

Marked With a Yellow Star

Photo shows Jewish couple walking along a street in Berlin with a six-pound yellow star, inscribed with the word "Jude" sewn on the left side of their clothes. By a special decree adopted last month, all Jews in German territory, must wear a yellow star or armband as a mark of identification.

Editorials

Hitler's Policy

The policy of concentrating all the Jews in several large cities which has been adopted by the Nazis in Germany is being introduced in all occupied countries.

Belgium Jews have been ordered into Brussels, Antwerp and Liege. Rumanian Jews living in Bessarabia and Bucovina are being banished to cities along the Bug River in Russia. Polish Jews have been walled-up in Warsaw and Cracow. Bohemia-Moravia is now arranging the removal of Jews from cities and villages.

All the above was not a coincident move. It is the carrying out of Hitler's promise—to remove the Jews from the economic and social life of Europe with the ultimate aim of extermination.

Gestures and Jews

This is truly an era of science. It has been discovered that if you wave your hands while talking, that gesture is not a token of Jewishness.

After studying the characteristics of New York Jews of Lithuanian and Polish origin, Italians from Naples and Sicily and assimilated Jews and Italians at summer resorts and campuses, Dr. David Efron found that "the more assimilated the individual the less Jewish or Italian gestural traits was he found to possess."

Further, undercover watching of American-born students at Yeshiva College, Orthodox rabbinical-training seminary, disclosed that when the men were in Jewish "quarters" they gestured like Jews but when in an exclusive club gestured like "Americans."

If these surveys continue, science will one day reveal that the Jews are Aryans after all.

Private Swarz Wins $5,200 Prize

WASHINGTON. — The War Department is proud of Private First Class Sahl Swarz, sculptor, who was worried how his fingers would be after a year in the 35th Field Artillery at Camp Blanding, Florida, but who has just been awarded the prize of a $5,200 contract for two statues he wrought between Army duties. Swarz began his art work at a Brooklyn high school.

When finished, his sculptures will be placed in the Statesville, N. C. courthouse and post office, according to the terms of the contract conducted by the Federal Work Agency in 13 states.

ARRESTED

STOCKHOLM. — Mordecai Wainstein, a Latvian Jew, has been arrested in Riga for appearing in the streets without a yellow Mogen David upon his coat.

McWilliams Gets Workhouse Term for Assailing Jews

NEW YORK. — Joseph E. McWilliams, head of the American Destiny party, amid murmurs of approval and disapproval from a packed courtroom was ordered by Magistrate William W. Hoppin to serve the sixty-day workhouse term he had imposed on McWilliams last Sept. 9 and suspended when he found McWilliams guilty of disorderly conduct in a Yorkville speech assailing Jews.

The tall, curly-haired street speaker was picked up without his usual bodyguard. When he learned that Magistrate William W. Hoppin had issued a warrant accusing him of breaking probation by renewing his Jew-reviling speeches, he said:

"Gentlemen, you've caught up with me. I've been expecting this."

It is charged McWilliams made five speeches since he promised to refrain from publicly assailing the Jews — all in the Bronx and Queens and all under the auspices of the American Destiny party. He said he was 37. After

Teacher Survey Reveals Prejudice

40 Per Cent Would "Exclude" Jews Socially

NEW YORK. — A survey of prejudice among Protestant religious leaders revealed that 40% of the teachers in 34 States who answered a questionnaire wanted Jews excluded socially from community enterprises, it is reported by Dr. James V. Thompson, Professor of Theology at Drew University, in the October issue of the Contemporary Jewish Record, issued by the American Jewish Committee.

Protestant children first become aware of anti-Jewish prejudice between the ages of 8 and 12, 35% between the ages of 8 and 10, Dr. Thompson's survey, conducted by several associates at Drew, disclosed.

Dr. Thompson reported that an effort is being made by some Protestant leaders to revise church school text books as a means of promoting good will. Dr. Thompson admitted that the several faculty members at Drew who assisted him in the survey "discovered (in themselves) to their own embarrassment a whole troop of unsocial, un-Christian prejudices, attitudes and sentiments."

Zionist Speaker

LOUIS LIPSKY

To Mark Balfour Date Declaration

Mr. Lipsky and Senator Theodore F. Green will participate in a Zionist meeting to honor the late Justice Louis Demitz Brandeis, and the late Menachem Mendel Ussishkin, at a meeting Sunday night at the Crown Hotel.

