Conference Elects Providence Men

Jewish Communal Agencies Meet

Four Providence residents were elected members of the Executive Committee of the Regional Conference at the N. E. Conference of Jewish Communal Agencies at a meeting held at the Hotel Kimball, Springfield, Mass. They are Dr. Banice Feinberg, Walter Sundlun, Milton Sapinsky and Jacob Temkin.

The Conference program varied from the usual reading of papers and discussions. This year the delegates participated in the examination of a real community. For this purpose the Hartford Jewish Community was thrown under the X-ray affording objective critical analysis for all those concerned with social processes aiming toward a healthful and rich life in their respective communities.

Providence delegates attending the meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stollerman, Isaac Feinstein, J. I. Cohen, Miss Jessie Josolowitz, Mrs. Ruth Mirsky, Miss Esther Kulden, Dr. Banice Feinberg, Jack Temkin, Miss Rose Presel and Mrs. Esther Pritsker.

Now Nazis Get Snub From Miss Dietrich

HOLLYWOOD — Paramount Studio, informed of a Nazi blast against Marlene Dietrich for seeking American citizenship, said that Miss Dietrich plans to pass up Germany during her current European tour.

The blonde German star took the oath of allegiance to the United States last March as the first step toward citizenship. The action at the time was regarded as a snub to Hitler, because she disregarded orders to return to Germany.

Miss Dietrich was accused of "betraying the fatherland" by the news weekly of Julius Streicher, Nazi leader. She is now traveling in Italy.

APPOINTED MAYOR

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Daniel Auster, Jewish vice mayor of Jerusalem, has been designated acting mayor until a permanent chief executive is appointed by the Palestine Government, it was announced here.

Polish Jew Executed in Manchukuo as Soviet Spy

Harbin, Manchukuo (WNS)—Great excitement has been created in the Jewish community here by the announcement of the Japanese-controlled Manchukuo police that Jacob W. Hammer, a 33-year-old Polish-Jewish merchant, has been executed on charges of spying for Soviet Russia.

The execution took place after a secret court martial and Hammer was buried in the Chinese cemetery.

Jewish authorities obtained permission to exhume the body and then re-interred it with full Jewish ritual. A physician who examined the corpse said it showed signs of torture and starvation. A merchant by occupation, Hammer had lived here since 1930.

To Talk at Center

RABBI A. A. LASKER

"Jewish Youth Faces Tomorrow" will be the subject of an address to be delivered by Rabbi Arnold A. Lasker of Waltham, Mass., at the first fall meeting of the local Young Women's Hebrew Association on October 20 at the Community Center. Rabbi Lasker is the executive director of the Jewish Community Center in Waltham.

Miss Miriam Silverman is program chairman. Miss Ethel Levene, president of the organization, will preside.

Women Aid Polish Appeal Campaign

Meeting Held at Mrs. Low's Home

Much enthusiasm and cooperation was shown by the Women's Committee of the American Committee Appeal for the Jews in Poland, at a meeting held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Isador Low.

Mrs. Max A. Cohen, president of the Rhode Island Women's League stressed the great need for support of the campaign, and stated that all member organizations of the League are behind the project. Cards for prospective contributors were distributed among those present. It was announced at the meeting that nearly one half of the goal has been realized.

The funds collected during this campaign are sent to Poland, distributed by a committee comprised of outstanding leaders of Polish Jewry, and used for constructive aid to artisans, financial assistance to small merchants, training for young people preparing to emigrate to Palestine, help for Jewish professionals and relief for victims of programs.

Jascha Heifetz Succumbs To Lure of Silver Screen

Jascha Heifetz, who has turned movie actor after twelve years of resisting the courtship of Hollywood, declares that figures had a great deal to do with his acceptance of a Samuel Goldwyn contract. And he doesn't mean the figures connected with a pretty slick stipend either!

The millions he talks about are people—music lovers.

Large Audience

"On a concert tour," he says, "I may play to half a million people. A radio broadcast sometimes reaches fifty millions. But a fine motion picture frequently has an audience of four hundred millions."

The virtuoso will make his screen debut in "The Great Music Festival," which will go before the color cameras early next spring. Although the story has not yet been written, he has been assured that he'll just play himself.

Not Much of An Actor

"Hollywood stars can rest easy".

JASCHA HEIFETZ

Heifetz promises them. "They'll get no competition from me. I expect to concentrate on my fiddle, and I know Mr. Goldwyn doesn't plan to make an actor of me. It was his persuasiveness, incidentally, that was the chief factor in my decision to appear in the film. He promised that I might play what I chose and how I chose, and that, in addition, I was to have complete supervision of my music throughout the production. You can't say 'No to an offer like that, can you?'"

The youthful maestro notes that an amazing change in popular musical tastes has taken place during the last three years.

Hospital Announces Gift of $2,000

Miriam Hospital announced today a gift of $2000 to the trust fund by Mrs. Isaac Woolf.

A new isolation room has been constructed on the second floor of the Hospital which contains the following tablet:

This room is dedicated in loving memory of ISAAC WOOLF died March 18, 1937 by his wife and children

Mufti Defiant; Insists He Still Holds Office

Club Speaker

RABBI Wm. BRAUDE

"A Rabbi Views the Work of the Women Pioneers" will be Rabbi William Braude's topic next Tuesday afternoon when he addresses the Women Pioneers at their regular meeting to be held in Arcadia Hall. The meeting is scheduled for 2 o'clock. Mrs. Alter Boyman will preside.

