A False Theory

The decision that all members of the Nazi party must establish their ancestry at least to the year 1800 shows that the rulers of the Third Reich are pursuing their policy of racial purity with increased zeal.

It is interesting to note that Gibbon's "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire", goes against the Nazi theory. For it was his opinion that it was a policy similar to that of the Nazis that destroyed two of the great States of antiquity.

"The narrow policy," he says, "of preserving without any foreign mixture the pure blood of the ancient citizens had checked the fortune, and hastened the ruin, of Athens and Sparta."

What was mistaken over two thousand years ago may prove to be equally mistaken today.

Donor Luncheon

The annual Home for Aged Donor Luncheon which takes place on Wednesday afternoon takes on added significance this year. As the Home is not a member of the Community Fund it depends on outside activities, such as the Luncheon, to raise the necessary maintenance funds.

At a recent meeting of the Home board the need of a hospital wing and an elevator was emphasized. And the Auxiliary, cognizant of the situation, has offered the proceeds of their Luncheon for these purposes.

The women in charge of the Luncheon next Wednesday are entitled to more than the appreciative applause of the 400 donors who will be present. They deserve the plaudits of the entire city for having recognized a vital community deficiency and doing something about it.

Purim

The ageless story of the Jewish people's deliverance from oppression will be recalled in synagogue and home when Jews will celebrate Purim on Thursday, March 13.

Distinctly applicable to present day conditions which find them driven from one country to another to escape baseless persecution, the Purim story is concerned with the attempted destruction of the Jews in Persia. Because Esther, a lovely Jewess who was Queen of Persia, intervened and uncovered the plot to her royal husband Ahasuerus, the Jews were permitted to defend and save themselves.

And while Purim is being observed, Jews throughout the world will remember the biblical story of eternal hope and eventual deliverance from tyrants.

Rackets

Rackets will flourish as long as there are people dishonest enough to indulge in them, and gullible folks who are naive and innocent enough to hand their money over to strangers without investigation.

During the past year thousands of dollars have been milked from this city by smooth salesmen who are able by the pressure and volume of words to sell causes that are illegitimate or non-existent.

There are enough really worthy causes to be helped, causes for which your support is requested by your neighbors, or by reputable individuals whom you know.

Draftees Receive Club Invitations

Communal Groups Asked To Welcome Army Men

Fourteen Jewish young men, stationed with the Sixth Army Corps at the Old Hope High School, have been sent complimentary paid-up membership tickets by the Brotherhoods of Temple Beth El, Temple Beth Israel and Temple Emanuel, and by the Jewish Community Center, it has been announced.

In a statement this week, a spokesman said that the young men, most of whom are strangers in town, have many free evenings, and would be grateful to receive invitations to attend various activities conducted by organizations throughout the city. Such invitations should be sent to Lt. Albert Barkin, Sixth Army Corps, at the Old Hope High School.

Banish Vienna Families to Poland

VIENNA. — In a step regarded as one of the final chapters in Germany's efforts to clear Vienna of Jews, 1,000 Jewish residents of the City, mostly families, were banished Feb. 19 to German-occupied Poland.

Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering, it was recalled, said in a Vienna speech shortly after Anschluss in 1938 that the City would be without Jews within four years.

NO JEWS CHOSEN

SOFIA. — Not a single Jew was elected to the City Soviet of Kaunas, the former capitol of Lithuania, although the city's population is 35 per cent Jewish. The lack of "suitable Jewish candidates" is offered as the reason the Jews were deprived of representation in the City Council.

German Line Denies Charge Of Excessive Refugee Fees

NEW YORK. — Charges that the German shipping line, Hapag Lloyd, which has been functioning as a travel agency since the war swept German merchant shipping from the seas, was capitalizing on the plight of the refugees by exacting excessive fees, were denied last week by John Schroeder, managing director of the line.

He said no pressure was being exerted to force the friends of the Vienna Jews to use the facilities of Hapag Lloyd and that all the money paid over for tickets was put in a trust fund in the Chemical Bank and Trust Company, where it remained until it was turned over to the shipping company on which passage was obtained for the refugees.

Fighting For Democracy

More than 9,000 Jewish soldiers from Palestine are today fighting on the Libyan and Albanian fronts and elsewhere in the Middle East. Their heroic participation in the fall of Tobruk and Bengazi recently evoked official commendation by General Sir Archibald Wavell, Commander of the British forces in the Middle East.

