Wise Walks Out on Dinner in His Honor

Blames Group in Palestine Appeal

NEW YORK—The Borough Park division of the United Palestine Appeal gave a dinner to the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise chairman of the executive committee of the Appeal, in Menorah Temple, 5,000 14th Ave. Brooklyn. Four hundred persons paid $25 each to attend.

Dr. Wise was received in a reception room at 10 P. M. by a committee headed by Abraham Krumbain, chairman of the Borough Park division, and Simon Ackerman, chairman of the dinner committee. He left the temple half an hour later without having entered the dining room. Mr. Krumbain announced to diners that Dr. Wise was not feeling well.

From his home Dr. Wise issued the following statement on the telephone:—

"Dr. Wise did not appear at the dinner meeting and did not deliver the address which he was scheduled to do because he felt those responsible for the dinner were unwilling to take their rightful share in securing for the United Palestine Appeal the funds which the Borough Park division had been instructed to give.

"He therefore left without entering the dining room."

Golden Book Will Honor Roosevelt

NEW YORK—A section of the Jewish National Funds' Sefer Ha-Zahav (Golden Book of Remembrance) will be dedicated to President Roosevelt, it was announced today.

The dedication, officials said, will give "public expression to the widespread feeling of appreciation and gratitude to the President for his initiative in convoking the international conference which will take place in Evians, France, on July 6, with a view to creating an inter-governmental committee that would seek to obtain asylum for the refugees from the lands of oppression."

A replica of the new section of the Golden Book will be presented to President Roosevelt. The original is to be preserved, with five previous volumes, in Jerusalem.

Distrust Haters, Says Mrs. Lehman; Gives 10 Rules for Modern Life

New York—Ten modern commandments have been outlined by Mrs. Herbert H. Lehman, wife of the Governor.

Mrs. Lehman, broadcasting for the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, outlined her commandments as follows:—

1. Tell the truth. This is possible only in a democracy where there is a free and unregimented press.

2. Treat all men as you would wish to be treated. Observance of this principle would mean a repudiation of all false ideas of race superiority, or race and group hatred, and of group warfare.

Help Persecuted

3. Respect the sincere religious beliefs of every man if you do not happen to share them. This is basic for all those who hold to the democratic idea on which America is

Reported Ill

SHOLOM ASCH

It has been reported that the real reason for the current visit of Sholom Asch to these shores is a couple of operations. He was to have had them in Vienna, but the Nazis made him change his plans.

Lehman Warns Of "Twin Evils"

NEW YORK—Fascism and Communism were denounced as "twin evils with common objectives" by Governor Lehman in a plea for a firm stand in the defense of democracy. The two foreign political philosophies both "destroy individual rights, break down religion and foster class hatred and prejudices," he said at a special meeting of the National Council of Young Israel in the Waldorf-Astoria.

The Governor received the council's first annual award, an illuminated testimonial on parchment, "in recognition of his sterling qualities of character and modesty, of a life marked by dedication to humanitarian purposes and the ennoblement of his people and his country."

Fascist Headquarters Made Into Synagogue

Manchester, England — British Fascists who have been absent from Manchester for some time have a shock in store for them when they arrive because the building that was until recently the local headquarters of the Fascists has been acquired by the Manchester Jewish Community, which has converted it into a synagogue.

The Fascists had to give up the building because of financial difficulties.

Nazis to Concentrate On Economic Drive

Replace Terror With Legal Action

BERLIN.—The highest Nazi Party quarters, it was revealed, have given orders that violence in the campaign against the Jews must cease.

The police checkup of passports and general anti-Jewish activities as well as the steady organization of German business under the Economic Ministry will continue, it was stated, but will be held within "orderly and legal channels".

The new Nazi policy was revealed as Germany relaxed stern measures affecting Jews of German extraction living abroad.

Many American Jews came under the decree of several weeks ago requiring all Jews, whether living in Germany or abroad, to register their property under penalty of a heavy fine. Jews were told they had to report their holdings by June 30. The decree brought protests from abroad, including one from Secretary of State Cordell Hull. The protest was never answered. Today, however, it was disclosed that the Government has exempted all Jews of foreign citizenship from reporting their holdings in Germany unless they live in Germany.

MOLLY PICON

Miss Picon announced this week that she is going abroad to assemble a cast of Yiddish players from among refugee German and Austrian actors for a repertoire company she is going to organize for a world tour.

shal Hermann Goering, the economic dictator of Germany, was reworded to state that Jews must register German property only if they reside in Germany, irrespective of whether residence is temporary or permanent.

German Jews must register regardless of whether they live here or abroad. Those residing in other European countries have until July 31, and those living outside Europe until October 31.

An Old Heartache Proves Its Worth - After Fifteen Years

New York:—Though fifteen years have passed since she wrote "Joseph, Joseph", Nellie Casman still sings it with a sob in her deep torchy voice.

