

The War This Week

Foreign Relations

The U. S. and Britain signed a pact postponing indefinitely final settlement of Lend-Lease costs. The pact commits both nations to virtually unlimited free trade, and provides final terms of the settlement "shall be such as not to burden commerce between the two countries." Mr. Welles announced the Vichy French Government has given the U. S. assurances it will not aid the Axis beyond terms of the armistice agreements.

Production and Conversion

The War Production Board said conversion of peacetime industrial plants to war production will be "over the hump" by late fall. Complete conversion of the automobile industry is expected by September 1, the Board said.

Price Administrator Henderson

stated national registration for sugar rationing books will be held over a four-day period, probably during the last week in March. Approximately 1,400,000 school teachers will serve as registrars, and 245,000 schools will be used. One adult may register for each "family unit."

Army

The House passed legislation increasing from one month to one year the payment to dependents of the salaries of members of the armed forces captured by the enemy. The legislation would also increase the pay of officers and men serving outside continental U. S. by from 10 to 20 percent. The President established the Army Specialists Corps, a unit of uniformed civilian employees who may be appointed to War Department

Editorials

A Jewish Army

The proposal for a Palestine Jewish fighting force has brought endorsements from hundreds of Americans.

The reasons, moral and practical, for the creation of a Jewish military force have been so frequently stated that they hardly require repetition. Tens of thousands of young and sturdy Palestinian Jews and Jews deprived of citizenship by Axis lands and ineligible for service in the fighting forces of the democracies are straining at the leash eager to fight the enemy of mankind. They can be sent to fields now held by Australian forces for whose return they, our country, menaced by the Japanese, is in desperate need.

As for the moral side of the question, is there any people in the world that has a greater right to vindicate its honor and life against the modern Attila than the Jews?

And Now, Cameron

For years the voice of William J. Cameron on the Sunday evening Ford hour has been associated with negative democracy. He was editor of the Dearborn Independent in its anti-Semitic daze.

But now, since Pearl Harbor, Mr. Cameron has had a change of heart. In a recent broadcast he said: "When we saw racial enmity rising in Europe, we knew immediately the regime that instigated it was doomed. The moment that thing appears, sentence both human and divine is pronounced against it. Anti-Semitism is the negation of humanity. It is not the Jew we pity most; he is not the real victim of anti-Semitism. The real victim is the anti-Semite himself whose soul is eaten by that deadly acid. Any antagonism toward any people because of color, race or religion is a vestige of barbarism."

These are good words. We hope that the change in Mr. Cameron is sincere and not lip service to expediency.

Palestine to Admit Youth Under 16

TEL AVIV—The Palestine government has agreed to admit Rumanian and Hungarian Jewish children under 16 years of age, despite the fact that their native countries are at war with Britain, it was announced by Elihu Dobkin, head of the immigration department of the Jewish Agency, addressing a meeting of the Merkaz Aliyah, Histradruth immigration aid group here.

A resolution stating that the present immigration schedule was too small to adequately meet the needs of the country and the war effort was adopted by the Merkaz Aliyah.

Execute 7 for Leaving Ghetto

ZURICH—Seven Jews have been executed by the Nazis in the Polish City of Kielce for leaving the ghetto without permission, it is reported in the Goenie Krakowski, reaching here this week. These executions bring to 34 the number of Polish Jewish men and women known to have been hanged when caught outside the ghetto walls.

In an attempt to check the typhus epidemic in Poland a special conference of medical workers has been called in Cracow to consider means of combatting epidemics, the Nazi press reaching here from Poland also reports.

RESINS POST

WASHINGTON—Nathan Straus resigned as head of the U. S. Housing Administration recently, and a government official "piously" suggested that he be made director of interned Nazi prisoners in the United States.

Home Auxiliary Arranges 10th Annual Donor Luncheon

With the 10th Annual Donor's Luncheon of the Jewish Home for Aged scheduled for next Wednesday afternoon at the Narragansett Hotel, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Daniel Jacobs, the Ladies' Association has reported more than 450 donors to date, with its goal still at 500. Proceeds from the event will be used to help maintain the Hillside Avenue home.

An unusual entertainment program has been secured by the committee in charge, with Blix Ruskay, a former student of Maria Ouspenskaya, as guest. Miss Ruskay will present numerous impersonations in costume from famous plays, original portrait sketches and satires of current Americana.