Refugee Travels 19,000 Miles For Delicate Brain Operation

NEW YORK. — After racing 19,000 miles by airplane and train from Palestine, a 20-year-old German refugee was in Mount Sinai Hospital last week awaiting an operation for a brain tumor that has nearly blinded him.

The youth, Aaron Leschkowitz, was greeted on his arrival in Grand Central Terminal, by his father and mother, whom he had

Seek Medal for Cab Driver Who Aided Police

WASHINGTON. — Representatives Joseph A. Gavagan this week introduced a bill seeking the award of a Congressional gold medal to Leonard Weisberg, the New York taxi driver, who risked his life in an effort to assist Patrolman Edward Maher, who was killed January 14 in an effort to apprehend two payroll bandits.

not seen since he left them in Germany in 1936. Arrangements for the journey of young Leschkowitz to this country were made by Hadassah, the women's Zionist organization, a delegation from which was at the station. He left Palestine Feb. 6 on a Dutch plane, which carried him to Rangoon, Burma. Thence he went by Chinese plane to Hong Kong and across the Pacific by Pan-American Clipper. He boarded a New York-bound plane at Los Angeles Friday but it was grounded by bad weather at Cleveland and he completed the trip by train.

His hospitalization was arranged by Dr. Israel Wechsler, chief neurologist at Mount Sinai, and Dr. Ira Cohen, chief neurosurgeon, who will undertake the diagnosis and operation. The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Leschkowitz, live at 242 Penn Street, Brooklyn.

New Restrictions Affect Cracow

BERLIN. — All Jews in Cracow, capital of the German Government in Poland, who are not in possession of a valid "identification card," have been ordered to leave the city immediately, according to the Cracauer Zeitung. "Severe punishment" is the penalty for failing to comply with this order.

In this connection it is also reported that at a recent meeting of the Administrative Council of Cracow, it was stated that the efforts of the Jewish Council in the city to expedite Jewish emigration had failed. As a result, the German Elite Guards were ordered to take the matter into their hands, it was stated.

Violent Reaction To Nazis Feared

Business Men List Property and Assets

LONDON. — With the Nazi occupation of Bulgaria, the 40,000 Jews there anticipate a duplication of riots that occurred in Roumania after Hitler moved in. Anti-Semitic pogroms may mean the second exodus in the history of the Bulgarian Jews whose ancestors in the 15th century were driven from Spain and traveled to Turkey and thence to Bulgaria.

Scores of Bulgarian Jewish business men have already filed a statement listing their property and cash assets with the National Bank and are making every effort to sell their enterprises to non-Jews, preparatory to leaving the country.

Attempts to calm the Jewish population have been unavailing because the treatment accorded Jews in all countries occupied by Nazi troops has become common knowledge in Bulgaria.

Intern Residents Of French Coast

VICHY. — Practically all the Jewish residents of the northern coastal zone of occupied France have been interned, it was reliably reported from Paris this week.

Several hundred Jews between the ages of 17 and 40 have been interned under strict surveillance in two camps in the northern departments of Yonne and Aube. Relatives were kept in ignorance of their fate.

Recently the French Social Assistance Service intervened with the German Red Cross and obtained the release of 50 who were sick. Permission was obtained for others to communicate with relatives.

Philatelic Problem Will He "Lick" Axis?

NEW YORK. — Otto Koischwitz, German radio commentator known as "Okay," who is taking a postman's holiday by radio-casting from Rome, was heard by the Columbia Broadcasting System to remark that new German-Italian stamps bearing heads of Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini have been issued.

He asked American stamp collectors:

"Do you suppose the President will put these stamps in his famous collection? Will he sacrifice his political sentiments to the appetite and ambition of the collector?"

Communists Brand Zionism as Imperialism

LONDON. — The London Sunday Express accuses the Communist movement in England of spreading anti-Semitism by charging international finance with the war-guilt and branding Zionism as part of English imperialism. The Communists, the paper states, follows the propaganda line of the Nazis, although they did not mention Jews by name.

