Prov. Jewry to Assist Aid to Britain Program

U. P. A. to Seek 12 Million Emergency Fund

Editorials

All Help Possible

With the acceptance of the Jewish Congress program to give all possible aid to Great Britain, Providence Jewry thus emphasizes that it realizes that as Jews as well as Americans it has a stake in assisting Great Britain in her battle against the Nazi menace.

In a resolution passed at the Congress convention last Sunday it was pointed out that "we can no longer remain indifferent to the outcome of the great conflict in Europe. The Nazi regime has mobilized its resources not only to secure the establishment of its hegemony over the peoples of Europe but to bring about the destruction of free institutions and the democratic way of life throughout the world."

The American people have left no doubt in the minds of dictators that their sympathies are overwhelmingly with Great Britain and its Allies. As American citizens Jews of this country must do their utmost to support the policies of their government in the program of national defense and maximum help to Great Britain.

The People's Responsibility

War is no normal state in the life of nations, even though Nazis and Fascists assert the contrary. War is an exceptional, sick, and feverish condition of life, and whoever considers this fever to be a normal state thus makes a judgment on himself which brands him as abnormal in the eyes of outside observers and future generations. The Nazis and their Fuhrer have afforded numerous written and spoken contributions towards a diagnosis of their pathological condition, contributions which some day in a more healthy world shall, we hope, be correctly judged by normal and healthy generations.

One of the small contributions to this confession of the German people or of its present usurpers, is a sentence which was found by chance by the Central European Observer in a not very recent number of the organ of Reich Protector Neurath in Prague. In a leading article of this paper entitled "On the Path of Herostratos", in the course of its usual abuse of the British government and the British people, the following sentences escaped from the pen of the Nazi journalist:

"The British people have nothing to say and nothing to decide. As long as Churchill and his clique of war criminals have the government in their hands . . . EVERY PEOPLE HAS THE GOVERNMENT WHICH IT DESERVES, AND IF IT TOLERATES CRIMINALS AS ITS LEADERS THEN IT MUST BEAR THE CONSEQUENCES."

This last is a golden sentence, and it is part of the traditional Prussian tact that it was published in the humbled capital of an enslaved alien nation. We imagine that this number of the Protector's newspaper, with the sentence that we have printed in caps will have been carefully preserved in many good Czech households so that it may on that day which will come with deadly certainty be presented to the guilty section of the German people.

Our income tax law is full of strange assumptions, thinks an authority in the field. That one about a child of 18 being self-supporting is rich.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Wish to Maintain Colonization Efforts

To Protect Jews Now in Palestine

NEW YORK. — Asserting that the year 1941 will be a decisive year for the Jewish National Home in Palestine in which the fullest mobilization of American Jewish support will be the most crucial factor, Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, of Cleveland, National Chairman, announced this week the decision of the Administrative Committee of the United Palestine Appeal to inaugurate a nationwide war emergency campaign for $12,000,000 in 1941 to rally the widest possible support behind Palestine as a major haven of refuge for the oppressed and homeless Jews of European lands and as a vital point in the defense of the British Commonwealth and democracy in the Mediterranean zone. This is the largest campaign for Palestine aid in the history of American Jewry.

Cites Palestine Growth

Through the assistance of American Jewry during the past two decades, Dr. Silver pointed out, the Jewish community of Palestine had grown from 55,000 to 550,000 souls and now represents next to the Jews in the United States, the largest free Jewish community in the world.

The material support made available through the United Palestine Appeal which combines the Palestine Foundation Fund and the Jewish National Fund has made possible the immigration into Palestine of 24,000 Jewish refugees during the first year of the war and a total of 280,000 Jews from Germany, Austria, Poland, Rumania and Czechoslovakia and other lands in the period since the advent of Hitler in 1933.

47 Seized on Communist Charges

BUDAPEST. — Forty-seven Jews have been arrested in Radauti, Rumania, on charges of Communism it was reported this week. Jews were also arrested in Jassy, Botosni and Sibiu. If convicted, they may be sentenced to death under a new Iron Guardist decree.

Temple Delegates Meet in Move to Erase Date Conflicts

In a move to eliminate conflict and permit city-wide support of their respective affairs, representatives of Temples Beth El, Beth Israel and Emanuel met last Sunday at the home of Mathew E. Segool, to determine the dates of each Temple's annual spring events.