Fear Deportation Of Dutch Jews Say 4,000 Killed By Forced Labor

LONDON—The prediction that all Jews in Holland will be deported by the Nazi occupation authorities to Poland is made here this week in the "Voice of Nederland," a weekly newspaper published by the Dutch Government-in-exile.

Estimating that "about 4,000 young Jews have already been worked to death in the mines of Yugoslavia," the paper reports that able-bodied Jews in Holland are being picked up on the streets by the Nazi occupation authorities and deported to concentration camps from where they are sent to dangerous forced labor. The paper also states that the Jewish birthrate in Holland has dropped fifty per cent since the Nazi occupation.

Reviewing the anti-Jewish restrictions which the Nazis introduced in Holland, the Dutch publication says that the Jews are literally not allowed to earn a livelihood. If not for the friendly attitude of the Dutch population, starvation and mortality among the Jews would have reached very high proportions.

Report Increase In Mixed Marriages

LONDON—Mixed marriages between Czech Jews and non-Jews are sharply increasing, according to the Nazi press in Czechoslovakia, which charges that the Jews' desire to transfer their property to their non-Jewish wives.

Remembers Hitler As "A Punk Paperhanger"

NEW YORK—Benny Nussbaum was a paperhanger with Adolf Hitler in the days when Hitler was just a guy named Schickelgruber. And that's why he's saving the medal Hitler gave him. For that medal he's got a special use. He's saving it until the day of Hitler's funeral. "Then I will send it back to Germany to show I have not forgotten all he did to the country," said Mr. Nussbaum.

Nussbaum came to America in 1923 and became an American citizen. Now he's helping fight the war as an air raid warden, the senior post warden in his neighborhood, because the army doesn't need a small, plump man in his

Sherman Demands Probe Of American Fascist Groups

Says Activities Are Treasonable

Cites Passages in "Social Justice"

NEW YORK—Charges that treasonable activities are now going on in the United States, pushed by native American Fascists, immediately dangerous to the war effort, and apparently little understood or curbed by Government and the public, the purpose of which is to divide the people of the United States and to reduce the available manpower for the war production program, were made this week at a conference of Jewish organizations under the auspices of the American Jewish Congress.

Carl Sherman, former Attorney General of New York, and Acting President of the American Jewish Congress, asserted that American

U. S. Press Assailed for Handling Nazi Propaganda

NEW YORK—In an expose of American journalism's faults in presenting Nazi "news," Sidney Freifeld, former New York correspondent of the Toronto Star, writing in the February issue of the Contemporary Jewish Record, asserts that the American press has been allowing itself to be used as a sounding board for Nazi ideology and propaganda.

In his article "The War of Nerves in the News," Freifeld insists that American journalists, particularly those working for the Associated Press, the United Press and the New York Times, have been utilized by Goebbels in the war of nerves involving the United States as well as the rest of the world.

He says that anti-Jewish comments by leading Nazis get full play on the front pages of America's newspapers simply because Goebbels' publicity department manages to hand to American journalists only such news as Goebbels want publicized.

Say Nazi Agents Set Temple Fire

NEW YORK—Nazi vandals were held responsible for fires which broke out simultaneously this week in Temple Emanu-El and in the home of the congregation's rabbi, Dr. Isaac A. Millner, in Port Richmond, Staten Island. Police and Fire Department officials launched an official investigation immediately.

Dr. Millner told police that Nazi elements in the community had been incensed by a series of anti-Nazi articles written by the rabbi last year for the Staten Island Advance, a local newspaper. The fires caused little damage.

500 Refugees Fight With Chinese Army

ISTANBUL—More than 500 Polish Jewish refugees, who fled to the Far East when the Nazi armies invaded Poland, are now fighting with the Chinese Army, it was reported here this week. The Jewish refugees were said to have been commended on several occasions by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The report said that the Polish Jewish soldiers had approached Chiang Kai-Shek for permission to establish a Jewish regiment as part of the Chinese Army, it was reported.

Jewish Merchant Fleet Aids Allies

NEW YORK—The Palestine Jewish merchant fleet, which has been built up in recent years with the aid of the United Palestine Appeal, has now been almost wholly enlisted in the battle of the Mediterranean, it was revealed this week.

Nine of the eleven ships of the Palestine Jewish merchant marine have been requisitioned by the British Royal Navy to transport war supplies made in Palestine, it was disclosed in the report.

