JEWISH LEADERS QUESTION SINCERITY OF CHANGE IN NAZI POLICY ON JEWS

NAZIS CRY FOR HELP! (EDITORIAL)

The effectiveness of the boycott on German-made goods was officially recognized when Dr. Julius Lippert and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, high Nazi officials, expressed their concern over Germany's economic stringency. That definitely, is the only sincere opinion expressed by the Germans. Their thinly veiled attempts to beguile the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin and the Americans in general, that Jews were to be given equal commercial rights and that this is a "Jewish boycott."

Obviously, Lippert's speech may be interpreted as the opening gun of a new type of Nazi offensive — a subtle and particularly nauseating attempt to arouse resentment against the Jews in the United States. Apparently, the Nazi officials do not want to believe the salient fact that the anti-Nazi boycott is being supported by ALL religions, groups, and classes interested in humanitarian and civil rights. The public reaction to the Nazi's recent propaganda has been well displayed by such leaders as Mayor La Guardia of New York and such groups as the American Federation of Labor, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League to Champion Human Rights, and the American Jewish Congress — all of whom urge greater vigor in pushing the boycott and declare the Nazis to be hypocritical in their simulated desires to placate the world trade.

The attempts of the Nazis to urge barter plans have certainly not been successful — the abrogation of the cotton barter agreement with the United States by President Roosevelt dealt a severe blow to Nazi commerce. Naturally, the Reich would like to stop the boycott—but as long as Mr. Hitler prefers to stamp out the Jew and use him as a butt of all his lunatic vituperation and barbarous savagery, so will he learn that he cannot feed his people and at the same time isolate the nation from the rest of the world.

Before one can believe that equal commercial rights will be given to the Jews (ostensibly to prevent complete collapse of German economy), tangible and unequivocal proof will have to be shown the people of the world. In the meantime, the boycott should not be weakened, but pushed more vigorously until the condition of the Jew in Germany will have become such as to promote peace between the world Jewry and the Nazi Reich.

REPORT THIRTEEN ENTRIES IN QUEEN ESTHER CONTEST

Up to the present writing thirteen young women have been registered for the Queen Esther contest. Who will be chosen queen, will be decided on the evening of March 19 when the Jewish Center Council will sponsor the Fourth Annual Queen Esther Purim Masquerade at the Elks Auditorium.

The biblical story, Queen Esther, will be colorfully reenacted at the affair to be staged by the Jewish Center Council. How King Ahasuerus chose Esther from a large number of maidens in the land of Persia in 464 B. C. The part Mordecai played in suppressing the plan of Haman to kill the Jewish people will be told in a colorful pageant.

Keen excitement is prevailing among the contestants. Here they are for your information. May the best one win! By the way there is still time to make entries. Irene Cohen, Gertrude Finklestein, Edith Hassenfeld, Josephine Horowitz, Edith Rotenberg, Selma Schwartz, Ethel Shukovskiy, Lilyan Zeidal, Sylvia Friedman, Sophie Jenkins, Rose Klein, Lillian Tauber and Esther Travis.

The following prizes are being offered to the queen, attendants and for the best costume:

Two weeks' vacation at Agassiz Hotel, Bethlehem, N. H.; one week's vacation at Lake Spofford Hotel, Spofford, N. H.; one week's vacation at Maplehurst Hotel, Bethlehem, N.

cation at Camp Annisquam, Gloucester, Mass.; week-end at Hotel Lafayette, Old Orchard Beach, Maine; dinner to Queen and attendants, Lake Spofford Hotel, Spofford, N. H.; shampoo and wave, Dollie Beauty Shoppe.

Goldstein, and silk scarf, Frank Konovsky.

There are many more prizes to be offered.

A very energetic committee is headed by Miss Freda Simon who is assisted by Archie Smith, co-chairman and the following: tickets, Ethel A. Levene and Mrs. Nat Roy; Queen entries, Dr. Myron Keller and Edgar Dressler; Queen coronation, Mrs. Samuel Starr and Frank W. Barad; masquerade, Nat Roy and Dr. A. B. Lewis; refreshments, Dr. Harry I. Goldman and Jack Pritsker; prizes, Isador Korn and Boris Nelson. The members of the committee are working on the details of the event to make this affair one of the

Nazis 'Promise' to Ease up on Jew Persecution

BERLIN (JTA)—There were indications last week that the Nazis might be modifying their anti-Jewish policy. Dr. Julius Lippert, State Commissioner for Berlin, in an address before the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin said that Jews economically had equal rights in Germany.

Although there were obvious misstatements in Dr. Lippert's address, in which he blamed the anti-Nazi boycott on the Jews of America, it was significant in that it indicated that Germany is suffering economically from loss of trade and that the anti-Jewish policy of the government might be changing.

It seemed as though Julius Striecher's virulent anti-Semitism was being discarded and that the more moderate policy long advocated by the Nazi Economics Minister, Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, was on the verge of being adopted.

Dr. Schacht believes that now that the Nazis have purged Germany of intellectual and professional domination by Jews, the German Jews should be unmolested, and certainly not in the field of commerce and trade.

A number of Nazi papers seemed to take this point of view when, last week, they published a report that "nothing more will be undertaken against the Jews of Germany" in view of the government's desire not to further complicate matters abroad.

Dr. Schacht, himself, informed the Berlin Merchant's Association last Thursday that no further discrimination would be practiced against its members, many of whom are Jewish.

These new trends in the Nazi attitude towards the Jews do not mean that Jews will be restored to their rights or that they will be reinstated in state and municipal jobs from which they were ousted under the "Aryan" paragraph. The "Aryan" paragraph, it was explained here, remains fully in force.

American circles here are skeptical as to the sincerity of the Nazi authorities in their talk of easing their anti-Jewish policy. The opinion which prevails in the American colony here is that Dr. Schacht's move can be explained only by the fact that Germany is greatly affected by the boycott of German goods abroad and wishes to pacify public opinion in foreign countries in order to find larger markets for its export products.

At the same time, it is stated here in circles believed to be close to Dr. Schacht, that the minister of economics has made it clear to Hitler himself that as far as his department is concerned Jewish experts who are still in different departments of the ministry will be retained there under all circumstances, since Germany's economic interests would greatly suffer if they were replaced by Nazis.

It is to be sure to remember that there is a free week's vacation with all expenses paid for either the most original, most beautiful, most Jewish or most grotesque costume.

