A Valuable Service

That eminent Jewish refugees driven out of Europe by Hitler's implacable policies have immeasurably enriched this country in the professions and higher branches of learning has long been understood, but until now the exact extent of that notable contribution has been impossible to determine.

That lack will be remedied, according to the Boston Post, by a new project undertaken by an organization known as The Jewish Information Bureau of New York.

Spurred by the many inquiries received concerning the whereabouts of these notables, it plans to compile a complete "Who's Who" of the better known expatriates, giving full particulars.

It is a tremendous and difficult task, but one that will be of invaluable service in a hundred different ways.

Kashruth in Camp

The War Department has decided that due to circumstances beyond its control it will not be possible to provide orthodox trainees with the necessary kosher food. A number of suggestions had been offered by orthodox leaders in the hope that the dietary laws might be complied with. One can appreciate the desire to preserve every element of a pious Jew's faith.

One might have hoped that conditions would permit acquiescence. But, at the same time, the problem facing the War Department must also be understood.

The decision was arrived at only after great consideration and must be accepted as an earnest expression of the Government's desire to fulfill its responsibilities to all faiths in the army.

Free Zionist Prisoners!

Heartening are the war communiques indicating a stiff resistance on the part of the Soviet Union to the Nazi juggernaut.

Cheering also is the news of the progressive collaboration between Moscow and the Western World for the pursuit of the common task, the defeat of Hitlerism.

A promise of a new outlook is contained in the report of negotiations just concluded which reconciled the Soviet and the Polish Government-in-Exile and permitted the release of 250,000 Polish war prisoners in Siberia.

There is also a report that Russian Jewry, long separated from Jewish life in other parts of the world, may again be permitted to give expression to its interest by re-establishing contact with the agencies which have been grappling with the problems of Jewish misery and homelessness and planning for a new dawn.

All this would indeed be a welcome departure — perhaps, one should say, a restoration of a more normal outlook which prevailed in the early days of the Soviet regime but which was subsequently warped by the excesses of the late, but not lamented, Evsektzia.

It was due to these zealots, who sought to outdo the non-Jewish Communists, that the persecutions of the Zionist movement, the exiling of Zionists to Siberia and the ban of the instruction of the Hebrew language were instituted and carried on these many years.

Klein, Democrat, Elected to Congress To Fill Unexpired Term Of Late Rep. Edelstein

NEW YORK. — Arthur G. Klein, Democrat, was chosen this week in a special election, to fill the unexpired term of the late M. Michael Edelstein, as Representative in Congress of the Fourteenth district on the lower East Side. Owing in part to the heat and the season, the total vote cast was very light. The number voting was about one quarter of those voting in the general election last Fall and one-half the number who voted in the special election held February 6, 1940, at which time Mr. Edelstein was chosen to succeed the late Dr. William L. Sirovich.

The new representative-elect, an attorney, is 37 years old. He was connected with the Securities Exchange Commission as an attorney, first in its Washington office and later in its New York office, from 1935 until his nomination.

In his pre-election campaign, Mr. Klein promised full support of President Roosevelt's foreign policy, including full aid to Britain.

Nazis Deny Jews Bomb Indemnity

BERLIN. — Jews of all nations are excluded from indemnity for loss due to an act of war, such as bombing, a decree in the official Reich's law gazette said last week.

The decree also provided that should an Aryan suffer loss or damage while on a Jew's property the Jew will be obligated to make good.

The measure applies to Jews in Germany and occupied territories.

NEW RESTRICTIONS

GENEVA, (JPS). — No more than 2% of the lawyers in Vichy France may be Jews from now on, a percentage based on the theoretical proportion of native French Jews to the total population, before the refugee influx began. Jewish war veterans and the families of war victims are exempt from the new order.

Rabbi Lasker Accepts Call From Temple Judaea, Phila.

Rabbi Meir Lasker of the United Hebrew Congregation in Havana, Cuba, has received a call from the Board of Trustees of Temple Judaea in Philadelphia, and, will assume spiritual leadership of that congregation on August 15, it was learned this week.

Born in 1903 and educated in Providence schools, Rabbi Lasker studied at Tufts College and graduated from Cincinnati University in 1927, after which he carried on graduate work at the University of Chicago and the University of Cincinnati.

He was graduated from the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati in 1928 and was granted the Morganthau Travelling Fellowship. He did research work with the American School of Oriental Research and the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Rabbi Lasker represented the World Union for Progressive Judaism and made a study of Jewish Religious

Magazine has Scientific Study Made of Kashruth Problem

NEW YORK. — A nationwide survey to determine how many food producers and Jewish consumers go in for kashruth is the basis of an extended account of Jewish dietary laws in a recent issue of Newsweek, which ascribes the survey to "Dr. Max Felshin, ambitious New York rabbi and founder of America's first permanent Beth Din or court of Jewish justice."

