Home for Aged

The Annual Carnival of the Jewish Home for the Aged enables our people to honor the aged Jewish men and women in Israel, who are the only remaining links to a great past, which witnessed martyrdom and sacrifice in order that the faith of our fathers might survive. It is the aged men and women of today who came to the United States to escape untold persecution and discrimination, and who gave their children opportunities which were denied them.

The care of the aged has become one of the greatest problems facing leaders in social work everywhere. Statistics indicate that the percentage of aged people in this country is rapidly increasing. In addition, there has arisen the serious problem of caring for those aged, who, because of advancing years, have become chronically ill and mentally weak.

The Jewish Community of Rhode Island has every reason to be proud of the beautiful edifice which houses the aged people of our faith. It is considered one of the finest in the country, from a physical standpoint and its excellent and humane management.

However, the Jews of this state have not spoken the last word in their desire to give the aged people every comfort to which they are entitled. Hospital facilities must be available in connection with the Home and every means taken to make the last days of the residents as comfortable and happy as possible.

Now that all local synagogues and organizations have successfully concluded their bazaars and other money-raising activities, it behooves every Jewish man and woman to rally to the support of the Jewish Home for the Aged, by patronizing the Carnival which opens on Saturday night, June 15 and continues until June 22.

Let us honor the fathers and mothers in Israel. Let us hold on as long as possible to the old generation, and to the past, which in troubled times such as these, is indeed a source of comfort and encouragement.

Flag Day

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress, meeting in Philadelphia, adopted a resolution declaring: "That the flag of the thirteen United States shall be of thirteen stripes of alternate red and white, with a union of thirteen stars of white in a blue field, representing the new constellation."

Six years later the "new constellation" glowed with the light of liberty and justice when England acknowledged the independence of the United States of America. The stars and stripes, which had been born of revolution, now symbolized the national democratic unity of a free nation, composed of many groups of different creeds, of varying European origins, whose common cause was grounded in American democracy.

The flag stood for that in those days. It stands for it still, on June 14, 1940, when unity, cooperation between various groups, the rights of man, and liberty itself are menaced as never before since a band of ragged men under the leadership of George Washington drove tyranny back across the oceans.

Smilansky Urges Jewry to 'Stand By'

NEW YORK. — An appeal to U. S. Jewry to "stand by" the Jewish national home in Palestine and to see it through the difficulties that may result from the possible outbreak of hostilities in the Mediterranean was sounded by Moshe Smilansky, president of the Palestine Jewish Farmers' Federation, in a farewell statement before leaving the United States on the U. S. liner Washington.

Palestine Becomes News Exchange for Refugees

JERUSALEM. — Palestine has become the news exchange of Jewry throughout the world.

Refugees from Germany, Russia, Poland and other parts of Europe on their arrival here immediately begin, through various channels, to attempt to get in touch with relatives scattered throughout the world.

The scattering of families has brought moderation in Jewish law in connection with the reporting of deaths. A strict mourning period of one week is required by close relatives when a death has been reported.

News Travels Slowly

Now, however, such reports are sometimes greatly delayed. In cases where the period is greater than a month the relatives now are required to carry out the mourning ritual for one hour only.

The daily pilgrimage to the Wailing Wall, last relic of the Second Temple of Jerusalem, has become marked. The number of

After months of extensive preparation, the Home for Aged Annual Carnival will open tomorrow night (Saturday) and will continue through June 22. Mayor John F. Collins of Providence and Mayor Thomas P. McCoy of Pawtucket have been invited as opening night guests.

During the program tomorrow night, the Letter Carriers Band of Providence will play, and a radio broadcast will be held from the grounds with Mowry Lowe acting as master of ceremonies. A nightly feature of the carnival will be the performance of the five American Eagles, acrobats who perform 75 feet in the air. The carnival provides more than one-third of the income which maintains the Home throughout the year.

Maurice Cooper is general chairman of arrangements, while Samuel Magid is an honorary chairman. Booth chairmen have been announced as follows:

Gutstadt Warns B'nai B'rith Against Sixth Columnists

"The Sixth Column is more dangerous than the Fifth Column," according to Richard E. Gutstadt, national director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, who addressed the local Roger William Lodge, last Monday evening at the Narragansett Hotel.

"Hysteria resulting from a fear of Fifth Column activities, and the attempt to crush the activities, may lead to the unfortunate situation of a limitation upon our civil liberties," said Mr. Gutstadt.