The success of this event depends on the sale of tickets. The following are the prizes: 1st prize — 1 free week's vacation at a camp (requirement at least 150 tickets); 2nd prize, a free week-end at Lafayette Hotel Old Orchard Beach, Maine (requirements at least 75 tickets); 3rd prize, $5 in cash (requirement at least 50 tickets); 4th prize $3 in cash (requirements at least 35 tickets) 5th

Hheads of Community Here Urge Boycott be Vigorously Waged

Max L. Grant, Rabbi William G. Braude of Temple Beth-El, and Mrs. Alfred A. Fain, president of the Providence Hadassah expressed their agreement with the American Jewish Congress, Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, and the American Federation of Labor that the allegations by Dr. Julius Lippert, Nazi state Commissar and the intent of Dr. Schacht, Nazi Economic Minister to give commercial rights to German Jews were merely attempts to lessen the effect of the boycott and were without basis of fact.

Rabbi Braude's Statement

In a telephone interview with the JEWISH HERALD, Rabbi Braude gave out the following statement for publication: "I am in receipt of most reliable information that Dr. Julius Lippert's statement, although a most authoritative pronouncement on the Jewish question by one of the highest Nazi officials, does not indicate any changed or more realistic policy with regard to the Jews of Germany. It is but another attempt to blame the boycott for all of the difficulties of German trade, to stir up resentment against the Jews in the United States, and to paint a false picture of the conditions of the Jews in Germany."

Mr. Grant "Wants to be Shown"

Max L. Grant, well-known civic leader and prominent in many communal activities, declares that as far as he knows the speeches of the Nazi officials are without foundation of fact. He expressed agreement with the American Jewish Congress in believing that it is simply a publicity attempt of the Nazis to gain more trade and that if the Jews were actually given equal commercial rights, such information would have been published in proper fashion.

Mrs. Fain Urges Stronger Boycott

Mrs. Fain scoffed at the Nazi officials and urged a more vigorous boycott on all German-made goods. Her statement follows:

"It amused me to read 'Herr Hitler's' (let us not get too intimate with him) latest ultimatum to relax his vigorous and relentless persecution of the Jews, temporarily, at least. For a man who could blind millions, I gave him credit for a better understanding of the Jewish people. He should know better than to believe that a little anaesthesia would lull the Jews of Germany into a temporary feeling of security.

"The Jews of the world, who have watched events in Germany since the advent of the Nazi regime, are not so easily appeased. His attitude reminds me of a beast who plays with his bird of prey before devouring it.

"It is some gratification to know that his economic and numerous internal troubles have, at least for the time being, taken his attention away from his chief sport; namely, humiliating and tormenting the one-half of one percent of his population that seems to be a thorn in his flesh.

"Let us not be beguiled by vile tactics, and lose sight of the only weapon we have against this monstrous enemy—'Nazism.'

"We should push the boycott on all German-made goods with more vigor than ever before. The federated labor groups of European countries are firm and adamant on that point. If kept up long enough perhaps the German people will be brought to their senses and wake up to realize that their 'Feuhrer' is nothing more than a tin god."

Continue Boycott, Saye Judge

Boycott is Not "Solely Jewish" Statements Aver

NEW YORK (JTA) — The allegation made last week by Dr. Julius Lippert, State Commissar for Berlin, at a meeting of the American Chamber of Commerce in Berlin, that the boycott against German goods in the United States is a "Jewish boycott" was denied in a cablegram sent to the Chamber by the American Jewish Congress and made public by Dr. Stephen S. Wise, honorary president.

"The United States boycott is a spontaneous reaction of the American people of all faiths and races to Hitler terrorism against all groups in Germany," the cable says. "Four million Americans associated with the American Federation of Labor have twice in the past two years reaffirmed adherence to the boycott. Members of the Catholic and Protestant churches practice boycott as rightful exercises of their abhorrence of a government which has returned to medieval barbarism. The office of the High Commission for German Refugees created by the League of Nations is an incontestable evidence of the ruination visited by Nazism upon many of its citizens. Jews form only a small percentage of many millions refusing to do business with Nazi Germany."

Referring to Mr. Lippert's statement concerning the loss to America, the cable points out that the leading department stores as well as the United States Chambers of Commerce affirm that American industry has shown a rise of from 30 to 60 percent in new industries making products formerly bought from Germany.

The cable concludes by stating that Dr. Lippert's and Dr. Schacht's statements are "typical of the Nazi policy of issuing mollifying statements for foreign consumption while relentlessly pursuing oppression against liberals, labor, Catholics, Jews and all who cannot be imprisoned within Gleichschaltung."

The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League of which Samuel Untermyer is president, also sent the following cable:

"Strongly protest Lippert's speech reported American press. Entirely unaccord facts. Boycott world non-sectarian movement supported labor, women, Masons, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Economic conclusions fallacious, tendentious, misleading. American headquarters unwilling to risk chances further restriction exports. Find barter plan unsound, cumbersome, unsafe. Further press reports same date show complete hypocrisy Lippert's statement regarding position Jews, German industry, commerce."

The cablegram was signed for the league by George Harriman, secretary.

boycott. His statement is as follows:

"That the American boycott of German goods as such has achieved a marked degree of success is unquestionable. The boycott has demonstrated that the civilized world resents Nazi treatment of German Jews. It has emphasized the fact that no nation can exist in our modern interdependent economic order without trade connections and a reasonable degree of good-will of other states. In due time it will have served as a sufficiently potent retaliatory measure to bring about alleviation of Jewish sufferings in Germany. That time is not yet here, but it will come. For the American

The First Baptist Church is also allied with Brown University, annual commencements and special convocations being held in the chapel.

The Rabbi will address the 23rd anniversary meeting of Boston Chapter, Senior Hadassah in Temple Ohabei Shalom, Boston, on Wednesday afternoon.

Grade four won the Keren Ami banner for the month of February.

The attendance banner was won by the Confirmation class.

Purim Carnival
 Plans for the Religious School Purim Carnival are well under way. Children are busy preparing their costumes for the masquerade; clubs are rehearsing for the various side-shows, and games of all types are being devised around the Purim theme. Lots have been cast for Shaloch Monos. Each child will receive a gift from another member of his class. Refreshments, including Haman Taschen and other Purim goodies, will be distributed to the children in costume. Various Jewish objects will be on sale. The carnival is slated for March 17 at 3 o'clock in the Temple vestry. Everyone is welcome.

