JEWS EXPELLED FROM MAJORCA

Rebels Take Over Deserted Businesses

Palma de Mallorca, Majorca (WNS)—Spanish insurgent authorities on this rebel-controlled island in the Mediterranean are expelling all foreign Jewish residents and business men, even though they have been living here for many years and have owned long-established mercantile and manufacturing enterprises.

Among those expelled were Jaime Cohn, a Czechoslovak citizen, and owner of the firm of Cohn, Guasp & Co., biggest Spanish optical goods company, at Manacor. Cohn, who opened his factory in 1924, was denounced to the authorities by his bookkeeper, a Nazi, who has taken over the business.

M. Obermayer, a German Jew, owner of a metal mat factory, was also expelled. At one time there were as many as 150 German Jews here in addition to a colony of British, French and American Jews.

Quinn Signs Kashruth Bill

GOV. ROBERT QUINN

BOARD OF HEALTH TO SUPERVISE BILL

Prevents Fraud in Kosher Products

In the presence of many interested in the passage of the Kashruth bill designed to prevent misrepresentation in the sale of Kosher products, Governor Quinn yesterday affixed his signature to the act which the Senate passed without opposition last Tuesday afternoon.

When Harry Leach, president of the Waad Hachashruth was informed of the passage of the bill he expressed his pleasure in "this necessary act which would eliminate the fear of purchasing 'treifa' goods under the guise of Kosher markings."

A consensus of opinion among the Jewish butchers was difficult to obtain. Many refused to discuss the bill; others said the various provisions would be beneficial as it would protect them against non-kosher shops who paraded their products as kosher.

Joseph Smith who originally sponsored the bill, in 1929, introduced the bill in the present session.

Fascists Use "Injun" Tactics—Toss Flaming Torches at Jews

London (WNS)—An immediate investigation is being demanded of the Home Office by Jews and Christians alike to fix responsibility for the Fascist demonstration in White chapel and Aldgate, heavily populated Jewish districts in London's East End, which turned into the nearest thing London has seen to a pogrom when the demonstrators tossed flaming torches into houses and shops and precipitated a riot which brought injury to scores of people, disorganized traffic for more than an hour and needed the riot squad to restore order.

The trouble began when a crowd of about 100 blackshirts started a march into Whitechapel with the obvious intention of terrorizing the Jewish residents. But no attention was paid to the Fascists until they suddenly began throwing their flaming torches into stores and houses.

A near panic ensued. The Jews barricaded themselves indoors and began pelting the marching blackshirts with sticks, dishes and throwing hot water at them and cold water at the flames.

Six persons were arrested, all Jews, after the police had dispersed the Fascists.

NAZIS BAN B'NAI B'RITH AS ILLEGAL

BERLIN — The Ministry of Propaganda and Public Enlightenment announced today that the B'nai B'rith throughout Germany had been dissolved and its property confiscated because it "tolerated a member who was engaged in Communistic propaganda."

The member specified, a former member of the Prussian Diet, was arrested and held for a few hours, the Ministry said, but was then released. There were no other arrests, it was asserted.

Foes of Hitler in Paris Get Secret Radio Station

Paris — The secret radio station which has been broadcasting anti-Nazi propaganda throughout Germany has been put at the disposal of the German People's Front, recently formed here, it was learned today.

The station will henceforth call itself the German Liberty Station. People's Front sources disclosed.

Nazi agents in Germany have been trying to find the source of the broadcasts, which report on the situation in Spain, the alleged failure of the Nazi program, German misery and the criminal projects of the Fuehrer against peace.

dore Singer, Jacob Licht, Robert L. ## MODIFY BAN ON JEWISH MEETINGS

Berlin (WNS)—The seemingly strict 60-day ban on all Jewish gatherings of more than four persons except those held for synagogue services has been modified so as to permit Zionist and cultural gatherings, as well as athletic functions.

Big mass meetings and Jewish communal functions are prohibited in conformity with the decree which a Nazi spokesman called a reprisal for recent attacks on Hitler by Mayor LaGuardia of New York and other anti-Nazi activities in America and elsewhere.

Scores of relatives of anti-Nazi exiles were deprived of their citizenship and property in a new outburst of decrees, orders and pronouncements aimed alike at Jews in Germany and anti-Nazis abroad.

Protests Win Concession at Vilna University

Warsaw (WNS)—Jewish student protests against the ghettoization of the University of Vilna won for them a minor concession when the rector cancelled the separate laboratory sections set up for Jews. The ghetto benches for Jews in lecture and classrooms, remain, however. Meanwhile renewed anti-Jewish rioting at the Warsaw Agricultural College resulted in injuries to 18 Jews and the closing of the college.

COUNCIL ARRANGES PEACE ACTION TEA

The International Relations Group of Providence Section National Council of Jewish Women will bring the season to a close with a Peace Action Tea on Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Samuel Wachenheimer, 395 Lloyd avenue.

Guest speakers will be Mrs. Philip Mitchell, vice president of The R. I. Council For Peace Action, and Irwin W. Tobin, Executive Secretary. Mrs. Mitchell's subject will be "Why a Peace Action Tea" and Mr. Tobin will speak on "Democracy and Dictatorship in the Present Day World."

All members of the League of Jewish Women's Club are cordially invited. Admission is 50 cents, the proceeds to go to the work for R. I. Council for Peace Action.

Mrs. Nathan Perlow, hospital-ity chairman and all members of the group will be hostesses.