"It's a sad song about a true romance," she declared in an interview, "and all the swing bands in the world won't change that. I should know!"

Miss Casman has been the pet of Yiddish theatres in many countries for a long while. "Joseph was a real man," she said, "and I was terribly in love with him. But—it never got me anywhere at all. I told my troubles to a man named Samuel Steinberg—he was the kind of man girls tell their troubles to. I married him five years later.

"So he wrote it into a poem and I wrote the music, and we called the song, 'Yosel, Yosel.' The first time I sang it on the stage I felt very sad. But everybody laughed. They thought it was funny. They've gone on thinking it was a funny song for fifteen years."

J. & J. Kammen, the music publishers who paid Miss Casman $150 for the rights to the song, republished it in an English version, after the success of Secunda's "Bei Mir Bist du Schoen."

But she kept the mechanical rights, and now with ten different companies publishing records of the song, and radio singers using it extensively, she expects to collect about $50,000. Here's how it goes:

Oh, Joseph, Joseph
Won't you make your mind up,
It's time I knew just how I stand with you!
My heart's no clock that I can stop and wind up
Each time we make up after being through!
So listen, Joseph,
Joseph, time is fleeting,
And here and there my hair is turning gray!
My mother has a fear
Wedding bells I'll never hear
Joseph, Joseph, won't you name the day?

Camp to House Foreign Refugees

Philadelphia — The American Friends' Service Committee soon will establish a refugee camp for expatriated Germans and Austrians in West Park, N. Y., across the Hudson River from President Roosevelt's Hyde Park estate.

Committee officials here said the camp would house mostly professional refugees such as doctors, writers and artists. They will live in a "congenial atmosphere" to learn American customs and the language.

The refugees, who will pay $1 a day for expenses, are being selected in New York by co-operating bodies affiliated with the Friends.

Thunder Over Canada

A similar situation seems to be developing in Canada where Nazis and Fascist activities are beginning to give cause for alarm. The disclosure that members of the Royal Canadian Artillery in full uniform attended a meeting of the Christian Socialist Party and the report that an avowed Nazi agent has been attempting to obtain control of Anticosti Island, a strategic military point in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, have brought home to the Dominion the fact that Nazism and Fascism are at work there.

The Canadian Nazis (Germans) have been comparatively quiet, working underground but Adrien Arcand's Christian Socialists and Whittaker's Canadian Nationalists have been kicking up a big fuss. Both groups are to meet in a joint national convention in Toronto on June 30th after having been denied the use of public buildings in Kingston.

The Canadian government is reported to be investigating both groups as well as keeping an eye on the Nazis.

Scene Around Town

By JACOB LEICHTER

I met my love again
Out of the past
We stood recalling when
We had met last

I was sixteen again
Love was adventure
But now you have glasses
A bald head and a denture!

—Leda

For almost two years rumor has been rife about the so-called anti-Semitic attitude of the owner of one of the better eating places located at the outskirts of town... Because of certain information, we checked up at its source, and were told the following facts by the girl who is said to have been the direct victim... The girl emphatically denies all the allegations of anti-Semitism credited to the restaurant woman, and asks us to please assist in killing the rumor... We Jews are too prone to consider personal issues in an anti-Semitic light... All too frequently do we label our own deficiencies as part of a discriminatory policy of other races... If the young lady designated above is telling the truth, then it appears that a rank injustice has been done—it should be righted...

PERSONALITIES

At the rate that marriages have been taking place, I wonder if there'll be anyone single at the end of June... Latest candidates are Sadie Gillson and Newell Smith, Eva Waxman and Larry Hoffman, Rose Linder and Howie Schneider, Celia Alprin and Harry Fishman... An autumn heir is expected at the Joe Strausses... Favorite gag of the week: Insurance Agent—"Did you ever have appendicitis?" Prospect—"Well, I was operated on, but I've never been quite certain whether it was appendicitis or professional curiosity"... Add progress:—A syndicate of wealthy Prague Jews have organized a company to turn out preserved Kosher meats in cans—for sale in countries where shechita is forbidden... To Adolph and Jennie Meyers and son, we forward our regrets for the mistake made regarding Bar-Mitzvah notice in a past issue...

HERE AND THERE

In a Wellesley College psychology class recently, girl students were shown front and profile views of four masculine faces, one of whom was a moron, another a criminal, another a college professor and the fourth a policeman... They were asked to identify each as such... Nearly all picked the policeman correctly, but a majority of the class tabbed the college professor as a moron!... Hassenfeld happenings:—Merrill Hassenfeld is sporting a sheepskin from the University of Pennsylvania, while Dave Hassenfeld garnered one from the Harvard Law School... Edith Hassenfeld recently arrived from Berlin, with her medical husband... Ask Bill Bojar if he knows a double pinnoche when he sees it... Attention Ben Bromberg!—I noticed a pretty good location for one of your super-accessory stores... Are you interested?... Here is a rhyme that wine dealers ought to capitalize on:—Red wines should go with meat; white, with fowl or fish; sweet ones, before you eat; or after the last dish!...

