Russian Jewry

In the marshlands of the Pripyet and on the steppes of the Ukraine and perhaps elsewhere in the expanses of the U. S. S. R., the blood of Jews, regardless of their judgment on or sentiment for the Stalinist regime, will mingle with the blood of the Russian workers and peasants in defense of the country.

The technical and administrative skills of a generation of youth that has been trained in the schools and in the experience of the Soviet land will come into play in the resistance to the Nazi juggernaut.

All who are interested in the success of the task now common to so large a part of the world—the defeat of Hitlerism—will be wishing for it a speedy triumph.

Should the situation develop adversely a most frightful tragedy may befall five million Jews in the Soviet lands. Against them the venom and unspeakable cruelties of the Nazis, accompanied by their companions in arms—the Iron Guardists of Rumania and the White Russian monarchists and reactionaries of various shades—are already being directed under the battle cry "Bey Zhidov; Spassay Bossin (Kill the Jews; Save Russia)"—the slogan which took the lives of tens of thousands of Russian Jews in 1917-1920.

But from the long-range point of view there is a brighter angle to this tragic development. Hitler's treacherous and violent dissolution of his pact with Stalin and the acceptance by the Western world of the principle of collaboration with the Soviet Union for the determination of this conflict have re-opened a long-closed chapter in Jewish history. The events of June, 1941 have re-established the link with Russian Jewry which has been broken since 1917.

Culturally, economically and politically Russian Jewry, insofar as the plight, the problems and the hopes of the Jewish people are concerned, has been muzzled into silence.

In the blood and the sweat and in the toil of the struggle that lies ahead, Russian Jewry is re-entering the stage of Jewish history by virtue of its participation in the task which is most urgent and sacred to all freedom-loving men and women: The defeat of Hitlerism.

Intense, resourceful, determined Russian Jews have now the opportunity, denied to them under the Hitler-Satlin pact, to contribute of their life and substance to the defeat of Satan. Their weight will, it may be hoped, not be a negligible quantity when the victorious opponents of Nazidom will sit down at the peace conference to map out solutions for the problems of a free world.

It may be hoped that on the day of triumph all participants in the struggle including the U. S. S. R., will collaborate in the solution of the problem of Jewish homelessness and in giving effect to the Jewish people's own desire: A free and large Jewish State in Palestine.

In the hour of its trial and on its re-entry on to the stage of Jewish history, we extend our salute to Russian Jewry.

Nye Sounds Warning

Dreads Public Opinion When Post-War Conditions Occur

WASHINGTON. — Senator Nye insisted this week that his condemnation of the film industry as "warmongers" did not indicate that he was anti-Semitic and further, such intimations of persecution come from "those of Jewish faith, not by me and not by the investigating committee."

"There would have been no differing approach by me to the subject had those primarily responsible for propaganda in the movies been in the main Methodists, Episcopalians, Catholics or Mohammedans," he declared.

While asking that the anti-Semitic "red herring" be "tossed in the ash can," Senator Nye nevertheless delivered a warning to the Jewish people against further "fanning" of race hatred in the United States.

"I venture to say that, whether we get in or stay out of war, when the full burden of these very costly months come to rest upon the people of our country, it is but natural to expect that a perplexed, angry, burdened, unemployed people will be ready to respond to the agitators who will want to help them find the scapegoat responsible for it all, some—

Petaun Chooses French Legion

Anti-Semitic Vets Only Political Party

VICHY. — Widespread apprehension was felt in Jewish quarters here as the aged Marshal Petaun, continuing his pro-Nazi course, named the anti-Semitic French Legion of War Veterans the sole legal political party in unoccupied France.

Dropping all pretenses of democracy and liberalism, Marshal Petaun declared that henceforth the French "national revolution" will look for support to the French Legion, which presumably will play the same role in France as the Nazi party in Germany and the Fascist party in Italy.

The French Legion of War Veterans and Volunteers of the National Revolution, which embraces the country's most anti-Semitic and reactionary elements, will be charged with the responsibility of silencing critics and "saboteurs" of the pro-Nazi regime.

