Kuhn Back Reports German Jews 'Happy'

New York — Returning from a seven weeks' visit to Germany and Austria during which he said he didn't meet Hitler or any other Nazi government official (he also denied meeting Fascist leaders in France and Belgium), Fritz Kuhn, national fuhrer of the German-American Bund, delivered himself of a pronouncement in which he said, among other things:

The Jews in Germany are perfectly happy under Hitler; in his talks with Jews everywhere in Germany he was told to tell the Jews in America "to let us alone."

The Bund doesn't admit Jews as members "because the Communist leaders here are Jews, but we never personally fight the Jews," etc.

Bund Opens Drive for Formation of German Bloc to Advance Nazi Ideas

Center Players Will Present "Squaring The Circle" Tues. Night

The Center Players will present the play "Squaring the Circle" at the Plantations Auditorium Tuesday evening, May 17. Although this play, from the pen of Valentine Kataev, was first produced eight years ago, it is still a "sell-out" in Moscow, Leningrad, and other leading Russian cities. In America, of course, it enjoyed a successful run on Broadway, where it was advertised under the slogan, "The Laugh

Bisgyer Sees Peril In Dictatorships

Washington—Maurice Bisgyer told the B'nai B'rith convention that a growing danger to Jews is seen in "a steady expansion of the areas of dictatorship and a corresponding contraction of the areas of democracy."

Bisgyer, executive secretary of the organization, said it has 60,689 members, compared with 35,328 five years ago.

Dr. A. L. Sachar of Champaign, Ill., director of Hillel Foundation on University campuses, declared: "Economic competition always brings some difficulty for minority groups. Jewish youth will be most affected after 1940."

YIDDISH PAPERS

Montreal—Five hundred copies of the Toronto Kampf and New York Freiheit, Yiddish Communist papers, were seized here by the authorities acting under the Quebec padlock law, in a raid on a local distributing agency. Material for an article on Anti-Semitism was also confiscated.

Kuhn Seeks Political Unit to Achieve Aim

Campaign Apparently Directed by Berlin

New York:—Fresh from a trip to Berlin, Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German-American Bund and so-called American Fuehrer, has launched an open drive for formation of a German bloc to advance Nazi aims in the United States, it was disclosed today.

In a statement of principles in the Deutscher Weckruf, official paper of the Bund, Kuhn called on Bund members to "oppose all atheistic teachings, the abuse of religious liberty, Jewish Marxism, labor movement preaching class hatred, international rackets of high finance and racial intermixture between Aryans and non-Aryans."

Launching of the apparently Berlin-directed campaign coincided with a legal attack on the Bund by the Disabled War Veterans of America, which resulted in warrants being issued for the arrest of all six officials of Camp Siegfried, a Nazi summer camp at Yaphank, L. I.

Kuhn's statement, printed in German on the front page of the Deutscher Weckruf, said in part: "The building of a German bloc is the fundamental work of the Bund that means flatly the conscious rejection

Renew Demand for Jewish Army Unit

Jerusalem—It is essential that Jewish units of a military character be created to help fight terrorism, Isaac Ben Zvi, president of the Vaad Leumi, declared at the session opening the Assefat Hanivcharim, Jewish Representative Assembly.

In the discussion of the need for enlarging the defense power of the Yishuv, Mr. Ben Zvi described the resistance of the Yishuv as heroic and gave support to the Jewish Agency's demand for the formation of Jewish defense units.

Scathing Attack On Albert Einstein Made by Chicago Newspaper

Chicago—In a recent issue of the Chicago Tribune in the section devoted to the "Voice of the People," a letter appeared written by a certain George Stevenson, with a scathing attack upon Albert Einstein.

The substance of Mr. Stevenson's letter revealed his intense opposition to President Roosevelt's plan to aid Jewish victims of Nazism in Austria and Germany. He declared that none of these victims should be admitted to this country, saying that they are all communists. In this connection he referred to the eminent scientist, Professor Einstein, claiming that he had participated in a Communist Congress in 1929.

The Tribune so enthusiastically endorsed Mr. Stevenson's attack upon the greatest man of science in the world today that it wrote an editorial sustaining Mr. Stevenson's assertions.

