Roger Williams

The memory of Roger Williams, whose zeal for spiritual and civil liberty forced him to settle in what is now Rhode Island, is to be honored next Thursday afternoon when a monument to this great man will be dedicated on Prospect Terrace.

Vernon L. Parrington, historian has said of Williams — "He believed and dreamed in a future he was not to see, impatient to bring to men a heaven they were unready for. And because they were unready they could not understand the grounds of his hope, and not understanding they were puzzled and angry and cast him out to dream his dreams in the wilderness."

"A humane and liberal spirit, he was groping for a social order more generous than any theocracy — that would satisfy the aspirations of men for a catholic fellowship, greater than sect or church, village or nation, embracing all races and creeds, bringing together the sundered societies of men in a common spirit of good will."

When, in 1655, the Dutch refused the Jews in New Amsterdam and Curacao, the privilege of exercising their religion in a synagogue or gathering and ordered them to depart, many Jews settled in Newport where the Assembly, actuated by the lofty idealisms of Williams and the significant Jewish interests in things biblical, paved the way for the recognition of the rights of the Jewish people in all the American colonies.

In these troubled days when racial and national bias is on the increase we would do well to consider the generous and tolerant spirit of Roger Williams whose unquenchable desire for freedom furthered the cause of peace and good will.

No Ersatz

Through the columns of Le Force Armate, a Mussolini sheet, is now disclosed the fact that from mid-December 1936, to mid-April, 1937, Italy sent 100,000 soldiers into Spain, 4,370 vehicles, 40,000 tons of material and 750 cannons by 52 steamships in 132 voyages "for the protection of which it was necessary to employ 30 fighting ships."

During that period Herr Mussolini's spokesmen were positively denying that Italy was aiding the Franco cause.

In that period Herr Mussolini was still avowing friendship for the Jews in Italy, pointing to Julius Caesar's admiration for the Jews and their reciprocal loyalty to Caesar's cause, and declaring that he (Mussolini) was resisting attempts to discriminate against them.

In 1938 the world heard Herr Hitler's open declaration that if the alleged German Sudeten were given Germany, no further European territorial demands would be made by the Reich. Then came the seizure of Czecho-Slovakia, with the reduction of its people to a state of servitude.

These are but a few specimens of the art of dissimulation as practiced by the gangster regimes.

Despite their great genius for creating substitutes for deficiencies, the dictator nations have produced no convincing ersatz for honor, common decency, human justice or truth.

Isadore Gandal Reports On Social Welfare Convention

In a letter received this week from Isadore Gandal, executive director of the Jewish Family Welfare Society, who is attending the National Conference of Jewish Social Welfare in Buffalo, the following report on the sessions was submitted:

"The outstanding general sessions," said Mr. Gandal, "were devoted to discussions of case work in application to Jewish family social work; problems of foster home care for children; new community developments in care for the aged; Jewish youth and the community center; vocational guidance for Jewish youth, and Jewish placement services."

"Many of the sessions and technical discussions," Mr. Gandal said, "were on the problem of refugee adjustment in the various Jewish communities."

Mr. Gandal asserted that the speakers who touched upon general problems — particularly anti-Semitism — were for the most part in agreement that the problem of discrimination was directly related to the general economic and social conditions faced by the country and the world at large, and could be solved only by the solution of basic problems — unemployment, insecurity, etc. Mr. Gandal's letter further stated, "As Jews we must support the democratic principles of our country and help prevent the rise of such forces as would destroy democracy and freedom of thought and action."

Mr. Gandal was chairman of the Family Service Section of the Jewish Conference, and participated as a discussant and panelist in other sessions.

Monument Erected On Prospect Terrace

Arrange Tribute To State Founder

A memorial to the honor of Roger Williams, founder of these plantations, erected on Prospect Terrace, Congdon street, will be dedicated 3 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, June 29, it was announced this week by Addison P. Munroe, president of the Rhode Island Roger Williams Memorial Association, Inc., an organization formed in 1934 to fulfill an intention that had been slumbering in the hearts of Rhode Island citizens since 1771.

The monument, designed by Ralph Walker, architect of New York, formerly of Rhode Island, and sculptured by Leo Friedlander of White Plains, N. Y., represents Roger Williams standing in the bow of his canoe just before he landed at the Seekonk River, with an arm outstretched in a gesture of friendship and tolerance. Placed in front of a square arch made of Westerly granite, the statue is in a commanding location overlooking the city of Providence.

Coughlinites Knife Jewish Teacher

NEW YORK. — A Jewish school teacher, Samuel Applebaum, received a knife wound in the leg requiring treatment in a clash between supporters of Father Coughlin selling copies of Social Justice and vendors of an anti-Coughlin pamphlet.