Delegates that participated in the meeting were Edward Kossove and Ralph Krauss, Temple Emanuel; Bert L. Bernhardt and Matthew E. Segool, Temple Beth El, Jacob Licht and Morris Narva, Temple Beth Israel.

The joint committee agreed to the following dates: Temple Beth-Israel carnival, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, April 23, 24 and 26; Temple Emanuel carnival, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 6, 7 and 8; and Temple Beth El spring frolic and dance, Wednesday, May 14.

A statement released after the meeting by a spokesman of the delegates said: "A true feeling of brotherhood has developed between the various Temples and should be encouraged in the future."

Attempt to Arbitrate Palestine Strike

JERUSALEM. — The Jewish Agency Executive this week took steps to arbitrate a strike which broke out in Palestine as result of demand advanced by Jewish workers for a general 37½ per cent increase in wages.

In presenting this demand, the workers argued that the increase in wages was necessitated by the jump in the cost of living.

The Agency Executive appointed a special committee headed by Isaac Gruenbaum, head of its labor department, to seek to arbitrate between the industrialists and the striking workers.

Zionist Invents Bomb Protector

LONDON. — Dr. S. Zuckerman, formerly of Oxford and Professor-Designate of Anatomy at Birmingham University, has discovered a protective device of sponge rubber coating against injuries from bomb blasts and other explosions. The coating will be worn by members of the armed forces, fire-fighting services and Air Raid Precautions squads.

Dr. Zuckerman belongs to a well known Zionist family of South Africa.

SEIZE YIDDISH LETTERS

LONDON. — Nazi postal officials in occupied France have seized 500,000 letters written in Yiddish, according to a report from Paris. The letters were addressed to all parts of the world, one-fifth for the United States.

Agencies of UJA to Hold Own Campaigns During 1941

NEW YORK. — The United Jewish Appeal will cease to function as the agency for the collection and distribution of new funds for the 1941 programs of the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service, it was announced this week in a joint statement released by Rabbis Abba Hillel Silver and Jonah Wise, national chairmen of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees and Overseas Needs.

"The UJA will continue to collect and distribute all funds outstanding in the 1939 and 1940 campaigns on the basis of the agreements of 1939 and 1940.

"It is our belief," the spokesmen said, "that the dissolution of the common fund-raising national organization wil not impair the cordial relations of the three beneficiary agencies of the appeal. We are convinced that the three agencies will co-operate with all communities and with one another in the primary task of finding adequate funds to meet the needs of reconstruction, relief and refugee service required today."

U.J.A. to Close Campaign, Jan. 15

At a meeting to be held January 15, at a place to be announced the Providence United Jewish Appeal will wind up its annual campaign, it was stated this week by Saul Abrams, chairman. A final report on the money raised will be made at that time.

It was also announced that a workers gathering will take place Monday evening, January 6, at the Biltmore Hotel.

To Contribute One Mobile Field Kitchen

Announce First National Project

Providence Jewry's contribution in the Aid to Great Britain program, sponsored by the American Jewish Congress, will be at least one mobile kitchen, valued at $2,000, it was the opinion of delegates after their return from New York where they attended the Congress convention to initiate action to bring all possible moral and material aid to Great Britain through the organization of a Jewish section for this purpose.

Dr. Stephen S. Wise in his New York speech said that an effort would be made to secure at least 200 mobile field kitchens involving a cost of $400,000.

New England Quota

(The New England quota was tentatively set as 20 field kitchens which would cost $40,000.)

Invitations will probably be issued to all Jewish organiza-

French Unit Defies Nazis to Help Jews

NEW YORK. — An important scientific body in occupied France has voted to continue support to Jewish scholars, it was reported here by the New York Post, as the Nazi authorities took further action to oust Jews from science, entertainment and commerce.

The Central Committee for Scientific Scholarships in France voted, 29 to 1, to maintain all scholarships held by Jews for the next year.

Silver Shirts Disband But Pelley Talks On

NOBLESVILLE, Ind.—William Dudley Pelley, whose Silver Shirts of America was investigated by the Dies committee, says he has disbanded his organization and come to Indiana to publish books, but his publishers indicated today that the committee still was interested in his ventures.

Carl Losey, former Indiana state policeman and now president of Fellowship Press, Inc., said he learned that committee agents would be here to investigate the corporation he established to issue Pelley's books and bi-monthly business men's magazine.

CONTROL YOUTH GROUPS

NEW YORK. — A checkrein will be applied to Zionist youth organizations which have been straying from the path of official Zionist policy by opposing aid to Great Britain in the war, Rabbi Samuel Blumenfield, new educational director of the Zionist Organization of America declared recently.