Jewish Fascists War on Italian Zionists

Rome (WNS)—The Fascist press war on Zionism gained Jewish support when La Nostra Bandiera, organ of the Jewish Fascists and anti-Zionists, approved of the newspaper allegations that Zionists are British agents and that the Zionists in Italy are traitors to Fascism.

The anti-Zionist organ called on Mussolini to suppress the Zionist Organization, warned the Zionists that they cannot be Zionists and good Fascists at the same time, charged them with warring on the heart and spirit of Italy by serving as allies of England and urged that they be treated as traitors.

Paris Anti-Nazis Bring Fellow Emigres to Trial

Paris (WNS) — Five German emigre journalists, all anti-Nazis, have been brought o trial here on charges of having robbed the office of the Pariser Tageblatt, emigre German daily, of mailing lists and other material.

PETITION TO ASK JEWISH SECURITY

New York—The annual Shekel roll call of American Zionists is this year being coupled with a petition to Great Britain "to resist the infringement of Jewish rights whether by violence on the part of Arabs or by a wavering attitude and political concession on the part of the Mandatory Government." It is expected that 500,000 American Jews will sign this mass demonstration in behalf of Palestine while at the same time paying a 50-cent poll tax that allows them to vote for American delegates to the World Zionist Congress which will be held in Switzerland, beginning Aug. 3rd.

Declaring that "American Jewry, enjoying as it does full freedom and economic security, must rally to the cause of the Jewish National Homeland," the declaration of faith in the Jewish Homeland states that in view of the tragic plight of the Jews in Germany, Poland and other parts of the world and in the face of Arab terrorism which jeopardizes the great Jewish achievement in Palestine and in the face of the threatened restrictions among Jewish immigration and land purchase in Palestine.

Australia No Haven for Jewish Immigrants

London (WNS)—The hopes of the Freeland Society, Jewish territorialist organization, for the settlement of Jews in Australia were dashed by Joseph Lyons, Australian Prime Minister, in an interview with the Morning Post. Mr. Lyons said that public opinion in Australia is opposed to mass immigration not only of Jews but even of Englishmen. Consequently, he said, it is futile to look for an open door for immigrants in Australia.

RELIGION GAINS
Moscow (WNS)—A renewed spirit of religious feeling among Russian Jewry is noted by the Moscow Emes, Yiddish Communist daily, which reports that thousands of Jewish factory and farm workers observed a holiday during the Passover week.

Urge Jewish Colonization

LORD AND LADY MARLEY

PROJECT WOULD STYMIE HITLER

Portland, Ore.—Jewish colonization of parts of the British Empire as a buffer against German colonial claims was advanced by Lord Dudley Marley in his address to members of western Jewish federations last week. Lord and Lady Marley are touring the country discussing the Jewish question in Palestine and in England.

Lord Marley, in his talk, said that such colonization would have the triple effect of "enabling people to live, who, if they remain in Europe must die; of settling spaces in the empire not now in use and are therefore an excuse to the Hitler claims for colonies, and adding to the British empire a valuable section of the cultural and industrial workers."

You are just as big as the things you do; just as small as the things you leave undone.—Woodrow Wilson.

Francis Salvador, most prominent Jew of Charleston, S. C., was a member of the colonial assembly of 1774.

Wife Runs Away—Judges Rule Temple Admit Husband

New York (WNS)—The elders of a New York synagogue who expelled one of their members because his wife deserted him and ran off with a non-Jew must readmit him, the judges of the Jewish Arbitration Court ruled in a unanimous verdict.

The elders had testified that the by-laws of their congregation provide that a man's wife automatically becomes a member of the synagogue when he joins.

Since the by-laws also provide for the expulsion of one living with anyone outside of wedlock, consequently, they argued, they had to expel both husband and wife. The judges, however, held that the Jew could not be blamed for his wife's act.

Poland Suppresses Pola-Hitler Articles

Warsaw—Polish newspapers defying an unofficial request not to print stories romantically linking the names of Chancellor Hitler of Germany and Pola Negri, Polish star of silent motion pictures, were suppressed by the Government today.

Although no official order was issued, newspapers were made to understand such reports were not wanted, and when the Kurjer Codzienny and the Agencja Agrarna persisted, the Government took action.

Hitler is said to be spending $40,000,000 a year in spreading Nazi propaganda throughout the world.

JEW IS STABBED IN HARLEM FRACAS

Police Seek Father Divine, Harlem "God"

New York (WNS)—Feeling is running high in Harlem, scene of anti-Jewish boycott agitation two years ago, as a result of the stabbing of Harry Greene, Jewish building contractor of Weehawken, New Jersey, as he entered Father Divine's Harlem Kingdom to help a friend serve a summons on the mulatto whom thousands of Negroes call "God".

Greene went to Father Divine's "Kingdom" with Paul Comora, a professional process server. Just as Comora laid the summons on the rostrum where Father Divine was presiding over banquet services, knives flashed. Greene went down under blows and knife thrusts while Comora fled.

An eight-state police alarm is out for Father Divine on a charge of felonious assault. Three of his followers are under arrest. Greene is critically wounded.

The synagogue caters to the less privileged element of London Jewry and is an independent unit of St. George's Jewish settlement.

MANN SEES NAZI REGIME DOOMED

Reich Cannot Stand a Real Test

New York (WNS)—The Nazi regime is doomed, it may fall overnight or it may take years, but its end is inevitable. Thomas Mann, German Nobel Prize winner whom the Nazis deprived of his citizenship, predicted on his arrival here for a series of lectures under the auspices of the American Guild for German Cultural Freedom.

