Capital

Opposition Leaflets Sent to Thousands

Make Plans for "Fight for Freedom"

Berlin — Anti-Nazis, bringing their undercover fight into the heart of Germany, have held a secret convention in Berlin to discuss methods of conducting a "fight for freedom."

Anonymous letters contained the assertion that anti-Nazis held the first congress of the "Reich opposition" here with thirty-seven delegates attending, and for two days discussed means of fighting Feuhrer Hitler and his regime.

It was asserted also that tens of thousands of anti-Nazi pamphlets published for the first time in Germany proper, had been distributed. Inclosed in the letter were two samples.

These contained extracts from foreign newspapers criticizing the Nazi regime, as well as original contributions denouncing the foreign and domestic policy of the Nazis. The articles concentrated on war scares, difficulties of obtaining foods and raw materials and alleged extravagant spending by the Nazi upper caste.

Educator Outlines Training Program

Dr. Howard Wood, principal of Roger Williams Jr. High School, outlined a program of education as conceived by the Junior High Schools, consisting of training in character as well as in special aptitude and also teaching children of the special age group of 12 to 16 years how to adjust themselves socially to each other, at the annual Sisterhood Membership Luncheon, held at Temple Beth Israel last Monday. Twenty-two new members were admitted at the luncheon.

Mrs. Barney Taber, president, announced Mrs. Samuel Ernstof as captain of the Sisterhood United Palestine Appeal Team. Mrs. Anna Goldenberg, chairman of the Chanukah Supper recently held, reported a profit of $85 from that affair.

Nazis Acquitted by Court of Appeals

Geneva—Although proven to be forgeries of a Russian monk, the "Protocols of Zion" were decelared not to fall within the law against seditious literature in a ruling handed down by the court of appeals of the Canton of Berne.

The ruling resulted in acquittal of Nazis who had been charged by Swiss authorities with acts tending to incite race hatred.

Decisions of the appeal court was from a verdict by the lower court rendered in May, 1935, not only declaring the "Protocols" as forgeries but declaring those responsible for their distribution as guilty of violation of the laws of the canton. The defendants argued that the "Protocols" had been distributed in a political campaign and that under such circumstances the distribution was legitimate.

The original action was brought by the Jewish communities of Switzerland against the Swiss National-Socialist League.

Composer Mourns for Song Hit Which He Sold for a Song

This is a story out of Tin Pan Alley about a composer who sold the song hit of the day for a paltry $30 and about his aged mother who fasts in a synagogue from sunrise until she sees the first evening star, in an attempt to wash away this mistake with tears and prayers.

You will hear this song today if you turn on your radio—it's a lilting tune that gues itself to your memory and is called, "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen." Somebody is going to make a fortune out of it, but it won't be Sholem Secunda, who wrote it and who tried to reason with his mother in her Brooklyn home this week and tell her about contracts and the law.

Can't Grasp Contract

"But it is your song." Mrs. Anna Secunda said over and over again to her son in Yiddish. "What is a contract? You wrote it, and I know you wrote it, and my friends say to me Sholem should have a million dollars soon for that song. And I want you to have a million dollars."

Mrs. Secunda is seventy-six and speaks no English. She believes that somewhere along the years of her life, which began in Russia, she sinned against God and that now the wrath of God has been poured upon the head of her son. She does not know what that sin could have been, but last Saturday spent the day in a synagogue where no water nor food passed her lips, trying to purchase forgiveness.

"I wrote the music for that song in 1932," Secunda said. "It was for a Jewish musical comedy that opened in New York, and then toured the country. Last month I happened to want some copies of it, but my music publishers, J. and J. Kammen, said they were all gone. They suggested I sell them my rights and offered $60 for "Bei Bist Du Schoen" and another song. I took it and we signed a contract, yielding my rights. I'm not complaining about the contract, because it was all perfectly legal.

"But then somebody wrote some English lyrics to the tune, and a few weeks ago Guy Lombardo broadcast the song. You know what happened after that."

What happened after that was that "Bei Mir Bist Du Schoen" became the song hit of the day —as popular perhaps, as "The Music Goes Round and Round." Radio orchestras play it and it is heard in movie houses that have vaudeville programs. People on the street walk along singing and whistling it.