Only 22 per cent of the 622 producers who answered a questionnaire distributed by Rabbi Felshin said that their food was supervised to guarantee observance of kashruth. To Rabbi Felshin this showed the need of "some authoritative agency to regulate all kosher observance."

Newsweek reports that Rabbi Felshin wants to set up a chemical, analytic agency to regulate kashruth and to determine what products are chemically kosher.

The magazine concludes its story with what is supposed to be a humorous summary of how American Jews observe kashruth: "Traveling on a Pullman, an orthodox Jew brings his own food, carefully prepared at home; a conservative sits in the dining car but orders fool proof eggs and vegetables; and a reform Jew, who considers the dietary laws inapplicable these days, enjoys a lobster or steak and washes it down with milk."

Church Stops Use of German Opera 'Lohengrin' in Weddings

CLEVELAND. — Catholic churches in the Cleveland diocese are gradually dropping the custom of playing the so-called "Wedding March" from the German opera "Lohengrin."

Most of the churches already have discontinued the number, which has no part in the marriage ritual, it was reported today. Other music with a religious background is being substituted.

"Lohengrin," one of several operas written by Richard Wagner, was first produced on Aug. 28, 1850.

The position of the clergy at Cleveland St. Aloysius' Church, one of the largest on the East Side, was expressed in the current parish bulletin.

Under the heading, "The Wedding March — Pagan or Catholic?" the announcement said it was a mystery "how it ever came to be used in the Catholic marriage ceremony" and that the opera was typical of "the great German composer's pagan point of view."

"It begins with the suspicion of murder and ends with a broken vow," the bulletin said. "It is woven around black magic, the threat of war, a bitter domestic quarrel and the complete absence of the loyal trust without which Christian marriage cannot exist."

Murder Affects Inter-Marriage Bill

BUDAPEST. — The Lower House of Parliament passed a bill prohibiting Jews from marrying gentiles or having extra-marital sexual relations with them.

The bill came up at a time when public opinion was in turmoil over the slaying of Dr. Valentine Ecsedy, general secretary of a chemical factory, who had Jewish blood.

Groom Dr. Frank For Russian Post

Nazi Overlord is Now Polish Governor

LONDON. — Dr. Hans Frank, Nazi overlord in occupied Poland, has been assigned to introduce the "new order" in territories wrested from Soviet Russia, according to a dispatch to the Sunday Times here.

Dr. Frank, who is responsible for the repressive anti-Jewish restrictions in Poland, is expected to arrive shortly in the provinces seized from Russia.

It was believed here that Hitler is grooming Dr. Frank for the post of Nazi administrator of Russia in anticipation of the day when the Red Army succumbs to the Nazi legions. Military observers pointed out, however, that Russian resistance has shown to date no signs of collapse.

Dr. Frank supervised the establishment of the Jewish ghettos in Warsaw and Lublin. Approximately 5,000,000 Jews have been shunted into the ghetto in Warsaw under the most inhuman conditions.

Marshall Terms Nock a Defeatist

NEW YORK. — Albert Jay Nock's fear that the Nuremberg laws will be enacted in the United States during his own lifetime betrays "a confession by the intellectual that he is impotent in the face of the 'massman,'" according to James Marshall son of Louis Marshall, in his reply published in the current Atlantic Monthly to Nock's two articles that previously appeared there.

"Here is defeatism," says Mr. Marshall, "without even the saving grace of recognizing that many Americans identify persecution of Jews with Hitlerism or the revealing admission that the New York demonstrations of 1939 which he mentions were inspired by Nazi and their Coughlinite fellow-travelers."

Call Frankfurter Roosevelt Advisor

WASHINGTON. — Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter is one of those chiefly responsible for President Roosevelt's foreign policies, according to a statement made here by Senator Burton K. Wheeler.

"Knox, Stimson, Ickes, Hopkins and Frankfurter — what a motley crew to determine foreign policy for 130,000,000 people in the United States," the Senator said.

"The President today seems to be wholly dependent for his information on a little handful of men surrounding him who couldn't be elected to the office of dog catcher in their own home towns. And yet they, along with Winston Churchill and the royal refugees in the United States, are determining foreign policy."

zi, confessed that he stabbed Ecsedy because he asked permission to marry Vago's daughter. "I grasped my dagger which was on a nearby table and in a moment of passion stabbed him several times," Vago said.

Visa Head Called "Fascist"; "Nation" Asks Investigation

NEW YORK. — A blistering attack on Avra M. Warren, head of the Visa Division of the State Department, as "one of the most reactionary, fascist-minded members of the department," is contained in an article by Freda Kirchwey, Nation editor, in the July 19th issue, in condemnation of the new regulations requiring proof that no relatives remain in Nazi Europe before an immigration certificate is issued for the United States.

