On Condemning

It may be trite, but certainly it is valid to point out that while one may deplore Nazism and reprobate the acts of Hitler and his zealous supporters, it is going far beyond the bounds of reason to hate every German.

We may disagree emphatically with the President's policies and, for that matter, his whole philosophy of government. Many people do. But if we are broad-gauged citizens we should be fair enough to credit him with earnestness of purpose and the accomplishment of some things, at least, that have been of benefit to the country.

Is it reasonable, is it even good common sense, is it something to proud of — is it not rather a thing of which to be ashamed — that an increasing number of intelligent people should condemn other human beings in the mass because of their political principles or their race, or their religion, or — God help them! — their poverty?

On Guard

As the war necessarily occupies the minds of all thoughtful people, Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, in a letter to the nationwide membership of the Conference, quite properly urged the necessity of keeping an eye on our own problems, which remain as pressing as ever.

All of the old problems are still with us. All the seeds of discord whose harvest Europe is reaping are here and need only fertile soil and cultivation to quicken into growth. To prevent these seeds from taking root in a moment of nurtured negligence, America must now, more than ever, guard her democracy with a jealous eye. A European war is a ready-made instrument upon which the forces of discord in this country may too easily play.

The only way the American way of life has and will continue to be a beacon light for all the world to see is through constant work to maintain that way of life. Not for one instant must we here in America relax our vigil. The opportunity to display coolness under fire has never confronted us more forcefully. To permit the undermining of our democratic principles of living while war wages across the seas would be well nigh fatal.

Let it never be said that Americans have let their own house burn down while watching a fire in their neighbor's barn. —The American.

Belgians Issue New Anti-Alien Measures

BRUSSELS. — New laws regarding the rights of aliens in commerce and industry in Belgium have greatly affected the Jewish population. The new laws, embodied in a recent decree published by the Official Gazette, authorize the Minister of Justice to revoke residential permits held by aliens and give him the power to use his own discretion in making arrests and internments.

A Parliamentary bloc representing the Belgian middle class decided at a conference, attended by the Minister of Economy, to ask the Belgian Government to prohibit aliens from opening new business enterprises.

All Day Program Arranged To Signalize Anniversary

Dr. Joseph Dunner, author and traveler, will be the principal speaker at the 35th anniversary celebration of the Rhode Island Workingmen's Beneficial Association to be held Sunday afternoon and evening at the Arcadia Ballroom, it was announced today by Sydney J. Hoffman, general chairman.

Dr. Dunner recently returned from Germany and a tour of Eu-

Rabbi Schussheim To Address Masada

Rabbi Morris Schussheim will be guest speaker at a meeting of Masada, to be held next Thursday evening, November 2, 8:30 o'clock, at Temple Beth Israel. Walter Chucin is program chairman.

Miss Edith Lipsey has been appointed chairman of a bridge, to be given by the group in the near future.

All young folks interested in joining the organization have been invited to attend the meeting next week.

Reich Grabs Radios Belonging to Jews

NEW YORK. — The New York Times correspondent in Prague reported that hundreds of Jews trudged the streets of Prague to their synagogues bearing their radios.

The Gestapo had ordered all radios in Jewish hands turned in. Meanwhile, leaders of the Jewish community distributed new registration cards to Jews on orders from the Gestapo indicating that some form of compulsory work service is planned, the dispatch said.

Lazarus Emphasizes Need Of Larger Gifts to Fund

A total of $376,656 or 57.8 per cent of its goal was reported at the mid-weekly luncheon of Community Fund workers held at the Biltmore Hotel last Wednesday noon.

Samuel Lazarus, chairman of the Jewish Liason committee, reported that his team had raised $13,885.50 or 69.43 per cent of its quota.

"There is a widespread but false impression," Mr. Lazarus said after the luncheon, "that the campaign will easily reach its goal. We must not only match our contributions of last year but increase them by a minimum of 15 per cent if our quota is to be obtained. I urge everyone to consider the fact that the Community Fund goal will be missed by more than $20,000 unless they increase their donation to the fund."

"The Fund drive will end Tuesday, October 31, and I hope at that time we can report that Providence has met the challenge that our 40 agencies have given us."