J. and J. Kammen said they planned to "do all right by Secunda" as soon as royalties start rolling in, but meanwhile no one can explain to Mrs. Secunda why her son has to keep working in the Yiadish Art Theatre, where he says the most he can ever earn is $75 a week. "She always figured that she was sort of a partner in my composing and often tells me that some of my songs are similar to lullabies that she improvised when I was a child. I hope she doesn't go back to the synagogue to fast, because I'm afraid she can't stand it. The only thing I can do is send my wife along to sort of look after her."

A Contented Human Race? Never, Neurologist Hopes

New York—It'll be a dangerous day for the human race, in the opinion of Dr. Foster Kennedy, neurologist, when science harnesses man's emotions.

He is confident, nevertheless, that such a day will come.

Neurologists have pretty well determined that the hypothalamus, a portion of the mid-brain, controls human moods, he said, and some day they will discover how to regulate the hypothalamus.

The danger of such a discovery, he explained, would be in the temptation to make everybody contented.

Mystery Surrounds Store-Keeper's Death

H. Weiss Found In Back of Store

Hyman Weiss, 65, of 38 Olney street, proprietor of a small variety store at 250 Orms street, was found dead in the back room of his establishment by police last Wednesday night.

Police and firemen struggled to save him with a respirator, but were unsuccessful. Doctors William A. Magill, Charles J. Ashworth and John A. Picozzi, medical examiners, hurried through autopsy at the Rhode Island Hospital because police feared the man had been strangled or smothered, since his head was covered with a pillow and rags. The examiners' report was that the man had died of heart collapse, lobar pneumonia, hardening of the arteries, and kidney disease.

However, police are seeking two young men seen by two small girls as they visited the store. Lillian Levine, 13, of 12 Winsor street and Helen Higgins, 13, of 255 Orms street, told police, they had stopped in the store to get some soda. Lillian noticed that a shabbily dressed man, about 30, was behind the counter. She told him she wanted some soda, whereupon he asked her for the money. "My mother has it—she's outside," said Lillian, and returned to where Helen waited.

"I heard someone moaning in the back room," Lillian said to Helen.

See Pair Leave Store

The two little girls waited there, and in a little while, the man who had waited on her and another about the same age, came out. Helen was "afraid to look up," but Lillian watched the pair until they disappeared behind a big tree on Winsor street, which runs off Orms street right there.

Someone saw Mr. Weiss lying on a couch in the back room and called police.

Firemen Saw Pair

John G. Johnson and John E. Sullivan, attached to Hose 12, Smith street, said they had seen two men in the neighborhood who fitted to some extent the description given by the two girls.

Besides his daughter, Rose, Mr. Weiss leaves his wife, Mrs. Ray Weiss; another daughter, Mrs. Ann Korst; and four sons, Morris, John, Nathan and Samuel Weiss. He was a member of the Louis Fine Association.

Theatre Attractions

MAJESTIC

A musical comedy, attractively set, well directed and photographed, "You're a Sweetheart" starring Alice Faye and George Murray is the feature attraction at the Majestic Theatte this week. A publicity stunt to create interest in a new show is the basis of the story. Around the lovely Alice Faye a variety of clever specialty numbers have been constructed. "Prescription for Romance" with Wendy Barrie and Mischa Auer, the second first run feature, tells the story of the gratitude of a woman doctor for a kindness shown her father which impels her to harbor and defend an embezzler.

ALBEE

The combined efforts of several excellent comedians and an engaging pair of romantic actors result in a diverting comedy, "She's Got Everything" starring Gene Raymond, Ann Sothern, Victor Moore and Helen Broderick, now showing at the RKO Albee Theatre. The story tells of the attempts of an impoverished girl to better herself by becoming a private secretary. "Wild Innocense" with Chut, a kangaroo and Brian Abbott, the second first run feature, is a film of unusual beauty and sustained interest. Filmed against an Australian background, this production outclasses "Sequoia" the only other photoplay ever remotely comparable to it.

Crooner vs. Classics

Classical music took the count of ten in the first bout of the British-Italian propaganda battle for the support of the Islam world.

