Panel of Nine to Represent Conference at San Francisco

NEW YORK — Accepting the invitation from Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., Secretary of State, to designate a representative to serve as a consultant to the American delegation at the forthcoming Conference on International Organization, to be held at San Francisco beginning April 25th, the American Jewish Conference selected a panel of nine to represent the Conference in matters that will be dealt with at San Francisco, and designated Henry Monsky as consultant.

The panel of nine was submitted to the State Department with the understanding that each of the nine members of the panel will be in a position to act in place of Mr. Monsky. The panel is composed of the following: Henry Monsky, Louis Lipsky and Dr. Israel Goldstein, co-chairman of the interim committee, Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, Professor Hayim Fineman, Hayim Greenberg, Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein,

Judge Morris Rothenberg and Herman Shulman.

Three to four members of the panel are expected to stay in San Francisco for the duration of the session and will act as a body authorized to speak on behalf of the American Jewish Conference. It is further understood that the representatives of the American Jewish Conference are to cooperate fully, through the recently created Joint Committee, with the Board of Deputies of British Jews and the World Jewish Congress, and other representative Jewish bodies that have been invited to participate in the Joint Committee.

In his telegram to the American Jewish Conference, the Secretary of State said that "consultants representing organizations will be available for consultation at the request of the (American) delegation and will be kept as closely informed on the work of the Conference as possible."

Members of the Executive Staff of the American Jewish Conference and experts will assist the nine-man panel in carrying out its task. Mr. I. L. Kenen, Executive Secretary, and Dr. A. S. Kohanski, Director of Research, are proceeding to San Francisco in advance of the delegation.

A Nation Mourns

A nation mourns the loss of its great leader, Roosevelt, at the pinnacle of a career of statesmanship, unequalled in history, who passed away in action.

Roosevelt became distinguished as a true American in every sense of the word by his masterful leadership. He has guided us to the eve of victory.

We shall continue to fight for everything for which he stood. In this solemn hour of sorrow, the achievements and character of Franklin Delano Roosevelt will be the beacon of hope for all freedom loving people.

Dissolution May Have Little Effect

It seems that the dissolution of the United Jewish Appeal may after all, leave the J. D. C. and the U. P. A. where they were before they broke up partnership.

The ten largest and most influential Jewish federations and welfare funds are determined to have a say in the matter, even though the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds was not successful in its attempt to secure continuation of the United Jewish Appeal.

What the leaders of these federations in the ten largest cities intend to do is simple. They will, themselves, negotiate with the J. D. C. and the U. P. A. and will determine the proportion which each of these two former partners in the United Jewish Appeal is to receive from welfare funds now that the U. J. A. has been dissolved.

The result is likely to bring about a situation which will clearly show that the J. D. C. and the U. P. A. will each receive from the welfare funds approximately what they would have received through the United Jewish Appeal, had the latter not been dissolved.

This, in turn, may result in the UJA being reconstituted next year. The power of these ten federations and welfare funds should not be underestimated, since they are among the most substantial contributors, and especially since the smaller welfare funds will definitely be influenced by their decisions.

Fortas Named Advisor by Ickes

WASHINGTON — Abe Fortas, Under-Secretary of the Interior and one of the youngest executives in high governmental positions, has been designated by Secretary Harold L. Ickes as advisor to the American delegation to the United Nations Conference at San Francisco.

Benjamin V. Cohen resigned from the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion when his chief Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes stepped out of office last week. Cohen, who was the legal counsel for the agency, had submitted his resignation last January but was persuaded by Byrnes to stay on for a while. Cohen has been with the New Deal since 1935, his specialty being the drafting of legislation.

The conference further adopted unanimously a resolution urging the United Nations to grant a voice to the Jewish people at the

Werewolves Warn Jewish Soldiers

LONDON — A warning to American and British Jewish soldiers to stay out of Germany was broadcast recently by the Nazi underground "Werewolf" station, citing the murder of Maj. Gen. Maurice Rose.