Center Renovating Contract Awarded

Milton C. Sapinsley, chairman of the building committee, announced this week that contracts for the renovating of the Jewish Community Center has been awarded to A. Kelman & Co. Work is to begin immediately. The official laying of the cornerstone will take place on the Center grounds, 65 Benefit street, on Sunday afternoon, November 19, at 3 o'clock.

A request that pledges to the building fund be paid as soon as possible was made by Center officials this week.

Status in '40 Fair Asked by Palestine

NEW YORK. — Status of a national exhibit in the 1940 World's Fair was sought this week by the Jewish Palestine Pavilion.

The plea for recognition as the exhibit of an independent country, disclosed by Meyer Weisgal, director of the pavilion, was backed by the contention that Jewish Palestine is a legally constituted homeland and is so recognized by fifty-one nations.

Weisgal made public a letter from Governor Lehman expressing hope that Palestine participation would be resumed in 1940.

Mrs. J. Eisenstein, Musician, To be Emanuel P.T.A. Guest

Mrs. Judith Eisenstein, musician and composer, of New York, will be the guest of the Parent-Teachers Association of Temple Emanu-El at its opening meeting Monday night, October 30, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Eisenstein will lead in a community singing period.

Mrs. Eisenstein is instructor of music at the Teachers Institute of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. She is the author of a popular volume entitled "Gateway to Jewish Song."

In addition to Mrs. Eisenstein's appearance, a special Parents' Class Night Program will be given at which the parents of the following five classes will occupy in the classrooms the chairs of their own children: Confirmation, Grade 5, and Grade 1 of the Sunday School; and grades 1 and 4 of the Hebrew School. The teachers of these classes will conduct a regular class period with the parents as pupils.

Dr. Joseph Smith, president of the Parent-Teachers Association, will preside.

Chairman Named for Beth-Israel Committee

With Mrs. Jacob Licht as chairman, and Mrs. Benjamin N. Kane as co-chairman, plans are rapidly progressing for the annual dinner-dance of Temple Beth Israel, to be given on December 12 at The Stork. Mrs. Aaron Cohen is secretary, and Mrs. Barney Kenner, treasurer.

It was reported this week that John Baker has accepted chairmanship of the Journal Committee, and will be assisted by Barney Taber, as co-chairman, and Coleman Zimmerman.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to free the Temple of its mortgage indebtedness.

FOREIGNERS HELD

ROME. — All foreign Jews in northern Italy are being systematically rounded up by Italian authorities who are releasing only those who are able to prove that they were prepared to leave the country within a short time. It was reported that eight Jews, seized in Turin, were escorted to the German border although information about their fate was not available.

Questioning Follows Threats, Vandalism

Broke Windows In Jewish Store

CHICAGO. — Dr. Homer Herman Maerz, twenty-five, identified by police as the Chicago leader of the Silver Shirts, Fascist-inclined organization, was under arrest with two associates and will be questioned about terrorism aimed at prominent Jewish businessmen.

Maerz testified before the Dies Committee investigating un-American activities during a recent closed hearing in Chicago.

They were arrested after four plate-glass windows had been broken with bricks at a branch of the Goldblatt Brothers Department Store, one of the largest retail houses in Chicago.

The Goldblatts received a threatening letter six weeks ago, which, their attorney said, denounced Jews and demanded $50,000. Its border was stamped with swastikas. It had been reported at Police Headquarters that a threatening letter also was received six weeks ago by a prominent Jewish jeweler, but he declined to discuss the report.

Allies Decline Aid Of Palestine Legion

LONDON. — There is little likelihood of acceptance by the British Government in the near future of Jewish Legion or Jewish units to fight with the British forces in the war, authoritative sources stated this week.

There is subsequently little possibility that the authorities here will take any action with regard to Dr. Chaim Weizmann's offer, on behalf of the Jewish Agency, of Jewish manpower for war. Jewish plans had envisaged Jewish units composed of refugees and others fighting on the western front.

"Ghetto Province" Planned by Hitler

PARIS. — Chancellor Adolf Hitler intends to set up a "Jewish ghetto province" on former Polish soil in which all Jews of the Reich, Danzig and the Corridor would be concentrated, informed sources said this week after the Fuehrer's Reichstag speech proposing "regulation" of the Jewish question and reshuffling of populations.

The proposed Jewish region, it was said here, would emulate the anti-Jewish methods of Tsarist Russia, where Jews were restricted to live in a "pale of settlement" in certain sections of Russia and were forbidden to enter cities in the interior.

