If We Don't Help Them, Who Will?

Old women and small children have been made military objectives in a cruel war against the Jewish people and all peoples clinging to the last remnants of freedom in the Nazi-dominated continent of Europe.

If we don't help them, who will? Ours is the sacred opportunity and duty to provide the means for rescue and rehabilitation abroad, for the defense and rebuilding of the Jewish homeland in Palestine, and for refugee aid in the United States, through the instrumentality of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees, Overseas Needs and Palestine. Your contribution to the 1941 United Jewish Appeal of Providence will provide the resources for the urgent life-saving programs of the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal and the National Refugee Service.

In the Machiavellian strategy of war of the Nazis the spirit and faith of men have been made military objectives. If the Jews of the United States are resolved to give all-out aid through the $25,000,000 nationwide campaign of the United Jewish Appeal — if a new spirit of sacrifice is introduced to our rescue effort — the morale of the Jewish people imprisoned in concentration

U. S. Delegation To Visit Palestine

Shertok Urges Recruits To Enlist For Defense

JERUSALEM. — The news that a delegation of American Jews will soon proceed to Palestine was revealed by Moshe Shertok, head of the political department of the executive of the Jewish Agency, addressing a press conference here.

"The Yishub will wholeheartedly welcome this delegation," Shertok said. He pointed out that the defense of Palestine and the Middle East calls for large numbers of recruits and urged the Jews of Palestine to enlist in the army "in ever-increasing numbers" despite the refusal of the British Government to permit the establishment of a special Jewish army. "To all dangers and disappointments which we are now facing, there can only be one reaction — an immediate and maximum Jewish enlistment," he declared.

Cleveland Rabbi Guest Speaker

Rabbi Brickner to Stress Work of United Appeal

Rabbi Barnett Brickner, of Cleveland, Ohio's Euclid Avenue Temple, will appear as guest speaker at a banquet on Sunday evening, seven o'clock at the Narragansett Hotel, at which time local Jewry will launch the 1941 United Jewish Appeal Campaign for Refugees, Overseas Needs and Palestine, American Jewry's single fund-raising instrument to provide for the relief and rehabilitation of victims of war and oppression in European lands, for the upbuilding and defense of the Jewish homeland in Palestine and for the integration of refugees in the United States.

In view of the fact that millions of Jews in many parts of the world have been gravely affected by the devastation of war and the spread of Nazi persecution, the United Jewish Appeal is seeking to raise funds to support the programs for rescue, relief and resettlement carried on by the Joint Distribution Committee, the United Palestine Appeal, and the National Refugee Service.

Mrs. Archibald Silverman, who recently returned from a South American tour, will also appear as speaker. Joseph W. Ress will act as toastmaster.

A report on progress of the campaign to date will be given by Archibald Silverman, campaign director.

Vichy Extends Jewish Bans To Colonies in Western World

NEW YORK. — The regime of Marshal Petain has recently extended the Nazi racial laws by a decree to the colonies, the Christian Science Monitor revealed this week.

The Nazi press in Germany and France welcomed this enactment as a great achievement. Indeed, this move of the Vichy Government working as a branch of the Berlin central organization, should not be underestimated.

For the first time the Nazis have succeeded in enforcing their own rules on parts of the Western Hemisphere. Throughout the French colonies, ghettos have been erected for Jews, who have been eliminated from banks, trade, the press, films, and the radio. Only a limited number are allowed in the intellectual professions.

No difference is being made between French and foreign Jews. In the first years of Nazi rule in Germany, anti-Semitic measures were taken against German Jews only.

The privacy of safety deposit boxes in banks that commercial enterprises still enjoyed in the first months of Hitlerism, has been abolished by the Vichy Government.

Arabian Unrest Started by Axis

GENEVA. — An intensified anti-Jewish drive in Arab countries has been started by the Axis powers in an attempt to persuade the Arabs that Great Britain and Soviet Russia are going to give to the Jews practically the whole Near East.

Extend Aryan Laws to Algeria

VICHY. — A government decree this week extended the French Aryanization law to Algeria.

The Government also announced the "Aryanization" of all sections of the Bloch aviation works, whose management already has been turned over to Gentiles.