MATHEWSON STREET SCENE

Eddie Eisenberg, who whistles while he works at the Mathewson Tog, was the subject of much speculation by a customer who had made a purchase from one of the other boys... Said customer, after leaving store, came back to inquire whether Eddie was a Nazi or anti-Nazi, and did he know that he was whistling the "Horst-Wessel" song... But what Eddie and the gang want to know now is, was this said customer with us or agin us...

OVER THE WIRE

A fellow who appreciated a good press agent was Alexander the Great, who, standing at the tomb of Achilles, cried out, "O, fortunate youth, to have had Homer as the herald of your fame!... When Izzy Gennet, the wreath-laying war veteran, was introduced by Bernard Sandler to Mayor LaGuardia at the Memorial Day ceremony, the Little Flower showed his fluent knowledge of Yiddish in a brief conversation about the Bum of Berlin, before inviting Gennet to visit him at City Hall... The family sure gets around: A press clipping shows that the president of the Chugoku Bank at Yamashite, Japan is none other than Mr. Magosaburo O'Hara...

Couple Married in Berlin Plan Permanent Residence in R. I.

BY EDYTHE JAY

Dr. Jacob Reich, formerly of Poland, and now of Providence, is currently getting his first impressions of America—through Little Rhody. At the same time, his wife, who before her marriage almost a year and a half ago was Miss Edith Hassenfeld of this city, is absolutely thrilled at being back in her native country, having lived for the past fourteen months abroad.

In an interview last Monday morning with these two interesting people, I got a story that borders on the "boy meets girl" side. Back in the winter of 1934, Miss Hassenfeld started on a trip abroad, with Palestine as her destination. Destiny, in its own unexpected way, took a hand in the scheme of things, and Miss Hassenfeld stopped for a visit in Berlin. In this famous German city she met Jacob Reich, who was studying at the University of Berlin, preparing for his career of medicine.

Married in Berlin

A friendship developed immediately—and after Edith's return to this country, mailmen in Providence and Berlin alike found their delivery bags rather noticeably heavier. The mails served as a medium of contact until the summer of 1936, when Miss H. again made the ocean voyage to Berlin—and the couple's betrothal was announced. On March 2nd, 1937, came the culmination—their marriage in Berlin. Since Dr. Reich was still attending the University, they took up residence in that city, where they lived until late this Spring. About two weeks ago, the good ship "Manhattan" steamed into New York's harbor—and on its passenger list were included the names of Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Reich.

Prefers America

During the course of the interview on Monday, the query, "Do you like Europe?" to Mrs. Reich, brought an emphatic and swift, "I should say not." When the same question was directed at her husband, he replied in his charming continental English, "Why—that's hard to say, Europe, you see, is the only country I've ever known." So I changed my question to one more appropo, asking him if he liked America. His "Oh, very much!" seemed to comprise a look into the hopeful future, and a reflection into the not-too-peaceful past.

At this point, a rather noteworthy announcement came from Mrs. R. She said, "We as foreigners—my husband as a Polish citizen, and I as an American—encountered no difficulties in Germany. Of course, the Nazis had no motive for bothering us, since we carried on no business transactions."

Although they saw no actual rioting in Germany, because they did not live in the Jewish section, they told of the German Jews complete exclusion in Germany's political, educational and artistic fields. "They're not wanted anywhere," Dr. Reich declared. "It's an old story," Mrs. R. added, "and everybody knows it, but it's tragic—tragic, this tale of our Jews." More about Germany, they wouldn't say.

Visit Palestine

It was really a bilingual interview...at times, the doctor would be answering my questions in English—and still other times he would address his answer to his wife in Jewish—and she related them to me in English.

I learned from Mrs. Reich that on her various trips abroad, she has visited in Czechoslovakia, Holland, Poland—and of course Palestine—and it seemed rather amazing to me that she should be so overjoyed at returning to our little cubby-hole town. Maybe that trite axiom about absence making the heart grow fonder has its bearing on this fact.

Plans to Practice Here

The doctor said that he plans to start a period of hospital internship very soon—and after that? Well—a shingle to be hung—most probably in this city.

The doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Reich are at present living in Galicia, Poland, with two of his sisters and a brother. Still another sister lives in Palestine.

"We plan to live in this country permanently," said Dr. Reich. "But, we hope to manage a trip back to Jacob's fatherland every so often." was the appendage submitted by the doctor's lady.