England's recent decision to combat Italy's wooing of Arabs resulted in thousands of radio sets being distributed free to Arabs. The catch, of course, was this. The British set could only be tuned to English stations.

Italy, in the meanwhile, was active. They too, handed out thousands of receivers which only could be used for Italian stations.

On the first program Great Britian presented a program of Arabian speakers, a news broadcast and a concert of classical music.

Astute Mussolini, however, experienced in appealing to the emotions, presented songs by Abdul Wahab, favorite crooner of the near East.

After listening to present day topics and speeches, the Arabian customers, in disgust, turned the British radios off when the classical program was begun. They then changed to their Italian radios and absorbed avidly the songs of their favorite crooner who program was interspersed with Italian propaganda given in Arabian.

Thus, it appears as if the first round has been won by the canny Italians whose imagination and knowledge of human weaknesses has been too-much for British stodginess.

Allowed $40 Each by Hitler, 29 Jews Here to Tour N. Y.

New York—Twenty-nine Jewish tourists—the first group allowed out of Germany since Adolf Hitler moved in—set out to see twelve days of New York on exactly $40 apiece, because that is all they were permitted to take with them for their "big holiday in Manhattan."

The party arrived, paradoxically enough, on the Normandie last week—ten women and nineteen men, all adults, averaging in age around 40. They are merchants and professional people on their first trip to America. With one exception, they speak no English, and nobody mentions a word about Hitler.

"No Politics, Please"

"Please, please, no politics," he begged Dr. Heinz Wohlmann, the English - speaking woman in charge of the tour. "If you print one word about politics there will be difficulties. These people have families and homes in Germany. What is more, they have lives to live when they get back. Please understand the position in which we are placed."

They must go back—all twenty-nine of them. That is part of the bargain. Even if one of the younger, unmarried members of the group hoped to join relatives, wed and settle down here, that is "verboten."

Like a Dream

Mrs. Wohlmann, whose doctorate is of law, is a thin studious woman and has a distinct fear of saying anything which might be interpreted as anti-Nazi. "We are happy with our freedom," she said simply. "This is the biggest holiday anyone could have invented. Think of it! New York with Radio City, the new tunnel, theatres, shops and night clubs. It is like a dream."

"Freedom?" the reporter asked. "Theatres, shops and night clubs? Twelve days of it? How, on $40?" The smile disapeared. "We shall manage," she stated resolutely. "Would you like to stay in New York always?" The doctor's face brightened. Glee danced in her eyes. But only for a fleeting second. "No," she said soberly. "No, I do not think I should like to stay here at this time."

4th Year Critical For Most Marriages

New Haven.—The fourth year of marriage is the critical year, according to a report of a ten-year survey by Dean Charles E. Clark and Professor Harry Shulman, of the Yale Law School. A larger percentage of divorce suits were instituted by persons approaching their fourth anniversary than in any other year, the report said. The fifth and sixth years also were dangerous, the report said.

In two-thirds of the cases wives were the complainants. The most common ground was desertion.

Jews Having Trouble Getting Into Mexico

Mexico City.—Difficulties placed in the way of American Jewish tourists by some subordinate Mexican government officials have been added to the anti-Semitic drive against foreigners, it was indicated by complaints received by the Jewish Chamber of Commerce and Der Weg, Yiddish daily.

One Jewish tourist from the United States reported that an immigration official told him, "We already have enough Jews in Mexico and we need no more." Another was asked for a $300 guarantee which is illegal.

Propaganda

While England is preparing to counteract Italy's anti-British propaganda broadcasts to Africa, and politicians are beginning to realize the possibilities of Amateur Radio, a new form of propaganda is being brought to the attention of these Radio "Hams"

On page 66 of the magazine QST, devoted entirely to Amateur Radio, is an ad by a radio-tube manufacturer. A sample newspaper called Sun is reproduced. Want Their Money's Worth In Nickel-a-Day Tenement

New York—The bearded landlord of Berman Arms—three bare rooms in an abandoned tenement at 182 Clinton street, near Grand —today faced the first strike of his three-months career as a nickel-a-day rental agent.