The meeting will also mark the 24th anniversary celebration of the Balfour Declaration. Senator Green will be awarded a Jewish National Fund Golden Book inscription. Annual election of officers will also occur.

Place Kiev Jews Under Nazi Laws

Nuremberg Decrees Put Into Effect

ZURICH. — Nazi occupying authorities in Kiev, one of the major Soviet cities wrested from the Red Army, have enforced a series of anti-Jewish decrees, including one which makes it compulsory for all Jews over six years of age to wear a "mogen david" on their street clothing, it was learned here.

The Nazi regulations specify that all Kiev Jews must wear a blue-white "mogen david" on their left arms and a blue-white badge of "shame" on their shoulders. Jews are not permitted to appear in the streets from 5 P. M. to 7 A. M.

Another decree forbids Jews to stand in the regular "food" lines around the Kiev shops. Special hours will be designated for Jewish housewives to do their shopping. The meagre food supplies are generally exhausted by the time the Jews are permitted to shop.

Pelley Surrenders In Stock Case

ASHEVILLE, N. C. — William Dudley Pelley, 51 publisher and former organizer of the Silver Shirts of America, surrendered to Buncombe County authorities this week for alleged violations of conditions imposed when judgment was suspended here in 1935 after his conviction on "Blue Sky" Securities law charges.

It ended the nationally known fiction writer's two-year fight against being returned to North Carolina. He had carried his appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Only 15 Dailies In Jewish Hands

NEW YORK. — Of 1,700 publishing firms which operate daily newspapers, only about 15, or less than one percent, have Jewish ownership, it was stated here by Editor and Publisher, publishing trade weekly, which printed an editorial titled "Dirty Business" in attacking "the malicious and wicked crackpots who revel in racial prejudice."

The weekly asserted that "it is absolutely false that there is any Jewish control of the daily newspapers. The case for control of news and editorials by Jews is a chimera."

Vitamin Takes Grey Out of Hair

BOSTON. — As a result of experiments conducted by Dr. Benjamin F. Sieve, of the Boston City Hospital, and Tufts Medical School, and practicing in this city, a new vitamin, which is a factor of the B. Complex, known as para-amino-benzoic acid, was found to change the gray color of human hair back to its natural color.

The graying action experiments have proved that darkening and returning of the natural color occurs in a period from two or three months. The vitamin is not on the commercial market, as the work is still in the experiment stage.

Army Announces Building Of Internment Camp at L. I.

NEW YORK. — No explanation was forthcoming from Army headquarters after the announcement by Major-General Irving J. Phillipson that an internment camp for enemy aliens had been completed near Camp Upton on Long Island although it was added that the camp is expected to be only a transition point for aliens subsequently to be sent to Fort Mosoula, Mont., and similar inland detention places.

Described as part of the War Department's "emergency program," the setting up of the barbed-wire fence 16 feet high aroused anxiety in connection with the refugee problem in America.

There has been private discussion for several months of the possibility that in certain interested circles an effort would be made to confuse the status of refugees from Hitler and enemy aliens sympathetic to Hitler's program. It was recalled that in France and, originally, in England tens of thousands of refugees had been indiscriminately interned.

Although Major General Phillipson is commandant of the Second Corps Area, in which the first such internment camp has been established, the jurisdiction of the prison will be under Brigadier-General Ralph K. Robertson, provost marshal of the Area.

FRANKFURTER KIN DIES

NEW YORK. — Professor Salomon Frankfurter, 85, former director of the Vienna University Library and an uncle of Felix Frankfurter, United States Supreme Court Justice, died in Vienna last month, according to word received here yesterday by his son, Karl Frankfurter.

Home for Aged Facts

Alter Boyman, in a letter to the Herald this week, asked that the following facts, based on reports given at the Home for Aged annual meeting last Sunday, be brought to the attention of the Jewish community and their leaders:

(1) That the Jewish Home for Aged, which was opened during the worst years of the depression, has managed, not only to cover its budget of $25,000 a year, but has also paid off a $50,000 mortgage in the years of hardship which followed.

(2) At the present time, the Home for Aged is the only Jewish charitable institution which has no mortgage.

(3) This offers an opportunity to the Home of adding an infirmary which will cost about $60,000 according to plans presented by Samuel M. Magid, president of the Home.

