Vote Two Million Defense Fund

JERUSALEM—Ending a two-day plenary session Vaad Leumi Jewish National Council voted a half million pound ($2,000,000) defense fund to be raised by voluntary contributions throughout the Yishuv by the end of this year, and authorized its Executive to prepare new elections with a view to its drafting a constitution for the forthcoming Jewish State.

The AJC Conference

The fourth session of the American Jewish Conference is convening in Chicago over the Thanksgiving week-end. Sixty two national membership organizations and major Jewish communities throughout the country will review, through their delegates, the accomplishments of the Conference in its four year history. More important will be the decision regarding the creation of a permanent overall representative body which is to succeed the Conference.

There have been rumblings of dissatisfaction about the way in which the Conference has tried to perpetuate itself without a mandate from the people. Delegates elected four years ago on a temporary basis are still conducting business without advice from their local communities.

We hold a brief for an overall American Jewish body such as was the conception of the American Jewish Conference.

We trust that this new gathering will bring forth a representative and ongoing democratic body which can and will handle matters of major importance in the American Jewish Community.

Celia Adler, noted Yiddish actress, will be the guest artist at the annual Thrift Dessert Event which will be held Tuesday, December 9 at 1 o'clock in the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, it was announced this week by Mrs. William Bojar, chairman.

Miss Adler has had a long career in the theatre and is the daughter of the late tragedian, Jacob P. Adler.

Three projects of Hadassah will benefit from the affair: child welfare, Palestine supplies and the Zionist Youth Commission.

Linking of All Jews to New State Opposed

NEW YORK—A statement by Lessing J. Rosenwald, president, and other leaders of the American Council for Judaism, made public this week, called upon members to actively oppose "almost certain efforts of Jewish nationalists to link all Jews to the future of the proposed Jewish State" in the event it becomes the solution to the Palestine problem.

Noting recent statements of Jewish nationalists that it is inevitable that all Jewry share responsibility for the future of Palestine, the Council officers stated that "it need not be so if we energetically organize to make clear the separation between Zionists and those who do not believe in separate 'national' responsibility for Jews."

The Council leaders warned, however, that unless Jews who accept the concept of the Jew as a member of a religious faith do organize to disavow responsibility for the Jewish State "any safeguards which governments may write into international agree-

Agency Seeks Employees For New Jewish State

JERUSALEM — The Jewish Agency says it is already recruiting young men and women for government service in a Jewish state and the Holy Land's two Chief Rabbis have appealed to "all nations, Christian, Islamic and others," for support of a national homeland in Palestine.

Mrs. Golda Myerson, political chairman of the Agency, which represents the more than 600,000 Jews in Palestine, told a news conference that "tens of thousands" were being recruited by the Agency for "possible mili-

First Step to a New Life

A thorough medical examination is a first step on the road to a new life for the Jewish orphan pictured above. While she awaits emigration to Palestine she will be maintained by the JDC, a beneficiary of the General Jewish Committee campaign.

ments about or with the proposed Jewish State will prove as inadequate as the safeguards of the Balfour Declaration."

The Balfour Declaration said in Part "...nothing shall be done which may prejudice... the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country."

tary service if the need arises." "We now, as always, take the attitude we do not expect trouble but we are prepared for it."

She said that Arabs in a Jewish state would be citizens and "we hope the Jews in an Arab state will be treated exactly the same way."

"We are confident we can defend ourselves and will do so," she said. "We would appear weak from the start if we had to call on the United Nations to defend us."

Nazi Victims Mob Conductor

VIENNA—Dr. Nathan Wilhelm Furtwaengler, German conductor who played for the Nazis during the war but was cleared by Allied occupation authorities last year, was mobbed by a band of concentration camp victims here last week as he entered the Musikvereinsaal to conduct a concert.

He was saved from possible injury when a Soviet sentry fired in the air, dispersing the crowd. Later, however, the former concentration camp inmates delayed the concert opening for an hour until they were ejected from the hall.