Mrs. Kirchwey points out that there "are thousands of men and women whose need to escape from Hitler's prison-continent is a matter of life or almost certain death. And most of them have clung to the hope that they may finally obtain the one real guaranty of safety — a visa for the United States."

The Nation editor charges that the new regulations were put through "without consultation with Sumner Welles, without the knowledge of the Department of Justice, without the consent of the President," but merely as a ruling by the Visa Division. The President is asked to demand a full report of the situations from the Department of Justice and the Department of State.

Anticipate 1500 Delegates at Annual Zionist Convention

WASHINGTON. — With more than 500 Zionist Districts and societies throughout the country having completed their elections, an attendance of over 1,500 delegates is assured for the forthcoming 44th Annual Convention of the Zionist Organization of America, which will convene in a four day session beginning September 6th and continuing through September 9th at the Hotel Gibson, Cincinnati, Ohio.

According to an announcement by Edmund L. Kaufmann, president, the Convention will be called upon to discuss problems affecting the post-war status of Palestine as a Jewish Commonwealth, as well as proposals for consolidating and coordinating Zionist activities in this country in the light of the world situation. The Zionist Organization has during the year, recorded considerable progress in all fields of endeavors and has also further substantially increased its membership.

It is predicted that the forthcoming Convention will be the largest and most representative in the history of American Zionism. In addition to outstanding American leaders, the speakers roster at the Convention will include prominent figures from abroad.

INTERINED IN CAMPS

LONDON. — Over a thousand native Italian Jews were recently placed in concentration camps, in addition to the 2,600 Polish and Austrian Jews who have been there since the beginning of the war.

Encounters Prejudice

SHOLOM ASCH

Arriving at Bethlehem, N. H., recently, Sholom Asch, noted Jewish author, ran into a bit of anti-Semitism when on entering a hotel on the outskirts of that city he was subtly told no Jews were wanted. Mr. Asch then questioned the clerk, "As a good Christian, can you tell me where a good Jew can stay?" Upon receiving the information, Mr. Asch stalked out of the hotel.

eral Movement of Reform Jewry in the Hague, Holland for the World Union of Progressive Judaism.

Rabbi Lasker served as spiritual leader of a Dayton, Ohio Synagogue from 1931 to 1933 and was then called to Havana, where he has ministered for the past eight years. He established an enviable record for himself and Jewry in Havana, handling the very difficult Refugee problem.

In this capacity, he acted as vice-president of the Central Committee of Cuba and vice-president of the Cuban Friends for Refugee Relief, a unit of the American Friends Society operating in Cuba. He also served as representative of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. While in Cuba, Rabbi Lasker organized a school for Refugee children.

Rabbi Lasker speaks five languages fluently — German, Spanish, Hebrew, French and English. He has received enthusiastic endorsement from American leaders in Jewry.

Mrs. Lasker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alter Boyman of Reynolds avenue, this city, is deeply interested in Jewish problems and has been active in communal affairs.

Arrangements are being made by Temple Judaea, which is a reform synagogue with a membership of 260 families, for a reception to Rabbi and Mrs. Lasker and their three and one-half month old son, when they arrive in Philadelphia.

Jewish Leader In Reich Dies

LISBON. — Dr. Otto Hirsch, president of the Reichsvereinigung of German Jews, died this week in Germany, according to reports received here. No details of the circumstances of his death are available.

Dr. Hirsch, who was 55 years old, has been the head of the Reichsvereinigung since 1935. He has been arrested by the Gestapo on several occasions and held for varying periods.

No Jewish Army Says British Daily Zionists Should Join Regular Army Regiments

LONDON. — Conflicting reactions met the publication of a story in the London Daily Sketch this week which said that the British Government had turned down the proposal for the creation of a Jewish army in Palestine.

"The British Government," the Daily Sketch wrote, "declined to form a Jewish national army for which leading Jewish interests are pressing. The Government gave as its grounds that it cannot allow sectional religious interests in the army. The war Office is of the opinion that Zionists should join the ordinary British regiments. The Jews want a Jewish army largely for work in Palestine in order to give them a bigger stake in the country after the war."

MEMOS OF A GIRL FRIDAY:
Dear Mr. W.: When William L. Shirer, CBS correspondent whose best-seller is "Berlin Diary," got back here after many years in Germany, he visited all the Mr. Bigs in the War Dept. They found his observations on the German army so interesting and informative they urged him to call on the commanding officers of all the U. S. Corps areas and relay the same info. He was provided with letters of introduction and rec'd a warm welcome and keen audience everywhere—with one exception . . . Lieut. General Yoo-hoo Lear brushed Shirer off, virtually throwing him out of his office. His explanation was that "nothing a newspaper man has to say about military matters could possibly interest me."

