R. I. Zionist Fall Conference Sunday

Arthur I. Darman Principal Speaker

The Fall Conference of the Rhode Island Zionist Region will be held this Sunday afternoon, November 13 in the Sheraton Room of the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. The program will begin at 2 o'clock and Frank Licht, president of the Region, will preside.

Headlining the program as guest speaker will be Arthur I. Darman of Woonsocket, former president of the R. I. Region, who returned recently from a journey to Israel.

Nomination and election of officers for the coming season will be the major item on the business agenda. The nominating committee is headed by Morris Espo of Pawtucket.

In addition to the annual reports of the District presidents and the reports of the Regional president, secretary and treasurer, the Conference will include a group discussion on the following topics, led by the persons indicated:

Activities of local organizations—Morris Espo, chairman; youth activities—Bernard E. Bell, chairman; relationship with national office—Rabbi Morris Schussheim, chairman; and internationalization—Morris Shoham, chairman. The report of the resolutions committee will also be presented by A. Louis Abedon, chairman.

Finkle, Grant Leave For Detroit Convention

Joseph M. Finkle and Max L. Grant leave today for Detroit where they will attend the sessions of the fourth annual meeting of the National Council of the Joint Defense Appeal which will be held at the Hotel Book-Cadillac. The Joint Defense Appeal raises all the funds for the defense and educational programs of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the American Jewish Committee. Finkle and Grant are members of the national executive committee.

Council Women Vote $50,000 For Hebrew U.

Delegates to the Triennial Convention of the Council of Jewish Women, which was held in Baltimore on October 22 thru 28, voted $50,000 a year to the Israel Education Project through which Council supports the school of education of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. This grant represents a substantial increase to provide for an expansion of faculty, scholarship, a school library, and educational equipment.

The importance of Council's support of teacher training in Israel was attested to by Dr. Emanuel P. Lichtenstein of the Hebrew University School of Education, and Dr. Harry N. Rivlin, chairman of the Department of Education at Queens College, New York, and a member of the Council's Advisory Committee on the Israel Education Project.

ARTHUR I. DARMAN

Home for Aged Annual Meeting Sunday

Jacob I. Felder, president of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and Max Alexander, executive director, will review the year's work of the Home organization at the 17th annual meeting in the Auditorium of the Home, Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

On the program are Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen of Temple Emanuel, giving the invocation; Herman J. Aisenberg, recording secretary, minutes of previous meeting; Charles Brier, assistant treasurer, treasurer's report; Mrs. Mitchell Sherwin, president Ladies Association, women's report; Morris S. Waldman, chairman legal committee, report and explanation of changes in by-laws, and Max Sugarman, report of memorial committee.

Emanuel Father and Son Night, Nov. 17

Scouts and cub scouts of Troop 20, Temple Emanuel, will be hosts to their fathers at a Father-Son Night November 17 at the Temple.

Michael Levy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sy Levy, is Master of Ceremonies for the evening and will introduce the featured entertainer, Herb Taylor, comedian. Prizes and gifts will be given and refreshments served.

Among the delegates from Providence attending the Triennial Convention in Baltimore were Mrs. Lionel Albert, president of the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, Mrs. Henry Wiener, Mrs. Max Kesterman and Mrs. Archie Finkle.

Discuss Role of Center in Community

"The Community Focus of the Center", a discussion on the concentration of Jewish Community Centers to extend their services from the Center building itself into the larger community, was the main symposium of the 39th annual convention of the New England Section, Jewish Welfare Board held at the Hotel Sheraton, Springfield, Saturday evening and Sunday, November 5 and 6.

Participating in the discussion were Henry Gesmer, vice president of the Section; Miriam R. Ephraim, who served as consultant; Max Rovner, president of the Manchester Jewish Community Center; Saul E. R. Feinberg, vice president of the Providence Jewish Community Center; Bernard P. Kopkind, vice president of the Section, and Albert M. Stein, New England Regional Director of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds.

Hadassah Plans Theater Party

Arrangements for the Rhode Island prevue performance of the Hollywood production, Universal-International's "Sword in the Desert", starring Dana Andrews and Marta Toren, which will benefit Hadassah's Child Welfare projects, were made yesterday afternoon at a dessert meeting of the committee working on the affair at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Haskell Frank, 271 Freeman Parkway.

The movie, a stirring epic of Israel's fight for freedom and the Haganah underground, will be shown Thursday evening, December 1, at 8:30 at a downtown theatre.

Hadassah Plans Theater Party

Mrs. Haskell Frank and Mrs. Alfred Fain, co-chairman, announced that the response to Hadassah's previous Thrift Affairs has made it necessary to provide a locale for this year's event which will accommodate all those who wish to participate in this Hadassah project as the local hotels have proved too small. Cards of admission for the performance must be limited to two thousand, however, which is the seating capacity of the theatre.

GJC Urges Coverage of Remaining Cards

"Coverage Week" Is Announced by GJC

In a determined effort to bring the 1949 fund-raising campaign of the General Jewish Committee of Providence to a close as rapidly as possible, drive officials have listed the week of Nov. 13-20 as "Coverage Week."

Workers, with pledge cards still outstanding, are being requested to complete coverage during this period or else return their cards to GJC headquarters at 203 Strand Building—where they will be reassigned to special "flying squads."

Two Report Luncheons, instead of the customary one, have been slated for "Coverage Week." Monday, Nov. 14 and Thursday, Nov. 17, have been set for brief noon-day meetings which all workers and captains in the Men's Division are urged to attend and report on cards still in their possession.

Noted Psychologist Speaks Here Sunday

Dr. Murray Banks, nationally known psychologist, and author of the publication, "How to Live With Yourself", will be the featured speaker at the season's first regular meeting of Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith, this Sunday evening, November 13, at Plantations Auditorium. His subject will be "Life, Love and Marriage".

Dr. Banks, who has spoken to audiences throughout the country during the past few years, presents a dramatic and humorous discourse on psychology that is highly entertaining as well as informative. A graduate of New York and Columbia Universities, he is noted as a clinical psychologist and professor of psychology, and has been a visiting professor and special lecturer at such universities as North Carolina, New York, Temple and Pittsburg.

Women Discuss Plan for Convalescent Home

A plan for the formation of a Jewish Convalescent Home was presented by Mrs. Joseph W. Strauss to the members of the Montefiore Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent Association Wednesday afternoon at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. The project is jointly planned by Montefiore, Ladies' Union Aid and South Providence Ladies' Aid.