(4) It must be remembered that the Jewish Home for Aged is the only major Jewish charitable institution which is not in the Community Chest.

Adler Lecture Cancelled at Center

Unforeseen circumstances have necessitated cancellation of a lecture, which was to have been presented by Dr. Mortimer J. Adler, on Sunday night at the Jewish Community Center, it was announced today by Dr. Louis I. Kramer.

Further announcement revealed that Lord Marley, noted English lecturer, will open a series of eight Sunday evening programs at the Center, when he appears there on November 9.

Others scheduled to appear include: December 14, Dr. Ira Eisenstein; January 11, Louis Golding; January 25, Herbert Agar; February 8, Michael Rosenberg and Naomi Aleh-Leaf; February 22, symposium with Hans Simons and Lewis Corey; March 8, Max Nordau, and March 22, round table discussion in conjunction with the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Various Activities At Center for Adults

Numerous adult activities have been arranged at the Jewish Community Center, for the ensuing season: Sunday morning men's gymnasium class, I. Stanley Corb, instructor; women's gymnasium class, Thursday evening, Mrs. Betty Corb, instructor; "Y" Red Cross sewing group, Monday nights; senior varsity basketball, Wednesday nights.

A badminton group is now being organized, as is a class in modern creative dancing, the latter under the direction of Sophie Ellis Lieberman. Rabbi Aaron Goldin of Pawtucket is leading a course in Jewish history, while a music appreciation group, directed by Wilfred Briggs will meet on Tuesday nights.

U. J. A. Officers To Meet Sunday

Officers and the executive and administrative committees of the 1940 United Jewish Appeal have been invited to attend a meeting and buffet supper, to be held on Sunday evening, 6 o'clock at the Crown Hotel, to formulate plans for this year's U. J. A. drive.

A conference of organizations is scheduled for November 16 at the Jewish Community Center. While several organizations have forwarded lists of their delegates, those who have not are urged to so at once.

Wheeler's Emotionalism

eye of his departure that Senator Wheeler accused England of "fighting a Jewish war." When questioned, the Senator was unable to name the Jews who supposedly brought England into the war.

Senator Wheeler, later, denied vehemently that he made the above statement to Baxter.

In his zeal to oppose administration policies, Senator Wheeler, like many of his isolationist partners, is discovering that fast-moving events are neutralizing their oppositionist arguments. Having adopted, which seems to him an irrevocable stand, the Senator must resort to "emotionalism" to further his cause.

People are beginning to suspect that perhaps the Senator "doth protest too much."

Alliance Election Planned for Nov. 10

Alter Boyman heads the nominating committee of the Jewish National Workers Alliance, which will bring in a slate of officers for election on November 10. He is being assisted by Nathan Resnick, Nathan Izman, Henry Halpern, and Harry Blanck.

The Bible Study Group, which met for the first time last Monday night, started its sessions with a lecture by Morris Shoham, president of the Alliance, and leader of the Study group.

The unit will meet every Monday night, 8:30 o'clock at 385 Westminster street.

NEW YORKERS ARE TALKING ABOUT:

Babe Ruth's price ($25,000) for his services in the Gehrig film, which Goldwyn screams is too much. He will probably pay it, though, as Ruth is a "must" in any biography of Gehrig. . . . Jimmy Walker, the former Mayor, who is being considered as head of a new racetrack to be built in N. Y. The backers being wealthy French refugees, wondering where to invest their coin. . . . MGM's planned film version of the town's big hit, "Best Foot Forward". . . . For Mickey and Judy. . . . The Nice-Work Dept.: One of Life's editors who was ordered to spend at least two weeks with Ginger Rogers — for a profile piece. . . . The way ex-Warden Lawes has added twenty pounds since "getting out" of Sing Sing Prison.

The way the British radio pounds away at Italy's slipping morale with eight daily broadcasts urging the country to un-latch itself from Berlin. . . . Rome's reply probably is: "Why speak to us? Take it up with the Warden!" . . . The several society lads, on the verge of being drafted, who flew to California, shifting residences there at the same time. So that when their numbers come up they'll go to a camp in sunny Cal. . . . Dumb, huh? . . . The new bootlegging racket in England, where more bootlegging goes on in the clothing field than in food. And in men's attire!