Mr. Gutstadt disclosed that a test campaign is being conducted in this country by anti-Semitic groups, by running candidates for various offices in eighteen states on purely anti-Semitic platforms. The purpose of these campaigns is to measure the extent of anti-Semitism amongst the people of the United States.

Mr. Gutstadt also revealed that almost 25 per cent of the population in this country is Germanic in origin, and another 12 per cent is made up of Italo-American. The countries of origin of these people, he said, are constantly urging them to take their cues from their mother countries. "This 37 per cent of the population," Mr. Gutstadt asserted, "is thus susceptible to totalitarian propaganda."

At a dinner, given by Max L. Grant to a small group, preceding the meeting, a campaign to raise funds for the anti-Defamation League and the National Conference of Jews and Christians got under way. A list of those who contributed is published elsewhere in this issue, and remaining contributions will be announced as received.

The invocation at the meeting was given by Rabbi Morris G. Silk. Richard Bluestein of the Anti-Defamation Regional Office in Boston, spoke on local activities of the League. The Drill Team of the Chaym Solomon Lodge in Boston, performed.

Public Radio Sets Banned in Palestine

JERUSALEM. — As part of the defense regulations the Palestine Government issued an order banning the operation of radio sets in cafes, restaurants, shops and vehicles to which the public had access. Any departure from the rules in this respect must receive the authority of the district commissioner.

Although no public announcement was made of the reasons for the new order, it is assumed that it is designed to prevent reception in Palestine of propaganda broadcasts from Italy and Germany.

Tel Aviv Constructs Air Raid Shelter

TEL AVIV, (Palcor Agency)—The seriousness with which the Palestine Jewish Community is making preparations to meet any emergency that might occur for this country was reflected in the decision of the Tel Aviv Municipality to construct air raid shelters to accommodate 15,000 people.

It has recently been estimated that the population of the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv may approximate 200,000.

Reich Wounded Sent To Czechoslovakia

LONDON. — All Jewish doctors in Czechoslovakia have been ordered to register with the Government for special service, it was reported here, giving confirmation to an earlier report that the Nazi Army was sending its wounded soldiers to Czechoslovakia.

The report stated that the Nazi High Command had ordered the injured soldiers sent to Czechoslovakia in order to keep the German population from learning the extent of the casualties suffered by the Nazi army in the battle of Flanders.

Increases in Italy Anti-Jew Propaganda

PARIS. — Anti-Semitic organizations are growing rapidly throughout Italy as a result of intensive pro-Nazi war propaganda, it was learned here. Anti-Jewish demonstrations were held at Milan, Florence and a number of other Italian cities as the Fascist government prepared

British Decline Jewish Unit To Use Palestine as Source of Supplies

Jewish Agency Made Proposal

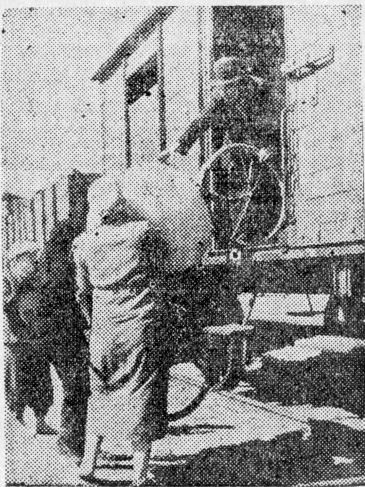

LONDON, (Palcor Agency). — The British Government will not yield in its decision not to accept the offer of the Jewish Agency to create a Jewish force for the Allies, it was stated in the House of Commons by Sir Edward Grigg on behalf of the War Office.

Geoffrey Mander had asked what action the Government was proposing to take on the Jewish Agency's offer and whether the industrial and scientific resources of the Jews of Palestine for supplying bases in the Middle East would be mobilized.

The Government, Sir Edward stated, had received valuable assistance from the Palestine Corporation (headed by Sir Robert Waley-Cohen) when it had surveyed the economic and industrial resources of Palestine which might be utilized in a war effort. It had been decided that the best contribution that could be made by Palestine in the utilization of its existing resources was to provide general stores and equipment for the troops in the Middle East.