First Jewish Child of New Year Becomes Conspicuous by Absence

It's a double coss — or words to that effect . . . It's Thursday afternoon . . . Deadline's been held up in the hope that some child would put in an appearance as the first Jewish baby of the New Year, and claim the many gifts offered by various merchants . . . But anxious calls to obstetricians and hospitals have been in vain, because at present writing, not one Jewish child has been born in Providence since '41 arrived . . .

The Herald's annual Stork Derby has always created much excitement in the community, but at this point folks are in a state of feverish suspense, wondering who will emerge as winner, and above all, WHEN . . .

Just in the hope that prizes offered by following shops will be an inspiration to the youngster, they are here and now repeated:

Brodsky Brothers, 667 Westminster street, a baby scale; Brookner, Florist, 103 Broad street, a plant; Cooper Ice Cream Company, Barrington, an ice cream cake; First Aid Drug Stores, 199 Prairie avenue and 807 Hope street, one dozen nipples, one dozen bottles; Insurance Underwriters, 73 Weybosset street, first payment on a $500 educational policy; Lobel's Youth Center, 303 Westminster street, $3.00 in merchandise; Merchants Super Service, Inc., Randall Square, ten gallons of gas and a complete lubrication job; Leo Rubin's Kosher Meat Market, 55 Camp street, a rib roast of steer beef; Shiloh Bottling Company, Inc., 116 Lester street, one case of Shiloh Club Beverage; Washington Laundry, 32 Branch avenue, one week's free laundry service, and The Jewish Herald, two-year subscription to The Herald.

Charlie Barnet Band To Appear at Met

Charlie Barnet, "King of the Saxophone," and his orchestra will be at the Metropolitan Theatre on the stage, in person, for three days only, January 10, 11 and 12.

Born in New York, Barnet has traveled throughout the world, and with his orchestra, has played on almost all steamship lines. His show to appear at the Met is called "Jitterbug Jamboree." Featured talent will include Bob Carroll, deep voiced baritone; Ford Leary, trombone and vocal specialist; Harriet Clark, "America's Swingheart,"; Bob Howard, Linda Moody and Bill and Bernie Maison.

On the screen, will be the first-run feature, "Misbehaving Husbands," with Ralph Byrd, Esther Muir and Harry Lagdon.

Nazis Cook Up Trouble for Horthy

LONDON. — The Nazis of Hungary are cooking up a mess of mother-in-law trouble for Regent Nicholas Horthy.

Leaflets are being widely circulated in Budapest, it was learned this week, which advertise the Regent's marriage to a Jewess by the name of Wertheim. What is worse, the Nazi leaflets add, Mrs. Horthy's mother is living in the Palace and dictating the country's affairs.

Hungarian Nazis have been arrested lately in increasing numbers, and these leaflets mark the opening of a retaliatory campaign against the Regent.

To Expel Jews From Krakow

ZURICH. — All Jews who do not leave Krakow, capital of the Polish Government General, may be expelled by force, according to an order issued by Nazi authorities there, it was reported here today. The order permits exiles to take about 56 pounds of luggage, the remaining property to be turned over to a trustee office for eventual sale.

WANT TO RETURN

JERUSALEM. — The American Jewish Association has appealed to Secretary of State Cordell Hull for aid in repatriating about 500 Jewish citizens of the United States who wish to return to America. The appeal was made through Consul General George Wadsworth.

Emanuel Men To Make Annual Award

Judges Named to Select Recipient

Judges to select the recipient of the Annual Service Award made by the Men's Club of Temple Emanuel, were announced this week by Daniel Jacobs, president of the Men's Club.

They will include Henry C. Hart, president of the Rhode Island Bar Association, Clarence Sherman, librarian of the Providence Public Library, Russel W. Field, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Rev. Clarence H. Horner, rector of Grace Church, and president of the Council of Churches, and Ernest Blazar, secretary of Temple Emanuel.

The plaque, which will be presented on January 16 at a Men's Club meeting, is awarded annually to an individual "for outstanding achievement in the field of civic improvement, human betterment and the advancement of American ideals." Dr. Arthur H. Ruggles, superintendent of Butler Hospital, and Miss Winifred L. Fitzpatrick, executive director of the Providence District Nursing Association are previous recipients of the service award.