His two tenants—middle-aged derelicts like himself—have cut off his ten-cent daily income and say they'll pay no rent until they get heat. There are other complaints, of course—their only source of light is a candle; the ventilation is poor, and the furnishings, culled from ash-heaps of the lower East side, are far from satisfactory.

Firewood Is Demanded

But they could have got along all right, if the landlord, Jacob Berman, had stuck to his promise to gather firewood, the strikers say. Berman developed a sore foot, however, and had to quit prowling the neighborhood for cast-off boxes and packing cases—and the rickety old stove he'd provided from somewhere finally went cold.

A social worker, endeavoring to straighten things out, learned that Berman, fifty-two, a native of Minsky, Russia, had paid 10 cents a day for the privilege of occupying a cot in the flat until it was condemned four months ago and the tenants moved out. But Berman stayed — picking up enough change to meet his only expense, the purchase of candles, and relying on his poor but sympathetic neighbors for scraps of food.

After a month alone in the building, he conceived the plan of renting out the two extra rooms to two old cronies of his, who eked out a living as peddlers, and had formerly lived in the house. Assured of a dime a day, Berman had been living from hand to mouth until his foot began to trouble him.

Nazis Threaten Retaliation for Boycott

Reich Residents Will Suffer, They Say

Threat Based on Incident Here

Berlin—"Jews abroad ought to be more cautious how they treat Germans abroad," the Nazi storm troop organ, the SS Man, said today in an editorial.

"If they are not, we may remember their impertinence against our foreign Germans as regards Jews in Germany, and then a big wall will be raised again and there will be stories about the naughty Nazis."

The editorial was based on three letters, one by Jewish war veterans, two by a joint boycott council, alleged to have been sent to a German merchant in New York City. The letters, one signed "Burman," the others "Tennenbaum," were reproduced in facsimile. They purported to ask information whether the addressee was handling German merchandise or using Nazi ships.

"For reason of safety to the body, life and family of this German," the magazine explained, the merchant's name was withheld.

Budget Shows Working Girl Can Dress on $196 a Year

The working girl in the State of Rhode Island needs eight dresses a year, including a party dress, according to a recently compiled budget of minimum clothing needs.

She needs twenty pairs of silk stockings a year, four pairs of medium quality shoes, plus a pair of party slippers that must last two years.

For adequate living—that is, to retain her job and enjoy herself socially—she requires a new winter coat every third year and a new spring coat every second year. She should be able to buy three pairs of gloves a year, two inexpensive handbags, a dozen handkerchiefs, and to add unmentionables, five pairs of panties, four slips, three brassieres, three nightgowns, rubbers, overshoes, umbrella and raincoat.

There are other items, of course, such as bathrobe, kimono, bedroom slippers, skirt and blouse and sweater. All these things, and a few more included in the annual clothing expense of a working girl, total at $196.81.

It was pointed out that proper grooming and keeping clothes well pressed and neat is a bigger factor than variety in wardrobe. Also, the clothes problem depends on the type of employment. If a girl works in a filing department, she doesn't have to be as well dressed as a girl who sits at a reception desk.

Go ahead, girls, figure away! Are you spending too much or too little to keep up with Dame Fashion?

Mrs. Harry Foster, chairman of Ways and Means, announced this week that her committee has been working on a money-raising project for the purchase of shoes and stockings for needy children. These articles are distributed three times a year by the Social Service department.

Poale Zion Hears David Wertheim

Says "Partition is Best Answer Now"

David Wertheim, national secretary of the Poale Zion, attacked the "vacillating policy" of Great Britain in Palestine, in his address before the members of the local Poale Zion last Saturday night at Zinn's banquet hall.

In discussing the question of the partition of Palestine, he said that under the circumstances it is the best answer to the problem now. He scored England, however, for changing its policies to the Jewish national homeland too often.

Several song selections were presented by Cantor Jacob Waid, accompanied by Arthur Einstein. Max Berman, chairman of the Jewish National Workers Alliance, and Philip Potash, greeted the guests.