To Nowhere -- and to Happiness

WARSAW. — Here is a family (left) being moved out of their home town in Poland by Nazi agents. Most of their belongings have been seized. They must move on to the fringe of existence — to the No-Man's Lands where they will be forced to live in open fields without protection from rain or cold. First Installation Dinner Held By Congregation of Beth Israel

Jacob Licht was installed as president of Temple Beth Israel, at the first Installation Dinner, held last Sunday night at the Temple.

In inducting the officers, Rabbi Morris Schussheim stressed the fact that Jewish life today must emphasize the synagogue as the center of Judaism, in view of the fact that all other avenues of Jewish endeavor have been so seriously affected by the European war situation. Arthur I. Darman, president of the Congregation Bnai Israel of Woonsocket, was guest speaker of the evening. "Complete faith in what you are doing," said Mr. Darman, "and being satisfied with nothing but the best is the primary necessity for success."

Other officers installed, in addition to Mr. Licht, were published in last week's Herald. Reports were presented at the dinner by Joseph Greene, financial secretary and Morris Narva, treasurer. Greetings were extended by Dr. Ilie Berger, honorary president, and Mrs. Samuel P. Lazarus on behalf of the Sisterhood. Ira Galkin spoke for Arrangements Committee. Cantor Joseph Schlossberg presented vocal selections, and solos were heard by Mrs. Mary Coken. Coleman Zimmerman was toastmaster of the evening.

Alien Jewish Women Interned in England

New Decree Affects Many

LONDON. — Many Jewish women were among the 3,000 German and Austrian women who were interned on the Isle of Man by order of the Home Secretary in a new attempt to rid Great Britain of fifth column elements.

Under the new decree, all enemy alien women, German Jewish women included, who have previously been in "B" category will be interned as well as men. The detained women are between the ages of 16 and 60. The decree provided that the women, if they wish, can take their children under 16 years of age with them. The women were rounded up by 1,000 Scotland Yard detectives.

It was announced also that 20 more leaders of the British Union of Fascists had been arrested.

Majestic Premiere

To Show "All This And Heaven Too"

"All This and Heaven Too" co-starring Bette Davis and Charles Boyer, will have its New England Premiere, with a road show engagement at the Majestic Theatre starting Thursday night June 27. Plans are underway to stage a gala Hollywood opening for the picture.

Produced by Warner Bros., "All This and Heaven Too" was adapted from Rachel Field's memorable best-seller, which has gone through innumerable printings since its publication.

Bette Davis as Mademoiselle Henriette DeLuzy-Desportes and Charles Boyer as the Duc De Praslin are the protagonists in one of the most sensational murder trials of all time, a scandal that rocked two continents and was a contributing factor in helping a French king from his throne. Featured with the dynamic star team are Jeffrey Lynn as Henry Field, young American cleric who helps Henriette to rehabilitate herself, and Barbara O'Neil as the neurotic, wildly passionate wife of the Duc.

Individual Bundites, Fearing Isolation, Join Native Units

NEW YORK. — German-American Bundites, frightened at the disfavor in which they are held by the American people, have developed a new technique for practicing their subversive activities, according to the Anti-Nazi Bulletin.

Individual members are infiltrating into "native hate-groups," such as the Ku Klux Klan. Acting as "specialists in terror," who work in an advisory capacity, Bund members are in great demand. The scores of un-American organizations needing "experts" in their peculiar field are letting their hoods down when it comes to welcoming the Bundites and ex-Bundites.

Bund Discredited

The Nazis have come to feel that they can accomplish little through their own organization which has been completely discredited in the eyes of most Americans, and which they fear may soon be outlawed. They have, of course, long cooperated with such groups as the "Christian" Front, "Christian" Mobilizers, etc. It is by now well-known that Little Fuehrer Joe McWilliams has worked in the closest possible manner with the German-American Bund, a merger of his Mobilizers with the Bund almost having gone through — and still remaining a possibility.

But the new technique followed by Bund members is to join native groups completely as individuals, with no mention made publicly of their Nazi background. Thus, several speakers — with strong German accents — at a Klan rally in New Jersey, addressed their audiences on true Americanism and Patriotism!

New Nazi Policy

There is every indication that the inception of the Bund technique followed a new policy laid down by higher-ups after l'affaire Kuhn. Realizing that as the war was intensified, American public opinion might swing even more heavily against the Nazis, the idea was to keep Bund members as effective "specialists," even if the Bund itself were ever to be disbanded.

CONFIRMATION

A class of eleven students, names of whom were published in last week's Herald, was confirmed at Temple Beth Israel on Wednesday morning, during Shevuoth services. The class had as its general theme, "The Jew in the World Today."