The United Jewish Appeal announced this week that report luncheons will be held at Weinstein's Restaurant, at 12 o'clock noon on the following dates:

- Dr. Ilie Berger and Joseph W. Ress, campaign director and associate director, respectively, will be in charge, while Mrs. Ilie Berger will act as hostess. Door prizes will be awarded on December 10, 12 and 15, and a special prize will be given at the final report meeting.

"Alien Camp" Bill Killed by Congress

WASHINGTON. — The Hobbs "concentration camp" bill which provided for the internment of deportable aliens who could not be returned to their country of origin was defeated in the House of Representatives by a vote of 167 to 141.

The measure which had the support of the Department of Justice had been assailed from many sides as endangering the rights of all aliens, even those who are staunch supporters of the government.

Czechs Shamed For Helping Jews

ZURICH. — A "pillory of shame" containing the names of Czechs who have committed the offense of showing kindness to Jews appears in the Nazi-controlled Czech paper, Poldeni List. The same paper carries an appeal issued by the Prague Tailors Guild asking its members not to accept orders from Jews.

Cordell Hull Gets 1941 Medal Award

NEW YORK. — Secretary of State Cordell Hull this week was awarded the American Hebrew Medal Award for 1941 in recognition of his services to the country "in a time of grave national crisis" and particularly for his contribution to the cause of "better understanding between Christians and Jews," it was announced by The American Hebrew.

JAILED FOR MURDER

LONDON. — A Vichy news agency reported this week that a man described as a Polish Jew had been arrested for the assassination of Lieut. Col. Paul Friedrich Holtz, German commander at Nantes, on Oct. 20.

Mufti Opponent Is Assassinated

LONDON. — Fakhri Bey Nashashibi, a prominent Arab leader noted for his advocacy of the British cause and his opposition to the ex-Mufti of Jerusalem, was assassinated in Baghdad this week.

Fakhri Bey Nashashibi was a bitter enemy of the terrorist elements in Palestine because, although he agreed with other Arab factions in favoring an independent Arab State, he was opposed to using violence to obtain this end.

Georges Mandel Reported Sick

Monster UJA Youth Rally Sunday Afternoon at Center

Youth Speaker

A monster meeting for the Youth Division of the United Jewish Appeal will take place on Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock at the Jewish Community Center.

In an open letter sent this week to Rhode Island Jewish youth, Max Meller and Jerome Feinstein, co-chairmen, stated:

"Realizing the tremendous need for a much greater amount of money and support than was given last year, we, the chairmen and our supporting committees are doing our utmost to make this an all-out campaign. We alone cannot do it. We must have the complete cooperation of the entire Jewish Youth. Not just a mere handful, but each and every one of us shall do, before God and himself, his utter best to aid, throughout the world, the hundreds of thousands of Jewish People whose only hope is as-

Nazis Need Labor; Drop Ghetto Plans

GENEVA. — The German plan to set up a huge Jewish ghetto in Lwow has been abandoned because of the Reich's desperate need for utilizing all possible productive facilities, including Jewish labor, it was disclosed in Polish papers reaching here this week.

A decree just drafted by the district governor of the Lwow area, the papers report, provides that the town be divided into four sections: German, Ukrainian, Polish and Jewish. The order, however, specifically states that the Jewish quarter is not a ghetto.

CIO Denounces Prejudice Efforts

DETROIT. — Anti-Semitic efforts, "such as Lindbergh's," in this country were condemned as endangering America's national unity in one of the resolutions adopted here last week by the convention of the C. I. O., the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Serbs Boycott Nazi Exhibit

GENEVA. — The stubborn resistance of the Serbs continued to make itself evident to the Nazi masters when the much advertised anti-Jewish exhibition which the Germans brought to Yugoslavia was closed because of a complete boycott by the Serbs, who refused to attend the exhibition, although the Nazis offered prizes for attending the "show."

George and Anne live on Plantations street in a nice little brick house. They might be people you know, because they're just average folks. They don't play an important part in communal affairs themselves, but they're mighty interested in the people who do. They like to keep themselves informed about what's happening where and why—and they like to know about the things that happen—WHEN they happen. So—they read the Jewish Herald.