In reference to this charge, Prof. Einstein issued the following statement: "I never was in Russia and never participated in any party congress. It will be interesting to know that this lie, initially spread in Germany, is now being repeated from those sources."

Gives Up Party for Anniversary To Send Money to Kin in Poland

Hartford, Conn.—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mandell had a 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday but they didn't have any party.

They could have had one if they wanted to, but Mrs. Mandell didn't feel like celebrating. You see, she has two brothers living in Poland who are having a terribly hard time trying to eke out an existence in the midst of violent anti-Semitism.

So she couldn't forget about them even on the happy day of her silver anniversary. She kept thinking of her own happiness, contrasting it with the misery of their lot.

So instead of a party Mrs. Mandell decided to take the money

BENEFITS OF NAZISM

The Nazi program, leaned heavily on appeals to the lower middle class, the independent small business men, as do all Fascist programs. One of their promises was to break up the big department stores and trusts, so as to provide more business for the little fellow. The latest from Berlin is interesting:

In order to meet the labor shortage, the Reich Unemployment Board foreshadows the coming out of small retail and independent craftsman enterprises, the aim being to compel them to liquidate and transform the proprietors into wage earners in the state fostered industries. Along this line, last year witnessed the disappearance of 7,000 Berlin retail stores, which number represented one-sixth of the total operating.

Here in New York the benefits of Nazism was shown in a different manner. Severin Winterscheid, a lieutenant of Fritz Kuhn in the Nazi movement in Yorkville, was arrested for molesting a little girl in a Brooklyn Theatre. On January 14, on a previous complaint, Winterscheid was sentenced to thirty days in jail for indecent exposure. This man, who was former contributing editor to the Deutscher Weckruf und Boebahcter, New York Nazi paper, has done much to foster the Nazi philosophy of "Joy Through Strength" in this country.

From the above it can readily be understood why we must prepare an antidote to the Nazi poison now being disseminated throughout the country.

Stander Talks Himself Out of An Interview About Himself

New York: Lionel Stander is a nice guy, but he's a little nuts. He's a Hollywood actor—according to the critics a fine comedian—but he won't talk about himself. He'll talk about Roosevelt and politics. He'll argue about LaGuardia's chances of becoming President. He'll get indignant about housing conditions in Harlem.

But, given a chance to blow his own horn, he doesn't take it. That's against all the rules of Hollywood. However, he talks fast and he talks good. He does it without benefit of press agent, so he must mean it.

Socially Conscious

He's a big fellow, bigger than he looks on the screen. One of his eyes is brown, the other blue. He looks like a stevedore with a haircut—except for his hands. They're long, as are his fingers, and narrow. And he's socially conscious.

"Hollywood has changed a lot in the last four-five years" he said. "German actors and writers have come there, refugees from the Nazis. Some do all right. Some do badly. Others die of broken hearts. Things like that make you ask questions. Up till things like Hitler happened, all that most of Hollywood knew about Europe was that they had movie studios there and that some of the foreign countries put American films on a quota.

Dictators Is Economics

"Now they know more. They know that art—that goes for the movies, too—can't exist in a dictator-run country. You have to be free to be an artist, and you can't afford to be apart from the fight for freedom. Of course that isn't the way most of the boys and girls learned about dictatorship. They learned it the hard way, through the pocketbook. Hitler came in and the movies went out of Germany about the same time.

"The only place to go was Hollywood. That's when Hollywood learned a little economics. Mostly it learned the law of supply and demand. There were soon a great many technical specialists in Hollywood. More than enough to go around. The same was true of actors and writers. Supply up, prices down. That's how Hollywood learned about economics."

About $2500 Salaries

Stander stopped and borrowed a cigarette. He lit the cigarette, put the borrowed matches in his dressing gown pocket. "Do you know that 40 per cent of Hollywood actors make less than $2,500 a year? That's true. Sure it's nice to make $300 a week. It's not so nice, though, when you make it only when you work—and you work only six or eight weeks a year." Stander took another cigarette and then put the pack in his pocket.

Please, Mr. Stander, say something about acting. "Sure," he said, "I'm obliging. Do you know the best actor in New York? Mayor La Guardia." And then Stander went into a long tirade about Mr. La Guardia's savoir faire in public office.