Parochial Unit To Hold Spring Event

Fashion Show Occurs Mon. at Miriam Plaza

Report Brazil Puts Soft Pedal on Racial Prejudice

NEW YORK. — J. X. Cohen, economist and traveling representative of the American Jewish Congress, after a tour of Brazil has returned to New York, and in the "Congress Weekly" sets forth that the policy of that nation is based first on a desire not to offend the United States, and second, on a doubt as to who will win the present conflict — Britain or Germany, and the fear of getting on the losing side.

He reports that up to two years ago, the press carried heavy subsidized streams of anti-Semitic material, that they do not run such stuff now. Vargas, the real dictator, does not deem that the time is well set for any action against the Jews, though the anti-immigration laws are severe and rigidly enforced.

The Germans have large investments in Brazil and upon the declaration of the present war, the Embassy increased its staff by more than a hundred new employees whose main duty seems to scientifically spread Nazi propaganda.

Mr. Cohen reports that the 75,000 Jews who live in Brazil have no real sense of security, as Brazilians are highly emotional and are easily stirred into overt action as the anti-Jewish poison which has been spread may easily lead into definite adverse action.

Seek Release of Fascist Mosley

LONDON. — A new campaign for the release of Sir Oswald Mosley is being launched anonymously through the mails by Fascist agents, it is learned. During the past few days they have been mailing Union Jacks to prominent people and organizations. In the center of the flag, printed in ink, is the Fascist "lightening" sign. Across it are the words, "Release Mosley."

Reinternment of a number of Fascists recently released is foreshadowed by a special correspondent of the Jewish Chronicle, following reappearance of scurrilous anti-Jewish slogans on walls in London and the provinces.

Maintain Arab Jewish Balance

LONDON. — The British Colonial Office declared this week it would maintain the rigid balance between Jewish and Arab forces in Palestine. Seven Jewish and seven Arab infantry companies have been authorized, of which five of each have already been formed.

Obituary

ISADORE GANDAL

Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home for Isadore Gandal, 41-year-old executive director of the Jewish Family Welfare Society, who died on Monday. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman officiated.

Mr. Gandal became director of the Society, an agency of the Providence Community Fund, in November 1937. A native of Bethlehem, Pa., he had served on the examining board of the New York Civil Service Commission before coming here, and was a graduate of Lehigh University and Muhlenberg College.

He had lived at 42-Benevolent street, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rose Gandal. Interment was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Bridge Planned For B'nai B'rith Aux.

The Executive Board of Roger Williams Auxiliary, No. 181, B'nai B'rith will tender a complimentary bridge and mah jong to paid-up members on March 17 in the club rooms of the Narragansett Hotel, it was announced this week. Door and table prizes will be awarded.

It was further announced that nomination and election of officers will occur at that time.

Life Insurance in action!

BY ITS VERY NATURE, Life Insurance is an active, continuing force—a living force in the homes of millions who share its benefits.

Last year Metropolitan visited many homes in times of family crisis, for a total of over $182,000,000 was paid on account of death claims to scores of thousands of beneficiaries of Metropolitan policyholders. Dividends, matured endowments, annuity payments, disability, and health and accident claims, and other benefits paid or credited to living policyholders during the year amounted to more than $426,000,000. The total of almost $609,000,000 for payments to policyholders and beneficiaries is a record high for the Company.

Metropolitan funds, invested for the benefit of its policyholders, continued to play a part in the economic structure of the nation. These funds aided in financing Government activities, helped to keep industry humming and men in jobs, to erect public and private buildings, and assisted farmers to own their farms and to keep them in proper repair. However, the low interest rates generally prevailing, continued to have their effect on the Company's earnings and consequently on dividends to policyholders.

Moreover, through its Welfare activities, its nursing service for eligible policyholders, its research, its health and safety literature and advertising, Metropolitan again contributed to the task of bringing better health to America. The death rate of Metropolitan policyholders as a whole continued to be low, and mortality among Industrial policyholders was approximately the same as the 1939 figure, a record low for this group.

Metropolitan is a mutual life insurance company. This means that the assets of the Company are held for policyholders and their beneficiaries. The value of these assets will ultimately be paid out for their benefit... and for them only.

Boston Rabbis Establish Jewish Board of Arbitration

BOSTON. — The establishment of a board of arbitration, which will deal with personal and communal questions, was announced this week by the Greater Boston Rabbinical Association.