Threatening that all Jews who enter Germany will be murdered, the broadcast said: "This is the signal. Unless Jews waddle out of Germany with lightning speed, their miserable casualty list will grow. Jews must go. We werewolves have sworn that no Jew shall enter German soil. Let any who dare do so be reminded of General Maurice Rose. The German air is unhealthy for Jews."

JFCS to Have Reception, Tea, for Foster Mothers

The foster home committee of the Jewish Family and Children's Service under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edmund Waldman will sponsor a reception and tea on Wednesday, April 25, in honor of the Agency's foster mothers. It will take place in the reception room of the organization at 100 North Main street at 2:30 o'clock.

This is the second of a series of gatherings that are held periodically to provide foster mothers cooperating with the agency an opportunity to exchange ideas on the joys and problems of foster parenthood.

Foster homes committee of the agency have been organized in Pawtucket, Woonsocket and Newport, and the interest in this type of child care is constantly growing. Foster homes are always needed in order for the agency to do an effective job in selecting the proper type of home for a particular child.

Mr. Galkin, executive director of the Agency, stated that "All of the children placed to date are developing beautifully in the homes of private families where they are given excellent care and attention by devoted and understanding foster parents."

All expenses for the care of a child are paid by the Agency and all that is asked is that the foster family share in the day to day care of the child by providing that child with a normal family setting.

Dr. Temple Burling, Medical Director of the Providence Child Guidance Clinic, will be guest speaker. His subject will be "The Importance of Security in the Development of a Child." Jacob S. Temkin, president of the Agency, will extend greetings to the group.

LITTLE KNOWN STORIES ABOUT WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE:

His contemporaries thought Teddy Roosevelt was conceited. They told this one on him. That Teddy died and went to heaven where he discovered the famed choir had been disbanded. He told St. Peter it should be reorganized and that he, Teddy, would conduct.

"Very well," said The Old Fellow. "How many tenors should we have?" Teddy suggested ten million tenors, as many baritones, etc.

"How many bass singers?" asked St. Peter, pencil poised.

"Oh," said Teddy, "I'll sing bass."

FDR's guesting at the former Czarist Palace in Yalta brings to mind the yarn told about Teddy Roosevelt's world tour.....While in Stockholm he lived at the royal palace. When "Mr. Big-Stick" was asked by a newsmen how he liked the sensation of living in a palace, Teddy snapped: "I don't like them. You can't ring a bell and complain about the room!"

One of the staff offered his resignation to the executive editor of the old New York World. He explained that he was going to start his own little country newspaper. "I'd like some advice from you," said the reporter, "on how you think I ought to run it."

"You've come to the wrong person," said the exec. "Ask one of our indignant subscribers."

When President Roosevelt was Governor of New York a film salesman named Moe Schenck (he worked out of Albany) was introduced to him.....The other day Moe was in the White House to see one of the secretaries about a film.....As he came out of the office FDR came along.

"Well!" well'd Mr. Roosevelt. "How are you, Moe, you old sun-uvagun—what are you doing in Washington?"

Moe explained his mission briefly and started to go. FDR said: "Good luck, Moe. Don't be such a stranger. Come see me sometime."

"Mr. President," Moe intoned.

"I'm a very busy man."

At a social event which Thomas Edison attended reluctantly at his wife's urging—the inventor finally escaped his admirers to sit in a corner. A friend noticed that he kept looking at his watch and, drawing closer, he heard Edison sigh deeply and murmur: "If there were only a dog here."

The home of Beethoven in Bonn has been converted into a memorial museum. In one of the rooms, roped off from curious hands, is the piano upon which Beethoven composed most of his famous music. A very snooty girl visited the shrine with a party of American tourists. She looked at the piano with awe and asked the guard if she might play just a few notes on it. She sat down and played a few bars of the Moonlight Sonata. As she left she remarked to the attendant: "I suppose all the great pianists who have come here at one time or another have played on it."

The guard replied: "No, miss, not at all. Paderewski was here several years ago, but said he wasn't worthy to touch it."