The demonstrators were all members of the Union of Concentration Camp Associations.

Goldwyn Receives War Service Award

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Samuel Goldwyn, Hollywood producer, received the President's Certificate of Merit here last week for his war services, after a visit to the White House. The award was made by Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall in the presence of high ranking military officers.

Total Now At $930,000

The slow climb to a $930,000 level, as this issue of the HERALD went to press, caused Alvin A. Sopkin, chairman of the 1947 fund-raising campaign of the General Jewish Committee of greater Providence, to issue an urgent plea asking campaign workers to redouble their efforts "during the final phase of this humanitarian appeal."

With less than 900 possible pledge cards still outstanding, the fund lacked $70,000 of its immediate goal of $1,000,000; and stood exactly $200,000 short of the original goal of $1,125,000 set last June by the Providence Jewish community.

"Our achievements last year helped thousands to survive in many European lands. We gave them the bare essentials required for existence. Today we must not only provide them with relief, but we must give them the means to rebuild their lives and to find new homes in Palestine, the United States or other lands of freedom," Sopkin said.

"In 1946 we made a historic beginning in the reconstruction of Jewish lives. In 1947 we must greatly expand this reconstruction effort so that Jews may no longer have to stand in bread lines—so that Jews may no longer have to be homeless. We must give them the tools to shape a new future. We must help them stand on their own feet. We must help them regain their place and dignity as human beings in a free world," he stressed.

Emphasizes Coverage

Sopkin emphasized that complete coverage of all outstanding cards—with an accompanying increase over last year's donations—plus added contributions by those who already have made a gift, would carry the fund-raising drive over the million dollar mark.

He paid especial praise to the Women's, Area and Young Adult Divisions for "their splendid accomplishments in this great crusade."

Meanwhile, GJC campaign headquarters at 203 Strand Building this week revealed that the Young Adult's Division had reached the $22,000 level in its drive and was bending every effort to push this total up to (Continued on Page 2)

Olympic Bowling
 By HOWARD COHEN

Bowling will resume Thursday, December 4, 9:45 o'clock, at the New Yorker Alleys on Eddy Street, corner of New York avenue.

Here are some of the highlights of the last bowling session before the fire caused a lay-off. Merlyn Rodyn broke Haskell Frank's early marks in both the high single and high three, doing 143 to erase Frank's 140, and 380 to drown the 353 high three. Howie Cohen tied the 353 with three solid 120, 119, and 114 strings. Nate Gordon tied a spare in his last box, one pin was all he needed. Rodyn's Army team was as hot as their captain, doing a 558 single and 1636 triple, both new marks.

The schedule for the resumption week is Army (Rodyn) versus Navy (H. Cohen), Cornell (Simmons) versus Princeton (Woloff), Dartmouth (J. Schwartz) versus Yale (I. Levine), and Columbia (Zatloff) versus Harvard (Lobel). Happy Aven's Brown team has the week off. Happy, a newly wed, needs the rest. Wimpy Snyder, a brand new pappy, will be working to bring up his 103 average. Our sympathy to those burned in the fire and congrats to the other smoke eaters.

Players to Repeat "Heaven Can Wait"

A return performance will be given of the three act comedy—fantasy, "Heaven Can Wait", by the Jewish Community Center Players Sunday evening, December 14. Featured in the cast are Sumner Pearl, Paul Litwin, Gerald Oster, Anita Bornstein and Murliel Goldenberg.

It Happened This Week

70 Pints of Blood

A typographical error in last week's Herald had the unhappy effect of minimizing the urgent need for blood of that leukemia victim we mentioned. The man needs SEVENTY pints of blood, not the seven that appeared in print, if he is to be kept alive for any appreciable length of time. Providence Jewry again is asked to come to his rescue. . . . Remember the phone number—GA 4312.

Refugees Need Homes

Many of you probably know of refugee families that have moved to our community in recent months. The R. I. Refugee Service tells us that there is now a need for low cost housing for several of these newly arrived families. If you can help out or know of anyone else who can, please call that same number, GA 4312. . . .