There's a lot of significance to that. There's a lot of Georges and Annes in the World and most of them are hungry for Jewish news in our city. Naturally they return to the one source they can depend on, that they've ALWAYS depended on—their newspaper. They KNOW that the prime function of that newspaper is the presentation of the News—impartially and completely. That's what your newspaper does for you. And that's why thousands read the Jewish Herald every week.

Foreigners who came to the United States since that date are allowed to use $500 a month for living expenses without formality, but must get special licenses from the Treasury to use any more money. Mr. Willkie asked removal of the $500 limit.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

The Wireless: All the grumbling you hear about the Army's morale being way down to here is German cooking. Gen'l Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, made that warning in his speech. Its all tricked up to disturb the soldiers' loved ones, and it's surefire with the stupider Congressmen . . . Clark Gable's nifty via a Red Cross show: "Our ancestors lived in log cabins and sod huts to establish a gov't based on the theory of 'We, the People,' and not 'I, the State' ". . . Many of the afternoon dramas contain some of the theater's best players. Why don't the sponsors also try to hire a better grade of writers? . . . One place where a writer is needed — but needed — is on the "single" shows. The patter the announcer and artist swap between numbers always sounds as if they'd lost the script and are covering up the wait . . . One headliner explained the reason he never used guest stars is because he's never met a star who knew how to behave like a guest.

Midtown Vignette: The other middle-of-the-nighttime, a Canadian soldier went into Hamburger Heaven and wolf'd about five hamburger sandwiches, so hungry was he . . . As he went to the cashier's desk, he was told: "Oh, I couldn't think of taking money from you. You're doing something to make it a better world, and all I can do is wish I could. Sorry, no money from a soldier. And whenever you are in the neighborhood again, please come here and eat all you want!" . . . The Canadian said he'd like it lots more if he could pay his way . . . "I have the money!" he said, displaying a wad . . . "Sorry," said the cashier, "wouldn't think of it!" . . . The Canadian is one of the wealthiest men in the world. His name is Duncan McMartin. Has about 40 million smackers.

Ed Howe, the late editor of an Atehison, Kansas, daily, was always envied for his serene outlook on life . . . Celebrated writers read his stuff and wished they had his peace of mind . . . Now his son, Gene, writes in a magazine: "My father was the most wretchedly unhappy man I ever knew" . . . At the same time, H. L. Mencken, the Baltimore journalist, was hollering his head off. People were clucks, he yelped, and the world was a hoosegow . . . Now, in his fascinating memoirs, "Newspaper Days," Mencken confesses he was always as happy as a kid with his first long pants, all day long.

Typewriter Ribbons: Pete Smith's: An eye like a cafeteria cashier's . . . John Barrymore's: Happiness sneaks in through a door you didn't know you left open . . . John Galsworthy's: One's eyes are what one is, one's mouth is what one becomes . . . Ben Hecht's: His smile appeared to wear a little crutch . . . Elizabeth Curtis: He panthered up and down the room . . . Olin Miller's: A woman never knows what dress she doesn't want until she buys it.

Jokes about a "Swiss Navy" should not include the Swiss merchant marine, for that country has seven ships for high seas trade.

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

Where women gather — this column goes too

To get information — just for you . . .

A party needs no better reason for being given than marking milestones . . . Now does it? . . . That's how most folks feel, and that's how the Ted Rosenblatts felt last Saturday night, when they entertained a group of friends at the Narragansett Hotel, in observance of their tenth nuptial anniversary . . . The Club Rooms echoed voices of happy folks, intermingled with Tommy Masso's music . . . And our information wire tells us that Mr. Rosenblatt presented his spouse with a magnificent mink coat on the occasion . . . S'wonderful . . .

And now, ladeez — attention! . . . Here's the Herald's eye-view of the feminine guests . . . Mrs. Rosenblatt, herself, wore a stunning Grecian gown of black, with gold used as accent on the bodice and waistline . . . A lush, langorous orchid lent its luxurious look . . . Wearing her hair in one of those flattering, short coiffures, ala bangs, Mrs. Peter Katzman made a striking picture in her long sleeved gown of emerald green . . . Edith Pulner, who was birthday celebrating, was radiant in a gown of white ash taffeta, dotted with nail heads . . . Mrs. Saul Gordon was chiefly attired in black, with an orchid at her wrist . . . Fashionably turned out was Mrs. Frank Lazarus in her dress of smooth black, with a yoke of winter white . . .