TO EXTEND AID

GLASGOW. — Financial assistance will be extended to refugees from Germany among the Athenaeum survivors, it was announced by the Scottish National Council for Refugees.

Warsaw Jews In Desperate Straits

Now Excluded From All Trades

BERLIN. — Thousands of victims of the German devastation of Warsaw still are buried beneath the debris, two Americans reported this week after a five-day tour of the ruined city.

William MacDonald and Homer Morris, representing American Quakers, toured Warsaw in preparation for the Quakers' relief program there.

The city's Jews comprising 30 per cent of the population that totaled 1,300,000 before the war, are compelled to live on their own resources, while the National Socialist welfare organization distributes 250,000 hot meals and 300,000 loaves of bread daily to Germans and Poles. The 15,000 members of the German minority receive extra relief and clothing and other necessities.

Adolf Hitler's anti-Semitic policies are taking effect in other ways also MacDonald and Morris said. A decree last Thursday excluded Jews from leather and textile trades in which they had been strongly represented, particularly at Lodz.

Gangs of workmen, mostly Polish prisoners and Jews, are cleaning the streets.

Jewish Problem To Be Discussed

Informal talks on Jewish Literature and Contemporary Jewish Problems, will be inaugurated at the Workmen's Circle School, 29 Snow street, on Friday night, November 3.

Groups will meet each Friday night, November through March, for study and discussion, under the direction of Berel Segal, teacher of the Arbeiter Ring School.

APPOINTED

NEW YORK. — The York Committee for Jewish Education announced the appointment this week of Dr. Alexander Dushkin as executive director of the committee which is expected to begin functioning next year. Dr. Dushkin, a former director of the Chicago Bureau of Jewish Education.

Obituary

NATHAN WHITE

Funeral services were held on Monday for Nathan White, 59, of 175 Peace street, who died suddenly on Monday at his home.

Born in Austria, Mr. White had come to this country as a youth. For the past forty years he had conducted a scrap metal business. He was a member of Temple Emanuel, the Jewish Home for Aged, Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and B'nai B'rith. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Jennie Lisker, White; two sons, Leonard and Sanford; a daughter Mrs. Henry Stampel, and a brother Abraham, all of this city, and another brother, Ellie, of Kansas City.

Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman officiated.

Happy Birthday, Says First Lady

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt cuts a birthday cake for B'nai B'rith as Henry Monsky, president of B'nai B'rith, looks on at a luncheon tendered by the Women's Auxiliary of Argo Lodge of B'nai B'rith in Washington on the occasion of the Auxiliary's first birthday and B'nai B'rith's 96th.

Sisterhood President Appoints Committees

Committee members were appointed by Mrs. Harry Davis, president of the Sisterhood of the Congregation Sons of Abraham, at a meeting of that group held on Wednesday afternoon.

The appointments were as follows: Educational Committee: Mesdames Morris Gold, Joseph Bernstein, Raymond Weintraub, Morris Kirschenbaum and Morris Katz. Bazaar Committee: Mesdames Nathan Dress, Rubin Berenbaum, Joseph Berenstein, Morris Katz, Samuel and Morris Kirschenbaum, Harry Leach, Tillie Reuter, Harry Leach, David Kelman, Morris Gold, Reuben Woolf, Irving Goldenberg, Samuel Gorden and Nathan Kaplan.

House Committee: Mesdames Nathan Dress, Israel Goldstein, and Nathan Wasserman.

Rabbi Nathan Taragin, guest speaker for the afternoon, outlined the social-cultural activities of the Sisterhood for the winter months.

The next regular bi-monthly meeting of the Sisterhood will take place at the Synagogue on November 8; it was announced.

Italian Paper Threatens Reprisals

ROME. — Attributing the "improvement" in Soviet policy to a purge of the Jews by Joseph Stalin, the extremist newspaper Il Resto del Carlino declared that democratic policy in France, England and the United States was controlled by Jews.

"If we have to take up arms, ours will be a Fascist war, proletarian and anti-Semitic, and we promise that the Jew will pay dearly for the bloodshed he has caused," the paper said.

Terrorist Bands Plunder Villages

NEW YORK. — Ukrainian bands are said to be terrorizing a small section of Poland at the base of the Carpathian Mountains, according to a dispatch sent by the Associated Press correspondent at Berezki, Poland, on the Hungarian frontier, revealing that Jews and Poles alike were being slaughtered in battles between the Ukrainians and Polish police.