Stander is a chain smoker. He

"Dark Tower" to be Presented on May 24

Under the direction of George Wetherald, Repertory Players will present on May 24, at Barker Playhouse "The Dark Tower," a three-act melodrama by Alexander Woollcott and George S. Kaufman.

A clever mystery, the play centers itself around a promising actress, and her scoundrel husband who casts a sort of hypnotic spell over his wife, a la Svengali. His Trilby who walks about very much in a trance is always at his side, ready to wait upon him hand and foot. The complications that develop make it a revel for those literate playgoers who like their spines chilled in a subtle and fascinating manner.

Morton W. Saunders is stage manager for the production. The cast will be published in a later edition of The Herald.

Crowbars Used in Shul Control Fight

had the pack in his hand and took a fresh smoke out. "You know," he said, "I used to be a reporter. I guess you want to ask me some questions about myself." The reporter said: "Oh, to Hell with it." Stander is a nice guy but he's a little nuts.

Were those leaflets, passed out at the BILTMORE May 4 intended for whom?, and why doesn't that party admit it?... the B'NAI B'RITH will install SYD HANZEL again as president Monday nite at the Jewish Home for the Aged, with BENJAMIN SHOOLMAN of Boston as guest speaker.... The ladies are cordially invited to attend... The boys are planning to stagger ARCHIE SMITH... This week's favorite gag: The family and its guest had just seated themselves at the table... "Susie," said Maw, "why didn't you put a knife and fork at Mr. McKlunk's place?"... Replied little Susie: "He don't need any, Maw... You said he eats like a horse..."

IT'S IN THE AIR

In line with local campaign:—Soft-voiced GEORGE GERBER made it his business to go out and find a job for a GERMAN refugee and still won't admit he did it... That happy table at SHEPARD'S cafeteria shines bright because all the ladies at it are sporting dazzling sparklers... Attention B. A. G.:—The fever is still running between that non-Aryan looking pair... Not one person in fifty can tell you who GABRILO PRINCIP was... He's only that lad that assassinated ARCHDUKE FERDINAND and supposedly touched off the World War... GEORGE ERNSTOF has entered the laundry business and is ready to do a job on all your clothes.

MUSSOLINI'S NUMBER

War-wise BERLINERS don't take much stock in the ROME-BERLIN axis... "Do you know," they ask, "that MUSSOLINI'S telephone number is BLEIBTREAU 1915?" BLEIBTREAU is a BERLIN local exchange, like BRYANT in NEW YORK... And 1915, graybeards will recall, is the year that ITALY turned on the double-cross for GERMANY... A SWISS introduced a GERMAN to a friend, whom he described as a SWISS admiral... "But what," the GERMAN demanded "does SWITZERLAND want with admirals, since she has no navy?"... Retorted the SWISS: "Well, after all, in GERMANY you have a MINISTER OF JUSTICE..."

REPERTORY REPORTS

The REPERTORY group is diligently working on "THE DARK TOWER," with BORIS PRITCHER, EVELYN SIEGAL, SARAH FEINBERG, and FERGIE WACHENHEIMER in the leading roles... Add mouthful:—How'd you like to be the switchboard girl in WASHINGTON office who chirps, "Good morning, this is the law firm of COVINGTON, BURLING, RUBLEE, ACHESON AND SHORR?"... PIERRE DUPONT is insured for more than five million dollars... and I'll bet the insurance companies hope that he's careful around his powder works... The DANISH theatres are ballyhooing "THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1938," in which LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI appears, with this slogan, "See the Man Garbo Loves..."

J. D. C.

Word from J. D. C. headquarters brings to light the fact that there is a shortage of drive workers... From what I hear there is plenty of money waiting to be collected... Now is the time for some of you matinee bridge hounds to do a bit of good... Your presence at the Monday noon luncheon will get you started on the right path... Not a bad idea!—A famous Southern dining club guards against long-winded after-dinner speakers by placing a ten-pound piece of ice in the hands of a man when he's called to speak, and making him hold it... The result is usually a spiel of about two minutes or less...