JDC Officials

Several prominent Providence citizens have been named to ranking positions by the Joint Distribution Committee, major American agency aiding distressed Jews abroad. . . . At the annual meeting of the JDC's Northeast Region in Buffalo recently, Archibald Silverman was elected vice-chairman, while Alter Boyman, Benjamin Brier, Mrs. Irving J. Fain, Alvin A. Sopkin and Mrs. Jacob S. Temkin were named to the executive committee. . . .

Local Boys in Japan

Our occupation troops in Japan are in the news again. . . . We have received news of Cpl. Irvin A. Wexler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Wexler of 750 Cranston street, and Pfc. David M. Goldman, son of J. Samuel Goldman of 94 Taylor street. . . . Wexler, recently promoted to corporal, is with the 7th Division in Korea and is assistant editor of his regimental newspaper. He has had the interesting experience of traveling through ill-fated Hiroshima and says he'll never regret going to Japan. . . .

Goldman, serving with the famous 1st Cavalry Division, is on exterior guard duty at Koto University, right in Tokyo, now being used as a training center for specialized technicians.

Emanu-El Bowling

by MAXWELL WALDMAN

Jack "Pappy" Platkin's Athletics blanked Joe Waldman's Pirates at the Casino Alleys. The "Old Men" showed the youngsters how bowling should be conducted.

Meanwhile Joe Primack's Indians bowled superbly to white-wash Leo Nussenfeld's Tigers and to gain undisputed possession of first place with 18 won against 6 lost.

Captain Abe Wexler's Browns took 3 from Gilbert Woiler's Reds to go into a two-way tie for second place with Jack Orchoff's Cubs, who dropped 3 to Sherman Price's Yankees.

All the teams are very closely bunched and the pennant race is still wide open.

Bowling

Eddie Lang blasted out a score of 141 for the highest single string of the evening, followed by Al Chase with 139, Lou Chase with 139, Henry Markoff with 138, Sam Greene with 127, M. W. Waldman with 126, Milt Wintman with 124 and Bill Gorainick with 124.

Henry Markoff had the best high three mark of the evening with 352, followed by Eddie Lang with 343, Lou Chase with 342, and Al Chase with 330. Gorainick came through, with a brilliant spare on strike in the last two boxes under terrific pressure to win for his Tigers. Eddie Lang lost two heart breaking spares which would have easily given him a new high single mark.

Old reliable Frank Goldstein withstood double whammys, heckling, booing and what not to score a double marker in his last two boxes to win for the Giants.

Doctor Gilbert Woiler has the most faithful rooting section as his Dad attends every session.

These are pictures of only a few of the 170,000 surviving Jewish children in Europe and Palestine today: They were taken in hospitals, in DP camps and in Palestine itself. It is easy to pick out those who have reached the sanctuary of Palestine because on the faces of the others are marked the memories of sorrow, the wounds of the soul. They are faces of children still living in fear, still searching for homes, still haunted by the shock of the nightmare of Hitler. They are the children to whom your contribution to the United Jewish Appeal means adequate food, clothing and shelter. They are the children whose lives must be nourished if the destiny of our race is to be fulfilled.

"One Man's Opinion"

The Rhode Island Founders

By BERNARD SEGAL

We have no Sisters of Mercy. Jewish religious tradition has never developed a sect or an order whose members are dedicated to the aid of the poor, or the comfort of the sick. It has been left entirely to the good will of men and women. To use a modern phrase, charitable work among Jews is a free enterprise. The word "free" implies both, freedom of choice and also freedom in the sense of being voluntary. The only remuneration one can expect for this type of work is a goodly share of the hereafter.