At a dinner party Bea Lillie (Lady Peel in private life) was wearing the family pearls. A feline meowed: "What lovely pearls, Bea. Are they genuine? Of course, you can always tell by biting them. Here, let me see."

"Gladly," said Lady Peel, proffering her jewels. "But remember, Duchess, you can't tell real pearls with false teeth."

One of the important Washington newspapers once reported (on its front page) a mild indisposition of President Roosevelt with: "President Kept to His Rooms by Coed."

FDR heard of it and requested several copies, which he showed to visiting diplomatic bigwigs in their moments of relaxation.

This is how one of the world's classics was written: Nathaniel Hawthorne worked as a bookkeeper. One day he was fired and came home depressed. But his wife wasn't. She told him that she had secretly saved money from household expenses so that he could one day afford to write the book he was planning.

"That is how Hawthorne wrote 'The Scarlet Letter.'"

It's supposed to have happened at President Roosevelt's inaugural reception. A midwest plumbing manufacturer who had supported the Demo campaign fund brought his teenage daughter to the luncheon. The young lady had been coached for weeks on correct etiquette in company of all these big people. Everything went well until she was introduced to FDR. She curtsied slightly and then said with great deference, "This is a great honor, Mr. President. I've heard father speak of you many times."

Services Held at Iwo Jima In Improvised Synagogue

IWO JIMA — The first Jewish services for Marines of the Fourth Division were recently celebrated here.

The service was conducted by Lt. Leon W. Rosenberg of New York City, formerly student advisor at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, and veteran of the Marine campaigns in the Marshall and Marianas Islands.

For the first time in 21 days, it was safe for Marines to assemble in the open without fear of an enemy shell exploding in their midst.

The service was held close by where scores of landing craft had churned into the beach with supplies, just 100 yards away. The site was the Fourth Division Cemetery, which now holds many hundreds of American dead.

Several score yards inland, American fighter planes were landing on recently captured Motoyama airfield.

An improvised altar, supported by Marine locker boxes, was the semblance of a "synagogue" on this treeless, dusty island where thousands of Marines made the supreme sacrifice.

Vermont Prof. Proposes Quota for Clinical Courses

NEW YORK — Proposing a quota for Jews in clinical psychology courses, Dr. Frederick C. Thorne, professor of psychiatry at the University of Vermont Medical College, declared in the Journal of Clinical Psychology, a new periodical which he edits, that there is need for "the avoidance of undue representation of any one racial group among those accepted for training" in clinical psychology. The importance of clinical psychology is so great for the total population, that the profession should not be exploited in the interest of any one group in such manner that the public acceptance of the whole program is jeopardized," Dr. Thorne stated. He admitted to Albert Deutsch, PM reporter, that the Jews constitute the "racial group" he referred to. As a result of Dr. Thorne's article, two members of the periodical's editorial board have resigned and at least six others contemplate resignation.

Student, Rejected By 50 Schools, Killed in Action

NEW YORK — Rejected by fifty medical schools in the United States, to which he had applied for admission, despite a brilliant medical record at City College, New York, Seymour Schwartz, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Schwartz of Brooklyn, enlisted in the Army as a medical corpsman and was killed in Germany last February, while rescuing wounded soldiers in a mine field.

In a letter sent to his parents Lt. General Patton said: "In the Bible it says 'Greater love than this no man hath that he laid down his life for his friends.' I believe you should take great pride in the fact that your heroic boy did exactly that."

Would Curb Germans' Entrance

NEW YORK — Representative Samuel Dickstein (D) of New York, chairman of the House Committee on Immigration and Naturalization, said he would introduce in the near future legislation designed to prevent entrance into the United States of nearly all Germans for the next 100 years.

Addressing the O. R. T. (organization for rehabilitation through training) Council, which helps Jewish refugees and war victims by training them for new jobs, Mr. Dickstein said he would propose entrance of only those Germans who have been victims of Nazi persecution.