The new project, known as the Jewish Board of Arbitration will deal with three types of cases: to settle questions arising out of communal disputes, questions involving domestic relations, and questions of a religious nature.

There is a difference between the Jewish Board of Arbitration and the civil courts in that the persons involved come to the Jewish Board of Arbitration because they agree to come.

The local effort is very much along the lines of the Jewish Court of Conciliation which has been functioning for nineteen years in New York and which has won an outstanding reputation because of its passionate endeavor to get the facts without being legalistic.

To Form Children's Symphony Orchestra

Planning to establish a Children's Symphony Orchestra in Providence, Mrs. Alice Liffman has announced that she will need the cooperation of about forty children from six to fifteen years of age.

Mrs. Liffman said today that if she is successful in forming such an orchestra, performances of the famous Kinder Symphonies by Haydn and Romberg could be presented over the radio, and in neighboring communities, as it has been done in European cities.

Rehearsals would occur once a week, and the total expense for each child would be nominal. No knowledge of music would be required for bird whistles, triangles and drums, but some knowledge would be necessary for cockoos, trumpets, violin and cello. Mrs. Liffman may be contacted for further information at 332 Benefit street, DExter 5667.

The Hitler "Revolution"

By RAYMOND GRAM SWING

(Although the author did not offer it as such, the editors of The Nation published the article, excerpts from which follow "as a reply to Anne Morrow Lindbergh's thesis that Hitlerism, whether we like it or not, is the advance guard of an inevitable and revolutionary world order, its faults merely the 'scum' on the wave of the future.)

The most dangerous word now assailing our minds, in my opinion, is the word "inevitable." . . . The mind which begins with a conviction of its own futility is like a motor empty of fuel. And that is what makes the word "inevitable" dangerous. It represents defeat before the expenditure of effort, before the acceptance of sacrifice.

I am concerned about the introduction of this word "inevitable" into a discussion of the world conflict. The war is being described as the working of inscrutable and inevitable forces so vast that the individual, either by his own contribution or through concerted action with other individuals, is unable to affect those forces. We are told that a world revolution is in progress, and we are expected to be so impressed by the magnitude of the concept that we resign ourselves to inaction. We are advised to believe that the inscrutable forces are better for us than any brave self-conducted behavior we may rally against evils we see.

Let us examine the thesis, first to scrutinize the statement that a world revolution is in progress, next that it is bound to end well. Translated into current language, the statement means first of all that the Nazi movement is revolutionary. When this is said one is supposed to respond not only with a feeling that it is something deep, but that it also is something fundamentally liberating. For the revolutions of history have been liberating in their ultimate effect . . .

The Nazis promise that in the future the benefits will be enormous and will be shared by all Germans. They will accomplish this, not by establishing an economic system in which the world as a whole is to prosper, but by establishing a permanent world inequality, with Germans owning or controlling the tools of production, which are to be used by non-owning workers, in other words, by a vast class which is never to come into control of its own economic destiny . . .

By the definition I have given of revolution, a transfer of power from a smaller to a larger number, the fulfillment of this dream of empire would be revolutionary . . .

A larger number of Germans would be free. But they would become so only by transferring to themselves the freedom enjoyed in the rest of the world. And in the end, if the German objective was reached, power would have passed from the many to the relatively few. And that would not be revolution; it would be counter-revolution . . .

A counter-revolution cannot succeed unless the many who have the power are incompetent in holding on to it. And to say or to infer that this is inevitable is to say that it is inevitable that those who have power shall lay it down. Laying it down is an act of will. And an act of will is not inevitable. It is a choice. Moreover, it is a choice against self-interest. And if it is made by the non-German world today, it will be made either because the smooth skill of German tyrannical organization exerts an insane fascination, or out of spiritual funk . . .

I should make this clear: I am not arguing that this war is not or may not be a phase of a world revolution . . .

But revolutions can and should come without violence if by revolution is meant a transfer of power from a smaller to a larger number . . .

If this a revolutionary epoch, let us be warned lest we be defrauded by those who offer us counter-revolution as being the revolution. If there are Americans with undue political and economic power today who fear to lose it by revolution, they may try to offer us counter-revolution instead, not for our sakes but for theirs. For in counter-revolution, though they may have to sacrifice some of their elbow-room, they still can remain in the master class . . .