The burden of caring for the sick was carried by the women. In every town and village of the old country there were women who were known as Noshim Tzidkionios, the women of mercy. You could find them on any day and at any hour hurrying with some bundle under their long shawls. This one was bringing a jar of "Eingemachts" to the bedside of an ailing person. That one carried a "Chale" for the Sabbath to the house of the widow who is too poor or too sick to bake her own. Sitting with the sick and talking to them so as to "make them forget their troubles" or doing the housework and the care of the children for the bed-ridden was the daily bread of those good women.

I do not know whether the ladies of the Rhode Island Founders will resent my calling them Noshim Tzidkionios or not, but their work is the work of mercy.

Let me offer my apologies to these ladies for thinking lightly of their work at one time. I believe that I was not alone in this attitude toward the T. B. aid societies. I know better now that I have read the numerous letters from patients, records and reports of this ladies society. To me it proved once more how wise our Rabbis have been in advising us not to form opinions about people and things until we come closer to them.

Here are the things I did not know about the Rhode Island Founders, and which I am sure will be news to everybody, except the 425 members of the society:

That the R. I. Founders maintain a room at the Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Rutland, Mass. The room is in their name and the annual endowment amounts to one thousand dollars.

That a similar room is endowed by the R. I. society at the Los Angeles Sanatorium and ex-patients home.

That the members make monthly visits to Wallum Lake. A visit to a sick person, especially one afflicted with this disease, is in itself an act of mercy. But the visits are always accompanied with something more tangible than just a word of encouragement.

A visit to Wallum Lake spells to all the patients, gifts of coats, shoes, sweaters, and special things for this or that patient. Thus the two ladies, Mrs. Frayman and Mrs. Yuloff, who spoke to me of their society, related the case of the girl with an amputated leg who was supported by them for two years, at a T. B. sanatorium. As she was getting ready to leave, she expressed her wish to learn to walk with the aid of an artificial leg. Rhode Island Founders made her wish come true. The girl is now married and a mother of children. I hope the young lady remembers the society on happy occasions. Not because the ladies want her gratitude, but for her own sake. The ladies had their reward in the good they did to a human being. Their eyes filled up even now as they told the story.

Or the story they told me about the Bar-Mitzvah at Wallum Lake. The boy whose normal life was interrupted by the sickness, reached the age of 13 at the Sanatorium. The ladies of the R. I. Founders gave him a grand Bar-Mitzvah party and he observed this most important birthday in the life of every Jewish boy in style. There were gifts, and a big (Continued on Page 11) cake, and good friends with blessings on their lips.

If you and I might think this is a minor thing, nothing to talk about, I am sure the little boy did not think so.

Then there is the ex-patient in the Los Angeles institution who was of good college material. After he regained his health, he enrolled at the University of California on a scholarship from the R. I. Founders. Full tuition and maintenance is provided by our ladies.

A most noteworthy feature of the work of this society is the secrecy of all the transactions. No names are being mentioned at the meetings. A committee of two members only has the authority to consider requests and to recommend applicants. The general membership never knows who the recipients of their good work are now or have been in the twelve years of the existence of the society.

The society was organized in 1935 by a handful of women. Though it is not my custom to list names of committees, I believe that the charter members of this society deserve to be honored. The founders of the Rhode Island Founders for Tubercular Patients were: Hessie Ostrow, Lillian I. Adleberg, Esther Grossman, Sarah Fishbein, Anna Mandell, Natalie Gershman, Fannie Kaplan, Bluma Finklestein and Jennie Tobin.

The policy as laid down by the founders was to be not an auxiliary to one particular sanatorium, but to offer aid to many. Similarly it has been the policy of this society not to confine their help to the period of hospitalization only, but to follow up their ex-patients, help them in their rehabilitation, and to provide food, clothing, and even cash allowances, until the time when they can stand on their own.

The founders have had the good fortune to see their work carried on by over four hundred women in our city. Now there is a membership drive in preparation. The goal is a round one thousand members.

I wish them success.