Reading of the Megillah
 On Monday night, March 18, at 6 o'clock, the Megillah will be read to children of the Religious School by George Pullman. As is customary, the mention of Haman's name will be punctuated by the intense racket of hundreds of gregors (noise-makers). These latter will be distributed by Louis Berman in behalf of the religious committee.

Palestine's Growth Amazes Traveler

The following letter written to Mrs. Alfred A. Fain, 531 Wayland Avenue, president of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah, portrays a vivid picture of Palestine activities, both charitable and cultural:

"I am seeing Palestine, as it should be seen, with a Bible as my guide-book. I started with Tel-Aviv and I am simply amazed at the rapid development of this city. It has grown from a population of 30,000 in 1925 to its present number of 130,000, with many successful commercial and industrial enterprises. There is an aura of sanctity about Jerusalem which one senses immediately.

"The ancient town is comparatively small in size, but it takes weeks and even months to see everything it contains. . . . All the venerable walls, relics, historic sites, and religious treasures. However. . . a very modern Jerusalem exists which offers many places of great interest. The large new Jewish quarters of Rehavia and Talpioth have been built according to modern architectural principles. I have visited. . . health stations (under the supervision of Hadassah), also a few schools where the children enjoy well-prepared meals supplied by the "Penny Luncheon Fund." If Hadassah had done nothing more than bring these institutions into being, she has earned an important chapter in. . . our history. . . I visited the hospital where one meets the distinguished Zondek brothers and other famous diagnosticians, gynecologists and surgeons, it makes you realize the greatness of Hadassah's achievements and of the task which is still before Hadassah. For these renowned physicians and scientists are terribly handicapped. . . If our American Jews, could but visualize this situation, they would rush the necessary funds and make it possible to build this much-needed hospital on Mt. Scopus without delay.

"I write this to you in order to convey the importance of your position as President of the Providence chapter. I know that you have things well organized and hope the committees are working in harmony."

Appointed Western Union Superintendent

Samuel Butler, 84 Gallitan Street, in being transferred from the New Hampshire Western Union office to Providence, becomes the first member of the Jewish faith to hold a state superintendent's position for that company. He has been with the Western Union for 20 years starting as a messenger boy in 1915.

COUNCIL GROUP MEETING

The next meeting of the literature department of Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women will be held Monday afternoon at 2.15 o'clock at the Jewish Community Center, 85 Benefit Street. Mrs. Pierre Brunschwig, chairman of the group, will review "The Native's Return," by Louis Adamic.

The international relations group of the Council of Jewish Women will meet Wednesday, in the home of its leader, Mrs. Samuel Wachenheimer. The meeting will take the form of an international symposium with various members of the group speaking for different nations. The subject of the afternoon is "Europe: War or Peace?" The customary tea hour will follow the afternoon's program.

RKO ALBEE

Cab Calloway, master of red hot rhythm and His famous Cotton Club Orchestra with a sizzling cast of Harlem Maniacs, opens a week's engagement today on the stage of the RKO Albee Theater.

During the past two years Cab Calloway has soared to stardom on the radio and screen. He is an expert showman, knowing just what his audience wants and gives it to them. He is a clever singer with a unique manner of presentation. His voice is subject to as many surprising variations as the music of his orchestra. Now it is a husky chant, now a vowel caressing croon. Now, for no reason except the apparent intensity of the singer's emotion, it leaps to a weird minor key, only to drop almost instantly to a taunting matter of fact harshness.

The screen attraction, "Without Children," features Marguerite Churchill, Bruce Cabot, Evelyn Brent and Reginald Denny. Suggested by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow's story, "Eyes of Youth," the theme of the picture is divorce, and its effect on the wife and the children who are left behind when the husband marries the other woman.

The theme is in no sense preachment or propaganda but rates as first class entertainment. Much of the comedy in the picture is given to little Dickie Moore and Cora Sue Collins as the youngsters in the earlier sequences of the picture and to Dorothy Lee and William Janney as the same pair grown up.

The OBSERVER

Howdy friends, this is the old cow-hand at work again with the week's highlights.

The avenues have been quite crowded with new names and new faces, so here's a bit of the doings.

At the Granada we eagle-eyed Seymour Winograd and Leon Burt with The Miss Levy. Both interests were constantly demanding dances which kept her on her toes all that evening.

What stamina, friends, what stamina. Lucille Zisquit, as dignified as ever, with an unknown of college rank, no doubt. Buddy Sack has taken up night life.

A few new-comers to the higher ranks, (and quite nice at that) Bernice Cornfield and fluffy-haired Charlotte Gold, were seen trying to strut the light fantastic "400" with Ira N. and "Ike" T.

Y. O. O. (Ye Old Observer) has some swoops on Pawtucket too.

Lou Cokin, a well-known Pawtucket-ite, has been traveling the walkway of Muriel Krevlin, a Pembroke. Muriel has a swell girl friend, too, huh Lou? How about me?

Boston's fairer sex is putting its claim on Sid August who goes to B. U. By the way Sid, how is Sarah Smith doing out there, in that University atmosphere?

Leo Marks, of the Marks' of Central, has just returned from a beach-warming in Florida. What's the news down there, Leo?

After many sojourns to New Bedford, Morris Hazen is settling down with Mrs. Brill's charming daughter, Ethel.

Up in the hill at P. C. Milt Bleiden and side step Glazer were high-dee-highing it again with Molly and Janice S., those very popular twins. Milt is a star basketballer and the twins haven't missed one of P. C.'s home games this season. Milt, by

Herman Kaplan Weds New Bedford Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Zolman Manelis of New Bedford, Mass., announce the marriage of their daughter, Bee to Herman Kaplan, son of Mrs. Celia Kaplan of 138 Hanover Street. The ceremony was performed recently in Boston by Rabbi J. Jacobson.

The couple is now on a honeymoon in Florida, and upon their return will reside at 313 Hawthorne Street New Bedford. Mr. Kaplan has been in the furniture business.

I see where Doris Kelman is going to seek her fame in the coming Jewish Olympics to be held in Palestine soon. Doris is a great swimmer, and also an accomplished pianist. Good luck, Doris Thoughts While Reading History I wonder when Saul Spitz and Janet Chanerum are going to set the . . . date of the civil war.