Edward P. Reidy, director of the State Department of Social Welfare, the principal speaker, commended the organization for its work on the Jewish Festival Group in which they entertain Jewish patients at the State Institutions

Drive Reaches $800,000 Mark

"Mopping up" activities took over the center of the stage as the 1949 GJC fund-raising campaign entered its final few weeks.

At yesterday's report luncheon at GJC headquarters, it was announced that the drive had reached the $800,000 level. Last Sunday's successful "D"-Day solicitation was responsible for adding $9,000 to the current campaign in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal and 54 other beneficiary agencies. Close to 1000 cards were covered and there was a redistribution of 350 cards of those persons who were not at home.

With "D"-Day behind it, the Men's Division stepped up its work of contacting the several hundred potential donors still unlisted in the 1949 campaign.

The least unheralded and the most time-consuming of all campaign work, "mopping up" activities, nevertheless, "will decide whether or not our greater Providence community has met the challenge thrust upon it—and other great cities throughout the nation—by the desperate needs of an immigration-swollen Israel."

So stated Joseph W. Riss, chairman of the Trades and Industry Division, who this week called Report Luncheon meetings on both Monday and Thursday of next week.

"We are anxious to close our books on our campaign," said Riss. "Every day's delay means another day of suffering and deprivation—even life or death, in many cases—for our people in the DP camps of Europe and Israel. Time is rapidly running out; we must go 'all-out' these last few weeks in our effort to contact every still unpledged contributor."

Reports were made by Mrs. Edward Finberg, chairman of the shoe and stocking fund, and Mrs. Ben Poulten, president. Mrs. Poulten announced the following chairmen:

Mrs. Samuel Rosen assisted by Mrs. Abraham Adler, membership; Mrs. Charles Robinson, sunshine; Mrs. David Baratz, annual drawing; Miss Pearl Smith, telephone squad; Mrs. Adolph Gorman, historian; Mrs. Louis Silverman, delinquent dues; Mrs. Finberg, Jewish Festival Committee, and Mrs. Abraham Adler, publicity.

Many Women Are Day School Donors

With more than 200 women already donors for the Providence Hebrew Day School annual affair to be held December 8 at the Narragansett Hotel, Mrs. Archie Smith, general chairman, this week said, "The response is indicative that Providence women are aware of the important work the school is doing. Money is needed primarily for scholarships as there are many families who cannot afford the tuition. In addition, we have given six complete scholarships to children of newly immigrated DP families."

This is the second annual affair sponsored by the Women's Association of the School.

With an expanded program of activity, the 1949-50 season for the Hillel Foundation at Brown and Pembroke was officially launched on October 11, with a Freshman reception held at the Pembroke Field House. Over 200 eager students, both freshmen and upper-classmen, turned out for the festivities. They met the new officers; were addressed by the Hillel Director, Rabbi Nathan Rosen, and heard an inspirational message from Rabbi Lowell, assistant director for Hillel from the Grand Lodge. They enjoyed the song period and devoured huge quantities of refreshments which were supplied by Roger Williams Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women. Announcement was made during

N. E. Mizrachi Convention This Weekend

New England Mizrachi will hold its semi-annual conference Sunday in Providence beginning with registration of delegates at Congregation Sons of Jacob at 10:30 o'clock. A luncheon, under the chairmanship of Jacob Alprin, president of the local chapter, will offer a program consisting of Rabbi Kadish Waldman, executive director of New England Mizrachi; Rabbi Carol Klein, who will give a survey of Mizrachi activities in America and Israel, and Rabbi Abraham Chill.

The second session at 2 o'clock features Rabbi Hyman Bick of Lynn, who will speak on the housing problem in Israel. Max Okin of Boston is chairman.

David Rubinsky of Portland is chairman of the third session beginning at 4 o'clock at which time Mr. Bin-Nun of Israel will report on the activities of the American Israel Corporation which is exporting goods to Israel.

The evening session, starting at 7:30 o'clock, will be held at Ahavath Shalom Synagogue under the chairmanship of Rabbi Morris Silk. Participating in this program are Archie Smith, president of the congregation; Harry Kraft, president of New England Mizrachi, and Rabbi Harry Wohlberg of New York. Cantor Nathan Zolondek will sing.

Sundlun-Eisner

Mrs. Madeleine Schiffer Eisner, daughter of Mrs. L. Victor Weil of New York and Monmouth County, New Jersey, was married Wednesday afternoon to Bruce George Sundlun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter I. Sundlun of Providence. Rabbi Nathan A. Perilman of Temple Emanuel performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother in New York.

Given in marriage by her brother, Herbert Frederick Schiffer of West Chester, Pa., the bride wore a Nattier blue satin afternoon dress with long sleeves and a matching hat, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Allen O. Hickok, the bride's attendant, wore dark green taffeta with a white hat, and also carried white carnations.

Edward Bucklin Ostby of Providence was best man. The ushers were Mortimer H. Hess, Jr., Walter Fuld Gips, Jr. and Samuel C. H. Smart, Jr., of New York, Alfred Hahn Joslin and John M. Sapinsley of Providence.

The bride is also the daughter of the late Samuel Schiffer. She was graduated from the Dwight School in Englewood, N. J. and attended the College Feminin de Bouffemont, near Paris, France. She is also the sister of Mrs. Richard Stanley of Chappaqua, N. Y.

Mr. Sundlun is a graduate of Williams College and the Harvard Law School. At present he is Commanding Officer of the 30th Troop Carrier Squadron (M) in the Air Reserve Program. He is a member of Delta Upsilon, the Williams Club and the Harvard Club of Boston.

The couple will make their home in Providence after a wedding trip to Havana and Guatemala.

Hoover Scores
St. Louis System

WASHINGTON—F. B. I. Director J. Edgar Hoover this week stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation does not approve the discriminatory feature of the new St. Louis police identification system. Mr. Hoover said, "The F. B. I. did not recommend, endorse, or approve the form in question."

We do not use the word 'Jew' or 'Jewish' in describing the race or nationality of criminals in connection with the issuance of our identification orders furnishing details on individuals wanted by the F. B. I. Several years ago the F. B. I. adopted the rule of prohibiting the use of words descriptive of religion to describe a race or nationality."

"It Must Be Nice to Have a Home to Hurry Off To"

A Moral Disgrace

The moral ignorance or plain laziness of absent senators will cost this country next year an additional $25 million. Only recently a displaced persons bill was returned to committee for this session. This means that the difficult and discriminatory old bill which limits admission to 205,000 wartime refugees and excludes the victims of the "cold war" remains in force.