Lodge and Auxiliary Install Officers

The following committee arranged the affair: Mrs. George W. Korper, Jr. and Mrs. Isadore S. Low, co-chairmen; Mrs. Walter Adler, treasurer, and Mrs. Norman M. Fain, reservations chairman.

Local Groups Plan Chanukah Party

A Chanukah party, in conjunction with a series of lectures being sponsored during the next few months, will be given by the Jewish National Workers Alliance and the Poale Zion at Temple Beth El on Sunday, December 7. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Solomon Lightman, Nathan Ostrow, Max Berman and Arthur Korman.

Ladies' League To Have Bridge

At a meeting of the Ladies' Union League for Consumptives, held at the home of Mrs. H. Malin of Sumter street, recently, a bridge was planned for December 16, at the Jewish Community Center.

The following committee was chosen; Mrs. S. Bander, chairman; Mrs. L. Spader, co-chairman; Mrs. H. Malin, treasurer; Mrs. F. Youngstein, secretary and Mesdames M. Beck, B. Beresofsky, S. Sandler, H. Goodman, P. Blazer and Gussie Nelson.

Center Asked To Extend Youth Program

Because the weekly Kozy Korner Klub dances at the Sons of Abraham Synagogue have proved so successful since their inception, the Kozy Korner committee, headed by Marvin Belovitch, has asked the Jewish Community Center, sponsors of the club, to take action in "further developing the youth program in South Providence."

Pointing out that a record crowd of almost 200 boys and girls attended the last dance (featuring a Sadie Hawkins motif), the club officials said these teen-age dances have become "a very popular gathering place for the Jewish youth of South Providence and undoubtedly symbolize a crying need for further extension activities by the Center." Rabbi Abraham Chill and the Sons of Abraham Congregation took the lead in helping the formation of the club by extending their facilities to the new group.

A contribution of $25 to the General Jewish Committee was made by the Canteen Committee to Miss Edith Lipsey of the GJC Youth Division on November 12.

PROCLAMATION THANKSGIVING DAY

By John O. Pastore
Governor

Western Europe, victim of the aftermath of War, and India, in throes of famine, know not in 1947, even in slightest measure, the bounty which is ours in these United States of America.

Bin and cask and barrel, warehouse storage, cellar and cache contain an abundance. Counters of markets are piled with the yield. Roadside stands and old New England stone wall farm yard boundaries are displaying, before the frosts, a plenty, well nigh a plethora of riches of the Harvest.

In deep sincerity, I ask you earnestly, with a sense of obligation to fellow man, no matter race or creed or color, to SHARE that bounty for which we celebrate Thanksgiving this November, which should in humility make each one of us grateful to Almighty God for blessings and for sparing us those depredations which aftermath of War has brought to other lands;

AND NOW, THEREFORE, DO I, JOHN O. PASTORE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, PROCLAIM

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27th, 1947, AS

asking each of you to remember, in light of the austerity of living in other countries, how incredibly fortunate we are; asking you to SHARE, in every way possible at hand and overseas, that which you possess at this festive season in gratefulness,—that we may be one World, a United Nations, with no poverty-stricken, hungry, needy or looked down upon.

God has been generous to us in His mercy. Save for the grace and kindness of His dictums, we, too, might easily be in sore straits, as are Western Europe, India and other Nations today.

In proper humility, then, let us give thanks for the satisfactory and gratifying yield of the harvest of 1947; thanks to the agriculturalists who have striven; and, above all, thanks to that Supreme Being in the goodness, rightness and justice of whom we lodge implicit faith—today and always.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed this 10th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, and of Independence, the one hundred and seventy-second.

(Seal)

The Broadway Scene:

The Late Watch: Hollywood night spot men have solved the puzzle on why biz took a slump: "No more army officers who blew a month's pay in a night." ... Prices have come down so low that theaters offering two-bit values now are charging only 85 cents. ... School teachers and nurses attention: Dishwashers in Broadway hotels now rate $15 daily plus meals. ... Secy. of State Marshall is the only World War II vet in the U.N. council. ... Marion Hargrove is working on a syndicated idea with an Ernie Pyle flavor. ... Alf Drake and Bernice Parks of "Beggar's Holiday" are feudin'. When he's supposed to kiss her, he merely

There seems to be a race between the British and American armies to see which one gets out of Berlin first.