Hear England May Rid Self of Aliens

London (WNS)—Organizations interested in the welfare of German Jewish refugees living in England are gravely disturbed by growing reports that the British Government is considering measures looking to the deportation of 100,000 aliens.

The recent clashes between Fascists and anti-Fascists are being blamed on alien elements and the feeling is that deportation of foreigners would rid the country of aliens and alien disputes.

Only such aliens as would be in danger of death or imprisonment if returned to their native lands will be exempt from the proposed deportation plan, it is said.

PALESTINE EARTHQUAKE

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Slight earthquake tremors were felt in various parts of Palestine on October 12th.

Now Rules From Barricaded Office

Controls Church Property, Funds

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Haj Amin El Husseini, Mufti of Jerusalem and deposed president of the Moslem Supreme Council, has defied the Palestine Government, insisting that he still holds office, according to a report in the Syrian press.

The Mufti, who is still barricaded in the offices of the Council in the Mosque area, is said to have addressed a memorandum to the government in which he declines to acknowledge the validity of his deposition from the presidency of the Council.

The Mufti, the report continues, declared that he will continue to administer the affairs of the Supreme Moslem Council as well as of the Waqf.

The latter is the foundation controlling church property and funds, which was said to be the chief source of the Mufti's power.

A survey of the action taken by the Palestine Government in the past ten days to combat terrorism and agitation revealed that there are now 380 Arabs detained at the Acre concentration camp and jail.

Head of Roumanian Iron Guard, Dies

Bucharest (WNS) — General George Cantacuzinu, who won the title of Roumania's number three anti-Semite because of his military leadership of the now outlawed anti-Semitic Iron Guard, died here at the age of 68.

A veteran of the World War, Cantacuzinu helped Zelea Codreanu organize the Fascist legion which has terrorized Roumanian Jewry for years.

He was implicated in the Iron Guard assassination of Premier Ion Duca in 1933 but was acquitted.

He was also active in press attacks on Madame Lupescu.

Community Center Lists Sunday Evening Programs

Although the Sunday evening program at the Community center has not yet been completed, Samuel H. Workman, chairman, announced the following talent that has already been engaged. Sunday evening, December 19, Richard Halliburton; January 9, Center Players 3-act play January, 23, David Pinski; January 30, Mordecai Ezelkel; February 20, Reinhold Niebuhr, and March 13, Maurice Hindus.

MRS. MARTIN CURRAN

nival is as follows: Mrs. Martin Curran, chairman; Mrs. Benjamin Goldenberg and Harry Chernick, co-chairmen; Mrs. Charles Shoolman, secretary; Mrs. Samuel Brown, treasurer, and Julius Zucker, publicity.

The three-night affair will be held in the vestry of the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue, corner High and Jackson streets, Pawtucket.

Men's Club to Hear Dr. Joachim Wach

The first meeting of the current season will be held Wednesday, Oct. 20, in the vestry of Temple Beth-El. Bert L. Bernhardt, president, announces that Dr. Joachim Wach, celebrated professor from Leipzig University, will be the guest speaker.

Dr. Wach is a direct descendant of Moses Mendelssohn. At the present time he is a visiting professor at Brown University.

During the War Dr. Wach was an officer in the German Cavalry, having served in Lithuania and Poland. He has made a deep study of Eastern Asia conditions.

Bonds to Provide "American Region"

Exile Addresses Y. M. C. A. Group

Detroit (WNS)—Stirred by a transatlantic radio address by Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the Jewish Agency, over 600 delegates from 40 states, attending the 5th annual conference of the Jewish National Fund of America unanimously voted to adopt a $2,000,000 quota as American Jewry's contribution for 1937-38 to the Zionist land-buying agency and also provided for a special emergency fund of $250,000 to be raised before January 1, 1938 for the acquisition of the "American region" in the Upper Galilee region of Palestine.

This sum, toward which $125,000 was pledged by various delegations, is to be raised by the sale of J. N. F. certificates to be called Huleh gift bonds in acknowledgement of contributions ranging from $3.50 to $18 or more.

These bonds, which will yield no return in money to the donor, "will, it is hoped, be taken up by all Zionists and friends of Jewish Palestine as tokens of participation in the development of a new frontier in the northern part of Israel's historic home land, with which the name of American Jewry will be indelibly linked," the conference declared.

In his radio address, which he made from his home in London, Dr. Weizmann said that "the good earth" is the key to the future of Jewish development in Palestine.

He pointed out that tens of thousands of chalutzim in Eastern and Central European countries are awaiting colonization in Palestine and added that the Jewish Agency's demand for immigration certificates must bear a relationship to the amount of land available for settlement.

JEWS EXPELLED

Buenos Aires (WNS)—An appeal from the Jews of Paraguay to American Jewry to protest against the expulsion from the country of a number of prominent Jews and the arrest of many others was received here from Asuncion.

Convention Speaker

SMEDLEY BUTLER

General Smedley Butler, who President Roosevelt once called "The ideal American soldier," will be the speaker at the opening meeting of the Temple Emanuel Men's Club on Thursday evening, October 21.