More than five months ago the House passed by an overwhelming vote a bill liberalizing the Displaced Persons Act of 1948 to permit a total of 339,000 victims of both wartime Nazi and postwar communist oppression to seek a new life in the United States. Failure to pass this bill means misery and heartbreak for thousands of refugees in Europe will continue. This bill meant new life and new hope.

As pointed out previously in these columns opponents of the bill were not valid in their contention that we have done more than any other nation in emptying the horrible concentration camps of Europe. The fact is that we have taken only 15 per cent or 82,000, while England with her small area and population, has taken 99,000 to date plus 150,000 of Anders' Polish army. This is scarcely in line with either our moral duty or our traditional position as a land of political asylum.

It is hoped that when Congress reconvenes in January courage and energy as well as heretofore absent Senators may be found to pass this bill so necessary today.

As Senator Ives of New York stated, making a final appeal to the Senate for action, "In a very real sense, this responsibility (in respect to displaced persons) is an international obligation. Most Americans consider the obligation more compelling because in this instance we are dealing with human beings and not with dollars or with armaments and sacks of potatoes."

"One Man's Opinion"

Released Time

By BERNARD SEGAL

Somewhere in the offices of the State House, someone is putting words into phrases, and phrases into sentences, and these are couched in legal paragraphs, preparing a bill that would legalize religious education in our Public Schools. Someone again, in the same offices of the State House, is reviewing arguments against the bill, if it should come up before the legislature. In the meantime, a commission of seven, appointed by the Governor, is holding public hearings on the subject in the State House before capacity audiences. Of the many hearings the State has held this last season, and they were numerous, none has attracted so much attention. None was so vital. None was so charged with emotions.

Briefly, the Released Time system is this:

The State Board of Education is instructed to cooperate with interested religious bodies in providing religious education for children of school age. The school teachers themselves are not involved in the program. Not a penny of the tax payers' money allotted for public education is to be used for the promotion of the program. The school merely provides a free hour for the program of religious education.

By an agreement of the Board of Education with the interested religious groups, a day and an hour each week is set aside as the time on which the children are released for religious instruction. Only children who present a card signed by their parents are released. Those children whose parents do not wish to send their children to these religious classes remain in the school. They are kept busy doing corrective reading, doing home work, having free play, reviewing, or in some other way employing the time. The children whose parents desire their release for religious instruction, assemble in separate groups to meet their teachers provided by church and synagogue.

Cities differ in the manner in which the religious instruction classes are held. Some provide separate rooms in the school building, others allow the children to leave the school premises to assemble in their respective religious centers. A system of checking on the attendance of the children is worked out, so that pupils do not use released time for truancy.

Released Time is not new. For almost thirty years many cities and towns in the United States have had the system in their Public Schools, in one form or another. Today, according to a survey published by the National Education Association of the United States, some 45 percent of cities with a population of over 100,000, have a religious education program in connection with their schools.

But in spite of the years of experience with Released Time, the issue is just as controversial today as it was when it was first introduced in Gary, Indiana, back in 1932. Those who are opposed to it argue that it is against the principle of separation of State and Church, that it underscores religious differences in a Public School where the child is not known as Catholic, Protestant, or Jewish, but as an American. Those who favor the program, on the other hand, maintain that it violates no principles of democracy, that it promotes mutual respect and understanding among the religious groups, and that it provides the moral values needed in the spiritual education of the child.

All the arguments, for and against Released Time, have been aired in the hearing room of our State House before the special committee. All the arguments presented here, as elsewhere, whenever the issue is discussed, have their strong and their weak points. Much of the arguing is based on emotion, rather than on facts. The day has not yet arrived, and it is not yet in sight, when topics to religion can be discussed without passion. It has been clearly demonstrated here in our own State during the hearings.

Fortunately, there are in existence impartial surveys on the working of the Released Time program. They have been prepared by educational bodies, and are based on statistical data, and are, as far as it is humanly possible, divorced from bias and preconceived opinions. One such survey reviews Released Time for the nation, the other reports on religious education through Released Time in New York City. Both were published in 1949. Both were conducted by reputable research agencies.

In my second article, next week, I hope to examine the findings of these two surveys, and to present their conclusions, based on objective studies, on the whole issue of Released Time.

Ask R. I. Jewry Protest Jerusalem Plan

The Rhode Island Zionist Council this week voted unanimously to protest the proposed plan to internationalize Jerusalem. The group has urged that supporters of the Council write to President Harry S. Truman, Sen. Theodore Francis Green, Senator Edward Leahy, Rep. John E. Fogarty, Rep. Aime J. Forand, Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, and Warren Austin, U. S. United Nations Delegate.

A letter suggested by the Council follows:
Dear Mr. President:

"You have rendered a tremendous service to humanity and the cause of Israel by your consistent support of the Jewish Homeland. We urge you now to oppose the plan for the internationalization of Jerusalem.

"We are wholly in favor of any policy which would protect the Holy Shrines of all religions, but to internationalize Jerusalem would cut out the heart and soul of the new republic."

Similar letters should be sent to the above listed names.

Sisterhood Plans Membership Drive

Plans for a membership drive of the Temple Beth Israel Sisterhood were made at a committee meeting held at the home of Mrs. Irving Birenbaum of Gallatin Street. The drive, which will terminate with a tea for new members on November 29 at the home of Mrs. Morris Schussheim, is under the leadership of Mrs. Aaron Cohen, chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Solomon, co-chairman, and Mrs. Oscar Klemer, ex-officio.

Over the past few years he has thrilled audiences all over the country with his unique delivery and forceful manner. He comes to Providence well recommended by everyone who has heard him speak.

Bernhardt Names Committee Heads

Bertram L. Bernhardt, president of Roger Williams Lodge, last week announced the names of the men who will head the various active committees for the coming season.

The committees and the men are as follows: Hillel—Merrill Hasenfeld and Morton Blender; Membership—Sidney Rabinowitz and Archie Bellin; Program—Coleman Zimmerman and David Yanover; AZA—Ronald Sopkin and Louis Kramer; ADL—Joseph Finkle; Budget—Arthur Kaplan and Joseph Rees; Membership Retention—Max Kotler and Lester Siegel; Good Cheer—Maurice Bazar; Aid to Israel—Charles Greenblatt; Legal—Bruce Sundlun.

Operation "M"

Have You Knocked On a Jewish Door? Have you told your neighbor the thrilling and romantic story of how a band of 12 Americans created a bond of fraternity and brotherly love 106 years ago? Have you related the dramatic story of unselfish service to mankind by hundreds of thousands of men and women since that memorable day in 1843?