Famine Threatens Europe, Experts Say

Invaded Lands Are Devastated

WASHINGTON. — Weakened by a war which has already cost one million lives, Europe faces one of the worst famines in history next winter, according to a survey by Department of Agriculture experts.

Compiled by the Foreign Service Division of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the report discloses that wheat and other cereal crops are failing. Every country in Europe was said to be affected.

In many countries, particularly Germany, the report stated, there has been a loss of acreage because of insufficient farm labor as a result of the nation-wide conscription of manpower. In the Netherlands, the opening of the dikes wiped out much arable soil.

In Poland, the land was ruined by the Nazi invasion, and in addition, many peasants were drafted by the German authorities for the Nazi army.

A large part of northern France and Belgium has been devastated by the clashing armies. In the Danube basin, floods ripped open the soil and the crops there are expected to be the smallest in years.

Yoken - Rouslin

An attractive June wedding was held last Sunday afternoon at the Narragansett Hotel, when Miss Muriel Rouslin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rouslin of Wayland avenue, became the bride of Louis Yoken, of Fall River. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman of Temple Emanuel officiated at the single ring nuptials.

The bride's gown was of egg-shell brocaded satin, made with a very full skirt, sweetheart neckline and short leg o'mutton sleeves. Her finger tip veil was fastened to a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a white prayer book, with white orchids and streamers of lilies of the valley.

Attending as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Natalie Bernice Rouslin. She was attractively gowned in rose pink chiffon, the bodice of which was Paisley silk. Her bouquet was of roses and sweetpeas. Miss Thelma Louise Rouslin, another sister of the bride, was smart in a pink and teal blue bolero gown, and she wore rosebuds in her hair. Harry Yoken, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The mother of the bride was chic in a crepe gown of powder blue, and she wore an orchid. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gown of navy lace, and she also wore an orchid.

Floral decorations in the Ballroom comprised roses, carnations and fernery. During the ceremony, Miss Dorothy Waldman, sang "I Love You Truly." About eighty guests were in attendance. Dinner and dancing followed the ceremony.

The couple is now on a two-week motor trip to Washington and Virginia Beach, and on returning will take up residence in this city.

Horvitz - Waldman

An attractive event of Sunday noon will be the wedding of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Waldman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Waldman of Whitmarsh street, and Louis Horvitz, son of Samuel Horvitz of Waltham street, Pawtucket. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's parents, and will be performed by Rabbi Morris Schussheim under a canopy banked with Juniper trees, Cibotium fern, spring flowers and roses. Miss Dorothy A. Waldman, sister of the bride, will sing "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me."

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white mousseline-de-soie, fashioned with a full skirt and long sleeves. Her veil will be held in place by a coronet of rosebuds of mousseline-de-soie, and she will carry a white prayer book with orchids, and markers of lilies of the valley.

A small reception for relatives will follow a dinner for the immediate family.

The bride's mother will wear an attractive model of two-tone lime green and an orchid corsage. She will be assisted in receiving by Mr. Horvitz's sister, Mrs. Samuel Nalibow, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Abraham Horvitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Horvitz will leave on an extended motor trip, and will be at their new home, 45 Marbury avenue, Pawtucket, July 1.

Paisner - Novogroski

The marriage of Miss Reva Novogroski, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Novogroski of 18 Park avenue, Westerly, to Isador Paisner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Paisner of 171 Tenth street, occurred last Sunday afternoon, 5:30 o'clock, at Temple Emanuel. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman performed the ceremony.

A gown of traditional bridal satin, was worn by the bride. It was styled with a fitted basque, and the full skirt formed into a long train. The diamond and pearl motif added charm to the long tapering sleeves. Her veil of antique illusion was caught up with orange blossoms forming the headdress, and her bridal bouquet was of orchids, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

In attendance as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Altman. She was attractively dressed in a chiffon gown of Vienna blue, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and light blue delphinium.

Bridesmaids included the Misses Helen Kashner, Miriam Magid, Esther Novograd and Sonia Turkel. They were dressed in like frocks, of blue and yellow, and carried Colonial bouquets.

bridegroom, was best man. Usars were Joseph Altman, Lawrence Davis, Leonard Kaplan, Sidney Kashner, Irving Magid, Dr. Walter Nelson, Joel Novogroski and Sumner Paisner.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of flesh pink, while the bridegroom's mother was attired in a gown of peach.