Admitted to the United States on a Czechoslovak passport as a result of his having been granted honorary citizenship by a Czech town, the famous novelist said that only "the fear of war and the conviction that war for Germany would mean the end of that nation pushes the German people forward."

He declared that "the conviction within the people becomes more and more general that the so-called 'successes' of the regime cannot and will not stand a real test, that it is a game of bankruptcy which must lead to a fatal end."

Asserting that morally Germany is already finished because the people have no faith in the warlike mission preached by its leaders, he added that the Reich "feels already betrayed, it feels humiliated and ashamed before the world."

The British company, the largest and oldest fur auction firm in England, took that action following the receipt of a letter from Mr. Untermyer declaring that the sale of the furs would be a violation of the anti-Nazi boycott. The Hudson's Bay Company is neither owned nor controlled by Jewish interests, the league's announcement said.

More Help Needed

Whenever we read of this or that distinguished scholar or scientist having been deprived of his German citizenship we wonder what happens to him after he leaves the Reich. The answer is given in a unique directory, just published in London, which lists the names of 1,639 men and women who in 1933 were German citizens holding positions as teachers and research workers in institutions of learning throughout Germany and who are now either exiles in other countries or, while dismissed from their posts,
are still resident in Germany.

The list of ousted scholars includes the cream of pre-Hitler German intellectuals. From the 1936 report of the Rockefeller Foundation, which up to the end of 1936 had granted $532,181 toward the rehabilitation of 151 of these scholars, we learn that only 835 of the total number of scholars listed had found positions in academic and scientific institutions in the fall of 1936, the date when the directory was issued. Of these some what less than half had found permanent positions. Thus over a thousand non-Aryan scholars are still jobless or in jobs of an ephemeral nature.

The various committees organized in many countries to aid these victims of Nazism have done a splendid piece of work. Much more could have been done, had larger funds been available, to ameliorate the situation of these exiles.

Fire Over England

If a mob of brown-shirted Nazis invaded New York's East Side and began tossing burning torches into Jewish homes and stores there would be an outcry heard around the world.
Well, something like that happened in the densely populated Jewish area of London's Whitechapel.

A gang of Fascist blackshirts marched through the streets and terrified the residents by hurling lighted torches into houses and shops. Six people—all Jews—were arrested after the ensuing riot, which created bedlam
in the East End for an hour.

It is true that the Jews defended themselves
by throwing sticks and rocks and hurling buckets of water. But since when is self-defense
a crime? The stolid English temperament, though it rarely gets excited, ought to get fighting mad over this incident, which is a flaming challenge to every British tradition.

How long will England tolerate this sort of ruffianism, which has come to be associated with Polish anti-Semites and Roumanian terrorists, but certainly not with the great city of London?

Marie Syrkan, Noted Zionist, to Address Women Pioneers

Plans for the annual Donor's Dinner of the Women Pioneers are fast nearing completion. Mrs.
Harry Schleifer, chairman of the affair, with Mrs. William Strong, as co-chairman, and a large committee, are working to reach the goal which the organization set out for itself.

With the appalling conditions
throughout Europe, when economic crises and political reaction are affecting hundreds of thousands of our people, Labor Paes-tine, with which this organization is closely affiliated, is the only bright spot in a very dark picture.
The Women Pioneers Organization
is not just one more organization
of women, doing more what others
do or could do equally as well.
It is an organization of women with the distinct task of furthering the economic emancipation and national rehabilitation of the Jewish masses on the foundation of social justice. With this association is the Women's Council of the Histadruth (the Labor Federation of Palestine). It takes pride in the series of economic, social, medical and educational institutions which were created by the movement, and which today

are the very backbone of the en-

LUNCHEON SPEAKER

At a recent committee meeting of the organization, Mrs. A. Boy-man, president, announced that Marie Syrkan will be the principal speaker at the Donor's Dinner,
which will take place Sunday evening, May 9, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Narragansett Hot-
tel. She is the daughter of Nach-man Syrkan, renowned Labor Zionist theoretician, and the wife of Charles Resnikoff, well known poet and novelist. As editor of "The Jewish Frontier," she has distinguished herself by the number of popular articles, which have been in such great demand
that they were printed in pamphlet form.

Theological Seminary; Dr. Samuel Dinin, of the Teachers Institute of the Seminary; Israel S.
Chipkin, director of the Jewish Educational Association; Dr.
Mordecai Soltes, Educational Director of the Jewish Welfare Board; Rabbi David I. Cedarbaum of the Educational Allision of the legislature. Archie Smith was author of this year's bill which was known officially as House Bill 609, Substitute A.

Some of the provisions of the bill include the following:
The bill is designed to eliminate false labelling of non-kosher foods as kosher. It makes it a misdemeanor for anyone to knowingly represent or advertise that non-kosher food which he has
for sale is kosher.

It provides that the board of health of the various towns and cities which already have supervision over food stores shall if they have reason to believe that anyone is knowingly representing non-kosher food as kosher prosecute such person, and after deducting the costs of the prosecution retain the balance of the fine
for the use of the board.

Kosher legislation is on the books of numerous states. The present bill had the endorsement of the United Orthodox Rabbinate of Providence who requested its enactment and the orthodox Rabbinate of Newport.

Scene Around Town

By Jacob Leichter

HEARTS AND FLOWERS

To the "Pop" concert Sunday nite, and there midst a setting of glorious flowers, bubbling fountains, and happy patrons, we noticed Jack Bernstein, who seemed to be the man in charge of affairs
... Harriet Goodman and Ben Weiner ... Ada Cohen and Toots Norman ... Sam Cohen, with his charming wife, who we see all too seldom ...
Irene Finklestein and Sandie Silverman, parting
after what was decided to be an evening worth remembering ...

