A Jew Defends The Ku Klux Klan

"I honor the Ku Klux Klan. I honored them in the old reconstruction days and I honor them today. These Klansmen were trying to do the right thing (they whip-lashed several pro-union mill workers) even if they used the wrong methods."

So spoke Ike Wingrow, a Jewish attorney, when he appeared on behalf of six Klansmen in a clemency hearing before Governor Talmadge, of Georgia.

This defence of the Klan, outspokenly anti-Semitic, fascist in action, by a Jew, has evoked considerable criticism in the South, especially by churchmen.

Wingrow's procedure is difficult to explain unless one adopts the theory that his hatred of unionism transcends that of the Klan or similar constituted organizations. This anti-labor viewpoint has resulted in many strange marriages — and this of a Jew and the Klan is one of the weirdest ever recorded.

It is possible of course that Wingrow's deed was based on deep-seated selfish motives. But whatever the reason, he has done his country and his religion, a disservice by his advocacy of a movement whose injustice and violence has shocked the country for generations.

Lindbergh for President

Those who like to compare the rise of Fascist power in Europe to incidents now occurring in this country will consider Dorothy Thompson's most recent pronouncement on Charles Lindbergh.

"Lindbergh thinks that America will enter the war," the famous woman columnist said, "and he thinks America will lose it. He will then emerge as the one who said, 'I told you so.' He will then demand punishment of the 'guilty warmongers' — the New Dealers, Roosevelties, pro-British and Jews — and indulge in stern suppressions on the ground that 'tolerance cannot survive a war, especially a lost war.'"

Pétain, the defeatist, and Darlan, the authoritarian, also hated the democratic system. They, and their satellites, undermined France's war efforts and prepared, secretly, for the day when the Nazi invader would be supreme.

The pattern is open for all to see. With Lindbergh as head of a party along pro-Nazi lines, it is obvious he hopes to remake our governmental system and emerge as "America's savior."

Talmud Torah Appoints Principal

Directors of the Sons of Zion Talmud Torah this week announced the appointment of Rev. N. I. Tabachnick of New York, as principal of the school.

Before coming to Providence, Rev. Tabachnick taught in Yeshivah "Torah M'Zion," of Brooklyn, and at the Talmud Torah B'nai Israel of Riverside Drive. Mrs. Tabachnick will direct social activities of the pupils.

Adult groups in Jewish history and literature will be conducted by Rev. Tabachnick, it was further announced, if sufficient men and women are interested.

CONSTABLE KILLED

TEL AVIV. — In a renewed flare-up of violence Constable Yaakov Chupayov was killed in Rehoboth.

52,000 Murdered In Kiev Pogroms

Nazis Continue Policy Of Jewish Extermination

LONDON. — Fifty-two thousand Jews, including men, women and children, were systematically and methodically put to death in Kiev following the Nazi occupation of the Ukrainian capital, according to information received here.

The details available establish that the victims did not lose their lives as the result of a mob pogrom, but a systematic, "efficient" execution carried out in accordance with the cold-blooded Nazi policy of Jewish extermination. The sources for this information are in position to state that whether or not the mass executions were ordered from Berlin, high quarters there were cognizant of what had taken place. Certainly, there has been no single official repudiation or reprimand of those responsible.

No Jewish Army- Lack of Materials

LONDON. — The breakdown in the negotiations between the British Government and the Jewish Agency for the establishment of a Jewish Army was attributed this week by British authoritative circles to the necessity of providing the Soviet forces with all military equipment that Britain can spare.

It was also learned here that Lord Moyne, British Colonial Secretary, in a letter stated that the Russian war has imposed tremendous strain on British transport as well as curtailing available military equipment.

Ask Confiscation Of Jewish Clothing

LISBON. — A demand that the Fascist Government confiscate all warm clothing and underwear now possessed by Jews in Italy was voiced by the controlled Italian press, copies of which have just arrived here. The Fascist papers proposed that the clothing seized from Jews be sent to Italian soldiers serving on the Russian front.

Jewish Businessman Wins Ohio City Mayoralty Election

Aid to Britain Reaches $300,000

NEW YORK. — More than $300,000 has already been raised for British war relief from Jewish individuals and organizations in America in less than a year of operation of the Jewish Section of the British War Relief Society, it was reported by its Chairman, Dr. Israel Goldstein.

whelming majority against his two opponents, both of whom are not Jewish. Ben Gordon has served as City Councilman for the past four years. ## Moscow Cluttered With Nazi Leaflets

STOCKHOLM. — Nazi planes this week dropped anti-Jewish leaflets over Moscow asserting that "every seventh person in Moscow is a Jew" and telling the population that "the German army aims to liberate the Russian people from Jewish slavery."

With the evacuation of all foreign diplomatic missions from Moscow to Kazan, the Soviet capital is now being fortified day and night by the civil population, with every able-bodied Jew volunteering for participation in the defense of the city.

Vatican Adds 100 Jews to Staff

Welles Promises Refugees Asylum

Immediate Task Is to Beat Hitler

BALTIMORE, Md. — Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles yesterday pledged that after the war the United States will join with other governments to find permanent homes in new lands for millions made homeless by oppression and conquest.