If you have not done any of these things in the last few weeks you are not contributing your share to the great mobilization of Jewry by B'nai B'rith.

What a package you have to sell! ADL, Hillel, Youth Services, Vocational Guidance, Americanism and Civic Affairs, Veterans Affairs, Philanthropies and Jewish Education. Every activity reaches into the home, into the hearts of every father and mother, young boy and girl.

Here is an opportunity for you to help someone forge a link with their people. The new member of today becomes a better citizen tomorrow, a better neighbor and a better American.

Knock On Every Jewish Door! If you find a Ben Brith shake his hand and tell him to join with you in the great Operation Membership. If you find one who has not yet joined our Order, tell him proudly about our great history and traditions.

We want 1,000 new members in the Providence area by Dec. 4. Pitch in and do your share. You'll find a Membership Application Coupon on this page.

Dr. Banks, Famous Young Psychologist, To Be Guest Speaker at November Meeting

DR. MURRAY BANKS

Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith, will present an outstanding personality on Sunday evening, November 13, when the brilliant psychologist, Dr. Murray Banks, will be the featured speaker for the season's first regularly scheduled meeting.

Dr. Banks has chosen as his subject, "Life, Love and Marriage", which is a dramatic and humorous presentation on little known and exciting things about one of our oldest institutions. His talk will keep you laughing, sighing and find you making new resolutions.

Dr. Banks brings psychology down to earth as he dramatizes in an unforgettable way the intriguing things that everyone wants to know about life. Sparkling humor and rollicking stories walk hand in hand with his fascinating look into the human mind. His psychological suggestions alone are enough. His humorous stories as entertainment are enough. Put the two together and you have an evening of unequalled pleasure.

Dr. Banks, a graduate of New York and Columbia Universities, is a clinical psychologist, Professor of Psychology, and has been visiting professor and special lecturer at the University of North Carolina, New York University,

Gov. Pastore Greets B'nai B'rith

Below is a copy of a letter which was sent by Governor John O. Pastore to Mr. Frank Goldman, President of the Grand Lodge of B'nai B'rith, upon the 106th anniversary of the organization.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND & PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
PROVIDENCE

John O. Pastore
Governor

October 17, 1949

Dear Mr. Goldman:

Once again I am privileged to extend the greetings of the State of Rhode Island to the members of B'nai B'rith. The occasion of B'nai B'rith's 106th anniversary is a day on which all of its members should take stock of the organization's past accomplishments in selfless service in every community in our country where B'nai B'rith lodges and women's chapters are located.

You and members of B'nai B'rith should be proud of your organization's accomplishments, particularly in civic affairs and in attacking the forces of bigotry. Your work is a continuing record to the betterment of our way of life. It reflects the collective spirit of a greater America. It is a spirit not limited or restricted by distinctions of race or color or creed.

B'nai B'rith's 106 years of existence should be an inspiration to the entire membership and future generations for many years to come. It is indeed a privilege to congratulate B'nai B'rith on its natal day.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) John O. Pastore

Local Membership Campaign Ties In With National Effort

Driving ahead under the slogan, "Build B'nai B'rith—Backbone of American Jewry", hundreds of enthusiastic workers were preparing to give Roger Williams Lodge the most successful membership drive it has ever known.

To add impetus to the forthcoming campaign, local leaders were following the pattern set by the Grand Lodge in its efforts to build membership all over the country. Highlight of this all-out effort will be a nation-wide radio broadcast on Sunday, December 4th, by Frank Goldman, president of the Grand Lodge, during which he will dramatize highlights of the organization's century of service. Also to be broadcast from many local stations, is a special transcription made by Representative Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., which will congratulate B'nai B'rith on its excellent record of service.

Locally, the membership drive is being organized by Sidney Rabinowitz and his co-chairman Archie Bellin. It will get under way with a breakfast meeting and last for one week.

Two operating divisions have been set up to conduct the program. Division heads are David Saltzman and Leonard Salmanson. Captains of the teams in these divisions are Aaron Bromson, Charles G. Greenstein, Leo D. Waldman, David P. Kopech, Joseph Saltzman, Abraham Belilove, Edward Consove, Samuel Rees, E. Harold Dick, Meyer Miller, Jesse Bromley and Maurice Bazar.

The success of this campaign will depend on the manpower available during its progress. Naturally, the more men working, the greater the results. So, the Lodge is asking every member to participate in the drive, when called on to do so.

New Committee Set To Function

Always in the lead when it comes to rendering service to every worthwhile cause which has a direct bearing on the welfare of the Community, B'nai B'rith this year will start to spread a little more good cheer among its own members.

President Bernhardt has appointed the genial Maurice Bazar as head of the new "Good Cheer" committee and it will be his job to send congratulatory messages to all members who might be celebrating some special occasion.

Naturally, this is quite a job and it will be most difficult for Mr. Bazar to keep abreast of everything that might happen to every member. He has made a good start but needs information from every possible source. So, if you know of any personal items, please contact Mr. Bazar at 344 Doyle Avenue, DEXter 1-8947. By so doing, you will not only help him to do a better job, but you, too, will be helping to spread a little more "Good Cheer".

The schooling races are over and we now settle down to serious competition. The fourteen teams are all set with six men each as the spares have been assigned to regular teams, and now the teams can complain about the averages of the new men and the new men can marvel at captains who can't bowl.

The scores for this week were really on the upgrade as Max (Flesh) Levy led the assault with a 3 string 354. Sam Segal 349. S. Summer 337. S. Aron 332 and J. Agar 332 also kept those pins flying. High single of 136 went to Sam Segal tho' Ben Gilstein 130. H. Nelson 129. M. Levy 128 and S. Summer 127 had strings that caught the eye.

Newly-elected officers of Roger Williams AZA are Ralph Goldberg, president; Melvin Landesburg, vice president; Paul Botvin, secretary; Albert Bakleman, treasurer; Sanford Gold, sergeant-at-arms, and Carl Bakleman, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

A Southern Yankee--
How About That?

(This is the first in a series of profiles of Jewish personalities prominent in the field of sports, both national and local, that will appear from time to time in this column. Readers' suggestions for future profile subjects are invited.)

What's your idea of the best job in the world? President of the United States? Owner of a million dollar concern? Supreme Court Judge? Whatever it may be, there are millions of baseball fans—Yankee adherents in particular—who have their own ideas on that subject. And to them the best job in the world is that held down securely by a fellow named Melvin Allen Israel, a converted New Yorker out of Birmingham, Alabama.