General Butler has served for many years as head of the U. S. Marines in China and Japan. In view of the present unrest in the Far East, General Butler will devote part of his address to that sore spot in the world.

J. C. R. S. Plan Dutch Supper

The Rhode Island Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jewish Consumptives' Relief Society of Denver, Colo., will hold a Dutch supper and bridge at Touro Hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Martin Bernstein, chairman of the affair, is assisted by Mrs. Morris Ratush and Mrs. Harry Uloff as co-chairmen, and the following committee: Mesdames Joseph Kominsky, Frank Abrams, William Abrams, William Amber, Charles Blackman, Max Fradin, Zelig Gorden, Irving Gorden, Jack Godfrey, Louis Rosenblatt, Ben Poulten, Michael Cohen, Louis Yarlis, Louis Dress, I. Silverman, N. Cohen, I. Avrutsky, Gabriel Salk, H. Gilbert and M. Russian.

Attractive bridge prizes will be awarded at each table. Another feature of the evening will be a drawing for door prizes. Proceeds of the supper and bridge will be sent to Denver, where the Relief Society maintains its sanitarium.

Brown Squad Ready For Dartmouth Game

Indications point to a Brown squad for the Dartmouth game that will be stronger than at any previous time this season. While it is not certain that the several injured men will be in top condition by Saturday, the probability exists that most of the men who missed the Harvard game will be ready for extended service.

Coach McLaughry ordered light work all week, and the varsity backs did no scrimmaging.

The freshman team ran Dartmouth plays yesterday against the varsity line, but the varsity backs simply held their position and made no contact with ball carriers, pass receivers and blockers.

McLaughry intends to conserve all of his resources for the Saturday game.

RABBIS' SON KILLED

Columbus, Ohio (WNS)—Rabbi and Mrs. Lee J. Levinger of this city have been advised that their son, Samuel, 20 years old, was killed in Spain on September 6th while fighting with the Abraham Lincoln Battalion of the Loyalist forces.

Young Levinger fell during the capture of a village on the Aragon front.

He had been in the front ranks for eight months.

Little Girl Finds Answer To "What's in a Name?"

Wilno, (by mail).—She lost her father in Lithuania, and her mother in Poland, but there was a grandmother living in Great Britain who was anxious to take care of her, provided she could secure her entry to the United Kingdom.

Life of Tragedies

The barbed wire of technicalities barred her way to survival and possible happiness. Only nine years old, Sarah'le Bauer had already crowded into her life a series of tragedies which are so frequently the background of Jewish life in Eastern Europe.

Her father was a citizen of Lithuania; her mother a citizen of Poland. When father died, mother returned illegally to Wilno, her birthplace. The child was registered under the mother's maiden name. Soon afterwards, mother died, and Sarah'le was taken into the orphan asylum. Her grandmother, father's mother, appealed to the Jews' Temporary Shelter in London, an organization cooperating with the HIAS-

ICA, to obtain an immigration permit for the orphan. But the permit was granted under the father's family name.

Confusion reigned supreme in the British Consul General's office in Warsaw. The permit of the Home Office calls for the issuance of a visa to a child whose name is different than the one applying for it. The whole tragic story had to be gone into—papers and affidavits drawn and verified. The Polish branch of the HIAS-ICA emigration service, attended to the maze of technical details, and the child was finally permitted to join her grandmother in London.

To Protest Polish Pogroms by March

Forgotten Jews

Dramatic, tragic occurrences evoke, usually, immediate sympathetic response from a horrified public. Like Jason's soldiers, organizations are formed everywhere to aid the unfortunate victims. Yet, every day, throughout the country, there are countless individual cases much more tragic, but less dramatic, that require help. But poverty and misery, are too commonplace to fire public indignation.

This state of blow-hot-and-cold-co-operation is applicable to the German and Polish situations. Coming as it did, with startling suddenness, and magnified by anti-Nazi propaganda, Hitler's persecution of 500,000 Jews in Germany brought countless Jewish movements to aid their unfortunate brethren.

In the meanwhile, Poland with its three million Jews, most of whom are living in squalor and misery, have been forgotten. Victims of daily pogroms, unable to earn a living because of restrictions they live like beasts of burden.

Nearly two-thirds of the Jews in Poland live on a standard below the subsistent level. Hundreds of thousands exist on between two and four dollars a month. Children lead rickety, ghostly lives, their minds diseased by their surroundings.

These are the conditions that the American Committee Appeal for Jews in Poland is trying to correct. Your contribution, no matter how small, will enable them to alleviate the horrible position of the Jew in Poland.

Nothing to Lose

"Every person of Polish birth or Polish descent living in the United States should give his full loyalty and cooperation to the American government," said Count Jerzy Potachy, the Polish ambassador this week in his address before the Central Pulaski Memorial Committee.

This noble thought of the Polish ambassador by other European statesmen, urging former nationals of all their countries to give the allegiance to the mother country, have received wide approval.

This noble thought of the Polish ambassador does not take into consideration that Poland has no imperialistic aims. While it is one of those countries who have "have not" it is mainly concerned with existing in war-torn Europe, rather than expanding.

The Polish ambassador, therefore can afford to be magnanimous.