BLOOD AND THUNDER

Came Monday nite and to the box fight, and saw protectors of fist cuffs, cut
one another to a fare-thee-well, with plenty of action and blood and thunder, to boot ... Sitting at ringside was our old friend Col. Samuels, who we judge by this time ought to be an expert in the art of manly slaughter ... Also red-headed Bill Waxler, optical man at Gerber's ...
Jack Rouslin, Moishe Fine, Ted Mellon and Harry Licht, but not many more ... Evidently Jewish attendance is small because of the lack of a popular Jewish fig-
her in this area ...

THE ART OF A WRISTLER

And while on the subject of mauling, from Joe Finkle comes the story of Curly Donchin ... Curley, a Jewish wrestler, has performed with glory
in these parts at Cy Mitchell's arena ... Curley, makes his home in Jersey, has been a consistent winner in Providence ... Between bouts he writes songs and poetry, and right now has a song being published ... He never wrestles on the Sabbath or on any Jewish holidays ... He's doing real well
... and still stays close to his Jewish background.

TIGHTS—LIGHTS—SIGHTS

If you're interested, 'tis rumored that before it's time to light the Chanukah candles, the Walter Winchells will be announcing the arrival of a young
'un, and that doesn't come from Mrs. A. Schwartz, who is the spy man's cousin ... Story clipped from somewhere: Stage manager: "I hear that you and the leading lady are on the outs" ... Electrician: "Yeah, it happened during that quick change act, when the stage was dark ... She asked for her lights—and I thought she said lights" ...

JUNE BRIDES

Jack Goodman is convinced that his beard grows faster in the Summer, and I add, so does the hair on his head—only that falls out faster than it grows ... Add jells for this quarter: Bertha Abe-don and Aaron Helford ... Archie Feldman and Syd Colten of N'Yawk ... Ben Moskoil and Tilda Matzner ... Sonny Millman and Mollie Kiven ...
Syd Hanzel and Bea Reiss—and he is to be feted
on Monday nite at the Hotel Bradford in Boston.

RICE AND LICE

Tuesday nite at the Carlton "The Good Earth"
enfolded, while the audience looked and liked ...
All but that lady two rows back, who during the loudest scene, piped up "Such a picture—rice and lice" ... But we know that everybody considered the evening well-spent ... Particularly Ruth Falk and Esther Torgan, who got seats way down front ... The Al Gubernicks and the Harry Tolchinskys ... The Tannenbaum
sister ... The Jake Woolfs ...
The Saltzman family came in parts, but they were all there ... Tubby Mittleman and his wife ... the Max Abrams—and so many ... Lee Brookner and Millie Wine sail home on July 1st for Lon'on and places ...

HIGH SEAS DISPATCHES

The rumpus over the disclosure that Magda Fontanges, a French woman, was Mussolini's amarota reminds us that before Il Duce got married, and when he was still a socialist, his lady love, Angelica Baibonoff, a Russian-Jewess, helped him edit a Socialist paper ... The recall of Dr.
Hans Luther as German envoy to Washington may have been due in part at least, to the discovery that his only close personal friend is Herr Koerner, a Jewish architect in Essen ... Koerner, who built the Essen synagogue and Ford factory in that city on the recommendation of Luther, directed the education of Luther's daughter when Frau Luther died ...

Bon Mot from a child ... Little Jackie: "Mom, where do elephants come from?—and don't try to stall me with that gag from the stork." ... At present writing, a delegation of delicatessen men and butchers are mobilizing to march to the State House, and protest against Bill, Substitute A, 609, which for your information is an act relating to Kashruth ... What I should like to know is—if these men are really running Kosher establishments, why protest against a bill that will protect them? ... And if they are not, what difference does it make to them? ... Or do Jews just have to protest? ...

IS HIS FACE RED

The prize for the best boner of the month should go to the copy writer who authored that four-page insert for Packard cars in the April issue of the B'nai B'rith magazine ... The special color supplement was entitled "This is the story of a B'nai B'rith member who made a life dream come true" ... But on Page three,
there is a man driving a Packard, and he is addressed as "Mr. Ryan." It is my guess that a certain group in this city will be sorry that they attended a certain banquet some time back

ROLL IS OUSTED FOR BACKING LABOR

Was First Jew to Hold Cabinet Post

Toronto, Canada (WNS)—Because he would rather march with the workers than ride with General Motors, David A. Croll, Russian-born minister of labor and public welfare of the Province of Ontario and the first Jew to hold a cabinet post in any of the Dominion's ten provincial governments, was forced out of office by Premier Mitchell Hepburn because he wouldn't see eye to eye with him over the strike of General Motors workers at Shawna, Ontario.

Premier Hepburn asked and received Croll's resignation on the issue of the strike.

Croll, who is only 37, is a former mayor of Windsor and had been in the Ontario cabinet since 1934 when the Liberal government took office. Until recently he was the legal god-father of the Dionne quintuplets in his capacity as minister of public welfare.

"Marked Woman"

Bette Davis, who won last year's Academy award as the screen's greatest actress, makes her 1937 bid for renewed honors in a gripping story taken from headlines that have flashed across the front pages of America's newspapers for many months.

This picture, declared by Miss Davis to give her the most powerful role she has ever portrayed, is "Marked Woman," the First National production booked for the Majestic Theatre beginning today.