POLAND PENAL CODE

GENEVA—The ruthless German penal code, which provides Nazi authorities with the right to punish Jews and Poles for "crimes" committed against Germans since 1932, has replaced the Polish code in Nazi-held Poland.

CORRECTION

The names of Mrs. Benjamin Greenberg, Mrs. Harry Kopit and Mrs. Henry Priest, members of the Good Will Luncheon Committee of the Ahavath Sholom Sisterhood, were inadvertently omitted from an item in last week's Herald.

Janitor At Yale Sells Bonds In Spare Time

NEW HAVEN, CONN.—Helping his adopted country isn't new to Adolph Fleischman, night-working immigrant janitor at Yale University's library. In World War I he disposed of $3,600 in Liberty Bonds. A year and a half ago when he sent his two sons to the Army, he promised he wouldn't let them down and started a defense bond campaign of his own—during his spare hours.

Thus far, he has sold more than $15,000 worth of bonds and stamps. He has been spending between six and seven hours each day, canvassing stores and business places in central New Haven.

"I never walked so much in my life," he said. "But I feel like 16, I feel like a millionaire if people buy my stamps."

"I tell people who don't want to buy that we are like a string."

Beth-Israel Service Timed To Blackout

Because of a practice blackout occurring in the South side of the city tonight, Temple Beth Israel will arrange its Sabbath services fifteen minutes earlier, in order that worshippers may reach their homes prior to the blackout.

The Temple's Sisterhood will hold its regular meeting on Monday afternoon at the Jewish War Veterans building, at which time a program of entertainment and movies will be presented, and Purim refreshments served.

I hold a string out to them. When it is stretched single, a man can break it with one finger, but if I fold it up only a few times it can't be broken. That's why we have to join up and help. When we are united, we won't be broken.

"I feel rich—I'm young when a customer takes my stamps," he adds, "but I could cry sometimes when I see the way people are asleep. They tell me they don't need stamps, that I'm wasting my time ..."

"My sons are fighting. I'd give my own life. I'll stick to this selling until it's all over, until we have them beaten. And we'll do that, too, before you know it," declares Mr. Fleischman.

His sons are Benjamin, a mechanic in the Air Corps, and Sidney, in the Medical Corps.

A native of Latvia, Mrs. Fleischman came to the United States in 1906 with his wife and took out his citizenship papers four years later.

He said men with dependents may enlist or reenlist if they sign a statement that their dependents have sufficient means of outside support.

Commissions For Men With Dependents

The Army announced a new policy by which men with dependents may enlist for the sole purpose of qualifying as officers, and if they fail to make the grade may be transferred to the enlisted reserves. They would not then be called for active service until their previous classifications in the draft were called. Age limits are 18 to 45. All candidates must serve four months in replacement centers or field units before being eligible for officers' candidate schools. The new policy is designed to meet Army needs this year of 75,000 new officers from 95,000 candidates.

Selective Service Director Hershey reported the third national lottery to determine order numbers for February 16 registrants will be held in Washington March 17, but new registrants probably will not be called before May.

Home for Aged

(Continued from page 1) Home's first Donor Luncheon, an affair attended by approximately 225 women. This year, under the leadership of Mrs. Daniel J. Jacobs, more than 450 donors will be present to mark a decade of progress, since the doors of the Home were opened.

In these critical days when many charitable institutions may have to retrench it is important to stimulate fund-raising programs. This year the Home will not hold its annual carnival. The sum lost must be made up by other events. One of these is the Home Donor Luncheon.

The importance of this Luncheon cannot be minimized. And it is welcome news that nearly 500 women have recognized their duty. By their attendance next Wednesday they give notice that the Home program will not be impaired.

For a Woman's Fancy

By EDYTHE JAY

Do-Re-Mi... Another way of saying it's tune-up time for Spring... Junior Hadassah, always a gracious hostess, proved herself a sounding-board for Spring on February 25, when she entertained at her annual dinner dance, given in the Indian Room of the Narragansett Hotel... A galaxy of new-season creations worn by the femmes encompassed almost every mood—from the sleek suave manner to that young-bunny look...