Progress

An official test was made in Chicago last week to determine which of the following vehicles was fastest in traffic: Taxicab, bicycle, elevated train, private motor car, horse, bus, street car, pedestrian.

The bicycle won.

Personals

Dimond-Bazar

An attractive fall wedding took place in the crystal ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel, last Sunday evening, when Miss Dora Ann Bazar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Dimond, with Rabbi David Werner officiating.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attractive in an ivory slipper satin gown fashioned with a yoke of Chantilly lace. Her long tulle veil was held in place with a halo of matching ivory satin, and she carried a prayer book with a marker of orchids. Miss Ann Dimond, sister of the bridegroom, attended as maid of honor. During the ceremony, Miss Evelyn Siegal sang "O Promise Me." Mr. Sholem Lipis of Newark, N. J., was best man.

Dr. and Mrs. Dimond will spend their wedding trip in Bermuda, and on their return take up residence on Colonial road.

Mrs. Portnoy Honored

Mrs. Max Stetson Portnoy was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given on October 5 at Zinn's banquet hall. The hostesses were Mesdames Harry Finberg, Bradford Portnoy and Samuel Levin of this city, and Miss Paula Portnoy of New Bedford. Dinner was served to 175 guests, followed by dancing. Guests were present from New Bedford, Fall River and this city.

Mrs. Portnoy is the former Miss Leonora Finberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finberg of this city. The wedding took place on September 19 at Temple Emanuel.

Abrams—Goldberg

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Abrams, who were married on October 3 at the Mayfair in North Smithfield, will take up residence at 156 Oakland avenue, upon their return from a wedding trip to New York and Philadelphia. Mrs. Abrams is the former Miss Anna Etta Goldberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goldberg of Pawtucket. Mr. Abrams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Abrams of this city.

Betrothal Announced

Mr. and Mrs. George Samdperil of 173 Morris avenue have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Natalie Samdperil, to Mr. Jack N. Queller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moe Queller of New York.

Springer—Goldsmith

The chapel of Temple Emanuel was the scene last Sunday afternoon of the marriage of Miss Miriam Goldsmith, daughter of Mrs. Albert Goldsmith of Blackstone boulevard, to Mr. Sydney Springer, son of Mrs. Henry Springer of Fall River. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rabbi Israel Goldman at 1 o'clock, a wedding dinner for members of the immediate family was served at the home of the bride's mother, where the rooms were decorated with white lilies and white pom pom chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goldsmith of Worcester, wore an ivory transparent velvet gown and a matching Juliet cap with a face veil. Her corsage was of white orchids. Miss Eunice Goldsmith was maid of honor for her sister, and Mr. David Silverstein of Fall River, uncle of the groom, was best man.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Springer will live at 387 High street, Fall River.

Entertain Lord Marley

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loeb Jacobs entertained last Thursday evening at a small dinner, given at the Biltmore Hotel for Lord Marley, distinguished British statesman and Deputy Speaker of the House of Lords of England. Following the dinner, Lord Marley and the dinner guests were taken to Stratton auditorium, on the campus of Bryant College, where Lord Marley lectured to the student body, alumni and the public on "The Danger of War."

Sweet Sixteen

A sweet sixteen birthday party was given in honor of Miss Elsie Koffler, by her mother, Mrs. Charles Koffler, on October 8 at the Port Arthur. Sixteen couples were in attendance.

A DIGEST OF LOCAL HAPPENINGS

By JACOB LEICHTER

THRU THE FOREIGN WIRE

The Nobel Prize Committee is preparing to take another dig at the Nazis . . . Having awarded the 1935 peace prize to KARL VON OSSIETZKY, a German pacifist then languishing in a Nazi concentration camp, the Committee is now considering giving the 1936 peace prize to COUNT RICHARD COUDENHOVE-KALERGI, the Austrian publicist, who has continued his father's fight against anti-Semitism . . . COUNT RICHARD, incidentally, is half-Japanese, the other half of him being an intricate mixture of German, Russian, Belgian, Norwegian, Polish and Greek blood . . . All negotiations between the DUKE OF WINDSOR and the British government regarding the ex-king's future plans were handled by LESLIE HORE-BELISHA, Britain's war minister, and the only member of the British cabinet still on friendly terms with the DUKE.

HITLER'S SHADOW

Berlin is whispering that the man whom the Nazis often cheer in the belief that he is HITLER is really one of the FUEHRER'S three doubles . . . It seems that ADOLF is so scared of big crowds—and can you blame him?—that he has retained the services of three stooges who are his twins in countenance, bearing, gesture and voice . . . They are FREDERICK LEISENBUCH, an actor, ANTON SCHMALZE, a mechanic, and WOLF GERBER, a machinist . . . But to prevent any attempt at usurpation of the Fuehrer's position, all three have on their chests tattoo marks indicating that they are only sham HITLERS . . .

Expose Vast Nazi Scheme Which Sabotages Boycott

New York (WNS)—The Furriers Union and the Joint Boycott Council are preparing to crack down on a number of leading American fur importers who are alleged to have entered into a complicated foreign exchange scheme which protects them from the direct charge of handling German merchandise, while at the same time, actually, they are engaged in what is said to be wholesale sabotage of the anti-Nazi boycott.