The job? You're ahead of me by now, of course. It's the privilege of broadcasting, on the spot, every exhibition, championship and World Series game that is played by the fabulous New York Yankees.

What, to any baseball fan, could be better than living and traveling with a major league club, being considered a part of them, and having a hand in making them great? That is the position in which Mel Allen, as he is known professionally, has gained national fame for himself and created new fans for the Yankees.

As the Yankees' announcer, Mel has risen to the status of the number one Jewish personality in the field of sports. Here is a man who is not an athlete, but yet has risen to the heights in the realm of sports because of his persuasive eloquence, his vocal personality.

Only a few weeks ago, Allen was selected by the Sporting News as the American League's outstanding baseball announcer for the fourth time in a row. Since Mel has just concluded his fourth post-war year at the Yankee mike, it becomes apparent that he has never been anywhere but at the top.

Creates New Fans

Not content with naming him top broadcaster, the Sporting News also credits him for having boosted attendance at Yankee games and creating what is undoubtedly the largest listening audience that any ball team commands. It naturally follows that he also has been a significant factor in creating countless new fans for the Bronx Bombers, who never exactly suffered from lack of support in the past.

Mel Allen is so much a part of the Yankees now that the fans even compare him with other announcers when debating the relative merits of any two clubs. Take the Red Sox, for example—a good example because of their proximity to Providence. Boston and New York fans may argue night and day, without either side retreating an inch, as to the value of Williams vs DiMaggio, of Tebbets vs Berra, of any of the players. But the New Yorkers usually have one ace up their sleeve—they may not get the Sox fans to concede positions on the field, but they do usually gain an edge by comparing their teams' announcers. Sox fans, and those of other cities, don't have much to say on that score. Many of them would rather listen to Allen themselves—and they do.

Travels With Team

Allen holds a unique distinction in that he is one of the extremely few announcers who travels with the team and broadcasts its play-by-play from the field of action. No telegraphic re-creation for Mel. He is one of the squad. He lives with his team at the Stadium and on the road, and so his anecdotes about them are real and interesting, and usually unheard in the past. He has been responsible for such nicknames as the "Old Reliable" tag that is worn so proudly by Tommy Henrich.

But Mel has achieved more than that. He is the official master of ceremonies at all special events sponsored by the Yankees, and he has won acclaim for his MC performances in the same manner that he wins repeated plaudits while behind the mike.

Possibly by chance, Allen will live in memory as long as the Yankees are remembered. In that greatest and most touching of all baseball photographs—the picture of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig tearfully hugging each other during the Gehrig Appreciation Day ceremonies at the Stadium in 1939 following the disclosure that the gathering rust on the Iron Horse could never be removed—Mel Allen is seen in the background, applauding as hard as he can, while his smiling face is contorted by the tears he is trying to hold back.

And when they snapped pictures of the dying Babe whispering his hoarse thanks to the crowd that gathered to pay him honor in 1947, Mel again was in the camera's range as the shutter clicked.

When the Yanks honored the immortal Bambino for the last time in 1948, shortly before his death, and introduced all the old-time Yankee greats, it was Mel Allen who handled the difficult and complicated job of introductions. Connie Mack day during the season just concluded was the same—it had the Mel Allen trademark stamped on it with indelible ink.

This sounds like as good a time as any—and surely an appropriate time, at that—to sum up these achievements of that Alabama born and bred Yankee in his own phrase that has become such a national by-word:

How about that?

A report on the recent AZA conclave was given by delegates of Pawtucket AZA at a meeting held this week. Plans were made for a breakfast to be held November 27, when a member of the organization's Boston office will speak. A new treasurer, Leonard Dwares, was elected.

Make Awards At Boy Scout Affair

More than 100 scouts of Troop 115, parents and friends attended the troop's second annual open house last week at Nathan Bishop Junior High School. The program for the evening included the presentation by Chief J. Harold Williams of Eagle Badges to Peter and Gilbert Pemberton, a perfect attendance pin to Richard Fierstein and the honor patrol flag to the Flaming Arrow patrol.

The troop held a day hike last week and will go on an overnight hike the first week in December. On Tuesday the monthly board of review will take place.

Center Chanukah Workshop Committee

The Chanukah Workshop Committee of the Jewish Community Center Parents Association is holding meetings to assist persons interested in making Chanukah decorations for their homes. The Parents Association will demonstrate the use of the materials at the next city-wide meeting.

Mesdames Bernard Segal, David Cohen, Leo Glecklen, Leo Borenstein and Sol Fishman will be in charge of the meetings beginning Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock in Sapinsley Hall, and continuing for the following two Monday evenings.

Bochner-Buckler

Beneath a canopy of gardenias and gladioli, Miss Celia Buckler, daughter of Israel Buckler of 554 Pine Street, Central Falls, and the late Ida Buckler, became the bride of Samuel Bochner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bochner of 202 Blackstone Street, Providence, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock at the United Commercial Travelers Hall. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rabbi Aaron A. Goldin. Miss Glory Perethian sang "Through the Years", "I Love Thee" and "Because", accompanied by Tommy Masso.

The bride's gown of ivory satin was styled with a square quilted neckline studded with seed pearls and beads, a fitted bodice and long train with quilted border. Her headpiece was of quilted satin trimmed with pearl beading, and she carried a Bible with orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Dorothy C. Buckler, sister of the bride and maid of honor, chose a gown of ice blue with matching accessories. The matrons of honor, Mrs. Ralph Buckler and Mrs. David Buckler, were gowned in pink with black chantilly lace stoles. Each carried a Bible with an orchid marker.

Abraham Bochner, brother of the groom, was best man. The usher corps included David Buckler, Ralph Buckler, Bernard Buckler, Samuel Buckler, Elliot Brown, Herbert Eisenstadt, Morton Kessler and Leslie Rosner.

Mrs. Martin Cutler, sister of the bride, wore a grey gown and an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Bochner was clad in black crepe trimmed with rhinestones and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Fannie Hazen, great-grandmother of the bride, was also in the receiving line.

After a wedding trip to New York and Canada, the newlyweds will make their home at 554 Pine Street, Central Falls.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Sholes of Hillsgrove celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception and dinner dance given by their sons and daughters at the Narragansett Hotel, November 6.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Sholes and their children. Mrs. Sholes wore a white silk gown embroidered in gold sequins and beads. Her accessories were gold and she wore a golden orchid corsage. The daughters and daughter-in-law wore corsages of gold baby chrysanthemums. Masses of golden chrysanthemums decorated the ballroom and parlors.