It Happened This Week

Once more the question of religion in schools has come up..... Rabbi Morris G. Silk, president of the Rabbinical Association, was requested by Catholic and Protestant representatives to join in a proposal to be placed before the city school board asking that some form of religious education be instituted.....Rabbi Silk called a meeting of rabbis and laymen this week for a discussion of the problem.....The attendants decided to forego a decision until next Tuesday afternoon when another meeting is scheduled.....There are two methods that have been advocated—release and dismissal..... Woonsocket and Bristol have had a program of religion in schools for a number of years.....We have always believed that religion should be separated from the public school system.....Training should start in the home and then continued, if desired, in appropriate schools, of which there are a goodly number at the present time.....

Happy Meeting

Leon Resnick, coxswain on the U.S.S. Westmoreland, now somewhere in the Pacific, met his nephew, Radio Technician Sydney I. Resnick, son of the Max Resnicks, while walking on a street in Honolulu.....This was the first time in three years that they had seen each other.....Leon is the son of the B. Resnicks.....Herbert Talan, son of the Morris Talans, who is a navigator in the Air Corps, was promoted from Lieutenant to Major, his parents were notified this week.....Major Talan entered the army in 1942 and went overseas last August.....He is in Italy with the 15th Air Force.....The Harvey Max, son of the Theodore Max's, has been reported missing in action since January 8 when his plane was shot down over Luzon.....He was on his 40th mission.....A navigator, Lt. Max holds the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters and his unit has received a Presidential Citation.....He was a graduate from Classical High and attended the Allen School of Aeronautics.....

Funds May Be Sent to Rumania

Payments Made Via HIAS Office

NEW YORK — For the first time since the outbreak of the war in Europe, remittances can be sent from the United States to relatives and friends in Rumania, according to an announcement by the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society (HIAS), which has just been licensed by the U. S. Treasury Department to transmit funds to that country.

Machinery to make possible these remittances was set in motion in November, shortly after the HIAS office in Bucharest, which had been closed down during the Nazi occupation, was reopened.

Funds can be transmitted only to "Old Rumania", and not to that portion of Rumania under Soviet occupation and control. Not more than $100 per month may be sent to a beneficiary. Payments of remittances will be made by the HIAS Bucharest Office.

Urges Trusteeship Replace Mandate

NEW YORK — Sumner Welles, former under secretary of state, this week urged establishment of an international trusteeship over Palestine to replace the present British mandate.

Only under such a trusteeship "will a just solution of the problem of Palestine be effectively furthered," he told the New York Chapter of Hadassah, women's Zionist organization of America. "Until the issues of Palestine are settled," he said, "the peaceful, stable and progressive world which we envisage will not exist."

The Councillettes, an affiliate of the Council of Jewish Women, will hold a "Cotton Hop" on May 5 at Froebel Hall. Tommy Masso and his orchestra will furnish the music. Bids may be obtained through Irene Gordon, Maxine Israel and Susan Herman.

Rose son of a 90-year-old rabbi, was killed by Nazi soldiers as he was surrendering. Describing the death of Gen. Rose as a "severe loss," Secretary Stimson said, "No one was more skillful in directing the operations of an armored column."

British Chief Rabbi Urges Halt to Mixed Marriages

LONDON — An appeal by the Chief Rabbi, Dr. I. J. Hertz, and the Beth Din (Jewish Religious Court) against mixed marriages, was read in all the synagogues of London and the provinces during the Passover week. The Liberal (Reform) synagogues did not broadcast the Chief Rabbi's proclamation addressed to the Jewish communities of Britain and her dominions.

Mixed marriages have become a disturbing problem to British Jews. The historian, Cecil Roth, has warned repeatedly against them, pointing out that they are assuming the dimensions of an epidemic. He stated that mixed marriage has become the rule in aristocratic Jewish families, as can be ascertained by following marriage announcements in the provincial newspapers.

Cecil Roth expressed alarm over the increase of apostasy, especially among German refugees.