FRONT LINE NOTES

NEW YORK'S police department is quietly checking on all members of the GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND to see how many of them have permits to carry guns. About three hundred of them carry weapons, but so far only three are known to have permits... LADY ASTOR is one of the ringleaders of the PRO-HITLER bloc in ENGLAND but her kinfolk here are violently ANTI-NAZI... VINCENT ASTOR has dropped the word "VIENNESE" from the name of the ROOF GARDEN in his ST. REGIS HOTEL... And his sister, ALICE MURIEL, makes no bones about her anti-Hitler feelings, since she's married to RAIMUND VON HOFFMANNSTAHL, son of the late HUGO VON HOFFMANNSTAHL, the celebrated AUSTRIAN JEWISH poet... A new FASCIST magazine is to be published shortly under the guise of an anti-New-Deal sheet... It'll be edited by HAROLD VARNEY, who boosted a Fascist paper which went out of business... You'd need a truck to carry the report of the DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE'S investigation of the GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND... It contains twelve encyclopedia-size volumes...

JDC Issues Appeal for Workers

Plenty of Cards Yet Available, Says Kaplan

Three Fifths of Quota Raised

Samuel Kaplan, chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee local campaign, Adolf Meller, chairman of the Initial Gifts Committee, and Saul Abrams, chairman of the appeal team, issued an appeal today for additional workers, so the quota for $20,000 can be reached.

"We have raised $12,000 thus far," Mr. Kaplan said today, and we have sufficient cards for the remaining $8,000 if only we had the workers to go out and solicit the people whose names are represented on these cards. Young or old, men or women, we can use them all. Those concerned with our plight, can secure cards for solicitation on Monday noon at Zinn's restaurant."

A mass meeting was held last Wednesday night by the Joint Distribution Committee at the Sons of Zion Congregation on Orms Street. Speakers at the meeting were Rabbi David Werner, of the Sons of Zion Congregation, Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth El, and Samuel Kaplan, general chairman of the local campaign.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements included Morris Cohen, Isador Friedman, William Hanzel, Julius Kasanowitz, Zolman Bernstein, Israel Halpern and Israel Kaufman.

Theatre Attractions

FAYS

"Rascals," a lightly constructed vehicle, starring Jane Withers, with Rochelle Hudson, Robert Wilcox and Steffi Duna, is the screen attraction at Fay's Theatre this week. The juvenile star gets a chance for some gypsy caravan rowdiness, flower-stealing and pocket-picking. The stage show at Fays is headed by the celebrated comedian of the screen, Pinkey Lee, assisted by a large cast of singing and dancing stars.

MAJESTIC

Picturesquely filmed in technicolor, "The Adventures of Robin Hood," is the screen attraction at the Majestic Theatre this week. With Errol Flynn filling the role of the gallant outlaw of Sherwood Forest, and Olivia De Havilland portraying the beautiful Maid Marian, this picture of exciting adventure is one never to be forgotten. Rounding out the excellent cast are Basil Rathbone as Sir Guy of Gisbourne, and Claude Rains as Prince John. Short subjects complete the bill.

ALBEE

Co-starring Ginger Rogers and James Stewart as a new romantic team, "Vivacious Lady," a fast-moving comedy, is the current feature at the RKO Albee. The breezy story concerns itself with the early marital troubles of two newlyweds, one of whom is a reticent professor of botany at a small college and the other a vivacious night-club beauty, born and reared in the dizzy whirl of Broadway. The second feature at the Albee is "Law of the Underworld," starring Chester Morris. As an added attraction the Albee presents the current "March of Time."

MAURICE SCHWARTZ TRIUMPHS AGAIN!

"The Brothers Ashkenazi" is an even more ambitious and lavish production than was the Yiddish Art Theatre's memorable "Yoshe Kalb." Which is high praise indeed!

—ROBERT COLEMAN, Mirror
"Mr. Schwartz and his associates are actors who achieve their effects broadly!"

—JOHN MASON BROWN, Post.

"Full of life and rich in the sort of vivid details that made Mr. Schwartz's production of the same author's 'Yoshe Kalb' one of the memorable things in the theatre!"

—JOHN ANDERSON, Journal-Amer.

"A greater contribution to the Yiddish stage than 'Yoshe Kalb'!"—Daily News.

Kuhn Seeks Political German Bloc in U. S.

of the countrywide notion of the melting pot.

"It cannot be, and it is not, the intention of the Bund to import National Socialism as practiced in Germany. On the other hand, we have no ground for abandoning the idea that most of this German philosophy has a practical application in our America.