The announcement of the French "national revolution" was accompanied by a tightening of anti-Jewish decrees, giving rise to fears in Jewish circles that the recent police raids in Jewish district were only a forerunner of an organized, Government-sponsored anti-Jewish campaign.

Dutch in Palestine Ordered to Enlist

JERUSALEM. — All Dutch citizens between 19 and 27, residing in Palestine, were ordered to join the Dutch colors. The order was made public by the Dutch consulate.

Extensive and successful anti-aircraft and anti-parachutist maneuvers were carried out in Palestine, following the appearance this week of enemy planes over Haifa and Tel Aviv. The maneuvers proved that Palestine is now well protected against possible enemy air raids.

R. I. Communities Join Hands In Annual Fund Campaigns Federated Drive October 20 to 29

Firmly convinced that "together we can accomplish far more than could be accomplished separately," the five Chests representing eleven Rhode Island communities have joined forces to conduct a united Community Fund campaign this year. This federated drive will start October 20 and is to continue through the 29th.

Dr. Henry M. Wriston, president of Brown University, was named president of the combined chests participating in the Fund and Mr. S. Foster Hunt will again serve as General Chairman.

The United Campaign includes the community chests of Providence, Cranston, Pawtucket, Woonsocket, and Warwick. Also participating will be the organizations in Central Falls, Lincoln,

He succeeds Edmund I. Kaufman of Washington, D. C. who last week withdrew his candidacy for a second term due to ill health. Dr. James G. Heller of Cincinnati was unanimously chosen chairman of the National Administrative Council.

FDR Asks No Discrimination In Federal Employment

HYDE PARK, N. Y. — President Roosevelt has asked the heads of 51 Government departments and agencies to take "immediate steps" to put into effect a policy of non-discrimination in Federal employment because of race, creed or national origin.

His action was an outgrowth of protests that Negroes were being discriminated against in the defense program. It was in line with recommendations of a Committee on Fair Employment Practice, which he set up last June 25.

The Committee was headed by Mark Etheridge, an executive of the Louisville Courier-Journal. In a letter to Mr. Etheridge, President Roosevelt said:

"... This will inform you that I have approved the Committee's recommendation. I am, therefore, today forwarding to the heads of all departments and independent establishments a letter emphasizing the necessity of impartial administration of the Federal civil service, entirely without prejudice based on creed, race or national origin..."

In his letter to the heads of all departments and independent establishments, the President said:

"It is imperative that we deal with this problem speedily and effectively. I shall look for immediate steps to be taken by all departments and independent establishments of the government to facilitate and put into effect this policy of non-discrimination in Federal employment."

Police Hold 3 In Jewel Swindle

NEW YORK. — Three men named Sam—one of whom posed as a refugee carrying smuggled diamonds, one as a prospective purchaser of gems, and one as an appraiser—swindled a Bronx woman out of a $1000 diamond ring and $225 in cash, police said this week. They will tell the judge about it Sept. 16.

Police said Sam Cohen, 45 a counterman; Samuel Goldman, 52, a furrier; and Sam Prager, 53, a waiter, are accused of swindling Mrs. Fannie Cohen, of the money and jewels, employing the ancient switch racket.

Refutes Charge Dutch Anti-Jewish

WASHINGTON. — Dr. A. Loudon, the Dutch Minister, said this week that Jews enjoyed full citizenship in the Netherlands prior to the occupation by Nazi Germany.

Under the Dutch constitution, the Minister said, there was no discrimination among any Dutch subjects and a number of Jews have held high civilian and military office in the Netherlands.

Consequently, Dr. Loudon said, it is incorrect, in reporting anti-Jewish measures taken by the Nazi, to say that Jews never were accorded full Dutch citizenship.

LOWER AGE LIMITS

WASHINGTON. — A change in regulations lowering the age limit for chaplains in the Reserve Corps of the Army from 42 to 40 has been promulgated by the War Department.