As explained by the Boycott Council, the set-up enables the American fur dealers to buy Roumanian furs through Leipzig, Germany, pay for them in American dollars through London banks, and thus, aid Germany's foreign exchange position.

The scheme works as follows: Germany buys the Roumanian furs, paying for them in marks credited to Roumania as a result of a barter deal calling for the export of large quantities of German-manufactured goods to Roumania.

These furs are offered to American dealers at substantial savings. American dollars offered in payment are forwarded from London to Germany.

Since Roumanian money has little value in the international exchange market, Germany gains materially by this exchange.

The evil that men do lives after them. The saxophone was made in 1846.

Community Campaign Budget Set at $670,448

Emphasizing that member organizations of the Community Fund have reduced their budget to the minimum, Richmond Viall, president of the Community Fund Campaign, and Milton C. Sapinsley, head of the Liason Committee, last Tuesday afternoon explained to sub-chairmen of the Special Prospects Committee, Division B, what the goal for this year, $670,448, represented for the forty-two welfare agencies.

BUDGETS CUT

Said Mr. Sapinsley, "The budgets allotted these agencies will be bare essentials, and do not include repairing of buildings long neglected, or raising of the wage scale for underpaid social workers, whose salaries were reduced during the years of depression. We are asking for a minimum, which makes it very important that the goal should be reached."

"While we raised $628,000 last year, actual money raised was only $600,000, which was less than the bare needs for the welfare agencies. This loss of revenue," Mr. Sapinsley continued, "resulted from deaths, bankruptcies, and pledges moving out of town. In order to realize our goal for this year, we must pledge more than $670,000, to allow for shrinkage."

Other speakers at the meeting included Henry G. Clark, general chairman of the campaign, and Harry Carey, executive director.

NEXT MEETING

The Jewish Liason committee will handle that bulk of Jewish donors, who can afford to contribute $25 or more. On Tuesday evening, October 19, at the Community Fund Headquarters, 100 North Main Street, the Liason Committee, with its chairman, sub-chairman and workers will meet to construct plans for the campaign. A moving picture,

"Know Thy Fellow Man," with the leading roles portrayed by Lowell Thomas and Ethel Barrymore, will be shown.

DIVISION CHAIRMEN

Chairmen of the various divisions are as follows: Abraham Blackman, accountant division;

ARTHUR LEVY

Philip Glanzman, bottling division; Doctors A. Budner Lewis, Ilie Berger and M. L. Biderman, dentist division; Samuel Soforenko, finance division; Herman Swartz, food and grocery; Isador S. Low, hardware and paint; Herman Bennett and Herman Baker, automobile; Louis Hurwitz, construction and glass; Doctors Louis I. Kramer and Nathan Bolotow, doctors division; Aaron Cohen and Samuel Resnick, florists; Sidney Kane and Reuben Lipson, furniture; Harry Meyers, Irwin Forgstein and Moses Mickler, ladies' ready-to-wear; Benjamin Brier, Alex Weiner, Jules P. Goldstein, Adolf Meller, and Charles Silverman, jewelry; Adolf Meller, special cards; Milton C. Sapinsley, Archibald Silverman, Walter I. Sundlun, Max L. Grant, James Goldman, and Judah C. ## Ladies' Free Loan Plan Dance & Review

A committee meeting of the Ladies' Hebrew Free Loan Association was held recently at the home of Mrs. D. Rabinowitz, at which time plans were formulated for a dance and review, to be given by the group at the Plantations Club on December 14. Final plans will be announced at a later date.

OBITUARY

MRS. SARAH LISKER

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Lisker, 89-year-old matriarch of the Jewish colony of Providence, was held last Monday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mason White, 128 Fifth street, followed by burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery. Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth Israel, officiated.

Mrs. Lisker died last Sunday at her daughter's home. She was born in Russia, but came to Providence 45 years ago. For nearly half a century she had devoted herself to charitable enterprises, having been active in the affairs of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Jewish Orphanage and the Ladies' Union Alliance.

Surviving her are one son, John Lisker, five daughters, Mrs. Harris Lisker, Mrs. Joseph Cohen, Mrs. White, Mrs. Morris Blackman and Mrs. Berry, all of this city, 29 grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Coming to U. S.

LEON BLUM

Paris (WNS)—American Jewry will shortly have an opportunity to see at first hand one of the greatest figures of contemporary Europe, for Leon Blum, former Premier of France, is planning to come to Washington to confer with President Roosevelt about the war debts and France—American relations. No date has been set for his departure but he is expected to leave within the next six weeks.

Season Opened by Judaeans at Rally

The Rhode Island Council of Young Judaea launched its activities for the current season last Sunday afternoon with a rally at Temple Beth Israel. Approximately 200 girls and boys, who comprise the Young Judaea club membership, were in attendance.

Samuel Kessler, supervisor, was in charge of the program, which included moving pictures, songs and entertainment. Assisting Mr. Kessler were Marshall Marcus, Herbert Ballon, Milton Scribner, Samuel Goldin, Martin Cohen, Morris Block and Harriet Winnerman.

The Leaders' Club was represented by Myrtle Abedon, Arlene Sass, Edith Fink and Bella Kooperman of Woonsocket. The moving pictures were shown through the courtesy of Samuel Samson.