What happened to that pretty, and very popular blond maiden from New Bedford, Rose W. who used to be seen with that east-sider who . . . crossed the Delaware.

Where is Carl Levenson who had a crush on that certain specie of Providence, but is no longer seen here since . . . unemployment was a great hazard to the McKinley administration.

How is Dave Koppelman who is now a cadet at New York Military Academy getting along? He seems to have forgotten all his friends back home, with possibly one exception. Celia, please inform the Observer when . . . the troops march in parade it is a grand sight.

More Thoughts

Did you Brunonians have any idea that your great tutor "Cy" Shapiro would extend his search as far away as Florida? Well, he's there now. And speaking of Miami, that great adagio favorite, also known as one of Pawtucket's slickest dressers, Lou Butterman, is warming his feet behind a counter in one of the finer men's shop there.

In doing my weekly good turn, I would advise Sam Sollinger to place his order for a large supply of herring, for Arne Leach is trying to corner the market on all such food commodities.

To Mr. and Mrs. Hanzel my heartfelt sympathy for their recent bereavement, and may the Almighty send forth his everlasting kindness and sympathy to lessen their burden.

WOONSOCKET NEWS

Unusual in the fact that for one of the few times in the history of B'nai Brith meetings, a strictly political speech was delivered as part of the cultural program, nevertheless, the address given at the last meeting of the local organization by Woonsocket's chief executive, Mayor Felix A. Toupin, proved interesting and informational.

Mayor Toupin, in a lengthy tirade against the Democrats now in power, traced the entire history of the Rhode Island Democratic party, going into the various intricate details of party politics and deploring the discrimination used in distributing the "spoils of victory." He also took occasion to pay tribute to Washington and Lincoln.

A successful two-year reign as president of the Woonsocket Retail Trade Board, the city's major mercantile association, was brought to a close this week for Amos Steiner, local shoe merchant. Steiner does not exactly retire, however, going from the president's chair to a post with the board of directors. Also elected to the board this week were Coleman P. Faik, Samuel L. Kane, Samuel Kornstein and Samuel Robinson.

Two major activities are occupying the attention of the B'nai Brith lodge. One is the charity bazaar which will be conducted on the 24th of this month and the other the formation of a new drill and ritual team.

The bazaar will be for the benefit of the Woonsocket Hebrew School, and although sponsored by the chapter, will have the cooperation of practically every Jewish organization in this city.

The first function of the drill team will be on the 27th of this month when a large class of candidates will be initiated. However, its duties will not end there. The Woonsocket lodge has always been noted for the excellence of its degree work at inductions and its ritual group has been in great demand outside of the city. It is expected that it will compete for the medals offered in District No. 1, comprising the New England States, New York and Canada, for the best drill team. Under the direction of Israel Dunn, members are Alexander Brenner, Frederick Gershkoff, Joseph Goldfine, Nathan Goldfine, Abraham Hopp, Louis Mayerson, Louis Norman, Joseph Rosenthal and Zelmor Levin.

Apparently it was a case of "heads I win, tails you lose" with Samuel H. Brenner, popular young attorney of nearby South Bellingham. Brenner, former town solicitor, was a candidate this week at the town elections for moderator. He lost by a slim margin. But candidates on his slate for selectmen all were victorious. The selectmen run the town and appoint its officials. Hence, Brenner is apparently due to become solicitor again. Which, according to his friends, is what he wanted anyhow.

TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL ATTAINS ITS JEWISH MAJORITY

The Congregation Temple Beth-Israel on March 1 to 3 celebrated the 13th anniversary of its inception with a Bar Mitzvah observance. Thus, this oldest conservative Jewish congregation in the State of Rhode Island, having completed 13 years of youthful growth, enters upon Jewish adolescence.

Just as the Jewish young man of 13 years becomes subject to the law of Jewish observances in full, so Temple Beth-Israel, by its service to the community, non-Jewish as well as Jewish, has given evidence that it will carry on its Jewish requirements in the future. As former Mayor Gainer aptly stated during the course of the Sunday evening exercises: "Not only have you done a service to your people, but you have indirectly benefited the community and made it a better place to live in."

Congregation Beth-Israel was organized in response to the need for a modern Jewish congregation in its section of the City of Providence. It has kept alive Jewish traditions with induction of Jewish young men into the fold of Judaism by individual Bar Mitzvahs in the course of its regular growth. It was therefore fitting at this time that the Congregation should celebrate the 13 years of its existence, in token of its full-fledged service to Judaism.

We look forward to many years of continued Jewish activity under the spiritual leadership of Rabbi Morris Schusheim, who felt the call of the needs of this congregation, and is serving the second year of his second term as its Rabbi. May the growth of activities which his vision and labor have made possible be cumulative, and the force of Temple Beth-Israel continue to be felt as the years pass by.

THE TOURO FRATERNAL ASSOCIATION

The Touro Fraternal Association, which holds its annual memorial meeting on Wednesday, is a unique Rhode Island institution among Jews. Founded for local fraternal benefits, it has remained a force in this community — never strident, never making demands, but always helpful.

Organized Mar. 10, 1918, by the late Jacob A. Eaton, it has a charter granted by the Legislature, and while it has the legal power to establish branches elsewhere, it has not seen fit to date to avail itself of this privilege. Perhaps this geographical restriction is a powerful reason for its effectiveness in its own field. It has played an important part in the local community for the past 18 years, and stands high in the ranks of fraternal organizations of the entire country. At the last examination by the State Commissioner of Insurance, the audit showed the Touro to be 116.47 percent solvent; the state requires but 105 percent solvency. Its membership includes a number of the most prominent professional and business men of the Jewish community, and as the association's purposes are social as well as beneficial, it is an institution making for social security and soundness. This reveals the keen foresight of the association's founder, Mr. Eaton, for we as a nation are only commencing to realize the ideal of social security. The organization's man-

KEEP IN TOUCH

"I would feel much easier if I knew I could get in touch with you if ever I needed to," Edith M told her husband.

"I don't like to feel so far away from you either," he answered. "When I'm to be late, or if you are not well, it would save us both worry if we had a telephone of our ner of operation serves to promote a spirit of "harmony, friendship, and benevolence."

While philanthropic and Jewish endeavor along lines of religion and welfare are primary objects of many other like organizations, Touro Fraternal Association is outstanding in affording high-minded, wholesome, and affable social contacts for its members. We trust that this unique organization will continue to grow in membership and influence.