The book, "I Paid Hitler," by Fritz Thyssen, the industrialist who first helped the Nazis in Germany. . . . Jimmy Wong Howe, the Chinese cameraman, and Rabbi Edgar Magnin, who made speeches for a short to raise funds for Irish Relief. . . . The depressing news about Hendrik Willem Van Loon, whose does have ordered him to stop all activity for the next six months. . . . The Rev. Jardine, who came to the aid of Wally and the Duke. His letters are now ignored.

The way some of the pro-Nazis over here outsmarted themselves. The coin they saved on postage by having their hymns of hate franked through the mails doesn't begin to cover the costs of lawyers and bail. . . . Jimmy Dorsey's check for $40,000 from Decca, as his royalties for the first half of 1941. In short, he hit the Juke-pot.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

The Story Tellers: Clifton Fadiman will have you know that he's a book-reviewer, not a literary critic. He points out the big difference in "The Reviewing Business," in Harper's. "Literary criticism is an art," he says, "like the writing of tragedies or making of love and, similarly, does not pay. Book reviewing is a device for earning a living". . . . Charles Poore also takes a box-office slant at the prose racket in The Times mag. in his definition of the Pulitzer Prize. The value of the prize, he says, is "a thousand dollars in cash to those who accept it and ten thousand dollars in publicity for those who refuse it."

The Front Pages: An editorial in the Herald Tribune epigrams the spot the Bolo armies have put the Huns in. "The Russians," the daily points out, "have only to survive somehow in order to win; Hitler has to win in order to survive". . . . You can spot the Fascists' weariness for the war in their weakening propaganda bragging. Recently they claimed only to have damaged the British plane carrier, Ark Royal. In all previous naval scraps, both the Heinies and the Fascists have begun with the sinking of that vessel.

Broadway is where after you've reached the top — at least a dozen acquaintances claim having played a big part in it. . . . But when you fail—everybody blames you. . . . And you blame the "breaks" instead of looking for a job where your talent will be respected — such as waiting on tables or being president of a bank. . . . No matter how nice you are there will always be others who will knock you — from sheer force of habit. . . . A fellow who is "considered more important than Roosevelt or Willkie is one who can pick at least one winner out of seven races. . . . If you don't talk about yourself — then you run the risk of being bored stiff listening to others gab about themselves. . . . The Broadway lights have done more to make the street famous than any of the famed folk on it.

Broadway is still the zippiest street of them all. . . . Remember when some people wrote articles alleging it was dead a few years back? . . . Many visitors come to The Big Town to see the shows when the best show is New York itself. . . . The Bowery, where many people are starving, is full of restaurants. . . . The best way to disillusion your daughter who is stage-struck is to point out the chorus girls staggering into subway kiosks. . . . No playboys or sables — just yawns and smelly subway stations, sister.

Balfour Service at Pawt. Synagogue

Annual Carnival Occurs On November 4, 5, 6

Special services, in observance of the Balfour Declaration Anniversary, will be conducted on Sunday morning at the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue of Pawtucket and Central Falls, with Rabbi Aaron Goldin delivering a sermon on "Twenty Four Years of the Balfour Declaration — What Didn't We Do With It?" At a meeting of the Congregation, held last Sunday, the following officers were elected, and will be formally installed on November 30: Abraham Fishman, president; Morris Hazen, vice-president; Jacob Rosen, treasurer, and Barney Tetelbaum, secretary.

The seventh annual Carnival of the Congregation will occur next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the vestry. Mrs. Samuel Brown is chairman and treasurer of the event; Mrs. Benjamin Goldenberg, ticket co-chairmen; Charles Tesler and Jack Goldberg, chairman of arrangements.

Home Association To Elect Officers

Officers will be elected and installed at the annual meeting of the Ladies Association, Jewish Home for Aged, to be held next Wednesday afternoon in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel. Mrs. Saul Abrams will act installing officer. Annual reports will be presented by various committee chairmen.

Mrs. Jack Abrams will be in charge of the tea table, and will be assisted by the following hostesses: Mesdames Fred Adler, Walter Adler, David Dwares, Jacob Ernstof, Barnet Fain, Jennie Goldsmith, William Herman, Philip Korb, Harry Kollen, Reuben Lipson, Samuel Magid, Samuel Michaelson, Joseph Nutman, David Rome, Leo Rosen, Samuel Rosenfield, Samuel Soforenko, William Zwoden, and Mrs. I. S. Low, ex-officio.