Miss Janet-Lee Lipson, a granddaughter, sang "I Love You Truly". Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen gave the invocation and spoke on some of the highlights of the couple's interesting life. Rabbi Aaron Goldin gave the benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. Sholes were married 50 years ago in Providence, and settled in Attleboro, Mass., where their children were born. They then moved to Pawtucket. For the past 22 years they have resided in Warwick.

Their children are Mrs. Louis Lipson of Pawtucket, Mrs. Esther Harris of Quincy, Mass., Mrs. Archibald Aron of West Haven, Conn., Mrs. Morris Zucker of Wollaston, Mass., Mrs. Abraham Gurtart of West Hartford, Conn., Sampson A. Sholes of Boston, Mass., and Leonard J. Sholes of Edgewood. They also have 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Relatives and friends from all over New England attended the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Sholes will leave for Florida at about the middle of this month.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Irving, Kaiser of 61 Halsey Street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Rose Kaiser, to Julius Rhian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rhian of Dudley Street.

Attended Washington Wedding

Mrs. Israel Winoker of Potters Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mellon of Pawtucket recently returned from Washington, D. C., where they attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Wilks. Mrs. Wilks was the former Miss Eleanor Levenson, formerly of Pawtucket.

Koppe Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. J. Melvin Koppe announce the birth on October 20 of a daughter, Charlotte Jo Koppe.

Scherr-Sackett

Mr. and Mrs. David Sackett of Washington, D. C., formerly of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Glorva Jean Sackett, to Stanley J. Scherr, son of Mrs. Libbie Scherr of Washington and Albert Scherr of Miami Beach, Fla. The ceremony took place at the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, October 30.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Christian Dior gown of ivory satin with a portrait neckline and pockets trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book with white orchids.

Miss Mildred Rosenberg of Providence, maid of honor, chose a gown of white embroidered silk faille. The four bridesmaids were gowned in white satin with chantilly lace stoles. All the attendants carried purple orchids.

Dr. Morton Bregman of Washington was best man.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York State, Mr. and Mrs. Scherr will reside in Charlottesville, Va.

Son Born

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wasser of 18 Meni Court announce the birth of their first child, Marvin Stanley, on October 30. Mrs. Wasser is the former Miss Evelyn Aron.

Daughter Born

The birth of a daughter, Rona Ellen, has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wexler of 74 Greenwood Street, Cranston. The baby was born October 29 at the Lying-In Hospital. Mrs. Wexler was formerly Miss Frances Flinker of Montreal, Canada.

Bar Mitzvah

David J. Kelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelman of 233 Warrington Street, became Bar Mitzvah October 29 at Temple Beth Israel. A reception in the vestry followed the services.

Lamchick-Weinstein

Miss Corinne Weinstein, daughter of Mrs. David M. Weinstein of Lake Pearl Manor, Wrentham, Mass. and the late Mr. Weinstein, was married to Mortimer B. Lamchick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lamchick of 66 Ontario Street, this city, October 23 at Lake Pearl Manor. Rabbi Morris Schussheim performed the 6:30 o'clock ceremony by candlelight beneath a canopy of woodwardia ferns, white gladioli, cysanthemums and Southern smilax.

Given in marriage by her brother, Selig Weinstein, the bride was attired in a gown of eggshell satin with a chantilly lace bertha, fitted bodice, hoop skirt and long train, and a full length silk illusion veil falling from a shirred bonnet of illusion and lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a spray bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley.

Fineman-Trinkle Bowling

After the first eight weeks of competition, Phil Shaulson's team maintains a one-point edge on Hal Cohen's team in the standings. The Shaulson outfit also has the high team three thus far with 1537, while Stu Steingold's aggregation has high team single of 554.

Phil Shaulson holds all the individual laurels to date: high single of 141, high three of 359, and high average of 106.

All four matches last week resulted in shutouts with the Shaulsons, Cohens, Gene Silvermans and Len Summers battering the opposition for four points apiece.

Shaulson had high three for the night of 357, while Bob Schwartz rolled 337, Silverman 334 and Irv Datz 324.

Shaulson (there's that man again) had high single of 131. Other noteworthy singles were 125 by Ed Lief, 123 by Summer, and 122 by Hal Levin.

Narragansett Hotel. Rabbi Abraham Chill performed the ceremony.

Miss Ann Russian, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and best man was Joseph Rosenbaum.

Guests from New York, Connecticut and Ohio attended the ceremony.

of honor, chose a gown of Nile green satin with a low shirred neckline, fitted bodice and hoop skirt, and a headpiece of Talisman roses matching her spray bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Allan Weiss and Miss Terry Lewenthal, both of New York, cousins of the bride; Miss Estelle Tarle of Providence, the groom's cousin and Miss Eleanor Shepard of Norway, Me., classmate of the bride. They wore emerald green satin gowns in the same style as the matron of honor, headpieces of yellow roses, and carried spray bouquets of yellow roses.

Jerome Lamchick, of Cranston was best man and ushers were Charles Brynes, Robert Soren and Earl Cohen, all of Providence, and James Jenkin of Pawtucket.

Susan L. Weinstein, niece of the bride, flower girl, was clad in a replica of the matron of honor's gown.

The bride's mother chose a gown of plum silk with gold sequins and Mrs. Lamchick selected a light blue silk gown. Each had an orchid corsage.

They will reside at 68 Ontario Street upon their return.

CRANSTON BOWLING

By DR. HAYVIS WOOLF

"Get rid of those bowling shoes," says Max White, "and get high single of 123 like I did Tuesday night." That was a trick of fate and it sure will be a problem to get Max off that high horse for some time. Youth and beauty are no pre-requisite for a good bowler. All you need is mahzel and Lindy's Diner. Al Cohen has both and also had high three with 313. Ben Mellion had 309 and Max White 308.

A spare on a spare sure raised the roof and Al Sydney's hopes, but he'll have to go a few more to move into the Al Cohen or Jack Phillips class (oh, yes, and Max White). Berney Wexler was off his usual as he was passing out "It's a Girl" cigars.

For the fellows who are trying to figure the "Woolf" invasion of the league, it can be explained very simply: Ben Woolf and Doc are brothers. Herb their cousin. Max Jagolinzer is Ben's brother-in-law, and Max Broomfield and Berney Wexler are Doc's brothers-in-law. Is that clear?