United Palestine Appeal Opens Campaign

Archibald Silverman Elected Chairman

Review Conditions In Palestine

Archibald Silverman was elected general chairman of Rhode Island for the 1938 United Palestine Appeal, at a meeting held in the Biltmore Hotel last Sunday afternoon, attended by more than 500 persons. Samuel P. Lazarus and Max Winograd were elected associate chairmen; Samuel M. Magid, honorary vice chairman; and Morris Espo of Pawtucket, Arthur Darman of Woonsocket and Judge Robert M. Danin of Newport, vice chairman. Dr. Ilie Berger was temporary chairman.

Ittmar Ben Avi, luncheon guest and principal speaker of the afternoon, told of Palestine's need for money, and reviewed the history of the Zionist movement for creation of a democratic State in Palestine. He said that the appeal this year comes at a psychological moment, when the dream of a democratic state is nearing reality.

Other speakers were Dr. Berger, who opened the meeting; Mrs. Archibald Silverman, who introduced Mr. Ben Avi; Dr. Israel M. Goldman of Temple Emanuel; Rabbi Morton Silverston of Woonsocket; Philip V. Marcus, president of the Zionist District of Providence; Mrs. Saul Abrams, president of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah; Arthur Darman, Samuel M. Magid, Samuel Cokin of Pawtucket, and Mr. Winograd.

Samuel Michaelson was elected chairman of the initial gifts committee, and Louis Hurwitz, co-chairman; Mrs. Nathan Temkin, chairman of the women's division; Dr. Berger, campaign director; James Goldman, treasurer; Dr. Goldman, chairman of public relations; Henry Burt, secretary; and Mrs. Morris W. Shoham assistant secretary.

ARCHIBALD SILVERMAN

Benjamin M. Kane was named chairman of the advisory board, and Alter Boyman, executive committee chairman. Vice chairmen of the board are Mrs. Saul Abrams, Morris Beeber, Philip V. Marcus and Mrs. Samuel Michaelson.

The report of the credentials committee showed 45 organizations from four cities with 228 delegates behind the appeal. All were pledged to put Rhode Island "over the top" and again lead the United States in raising money for Palestine.

Center Membership Goal Set At 500; Purposes Outlined

Last Wednesday evening more than 125 workers met under the leadership of Samuel P. Lazarus, chairman, and Mrs. Samuel A. Markoff, co-chairman, in the opening Rally for 500 new members.

There are about 25 teams with five workers or more on each team supervised by a captain. Mr. Lazarus, campaign chairman, issued an appeal for members stating, "I feel that the Center is as important as any other agency in the city and it deserves the support of every Jewish man and woman. The dues are so small that everyone can afford to be a member."

For the benefit of the solicitors and for the Jewish community the following answers and questions have been prepared:

1. WHAT IS A JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER?

It is a democratic, supervised Jewish leisure time cultural agency, for the child, the youth, and the adult of both sexes. It is a community "town hall." It develops personality, perpetuates Judaism, and cultivates citizenship along sound progressive educational lines.

2. WHY MEMBERSHIP WHEN THE COMMUNITY FUND CONTRIBUTES TO THE CENTER?

The Providence Community Fund contributes only a part of the budget. The Fund expects the Center to raise some $5000 by membership and other means to meet the financial requirements of a full and balanced program. Because of assistance from the Fund the membership fees are considerably below those of similar agencies in other Centers. The Center is a vital force in Jewish life and as a primary instrument, it is the duty of every Jew to lend his support whether or not he participates, thereby making the Center possible for others, particularly YOUTH.

(Further questions and answers will be published next week).

- All Accessories for Winter Driving Comfort.

Here's Why FIRESTONE STANDARD TIRES GIVE YOU MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

DON'T take chances on your Labor Day trip. Protect yourself and family by equipping your car with a set of new first-quality Firestone Standard Tires. Firestone builds extra quality and extra safety into these tires and sells them at lower prices because Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping Process. YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because there are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra-tough, long-wearing tread.

You need all of these features to make your car tire-safe on your Labor Day trip. Firestone gives them to you at lower cost. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW

THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 36,000 men, women and children?

THAT a million more were injured?

THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

At right is section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see by actual demonstration.

At left is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blowouts and skidding.