The film is said to take audiences behind the scenes of certain metropolitan night clubs, long suspected of being owned or affiliated with nationally notorious gangsters of the type now fleeing from racket investigations.

"Melody For Two" with Patricia Ellis and James Melton is the second first run feature.

"The Woman I Love"

Bringing Paul Muni and Miriam Hopkins, two of the screen's foremost dramatic artists together for the first time, RKO Radio's colorful photoplay, "The Woman I Love," now at the R.K.O. Albee Theatre, presents a brightly charged romantic drama involving two French flying comrades and a beautiful girl during the World War.

Based on "L'Equipage" by Joseph Kessel, Europe's best-selling novel about the World War, "The Woman I Love," brings for the first time to the American screen the vivid emotional situation of two French flyers, their care-free, almost hysterical abandon behind the lines, their heroic and death-defying combats over no-man's land, and their romances with the woman they left behind.

Roland Young in H. G. Wells' "The Man Who Could Work Miracles" is the second feature.

HEBREW SCHOLAR WEDS GENTILE

Christian Service is Used By Ex-Rabbi

Tacoma, Wash. (WNS)—The strange picture of a Hebrew scholar who once officiated as rabbi at the Herzl Synagogue in Seattle, who taught Hebrew and preached in Tacoma's Talmud Torah and who is the author of a treatise on "The Ethics of the Shulchan Aruch" which won the approval of the Hebrew University, being wed to a Christian woman by an Episcopalian minister on a Friday night was witnessed here recently.

The man was Dr. Ivar Spector, 38-year-old instructor in the Oriental science department of the University of Washington.

His bride was Miss Marion Mitchell, assistant professor of history at the university.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. H. H. Gowen, also a professor at the university, in a setting of Eastern lilies at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Carlson. Dr. Spector changed his name from Itzhak—the Hebrew for Isaac—to Ivar by court action in 1932.

34 London Hospitals Get Funds from Estate

London (WNS)—An estate of $1,000,000 left by Siegfried Rudolph Zunz, a German-Jew who settled in England where he died in 1901, has grown to $2,500,000 through judicious investments, it was announced by Zunz's trustees in connection with plans to distribute the money among 34 London hospitals.

SCHOOL FIELD DAY

The annual Lag B'Omer Field Day of Temple Emanuel Religious School will be held on Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the Sessions street playground. Lag B'Omer commemorates the victory of Rabbi Akiba and his pupils over the Roman armies. For that reason Jewish youth traditionally observe this day with Field Day exercises.

Loses, Finds Violins

Jascha Heifetz, noted Jewish violinist, experienced life's darkest moment this week. While touring in Scotland Mr. Heifetz became suddenly aware that he was without his $150,000 worth of violins. Several frantic wires finally located the violins which had been reposing quietly in a railroad station. Mr. Heifetz thought his accompanist had picked them up; and the accompanist believed Mr. Heifetz had carried the precious cargo to the train.

NAME STREET DE HAAS

Tel Aviv (WNS)—One of the streets of this all-Jewish city will be named after the late Jacob de Haas, veteran Zionist publicist and leader, according to a decision by the city council.

"Gone With the Wind" Reviewed at Tea

The first Donor's Tea of the Pawtucket and Central Falls Chapter of Senior Hadassah was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris Espo, 16 Kenilworth Way. Receiving with Mrs. Espo were Mrs. Alex Rumppler, chairman of the tea, and Mrs. Jacob Schinagel, co-chairman of Donor's luncheon. Seventy-five donors were present.

Mrs. Archie Finkle presented a program of the following selections: Schubert's Serenade, Puccini's Musetta's Waltz, from La Boheme, and "O Shof Me'a Fegele," a Jewish lullaby. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Henry Wise. A review on Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With the Wind" was given by Miss Esther Levine.

The tea table was centered with a bouquet of blue and white flowers, with tall lighted candles in silver holders, carrying out the Hadassah colors. The ladies who poured were Mrs. Charles D. Shoolman and Mrs. S. K. Goodman, assisted by Mrs. Rumppler, Mrs. Schinagel and a committee.

Mrs. S. K. Goodman, general chairman of the Donor's Luncheon, to be held at the Narragansett Hotel on April 28, reported that final plans will be completed at the meeting to be held on Monday evening in the vestry of the Pawtucket Synagogue.

"Make Yourself at Home"

PROBABLY no invitation means more than "Make yourself at home." It carries with it the friendliness, kindness and thoughtfulness of a generous host... makes the guest at ease.

A house, like a host, can give you the same feeling. It may say "Welcome. Stay as long as you want. Here is everything for your comfort." Or it may say "Don't stay too long. You'll be uncomfortable here."

The house that says "Welcome... make yourself at Home" is usually the house that is owned by the host. The house that is unfriendly is frequently the rented house.

If you are uneasy in your present residence, make yourself at home in a home of your own. This is not beyond your means if you purchase it easily, safely and sensibly the Old Colony Way. Perhaps we can help you now to realize your desire to own your own home.