It was unmistakably a wartime dance, said our pinch-hitter, referring to the male contingent... "There was a new crop of young men sprinkled throughout the crowd, and the more mature gentlemen were of the young married set"... Conspicuous by his absence was the "Middle-man" as she put it... No need to ask where he was... Uncle Sam has a priority on him... Another thing she noticed was a slightly subdued aura about the crowd, but when the band's rhythms became irresistible, they threw themselves into the business of dancing with gay abandon... It's a sign of the times... Who can deny it?"...

A special nod for the evening's success goes to Mrs. Samuel Levine, chairman... She was sweetly coquettish in a gown of black and white checks, with a spanking white bodice, and a checked hood...

Faye Dunder selected a stunning thing of Spring green with gold lame, fashioned with a plumping neckline... Two baby orchids in her hair... Appliquéd in a red design was the white bodice of Natalie Rouslin's chic black gown.

Hilda Mittleman was exotically lovely in a gown of black tulle, with a bodice of gold and blue metallic cloth, fashioned into bracelet-length sleeves... On her coiffure, she fancied a black illusion veil, with gold dots... A demure picture was provided by Mrs. Isidore Kishenbaum, in a swingy gown of heaven blue chiffon, made with long full sleeves...

Celia Kapelow was captivating in her dance frock, made with a black velvet bodice from which fell a graceful skirt of dusty pink tulle tiers... And the thin shoulder straps were of pink tulle, too...

Breathtakingly lovely was Gertrude Weisinger in her gown of ashes of roses and misty grey tulle, made into entrancing ruffles from neckline to hemline... Inserted at the waistline was a girdle belt of ashes of roses grosgrain ribbon...

Florence Godfrey appeared in a gown of regal black velvet, with tender white lace inserted at the sleeves... Mrs. Sidney Granoff's white taffeta frock was dotted with gold polka dots—the size of coins... Splashes of bright red flowers highlighted Doris Saltzman's white silk jersey gown...

Utterly disarming was Beatrice Klibanoff in her long sleeved black chiffon gown, spangled with black nailheads... And on her long dark locks, she wore a black chiffon mantilla, held in place by a full-blown orchid... Gertrude Weinberg pushed back her coiffure into a becoming Washington peruke, and placed a large red bow at the back... Her frock of tomato red and ultra-marine was effective... Petalskin pink satin—the choice of dark-haired Elaine Israel...

White crinkle crepe fashioned the eye-catching gown worn by Shirley Glass... 'Twas made with straps of tourmaline green... Zircon blue velvet designed the bodice of Mrs. Samuel Zisserson's gown, while the skirt was of aqua taffeta... And ruching was used all around the lowered waistline... Mimi Davis was a perfect darling in her very bouffant gown of light blue faille taffeta... Black lace, relieved by black and white ruffles on the skirt, was selected by Mrs. Joseph Rotenberg... Beloved black lace over delicate pink fashioned Mrs. Leo Waldman's attractive attire... An elegant thing of black taffeta, with a wide band of rose taffeta inserted in the skirt and rose flowers placed at the hipline, was Estelle Sanek's choice... Her sister, Ruth, was decoratively done up in aqua crepe, highlighted with gold nailheads...

Lillian Robinson chose a dazzling red crepe gown, with gold threads pulled through the width of the skirt... She placed white posies in her hair... Ala militaire—Doris Ann Small made an exciting entrance—wearing a dress of soft blue, with a crimson skirt, and a girdle belt of red, white and blue brilliants... Zella Mazick was there, in a pert gown of white ruffles with a red velvet bow at the waistline...

Graceful as a waltz was Libby Kapelow in her net frock of black and white ruffles, with a black taffeta bodice... Chartreuse, contrasted with a roman striped skirt with chartreuse the predominant hue, was worn by Miriam Weiss...

Mrs. Jerome Feinstein was very soigné in a gown of black crepe, with unusual treatment at the neckline... She wore a veil of black lace on her coif... Ruth Ridell had on a gown of whipped-cream white chiffon, and off her shoulders she wore a black lace shawl... White flowers nestled at her wrist... An entrancing gown of strapless peach chiffon is what Eunice Horowitz wore, and she placed flowers in her blonde hair... Warm flesh coloured chiffon, topped by wispy black lace over flesh—Eunice Silverman's raiment... And her brown orchids were noteworthy...