No Jews in Prison Record Saves Jew

Santa Fe, New Mexico (WNS)—B. B. Friedberg, a Jew arrested here on a bad check charge, got off with a suspended sentence and a warning never to return to New Mexico again only because Judge Thomas J. Mabry knew that there is not a single Jew in prison in New Mexico and he didn't want to spoil the record.

"I dislike to spoil that record of a law-abiding element of our citizens by enforcing your suspended sentence," Judge Mabry said.

"I'll give you a break. If you are out of the state by sunrise the sentence will continue suspended. But don't come back if you want to stay out of prison."

Beth-Israel Religious High School Opens

The first session of the newly organized High School Department of the Religious School of Temple Beth Israel took place last Sunday morning, with Rabbi Schussheim in charge of the group.

Application for admission to this group may be made directly to the Rabbi. The class meets every Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

Fight Tyranny, Einstein Urges

Delegates Hear Weizmann by Radio

New York —Professor Albert Einstein, one of the many noted Jewish scholars exiled from Germany by Adolf Hitler, in a message to the Y. M. C. A. urged young men to fight tyranny.

"Nations that once ranked high, now bow down before tyrants who dare openly to assert 'Right is that which serves us!'" the scientist declared. "Arbitrary rule, oppression, persecution of individuals, faiths and communities are openly practiced in those countries and accented as justifiable or inevitable."

His message, sent in connection with the international celebration of the Y. M. C. A. Founders Day, added:

"Let us refuse to accept fateful compromise. Let us not even shun the fight when it is unavoidable to preserve right and the dignity of man. If we do this we shall return to conditions that will allow us to rejoice in humanity."

Hospital Association Bridge Linen Shower Set for Monday

Mrs. Smith Urges Support Of Hospital Movement

On Monday afternoon, the Miriam Hospital Association will hold its annual complimentary bridge and sheet shower at the Providence Plantations Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Max Temkin.

Mrs. Joseph Smith, president of the Association, in her appeal to the Jewish women of Providence, said today "The splendid work which this association does in our community entitles it to the support of every Jewish woman in the city, and any event which it sponsors should be patronized by its members and friends. When the Miriam Hospital Association was organized in 1897, its primary aim was to alleviate sickness among the poor. That is still its purpose. At no time has the demand been as great as during the past few years, and these demands have always been fulfilled.

"The social service department of our organization," Mrs. Smith further stated "supplies the sick poor with shoes, glasses, crutches, cod liver oil, medicines, dental service, wheel chairs, rubber stockings and braces.

"Every case referred to the Miriam Hospital by the Rhode Island Hospital and the Jewish Family Welfare Society is taken care of. Surely, an organization doing so much good in the community deserves whole-hearted support."

Assisting the chairman, Mrs. Temkin, in arrangements are the following: Mrs. Maurice L. Felder, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Schlossberg, secretary; Mrs. Charles B. Brown, program; Mrs. Jacob Ernstof, refreshments; Mrs. William Cohen and Mrs. Louis Lovett, telephone squad; Mrs. Maurice Felder and Mrs. Joseph Smith, prizes;

MRS. JOSEPH SMITH
Association President

Mrs. Harry Goldshine; junior page.

Other members of the committee of arrangements are: Mesdames William Harris, Jacob Leib, Harry Treidman, Louis M. Grant, Benjamin I. Sass, Joseph Shukovsky, Harry Leach, Morris Mellion, Samuel Ernstof, John L. Myers, David Kahnovsky, Louis Temkin, Samuel Michaelson, Herman Swartz, Israel Edelstein, Bernard Goodman, Charles Temkin, Harry R. Rosen, David Goldman, Samuel I. Kennison, Charles M. # B'nai B'rith Program for A. Z. A. Installation Named

The Roger Williams Chapter, No. 283 of A. Z. A., Junior Order of B'nai Brith have completed final arrangements for the installation of newly elected officers. The ceremonies will be a part of the B'nai Brith program to be held at the Jewish Home for the Aged, this Monday evening at eight-thirty.

The following officers are to be installed: president, Erwin G. Robinson; vice president, Lester Bernstein; secretary, Bernard I.

Berman; treasurer, Wallace Genser; inner-guard, David Fink; outer-guard, Sanford Parnas; reporter, Irving La Pidus; and chaplain, Matthew Marks.

Judge Asher, prominent B'nai Brith personage from Worcester, will be the guest speaker.

A reception and smoker for prospective members of the A. Z. A. is being planned for the evening of October 25. Bernard I. Berman and Elliot Summer have arranged a novel entertainment and refreshments for the neophytes.

Erwin Robinson is general chairman for the Blackstone-Narragansett Regional Council's annual convention to be held in Providence in December.

The following are chairmen of the convention committees: banquet, Bernard I. Berman; dance, Daniel Mabel; registration, Rudolph Volpe; basketball tournament, Elliot Summer; dating, Lester Bernstein; printing, Sanford Parnas; program book, Matthew Marks; debate and oratory tournament, Irwin Zura.

Problems of Jewish Rabbis Discussed

Bar Mitzvah Talks Begin at Emanuel

The first of a special series of three Bar Mitzvah Sermons was delivered last Friday night at Temple Emanuel by Dr. Israel Goldman, entitled "What Shall I Preach About?" The sermon was an analysis and frank discussion of the problems confronting the Jewish Rabbi today, and what shall be his message to his people.