The college boy who wrote "Daddy" up and enlisted in the marines—right after getting that plump royalty check for his first hit! . . . Jimmy Stewart is dating Georgia Carroll when he gets "leave." He's no dope.

Mrs. John Steinbeck is working in a New York ad agency. She admits to chums they've parted, which you reported months ago and then "retracted"—just 'cause you were asked to do so . . . Chaplain, I hear, has already made a million from "Dictator" and is supposed to have created a trust fund with the coin for all his employees who worked with him on the picture . . . Hendrik Willem Van Loon is ill at his Old Greenwich home.

Collier's roving correspondent, Frank Gervasi, sent the longest radiogram from Cairo. Says N. Y. newspapers pilloried Lt. Col. Philip Astley for "mucking up relations between American press and General H'quarters Middle East." This isn't true, Frank says, Astley's given everybody a fair shake, is a great guy, etc., and even broke some old fashioned rules to be of help to U. S. scribes . . . Patricia Garfield is pulling this brand of baby-talk (calls it a game), to wit: "What's the color of marriage?" (Answer: "Wed") . . . "What's the color of a non-trespassing sign?" — ("G'way!") . . . "What's the color of a ghost?" "Boo!" . . . "A baby ghost?" "Baby boo!" . . . All right, doctor, I'll go quickly.—Your Girl Friday.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER:
The Wireless: There's no great loss to American dialers in Italy's ban of our newscasters. Their copy had been whittled to nothingness by the censors anyway. You'll recall Wm. Shirer decided to quit Berlin when all they left him to say was Goebbels' propaganda . . . The Goering item showed that the newsiest stuff originates outside the Axis borders . . . Sen. Taft, who was the darling of the G. O. P. dailies not long ago, can't get them to cover his broadcasts nowadays. It's sad when your supporters decide you haven't got anything to say worth listening to . . . Some of the shows faded to a whisper the other evening, the reason being the explosion of hydrogen gas up near the center of the sun disk. Things 'ave come to a pretty pass when we have to depend on another planet to silence some of our radio comedy . . . "Daddy" is beginning to make us holler "Uncle!" . . . Some of the handleaders are now trying to be clever and toss their quips as though they were bricks.

The Story Tellers: Dictators' gratitude, as reported by Francis Hackett in "What Mein Kampf Means to America"—a good book for Senators: When Adolf penned "Mein Kampf", it was such a mass of hysteria and ignorance it had to be edited. A priest, Father Stamepfle, blue-penciled the illiteracies and rewrote the rest. Hitler couldn't stand the priest knowing him as such a dope, and had him murdered in 1934, with the rest of his best friends . . . Best of the anecdotes in the SEP's piece on Col. McCormick, Chi. Tribune publisher, reports the time the State of Rhode Island got under his hide. The Colonel expelled that state from the Union, removing a star from the flag in the daily's lobby . . . Very timely, and very attention-worthy is "Free Man Speaking," by W. F. Bigelow in Good Housekeeping . . . By all means read Edgar A. Mowrer's comparison between America and France in Look. If his revelations don't wake you up — then, brother, you ain't asleep — you're dead.

Chicago Clash Kills Religious Bill
CHICAGO.—Because of the strong opposition developing from some religious groups, Superintendent of Schools William Johnson announced the suspension for the time being of all plans for giving courses of religious instruction in the Chicago high schools.
The plan which had the full support of Catholics as well as a considerable body of Protestants was in general strongly opposed by Jews and the liberal Christian groups. The Jewish rabbis in particular strongly condemned the plan, though a small minority of the younger rabbis favored it. The Board of Education it was announced, will take up the matter again in September.

VICHY, France. — A Jewish officer, Captain Samuel Meyer, of the 152nd Infantry Regiment, tops the list of officers and soldiers cited by General Huntziger for the Legion of Honor and other military awards, which was published here.
Captain Meyer is described in the citation as "a calm, energetic and cold blooded commander." The citation goes on to say that "on May 20, 1940, despite violent bloody firing of the enemy artillery, firing at sight on French columns, Captain Meyer, during the counter attack led with mastery and courage the march of his unit. He was very seriously injured while at the head of his troops giving the order to the chiefs of the sections."

Rabbi Scores Apostate Jews

VICHY, France. — Jews who avoid France's anti-Jewish decrees by renouncing their religion were denounced this week by Grand Rabbi Isaiah Schwartz as "new Christians, rejected and despised by Judaism."
The decrees except Jews who renounce their faith. The grand rabbi urged Jews to declare their race "for the honor of Judaism."