Brown, Yale Meet For 46th Time Sat.

The Brown Bear is getting ready for the Yale Bulldog with a great deal of confidence after successful stands against the Lafayette Leopards, Tufts Jumbos and Rhode Island Rams in the past three weeks.

Brown's eleven which will invade the Bowl this Saturday for the 46th engagement of a series, inaugurated in 1893 will be neither physical big nor vastly experienced, and it will be lacking in capable reserves in some positions, but it does possess speed, intelligence and a lot of drive.

Under a new coach, J. Neil (Skip) Stahley and learning a new system, the Bears have shown enough football ability to chalk up four victories while losing a close decision to Columbia, 6-13, in their second appearance.

Shoham to Speak At Pioneer Meeting

Morris Shoham will speak on "A. D. Gordon — Philosopher of Labor Zionism," at a meeting of the Pioneer Women's Club to be held on Monday afternoon at 109 Washington street.

Gordon was one of the first men to preach union with nature, and he foresaw the redemption of the Jewish soul through labor and tilling on Palestinian soil. Mrs. Sidney Goldman, president, will preside. All members and friends have been invited to attend the meeting.

Judaean Leaders Attend Convention

Providence Young Judaean leaders attended the Young Judaean Regional Convention, held in Boston October 18 and 19.

At the business session, a constitution was adopted and a new slate of officers elected, with Hy Sanderson of Boston named New England chairman, and Miss Estelle Goldin of Providence, secretary.

Highlights of the convention were a dance, hike and outdoor games. Following the business session, supper was served, and moving pictures taken at the Young Judaean Summer Camp, were shown to the gathering of more than two hundred young folks.

To Marry Sunday

Miss Helen Goldenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Goldenberg of 62 Pacific street, Central Falls, will become the bride of Sanford White, son of Mrs. Jennie White of Beacon avenue, on Sunday at high noon, at a ceremony to be performed by Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth El, in the Parlours of the Narragansett Hotel.

Miss Goldenberg was feted at a luncheon and mah jong, given on Wednesday afternoon at the Sheraton Hotel, by Mrs. Jacob Berkelhammer and Mrs. Joseph Dressler. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests.

Bride-Elect Feted

Mrs. Maurice Berger entertained last week at a luncheon and mah jong in the Hearthstone House, in compliment to Miss Charlotte Homonoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Homonoff of 16 Eaton street, who will be married on November 22 to Reuben Cohen.

Rickles - Sherman

The marriage of Miss Ida M. Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sherman of 104 Pembroke avenue, to Aaron Rickles,

APPLESAUCE SQUARES

- 1 cup light brown sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 egg
- 1 cup tart applesauce
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup chopped raisins
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Beat the sugar, shortening and egg until very light and creamy. Add applesauce. Sift the dry ingredients and add raisins. Combine the two mixtures and mix thoroughly. Pour into a large shallow greased pan. Bake in a moderate oven about three-quarters of an hour or until the cake comes away from the sides of the pan. When cool cut into squares and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

son of Mr. and Mrs. David Meyer Rickles of Brooklyn, New York, occurred last Sunday at the Sharon Hotel in New York City. Rabbi M. J. Mintz of the Flatbush Synagogue, solemnized the single ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in an informal frock of aqua lame, with a matching turban and veil. She carried a white Bible, adorned with orchids. Her sister, Mrs. Joseph Wuraflic, as matron of honor, was her only attendant, while Nathaniel Rickles, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bridegroom recently received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Army, having been a Sergeant in the 22nd Coast Artillery, stationed at Portsmouth, N. H.

After an extended wedding sojourn, the couple will take up residence in Marlborough, Mass., where Mr. Rickles will resume his law practice.

Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Movsovit of 151 Longfellow street, will entertain at open house on Sunday, from 3 to 10 o'clock, in honor of their son, Stanley Movsovit, whose Bar-Mitzvah occurred last Monday morning.

Winn - Wish

Miss June Wish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wish of this city, became the bride of Ralph Winn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Winn of Cranston, at a double ring ceremony last Sunday evening at the Mayfair Inn, North Smithfield, performed by

Holiday Air At Beth-El Event

What might otherwise have been a dullish afternoon in October, was brightened into a Halloween coterie last Monday afternoon, when the Sisterhood of Temple Beth El held its dessert luncheon and mah jong, under Mrs. Matthew Segool's able and dexterous chairmanship . . . Months of planning resulted in a splendid affair, and Mrs. Segool was that pleased . . .