In the village of Mikolajow, between Lwow and Stryj, the Ukrainian terrorists butchered racial Poles and Jews — men, women and children — until driven out by Polish cavalry fleeing before advancing Nazi troops.

Demand Recall of Pro-Nazi Mayor

NEW YORK. — Recall action against Mayor Henry Snyder was started at a public meeting held in Waukesha, Wis., following charges that the Mayor delivered a rabid pro-Hitler, anti-Semitic speech during a recent festival of the Germania Singing Society of Waukesha, according to information received here.

"It wouldn't be a bad idea to have Hitler for a while," the Mayor is charged with saying. The news of the Mayor's desire for Hitler's rule in America aroused indignation. Mayor Snyder is sixty years old, of German descent, a former Presbyterian minister, but now in the grocery business. His accusers point to indications of his cordial relations with the Nazi Bund and the Coughlinites.

Seize Jews' Lands, Hungary Nazis Ask

BUDAPEST. — Hungarian Nazis today demanded confiscation of several hundred thousand acres of land owned or rented by Jews.

Their official newspaper, Magyarsag, accused the Government of weakness in handling the Jewish and land problems, and said "many Jews who long ago ingratiated themselves with the Hungarian aristocracy" had been permitted to retain thousands of acres each despite land reform laws.

Il Duce Continues Prejudice Drive

ROME. — An indication of Premier Benito Mussolini's unrelenting attitude toward the Jews was revealed in his speech to a group of Fascist Party leaders from Bologna when he declared that it was necessary to put an end to the activities of all "remaining Freemasons, Jews and friends of foreign lands."

"Freedom Station" Opposes Hitler

NEW YORK. — Among the "ten commandments" broadcast to the German people in opposition to the Hitler regime by an illegal German plant known as the "Freedom station", was one urging that Germans make no race discrimination; to regard Jews as human beings. Another urged that Germans help victims of "Hitler," a United Press dispatch from London said.

Refugee Council Will Limit Task

To Resettle Only Pre-War Exiles

WASHINGTON. — An agreement on the scope of the Intergovernmental Refugee Committee's work has been reached, it was learned this week.

The committee will proceed with the short range program of resettling the 200,000 to 300,000 pre-war refugees now in Europe. It will not consider at this session President Roosevelt's proposal for a program looking toward the resettlement of an expected 10,000,000 to 20,000,000 war refugees, but will hold itself in readiness to consider the plan if and when it becomes necessary.

British and French members had objected to the President's proposal on the ground that one of their war objectives was the elimination of persecution which makes forced migration necessary.

Self-Named Hitler Decides to Retire

CHICAGO. — Raymond Joseph Healey has "given up" his Nazi-fascist-Coughlinite activities and is residing here as a "respected citizen" by his own admission. He said he intends to become a devoted church member, and will devote the rest of his life to writing a book about how "the Nazi Bund ruined my life."

It was disclosed that Healey had attempted to raise funds in New York to continue his anti-Semitic and Coughlinite publication The Key but had failed. Healey had obtained subsidies from such men as Howland Spencer, of Krum Elbow fame, William Blanchard of Florida, and Court Asher of Muncie, Ind., who still lends financial assistance to a number of anti-Semitic publications in this country.

Reich Adds 5 P. C. To Fine on Jews

BERLIN. — A 20-per cent levy, imposed on the property of Jews in vengeance for the assassination of a Nazi diplomat, was raised to 25 per cent so that the total fine should reach the required 1,000,000,000 marks ($400,000,000).

The extra 5 per cent is payable November 15.

It was assumed that the sums collected under the original levy had fallen short of the $400,000,000 set.

The levy was imposed November 12, 1938, after the assassination at Paris of Ernst vom Rath, German Embassy secretary, by seventeen-year-old Herschel Grynszpan, a Polish Jew.

CURB PAYMENTS

JERUSALEM. — Palestine banks, closed last weekend by Government order because of the international crisis, reopened this week and were expected to be restricted to paying 15 per cent of deposits. Three British battleships arrived in Haifa harbor. Russian and Greek steamship lines to Palestine were suspended and ships en route were recalled.