Wearing cream of white, in a heavy, heavy crepe, slit skirt and sophisticated turban to match, Mrs. Aaron Helford made a dramatic entrance . . . Jet sequins danced deftly over Mrs. Paul Goldstein's becoming frock . . . Black tiered lace, topped by sun-orange velvet, was selected by Mrs. Jack Cerel . . . A gown pleated all around the skirt, made Mrs. Murray Andelman a smart portrait . . .

Designed on impeccably tailored lines was Mrs. Hyman Hochman's dinner dress of night black . . . A sleek gown of black silk jersey was Mrs. Isaac Chorney's choice . . . Others favoring black, too, were Mrs. David Luber, with beads used to highlight her frock, and Mrs. Bernard Lederman, in the chic combination of black taffeta and velvet . . . A charming jacketed gown of black-out black crepe, was chosen by Mrs. Hyman Schoenberg . . . Florence Winograd was there, in a gown of off-white, with pretty embroidery as accent . . .

Other guests there were from out of town, whom we didn't know, and you probably wouldn't . . .

Monday we looked in at the membership luncheon, given by the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, and since their business of the day is discussed in another story in this issue, let us tell you how some of those dexterous women were dressed . . .

Gold stardust spilled itself over the white yoke of Mrs. George Rice's black crepe costume . . . Mrs. Si Greenberg entered in a pretty coat of aqua and beaver, and a becoming cloche chapeau to match . . . Exciting as a conga was Mrs. Harry Goldenberg's dress of black, appliqued with bright red at the hem and scrolled in black . . . Two large red bows were used on the bodice . . . A beautifully cut coat of lustrous black Persian was worn by Mrs. Abe Dickens, and a graceful, drop-brimmed hat of black moire.

Gracious as ever was Mrs. I. B. Dickens in her costume of black wool, relieved by a girdle belt and yoke of sandy beige . . . Her pendant diamond watch gleamed bewitchingly . . . Well-groomed and smart was Mrs. Harold Kelman in her peplum frock of black crepe, margined around the neckline and peplum with pink and blue beads and shiny gold sequins . . . A dress of black crepe, with its sailor-boy collar bound in red, white and blue rhinestones was worn by Mrs. Al Billincoff . . . Mrs. John Kaplan chose a long torso frock, also in black, brightened by gold buttons down the side . . . Mrs. Irving Peskin wore a piquant dirndl dress of black, with peasant embroidery around the skirt . . . We passed Mrs. Louis Uloff at the door, and noted her attractive black dress, with its black lace trim at the bodice . . . Mrs. Archie Dickman was there, wearing a brilliant outfit of strawberry red . . . Mrs. David Cooperberg made a sophisticated picture in her black crepe dress, and drapery turban of electric blue . . . Mrs. Jack Fierman was petite in blue velveteen, with lingerie collar of white . . .

So far we got—and then we had to leave . . .

There are now planted in Palestine 500,000 dunams of olive groves as compared with 300,000 of citrus groves.

Palestine Has Done Most To Solve Refugee Problem

NEW YORK. — Palestine has done more than any other country in the world for the refugees, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt told an audience of 20,000 persons who assembled last week at Madison Square Garden for the eighth annual Night of Stars.

Discussing James Roosevelt's recent visit to Palestine, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "When my son was there he was full of admiration for the work that was going on in Palestine and what has been accomplished in a rather barren land. What has been done there is a lesson to all of us.

"In the past few months all of us have felt the tragedy of the refugee in every part of the world. I think that perhaps the country that has done more than any other to help the refugees is Palestine. There so many refugees have found a haven and home. The refugees in Palestine are re-establishing themselves," Mrs. Roosevelt said.

EASY WAY TO GET A TELEPHONE NUMBER

Of course you know the easiest way to get a telephone number—to look in your telephone directory. There it is, neat as a pin, right where it belongs... in alphabetical order. That is the way most people find telephone numbers.

Once in a while, when the party you want to reach is not listed in the latest directory and you are sure that they have a telephone, you call "Information" for the number. That isn't necessary very often because your Telephone Company does a pretty good job of putting in listings of every last new telephone installed right up to the last possible minute before printing the directories.