Following the temple ceremony, a reception and dinner were held in the Narragansett Hotel. The couple is now on a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, and on returning will make their home at 126 Elton street.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Cohen of 75 Pinehurst avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Harriet Cohen, to Albert N. Salk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Salk of 128 Early street.

Forthcoming Marriage

The marriage of Miss Ruth Berger, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Berger of Oakland avenue, to Julius Weinberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weinberg of Sayles street, will occur on June 23 at Weinstein's Banquet Hall, it was announced this week.

BY, EDYTHE JAY

The sun shines bright on America at play
The moon takes over at the end of the day ...
Here are some hints and suggestions new
That may steal some summer applause for you ...
And if you're wise in the things you pick ...
You'll be the reason for the camera's click ...

Bathing suits? ... Mostly two-piece, with exposed midriff ...
Candy cane red for lipstick ... Fresh, clear, red stuff to make your mouth a flashing beacon against stiff competition from the brash blue sea and yellow sunshine ...

Blouses ... Brilliant classic ones, tailored with geometric precision ... Worn open-throated with tweeds from racing to regattas ... Berets coming in shaped like giant mushrooms ... Then, very large hats in bewitching black milan-type straw ... Calculated to cast your face in cameo relief, and to make two bright jewels of your eyes ...

Town frocks arrive in polished black satin, light as a breeze and very chic ... They have the high polish of your own scrupulously kept mirrors ... Firm-textured, opaque, you need wear very little under them ...

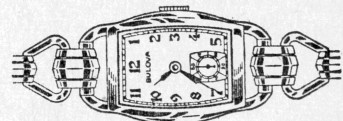

Product of man's ingenuity, darling of the mode, rayon jersey continues to be one of well-dressed America's favorite summer fabrics ... It's graceful ... It's cool ... It's packable — doesn't wrinkle easily ... Reflects simplicity and good taste ...

To be reckoned with is the equestrienne drapery ... The side-swept skirtline, inspired by the riding skirt ... Wrapped around, pulled to the side ... Swathing the hips ... Making you look narrow and long as a riding whip ... It predicates a shifting silhouette — away from the double swing skirt of the past, toward the pencil straight line of the future ... It's new, it's transitional ...

Youth will have its fling (as it will tonight at the Brown Campus affair) and dance through the summer under sentimental moons in daisy-embroidered cotton organza ... Pure white with bunches of daffy daisies ... White frosted organdy dresses with big white frost flowers woven in, and lots of frivolous taffeta bows ... Or else, youth will become wordly and choose night black silk marquisette — topic for manhattan roofs ...

The Zionists are having a third term problem too . . . Dr. Solomon Goldman, the present incumbent, has a reorganization plan, which would enable him to be re-elected . . . It appeared at first that this issue might split the Zionist party . . . At a meeting of the local District Monday nite, it was anticipated that the Providence delegates would go to the Pittsburgh convention pledged to vote for Dr. Solomon Goldman . . . After listening to Morris Margulies, the present national secretary, it was decided to postpone pre-convention action . . . Among the local Zionists, who were backing Dr. Goldman were Mrs. Archibald Silverman and Dr. Israel M. Goldman . . . A bulletin just received indicates that a compromise candidate will be selected . . . His name is Edmund I. Kaufman, of Washington, D. C., and president of the Kay Jewelry Chain of stores . . .

Going and Coming

The Sam Blachers are moving to New York . . . Among those who attended reunions this past week were the Samuel Gereboffs . . . Sam is a graduate of Boston University . . . Macie Fain is back in town from her Southern trip . . . Rabbi Morris Silk spoke over WJAR last Tuesday morning on the Morning Devotions program . . . Mrs. Samuel Malkin has made arrangements to spend the summer at Point of Pines . . . From Miriam Hospital comes the word that the annual staff dinner has been delayed until Fall . . . Incidentally, there's a Providence boy, Dr. Jonis, who will begin his internship there on July 1. Natalie Rosen is home from Simmons College . . . After the confirmation of more than 75 boys and girls last Wednesday morning at the various Temples, parents held open house for countless people who made the rounds . . . The biggest crowd was at the Narragansett Hotel, where Beth El parents had a joint reception

No Compromise

The New England premier of "All This and Heaven Too," at the Majestic Theatre on June 27 reminds us of Phineas Byron's story about Rachael Field, the author of the novel . . . It seems that Nazis took time off from their Blitzkrieg to wire Miss Field that her Biblical first name would have to be changed for the German edition of the book . . . Miss Field's emphatic reply is the reason why there won't be a German edition . . . Irving Berlin, noted song composer, was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Music at Bucknell University this week . . . Bernard Siegel, a man of many degrees, obtained another this week, when he graduated from the Rhode Island School of Pharmacy . . . His other tokens of learning were received from Brown and Rochester Universities . . .