This series is being preached in connection with the Bar Mitzvah year of Temple Emanuel. "Bar Mitzvah implies the deepening of religious life and the assumption of greater religious responsibility" said Dr. Goldman. "We are asking our members and friends to take up at this time the cause of a more Jewish life, of deeper religious living and of a greater Temple loyalty by attending the special Services for this special Bar Mitzvah series."

The other two addresses in this special series are as follows: "Why Go to Temple?", which is a discussion of the problem confronting every Jewish layman today, and gives a new approach to the question of Synagogue attendance and its place in present-day Jewish life. This address will be delivered on October 22.

"What is the Message of Judaism for our Day?" is the last in the series of lectures. It is an answer to the all-important question of whether Judaism, as a living religion, offers any solutions to the difficult world problems of our day. This address will be delivered on October 29.

Ladies' Aid Coal Drive in Progress

A regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Hebrew Union Aid Association was held on October 5 at their headquarters, 191 Orms street. Rabbi David Werner addressed the meeting.

A crocheted dinner cloth is being donated to the organization by Mrs. David Baratz in honor of her fifteenth wedding anniversary. The raffle of the cloth will be held on November 2. The association voted to send fifteen dollars to the relief of Jews in Poland.

The annual coal fund drive of the organization is now in progress. Mrs. J. Horvitz, chairman, has appealed to the members to solicit for funds this month, so as not to interfere with the Community Fund Drive.

Mrs. Levy Offers Trophy For Repertory Contest

In her opening remarks to members of the Repertory Players at their first meeting of the season held last Wednesday night in the vestry of Temple Beth-El, Mrs. Harriet Levy, president, offered to present a trophy for the best performance of any Repertory Player during a one-act play contest which is to be held later in the season.

Prior to this contest offer, Mrs. Levy and Dr. James Krassnoff, production manager, outlined plans for the year. Dr. Krassnoff discussed briefly the first three-act play, "See Naples and Die" which the organization will present on November 1.

Mrs. Walter Strauss, program chairman, then discussed the program for the evening, which consisted of scenes from five outstanding plays including "Bury the Dead," "Journey's End," "Smiling Through," and "The Importance of Being Earnest." All presentations, although produced with but the bare essentials on the stage, were examples what dialogue can do in creating atmosphere. The scenes evoked warm applause.

"Honorary Aryan" Gets Boycott Threat

New York (WNS)—Dr. L. Beck, Bronx Jewish dentist, was very proud of the distinction of being an "honorary Aryan," a title conferred upon him by Nazis in Yorkville, but he had to kiss the title good bye because it threatened to deprive him of a livelihood.

No one might ever have known that Dr. Beck was an "honorary Aryan" if he hadn't advertised in the Deutsche Weckruf und Beobachter, the official Nazi weekly.

When investigation established that he was a Jew and that his office was in the heart of a heavily-populated Jewish neighborhood, the Joint Boycott Council threatened to picket his office unless he withdrew his ad. And withdrawal of the ad carried with it loss of the "honorary Aryan" title.

Toledo Bars Parade of Ku Klux Klan

Toledo, Ohio (WNS)—A tri-state rally of Klansmen from Ohio, Michigan and Indiana, scheduled to be held in Toledo from November 19 to 21, will not be held in this city because City Manager John Edy has refused to issue a permit for a parade of the night-shirt legion.

Mr. Edy informed William E. Cahill, Klan organizer, that under no circumstance would he issue a permit for a parade of hooded persons, whether members of the Klan or any other order.

Another Setback For Netherland Nazis

The Hague—Another setback was given the Netherlands Nazis when three influential Netherland National Socialist Party members resigned. According to reports, the resignations were caused by a lack of confidence in the organizing ability of Anton Adrian Mussert, leader of the party. Objection to Mussert's methods to control his subordinates was also given as a cause.

MENACE OF FASCISM

New York (WNS)—Fascism is "infinitely more insidious than Communism," Wickham Steed, former editor of the London Times and one of England's most influential publicists, told members of the English-Speaking Union at a reception in his honor.

Nazis Give Windsor Tumultuous Ovation

Tell Him Jews Lost His Throne

Berlin (WNS)—How deeply anti-Semitism has been imbedded in the minds of the German masses under the Nazi regime was revealed during the Duke of Windsor's visit to a German factory here when one of the workers told a member of the ex-King's party that she greatly sympathized with Windsor because "everybody knew that the Communist and Jews had driven him from his throne."

Having failed to respond to the Nazi salute on his arrival in Germany, the Duke of Windsor threw his Nazi hosts into paroxysms of joy when he returned the "heil Hitler" greeting shouted at him by admirers gathered outside his hotel.

He replied to the greeting by raising his hand in the Nazi salute several times.

Jewish Center List Sunday Programs

Providence Community Fund, Tuesday evening, November 23 at the Biltmore Hotel.

The registration at the Jewish Center School is now almost 200, with many more children not yet registered. In order to prevent overcrowded conditions the officials of the Center state that only a few more children will be accepted in the school.

Parents desiring to register their children should do so Sunday morning, October 17.