Dubinsky Refuses Invitation to Talk

NEW YORK. — David Dubinsky, President of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union (A. F. of L.), refused an invitation Saturday to attend a Jewish Peoples Committee mass meeting, asserting in a letter that he had no faith in what he termed the Committee's recent conversion to aid Great Britain and Soviet Russia.

The meeting was scheduled as a rally for the President's program.

"Your noisy effort to render lip service to a cause which you have only recently denounced is, in my judgment, likely to harm Soviet Russia rather than help it in this critical hour," he said.

Labor Scarce—Ban Immigration

GENEVA. — Nazi Germany has banned the emigration of all Jews between the ages of 18 and 45 as a result of an acute labor shortage, according to reports received here.

An order issued three weeks ago banned immigration from Germany of all male Jews within these age limits but the new regulation applies also to Jewish women, the reports said. Nazi spokesmen refused to confirm the report although they admitted a labor shortage exists in Germany since the beginning of the Russo-German war.

Offer $1 for Dead Or Alive Saboteurs

ANKARA. — The Nazi disregard for human life, particularly the lives of Jews, was demonstrated by an offer made by Nazi occupying authorities in Serbia of the equivalent of $1 for the capture dead or alive of every "Jewish saboteur," it was reported here. The offer was reported to be encouraging pro-Nazi elements in the population to murder Jews and then claim the $1 reward.

33 Refugees Saved By Batista Order

HAVANA. — Thirty-three European Jewish refugees were permitted to land in Cuba pending arrangements for transportation to their countries of destination as a result of the personal intervention of President Batista, it was learned. The refugees, who arrived on the Spanish ship Magalanes, had previously been ordered returned to Spain by Cuban immigration authorities.

"Grooming" Louis Bromfield As Ohio's Next Governor

MANSFIELD, Ohio. — Insisting though he does that he has no political aspirations, nonetheless Louis Bromfield, author, may be the "new face" the faction-ridden Ohio Democrats have been seeking to challenge Gov. John W. Bricker's third-term bid in 1942. Chatting with Bromfield on his 1000-acre farm near here, one gets the impression that he might respond to pressure. And a draft movement is quite definitely on. Democrats from all over Ohio are beating a path up the winding lane which leads to his rambling white house on a hill, urging him to make the race. They don't come in caravans, as yet, but by twos and threes, and they come almost daily.

Mr. Bromfield is a thorough-going Democrat. He believes the party must have a candidate who has not been involved in Ohio Democracy's factional wars of the last eight years. At the moment, apart from his writing, agriculture is his great interest. And when he disavows political ambitions, he qualifies the statement with the remark that he would like to be Secretary of Agriculture sometime.

He thinks Henry G. Brunner would make a great governor. But Mr. Brunner, former Democratic state chairman and now about to retire as Ohio manager of the HOLC, isn't a candidate.

There is a close affinity between the 44-year-old author and the veteran politician. Heinie Brunner gave Louis Bromfield his first job, as a reporter on his Mansfield newspaper. Does this suggest something? Bromfield the candidate, and Brunner his campaign manager? It's at least a possibility, and many Democrats believe it would be a winning team.

Take Your Pick—Beards or Masks

JERUSALEM. — Bearded Jews in Palestine will have to choose between their beards and gas masks, since efficient use of gas masks is hampered by beards, it was stated here when the Government received a shipment of 120,000 gas masks for distribution among the population.

So serious is the problem, that the Chief Rabbinate is calling a special session to consider it. The belief is expressed that the Rabbinate may decide that the removal of beards is permissible in cases where this is absolutely necessary.

"I dread it," the Senator continued. "I detest that hour bringing this race prejudice into our politics and into our thinking. I wish those who would be its victims would sense the possibilities and afford a conduct that would not lend itself to fanning later on.

"But when that hour comes, and if it comes, I shall be found in the very front lines of those who give battle to race prejudice, to anti-Semitism," he promised.