Static

Radio officials were wryly amused when at the conclusion of Benito Mussolini's declaration of war on the Allies the Columbia Broadcasting System announced: "We wish to thank the sponsors of the serial 'Life Can Be Beautiful' for giving up their time to make this broadcast possible." . . . Dr. and Mrs. David Freedman are the proud possessors of a baby girl, while the Irving Rabowitz's kept the balance with a baby boy . . . Both were born this week . . . The Mortyn Zietz's have a new car, and if you're worried about the colour, Mort says it's known as cloudmist . . .

Many scoffers who attended the B'nai B'rith meeting last Monday nite had shades drawn over their rose-coloured glasses . . . One said he "felt that the thread of Damocles sword over American Jewry was becoming thread-bare." . . .

It's Up to You

The Home for Aged annual carnival begins tomorrow nite . . . There's no need to review the many reasons why your support is necessary . . . One-third of the annual budget must be raised by this event . . . Being aware of this fact is not sufficient . . . Translate your desire to help by your presence at the carnival with the intention of spending cheerfully . . . The carnival will there's an important new pale-dry colour — Lotus . . . Might say it's in the beige family, but no, it's more beautiful . . . Sort of pale and honeyed, like extra-dry sauterne, or more like moon-struck lotus lazily afloat in Oriental pools . . . Blondes will love the monochromatic effect . . . Brunettes will say it echoes their ivory skins . . . Titians could ask for no more superb setting . . . Then there's the utterly new combination of black and sunshine yellow . . . No two colours seem so fresh and unhackneyed together . . . The black of deep shadows cast on the sand . . . The saffron yellow of the sun filling your half-closed eyes . . . Saturate yourself in this strange clashing beauty . . . So much for the colour wheel . . . As a matter of fact, so much — for now . . .

100,000 Hitler Refugees Reach U. S., Survey Shows

NEW YORK. — The rise of Hitler in Germany and its wars of conquest now in full swing have driven approximately 100,000 refugees to this country where they have established permanent homes since 1933, according to a survey of Federal agencies and refugee aid organizations here. The actual outbreak of war last September, however, drastically cut immigration figures, it was learned. German, Austrian, Czechoslovakian and Polish exiles have found it difficult to get transportation to this country.

The National Refugee Service, 165 West Forty-sixth Street, estimated that one-third of the 100,000 persons legally admitted to the United States remained in New York City. Another third joined relatives elsewhere in the nation and the remaining third were aided by the Refugee Service to settle in almost every state of the Union. About 75 per cent of all refugees are Jewish, the organization held, adding, however, that the proportion of Christians was rising.

Looking Backward to the Gay 90's 1898 Herald Tells Stories That Will Prick Memories

BY EDYTHE JAY

It's a little weird to pick up any copy of a Jewish Herald, and after scanning its columns, find not a single name that strikes a note of recognition in one's mind ... We experienced just this the other day ... Will you listen while we tell you about it? ...

Monthly Journal

In guarded possession of The Herald this week (through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hartman) is a faded and yellowed-with-age issue of The Jewish Herald, a monthly journal which was issued on the first Monday of each month, during the 1890's ... With editorial offices located at 61 Beekman street in New York City, the publication enjoyed circulation throughout New England ... In essence, the paper was newsy and chummy, and definitely informal ... Its stories spoke as if to an audience of only one person — almost like a personal letter ...

Special Edition

In keeping with its circulation, news was gathered from the various cities, and inserted in special editions of the paper ... The particular issue of which we write, was a special edition for Providence ... Subsequently, we shall tell you of some of the Providence activities, but we wish to remind you that for complete comprehension, you should remember the dateline is DECEMBER, 1898 ...

A personal item, and we quote: "Miss Gert ... Lederer and Harry Shuma ... Lederer and W. Loeb ... Jewish graduates ... High School, and Samuel Cohen of the Pawtucket High School this year." ...