Those who try to sell us the Nazi counter-revolution as a revolution have made their choice. They are bidding to share Hitler's power. And when they imply it is the inevitable good, they are trying to sap men's minds with the worst of social poisons, inaction. There is one completely effective answer to them: that the rest of us choose freedom, not only the freedom which we now enjoy even if we have not used it too wisely, but the freedom to grow more wise and more free.

Army Calls 11 Jewish Chaplains

NEW YORK. — The United States Army has called 11 Jewish chaplains to active service since October to minister to Jewish men who have been mustered into the defense forces as a result of the federalizing of the National Guard and the adoption of the Selective Service Act, it was announced by the Rev. Dr. David de Sola Pool, chairman of the Committee on Chaplains and Religious Activities of the National Jewish Welfare Board. *

Declaring that this number will be considerably increased before the end of the year, Dr. Pool urged qualified rabbis to apply for commissions. According to the War and Navy Department regulations, Jewish chaplains are commissioned upon the recommendation of the Jewish Welfare Board.

SONS OF ZION BRIDGE

Thirty tables were in play at the annual bridge of the Ladies Auxiliary, Sons of Zion Talmud Torah, held last Monday afternoon at the Jewish Community Center. Mrs. Abe Heller and Mrs. Louis Cohen were chairman and co-chairman, respectively. Door prizes were contributed by Mrs. Mary Feldman.

BAZAAR TICKETS

Tickets for the annual Bazaar of Temple Beth Israel, which this year takes place on April 23, 24 and 26, were distributed at a committee meeting held on Thursday night at the home of Harry Goldenberg. Reports were given by members of the Sisterhood working for the event. Coleman Zimmerman is general chairman.

Congress Must Provide Authority

Most of Foreign News

Is Fascist, Anti-Semitic

WASHINGTON. — The United States Government will never be able to curb the flood of pro-Nazi and un-American propaganda through the mails unless Congress gives the Post Office Department statutory authority to do so, Jesse M. Donaldson, Deputy First Assistant Postmaster General, told the House Appropriations Committee during hearings on the Post Office appropriation.

In response to a question by Representative Louis Ludlow of Indiana regarding the truth of reports that the United States postal system has been carrying a large amount of propaganda mail, Donaldson said, "There is no doubt but that there is a considerable amount of matter going through the mails that is propaganda, but there is no way which the Post Office Department could declare it unmailable unless statutes were so provided."

Committee members did not ask Donaldson for any specific legislative recommendations in this connection. However, two bills have already been introduced at this session, by Senator Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Representative Samuel Dickstein of New York, both of which carry sufficient authority to curb seriously the tide of pro-Fascist propaganda, a large part of which is anti-Semitic.

Purim Puppet Show Coming to Emanuel

Miss Jacqueline Simone Henri of New York, will bring her troupe of forty puppets to this city on March 15, in a presentation before the Parent-Teachers Association and Religious School of Temple Emanuel.

The puppet show will have Purim as its theme, with musical accompaniment and colorful scenic effects, featuring the story of "Queen Esther," and additional stories from the Bible.

Mrs. David Litchman, president of the P. T. A., and Fred Weiser, director of Religious Education, are in charge of the affair.

Develop Unique Smear Technique Issue Lists Confusing

Jews With Communists

NEW YORK. — The old Nazi trick of confusing the public by branding Jews as "Communists" has been revamped by a Pacific Coast Nazi, who discovered a new way of using this discredited propaganda technique.

The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League has learned that John C. Mernbress, a well-known Nazi, of 42 Castro Street, San Francisco, has compiled long lists containing the names of Jews he has selected at random. Interlarding these names with those of a few recognized Communists, Mern-bress has announced that his lists contain the names of Communists only!

Mernbress has gone one step further. He has been able to convince an investigator for the Dies Committee that his lists are trustworthy. The lists have been turned over to the Committee and are now in its files, waiting, no doubt, for an appropriate release date.

This is an almost disabolically clever smear-technique. For if ever Mernbress' roster is released, the innocent persons on the list will automatically be associated with the few Communists also included! Nazi propaganda-masters have long realized that denials can never gain quite the same effect — or be as convincing — once a charge, however false, is made.