Much credit for decorations goes to Mrs. Benjamin Rossman and Mrs. David Adelman, who by "cuttin' up" figures in the orange and black seasonal motif, transformed the business-like Temple vestry into what resembled a hobgoblin's haunt . . . The individual tables were set attractively with black and orange doilies, and tall lighted tapers lent a harvesty glow to the atmosphere . . . Mrs. Irwin Forbstein and Mrs. Bert Bernhardt, who had spent the entire A. M. preparing food for the affair, were rewarded for their efforts when everyone declared the delectable delicacies "delicious . . ."

Looking in on the affair for a brief forty-five minutes, we noted what some of the women wore . . . Mrs. Frank Barad was a stunning "slim Jim" in her skirt and long torso jerkin of beige Glen plaid . . . 'Twas worn with a superbly tailored, long-sleeved blouse of eggshell flannel . . . Mrs. William Silverman, petite in a black crepe dress, with unusual treatment in the aqua yoke and girdle belt . . . Mrs. Daniel Snyder's black crepe outfit had a bodice of sleek black satin . . . She wore a small black chapeau, and carried an enormous red purse . . .

A stunning black jacketed frock, with dynamic revers and cuffs of red crepe, embroidered in silver, was Mrs. Segool's choice . . . Her hat was black felt, turned up on one side, with stiff, shiny feathers as trim . . . Mrs. Stanley Loebenberg wore a dashing black dress, with banded pleating all around the skirt, and the sleeves—modified Dolman . . . The v-neck folded back gracefully into small lapels . . . Becoming black was also worn by Mrs. Norman Alper, and her small black hat was faced by the softest shade of infant blue . . .

Russian embroidery was used at the neckline and waistline of a becoming black outfit worn by Mrs. Jack Davis . . . Close pleats on the skirt of a graceful black crepe dress was the selection of Mrs. Edward Jacobs . . . Three-strand pearls at her throat . . . An English suit of conservative grey tweed, brightened by a life red blouse, was worn by Mrs. Irving Jay Fain . . . Her sister, Mrs. Milton Leand arrived in an outstanding suit of hunter green wool, topped by a sable jacket . . . (Continued on Page 5)

Picturesque Party For Sunday Bride

High in the aesthetic estimation of this social colony was the fete for Helen Goldenberg of Central Falls, given one afternoon last week by her mom, Mrs. A. Goldenberg in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel . . . Helen's being wed on Sunday, you know, to Sanford White . . .

The party was done up memorably, the guests were thrilled to be a part of it, and the flowers—ah and oh! . . . Versatility and ingenuity, traveling hand in hand, can produce breathtakingly beautiful results, especially where flowers are concerned . . . Let us elucidate . . .

Tables were set up in the form of a large horseshoe, with an elaborate rock garden arranged in the center, with drecenas, coca-palms, begonias, pon pom plants in vivid hues and pandana . . . The floor was covered by hemlock and bird baths were placed at intermittent spots . . . A fountain, in the midst of it all, bubbled crimson liquid . . . At the horseshoe-shaped table, large centerpieces of gardenias were placed, and white ribbons were drawn from these centerpieces to each individual setting—130 of them . . . When dinner was concluded, each guest pulled ever so slightly on the ribbon at her setting, and drew forth a glorious gardenia . . . A most unique arrangement . . . (P. S. The florist vows he used almost three miles of ribbon . . .)

Bride-to-be Helen was looking elegant in her party frock of black-coffee brown, contrasted by pastel blue, and appliqued in brown nail heads . . . Her bonnet was in blue hue, with brown veiling, and the floral touch was a bluish-orchid . . . Mrs. Goldenberg was attractively turned out in a dress of teal crepe, and a small hat, on which blue birds were poised . . . Belmont gardenia sformed her corsage . . . A simply cut frock of black had much charm as worn by Mrs. Jennie White . . . Her hat was also black . . .

Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth Israel. White chrysanthemums and autumn leaves provided the background for the candlelight ceremony.

The bride was attired in a Princess gown of white faille, brocaded with baby pearls, fashioned with a slender bodice, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her finger-tip veil fell from a sweetheart bonnet, appliqued with seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible, covered with white orchids and streamers of baby pom poms.