Now, if there were no telephone directories printed and people had to call "Information" for every number they wanted to reach, there'd be a tremendous demand for telephone directories. Yet the strange fact is that about forty-five million times a year people call up "Information" for numbers that are right where they should be in the telephone directories. This, despite the fact that most of the time it's easier and quicker just to look in the directory. And it speeds up "Information" service for everybody.

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

It's an interesting tale one United Jewish Appeal worker told us the other nite . . . Three years ago he approached a local business man for a contribution to the cause . . . Though his business was in pretty tough shape, the man gave five dollars and said that if he could afford it the next year he would give ten times that amount . . . When he was approached the following year by the same solicitor, without a bit of fuss he made out his check for fifty dollars, and in his quiet sincere way remarked that if his business warranted it the next year (which is now) he would again increase his contribution tenfold . . . The story was continued this week when the U. J. A. Initial Gifts Committee received his check for $550 . . . And the gentleman chooses to remain anonymous . . .

Sacred
Is A
Promise

The latest story in circulation around town is about the Jew who reads "Social Justice," that goes something like this: Cohen meets Levy and tells him that he's having bad heart trouble . . . When Levy asks why, Cohen says it's because he reads so much sad news and that it affects his ticker . . . But Levy wants to know why he keeps on reading if it's breaking him down . . . Well, because he has to keep in touch with his people, Cohen replies . . . Two months later, Levy meets Cohen on the subway — and is astonished to see him holding a copy of "Social Justice" in his hands . . . "But, Mr. Cohen, how can you read such a paper?" . . . Cohen explains that he never felt better in his life . . . No more heart trouble . . . And why? . . . Because he gets so much nachas reading Charlie Coughlin's paper . . . There, he reads that Jews own all the movies; they have all the papers; they head all the businesses . . . With everything going so wonderfully he has no more heart trouble . . .

New
Form of
Escape

Hope Maglin, in her parody on "Daddy" sung at Maurice Stollerman's testimonial dinner last Tuesday nite, summed up in one chorus many of the accomplishments of Mr. Stollerman, and the affection the children have for him . . . Although the golf season is officially over, a number of the boys at Ledgemont are gathering each Sunday morning for a round or two and a royal barbecue afterwards . . . They've nominated Nat C. Cohen as their chief and after several mirthful meetings, they tentatively named themselves "The Nineteen Hole Club." . . . Among those that participated are Louis Rosenberg, Abe Fine, Jacob Edelstein, Max Siegel, Reuben Glanzman, Ben Trinkel, Harry Fowler, Ralph Krauss and several others whose names escape us for the moment . . . Martin Panzer tells of the five "shochtim" members of the Shochtim Union of New York, who won a five-dollar salary increase after staging a sitdown strike . . . Martin says "Just picture their employer at the abattoir complaining that they were cutting his throat . . ."

Said

Someone called in a few momens ago to inform us that Laura Eisenberg, formerly of our town, was married to Morris Alchuler of Lynbrook, L. I., on November 20 in that city . . . Freda Baxt and Jacob Hohenemser will be married December 27, we've been told . . . Archie Finklestein, we hear, will wed a Canadian girl on December 21 . . . Florence Cohen of this city and Bernard Bellis of Brighton, Mass., will recite their vows on January 4 at the Mayfair . . . Florence is being feted at a shower next Thursday nite at Weinstein's . . . Dr. and Mrs. Ilie Berger observed their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary last Monday . . . Jack Temkin was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Rhode Island Bar Association this week . . . Among those who'll be heading South around Christmas time will be Dr. Jack Biderman . . .

WHEN IT'S RED IT'S READING

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

It's an interesting tale one United Jewish Appeal worker told us the other nite . . . Three years ago he approached a local business man for a contribution to the cause . . . Though his business was in pretty tough shape, the man gave five dollars and said that if he could afford it the next year he would give ten times that amount . . . When he was approached the following year by the same solicitor, without a bit of fuss he made out his check for fifty dollars, and in his quiet sincere way remarked that if his business warranted it the next year (which is now) he would again increase his contribution tenfold . . . The story was continued this week when the U. J. A. Initial Gifts Committee received his check for $550 . . . And the gentleman chooses to remain anonymous . . .