Levinson Named Celebration Chairman

Samuel H. Levinson has been appointed chairman of the committee arranging for the 35th anniversary celebration of the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, and installation of Rabbi Morris G. Sirk. Max Charren was appointed treasurer, and Jacob J. Honigblum, secretary.

The committee has announced that both occasions will be celebrated during Chanukah, and will conclude with a banquet on December 17. Committee have been appointed to take charge of the program, printing and publicity. The next meeting of the group will be held on Monday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

Palestine Predicts Change by Britain

JERUSALEM. — Many Jews and Arabs expressed belief that when the European war is ended Britain will alter her announced program for establishing an Arab-dominated state in the Holy Land.

In any case, they said, Britain is too busy now to carry out the present plan, which Jews have assailed as setting up a "territorial ghetto" by limiting them to one-third of the Holy Land population.

The signing of the British-French-Turkish mutual assistance pact and Italy's assertion that she will stay neutral as long as possible have reduced tension.

SOUP KITCHENS

PARIS. — The Federation of Jewish Societies here has announced that free soup kitchens are now serving approximately 3,000 Jews. For those families unable to attend the free soup kitchens, arrangements have been made by the Jewish Societies for the issuance of cards with which free provisions may be obtained at neighborhood Jewish stores.

CKLW BARS COUGHLIN

DETROIT.—In view of Canada's declaration of war against Germany, broadcasts sponsored by Charles E. Coughlin's Social Justice magazine have been cancelled by radio station CKLW of Detroit and Windsor, Ont. The announcement, according to informed sources, was issued because the station considered the radio priest's broadcasts as pro-German.

In the absence of Rabbi Taragin, Mr. Leach extended greetings to the gathering.

Essay Contest to be Sponsored by Club

A Men's Club Prize for the Religious School of Temple Beth Israel, amounting to fifteen dollars, will be awarded for the best essays on the subject, "What The Jew Did For America," it was announced this week by William E. Lipson, president of the Men's Club.

At a meeting of the Club, held on Thursday night at the Temple, Rev. Allen T. Claxton of Trinity Church, and Rabbi Morris Schussheim were guest speakers. In his address, Rabbi Schussheim stressed the need for a unified attitude of the various departments of the Temple.

A feature of the Club is the bowling league, which meets every week, with approximately sixty men and a large number of women participating.

A program of Jewish music will be presented at the November meeting of the Men's Club, it has been announced. James Fine, vice-president, is in charge of arrangements.

Y. P. L. Arranges Season's Activities

Rapidly gaining in its membership drive, the newly organized Young People League of Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, met on October 19 at the Synagogue.

Dudley J. Block, chairman of the group, appointed a program committee, to plan for the forthcoming open dance and social. A committee was also appointed to aid the Synagogue proper in arranging its 35th anniversary celebration, and the installation of Rabbi Morris G. Silk.

Archibald Silverman

Appeal Made For Increased Donations

Following his talk before Community Fund workers at the Butmore Hotel last Monday noon, Archibald Silverman, member of the executive committee of the Liason Committee, issued an appeal for more increases from annual givers and greater coverage of those who thus far failed to contribute to this worthy cause.

"Reductions and not increases have been the rule," Mr. Silverman said, "and unless this trend is reversed, the 40 agencies which are dependent upon this drive will have to curtail their activities next year. We cannot fail the thousands of citizens who are dependent upon these agencies for aid and encouragement."

Brown Bear to Meet Princeton Tiger Sat.

Defeated by Colgate and Holy Cross in the last two starts, the Brown eleven will journey to Princeton Saturday in an attempt to score its major triumph of the season at the expense of the Tigers.

Dissatisfied and chagrined by the Red Raider and Crusader losses, in which the Brown backs rolled up a total of 25 first downs and 311 yards without scoring a single point, the Brunonians are driving hard this week in an effort to develop a scoring punch for the Princeton contest.

In all likelihood the Brown starting lineup Saturday will be the same as against Holy Cross, with Tom Nash and Bronislaw Stepczki both expected to be available to give the Brunonians full strength for the second time this season.

Prominent Zionists To Address Meeting

Prov. District To Meet Nov. 5

Three speakers will address the first meeting for the current season of the Providence Zionist District, to be held on Sunday evening, November 5, 8:15 o'clock, at the Crown Hotel.