In the meantime, Mr. Welles said in an address broadcast by CBS and carried by short wave to Latin-American Republics, the United States will do everything possible to provide havens for individuals and families in countries of refuge.

"Solution of the greater problem of mass resettlement," he said, "cannot be undertaken, however, until the war is over and the world has seen the final and utter defeat of those responsible for this cruel tragedy which shames our modern world."

Mr. Welles spoke at the opening session of the first inter-American Jewish Conference, sponsored by the American Jewish Congress and attended by delegates from 18 Central and South American countries and Canada.

Postwar Help To Jews Urged

ALBANY. — Postwar Europe must look to America and the other democracies for guidance, say a British industrialist and an English author who, with other New York week-end speakers examined the plights of subjugated peoples.

Between one and three million Jews in Central and Eastern Europe face reduction to the role of migrants after the war, the industrialist, Israel M. Sieff, told a conference of the United Palestine Appeal.

Leon Blum's Brother Shot by Nazis

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

With a penchant for pleasure, a gay holiday throng wended its undetoured way to the Biltmore Hotel last Saturday nite, where Temple Emanuel was having its annual Thanksgiving dinner dance . . . Always an outstanding social event in our colony, this year's affair was in keeping with the current holiday spirit, and provided a temporary escape from today's sordid realities . . .

Ruby Newman's music kept everyone in a tropical mood . . . The more rhumbas and congas they got, the more they wanted . . . Fashion, always an invited guest, did herself up proud as we shall now proceed to tell you . . .

An exceptionally lovely gown of old ivory taffeta, favored with a long sleeved bodice of beloved black lace, was worn by Mrs. Edward Bosler . . . Dorothy Orleck wore a sleek gown of warm bronze silk jersey, excellent foil for her golden locks . . . Striking as an exclamation point was Mildred Kelman in her gown of neon red tulle, designed with a velvet bodice, and a round yoke of red net sprinkled with sequins . . . Of special note were her ultra new shoulder length evening gloves of matching red . . . A sweet margin of sky blue satin banded the neckline and shoulder straps of Mrs. Aaron Weiner's frock of rustling black taffeta . . . Confection pink was used on the whispering black moire gown worn by Evelyn Brown . . . 'Twas made with a square neckline . . . A pink floral tiara in her dark coiffure . . .

In the elegant manner, Mrs. Irving L. Fain, general chairman, wore a stunning gown of suave black, fashioned with long tight-fitting sleeves, and a bustle-like bow at the back . . . Mrs. Nathan Sandperil captured a good share of party magic, wearing a black crepe skirt, topped by a blouse of wispy white lace . . . Clear as the green of a winter sea, and just as refreshing, was the hue of Mrs. Walter Sundlun's captivating square-necked gown of crepe . . . With her hair done up becomingly, Mrs. Max Kestenman was a lovely lady in a gown of soft blue . . . A gaily embroidered jacket of tawny rust velvet, topped a dress of snow white, worn by Mrs. Lester Emers . . . Mrs. Harry Gourse was lovely in a metallic gown of electric purple, made with long full sleeves . . . A picture gown of black silk jersey, with a full plaid taffeta skirt was Mrs. Morton Borof's becoming choice . . . Mrs. Saul Abrams appeared in a memorable gown of white silk jersey, sparkling with green beaded shoulder straps and belt . . . Fragile black lace over pink formed the patrician gown selected by Mrs. Morris Espo . . . Romantic black net was worn by stately Freida Baxt . . . The gown had long puffed sleeves, and was dotted with jet sequins on the skirt . . . Sharp pink wool jersey, appliqued with startling black sequins, topped Mrs. Joseph Rosenfield's black taffeta skirt . . . A glamorous outfit of shimmering white was the fascinating selection of blonde Mrs. David Dwares . . . Regal black velvet with a graceful tunic was a perfect costume for Mrs. Henry Sopkin's blonde coloring . . . Mrs. Alvin Rice appeared in a gown of brilliant tomato red silk jersey, with a flattering square neckline, and her hair done on the upswing . . . Intrinsically feminine was Mrs. Frank Abrams' powder blue taffeta gown, with its sweetheart neckline, and metallic embroidered flower on the skirt . . . Mrs. Abraham Percelay was dressed in an unusual gown of black crepe, with bracelet sleeves and a skirt of deep rose penciled with a black stripe . . . Couturier-fashion-echoing was Mrs. Jack Cereff's ruffled black lace gown, with its velvet bodice of luscious tangerine velvet . . . A vivid evening edition was Mrs. Harold Dick's gown of electrifying high blue, flashing with matching sequins . . . Mrs. Harry Fine was striking in a gown of gala red crepe. More, of course, whom we can't remember . . .

Sunday afternoon we looked in at the Narragansett Hotel Ballroom, where the Sam Dicks were receiving at open house in honor of their daughter, Lillian's betrothal to Edward Bomes . . .

During the few moments we stayed we noted Lillian, herself, radiant in a dinner gown of royal blue crepe, with brilliant aqua