Riffkin - Lazarus

Temple Beth Israel next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Rose Lazarus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lazarus of Sumter street, to H. Willard Riffkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Riffkin of Pembroke avenue. Rabbi Morris Schnissheim will officiate at the single ring ceremony.

To be escorted by her father, the bride will be dressed in a gown of white slipper satin, fitted model with a full skirt. The gown is fashioned with short puffed sleeves and a V-shaped neckline. Her long veil of white tulle, will fall from a coronet of orange blossoms, and she will carry a bridal bouquet of white orchids, and streamers of lilies of the valley.

Miss Evelyn Lazarus, sister of the bride, will attend as maid of honor, wearing a chiffon gown of powder blue, with a doll hat to match. She wil wear orchids. Samuel Gerstein will act as best man.

The mother of the bride will be attired in a gown of black silk jersey, with a long sleeved top of white, with gold sequins. The bridegroom's mother will wear a frock of black and gold. Both will have corsages of orchids.

After the ceremony, a reception for about 100 guests will be held in the vestry. The couple will take a wedding trip to New York, Atlantic City and Washington, after which they will make their home at 148 University avenue, this city.

Leaving For South

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lazarus will leave on January 10 for Miami Beach, Florida, where they will spend the remainder of the winter season.

Waldman - Stanzler

Miss Helen Stanzler, a daughter of Mrs. Dora Stanzler of 64 Eaton street, became the bride of Edward Waldman, son of Mrs. Rose Waldman of New York last Sunday afternoon, at a single ring marriage ceremony, performed by Dr. Israel M. Goldman at the Miriam Plaza.

The bride wore an informal two-piece costume of aqua, with a turban and veil to match. She carried orchids.

Miss Lucille Stanzler, attended as maid of honor wearing a gold dress, and Talisman roses. Al Solomon of New York was best man.

A family dinner followed the ceremony, and a reception was held at 4 o'clock. The couple is now on a wedding trip to Atlantic City and New York, and upon returning, will make their home on Eaton street.

And right on the nose of the midnight din
An old year went out—and a new came in
New Year . . . New Hope . . . New Courage, too
Best wishes from us, to all of you . . .

Newport, R. I., 12:02 A. M., Jan. 1: Tonight is cold and clear and a stiff winter breeze is blowing in on Fort Adams from Narragansett Bay . . Inside the Officers' Club at the Fort, the atmosphere is mellow and merry, and the Baby '41 has made his bow, midst much noisemaking, confetti, streamers, and some close harmony on Auld Lang Syne . . .

The Officers' Ball is an impressive affair . . . Some of the men are wearing customary white ties and tails, while others are in the formal army attire of dark jackets, blue trousers, with red stripes down the side, bright buttons and colourful insignia . . .

Several cocktail parties preluded the Ball, and following are the monikers of some femmes seen . . . Mrs. Gerald Feinberg, wearing a portrait-like gown of black velvet, with a V-shaped decolletage

Mrs. Sam Bachrach, a lovely blonde, in a flowy gown of grey silk jersey, and about her shoulders a white crepe shawl, with long red fringe . . . Newly betrothed Florence Werner was informally frocked in black crepe, fashioned with a draped top in contrasting robin's egg blue . . . Mrs. Sam Gillson, who's leaving for Southern climes any one of these days, was charming in a black crepe frock, made with a flared skirt, and the lowered waistline . . . Attractive Mrs. Mac Carlin wore a sophisticated gown of deep purple, and rose red satin, with an extremely wide skirt.

Ever so many others whom we know, but whose names elude us at the moment . . .

Back in town at the Indian Room of the Narragansett Hotel, 'twas a gay party given by Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith . . . Our Girl Friday is to be complimented for her constant vigil at the door, which provided us with these notes . . . Mrs. Benjamin Gratt wore a stunning period gown, made with a black brocaded bodice, and black taffeta skirt yards wide . . . Bright red velvet was chic on Mrs. Minna Gersky . . . Estelle Port appeared in white net, with a wine velvet jacket . . . Gold threads were used for embroidery on the darling white taffeta gown, chosen by Mrs. Mortyn Zietz . . . Mrs. Sol Rubenstein arrived in a sage green gown, with gold accents . .