Mrs. Archibald Silverman, recently returned from Europe and Palestine, will speak on her experience abroad; Dr. Ilie Berger will report on the World Zionist Congress, held during the summer in Geneva, and Dr. Israel M. Goldman will talk on the recent National Zionist Convention held in New York.

Officers of the local Zionist organization are: Maurice Hendel, president; Samuel Michaelson, vice-president; J. S. Rabinowitz, corresponding secretary; James Goldman, treasurer, and Albert Rosen, financial secretary.

Macktez - Strasmich

Beneath a bower of pink and white flowers and fernery, Miss Shirley Joan Strasmich, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Strasmich of 19 Ray street this city, became the bride of Philip J. Macktez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Macketz of 76 Summer street, Woonsocket, last Sunday evening at the Woonsocket Synagogue. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman of this city performed the single ring ceremony.

The bride was attractively dressed in a gown of ivory satin, entrain, fashioned with long sleeves and a round neckline. The gown was topped by a quilted jacket of ivory satin. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a large hairbow of tulle. As her bridal flowers, she carried white orchids on a white bible.

Mrs. Florence Schaffer, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. She was becomingly outfitted in a gown of pink brocaded satin, with a bolero jacket. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of moss green taffeta, appliqued with velvet trim of the same color. She wore an orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore a purple satin gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, and she also wore an orchid.

Lester Macktez, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers included Fred Strasmich, Irwin Strasmich, brothers of the bride, Philip Macktez, cousin of the bridegroom, Jordan Kaufman and Irving Zimmerman.

We found Monday nite a nite of fun
And for a very definite reason
There was a meeting, speaker, tea and dance
You see, Repertory opened its season . . .
Tuesday, of course, was concert nite
Boston Symph at its best
We got what we could in the way of notes
If you read this — you'll know the rest . . .

Paula Ellis Barnett is one of the easiest-to-listen-to speakers we've heard in ages . . . Playwright, critic and director, this charming Bostonian certainly knows her theatre . . . She made a quick trip from Boston to Providence last Monday evening to address the opening meeting of Repertory Players, held in Temple Beth El's vestry . . .

She was trim and chic in a black dress, that boasted a bright red sash . . . It had a bolero jacket that was trimmed with black bugle beads, and her hat was black, with red accent . . . Very noteworthy was her superb poise, and her knack of keeping an audience laughing with enjoyment . . .

And speaking of the audience, it was a very big one, scattered among which were some most charming femmes . . . After the business meeting had adjourned, tea was served and dancing was in order — and that's when our pad and pencil went to work . . .

Esther Travis had on a trim shirtmaker dress of beige jersey, and cleverly wore a purple ascot with it . . . Mrs. Arthur Newman was in town from Stamford and renewed acquaintances with her "repertorial" friends . . . She was petite in a black wool dress with gold leather suspenders as ornamental things . . .

Becomingly dressed in black was Mrs. Harry Licht, and she smartly accented the outfit with a silver fox cape . . . Lillian Politzer, a lovely blonde young lady from Vienna, was there . . . She had on a dress of soft blue rabbit's hair wool . . . Florence Shapiro was there in a frock and hat of dubonnet . . . Phyllis Littman wore a suit and hat of bluish gray tweed, with dabs of deep purple on it . . . That Abromowitz young lady, whose first name we can't remember, looked like a McLelland Barclay drawing, in a slim dress of black and white, and a lovely drooped brim hat . . .

From there to the Indian Room where we noticed Rosalie Musen in a very pretty black dress, and black pillbox snooded hat, over her auburn locks . . . From one end of the room, we observed two very attractive ladies, and after dancing nearer their table found them be Alice Knauer, in a smart ensemble of two tones of green, and Mrs. Babe Woolf, in a black, and checked tweed outfit.

The column's over, girls . . . But we'll be happy if you come back for more next week . . .

Talmud Torah Aux. Arranges Activities

At the first meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Ahavath Sholom Talmud Torah, held last week at the Synagogue, a contribution of five dollars was made to the Community Fund campaign, and five dollars to the Esrath Nashim.

Greetings of welcome were extended by Mrs. Barney Coren, president. The following committee was chosen for Friday night refreshments: Mesdames Hyman, Coren, Gregerman and Grossman. This committee will be assisted by the newly formed Young Peoples League. Plans were discussed for the forthcoming 35th anniversary celebration, to be observed by the Synagogue. It was announced that the Auxiliary's annual bridge will be held on December 13 at Arcadia Ballroom.