We felt safer when they were racing to get in.

Broadway Ballad: (By Don Wahn): Let's set it down—and add the total up. ... And find if it was worth the final cost. ... There were the inns that held the jeweled cup. ... There were the songs that now are strangely lost. ... And there were girls to feed the flame of youth. ... Girls who were touched with moonmist and delight. ... There was the quest for certainty and truth. ... There was the throb of whispers in the night. ... So we will add this gossamer of mine. ... Knowing full well the terror we will find. ... An empty heart—an empty cask of wine. ... The futile whimper of an eerie wind. ... Yet, who am I to mourn a sinner's wake, ... There was no other road—that I could take!

The politicians have suggested legislation to keep crookedness out of sports. Now if someone will only suggest something to keep it out of politics.

Everything else from ladies' pocketbooks on up. ... Sign in a 42nd St. stationer's: "Our fountain pens just write."

Midtown Novelette: One of the fly-by-night realty firms in town promoted a simple-minded office boy to vice-president at $25 per week. ... When any of their apartment houses lost money they'd put it in his name as a "present from the firm." ... The happy youth, however, discovered that he wasn't so lucky as creditors foreclosed on him. ... The realtors repeated this trick a dozen times. ... Our Hero recently died. ... ## Refuse Jews' Serum Offer

NEW YORK—The New York Times, in an editorial last week, deplored Egypt's failure to accept an offer by the Hebrew University to supply anti-cholera serum to the epidemic ravaged Nile delta area.

"It seems incredible that racial and political fanaticism could rise so high as to refuse medical aid even from an unwelcome quarter in the midst of a raging epidemic," the Times says. "The offer was made officially to the Egyptian Consul, who asked that it be put in writing. That was done three weeks ago. The letter has since remained unanswered. Meanwhile cholera victims in Egypt are dying at the rate of 400 a day. What a splendid victory for the Arab League!"

Beth Israel Bowling

By SAUL HODOSH

Due to the Armistice Day holiday, the Temple Beth Israel Men's Club Bowling League did not meet on November 11 but the ball was started rolling again on Tuesday, November 18.

The battle for the top rung of the league is definitely developing into a "dog fight", as there are now four teams precariously perched on this top rung. Princeton, Dartmouth, Rhode Island State and Syracuse are these leaders who have a one-point lead over Harvard and the rest of the field is closely bunched behind these leaders.

It might have been done with mirrors, but "Beanie" Feldman got hot for two strings and then luck deserted him, but he still wound up with a highly creditable 328 for the high three. Leo Borenstein and I. Press took down "place" and "show" with 313 and 311 respectively.

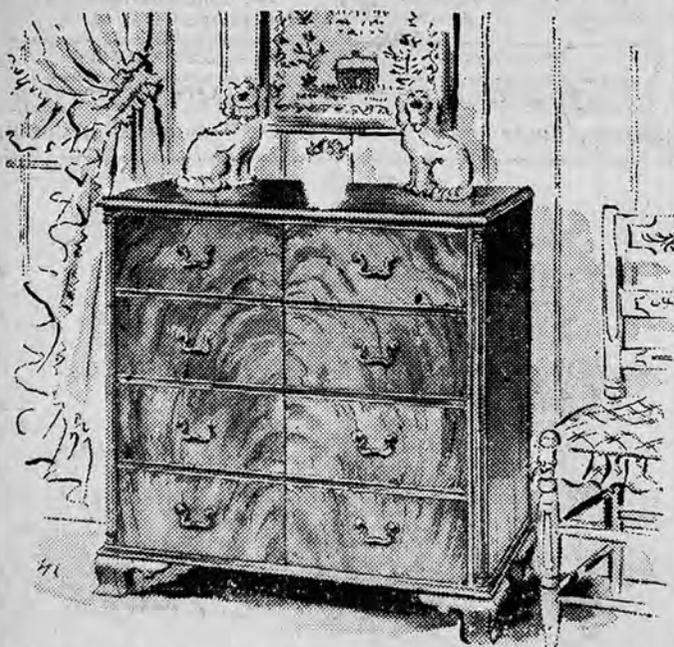

"Beanie" continued tops by taking high single with 124, beating out Ed Berger with 120 and A. Ralsner with 119.