Sacred
Is A
Promise

The latest story in circulation around town is about the Jew who reads "Social Justice," that goes something like this: Cohen meets Levy and tells him that he's having bad heart trouble . . . When Levy asks why, Cohen says it's because he reads so much sad news and that it affects his ticker . . . But Levy wants to know why he keeps on reading if it's breaking him down . . .

New Form of

Well, because he has to keep in touch with his people, Cohen replies . . . Two months later, Levy meets Cohen on the subway — and is astonished to see him holding a copy of "Social Justice in his hands . . . "But, Mr. Cohen, how can you read such a paper?" . . . Cohen explains that he never felt better in his life . . . No more heart trouble . . . And why? . . . Because he gets so much nachas reading Charlie Coughlin's paper . . . There, he reads that Jews own all the movies; they have all the papers; they head all the businesses . . . With everything going so wonderfully he has no more heart trouble . . .

Hope Maglin, in her parody on "Daddy" sung at Maurice Stollerman's testimonial dinner last Tuesday nite, summed up in one chorus many of the accomplishments of Mr. Stollerman, and the affection the children have for him . . . Although the golf season is officially over, a number of the boys at Ledgemont are gathering each Sunday morning for a round or two and a royal barbecue afterwards . . . They've nominated Nat C. Cohen as their chief and after several mirthful meetings, they tentatively named themselves "The Nineteen Hole Club." . . . Among those that participated are Louis Rosenberg, Abe Fine, Jacob Edelstein, Max Siegel, Reuben Glanzman, Ben Trinkel, Harry Fowler, Ralph Krauss and several others whose names escape us for the moment . . . Martin Panzer tells of the five "shochetim" members of the Shochtim Union of New York, who won a five-dollar salary increase after staging a sitdown strike . . . Martin says "Just picture their employer at the abbatoir complaining that they were cutting his throat . . ."

Said
With Music

Someone called in a few moments ago to inform us that Laura Eisenberg, formerly of our town, was married to Morris Alchuler of Lynbrook, L. I., on November 20 in that city . . . Freda Baxt and Jacob Hohenemser will be married December 27, we've been told . . . Archie Finklestein, we hear, will wed a Canadian girl on December 21 . . . Florence Cohen of this city and Bernard Bellis of Brighton, Mass., will recite their vows on January 4 at the Mayfair . . . Florence is being feted at a shower next Thursday nite at Weinstein's . . . Dr. and Mrs. Ilie Berger observed their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary last Monday . . . Jack Temkin was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Rhode Island Bar Association this week . . . Among those who'll be heading South around Christmas time will be Dr. Jack Biderman . . .

Marriages
of the Month

The Herman Sterns of Cranston became proud parents on December 4, when a son was born to them at Miraim Hospital . . . The Benjamin Cohens, too, were blessed with a baby boy on December 2 at the same hospital . . . Number three son made his bow to the Dave Meyers on Tuesday nite at Lying-In Hospital . . . Louie's Delicatessen said the response to its anniversary celebration far exceeded expectations, and wishes to thank the hundreds that made the event a success . . . Hadassah will honor its new members at a membership tea next Tuesday afternoon at the Biltmore Hotel . . . Hadassah members who served as waitresses at the very successful Thrift Luncheon, held recently, were entertained at a tea last Tuesday afternoon, given at the home of Mrs. Henry Hassenfeld . . . They're saying that the Nazis stopped their "All Out" on Russia because they're "All In" . . . Thumbnail description of Hitler: "He's always trying to make this world a bitter place to live in . . ." That's all for now . . .

THEIR FATE IS IN YOUR HANDS!

The Hands That Write The Checks Can Save Them!

In this crisis we Jews of America are faced with an obligation we dare not neglect. We are the only hope—in fact the only lifeline—of hundreds of thousands of victims of Hitler's savagery. They are giving up everything in life dear to them. We have not yet reached the point of sacrifice in any way comparable to theirs.

This year we must make every effort to reach our quota of $100,000 and be thankful that we are FREE TO LIVE AND FREE TO GIVE.

Remember that this year fourteen important Jewish causes are included in the Providence Campaign.