Speaking of Women

BY EDYTHE JAY

Gallivanting around from one meeting to another is more fun—and I mean it . . . Last Wednesday, two important ones were on the calendar, and with a stop at each of them, this is what we saw . . . Those very ambitious ladies of Senior Hadassah's Board, gathered at the home of Mrs. Nathan Temkin on Slater avenue . . . Mrs. Saul Abrams, smart in navy with bright yellow accent, had quite a time of it, keeping order . . . For some reason, the ladies were in a jubilant mood—but the importance of planning for the nearing Donor's Dinner, quieted them, and while order prevailed, I noticed the charming hostess, Mrs. Nathan Temkin in smart black, with small white figures . . . Mrs. John Olevson was wearing a strictly man-tailored suit of navy, relieved only by a soft lace blouse of white . . . Mrs. Rose Markensohn left early, but I noticed her outfit was of navy and white . . . The Temkins were well represented, what with Mrs. Charles there, wearing a becoming frock of gray and red print—always a grand combination . . . And Mrs. Louis in a dress of dark background, and delicate colorings for the figures . . . Mrs. J. Irving had a striking frock of bottle green, with yellow and light green trim.

Mrs. Celia Korn was wearing royal blue of very heavy crepe, and right near the neckline, two soft flowers of orange and yellow velvet—smart! . . . Mrs. J. D. Grossman, in a light gray knitted suit, perfect for Spring . . .

Mrs. Everett Cowan, in a soft blue crepe, with embroidery that had a Russian look, from where I was sitting . . . Mrs. Samuel Newberger looked stately in black and white print . . . Dr. Clara Smith was wearing a becoming print of blue, yellow and white . . . Some of the softest colors figured the dress Mrs. Samuel Michaelson was wearing . . . And among the "suited" ladies were Mrs. S. B. Flanzbaum in a dark skirt and a white blouse, with large pastel figures.

Mrs. B. Alper in a becoming oxford gray suit, with a blouse of soft yellow . . . Another smart gray suit was worn by Mrs. A. Golden, but her blouse was of soft blue . . . Mrs. A. Fain had on a beige crepe blouse, and her black skirt was of a lovely new bumpy material . . . Mrs. J. Ernstof favored a gray skirt, with a crepe blouse of melon orange . . . After the meeting adjourned, the ladies were invited into the dining room for a buffet luncheon, with the table a feast of soft colors, and the truth will out—Mrs. Temkin is a lovely hostess.

Women Pioneers

Then over to 109 Washington street, where the Women Pioneers were holding their meeting . . . Staying just a few minutes, we noticed their president, Mrs. Alter Boyman, lovely in an afternoon frock of becoming black . . . Mrs. Shoham, the book-reviewer for the afternoon, was smart in a frock of navy . . . Mrs. Joshua Bell was charming in her black frock of flowered satin . . . Outstanding was Mrs. Harry Beck, in a two-piece dress, with the bodice of embroidered black crepe.

Mrs. Sachs wore navy, with the polka dots of coral . . . And there was Mrs. Arthur Korman, whose suit was topped by a lovely yellowish-gold blouse . . . Mrs. William Strong was petite in black crepe . . . Mrs. Morris Beeber wore a becoming flowered black crepe dress . . . Mrs. Harry Schleifer, attractive in a suit of beige—that I wouldn't call dressy, nor tailored—sort of in-between . . . Mrs. P. M. Phillips wore a dressy frock of black . . . And, so after observing what we could, we rushed back to work—feeling a little guilty of being too, too social minded.

Patience and Work is Formula for Art, Says Mrs. F. B. Wise

Interesting people are always a delight and joy to know . . . Out Edgewood way lives one of the most interesting personalities I've met—by name, Florence Baran Wise . . . Professionally a painter, Mrs. Wise was born in New York, and literally from the time she knew anything about anything, painting has been her passion . . .

So great was her love for the art, that while still in the grammar grades, she began to study at the Metropolitan Museum of Art—only a few hours a week, of course . . . She went to a public high school, and after that attended Hunter College for one year, before seriously delving into the study of painting . . . After the year course at Hunter, she went to the National Academy of Design, where she was awarded the Elliott Bronze Medal for life drawing . . . At the Academy she studied for two years, and began tutoring under George Bridgman, a famous New York artist . . .

TRIP TO EUROPE

Like all other artists, Florence Baran, in her teens, felt that a trip to Europe would be the most wonderful thing in the world . . . Well, the "most wonderful thing" became reality, and she did have the opportunity of going to Paris . . . George Bridgman, her tutor, gave her several letters of introduction to artists in Paris, so that she might visit a variety of studios . . . She stayed there just a few months . . . "It was really a sightseeing trip," she said, and smilingly, "I didn't do a bit of work . . . Just went around visiting many studios . . . Some were beautiful—the kind of artist's studio you dream about, but most of them were in the poor Latin quarters, with the Bohemians struggling for recognition" . . . Returning from her brief stay in Paris, she went back to her own studio in New York, but shortly after moved to Providence, where she was married to the late George Wise . . . She resumed her pursuit of art at the Rhode Island School of Design, and continued studying there for about ten years . . .

MRS. FLORENCE B. WISE

TRAVELED EXTENSIVELY

She's traveled all of this country and Canada . . . Has a particular fondness for California . . . She showed me many gorgeous landscape paintings done in the sunny coast state—I wish you might see them . . . They're glorious . . . She told me that she may be out driving or walking anywhere—and may suddenly get an inspiration from the way the shadows fall—or the way the sun shines through the trees—or the way a soft breeze sways the

"Great Waltz" at Met on Mon

The Strauss period, as the late 1840's were called in Vienna brought a distinct change from the Empire period. Waist line again became the fashion and mild edition of what later became known as the hoop skirt made its appearance. Tight, form-fitting bodices became the vogue. The upper part of milady's figure was accented, while the lower portion was lost in a profusion of ruffles.