"For the German American Bund the chief task is to deepen the German conscious attitude. This is Point 1 in the program of the Bund. "When the American of German blood becomes race-conscious, he will form a bloc which need no longer be regimented, but will become instinctively, automatically and forcefully a political unit. That is Point 2.

"The third point is the assuring of cultural and social importance of Americans of German blood. This is to be accomplished by the preservation and development of existing German cultural and economic institutions and the restoration of lost strongholds in these fields.

"The bund thereby departs completely from the way of the Germans heretofore in this country who had nothing of the race-consciousness and political influence."

Jewish Drama At Playhouse Sun.

Maurice Schwartz and Samuel Goldenberg as "The Brothers Ashkenazi" which will be presented at the Playhouse Theatre Sunday Matinee and evening, May 15. A powerful drama of a family's fortunes during the 19th century, "Brothers Ashkenazi" presents a panorama of Jewish life in Poland during the rise of industrialism in that country. The passions, hopes and loves of the brothers and those with whom they come in contact make up the thread of the story. Expert characterizations by a large and excellent cast makes "Brothers Ashkenazi" truly a great play.

Advices Farming be Taught Jewish Youth

Also Urges Teaching of Various Trades

New York: Jewish youth must be taught to live by agriculture and by working at trades, instead of by merchandising, to assist in overcoming anti-Semitism, Colonel Joseph H. Levey, acting chairman of the British ORT, told the Midtown chapter of the American ORT Federation in a speech this week.

"To abandon the Jewish youth, to fail to teach them handicrafts or to train them for work in industry and agriculture means to condemn them to poverty even in a society free from anti-Semitism," he said. "It means to bring up a generation of superfluous crippled human beings; it means despair and misery."

Colonel Levey is in New York to assist a campaign to raise $450,000 to provide technical and agricultural training for European Jews. He recently made a tour of many European countries, investigating conditions of the race.

Citing conditions in several countries, but especially in Poland, he said the eastern European Jews, are well aware of the need to train their youth for occupations other than trading in order to meet the crisis.

Serum Dash Made by Fabricator of a Most Heart-Rending Tale

New York—The thrilling serum rescue dash of Arthur Korp, or at least of the man who said he was Arthur Korp, remained a complete mystery this week to airline officials, police and doctors, but Arthur—if it was Arthur—apparently had a lot of fun out of it.

Korp, or the man who gave his name as Korp and the address 241 Central Park West, chartered a special plane in London, Ontario, last week, flew to Buffalo, boarded an American Airlines plane for Newark and arranged for a police escort from Newark to the Holland Tunnel.

He explained that he was speeding a rare serum to save the life of his sister, Mrs. Roslyn Ruin, also of 241 Central Park West, who was represented as being critically ill with diphtheria.

He mentioned to a fellow passenger that the rare serum was a wheat germ oil.

A taxi sped him to the Central Park West address, at a cost from Newark of $7, and Korp disappeared into the apartment house. Word of the rescue dash got around and inquiries began. Mrs. Rubin did indeed live at the Central Park West address, it was found. But, she was out playing bridge that night, and said on her return home that she felt fine and didn't have diphtheria.

Dr. Bernard L. Cinberg, who was represented by the serum racer to be his sister's physician, was out of the city on a fishing trip, a secretary at his office asserted.

And the wheat germ oil is a common product, readily available in quantity in New York City, valued for its content of some of the less readily available vitamins, but quite useless as a treatment for diphtheria. So what? So, someone's completely "tetched in the haid" and it sounds as if it might be Arthur!

A TASTY TOMATO RAREBIT

(Presented to the readers of this paper by the HEINZ Experimental Kitchen.)

For a substantial supper dish, you can't beat this snappy Tomato Rarebit. It takes Ketchup—rich and tangy flavored *Tomato Ketchup—to give a supper dish such full bodied savor. 4 tablespoonfuls butter, then add 4 tablespoonfuls flour and cook until bubbling.

Add

2 cupfuls milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened.

Add

1/3 cupful *Tomato Ketchup
1/2 teaspoonful salt.
Dash pepper.

Continue cooking slowly until cheese melts. Serve at once over crackers or toast cubes. Serve with mixed vegetable salad, hard rolls. *Pure Apple Butter and beverage for a quick luncheon or supper.