Tired of It All, Youth Seeks New Life - But Returns to Old

NEW YORK. — David Herman, a chubby, tow-headed adventurer who is nearly 12, headed back to a humdrum life of delivering groceries in Washington, D. C., his dream of becoming a movie actor "like Errol Flynn" at an end for the moment.
Little Davey, clad in a white polo shirt, linen shorts and sport shoes walked up to the information both at La Guardia Field one night this week and asked the half-fare plane rate to Hollywood.
At a loss momentarily when told that the fare was $75, the resourceful David then wanted to know if the air company would advance credit. The fare, he said, would be paid back with interest after he became a movie star and his name became well known.
An officer, interested in David's attempt to float a loan, asked a few questions, which David answered quite glibly. His name, he said, was Robert Hudson and he lived at 1338 Hollywood street, Hollywood, Calif. He had been living with an aunt in New York and was now going to rejoin his parents. It was indeed peculiar that his aunt had given him only $12.35 in pennies, nickles, dimes and quarters for his fare home.

The officer finally got the truth. Robert Hudson was to be David's stage name. There was no aunt, and the correct address was Columbia road, Washington. He had left there, taking a train to New York and a taxi to the airfield.
"I was sick of delivering groceries," he explained.
Police notified David's father, and placed David in the Children's Society shelter, for the night.

Report Execution Near Bialystok

STOCKHOLM. — The Berlin radio in a broadcast admitted the mass-execution of Jews in Bialystok and the burning of synagogues there immediately after the occupation of that city by German troops.

It was learned here also that the Nazi authorities in occupied Poland issued an order to all Jewish doctors and medical students to report at once to German military quarters for assignment to military hospitals overcrowded with German soldiers and officers wounded on the Russian front.

To Take One Fifth Of Jewish Wealth

LONDON. — Bulgarian Jews must turn over to the Government twenty percent of any wealth belonging to them. A decree to that effect has just been put into effect. The Government authorities said that they anticipated the measure would yield them approximately $15,000,000.

REPORTED MISSING
LONDON, (JPS). — Dudley J. P. Joel, Jewish Conservative M. P., has been reported missing in action while on duty at his naval post. Joel was a son of the late S. B. Joel, South African mining millionaire.

For a WOMAN'S fancy

V—stands for VICTORY . . .

With "V" now known the world over as a silent prayer for a British victory, designers—aware of a V-ital selling point—are turning out some V-ogueish whimsies these days . . .

There's the stunning new V pin—two fingers raised in a brave salute forming a V . . . In golden or silvery metal . . . On a stunning, big carryall purse, is applied a huge leather letter V . . . Fine, kid gloves are highlighted with V-shaped suede insets . . . Entrancing new fall frocks are being cut with clearly-defined V necklines, while long tight sleeves plunge to deep V's over the wrist . . . Basque frocks continue important because of their graceful V-shaped waistlines . . . Coiffures are keeping abreast of the times, too, what with hair being arranged in two parts, starting at the hairline and forming a perfect V . . . And then, there's the cosmetic house who has introduced Victory red as the fashion of the hour, a brilliant prophecy of tomorrow . . . The colour is as bright as courage, spirited as Britain . . . Intense, resolute . . . Women are wearing it to committee meetings, defense classes, benefit balls—every hour, every day, everywhere—NOW . . .

The other nite, at one of the hotels, we spied some young thing drinking a long, tall lemonade, and as girls will, she indolently twisted and played with the cellophane straws until she had unconsciously formed them into a bold V . . . Her escort smiled—and so did we! . . .

While Victory is the word of the hour, there are dozens of other V-ery important V words that apply themselves aptly to our current way of life . . . Follow us down the list, will you . . .

Vagabonds . . . You folks leading a roaming and romantic life for as long as the summer lasts, trekking through our New England, seeking undiscovered spots of beauty . . .

Valise . . . The small portmanteau that accomplishes 75% of such treks . . .

Vanguard . . . The kind we've got up in Iceland . . .

Veranda . . . The covered balcony or open portico that made such a wonderful setting for that dance the other nite . . .

Verbatim . . . Everybody these days can recite an American's Creed verbatim, can you? . . .

Victoria, or Vickie . . . The name so many parents are choosing for newborn daughters . . .

Villa . . . The magnificent, country seats one views on a motor trip through Swampscott, Marblehead, Magnolia, Lynn, Gloucester and all the way up along the Bay State's North Shore . . .

Vineyard . . . Martha's, out in the Atlantic Ocean . . . Where, rest, quiet, good food and down-to-earth living has sent many folk back to work feeling as good as new . . .

Vintage . . . This year's of mid-lady's chapeau . . . All we can say is "Wow!" . . .

Vivacity . . . That certain charm, more precious than beauty, which so many of our local ladies possess . . .

Vogue . . . The magazine with a "lift" in every line.

Volunteers . . . Our own courageous and gallant young men, who give up their all, so our country never may fall . . .

Vow . . . And here we are again, back to Britain, admiring their solemn decision and pledge for victory—come what may . . .