The gowns worn in "The Great Waltz" were designed by Dori Kinkeisen and do not adhere strictly to the period. Often accuracy has been sacrificed for beauty, but even if one of the ladies of the company—garbed in street creation or an evening gown—could step backward into the past she would not only be in keeping with the times but would cause feminine hearts to flutter in admiration of the smartness of her attire.

There are nine scenes in "The Great Waltz" which comes to the Metropolitan Theatre one night only Monday, April 26, each scene depicting some place where the smart set of old Vienna used to gather. There is the spectacular finale, the magnificent ballroom scene in which a hundred dancers waltz to the strains of Johann Strauss' immortal melody, "The Beautiful Blue Danube," and here the ladies are gowned in evening attire, each a creation that beggars description.

shrubbery . . . Out comes brush canvass and paint—and almost as quickly as you can read this, picture is born . . .

WON MANY PRIZES

Has won scores of medals and prizes in art competitions . . . Was awarded a prize for a special design made for the cover of House Beautiful Magazine . . . Her portrait "Victory," which you see pictured above, she did shortly after the Armistice, and presented it to the Providence Post 23, Jewish Veterans of the World War . . . The subject is symbolic of the part played in the Great War by the American soldiers and sailors . . .

She is a member of the Providence Water Color Club—an organization that, on Spring Saturdays, goes on trips to various inspiring sites in "Little Rhody"—where the members sketch, paint and draw what may at the moment be their inspirations . . . Her home on Sefton Drive in Edgewood would be any artist's delight . . . Has a studio on the third floor where she has passed many happy hours . . . Her works are arranged in a charming manner, and found my superlatives awfully limited when it came to expressing a genuine admiration for them . . .

PATIENCE AND WORK

I always thought one had to have a talent for art, just as one must have an "ear for music" . . . But despite the fact that Mrs. Wise is a "born artist," she believes that though one may not be gifted, if the love of the art is inherent—and patience is one's virtue, proper training will cultivate it . . . She was telling me about a summer art colony—Rockport, Mass. I believe it was—"The girls come there at the beginning of the summer season knowing practically nothing about art," she said, "and their ability and understanding at the end of the season is truly remarkable. . . . Incidentally, Mrs. Wise is one of a small group of artists who heartily endorse the new idea of renting paintings . . . A various times, people have rented her paintings—and kept them for the season—or as long as they wished . . .

EXHIBITION LAST YEAR

In the late fall of last year Mrs. Wise had an exhibition of her paintings, drawing and pastels at the Nathaniel M. Vose Studio on Olive street . . . To give you an idea of how "untyped" her subjects are, here are a few of their titles: The Chinese Dog . . . Autumn in Edgewood . . . Among the Flowers . . . On Monterey Peninsula . . . The Leafy Screen . . . Little House of Peter Pan . . . Beach Scene . . . On the Window-Sill . . . And I want to say that the portraits are as elegant and varied as their names suggest . . .

It's quite impossible to describe all the works of this charming person . . . This would go on and on . . . Her so-interesting life and complete understanding of the beauties of life, left me feeling that one has never really known these beauties, until one has had brush in hand, and reproduced them on canvass . . .

On the Supreme Court, Marriage Insurance, and Turning the Cheek

By WALTER RUTMAN

Baseball officials at Washington were considering plans to make the opening ball game one to be remembered. Due ceremonies were being considered last week. "I've got a great idea," one suggested . . . "Let's get Roosevelt to throw out the first ball." . . . "I got a better idea," a sports writer offered. #### MARRIAGE INSURANCE An Open Letter to Il Duce

Dear Benito:

Your proposal to subsidize marriages, in a commendable effort to raise the birth rate, just won't work. While it's true that for a stable and moral state marriage must precede childbirth—for the sum promised for each bambino in successive years might tempt any girl in these days of unemployment—you are ignoring the most vital factor of all—love.

There is no doubt, as you and I have persuaded our people, that education is a cold bedfellow. But even with dividends for each child, a loveless marriage eliminates that precious enthusiasm for the task that is so vital to our health.

Now I have an idea which my Reich will unanimously approve this week. As you know there is nothing new about a dowry, particularly for women. And while dowries for men are not so common, settlements have been made in the days gone by.

But dowries, in most cases, are not available. And it is necessary that we make our people marriage conscious from childhood. This would be done by issuing marriage policies for boy, as well as for girl babies. Then marriage will not be hindered by lack of funds when youngsters in love approach the marriageable age.

This plan would be supplemented by a nationwide propaganda campaign which would have as its slogan—A Spouseless Life is Spiceless. Endowment of marriage, moreover, would reduce celibacy and prevent the accumulation of unhappy spinsters, so frequent in democracies—for getting a man to the altar these days is a task in itself.

With best wishes for a lengthy future,

ADOLF

EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT

Contrary to most legends concerning movie officials, Adolph Zukor always has refused to employ a kinsmen in his organization, preferring to provide for his relatives in other ways . . . Mrs. Zukor, however, pleaded with him to provide a job for a handsome male cousin who was interested in a screen career . . . Zukor, after great persuasion relented. "You're interested in a movie career?" he told the relative. "Okay, here's a job." The job was at the Paramount theatre—as an usher.

TURNING THE CHEEK

A letter from Germany re-directed to this office, contained an appeal for a soup kitchen which is daily feeding 500 starving Jews, mostly invalids and children. Enclosed in the pamphlet is a little pink slip which says:

"This letter is intended to be sent only to Jews. If by error it reaches the hands of others we beg that you regard it as not having been received and that you please forgive the mistake."