Simeon Kinsley and Bernard Barasch, two well-known teachers in the city, have been added to the staff of the Jewish Center School.

Louis Labensky Dies in 88th Year

Louis Labensky, retired tailor, and for 50 years a resident of East Providence, died last Wednesday at his home on Sixth street, East Providence, after a short illness. He was in his 88th year.

Born in Gnefen, Germany, he came to this country about 65 years ago. After living in New York and Providence for a number of years, he moved to East Providence, where for 4 years he conducted a tailor shop and furnishing store.

He was connected with several business and fraternal organizations, and was a charter member of the East Providence Business Men's Association and belonged to the Providence Fraternal Association, Temple Beth-El. He was also a charter member of the I. O. B. A. of New York. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Walter Haskins and several nieces.

Anticipate Crowd at Jr. Hadassah Dance

The next regular meeting of Junior Hadassah will be held on November 1 at the Biltmore Hotel. Speakers and entertainment to be provided will be announced at a later date. Announcement has been made that the National Convention of the organization will be held in Detroit, Mich., on November 25, 26, 27 and 28.

A larger crowd than ever before is expected to attend the annual formal dinner dance of Junior Hadassah on October 26 at the Narragansett Hotel. Reservations should be made with Miss Gertrude Katz or Miss Claire Ernest. Music will be furnished under the baton of Eddie Quinton.

Auxiliary to Stage Fashion Show

A fashion show of all the latest in sport, dress and evening wear will be staged by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Jewish War Veterans on October 27 at Arcadia Ballroom. All gowns will be displayed by living models. The display is under the direction of Mrs. Rose Parizier.

Probe Propaganda In English Schools

London (WNS)—Charges that German teachers employed in various English secondary schools as part of an Anglo-German teaching exchange arrangement are spreading Nazi propaganda among their pupils, are being investigated by the ministry of education.

The propaganda charges were made by parents of several students who complained that the German classes conducted by the exchange instructors had become hotbeds of Nazi propaganda.

La Guardia Vetoes Saturday-off Bill

New York (WNS)—Sabbath-observing Jewish employees of New York City's municipal departments will have to wait a while before enjoying the right to observe Saturday as a day of rest without loss of pay because of a last minute veto of a five-day week ordinance.

Mayor La Guardia vetoed the bill not because he opposed the five-day week but because he objected the jokers in the bill which would have allowed employees to work only four and four and a half days, and thus upset the routine business of the city.

MAY AID FALASHAS

Rome (WNS)—Favorable consideration of proposed governmental aid for the Falashas or black Jews of Ethiopia was promised by Alessandro Lessona, Colonial Undersecretary, to a delegation of the Union of Italian Jewish Communities.

AT THE ALBEE

Brought together for the first time as co-stars in the romantic comedy "Breakfast for Two" now at the RKO Albee are Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall. They are supported by a quartet of fun-makers including Eric Blore, Glenda Farrell, Etienne Girardot and Donald Meek.

"Breakfast for Two" is based on David Garth's novel of the same name, which was published in Red Book. The screen play was written by Charles Kaufman, Paul Yawitz and Viola Brothers Shore.

This sparkling comedy-romance, directed by Al Santell, deals in sprightly fashion with a rich girl's efforts to make a man out of a charming idler.

A football picture "Saturday's Heros" starring Marian Marsh is the second first run feature at the Albee. An added short "Bing Crosby" completes the program.

Error in Geography Leads Man to Son

Buenos Aires (Special Dispatch) When Jacob Katz, an elderly resident of the U. S. S. R., wrote to the HIAS, to find the whereabouts of his son in Buenos Aires, he must have labored under the impression that Argentina is somewhere in the Bronx or in Brooklyn, for that matter.

Mr. Katz's "slight error" led him, however, to the right track and towards finally locating his long lost son. RIAS forwarded the request to the Argentine affiliate of the HMIAS-ICA world-wide emigrant aid service in Buenos Aires, which, following a prolonged search, finally communicated to the New York headquarters the exact address of Mr. Katz's boy, who is now established in business in the Argentine capital.

ner Bros. comedy-drama of college-football life now at Fays Theatre.

You're right—it's a gridiron picture. They come every year—and apparently they're liked every year, better and better, even though they're all won in the last minute of play! Well, why shouldn't they be? That's the most thrilling part of the old ball game.

June Travis, sportswoman herself and daughter of the vice-president of the Chicago White Sox baseball gang, is the leading romantic gal in this picture. Opposite her is a big good-looking boy called William Hopper, son of the late comic-opera star, De Wolf Hopper, and altogether adequate on his own acting ability.

"Club Continental Revue" is the stage presentation, featuring Eddie Lambert, one of the greatest laugh makers.

MAJESTIC

Described as more thrilling than her recent "Marked Woman," or than "Dangerous," which won her the Academy Award as the best actress of 1935, is the Warner Bros. melodrama which brings Bette Davis today to the Majestic Theatre.

It is called "That Certain Woman," and depicts the blonde star as the widow of a gangster killed in the notorious Valentine's Day massacre in Chicago. It takes Bette through many tribulations and persecutions, and shows her battling her way bravely toward peace and happiness.

The second first run picture stars June Travis and Ronald Reagan in "Love is on the Air."