Applebaum became embroiled when he resented anti-Semitic remarks made by speakers. Police reserves were called to break up the clash. A second fight occurred after the police had left, but was quickly broken up.

"Kosher" Rip Van Winkle Honored

WORLD'S FAIR, N. Y. — The New York World's Fair last week played host to Rip Van Winkle, "reawakened" after his long sleep to see the World of Tomorrow, but it was a "kosher" Rip Van Winkle.

The awakening of the famous legendary character, immortalized in Washington Irving's story, was reenacted on the same spot where he was supposed to have slept for 25 years in the 18th century — Rip's Rock, near the historic Mountain House at Haines Falls, N. Y. But since Rip's original slumber, the Mountain House has become a Jewish hotel. And so Rip "awoke" to find his rocky bed now on the grounds of Andron's Mountain House — one of the most exclusive kosher resorts in this section of the country.

Says Anti-Jewish Laws "Too Lenient"

Prague Protector Rejects Proposal

LONDON. — The Prague Government's projected anti-Jewish law was rejected by Baron von Neurath, "Protector" of Bohemia-Moravia, according to reliable information from the Czech capital which revealed that von Neurath was opposed to the anti-Jewish law as being "too lenient." The Reich Protector was said to be opposed to certain clauses in the law which provided for the following.

1. Setting up certain persons as "honorary aryan." 2. Violation of the Rassenschande principle by permitting mixed marriages with the provision that the "aryan" partner would be considered a Jew. 3. Admission of not more than 50 lawyers to the Prague bar. 4. Incomplete liquidation and "aryanization" of Jewish enterprises. 5. An "excessive" percentage of Jews in some of the professions.

Cromwells to Match Fund For Refugees

NEW YORK. — Jimmy Cromwell and his wife, the former Doris Duke, tobacco millionairess, have agreed to match, dollar for dollar, all future contributions to the student refugee scholarship fund of Rutgers University and New Jersey College for Women, both at New Brunswick, N. J.

Students of the two colleges quoted Cromwell as saying: "Although we realize that there are many students in this country who need assistance in completing their college education, it is our hope that helping students in this humanitarian work will serve to make American students more conscious of the liberties and privileges enjoyed in these United States."

Can We Afford To Have The Home Carnival Fail?

by ALTER BOYMAN

The only Jewish major charity institution in our community, which is not in the Community Fund is the Jewish Home for Aged. The Home, therefore, is forced to have such functions as the annual Ball and the Carnival. And it is necessary that the profit from the Carnival must cover at least 40 per cent of the expenses of the Home.

The truth of the matter, at this time, is that the attendance of the first four nights was less than half than we expected.

It is possible that we have forgotten our obligations to those old men and women who are finding a haven at the home? No! We cannot afford to make a failure of such a worthy undertaking. The few nights which remain for the Carnival to run must make up the loss.

We must wake up to the fact that if the income of the Carnival should be less than anticipated the community will have to be burdened with another enterprise to make up the deficit. Therefore, to save time, to save labor, to save expense, let us answer the last call of Duty to one of our most worthy institutions and make these last few days of the Carnival a financial success which it deserves to be and should be.

This can only be possible if the response to the call by our community will be answered in the remaining nights of the Carnival and to preserve the good name of our community.

Radio Units Endorse Ban on Racial Hatred

NEW YORK. — A new voluntary code of self-regulation for radio broadcasters which will include a provision that no religious hatred or racial prejudice shall go on the air has been drawn up by a committee of eleven representatives of radio stations, including the three major networks.

Edward M. Kirby, director of public relations of the National Association of Broadcasters, said the agreement would be submitted to the association's convention in Atlantic City on July 11 and 12 for approval.

The Hungarian minority is represented by twelve, the German by nine, and the Bulgarian by four. The Jews have no candidate, since they may not vote unless enrolled as electors.

Says Jewish Youth Faces Difficulties

Dr. Sachar Talks To B'nai B'rith

CHICAGO. — The present generation of American Jewish youth has problems of adjustment which surpass in difficulty even those of the older generation because of the special difficulties the Jewish youngster faces in addition to those shared by all American youth, Dr. A. L. Sachar, national director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations, declared at the B'nai B'rith Midwest Institute on Vocational Service which convened here.

Sounding the keynote for the conference with an address on "Jewish Youth Faces the Future," Dr. Sachar said that while Jewish youth suffer from "a rapidly contracting capitalism" that severely limits the free enterprise of all, "the rising tide of racial and religious discrimination is eliminating the Jews from positions formerly entered easily."

Masada Re-Elects David Korb, Pres.

At a meeting of Masada, held recently at the home of Miss Harriet Curland on Sixth street, Louis David Korb was re-elected president of the group.