Outstanding was Mrs. Rose Jacobs in a silk frock of Paisley print, the hood of which was lined with effective scarlet . . . Mrs. Max Brodsky had on an unusual gown of pink and black Roman stripes, with an all-around pleated skirt . . . A black skirt, with a bodice of embroidered blue, was selected by Mrs. Eddie Port . . . A shirtwaist frock of blue lame glistened on Mrs. Saul Feinberg . . . A simple gown of a deep shade of green was becoming as worn by Mrs. Charles Brier . . . White taffeta, trimmed with gold sequins, was the costume of Dorothy Mushlin . . . Yards of tulle, like a ballerina's skirt, made Mrs. Samuel Gereboff's green gown, eye-catching . . . charming gown of cerise net, with a matching jacket of velvet, trimmed with silver . . .

Mrs. Dave Meyers came in a gown of bright red moire, while Mrs. Bill Meyers chose black velvet . . . Ruth Bernstein was precious in a black gown, with a green jerkin . . . In her long light brown hair, gold flowers, with a green velvet ribbon hanging long . . . Muriel Port wore a dainty gown of light blue chiffon . . . At most celebrations, the holiday lights paled with the dawn . . . Poignantly and bittersweetly, daybreak revealed some tears in the holiday laughter . . After all, it was the dawning of a New Year — and a lot of us are sentimental . . .

Saturday nite, last, sort of sat on the fence between Christmas and the New Year, but the Indian Room drew a good share of the week-end crowd . . . Among the femmes spotted were pretty Belle Hodosh, in a two-piece frock of black velvet, punctuated by red piping . . . Helen Pobirs had on a becoming dress of turquoise wool, with a jewelled belt . . . Mrs. Lou Kirshenbaum's black dress was sprinkled with jet sequins . . . Grace Rome, a second lieutenant in the Army Nurse Corps down at Fort Adams, was there, wearing a grey wool frock, smart with her brunette colouring . . . Ruth Payton had on an attractive black draped dress of crepe . . . Outstanding was Esther Robin in her flared black skirt, and flash red blouse with gold sequins . . . Her hair long, and posed on top a large bow of red — in the Argentina way . . . Anita Bernstein was exotic in a frock copied after the jockey idea . . . Half one colour, and half another . . . Hers was black and red . . . Blonde Reggie Spiegelblatt, of the City-by-the-Sea, was charming in a frock of black . . .

Well, this could go on ad infinitum — but it must end someplace, and it might as well be here . . .

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

It's getting to be an annual worry to the Herald editors — this business of no first Jewish baby of the New Year making his or her appearance to claim offered prizes — until after the Herald has gone to press . . . Last year, if you'll recall, there was the same set of circumstances . . . Everyone in the Herald office this morning rang up doctors and hospitals—for the hoped-for information, and the result—nothing . . . At this writing, there has been no Jewish child born in 1941 . . . The prizes will wait, of course—but the presses won't . . .

Novelty

Well—the New Year is over and done with, after much partying about town . . . A novel idea used at one of the affairs was this: During the weeks prior to the party, its sponsors "borrowed" many items from all of the invited guests, without the latters' knowledge . . . Little things were missing from various households, and nobody seemed to know anything about the whereabouts . . . Came the night of the party, and intriguing little package-wrapped prizes were passed out to each guest . . . On opening them, everybody found they'd been presented with their own belonging . . .

Revelers

In the Ballroom of the Narragansett on Christmas eve were noted the Syd Rabinowitz's . . . the Harold Dicks . . . Max Leach and a Montreal girl . . . the Milt Potters . . . the Charles Bergs . . . the John Silvermans, while over at the Miriam Plaza the Knights of Pythias were holding their own celebration to greet the New Year . . . Among those seen were the Everett Levinsons, the Lou Yarnoffs . . . Ann Fishman . . . Max Kovitch . . . Lillian Dick . . . Eddie Bomes . . . Florence Muffs . . . the Leo Cohens . . . Ray Muffs . . . and hundreds more . . . At the Hy Fradin's New Year party were the Lou Greens and the George Basoks.

Visiting in town from New York for the holiday was Arthur Bander, while the following reversed the order and visited in the Big Town . . . Pearl Singer . . . Mitchell Sherwin . . . Aaron Jaffa . . . Al Golin . . . Maurice Kouffman . . . Al Mossberg . . . Joe Dressler . . . Seymour Goldman . . . and Bert Wexler . . . Hy Lisker and his bride are in Hollywood, Florida, we hear . .