The number of guest spares has begun to give us ideas of enlarging our league, so those boys who are still interested in the CJCC bowling come down and see us Tuesday night at 9:30 in the Legion Bowladrome on Park Avenue. Guest spares of the evening included Abe Gurwitz, Joe Jagolinzer, Dr. Ben Seltzer, Jerry Fish, Dave Sugerman, Ben Kaplan and Sid Markoff.

HEBREW U. ENROLLMENT

The Hebrew University in Jerusalem had an enrollment of 871 students during the past year.

A committee meeting of the Providence Hebrew Day School Donor Luncheon, sponsored by the Women's Association, December 8 at the Narragansett Hotel, was held last week at the home of Mrs. Irving Koffler, 81 Blackstone Boulevard.

Standing, Mesdames Joseph Berstein, John Fishman, Jack Laufer, Miss Pearl Smith, co-chairman of Journal; Aaron Bilgor, telephone squad chairman; Samuel Popkin, floral decorations; Nathan Weiss, Philip Goldberg, Robert Berlinsky, ways and means chairman; Joseph Dubin, William Newman, Lewis Korn, co-chairman; Archie Smith, chairman, and Nathan N. The gym program takes place Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3:30 o'clock, and Tuesday evenings at 8:30 o'clock.

A play program for pre-school children under the direction of Marion Roseman has begun in the North End. Parents took over the job of registering children for the sessions taking place Tuesday afternoons at one o'clock at Temple Beth-David and Wednesday at one o'clock at Sons of Jacob Synagogue.

Emanuel Bowling

By JOE PRIMACK

Although spotting their rivals 24 pins, Mal Paynor's Browns won three points and are way out in front in the league race with an 18 and 2 record. Mal's team bowled a neat 1605 and now have a team average of 528. The cry now is "Break Up the Browns".

"Babe" Chase did himself proud by making the season's high single of 149 and high three for the night with 361. Other high threes were Frank Goldstein 356, George Miller 353, Billy Dwares 352, Lefty Goralnik 350, Paynor 347 and, at 336, Jake Orchoff, Sam Gordon and Jack Broadman.

It is rumored that Morris Kramer broke a record (please don't say it loud) by starting off the night with seven pins in the first two boxes. Is that bad for six balls?

With the exception of first place the league is pretty well bunched and the fight now is for second place with about six teams close enough to pull into that spot with a good week or two.

Nine teams of the 14 have a 500 team average or better with the lowest team in the league having 485. Averages all around in the first five weeks have been the highest in league history.

Dr. Myron Keller, president of the Men's Club, announces that the club's annual Father and Son night will be held Thursday, November 17, with a swell night promised for all who attend.

BOWLING BANTER

By TEDI GREEN

Surprising the whole Olympic Auxiliary Bowling League with their bowling, Esther Miller's five upset Dot Leonard's quintet by taking 3 points in a tight, down-to-the-wire contest. Despite Elsie Zipkin's efforts which won her high single for the night with 117, the Leonard gals were overwhelmed. The Millers' win was helped by Fay Malatt with two good strings of 91 and 96, Harriette Zarchen with a 93 and Esther Blonder with a three of 255. Cap'n Miller paced the group and took high three with 299.

Louise Boren's five split the four points with June Winn's gals. Shirley Levin and June Winn helped a bit with 259 and 254, respectively. Showing something of her old bowling form, Miriam Rodyn bowled a good string of 100 and racked up a 271 for three.

Beth El Bowling

By JOE GUTTERBALL

Lenny Triestman's team has set a new high team-single mark in the Temple Beth-El Brotherhood Bowling League.

Lenny's keglers came up with a 574 score at the Casino Alleys last week to better the 569 total made the previous week by Jack Bilow's bowlers. Triestman's Terrific Team was able to move into a three-way tie for second place with Leo Kopit and Joe Alterman's squads. Archie Finklestein's Fearless Five dropped three points, but still clung to first place by a two-point margin.

The Alterman aggregation, which includes Joe and Nat of the team name, in addition to George Woled, Sheldon Bloomberg and George (wrist-band) Dann, rolled 1564 for three strings. It was the best for the night, but a long way off from the high team-three of Don Zion's bowlers.

Murray Trinkle took over the hot spot. He is the fourth bowler in as many weeks to lead in individual averages. Murray moved into first with 112 8/18. Charlie Silverman was able to roll the best string for the night, 134, which aided Walter Strauss' Stellar Cellar Dwellers. They took three out of four points from Lerner's team, but they're still in last place.

Bert Bernhardt, also of Strauss' S.C.D., rolled 80 and 86 for his first two strings. And as he kept up that pace for the third string, Bill Silverman marked Bert's score backwards. It didn't help. Bert rolled another 80.

HSIAOSHUO,
FROM HUMBLE HOST

When Chinese speak of hsiaoshuo, they mean "a little talk". As proprietor of the new Ming Garden Restaurant, it is my wish to have hsiaoshuo with you from time to time in these pages. No words, Chinese or English, are adequate to describe the Ming Garden's delightful cocktails and cuisine. One must experience these. But—very important point—perhaps through my hsiaoshuo, one day soon I may have pleasure of greeting you personally.

Scenes of "D"-Day

"D"-Day Workers Ready to Do Their Job

(Top) Shown above is a portion of the 300 workers who assembled at the Narragansett Hotel to work in the one-day solicitation in the Men's Division which took place last Sunday. Nearly 1,000 prospect cards were solicited on this day to show a great increase over last year's giving.

Chairmen Check Results

Left) Alvin Sopkin, left, general chairman of the 1949 GJC campaign, and Bernard Goodman, chairman of "D"-Day, examine figures representing early returns of collections last Sunday.