A social hour followed the business meeting. Mesdames F. Barkis, B. Grossman and S. Hyman were hostesses.

Famine Threatens Eastern Poland

BUCHAREST. — As a result of the flight of Polish shopkeepers, many of them Jewish, into Roumania before advancing Soviet troops, near-famine conditions were widespread in areas occupied by the Red Army, according to William Morton, United States Vice Consul, who had been stationed in Warsaw.

Morton, who arrived here after spending a week in eastern Poland, said that Soviet officials at Zaleszczyki had posted notices advising the public to "remain calm, continue your work and open your shops" meanwhile using their own discretion as to who should remain in Poland and who should be sent into Russia.

New Fuehrer Being Groomed By Bund

NEW YORK. — Aware of the possibility that Fritz Kuhn, führer of the German-American Bund with headquarters here, may receive a stiff sentence if convicted of larceny in the New York courts after his trial which begins on October 30, the forces of the German-American Bund have reshaped their leadership to prepare for all emergencies. G. Wilhelm Kunze may become the new Bundesfuehrer should Kuhn go to jail.

As leader of the Philadelphia unit of the Bund, Kunze succeeded in involving with the Bund many clergymen such as the Rev. S. G. on Bosse; members of the U. S. Army and Naval Reserve such as Major General Robert M. Brookfield, U.S.A. retired; and the notorious Philadelphia school teacher Bessie R. Burchett, whose rampages have won her nationwide publicity as a crackpot.

JEWISH THEATRE

PARIS. — A radio broadcast from Moscow announced that a Jewish state theatre has been opened in Wilno. The broadcast also stated that thousands of Jewish youths in Soviet Poland are inquiring with the Soviet authorities as to the possibility of their proceeding to Biro-Bidjan, autonomous Jewish territory.

Rabbi Morris A. Gutstein's new book, "Aaron Lopez and Judah Touro — A Refugee and a Son of a Refugee," will be dedicated to the city of Newport next Tuesday evening, 8:30 o'clock, at the C. J. I. Community Center, Touro and Division streets, Newport. The dedication is being made to the city on its tercentenary, 1639-1939.

According to an announcement received this week from A. L. Greenberg, chairman of the publication committee, the program is scheduled as follows:

Invocation, Rabbi Jacob Freedman, of Temple Beth El, Fall River; Greetings, Max Adelson, president of Touro Synagogue; Greetings, Saul Abrams, chairman of the General Jewish Council of R. I.; Presentation of Book, Hon. Robert M. Dannin, judge of Probate Court of Newport; Acceptance, Hon. Henry S. Wheeler, major of the city of Newport; Addresses, Hon. Mortimer A. Sullivan, justice, Superior Court of Rhode Island; Dr. Israel M. Goldman, of Temple Emanuel; Dr. Morris A. Gutstein of Touro Synagogue. The singing of the Star Spangled Banner and Hatikvah will complete the program.

Ahavath Sholom Starts Late Services

Late Friday services at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, will be resumed tonight (October 27) at 8:15 o'clock, to which the general public has been invited.

Services will consist of messages by Morris G. Silk, congregational singing, solos by the Cantor, responsive and reading in union.

A social hour, under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Young Peoples League, will follow each Friday night services.

Center Will Hold Armistice Affair

In commemoration of Armistice Day, a dance will be held at the Jewish Community Center on Saturday evening, November 11, from 8 to 12 o'clock.

The dance will feature an orchestra, entertainment, novelty numbers and prize dances. Members are invited to attend with their friends.

To Be Re-Elected

JUDGE PHILIP C. JOSLIN

7th Annual Meeting Of Aged Home Sun.

Samuel M. Magid and Judge Philip C. Joslin will be elected president and vice-president respectively for their seventh term at the annual meeting of the Home for Aged to be held Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Home, it was announced today. Following the report of committee chairmen, Isaac E. Feinstein, superintendent, will present a detailed report of the year's activities.

A musical program by Cantor Joseph Schlossberg of Temple Beth-Israel and Carl Tatz and his orchestra will be presented.

Herman Swartz, chairman of the nominating committee, will announce the committee's selections for next year's offices. Nomination is tantamount to election. The complete list of new officers will be announced in next week's issue of the Herald.