CONFERENCE TO PROMOTE PEACE

New England Regional Conference on the Cause and Cure of War to be held at Worcester, Mass., March 26 and 27.

It is worthy of note that two Jewish women have been invited to take prominent parts in the New England Regional Conference on the Cause and Cure of War to be held in Worcester, Mass., March 26 and 27. Mrs. Samuel Wachenheimer of Providence has been asked to participate in the model round table, while Mrs. Hyde Smith of Worcester is secretary of the conference.

Jewish women seem eminently fitted for work in the peace movement — possibly through long association with the Jewish ideal of peace. Israel's message has always been one of peace. Consequently it is fitting that the names of Mrs. Wachenheimer and Mrs. Smith be placed with other zealous leaders of the movement.

Dr. Mary E. Wooley, president of Mt. Holyoke College, is chairman of the New England Conference, while Miss Alice Hunt of Providence, is Rhode Island committee chairman.

Mrs. Wachenheimer is on the Rhode Island sponsoring committee, representing the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women. It is expected that a large delegation of Jewish women, among others, will attend the Worcester conference.

United States Senator Gerald P. Nye, who has been accorded world-wide recognition for his investigation of munitions control, will be a principal speaker at the meeting, choosing as his subject "The Control of Arms." As chairman of the Senate committee which has been investigating the sale and control of munitions for more than a year, Senator Nye has played a leading role in the unfolding of what has been called "an amazing story of international intrigue" in this industry, which is generally associated with national defense.

We shall await with interest, reports of the conference from our own Mrs. Wachenheimer and from Mrs. Smith of Worcester.

Open Letter to Zionist Members Urges Greater Effort in Sale of Roll Call Books to Community Here

Dear fellow Zionists:

Every lover of Palestine must have been deeply stirred and elated by the demonstration of sentiment for Palestine witnessed at the recent Washington Conference. At no time in the past has American Jewry so completely expressed its support for Palestine as it had through this historic gathering. Over a million Jews sent their delegates to Washington to show their sympathy for Palestine and their willingness to cooperate in the building of the Jewish National Home.

Never before was there a more opportune moment than now to crystallize this overwhelming sentiment for Palestine; to convert it into concrete form. And the most effective way of doing it is through registration in the Zionist Roll Call.

Ours is now the opportunity of bringing within the framework of the Zionist movement the tens of thousands of Jews who are eager to register their support of a Jewish Palestine. The masses of Jews will respond if only they are approached and all we ask is that you take upon yourself the task of enrolling at least ten Jews in your community.

We hope that you have begun to fill out the Roll Call books which were sent to you some time ago. We ask you to complete the registration of ten people and to report the results as speedily as possible. Many Zionists who have filled out one or more Roll Call books reported that they found it a comparatively easy task. You too can fill out at least one Roll Call book and we look to you to render this service to Palestine and the Zionist cause.

Please act without delay.

With Zion's Greetings

Sincerely yours,

Morris Margulies, Secretary

Sacrifices of Ancestors Made Possible Advantages Jews Enjoy Today, Declares Speaker at Temple Celebration

Three days of observances marking the 13th anniversary of the founding of Temple Beth-Israel were climaxed last Sunday night with a dinner and speaking program in the synagogue attended by more than 250 members of the congregation.

Rabbi Max D. Klein of Philadelphia, a former president of the Rabbinical Assembly of America, and former Mayor Joseph H. Gainer were the principal speakers. Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth-Israel; Morris Chusmir, president; Dr. Ilie Berger, chairman of the dinner committee, as well as many past and present officers and other prominent members of the congregation, told of the history and growth of the institution.

Dr. Berger was made an honorary president. He received a parchment resolution containing the tribute.

Warns Members

Rabbi Klein warned members of the congregation not to idolize their synagogue for its beauty of appearance and material outward aspects but to people it with Jews who will make it a living thing through their spirit and enthusiasm. He urged them to be true to Jewry, Judaism and the tenets of their religion.

He urged them to have a Jewish home, to have their children attend Jewish schools and to be true to Israel. He reminded them that their ancestors suffered and sacrificed for generations, and that it was because of these sacrifices that they have what they have today. He urged them to add to the merits of their fathers by contributing to the progress of Judaism and Jewry.

"Be an open door through which religion flows, not a wall against which it will strike and stop," he advised. Referring to the synagogue, he said, it must be a living institution or it is wasted. "You men and women must equip it," he declared, not with furniture but with your spirit and enthusiasm.

Mr. Gainer praised the spirit and efforts of those responsible for the growth of the institution.

Mr. Sass Announces Opening of New Wine Shop in Pawtucket

Of considerable interest to those who appreciate the finest in liquors of all types, is the announcement by Benjamin I. Sass of the opening of the Lesda Wine Company, conveniently located at 45 East Avenue, next to the Strand Theatre in Pawtucket.

This newest and most up-to-date of Pawtucket's wine and liquor shops carries a full line of the most choice brands, including Seagram's, National Distilleries, Schenleys and Frankford Distilling products. A large assortment of imported and domestic cordials and wines, as well as a varied selection of beers and ginger ales are also stocked. Here may also be obtained the products of Rieshon El Zion Agency as well as Pesach Tickvo Wine Company. The store is open until 11 p. m., and free deliveries may be had by dialing Perry 0992.

Mr. Sass, who is associated in his new enterprise with his son, is well-known in Pawtucket where he is prominently identified with communal affairs. He is a charter member and one of the founders of Touro Fraternal Association, and an organizer of What Cheer Lodge, K. of P., and of the I. O. B. S., the first Jewish young men's lodge in Providence. He is a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, and was formerly chairman of the Religious Schools of the Temple. As a note of interest, Mr. Sass chose the name "Lesda" because it combined letters of the names of his children, which it is expected will prove a lucky omen.

RADIO STAR

JOSEPH BULLOFF

Joseph Buloff, director and star of New York's famed Yiddish Art Theatre, will present "Zabati Zevi," a historical drama based on the famous false Messiah, as his initial broadcast on the Jewish Theatre of the Air program which will be heard this Sunday at 12.45 p. m. (E. S. T.) and weekly thereafter, over the national network of the American Broadcasting System. The program will be heard here over Station WPRO, Providence outlet of the network. The broadcast this Sunday, will make radio history as the first Jewish dramatic program ever sent over the air waves on a national network.