THINGS I NEVER KNEW AND STILL DON'T KNOW:

Whether the sugar-rationing here isn't extremely mild compared to Germany, where it's verboten to use any sugar at all for sweetening coffee or tea... That the secret of Winston Churchill's amazing energy is the old Edison formula of grabbing quickie snoozes through the day... Whether motorists know if they don't wear a hat while driving, they suffer greater eyestrain... If it wouldn't be a good idea for both Republicans and Democrats to adopt this revised slogan: "Now is the time for all good men to come to!"... That Mohammedans begin each meal with salt. (Because they believe it helps prevent most diseases)... That, according to U. That among the Betsileos of Madagascar, when a funeral is held for a woman, the procession, before reaching the cemetery, goes back to her home for an hour. (The theory being that women always forget something when they leave home)... That if you want to get the maximum taste from food, remember these tips: Bitter things taste more strongly on the rear of the tongue, sweet things on the lip, sour things on the sides, and salty things on both the tip and sides... That bad temper's are now blamed on a shortage of vitamin B1 in the diet... Whether you've heard the one about Count Ciano describing his Berlin visit to his father-in-law, Mussolini. TO THOSE WHO HAVE THE OLD EDITION OF THE HEINZ CALENDAR

This publication has been asked to remind those of its readers who have the old edition of the 24-Year Hebrew-English Calendar of H. J. Heinz Co. that the dates in the book do not go beyond Rosh Hashanah of this year. However, Heinz has published new calendar, going up to 1949. The new book is also free to everybody who sends for it.

The New Edition of the Heinz Calendar
All dates - 1942 to 1949

If you have the brown covered edition (1917 to 1941), it is advisable to keep it but to send for the new calendar, too. The two booklets actually supplement each other.

To find Yahrzeit dates, Bar Mitzvahs and other anniversaries is a task of a few moments with this convenient book at hand. Jewish holidays up to the year 1965 are also listed on a special page.

To receive a free copy of the new calendar, merely send a postcard or a letter to:

Highbrows complain about the way swing music hurts the classics. But it's a matter of record that, because popular bands started to swing Tchaikovsky, the sale of that composer's records in the classic manner hit an all-time high... We'd like to see a celeb enter a joyst some time without acting as if he were playing the star role at a coronation... Our idea of paradise is where everybody feels as good as a headwaiter looks... What's become of Technocracy?... The ditty, "I Don't Want to Walk Without You, Baby," is a friend of the ears when played in a slow tempo decorated with strings. When it comes dressed in brass it's an enemy.

The bad news the wireless has been pouring out all week from the South Pacific must put a pain in Goebbel's neck. How can he frighten us with threats of disaster, he must wonder, when our own commentators tell us the raw truth? The more we know the tougher it gets for the Axis liars and scare-mongers... The Berlin radio soaped the Yellow Aryans by announcing that Wotan, the Heinie god, and the Jap god are practically first cousins. That kind of slights the Italians, who must have become de-Aryanized when the Greeks shot the spots off them... The best of Jack Benny's stinginess gags was his denial that he forced Dennis Day to donate blood for a transfusion. Claimed Benny: "I paid him $5 a gallon for it".... Almost every time you flip on the radio, you're bound to hear some member of the theatrical profession aiding some worthy war cause.

It actually happened not very long ago in Lindy's when pretty persons invaded the place and peddled defense stamps to the public... Seated at a table in the corner, alone, was a fellow the stamp sellers seemed to avoid... The customers stole furtive glances at him, but tried not to embarrass him. He was not in the least disturbed... Finishing his dinner, he went over to the cashier and paid his $2 check with new $50 bill... Sweeping up the $48 change, he handed it to one of the stamp-selling ladies, tipped his hat and went out. Apparently an American born Japanese.

Harvard boys say they don't like Betty Grable, Veronica Lake or Ann Sheridan. Playing hard to get, huh?... Talk about bad timing. One radio show plays Hawaiian melodies accompanied by an announcer who drools about the peace and beauty of Hawaii... Here's a good typewriter ribbon from Olin Miller: "If this weren't such a crazy world, it wouldn't be such an interesting one".... Ben Bernie is doing his bit toward boosting the morale of the country. He isn't on the radio.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES DELIVERED THIS WEEK

USE OF NEW BOOK WILL CONSERVE FACILITIES

By consulting the new directory, to make sure of calling right numbers, and to avoid unnecessary calls to "Information," you can release telephone lines and switching equipment for use by the armed forces and vital industries.