While Walter Winchell is on temporary active duty with the U. S. navy his column is being conducted by guest columnists. This week's column is written:

By KATE SMITH
'We're All Americans'

As a singer and commentator I have had my say via radio to millions of Americans both at home and abroad. From time to time I receive gracious invitations from editors to express myself as a reporter on topics of the day. I always welcome such opportunities and more so now, for I feel that not enough is being said on behalf of America for Americans.

Not so long ago I introduced a new song of America titled "We're All Americans" which your editor thought should be the title of this column. The lyrics of this song which I made recently for Columbia Records, reads:

'We're all Americans,
We're proud to bear the name;
Our nation's fathers wove a flag
By the light of freedom's flame.
Now waving bravely overhead,
It tells us what to do;
We're all Americans,
All true blue.

*Permission by Collwill Corp.
It is that flag which gave us our birthright. It is that spirit which gave us our courage. It is that Freedom which made our land a great democracy. It is that something—faith perhaps—which is found in the following stories:
YOUTHFUL AMERICA

I'm thinking of a child, a little girl of 11. An average American girl, her name is Mary Esther Wheatley, from Hamburg, N. Y. . . . Mary's daddy was an aviator. His was a hazardous job for he flew the untried planes . . . he was a test pilot. Making aviation safe for America was his vocation. One day, not long ago, he made his last flight for his ship crashed in San Diego bay. The heaviest heart in the world was Mary's, but slowly she recaptured the faith which had always made her brave and understanding. She wrote the following lines:

They say my father died . . . he did not die,
Why just tonight I heard him fly

They say he folded his wings at sea . . . but daddy would have wanted me

To doubt these things. You can't fold wings

That for a lifetime have been spread to fly above a first child's head!

Tonight when all the world is still, I'll lean upon my window sill,

And listen for you, Daddy Bill, And though the whole world fails to note

A fast-approaching dying boat, with ghostly motors in his throat,

I'll hear it come, and I shall be Proud . . . proud that you flew east to me . . .

On wings . . . that no one else can see!

AMERICANS AT HOME

Everyone is talking these days about our national defense effort; and hundreds of thousands of loyal Americans are figuring out ways, great and small, to help. Knoxville, Tenn., . . . has figured out one that seems to be a very substantial contribution. For several years, Knoxville was the first major city in the Tennessee valley to use electricity generated by the TVA. But now, instead of an unlimited use of electric lighting, the city has resorted again to flickering oil lights.

The Aluminum company's plants at Alcoa need all the power they can get. It is TVA power. Since somebody has to conserve it, Knoxville has taken the lead in setting an example. Merchants are turning off their window display lights and signs at night. One store in the downtown section substituted oil lanterns in its display windows; and strung them around the store's marquee. A florist has resorted to candles to light his windows. A cafeteria also uses candles to light the restaurant for its Family Night.

Under the impetus of these public demonstrations of power savings, more and more ideas for curtailing power have been originated. A 25 per cent curtailment of consumption is the goal.

A FOREIGNER ABROAD IN AMERICA

Last month hearts of all Americans were touched with great sorrow at the passing of Ignace Jan Paderewski. A magnificent pianist, a supreme master of music, his technical skill was enhanced by his warm personality and generous nature.

Polish by birth and loyally working all his life for that land he loved, still Paderewski was an internationalist . . . a citizen of the world. Even when he was ill and weak, even when he no longer played the beautiful music that has delighted millions through the years, he gave his remaining strength toward the rehabilitation of his countrymen. Always he was a leader among men. And yet he was a simple man . . . speaking a simple language.

It is fitting that we here in America honor this man.

UJA Spends 26 Million in 2 Years

NEW YORK. — Although it has need for double the sum, the United Jewish Appeal in the last two years has expended the vast sum of $26,000,000 through its three constituent agencies: Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal, and National Refugee Service.

It has helped 43,500 persons to emigrate from European countries and has carried on rehabilitation work among 110,000 Jewish immigrants in 17 Central and South American countries and has given aid to religious institutions in Europe, Palestine and Latin America.