Miss Kathleen Wish attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a gown of orchid mousseline-de-soie, with a fitted satin bodice. She carried a large Colonial bouquet. Mrs. Samuel Zisseron, matron of honor, was attractively dressed in a torso gown of blue velvet, over a stiff skirt of blue taffeta, appliqued with large rosebuds. She also carried a Colonial bouquet.

Bridesmaids included the Misses Irene Cohen, Betty Mendelowitz, Lenore Mistowsky, Ruth Rosensweet, Miriam Scheinberg, Edith Slavitt, Adele Winn and Phyllis Winn. They were dressed in pastel frocks, and carried tall white tapers, adorned with ribbons.

The bridegroom was attended by Irvine Datz as best man.

The bride's mother wore a gown of blue crepe, with gold braid trim at the V-neckline and along the bodice. The mother of the bridegroom chose a gown of royal blue velvet, which fell into a train. Both had corsages of roses.

Guests at the wedding were from New York State, and from various cities throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn are now on a wedding trip to New York, Baltimore and Washington.

Tolman - Goldman

Miss Lillian Goldman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Samuel Goldman of 94 Taylor street, and Daniel A. Tolman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tolman of Manchester, N. H., will be wed on Sunday afternoon, 12:30 o'clock at Weinstein's Banquet Hall, with Rabbi Joshua Werner performing the single ring ceremony. A reception and dinner will follow.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her parents, will wear an afternoon frock, Princess style, of heavenly blue, fashioned with elbow-length sleeves, and eyelet cutwork around the neckline and at the waist. Her draped hat to match will be contrasted by Dubonnet veiling, and her accessories will also be Dubonnet. She will carry a white prayer book, covered with white baby rose buds.

After a wedding trip to New York, the couple will reside in this city.

Wilk - Trutt

The Mayfair Inn in North Smithfield will be the setting for an attractive Autumn wedding on Sunday evening, 6 o'clock, when Miss Esther Trutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Trutt of 435 Cranston street, becomes the bride of Samuel H. Wilk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wilk of 8 Goddard street. Rabbi Nathan Taragin of the Sons of Abraham Synagogue will perform the nuptials. Traditional wedding music will be played by B. Perlman, violinist. A reception and dinner-dance will follow the ceremony.

To be given in marriage by her parents, the bride will wear a Princess gown of blush satin, appliqued in Venice lace on the skirt and train. The frock is fashioned with short puffed sleeves, and the bride will wear a single strand of pearls to complement the sweetheart neckline. Her full-length veil will be held in place by a coronet of blush orange blossoms, and she will carry a mother-of-pearl prayer book, adorned with Finch roses, white orchids and showers of bouvardia.

Miss Miriam Wilk, sister of the bridegroom, will be maid of honor, wearing a gown of blue faille laffeta, very bouffant, styled with a sweetheart neckline. A short veil of matching blue will fall from her tiara of blue velvet flowers. She will carry an old-fashioned bouquet of Briarcliffe roses.

Louis Trutt, brother of the bride, will act as best man, assisted by the following usher corps: Thomas Berk, George Furman, Sidney Greenfeld, Gabriel Levine, Irving Pedliken, Saul Siegel, Leo, Philip and Ralph Swartz and Abe D. Tobin.

The mother of the bride will be attired in a gown of soldier blue crepe, appliqued in silver beads, and will have a corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother will wear a jacket gown of old rose lace, and her flowers will be rapture roses.

Guests at the wedding will be from California, North and South Carolina, Virginia, Chicago, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pawtucket and this city.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, Washington, Virginia and Atlantic City, the couple will make their home in this city.

First Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold White of 9 Balcom street entertained members of their family last Monday night at dinner, in celebration of their first wedding anniversary.

Mazo Bar-Mitzvah

The Bar-Mitzvah of Gerald Mazo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mazo of 20 Taft avenue occurred last Saturday at the South Providence Hebrew Congregation. In honor of their son's confirmation, Mr. and Mrs. Mazo entertained seventy-five guests on Sunday evening at their home.