These few words, more than any news that has come out of Germany, illustrates the present racial degradation of Jews in Germany.

And this "forgiveness" appeal is comparable to the attitude of Jewry in this country to recent outbursts of anti-semitic organizations.

For years, like Galahads, Jews have sought a blissful purgatory, where, like in a showerbath, they could adjust their Jewishness to the situation.

And now comes an incident that exemplifies the sacrificing of yellow Jews on the altar of convenience. Representative Dickstein sponsored a bill to investigate un-American organizations. After the House committee voted favorably on the bill, opposition, not by Nazis at whom the bill was directed, but by our Humpty-Dumpties perched high on their walls of security, caused defeat of the bill.

And now, 200,000 Nazis march and drill awaiting the day when, by special permission, they can begin Hitler's process of leavening and equalizing all Jews.

Magda Spanks Royal Road Hog

For years members of the militant Iron Guard, who sought to establish Prince Nicholas on the Roumanian throne, have opposed King Carol's friendship with Mme. Magda Lupescu, (center) whom they charge with exercising undue influence in court matters and whom they hate because they complain she has Jewish blood.

CAROL'S SURGEON ARRESTED IN PLOT

Bucharest — Neurotic Prince Nicholas, who has been psycho-analyzed as suffering from "frustrated longing for power," has repudiated his rumored connection with the anti-semitic Iron Guard who threatened King Carol's kingdom with revolution. It was Magda Lupescu, seasoned observer's say, that effected this about-face on the part of Nicholas who was recently disinherited of his princely connections.

It was in 1926 that Prince Nicholas came to the attention of the American public. He accompanied his mother, Queen Marie, and his sister, Princess Ileana, on a barnstorming good-will and financial tour of the country.

Tired of ostentatious ovations he bought a Willys-Knight and returned to Roumania where he burned up the roads, having frequent collisions. He had a habit of beating up common citizens who had the temerity to object when he knocked them down. Special laws were finally passed which prevented any comment on his highness' road-hogging; and horns with a distinctive royal toot were prescribed for his cars.

Reports of developments in Roumania are difficult to confirm because of the censorship. It is known, however, that Prof. Gerota, personal surgeon of King Carol, has been imprisoned.

Arabs to Continue Self-Government Fight

INSISTS PALESTINE BELONGS TO ARABS

No Hatred for Jews, Says Arab Leader

Jerusalem — Emil El Ghouri, the most colorful Arab figure in Palestine today who is generally accepted as the man behind the Palestine crisis, insisted, during an interview with a representative of the New York Post, that the Arab wants no bloodshed but that he and his fellow Arabs are ready to lay down their lives until Palestine is rid of Zionism and we are allowed to rule our country ourselves.

"People think we hate the Jews," Ghouri said. "This is quite wrong. We want only what was promised us during the war. But then Britain took it upon herself to establish a national Jewish home in Palestine, thereby bringing Palestine under the rule of two mandates—the British and the Zionists."

Born in Jerusalem of poor parents, his fight as a youth to obtain self-government for his people, led Ghouri into many entanglements with the police. But as he discussed the Jew in Palestine his voice became obstinate as he re-asserted that we will not be ousted from our country by Jew or Gentile.

"We shall try to live in peace with the Jews but the Arab must be ruled by Arabs, not Jews. We will give them what you term a square deal but we cannot permit any interference in our method of governing the country."

Nazis Drive Jewish Banker to Suicide

Berlin (WNS)—Although the police have announced that Willi Seligmann, prominent Hamburg banker, committed suicide on March 20th because a shortage of 800,000 marks had bankrupted his bank, the truth is that he killed himself because the Nazis spread a false rumor of his bankruptcy in order to force him out of his business. Immediately after his death the Nazis took over the bank and are now operating it.

Jewish Labor Barred From Lydda Airdrome

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—For the first time Jewish labor has been officially boycotted by the Palestine government. Contractors competing for the construction of buildings at the Lydda airdrome, a contract worth $250,000, are required to meet the condition that they will employ 100 per cent Arab labor.

Believed Threat Was Joke, Says Slain Musician's Aunt

"I thought he was just joking," said Mrs. Mae Rich, of Bridgeport, aunt of Julia Nussenbaum, talented musician who was murdered last week in a New York studio, as she discussed threats on Julia's life made by Mischa Ross.

"I could see that Mischa was in love with Julia," Mrs. Rich continued. "But Julia told me she went around with him in a business way but that was all. She didn't care for him in any other way, and when he began to press his attentions I tried to get her to stay home with her father but she said, 'My violin is all I have to live for. I've got to make a go of it.'"

It was not known whether the family or Miss Nussenbaum realized that Ross was married; but that hardly mattered for Ross' suit for Miss Nussenbaum was not taken seriously until he began to threaten her life.

Miss Nussenbaum's sisters, Frances and Edith, tried to persuade Julia to remain in Bridgeport. But Julia, swayed by her colleagues' words that she was an accomplished musician and that Bridgeport wasn't big enough for her, decided that a husband and children was too humdrum compared to the exciting life of a professional musician.

For a while she toured with Mischa Ross, who as a drummer, created an orchestra. This job was taken when she realized that her ambitions as a concert violinist would never materialize.

Professor Leslie Vaughn, her violin teacher, said she was a fine pupil. "I told her not to take things so seriously; for she probably would marry some day and forget about her career. But she wouldn't listen to me."

"I am glad the police apprehended Ross, but it doesn't make any difference what the police do now. They can't bring Julia back."