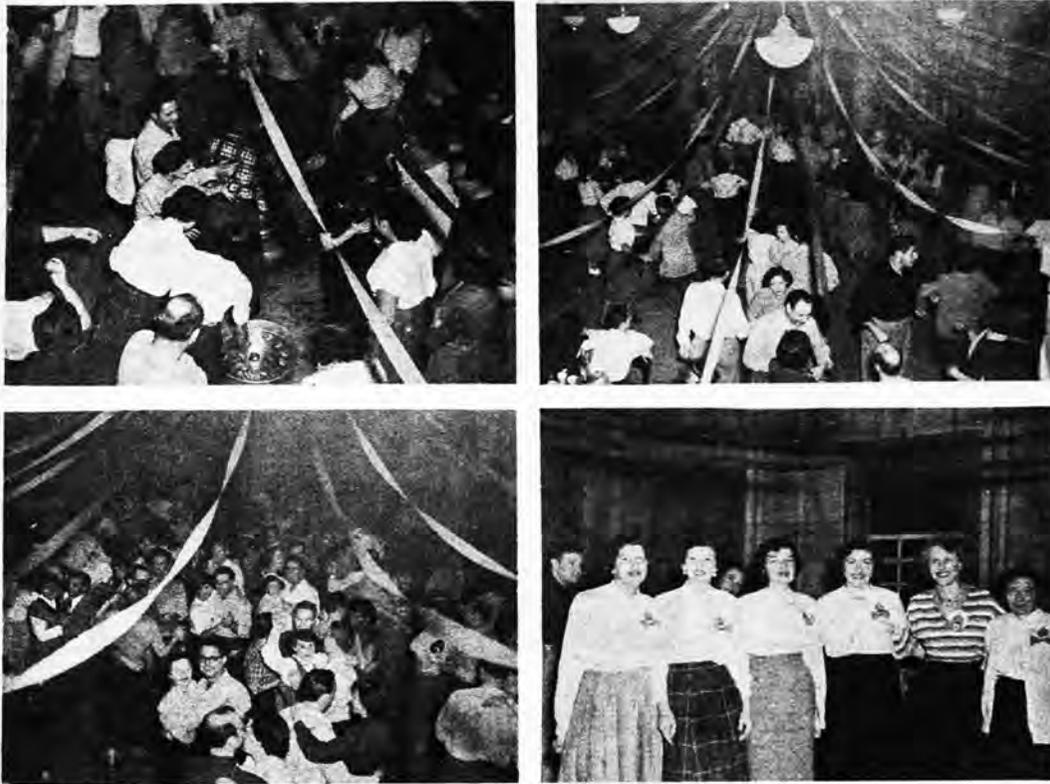

"D"-Day Leaders

Sorority Barn Dance Saturday

Mrs. Elaine Rosenthal, social chairman of Sigma Delta Tau Alumnae, is in charge of the organization's barn dance to be held Saturday evening at George Washington Reservation. Assisting her are the Misses Kate Markel, president; Rosamond Wyzansky and Claire Gorenstein, secretaries; Arleen Falcofsky, treasurer, and Elsa Isenberg, advisor to the Rhode Island State College chapter.

Tickets for the affair, which will feature a barn dance band, a professional caller and refreshments, may be bought at the door.

SHALSHALETES' TEA

Approximately 35 guests attended the Shalshalletes membership tea held November 6 at the Jewish Community Center. In charge of the affair were the officers of the club, Rosilyn Schwartz, president; Carol Weiss, vice president; Thelma Levy, secretary; Harriet Curran, treasurer, and Dorene Schwartz, corresponding secretary, assisted by all the members of the group who served as hostesses.

Center Players

Meet Wednesday

The Center Players will hold their first meeting of the season next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Jewish Community Center. Plans for the 1949-50 season will be discussed with Morris Kritzman, executive director of the Center. Invitations to attend the meeting are extended to all who would like to participate in the Players' activities this year.

THE PROVIDENCE JEWISH HERALD, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1949

Mrs. Albert Cohen is chairman of the first annual program dance of the Cranston Jewish Community Club to be held November 21 at the Hillsgrove Country Club. Music and entertainment for the affair will be by Ben Paris and his orchestra.

Mrs. Cohen, who is also chairman of the souvenir program book, is assisted by Mesdames Ben Kaplan, Paul Friedman, Morris Lenz, Murray Potemkin, S. Jay Stone, Sidney Markoff, Burt Lichtman, Joseph Kurtz, Nat Pockar, Aaron Rickles, Al Sydney, Harold Tregar, Herbert Woolf, Morris Botvin, Joseph Berger, William Deitch, Newton Frank, Manny Gluckman, Samuel Granoff and Nathan Honig and the Misses Ruth Goldsmith and Ann Fishman.

Harold Tregar is in charge of the special event of the evening.

Olympic Bowling

By HOWARD COHEN

Handicaps went into effect last week, but only the H. Cohen and Joe Schwartz teams felt the effects, losing a point apiece on the handicap scoring.

The Bernie Cohen five went wild for one string against the J. Hochmans and set a league record of 580 team single. Zlatoff 134, Pollock 133, Green 116, Rose 102 and Bernie 95 did the trick. Jimmie Hochman with a pair of 107's and Hasky Wallick with 125 helped salvage one point.

Howie Cohen and gang were 3-1 winners over Moe Malatt and Co. to stay in a tie for first place. Harold Teitelman continues his good bowling, while cousin Snazzy Woloff's steadiness has been a factor in keeping the HCs up there. Curly Jack Jacobson was best for the Malatts.

Ralph Winn paced the I. Levines to a 4-point win over the Leonards. Hap Aven with 310 tried hard but got no assistance. Capt. Teddy hit a new low with 266.

With the handicap, the Rodyns took a 4-point victory from the Joe Schwartzes. Merle's 329 three helped his cause. Sam Hochman continued to be very very good for Joe's team.

We must mention Sid Boren's 315, S. Hochman's 327 and J. Hochman's 314.

High averages so far are Rodyn 108, Pollack 105 and Greenberg 104.

A. E. PI BOWLING

After three weeks of competition, Burt Himelfarb's club is in first place with a comfortable five-point margin over the second place Beans Feinstein's team. Last Monday night Art Flink of the pace-setters was the big man with new season highs of 144 single and 345 three.

Don Cohen's erstwhile cellar-dwellers came off the floor and upset Jerry Freiberg's outfit, 4 to 0.

High threes were rolled by Tony Fontana 316, Len Lazarus 309 and veteran Bob Krovitz 302. Singles of 122 by Lazarus, 113 by Fontana and Krovitz, 111 by Perry Deitch and 110 by Len Waldman highlighted the competition.

CRANSTON CLUB MEETING

A special meeting of the Cranston Jewish Community Club committee will be called before the regularly scheduled meeting, it was decided at a board meeting held Monday at the home of Mrs. S. Jay Stone.

Beth-Israel Entertainer

ZVEE SCOOLER, humorist, dramatist and satirist, will present a program of original portrayals and improvisations in English and Yiddish at Temple Beth Israel, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The program is under the auspices of The Assembly of Jewish Learning of the temple.

Scooler, during his 15 years with the Yiddish Art Theatre, has appeared in "The Dybbuk", "Yoshe Kalb" and "Brothers Ashkenazi", and has also appeared in several Broadway productions such as "She Loves Me Not" and "We Americans".

Admission is free to the public.