Synagogue Engages Cantor and Choir

Cantor Joseph J. Kaplan of New York City, assisted by a choir under the leadership of Harry Kertzman of Boston, have been engaged to officiate at high holiday services at the Congregation Sons of Abraham, it was announced this week by Rabbi Nathan Taragin, spiritual leader.

The cantor and full choir will chant the midnight penitential service of Slicoth, Saturday night at 12 o'clock. Rabbi Taragin will preach an English sermon on the subject, "Sing Childless World."

Beth-El Women Plan October Event

Arrangements are being made by the Sisterhood of Temple Beth El, for a dessert-bridge and mah jong, to occur the latter part of October in the vestry of the Temple. Mrs. Matthew Segool, chairman of the event, this week announced that an interesting afternoon is planned.

Further details will be forthcoming at a later date. Mrs. James Krasnoff is handling publicity for the affair.

WORKMEN'S SCHOOL

The Workmen's Circle School of Providence will open its sixth season on Sunday, at which time registration will be held at 29 Snow street. As in past years, the school is under the direction of Beryl Segal. Transportation to the school will be provided.

HIAS Opens Campaign Here; Need for Funds Emphasized

With offices established at 215 Strand building, Isaac David Magnes, brother of Dr. Judah L. Magnes, president of the Hebrew University, will this year direct the local campaign for HIAS.

In a statement issued this week, Mr. Magnes expressed the hope that Rhode Island's current campaign will exceed previous years, since the work of rescue done by HIAS has of necessity been expanded. Special requests, Mr. Magnes said, for emergency allocations are being received from European branches of HIAS, and new offices have been opened. Just recently, an office was opened in Kobe, Japan, which is the second branch in the Far East, the other being in Shanghai, China. Additional offices are maintained in Casablanca, Morocco and Cadiz, Spain.

Since HIAS is not a part of, nor receives funds from other national campaigns, and has no endowment fund, it is entirely dependent upon the generosity of American Jews for necessary means with which to continue operation.

War Complicates Mailing to Europe

NEW YORK. — Some idea of the difficulties of contact between Geneva and the rest of Nazi-held Europe is evident from this schedule of mailing time:

Letters from Istanbul take 12-18 days; letters, mostly open cards, from Poland, i.e., the Government General, 10-12 days; airmail from New York and London, 12-15 days.

There is no communication with the Baltic countries, with German-occupied Serbia or Greece, except for air mail letters to the latter. The German-occupied part of France and Belgium are still cut from any communication with Switzerland and with the outside world in general, except with Germany.

Slicoth Service at Ahavath Sholom

Slicoth services, which introduce the solemn season of Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur, will be conducted at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue on Sunday morning, 6 o'clock. Cantor Schraetter and the choir will chant the service. A sermon will be presented by Rabbi Morris G. Silk.

Sabbath services will be conducted tonight (Friday) at 6:45 o'clock, while Saturday morning worship will commence at 8:30 o'clock.

Out to sea but not out of touch

Some four hundred ships sailing in New England coastal waters have regular telephone service . . . just like us landlubbers. Of course, they don't trail telephone wires from the stern. The New England Telephone Company's Coastal Harbor Radio Station WOU furnishes a radio path to land telephone lines.

These floating subscribers not only can telephone home or to friends or to business associates on land but also can get weather reports. Twice a day Telephone Station WOU broadcasts weather information furnished by the United States Coast Guard. Also, storm warnings from the Coast Guard are broadcast at two-hour intervals.

So whether you are sailing or plain land-bound, you are always in touch by telephone anywhere in New England.

Bronstein - Taber

Miss Frances A. Taber, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Taber of Atlantic avenue, became the bride of Stanley Bronstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bronstein of Emeline street, last Sunday afternoon, 4 o'clock, at a single ring ceremony performed by Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth Israel at the bride's residence. Traditional wedding songs were sung by Miss Regina Schlossberg. A reception followed the nuptials.