Court Voids Conviction of 3 Who Stoned Jewish Store

CHICAGO. — The Illinois Supreme Court has voided the conviction of three members of the Silver Legion for smearing and breaking windows of the Jewish-owned Goldblatt Brothers department store in Chicago. The judge said the action was based on the difficulty of determining "whether the defendants were tried for breaking windows or for membership in an anti-Jewish organization."

The defendants, Homer Maertz, who is of German extraction, Fred Pocorny and Douglas Campbell, had been sentenced to from one to ten years in the penitentiary in 1940 on a charge of malicious mischief.

Meanwhile, a member of the German-American Bund, Helmuth Gottfried Steiner, who was brought here from Milwaukee to face a draft-dodging charge, was sentenced for contempt of court for telling a Federal judge he hated America and its courts were "a mockery."

Arraigned in Federal court, Steiner shouted: "I hate America. The courts are a mockery. There is no reason for America as a national entity."

Holiday Program At Beth-Israel

The holiday of Purim will be ushered in at Temple Beth Israel next Wednesday evening, 6:30 o'clock, with reading from the Book of Esther. The reading will be repeated on Thursday morning at 7 o'clock services.

Sabbath services scheduled for Friday, March 14 will be devoted to a consideration of the problem contained in the story of Purim. Rev. Richard Morton, religious editor of the Providence Journal, will be guest preacher, having as his subject, "A Christian Looks At Anti-Semitism."

The Temple Religious School will present two playlets on Sunday morning, March 16, as part of the Purim festival; one will be a musical based on the story of Purim, while the other will be a comedy, entitled "After The Play Is Over."

Workers' Alliance Plans Purim Dinner

Dr. I. Feigenbaum will be guest speaker at a Purim Dinner and Reception, to be tendered new members of the Jewish National Workers' Alliance on Sunday evening, March 16, 6:30 o'clock at the Miriam Plaza. A prominent Jewish artist will also appear on the program.

Reservations may be made by calling Joseph Biller, Gaspee 8882, before Wednesday, March 12. The affair will be informal. Samuel Sprecher is chairman of the arrangements committee.

SISTERHOOD DANCE

According to an announcement this week, a novelty dance will be held by the Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel on April 1 in the Temple vestry. Mrs. Arthur Kaplan is chairman.

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

Spring preparedness—at its very best
Were the frocks at Tuesday's affair . . .
Girl Friday—again at our request
Told us, and tells you, who was there . . .

"All out" attendance was recorded at the annual formal dinner and dance of Providence Junior Hadassah, held last Tuesday night in the Indian Room of the Narragansett Hotel . . . Though the entire Indian "reservation" was for their dance alone, the attendance was well past the overflowing point . . . Which is as it should be . . . Makes for a gay, grander time! . . . Music was by Howard Jones and his band . . .

Dinner over—one noted what a charming group of young women it was . . . Their gowns and light-hearted moods portended Spring, for which this department says "Hooray!" . . .

Muriel Dauer was a dainty dish in her frothy gown of white lace, with its encircling ruffles about the skirt . . . Small white dangling balls outlined a bolero jacket of black velvet, which complemented the frock . . . Kelley green background, printed with huge white Hibiscus, was the striking gown worn by auburn-tressed Ruth Ross . . . Celia Kapelow was captivating in her frock of black net, contrasted with a bodice of silver lame . . . Long puffed sleeves of black illusion lent an ethereal touch . . .

A duplicate of Maggie Sullivan's frock in "So Ends Our Night," was Ann Smith's delectable gown . . . 'Twas a layer of pink net—over blue net—for the skirt, and the same hues were used for the bodice of glistening lame . . . Moon yellow net, was lovely as worn by Sylvia Davis, with its translucent sequins straps, and sequins bands about the skirt . . . Shirley Glass arrived in a candy striped taffeta gown, with touches about the neckline of black velvet . . . Her blonde hair was all done up in a sophisticated Pompadour, low in black, with a huge back velvet bow at the nape of the neck . . .

Smooth aqua satin was Claire Sandperil's becoming choice . . . The frock was made with a sweetheart neckline, and delicately inserted therein was baby pink tulle . . . White crepe with gold lame trim was charming on Estelle Port . . . Evelyn Mazick wore a taffeta dress of petal pink and nite black plaid taffeta . . . She topped it with a jacket of black taffeta . . .