Says British Plotted DP-Arab Unrest

LONDON—A vast conspiracy by the British Foreign Office to conduct a reign of terror among Jewish DP's in Europe to keep them from embarking for Palestine, and to foment an Arab uprising in Palestine against the UNSCOP's report, was charged recently by The Tribune, weekly organ of the Aneurin Bevan wing of the British Labor Party. According to The Tribune, Roy Henderson, head of the Middle East division of the U. S. State Department, "shares the views" of the Foreign Office because of oil interests.

A spokesman for Haganah later charged that British agents, directed by the Foreign Office, are "hiring and lavishly paying underworld elements, including some Arabs in Europe, to carry out sabotage and other violence" against Haganah rescue ships waiting in European ports to embark passengers for Palestine and against the DP's making their way to the ports or waiting to embark.

Emanuel to Observe Einstein Anniversary

Temple Emanu-El will observe the 20th anniversary of Mr. Arthur Einstein's services as Director of Music in the Congregation on Thursday evening, December 17th. He came to Temple Emanu-El in September 1927 and directed the first choir at the dedication, exercises of the Temple edifice. Since then he has directed the Temple Emanu-El Choir and numerous Choral Groups in the congregation for two decades. In addition he has found time to organize and to direct two well-known Choral Societies in the community; the Providence Jewish Choral Society and the Kadimah Choral Society, each of which existed for quite a number of years. Through these groups he has been a major factor in presenting to Providence Jewry the best in Jewish liturgical and folk music. He has also been the leading figure in affording to non-Jewish audiences an appreciation of Jewish music. For nine consecutive years he presented the Temple Choir in the Converts of Sacred Music of all Creeds given annually at Sayles Hall in Brown University as a feature of the Providence Music Week observance and also to Grace Church, Calvary Baptist Church, and other leading Churches in the state. He also presented Jewish musical programs on several national radio hook-ups and on many local radio stations.

Mr. Einstein's greatest labors have been within the sphere of Temple Emanu-El. He has enriched the musical life of the congregation by directing many cantatas participated in by adults, among them "My Country 'Tis", "The Synagogue Speaks", "What Is Torah?", and others. He also presented several cantatas with the Confirmation Classes and directed several operettas with youth groups. At the present time he is in charge of the newly organized Junior Choir of the Religious School of Temple Emanu-El.

Mr. Einstein received his musical education in the Imperial Conservatory of Odessa from which he graduated in 1918. He came to this country in 1923 and quickly made a name for himself as Instructor and Concert Pianist. Of his special gifts as Choir Director, the late Dr. W. Louis Chapman, music critic of the Providence Journal, in his yearly musical resume of 1934, lauded Mr. Einstein's work as follows: "The possibilities of church music were excellently demonstrated by the presentations of the choir of the Temple Emanu-El under the direction of Arthur Einstein. Elaborate a capella anthems were offered with uncommon artistic and technical success."

The accompanist will be Louise Winsor Moore. Cantor Jacob Hohenemser will be a featured artist.

The guest artist will be Ralph Einstein, son of the guest of honor and Mrs. Einstein, gifted young pianist, who will present a special recital in honor of his father's anniversary.

Samuel Rosen and Rabbi Israel M. Goldman will speak in behalf of the congregation, and a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Einstein will be tendered in the social hall under the joint sponsorship of the Institute of Jewish Studies for Adults and the Sisterhood.