Council Group Plans Performance in April

An attractive tea brought to a close last Friday the series of classes in public speaking and dramatics for members of Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, under the direction of Mrs. Pearl W. Selverston. Before adjourning for tea, Mrs. Selverston spoke on "Gestures in Speaking" and summarized her previous lectures.

The tea table was charmingly decorated with a centerpiece of orchid sweet peas and yellow daffodils, flanked by greenery and yellow candles. Mrs. Albert Shore poured. Hostesses for the afternoon included: Mesdames Fred Markoff, E. Gardner Jacobs, Everett Cowen, William Hyman and Albert Shore.

As token of appreciation for her interesting and informative course, Mrs. Selverstone was presented a gift. Rehearsals for two plays which members of the group will present in April, are well under way.

TO PRESENT PURIM PLAY

A nine-scene "musical-comedy farce," interpreting the story of the Purim festival, will be presented by children of the Ahavath Sholom Talmud Torah at the synagogue on March 17.

The play was written especially for the occasion by members of the teaching staff. Snogs and gaiety typical of Purim will find expression in the production which is already creating much interest.

Beauty

Always famous for important operating advantages . . . permanent silence, absence of moving parts that wear, low operating and upkeep cost . . . the GAS Refrigerator has now been virtually transformed in appearance . . . made the best looking of them all.

Juries of women contributed to this matchless new beauty by careful study of many models. They passed judgment on preliminary cabinets. They suggested improvements in one design after another.

These hundreds of women finally selected from a group of seven handsome refrigerators the one graceful model that is now offered YOU as the new GAS Refrigerator for 1935.

It is the deliberate judgment of these women that the GAS Refrigerator . . . long famous for its silence, simplicity and economy . . . is now easily the best looking of all refrigerators.

While designers and hundreds of women were making possible this new step ahead in Beauty, improvements were sought, more worthwhile conveniences perfected, to make the new GAS Refrigerator even more practical and convenient. It now freezes even faster than before. Capacity has been increased. New and useful equipment has been added.

Over 2,000 families in this community now enjoy the comfort, convenience and economy of GAS Refrigeration. Such enthusiastic acceptance justifies our sincere conviction that it provides the UTMOST in automatic refrigeration.

See the new models on our display floor . . . or at your favorite dealers . . . and we are certain you will agree that the new GAS Refrigerator is now another step ahead . . . this time in Beauty.

Around The Town

With JOSEPH M. FINKLE

Since this column was last written, we have seen the passing from this life of two of our young people — Jonas Sallet and Sadie Hanzel. Jonas Sallet was 36 years of age and Sadie Hanzel was in her 25th year. Both had been ill but a few weeks and their deaths are a great shock to our community.

Jonas Sallet was a gentleman in all that term implies. His was the sweet soul of a lovable young boy. An attorney by profession he was a credit to the bar and to his people. Stricken but a few weeks ago, his weakened resistance failed to conquer the inroads of an infection. We shall always remember Jonas Sallet, his witty chuckle and philosophic views on life. May his wife and family be consoled with the thought that their love for him was shared by everyone that knew him. May his memory be forever a blessing.

Sadie Hanzel, a year ago this month was elected by popular vote Queen Esther of the Purim Masquerade which is an important annual event of the Jewish Community Center. She was one of the most active workers of the Center and through her efforts many men and women have become members of this worthy institution. During the membership campaign of a year ago she alone was credited with securing nearly 30 percent of all the new members.

Sadie Hanzel had the biggest heart in the world and I know instance and instance where unbeknown except to a few personal friends she had gone on her missions of mercy and charity. She was always ready to help others. Stricken a few weeks ago with appendicitis, she failed to rally after an emergency operation. May her grief-stricken family find consolation that her brief years of life were always filled with thoughts of her fellowmen and women. May her memory be forever a blessing.

The passing of Jonas Sallet and Sadie Hanzel in the Springtime of their lives is a distinct and great loss to our people and community. We bow to the inevitable will of a higher being.

Temple Beth-Israel has come and gone — it was a noteworthy and fine program of events and to the hard-working committee the community offers its congratulations. We offer our humble opinion that the single event of the three-day program which appealed to us most was the Sisterhood service on Saturday morning, conducted by Mrs. Jeanette E. Shoham, Mrs. Joseph Schlossberg, Mrs. Joshua Bell, and Henrietta D. Goldstein.

Mrs. Shoham read the Torah so very well and why not — is not her better half, Merris Shoham, one of the best Hebrew instructors of our fair city? Mrs. Joe Schlossberg, wife of our well-known cantor, business man and councilman also was a fine reader of the Torah. Mrs. Joshua Bell officiated as reader and we know well of her great interest in Jewish and Hebrew culture and if we remember correctly she and her daughter spent last year in Palestine in study. Her husband, Joshua Bell, well-known attorney has always been known for his higher Hebrew learning. Henrietta Goldstein contributed her usual fine vocal selections. This service conducted by women is indeed an inspiration to all of us.

CITY YOUTH ORGANIZES

There has been in the process of organization here for the past few weeks a group known as the Providence Junior Unit of the American Jewish Congress whose purposes are to defend Jewish rights and combat anti-Semitism. The organization was perfected on Sunday night with a meeting at the Biltmore Hotel attended by 10 or more of our young men and women. Louis Davis, a young attorney, was elected president with an executive committee of 20 to assist him.

The speaker of the evening was a dynamic young personality from New York, Emanuel H. Sonnenrich who is executive secretary of the Youth Division of the American Jewish Congress. His address was an illuminating one and those present as well as myself were profoundly startled by the disclosures which he presented of anti-Semitic activities in this country, and a portion of his remarks were in accordance with the thoughts of Gen. Hugh Johnson of last Monday night.

Groups such as the American Jewish Congress and B'nai Brith are needed in every Jewish Community in this country. Theirs are serious purposes vitally concerned with all of us — I am not an alarmist but I do believe that most of us are not aware of the influences and anti-Semitic propaganda which is flooding the country today.

Masada Students' League in Debates

Plans for two debates to be held in New York by the Masada Students' League will be discussed at the meeting next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the South Providence Hebrew Institute, 129 Chester Avenue. A general discussion on the Masada platform will be led by Milton Scribner.