Disarming and utterly chic was the red chiffon gown worn by Bertha Ehrenkrantz, with its flowing, willowy scarf over her coiffure . . . Faye Dunder, birthday celebrator, was all aglow and looking her best in white chiffon, made with long sleeves, and a vari-colored embroidered girdle belt . . . A gown of aqua silk jersey, with matching rosettes scattered over the black net skirt was selected by Mrs. Charles Miller . . .

Titian-haired Doris Selinder was outstanding in her Congo gown of Nile green chiffon . . . Barbara Feinstein wore a stunning gown of mercury red, and black velvet bows adorned her blonde locks . . . A figured skirt of faille, with a black velvet bodice was chic as worn by Mrs. Cy Feldman . . .

Simple and impeccably tailored was the demure black crepe gown chosen by Goldie Baucher of Pawtucket, and refreshing was the sailor collar of sunnuff white Irish linen . . . Writing paper pink satin with a quilted top was attractively worn by Elaine Israel . . . A covered-up frock of black faille was chosen by Mrs. Meyer Horowitz . . . Flame red chiffon, with shimmering gold sequins accept were used for Mrs. Marshall Dauer's gown . . .

Mrs. Louis Kirshenbaum appeared in a long sleeved gown of red velvet, with jet sequins trim . . . Ice blue satin was Rita Wintman's smart choice . . . Ruth Cohen was there, wearing lipstick red silk jersey, with a matching jacket, and gold used as contrast . . . A little-girl gown of black and white checks, with a white shirtdress top, and a check hood was a gay outfit on Rose Altman . . . A gold necklace, secured the strapless gown of black taffeta, worn by Mrs. Jerome Feinstein, she of the raven-hair . . . Polka dots, in white, always so fundamentally right, were scattered over the black satin gown worn by Mrs. Sam Zisseron . . .

Establish Additional Ghettos in 14 Towns

CRACOW, Poland. — Additional ghettos were established in 14 Polish towns during the past month. In addition, Hans Frank, the Nazi Governor in Poland, forbade employment of Jews in the building industries.

BAN YIDDISH

HAVANA. — Yiddish was one of four foreign languages banned from the air in Cuba, it was announced this week. The other languages were German, Chinese and Polish. The reason for this government measure was the alleged use of these languages for Communist propaganda.

NOTES OF A NEW YORKER:

Newspapermen know how United Press feels about the following fact . . . It reminds its staffers that news may break any place—and it warns them not to be indifferent to any locale for scoops . . . It stems from 1917, when the late Bob Bender (who became UP's vice president) was in the White House washroom, and in came Joe Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson . . . Tumulty was so upset he couldn't steady himself, which made Bender nervous . . . "What the devil's the matter with you, anyway?" shouted the newspaperman.

"Y-y-y-you'd b-b-b-be n-n-n-nervous, too," chattered Tumulty. "If you h-h-h-had j-j-j-just seen a Declaration of War!"

Bender, still disarranged, sped out of the place and down to the UP offices with the notable scoop.

There is danger that Hitler can take America, but there is more danger in those so-called Americans who would give it to him.

The newspapers, as you probably have heard, always write the obituaries of well-known citizens long before they die and then file them away until they are summoned to the Pearly Gates. One New York newspaper has this opening line on Father Divine, the colored question mark, to wit: "Father Divine, the man who claimed he would live forever, didn't."

One of Broadway's ham actors was recently booked into one of those intimate night clubs . . . On his opening night he warned the manager that he needed absolute quiet while he performed . . .

The manager complied by instructing his staff to obey this request . . . After the first performance the manager went backstage to inquire if everything was okay.

"No," shouted the ham, "all through my act there was a terrific disturbance. It went puck brrrrrrrr thwacck! Have that stopped!"

"Look," squelched the manager, "when that puck brrrrrrrr thwacck stops—you will be fired! That's the cash register."

Cholly Adler, the Tavern-keeper, relays the one about the day Goering stormed into an aircraft factory, ordered a dozen planes, and demanded they be ready in three days . . . "That is impossible!" shrieked the foreman . . . "It must be so," barked Goering,

South Prov. Aid Installs Officers

Mrs. Louis Chester was installed as president of the South Providence Ladies Aid Association, at annual installation exercises held last week at the Hebrew Institute, 129 Chester avenue.