Oldest Document

Then there was the story about the oldest Jewish document in Providence ... Again we quote: "Mrs. David Frank is in the possession of a paper that is the oldest existing document appertaining to the Jewish population of Providence. This document consists of a record of the births during the years 1854-1862, kept by Mr. Henry Solomon, father of Mrs. Frank. It is a record of twenty-two births. Considering the smallness of the size of the Providence Jewish population at that time, twenty-four is a comparatively large percentage of births." ...

Another item: "Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson, in sacred memory of their little daughter, Sylvia, have presented a bed to the children's ward of the Rhode Island Hospital." ...

Writing Style of News

The difference in the treatment of news in these days as compared with today's choice of human interest stories was evidenced by the following item, in which we are allowing the actual names of persons involved to remain unpublished:

Now we quote: "A member of the Ladies Hebrew Benevolent Association, while making a round of charitable visits chanced to call at the home of John Doe at 209 Front street and found a state of affairs of a most pitiable character."

"Mrs. Doe lives with her husband and four children on the third floor of the house. As the visitor entered the room, she saw the baby on the floor crying, unattended by the mother, who it was discovered has had her mind affected by the worry which their destitute circumstances have caused her. The woman is but twenty-five years of age, the second wife of John Doe, who is a mason, but of late has had barely enough work to provide the necessities of life for his family. Dr. M. Blank was summoned and will look after Mrs. Doe's case. It is stated that Mr. Doe is a hard working man, and before coming to this country, held a good position in one of the Russian courts."

More than just a little space in the edition was devoted to the then Temple Sons of Israel and David, now Temple Beth El ... One item about the Temple read as follows: "The oldest record of this congregation dates back to October 18, 1876. It was started with ten members, under the name of Sons of Israel. Henry Green was president, Leopold Hartman, vice-president. They grew to forty members, and hired a hall and had a strict orthodox Rabbi. Some more Jews came here and started a new Congregation under the name of the Sons of David. They could not succeed, so they joined this congregation, and the charter was amended to Sons of Israel and David." On July 22, 1877, the Reform Congregation was established. An old Swedish church was hired and refurnished, an organ purchased and a choir organized ... and the story continued at much length and interest ...

Beauty Hints

For young ladies the paper carried beauty hints of this calibre: "The simple plan of bathing the eyes with cold water every night at bedtime and the first thing on getting up in the morning will make the eyes both clear and bright ... The application of cold water causes the blood in the numerous little blood vessels which surround the eyes to circulate freely, and in consequence the eyes will become stronger and brighter." ...

To most of you in our audience, the names mentioned above probably are (as they were to us) only names ... However, if we've stirred a forgotten memory in the mind of just one older member of our community, our purpose in writing the story will not have been for naught ...

AN INTERESTING FLEISCHIG RECIPE

By Frances Peck, Heinz Home Institute

With the out-of-doors beckoning these lovely days, what woman wants to be tied to her kitchen? It's still only a matter of weeks since Passover and it is hard to forget that Israel was redeemed from Egyptian slavery. How about deliverance from culinary slavery?

The clock strikes a quarter-to-dinner time. Wanted! Some good quick main-course dishes that will provide stout eating on a minimum of time and effort.

Here is just the dish — a fat casserole full of ground steak, browned with onion slivers and sauced with a can-ful of real, home - style vegetarian soup * (pareve, of course). To seal in all this fine flavor, top with old-fashioned crusting of corn bread batter. It takes a short time to prepare when you follow these simple directions:

STEAK AND VEGETABLE PIE WITH CORN BREAD TOPPING

Brown—

1 lb. ground shoulder steak

1 tablespoon minced onion

in—

1 tablespoon fat.

Sprinkle with—

3 tablespoons flour

1 teaspoon salt, generous dash pepper. Then mix well.

Pour in—

1 medium (16 oz.) can vegetarian soup. Then stir until it reaches boiling point.

Pour into casserole, having meat mixture about two inches deep. Top with corn bread batter and bake in a hot oven (425° F.) 20 minutes. (Serves 4.)