Kingston Fair To Open August 26

Planned Features Announced By Peckham, Manager

The role which Rhode Island agriculture plays in the defense program forms the keynote for the Sixth Annual State Fair, which starts a seven day and night exposition on August 26, in Kingston, with a variety of educational and entertainment specialties, it was announced this week by Arthur N. Peckham, manager.

Premium books containing entry blanks are being issued this week and may be procured by addressing a postcard to Mr. Peckham at Kingston.

An innovation among the event's features will be night harness racing with pari-mutuel betting. Other attractions will comprise a poultry department, with Dr. Charles A. White, Jr., as superintendent; handicraft demonstration in the Home Industries building; a motorized "Thrill Show", and enlarged classes in the various exhibit sections, including flowers and sheep.

The spacious Fair grounds have been rearranged to provide additional parking area, and to insure ease in moving from building to building.

150 Internee Wives Riot in France

VICHY. — The Paris press published a communique this week issued by the Institute for Study of Jewish Questions charging that 150 Jewish wives of internees "invaded" the Offices of the Committee for Co-ordination of Jewish Welfare work in Paris and broke windows and furniture.

The communique said police from two districts were called to restore order.

The incident was believed the result of a notice making the wives of internees subject to the Co-ordination Committee.

Service Assists Emigre Rabbis

NEW YORK. — More than 150 refugee rabbis have been placed throughout the United States by the National Committee on Refugee Jewish Ministers of the National Refugee Service, according to Albert Abrahamson, executive director of the NRS. These are in addition to numerous cantors, religious teachers, and schochatims, who have been able to continue work in their own fields in this country through the efforts of the committee.

Mostly the rabbis have gone to small communities, where there had never been a rabbi before—places too rural and too small to interest American-trained men—and where the people welcomed the opportunity to hold services and have their children taught by able religious leaders.

Wiedemann to Get Poland Nazi Post

STOCKHOLM. — Captain Fritz Wiedemann, Hitler's personal friend, who as German Consul-General at San Francisco was among the Nazi diplomats expelled from the United States last week, will be appointed vice governor of the so-called general government in Nazi-occupied Poland, it is reported in the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung in Berlin.

SUMMERING AT SEAGATE
Miss Josephine Horowitz of 24 Pennsylvania avenue is spending the remainder of the summer at Seagate, Coney Island, with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Stearns.

"Hold That Ghost"

Lithuania Gets Gestapo Leader

LISBON. — Lithuanian Jews are very much perturbed over the arrival at the Lithuanian capital of Kaunas of Eichman, who is in charge of Jewish affairs at the Gestapo headquarters in Berlin.

Eichman speaks a fluent Hebrew, having born in the German colony of Sarona in Palestine. His knowledge of Hebrew appears, however, to have goaded, rather than deterred him in the persecution of Jews.

He is responsible for the arrest of thousands of Jews in Germany and for the merciless eviction of Jews from Vienna and the Protectorate to the Lublin district. His coming to Lithuania is reported as for the purpose "of suppressing Jewish anti-Nazi activities."

Hungary Closes Jewish Schools

LONDON. — The authorities in the Hungarian zone of Transylvania, in Carpathia-Ruthenia, have closed the Jewish schools due to the rapid sweep of the "V" campaign among the Jews. The Jews replace the letter "V" with their own "NUN", which stands for Nitzachon, meaning "Victory."

It seems that even school children were inspired by the campaign and on the blackboard, as teachers would turn their backs, the "NUN" for Nitzachon would appear. The sidewalks and the courtyard bore the sign of Jewish defiance. Attempts to punish the culprits have failed, because their number is legion.

Jewish Physicians Serve With British

LONDON. — Seventy-eight Jewish doctors are serving with the British forces in the Middle-East, it is announced here. Jewish doctors participated in General Wavell's successful Nile-campaign and have executed, expertly and courageously, the duties laid upon them.

Besides those doctors who are serving directly with the army, there are many Jewish doctors in the medical services of the Palestine Civilian Defense. During the Axis air-raids on Haifa and Tel Aviv, these doctors were on their posts and helped to prevent panic, which doubtless was the enemy's aim.

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

Rabbi and Mrs. Braude are on their way to Mexico . . . There, they may run across Ethel Levene, who is visiting the picturesque cities of Mexico on a tour . . . Three Providence boys were among the ten that passed the State Medical examination . . . They were Abraham Horvitz, Milton Korb, and Jacob Reich . . . Walter Schumann, who brought out that tongue-twister tune, "Hut-Sut Song," has cleaned up and is retiring from song publishing, and looking about for some less crazy vocation . . .