Over 400 heard the debate on Feb. 28 before the Workingmen's Beneficial Association on: "Resolved, that Socialism is the Best Order for the Autonomous Jewish State." The affirmative side comprising Frank Licht, Arthur Hoffman and Harold Tregor, was awarded the decision by Joshua Bell, Alter Boyman and Henry Salk, judges. Irving Ballou, Paul Cohen and David Hassenfeld argued the negative side.

(2) Charles C. Brown, business man, president for many terms of Temple Beth-El which he is leading with distinction, brother-in-law of Max L. Grant, an active force in our communal life.

(3) Charles Brown, head of the R. I. Malleable Iron Works and better known as President and head of our Narragansett Hotel — both he and Charles C. ## TOURO FRATERNAL ASS'N TO HONOR MEMORY OF FOUNDER

By GERTRUDE M. WOLFENSON

The Touro Fraternal Association will conduct its annual memorial services in memory of its founder, the late Hon. Jacob A. Eaton, Wednesday evening, in the quarters at 88 Mathewson Street. Dr. William L. Harris, member of the State Board of Health from 1912 to 1918, and one of Mr. Eaton's closest friends, will be speaker of the evening. Dr. Harris who was among the foremost surgeons of Providence while he resided here, now makes his home in Milford, Mass.

The Touro Fraternal Association, which now functions as striking evidence of the foresight of Jacob A. Eaton, was organized March 10, 1918, under a charter granted by the State of Rhode Island Legislature. Mr. Eaton, who passed away March 20, 1921, left the organization while it was still in its infancy, but he had endowed it with such qualities as have brought it to sturdy manhood. The Association has successfully weathered trying years because of the loyalty of friends of "Jake Eaton," as he was known, who have been charged with its administration.

An Inspiring Influence

Members of the association revere his memory, which remains an inspiring influence, for Mr. Eaton possessed the happy combination of a good heart, a good conscience and a good brain. He was a politician in the finest sense of the term. He came to the State House unknown, and with nothing but his own district behind him, but the service which he rendered the public extended far beyond the confines of that district. For once elected, he considered himself the representative of all the people, and extended aid in every direction of the state without regard to race or party lines.

Once again, on March 13, "Touro" will hold its annual meeting to pay tribute to Jacob A. Eaton. Last year, Mrs. Caesar Misch delivered the principal address in honor of the founder of this association, the purposes of which are "to enable its members to unite in mutual aid and to promote beneficial projects, including the payment of sick benefits, and for social, literary, and charitable purposes, and to issue certificates to and to pay mortuary benefits to its members."

Pioneer in Providence Field

Before the inception of the Touro Fraternal Association, no Jewish beneficial association that was on a sound basis, existed locally. While there had been local branches of national organizations, they had not the proper insurance foundation. Consequently there was no real protection, and they went out of business in the course of time. The first thing Mr. Eaton did was to place the ouro on a sound financial basis by putting it under the direct supervision of the State Insurance Department, conforming to the national fraternal congress table of rates, and examined by the state annually. It is the only Jewish organization of its kind in the state, under state supervision.

At the last examination by the state, the organization was shown to be 116.47 percent solvent, which is a very high percentage, comparing favorably with that of the largest and best managed organizations. The state requires but 105 percent solvency. And since it is a local society, the "Touro" harbors no higher bodies or branches to which it must pay tribute. The secretary is the only paid officer, and so the overhead is comparatively low. The charter is broad enough, however, for the local organization to form branches throughout the country, should it see fit to do so.

Comprises Membership of 700

The Touro Fraternal Association comprises a membership of some 700 at present. It embraces leaders of the Jewish community in every walk of life. Ninety percent of the professional men of the state are included in its membership. Rates vary according to the ages of members. Men between 18 and 45 are eligible. The death payment is $500; sick benefits are $6 a week, covering a period of 15 weeks. Regular meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesday evenings of the month at the Mathewson Street quarters. Directors meet the first and third Wednesday evenings.

The "Touro" does not compete with other Jewish organizations, since it is not a fund-raising organization. Neither does it conflict in dates with other social functions.

During the presidency of David C. Adelman, from 1930 to 1932, a membership campaign which he instituted raised the membership from 506 to 707. Mr. Adelman was followed in the presidential chair by Joseph Smith, 1932-33, and then in 1934 when Mr. Adelman was again elected president, he initiated the practice of inviting the ladies to participate in the social affairs of the organization. Some eight or nine gatherings of a social nature are now held annually, including dances, teas, bridge parties, seasonal parties, and the like. There is also an annual summer outing at Weinstein's Lake Pearl Manor, in Wrentham, Mass. Also annual smokers and buffet suppers for the men. On March 20 the association will hold its 18th annual dinner-dance in the Narragansett Hotel ballroom.

Social Contacts Invaluable

And so the dues which members pay for sound life insurance at the lowest rate obtainable with safety, permit them, further, to receive entertainment and sociability, intangibles of priceless value, at no additional dollars and cents cost. Prominent speakers address the membership from time to time.

The Touro Fraternal Association's present quarters at 88 Mathewson Street, into which they moved in September, 1933, contain a main hall, spacious lounge, directors' room, secretary's office, coat room and kitchen.

Serving with Samson Nathanson, this year's president, are the following officers: Vice president, Saul E. Faber; secretary, Harry Horowitz; treasurer, Benjamin D. Basok; chaplain, Jacob Temkin; faithful guide, Edward I. Friedman; inside guard, Maurice W. Hendel; marshal, George Basok, and warden, Abraham Goldstein.

Bromson Heads Board

Throughout the 18 years' existence of the Touro organization there have been but three chairmen of the board of directors — first, Jacob A. Eaton, followed by Philip C. Joslin, and Sol S. Bromson. The present board headed by Mr. Bromson includes: Philip C. Joslin, Charles Brown, Carl Goldblatt, Maurice Robinson, Samson Nathanson, Max Ginsburg, Joseph Smith, Ilie Berger, Macs Kritz, Edward E. Markoff, Max Sugarman, Samuel C. Ress, Albert C. Berger and David C. Adelman.

Miss Sadie Hanzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hanzel, 195 Oakland Avenue, died last Monday following a brief illness after an operation at the Jane Brown Hospital. Burial was the following day at Lincoln Park cemetery. Rabbis Abraham Schechter and E. J. Levinson officiated at the funeral services.

Youth Conference at Boston Sunday

Approximately 50 young people of Providence will attend the second annual Jewish Youth Conference, under the auspices of the New England Federation of Sisterhoods and the North East Religious Union of American Hebrew Congregations, next Sunday at Temple Israel Meeting House, Boston. The aim of the conference is to examine frankly peculiar problems confronting Jewish youth, and to appraise critically the various solutions that are being suggested.