Hadassah Luncheon Proceeds To Aid Child Welfare Project

Approximately nine cents is required to provide a Palestinian child with one hot meal, it was revealed this week by Mrs. Morris Schussheim, president of Providence Chapter of Senior Hadassah. In urging support of Hadassah's Thirft Luncheon, to be held next Tuesday afternoon, 12:30 o'clock in the Ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel, Mrs. Schussheim stated that of the $1.29 being charged as admission to the event, $1.04 will go directly to Palestine to feed a child one hot meal a day for one month. At the present time, Hadassah is conducting an extensive emergency feeding project, which provides daily meals to 25,000 boys and girls of grammar-school age, in Palestine.

The luncheon program, under Mrs. Leonard Goldman's direction, will be highlighted by a talk on "Child Nutrition, as Affected by the War," by Dr. Banice Feinberg; a group of vocal selections by Mrs. Anna Novens of radio fame, and an address by Miss Hanna Goldberg, a practicing Boston attorney. The invocation will be pronounced by December 9 at the Narragansett Hotel, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Oscar Klemmer, who is being assisted by Mrs. Leo Bojar as journal chairman; Aaron Bromson and Irving Brodsky, as co-chairmen.

Rabbi Morris Schussheim.

Jerusalem-Dublin Axis Organized

JERSEY CITY. — T. James Tumulty, 29-year-old Irish chairman of the Hudson County Fight for Freedom and a militant foe of Mayor Hague, has taken up the cudgels against what he considers the greatest menace to American freedom — the use of anti-Semitism as a political weapon.

Tumulty believes that the best way to overcome such evils is by getting a good example of himself. So he and his friend, Abraham Sepunik, a young Jewish attorney, decided to become law partners under the firm name of Tumulty and Sepunik.

On the door of the enterprise appears the note: "Headquarters of the Jerusalem-Dublin Axis."

Emanuel Women To Hear Goodrich

Prof. Leland M. Goodrich of Brown University will present an address on the topic, "Can Hitler Be Defeated?" when he speaks before a meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel on Monday evening.

Mrs. Ernest Blazar, president, will preside. Mrs. Philip Korb is chairman of the hostesses, while the reception committee comprises Mrs. Joseph L. Cohen, Mrs. Jack Cerel and Mrs. Louis Temkin.

Barnet Orchestra To Appear at Met

Charlie Barnet, "King of the Saxophone," and his famous orchestra will begin a three day engagement at the Metropolitan Theatre starting Friday. Featured in the orchestra are Ford Laery, Bob Carroll and the "Quintones."

Also appearing on the Met Stage will be Tito Guizar, "romantic troubador" from south of the Rio Grande. An additional feature will be "Think-A-Drink" Hoffman, highest paid bartender in the world.

The first-run screen offering will be "Emergency Landing," starring Carol Hughes, Evelyn Brent and Forrest Tucker.

Justin Huddish had on an outfit of sun-tan beige, appliqued with nutria on the shoulders that formed into timely V's on the sleeves . . . Mrs. James Krasnoff was looking grand in a dress and hat of foliage green, topped by a brown fur jacket . . .

Mrs. Robert Zametkin, fetching in a Christmas red and green plaid greatcoat, and a large green felt hat, apron style over the nape of the neckline, bound with red trim . . . Mrs. Theodore Kolb was a precious portrait in a torso frock of aqua wool, with three bands of silver metal trim around the bodice . . . Mrs. Sigmund Rosenblatt, (who we later learned won the door prize, a silver vegetable dish — the gift of Mrs. Samuel Kaplan) was vivacity itself in her black crepe dress, with aqua banding the neckline, embroidered in sparkling beads . . .

Casual and becoming was Mrs. Walter Adler's tailored beige jersey dress, encircled at the waist with a narrow brown belt . . . A skillful design was Mrs. Maurice Bazar's grey jersey dress, with a royal blue stripe around the bodice . . . Always well-groomed Mrs. William Harris arrived in an outfit of black, a sable jacket, and a black toque, with red and black feathers . . . Mrs. Harold Sydney in hothouse pink wool, topped by a grey Persian lamb coat . . . A black felt cut-out hat on her blonde hair . . . Bright figures were applied at the hemline of Mrs. Samuel Bronstein's black dress, and she wore a lush silver-fox jacket . . . Mrs. Maurice Robinson was a gracious lady in a man-tailored suit of beige checks, and a soft brown felt hat . . . Mrs. Nathaniel Rosner, charming in a dress of off-foc blue and a deeper blue felt hat . . .