Ham - Jam Session

That was quite a musicale that occurred at the Fred Tenenbaum's one nite last week . . . The artists were Mrs. Fred Tenenbaum at the piano, Leo Glecklen tooted the clarinet, Kenneth Logowitz sawed the violin, Irwin Bornside tickled the piccolo, while Freddie plucked the mandolin . . . The soloist for the evening was Gertrude Glecklen—who interpreted the dance . . . Cummunique . . . This is the latest "story" about the Russo-German war: "What is the annihilated Russian army doing today?" "Oh, it's holding up the ever-advancing Germans . . ."

Mountain Retreat

From Bethlehem, we hear that the Louis Linders, the John Silvermans, Rabbi Aaron Goldin and his sister, and Maurice Hendel enjoyed the crisp mountain air there last week-end . . . By the time you read this, the Murray Abrams and his mother will have arrived there for a stay . . . Attending the Commercial Law League last week were the following Rhode Islanders: the Max Winograds . . . the Edwin O. Halperts . . . the Archie Smiths . . . and Irving Winograd . . . An observant traveler telephoned to say that the Boston and Maine railroad is painting its passenger cards red . . . The new Russian influence, no doubt . . . Possibly the fact that Harry Hopkins flew clear across Europe to reach Moscow, will give the Germans an idea of how far a lease-lend bomber can fly . . .

Localia

The Norman Cohens have purchased a home in Edgewood we hear . . . The Sam Dicks were feted last Saturday nite on their 34th wedding anniversary, at a party given at the Narragansett Hotel by their children . . . Saul Friedman is riding around town in a snappy, new Cadillac . . . Vacationing at the Berkshire Country Club last week, were Charlotte and Norma Koufmann and Mollie Rothman . . . A visitor brings attention to an item that Ann Corio says she used to pay as much as $11,000 just for a single costume . . . Never in history, to paraphrase the remarks of a great statesman, has so much been spent for so little to stay on for so short a time . . .

Word to Wise

Our vacation editor has asked us to warn potential vacationists that their reservations should be made at least one week in advance . . . The number of resorts, that are booked solidly in August, are increasing daily, and many others are refusing guests for week-ends . . . Better check with him before leaving town, or you may be in for a fruitless trip . . . The Samuel Klibanoffs are at Riverside for the summer . . . Mrs. Samuel Cokin had twenty-one tables of bridge in play at a lawn party, held recently on behalf of Hadassah at her home in Barrington Beach . . .

Parting Paragraph

Despite the fact that the Army isn't serving Kosher food, Orthodox soldiers can obtain Kosher salami at the canteens . . . We hear that Rabbi Stephen S. Wise is considering a trip to London . . . Among the more successful U. S. good will ambassadors in Latin America is Boston's Lincoln Kerstein, whose American ballet is making a tremendous hit down there . . . That's all for now . . .

NEW ENGLAND WEATHER

New England weather has a way of occasionally taking things apart. Which does blow the rest of the country occasional good in a telephone way.

The telephone industry began in New England where "the weather changes while you are discussing it." So New England Telephone people have always had to figure on getting around or through the weather. The telephone cable, for instance, was put through some tough tryouts in this territory. New England weather taught early experimenters some valuable lessons that speeded the development of this important improvement.

Telephone communication is better protected from pranks of Nature than ever before. Some 96.7% of the 5,778,248 miles of New England Telephone wire are now enclosed in cable. . . . More than three-fifths of that cable is below ground.

Such protection of your voice-ways against the New England weather is a year-round, year-after-year job of your Telephone Company.

"REPENT AT LEISURE"

Interview With Irving Berlin, The Nation's Songwriter

BY LAWRENCE GOULD

There is a new song on the air today upon which ASCAP has released all restrictions. Its copyright is held by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury.

"Any Bonds Today?" Irving Berlin has asked of the American people. "Here comes the freedom man, scrape up the most you can" — and Berlin, whose output of hits over the past three decades has made him the most prolific and successful songwriter in America, has turned out another hit.

Irving Berlin sees his job as that of a songwriter, but his songs today have purpose, insight and emotion which reflect his deep love for America. To him America is a word weighted with meaning. It is a fabulous land still. The land which was good enough to take him out of the East Side and to give him fame is a land to which he is profoundly grateful. He is giving generously of his gratitude today in his work.

This is the key to the personality of a man who speaks in the common idiom and who feels that in this country there is no room for the prejudice and the oppression of Europe. He enjoys reminiscing over the old days when he knew bitter poverty. That poverty, he feels, did not seem so bitter at that time. It was the accepted way of life in his neighborhood.

Today he keeps always before him the remembrance of those days. In his tastefully furnished office in New York's theatrical district stands an old Monarch upright piano which he bought secondhand in 1909 for $100, and which he has taken all around the world with him.

But it is typical of Berlin that he doesn't say, "I keep this piano because it has fond memories for me." He says instead, "For some people this piano would be no good at all, but you see" — and he manipulates a lever — "I can change the keyboard around to suit the type of music I want to write. I write only in one key and for me this piano is perfect."