Locally, the Youth Forum, with a membership of some 85 young people, meets bi-weekly on Sunday evenings at Temple Beth-El, under the guidance of Rabbi William G. Braude and Mordecai Soloff, educational director of the Temple. Norman Zalkind, a senior at Brown University, is president of the Forum. Other officers include: Vice president, Jack C. Anholt, Jr.; secretary, Zeldia Hoddosh, and treasurer, Milton Scribner. Prominent speakers address the membership from time to time, while a number of the programs are effected by the members, themselves.

Members of this Youth Forum and other groups will comprise the delegation attending the Boston conference on Sunday. Mrs. Samuel Markoff, head of Temple Beth-El Sisterhood student activities, is in charge of reservations, with Mrs. J. George Nathanson, Sisterhood president and its membership, sponsoring the movement. Last year 30 attended a similar conference in Boston.

The following round table discussion groups will confer: Jewish Youth and Organized Religion, leader, Rabbi Beryl D. Cohon, Temple Israel. Jewish Youth and the Problem of Anti-Semitism, leader, Reuben L. Laurie, author of "The Challenge of the Forum." Jewish Youth and Vocational Problems. (a) In Business, leader, Daniel Bloomfield, manager of Retail Trade Board. (b) In the Professions, leader, Norbert Wiener, professor, Dept. of Mathematics, M. I. T. Jewish Youth and Conflicting Political Philosophies: Communism, Fascism, Democracy. Leader, Henry T. Schnittkind, Ph. D., author of "The Story of the Human Race."

Following supper, the subject of the evening's address will be "The Synagogue and the Economic Order," by Lewis Fox, of Hartford, Conn. Samuel B. Finkel, president of the National Federation of Temple Brotherhoods, will preside at the evening session.

SPONSOR KIDDY PARTY

Misses Lillian and Grace Schwartz will be in charge of the Kiddy Party to be sponsored by the Alpha Sigma Pi.

JEWISH CENTER BROADCASTS

The annual Purim program by the children of the Jewish Center Religious School will be held Sunday afternoon, March 17 for the children and in the evening for the parents. A beautiful program is being prepared.

The Jewish Young Men's Association is planning a Variety Night for Tuesday evening, April 9, which promises to be an interesting event.

The Jewish Center Parents Association held a Bingo party Monday evening. The proceeds will apply to send a scout to a Jamboree in Washington.

The Providence Council of Jewish Social Workers met at the Center last Monday evening. Jacob S. Temkin discussed "Old Age Insurance."

"What is an Educated Person?" is the subject chosen for an address by Dr. Everett Dean Martin for Sunday evening, March 31. Watch further announcements for the appearance of one of America's greatest orators. His message has been heard by thousands throughout the country.

"The Pirates of Penzance," Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, is the production to be given by the Jewish Community Center Players Tuesday evening, May 14.

Miss Evelyn Simon deserves a great deal of praise for the success of the Bridge and Bingo party which was held last Wednesday night.

Executive director, Jacob I. Cohen is expected soon to return to his desk. Although Mr. Cohen has been very active in conducting Center activities, even though he was handicapped, nevertheless he is anxious to return to his normal duties.

More than $100 has been realized as the result of Mrs. David E. Feldman's efforts as chairman of the annual bridge sponsored by the Women's committee of the Center.

Center on the Radio

In connection with Purim the Jewish Community Center will broadcast a program with its own talent from station WJAR Sunday morning, March 17 from 10:45 to 11:15. The J. C. C. Concert orchestra composed of 25 youthful musicians under the direction of Benjamin Premack and the Jewish Center Choral Society with Professor Arthur Einstein as leader, will appear on the program.

Loan Association to Observe Anniversary

In commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the organization, the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association at its meeting last Monday decided to hold the 31st annual meeting on Sunday, March 31.

Members of the 30th anniversary report committee are as follows: Jacob S. Rabinowitz, chairman; L. M. Diwinsky, A. Zeller Mayer, Elisha Scoliard, Samuel Altman, Louis Shanbrun, Samuel Wintman, Sam Adler, Simon Silverman, Harry Tanenbaum, H. Broitman, Edmund Wexler, Harry Leach, A. Botvin, Joseph Sharp, Louis Hayman Simon Newman, Jacob Hazman and J. Rosenberg.

The association was organized on March 5, 1905 with a small group of men whose temporary chairman was Simon Wolk. Prior to that time members of South Providence had been contributing to the Free Loan Association of Providence, but due to the increase of the population in the district members felt that they should organize their own Gemilath Chesed Association. This was done at the first meeting and the following officers were elected;

Louis M. Grant, president; Abraham Zeller Mayer, vice-president; Sigmund Rosen, treasurer; Barney Bander, recording secretary and Milton Elman, financial secretary.

After the election a loan was floated and an appeal made to the members resulted in the collection of $825. The members who made the first loan to the association are as follows:

Aaron Weitman, Sam Silverman, Abraham Zeller Mayer, Nathan Wiesel, Sigmund Rosen, Barney Bander, Louis M. Grant, Nathan Shapiro, I. Weinbaum, A. Bazar, Harry Suzzman, Louis Goldenberg, Nathan Horowitz, Aaron Kaufman, Charles Silverman, J. Kaufman, Charles Sigal and Mrs. Sarah Zaluck.

The present officers of the association are: Louis Diwinsky, president; Benjamin Reitman, vice-president and Sam Newman, financial secretary.

Workers for Palestine in Conference, Mar. 24

A meeting of the National Labor Committee for Palestine was held Feb. 27 at the Jewish Community Center and plans were made for the 12th annual conference Sunday, March 24, at 2.30 o'clock, in the Strand building.

Isaac Hamlin, national secretary of the committee, will speak. Arrangements will be made at the conference for the third annual Seder, to be held Sunday evening, April 21, with Zolman Rubashow, representative of the Jewish Federation of Labor of Palestine, as a speaker.

The committee arranging the conference includes Alter Boyman, chairman, Henry Burt, Arthur Korman, David Newman, Solomon Lightman, Morris Beever, Joseph Biller, Isador Resnick, Dr. K. Phillips, Harry Chait, Max Berman, David Belilove and Henry Halpern.