CORN BREAD TOPPING

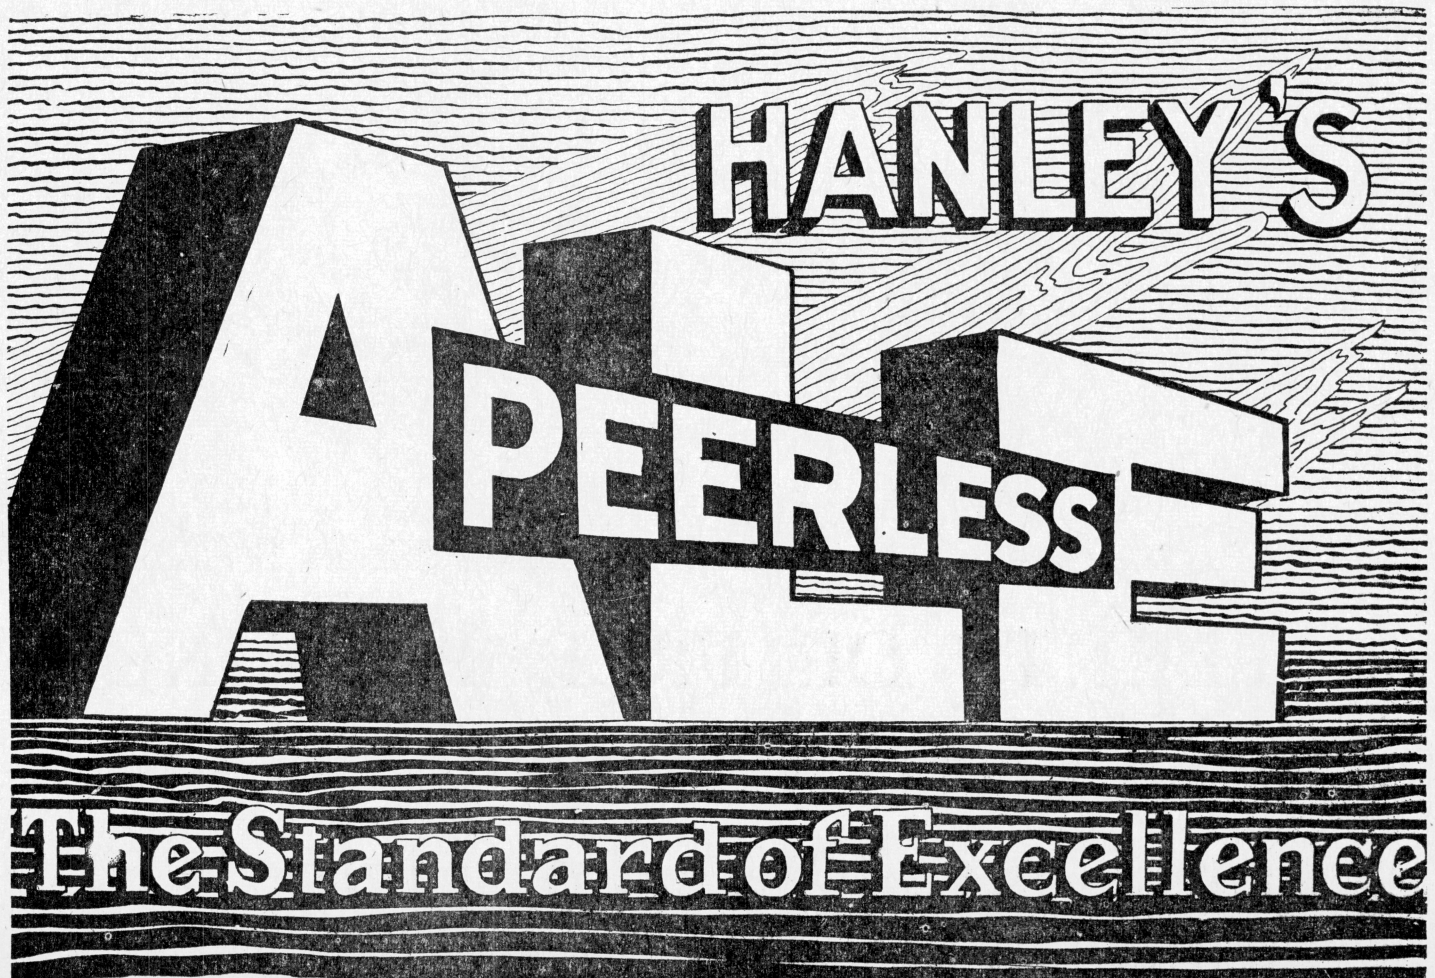

Sift together—

1/3 cup sifted all-purpose flour

1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder

1/4 teaspoon salt.