On subjects of Jewish interest he speaks forcefully and intelligently. Yet on such subjects he feels that men like Rabbi Stephen S. Wise are best equipped to express their points of view and, with characteristic modesty, he prefers that they speak for the Jewish people.

To him the job of songwriting represents his best contribution, as an American and as a Jew, to the task of keeping America free. Continued freedom in America, he feels, means continued freedom for Jew as well as Gentile. Anti-Semitism, he insists, will wane. He knows that the dislike of Jews which was once purely social has burgeoned into a much more active movement. He is confident that the good sense of the American people will ultimately reduce the like or the dislike of the Jew to the matter of individual taste, where it belongs.

The new army, Mr. Berlin feels, is much superior to that of 1917. It is quicker, more intelligent and determined to see its job through. Irving Berlin will heartily agree that the songs which were popular in the last war could not be revived to meet the music needs of 1941.

Irving Berlin has succeeded as no other American in capturing the spirit of a swiftly changing age. To him America never changes because he has changed with America. The "Let's Have Another Cup of Coffee — Let's Have Another Piece of Pie" refrain of 1932 has given way to "Arms for the Love of America" in 1941. Irving Berlin, balladist and patriot, is like the Uncle Sam he loves — "the freedom man."

Austrian Physician Denied License

N. Y. Court of Appeals Upholds Action of State

ALBANY. — Dr. Otto Marburg, 66-year-old Austrian neurologist, now serving as a clinical Professor of Neurology at Columbia University and also as a research neuro-pathologist at Montefiore Hospital in New York, has been refused endorsement of his medical license by the court of Appeals, 5 to 2, upholding the action of Dr. Ernest E. Cole, Commissioner of Education.

Dr. Marburg asked that he be permitted to practice medicine without an examination. When this was refused he sought action in the courts. The Trial Court and Appellate Division ruled in his favor, but this week's decision sets their determinations aside.

In the court's opinion, the Commissioner of Education was clothed with discretionary power to endorse a foreign medical license when the applicant had reached a position of "conceded eminence" and that the power to confer a privilege "does not create an absolute right in the applicant."

Sir Archibald Cochrane, the Governor of Burma, was a submarine commander in World War I.

German Turns Jewish Rather Than be Separated from Wife

ROME. — Ending several years of bitter vicissitudes, "Aryan" German Rudolf Gogg completed the last lap separating him from his German Jewish wife in the United States.

Following Hitler's persecution of Jews, Gogg decided to follow his Jewish wife and her race rather than suffer separation. To facilitate this step, he embraced the Jewish religion and emigrated to Italy with his wife. When anti-Semitism came to Italy, they both registered for immigration to the United States. With Italy's entrance into the war, he was interned in an Italian concentration camp together with other foreign Jews. Several months ago, his wife obtained her American visa and embarked for New York.

Gogg, however, being of "Aryan" race, had difficulty obtaining his visa from the English authorities. A happy solution was finally reached when United States' authorities made an exception of his case and permitted him to take passage aboard the Clipper.

Pro-Nazi Cleveland Scientist Deserts $5800-A-Year Job

CLEVELAND. — Six weeks ago Dr. Herbert S. Reichle, a city pathologist with pro-German views, started two weeks' vacation. He has not returned to his $5800-a-year-job — and it has been declared vacant. What has happened to Dr. Reichle is Cleveland's current mystery.

Dust settles over his laboratory equipment at City Hospital. It has not been touched since Dr. Reichle told associates he had "an opportunity to take a trip" and started what was to have been a two-week holiday.

That was on Friday, June 13. Failing to return on schedule,

McWilliams Wins Retrial in New York

NEW YORK, (JPS). — The retrial of Joe McWilliams, New York's leading Jew-baiter, ordered by the Appellate term of the Court of Special Sessions, has started here. McWilliams was convicted last fall on a disorderly conduct charge involving his use of violent language about the Jews at a public meeting, but the higher court ordered a retrial on the basis that extraneous matter had been introduced into the evidence.

he was found July 10 in Mexico City by newsmen. He said he had been ill with a gastro-intestinal upset and expressed surprise when informed he had been suspended by hospital authorities for failure to return.

"It might be that the international situation has something to do with it," Dr. Reichle said. "My own sympathies in the European war have been frankly with Germany."

The New Jersey-born pathologist added that he was "flying right back to Cleveland" to protest his suspension.

But he didn't board the plane on which he had made reservations, and the hospital has heard nothing more from him. Associates who knew the muscular, 45-year-old scientist as a man devoted to his family believe he may have attempted to join his wife and two sons in Germany.

NO JEWS RELEASED

VICHY. — The "Paris Soir" declared that not a single Jew will be among the 100,000 French prisoners of war to be released by Nazi Germany in payment for the collaboration agreement reached between Darlan and Hitler.