Merry-Go-Round

Mildred Sydney, who will be married the 26th of this month to Dr. Herman Marks has been whirled on a merry-go-round of parties during the past few weeks . . . Teas and dinners have been given for her by Phyllis Littman . . . Helen Gerber . . . Mrs. Saul Feinberg . . . Mrs. Natalie Percelay and Mrs. Harry Gourse . . . The couple was feted at a large party, given recently by the Harold Sydneys, and at a family dinner by the Jack Sydneys . . . In honor of their silver wedding anniversary, the Ben Salks were honored at a party, held last Saturday nite by their friends at the Studio Club . . .

Very debonair and efficient-looking in their khaki and olive uniforms were First Lieutenants H. Lewis Gorfine and Stanley S. Freeman, as they visited in town last week . . . Both are stationed down at Fort Adams . . . The annual meeting of the Miriam Hospital will take place on Sunday, January 26, it was learned this week . . . Samuel Kaplan is in charge of the dinner . . .

The President's speech last Sunday nite made a big dent in the attendance at theatres and restaurants . . . So many folks stayed at home, that places usually jammed on Sunday were devoid of customers . . . We've just learned that 1,100 Jews have been transferred from Lithuania and Russia to Palestine, all expenses being paid by the United Palestine Appeal . . . Practical jokers are now using the personal columns of newspapers to express themselves . . . Last week the New York Times rejected the following item: "Two swallows, returning to Capistrano, will share expenses with lady wishing to accompany them. References exchanged . . .

Obituary

LOUIS SUSSKIND

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon for Louis Susskind, 47, partner in the manufacturing jewelry concern of Spear & Susskind, who died early Sunday morning, five minutes after he was admitted to Rhode Island Hospital.

Mr. Susskind, who lived at the Narragansett Hotel, had been suffering from a severe cold for about three weeks, that appeared to be influenza in its last stages.

Born in Russia, he came to the United States in 1908, and after starting as an errand boy, entered the jewelry business. He came to Providence in 1913, and a few years later, with Spear, organized the jewelry concern. He handled the sales end and Spear the production end.

Mr. Susskind was a member of Redwood Lodge, F. and A. M. He is survived by a sister and a brother, residents of Cleveland.

JOSEPH BAKER

Funeral services were conducted on Monday afternoon from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home for Joseph Baker, for more than 35 years a resident of Woonsocket, where he operated a meat market and cattle business, who died on Sunday at the Jane Brown Hospital. Mr. Baker had been ill for the past three months.

A native of Libau, Kurland in Russia, he came to this country in 1904. He was a member of B'nai B'rith, and of the Congregation B'nai Israel in Woonsocket.

Surviving him are his wife, Rebecca (Lazarus) Baker; two daughters, Mrs. Esther Sobel of this city, and Mrs. Ada Rosenbaum of Worcester; a son, Leroy Baker, and six brothers, Robert of Portland, Maine; Albert of Boston, and John, Herman, Louis and Samuel, all of this city.

Rabbi Morris Schussheim and Cantor Joseph Schlossberg conducted funeral services and burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

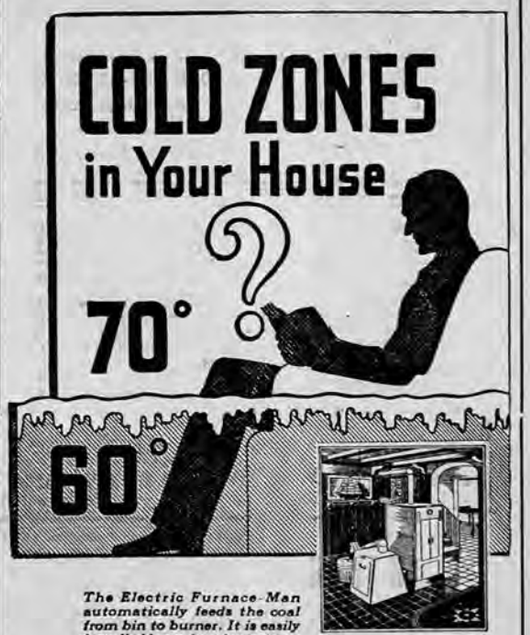
COLD ZONES in Your House



The Electric Furnace-Man automatically feeds the coal from bin to burner. It is easily installed in any heating system.

The Electric Furnace-Man eliminates those uncomfortable "cold zones" around your feet. Because its steady, constant fire—under accurate thermostatic control—results in EVEN HEAT distribution, with uniform temperature at all room levels.

And it saves from 25% to 75% in fuel costs—with year 'round hot water included—at no extra cost in winter, and for only a few cents a day in summer.