1027 hours a day are needlessly used in our territory—important calls held up—in calling "Information" for numbers already in directories. And enough switchboard and operator time is involved, where wrong numbers are called, to serve a city the size of Manchester, N. H.

Savings in telephone time and facilities are important these days, with the volume of war-time calling steadily increasing, and our construction limited by shortages of basic materials.

HELPFUL AND PRACTICAL CHANGES IN NEW DIRECTORIES

1 NEW STYLE OF TYPE— "BELL GOTHIc"

This type, especially designed for use in Bell System directories, gives increased legibility. Its use meant resetting and re-editing nearly 75,000 listings.

2 NEW CENTRAL OFFICE NAME— "BAYVIEW"

"Bayview" replaces "Warwick Neck" as a central office name. This change is a necessary step in developing the maximum usefulness of Extended Area Service. It overcomes a conflict of having the same two initial letters in Warwick Neck and Warren, which would interfere with the fundamental arrangement in a Metropolitan area of dialing to such exchanges.

3 ABBREVIATIONS OF NAMES AND STREETS

Certain abbreviations, following accepted standards, are introduced. It is felt that the combination of shortened listings and clearer type will improve readability and help make any one listing easier to find.

4 "ZERO" PREFIXED TO CERTAIN NUMBERS

In exchanges not previously having four-digit numbers, zeros have been prefixed to meet this requirement of Extended Area Service. This has been done in Bayview, Valley and Warren. For example: A number such as "299" will appear as "Bayview 0299."

Scene Around Town

By HENRY DAVIS

Our Army Men

We saw a picture the other day of Sid Cohen marching in San Francisco... Brother Martin, was inducted into the Army last Tuesday, and the Mrs. went home to Ohio for the duration... Since Howard Kane left the Army, he tips the scale twenty-two extra pounds to the right... He was recently re-inducted into the service... Louie Adler tells a cute story about one of his friends in the Army... He's the son of wealthy parents, was born with a golden spoon in his mouth, and has always had everything... Last week he wrote Louie a postcard from Camp, and all it said was: "Can you imagine me washing floors?"...

Miscellany

Dave Genser is a real aviation bug... Recently, he flew to Florida to visit Mrs. Genser who was there for the winter... Ruth Saltzman was guest of honor at a kitchen shower, given last Tuesday night at the Sheraton Hotel... The Leonard Hazens are as proud as punch over their daughter, Carol Miriam, born on February 26 at Lying in Hospital... The mother is the former Florence Glantz... We hear that Ben Bromberg and Lou Hurwitz play a fine game of hearts... And it's harder than getting a new tire to slip a "bunk" past them... Mrs. Boris Nelson was the winner of a defense bond at a drawing held last week by the Daughterhood of Temple Beth Israel...

Daddy!!

Someone sent in the following Valentine story, which became an enormously involved affair before it was over: A young lady (name better left unsaid) telephoning Western Union, asked that Valentine Greeting 242 be delivered to a certain young man... Valentine Greeting 242 might be criticized as kind of silly, but it's definitely harmless; it reads, "Hens cackle, Roosters crow, You're my Valentine, Don' cha know?"... Western Union, however, sent out Valentine Greeting 241, which reads, "Be my Valentine, Be my honey, We'll live on love and Daddy's money..."... Daddy got hold of it, inevitably, and while he is probably no more suspicious than other daddies, there was a lot of explaining to be done... Western Union, we're glad to report, wrote a manly straightforward letter accepting all the blame.

Miss Pearl Wasserman was in charge of the program.

March Moment

Street Scene: The winds of March sweeping down Dorrance street... taking with them Dave Meyer's hat... Someone grabbing it era it touched the pavement and Dave yelling "Good catch!"... Sarah Pressman will entertain members of the Chamade Young Artists Club next Monday night at the Music Mansion... Jewish organizations, we hear, are beginning to feel the pinch of war... In many cases, collections are dwindling, but what's more, many of the younger workers are doing their bits in the Army and Navy... New York had its first Jewish boy killed in action in the Philippines after having been cited for exceptional heroism by General MacArthur...

Maxie Rosenbloom, who played at the Met last week, overheard someone boasting about his ancestor who came over on the Mayflower with Priscilla Dean... That's not so wonderful," slapped Slapsy, "my uncle came over in the Queen Mary with Hedy Lamar."