A gown of white net, with a satin bodice, was worn by the bride, fashioned with short puffed sleeves and a square neckline. She wore a single strand pearl necklace. Her long veil of tulle fell from a Juliet cap, and she carried a white Bible, adorned with orchids and lilies of the valley.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Mildred Gray, wearing a gown of pink and black, with gardenias placed in her hair. Irving Rosensweet acted as best man.

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

When New York gives a press preview Of the forthcoming season's styles

You can bet your favorite fingernail The fashions are full of womanly wiles . . .

1941's Fall Opening for the fashion press — spotlights, music and all the fixin's — occurred in New York this week, and here's a digest of fashion trends that stuck out noticeably . . .

Newest coats are loose and easy, wrap instead of button . . . Best example, grey wool wrappy coat with long narrow shawl collar and cuffs of sable-dyed skunk . . .

One colour from tip to toe, monotone ensembling, dramatizes the new colour Black Plum, a dark rich shade — handsome with furs . . .

Whirling dirndls and longer "dress for dinner dirndls" fresh from California and worn with black suede espadrilles, have designs on the younger set . . . Easiest to wear are the black wool jersey dirndls with bands of bright colour at hem or just below the waist.

Country clothes that use knitting as trimming for tweed suits and wool dresses make coloured wool stockings a smart follow-through . . . For instance, dark green wool dress with red rib-knit sleeves and gilet, worn with red soled sports shoes laced with rope, the latter adopted from styles of the Portuguese peasant.

Embroidery and braid are part of the formality of newest town suits, especially on borders of bell sleeves . . . This was apparent in a black suit with gold embroidery cuff deep and gold buttons and a picturesque suit of red wool with all-over black braid shown with matching drum-shaped muff . . .

Street-length dinner dresses depend on heading or rich lame fabrics for their formality, notably a coin-dotted lame taffeta peplum dress . . . Stripes are the means of combining two fabrics, as well as two colours in evening gowns . . . For example: Silver lame and brown taffeta for a drop-shouldered full-skirted formal, worn with long green gloves and a green petticoat . . . Wide bands of American beauty ribbon from neck to hem of a black crepe dinner sheath . . .

Tinsel interpretation of evening gloves appeared in elbow-length gold mesh ones and purse for a gold crepe gown roped in tinsel gold threads at the neck and finished with a tassel . . .

Hattie Carnegie's fall collection pitched a very sophisticated tent over daring combination of ruby reds that shade from light to dark with an amethyst undertone and to darker purples showing through the deeper red tones . . . These colours were played together in sportive checked tweeds for country, in wool jersey dresses and sequined evening gowns . . .

It looks as though Hattie Carnegie has taken up where Schiaparelli left off, and this neon lighting is no one colour race like Shocking pink that you will remember flashed around the style circuit for quite a few seasons . . . Hindu colours spotlighted the revival of the Irene Castle 1914 evening gown, a slit to the knee, vampire drape sheath of purple crepe and a very full short overskirt of purple tulle glittering with bright pink sequins . . . This silhouette was repeated many times in the collection, the tamest version being in black satin and tulle . . .

That more adventurous dressers will take their cues from this fashion opening's prescriptions is almost a foregone conclusion . . . And our town is not exactly devoid of femmes who dress attractively — in the extreme . . . We're watching and waiting . . .

THE TREK BACK TO THE SYNAGOGUE

The holidays are drawing near! At the synagogues there will appear

The Jews . . . who worship once a year

But . . . once a year is not enough! When religion meets its rebuff, The soul begins to crack and rough!

How can a few hours of prayer beget

Results, when each day men forget

They owe the Lord a lasting debt?

A homeless heart holds worse than vice!

Worship can come through sacrifice!

One prayer a year does not suffice!

The holidays are drawing near!

Those who flood the synagogues with tears,

Will suddenly dissolve . . . and disappear

(P. S. But you need have no fear They will return . . . next year!)