Other officers inducted included: Mesdames Sam Berman, Leo Raperport, and Nathan Wasserman, vice-presidents; Mrs. Sam Millman, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Youngstein, financial secretary; M. Bograd, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Bograd, treasurer; Mrs. Harry J. Scheck, loan secretary; Mrs. D. S. Polen, loan treasurer; Mrs. Louis Grant and Mrs. Kopel Mayberg, honorary presidents; Mrs. Louis Smira and Mrs. Jacob Hazman, honorary vice-president; Mrs. Louis Goldenberg, honorary treasurer. Mrs. P. Phillips was installing officer, assisted by Mrs.

and strode away . . . Nazi efficiency came crashing through, and three days later, when a crew arrived at the factory, the planes were ready as ordered . . . The pilots got in and soared over the channel to bomb the British . . . Reaching London, the first pilot pulled his bomb release—and out dropped four of the factory's night shift!

Joseph Clark Baldwin, who has been mentioned for the vacancy caused by the passing of Kenneth Simpson, has a four-year-old unmarried son who attends private school. The other day he was asked to recite the Pledge of Allegiance . . . All the political talk he heard at home apparently confused him. He convulsed his teacher by starting: "I pledge allegiance to the flag and to the Republicans for which it stands!"

Jimmy Dorsey tells about the Hollywood producer who was trying to theft a big box-office personality from a rival studio. He dangled a contract in front of the actor and asked: "Well, is it Yes?" The actor shook his head . . . "Then," persisted the producer, "is it No?" . . . The actor still shook his head.

"Well," plaintively continued the producer, "at least won't you reconsider and give me a definite maybe?"

A delegation of Japanese recently visited the Curtiss-Wright aviation plant in Paterson, N. J. . . . An inspection tour, it was called . . . They were loaded with cameras, of course . . . Guided and supervised by courteous personnel, they were allowed to snap pictures of certain parts and motors to their hearts' content . . . Now don't get excited—it was all right . . . This was the catch . . . Before leaving the plant all had to pass through a tiny room in single file . . . In that room, unknown to them, was a battery of X-ray machines, bombarding away . . . Those rays, in case you didn't know, rendered useless the films the Japanais had exposed . . . None of the pictures "turned out," and no relations or niceties were strained.

Broadway Alien: When he shakes your hand he wants to know what's in your heart, not up your sleeve . . . He continues tipping his hat to ladies long after he's lost his curly strands . . . When he borrows a dollar, he has the headache, not the lender . . . If he trips at your house, he consults his doctor, not his lawyer . . . He always has a reason for what he does — not an alibi . . . The only thing he ever got on the cuff was a spot of gravy . . . He thinks his father was a lucky guy in meeting his mother.

Fred Adler, program chairman. A buffet luncheon was served following the exercises, under the direction of Mrs. Harry J. Scheck and Mrs. Sam Millman.

Co-Starred at Albee

MR. & MRS. SMITH

Co-starring Carole Lombard and Robert Montgomery, who are seen together for the first time, "Mr. & Mrs. Smith" presents these top favorites in a riotous social comedy of a young Park Avenue lawyer and the woman who for three years has been accepted as his wife. "Mr. & Mrs. Smith" now showing at the RKO Albee has for an accompanying feature "Little Men" starring Kay Francis.

Jewish Colonel Refuses to Quit

NEW YORK. — Here is the story of Colonel Schwartz, a Strasbourg Jew, who stood against the German army in the Maginot Line even after the French surrender as revealed by Ben Lewis, columnist.

Schwartz, who in peacetime was manager of a Strasbourg bank, commanded 1,300 men in the fortress of Hochwald in the Maginot Line. The Germans bombarded it but were repelled with heavy losses.

When the armistice was signed, the Germans sent an envoy with a white flag telling him that the war was over and demanding his surrender. His answer was that he and his men would continue to fight. Despite German attacks he continued to fight two weeks after the armistice until a French general arrived from Vichy and ordered the garrison to surrender. When the surrender took place the German commander congratulated Colonel Schwartz and told him he could keep his sword. "Do you know that I am a Jew?" the Jewish hero asked. "I don't care," was the reply of the German commander.

Dies Committee Gets New Appropriation