Other officers named were Israel Carten, first vice-president; Edith Lipsey, second vice-president; Adelaide Mitchell, corresponding secretary; William Wunsch, recording secretary; Betty Plotkin, publicity secretary; Harold Pansy, treasurer; Lillian Politzer, librarian, and Lillian Waid, song reader.

An address was heard by Mr. Schwartz of B'nai B'rith. Cooperation in fighting Anti-Semitism was pledged by Masada. A report on the recent Masada convention in New York was submitted by Frank Licht and Israel Carten. It was voted by the group that meetings be held during the summer.

Girl Wins Screeno, Boy Friend, Wedding

BROOKLYN. — "Screeno!"

And when Ethel Lazar stepped down from the stage she had her cash prize—plus a fiancé, a trousseau, a supper and reception and about everything else she wanted.

She and her fiancé, Philip Levine will be married tonight on the stage of Loew's Pitkin Theatre in Brooklyn. Rabbi Morris S. Granchow will officiate.

Interviewed on the platform the night she won, Miss Lazar explained that finances—or lack of them—had kept her escort from proposing. A restaurant owner suddenly arose and offered a wedding party as a gift. Another patron gave a bridal gown and trousseau. Friends and strangers alike contributed. The theatre management arranged tonight's ceremony.

If you want to be a winner in the struggle for success, you must always know for certain when others only guess.

Ledgemont Legends

Professor Henderson of Yale Medical School some years ago declared that research proved that Southern New England had the best climate throughout the year for the worker, mental or physical; that this region has no exhaustingly long period of heat or cold; and that the rapid changes in weather that Mark Twain mentioned were very healthful. Not only can a man work better in this locality, but he can also relax and play better here than elsewhere in the country. . . . New England is truly the "Playground of the Nation," and Ledgemont is the playground of Rhode Island.

This was especially true last week-end, when the younger set came to dance at the club Saturday night, the first of a series of regular Saturday night dances. . . . Among the many present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oresman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Licht, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Halpert, Mr. and Mrs. Max Siegal, Burleigh Greenberg, Sam Silverman, Burt Finberg, Max Winograd, Sol Rothstein, Ralph Beerman, Elliott Paris, Julius Bloom and many charming guests from Providence, New York and Baltimore. . . . It certainly looks as if Ledgemont will be the center of the social life on Saturdays for the summer. . . .

The Ladies' Day on Wednesday opened with a large attendance, Mrs. Sam Oresman winning for her fine golf the first prize, an electric lamp. . . . After golf, some of the members played bridge and remained for dinner. . . . Incidentally, many members are bringing their guests here for fine food in pleasant surroundings. . . .

We are fast approaching the finals for the Harry Wolfe trophy. . . . Still contending are Julius Bloom, Sam Oresman, Jimmy Young and Pete Woolf. . . . Play for the President's Trophy is now in progress. . . . In the hot fight for the cup are Harry Fowler, Archie Albert, Sol Rothstein, Dick Loebenberg, Murray Trinkel, Julius Bloom, Bob Logan, Ben Trinkle, Stanley Loebenberg, Ed Finberg and Pete Woolf. . . .

The newest innovation at Ledgemont, the solarium, was very popular on Sunday. . . . Many members were seen there, and everyone spoke of it in the highest terms. . . . Our masseur, Joe Emmett, was very busy and will need an assistant if the activity continues. . . .

Barney Kay, Dick Loebenberg, Jimmy Young shot splendid golf. . . . Dick almost made the green on the ninth with his drive. . . . Doc Berger and Abe Klein were reminiscing about golf clubs in Maine. . . . Golf certainly gives one the wanderlust, but every Ledgemont member comes home boosting our club. . . . A fine compliment to the Greens Committee, which for many years has kept the links in condition comparable with the best in the country.

Ernst Nathan and wife, just back from their European jaunt, had Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin as guests. . . . The Misses Shirley Logan, Evelyn Horenstein, Ann Fishman, Phyllis Finberg and Ethel Kessler were among the feminine contingent playing. . . .

Dr. Biderman and wife played excellent golf in the Father's Day Tournament. . . . So did Joe and Jen Levin. . . . Nat Kaufman, Sam Steiner find a pleasant relaxation from business. . . . We're glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Sapinsley here at the club again. . . . They should come more often. . . . The youthful spirit of Mrs. Samuel Kanner certainly keeps her fit. . . . More women should follow her example, walk in the fresh air over smooth lawns, and play golf at our club. . . .

Among the out-of-town guests were the Edward Goldberger's of New York, playing with Doc Goldberger and sister, Blanche, home from Wellesly College. . . . Ed confirms the viewpoint of this writer that Providence has many advantages over New York. . . . For instance, the golf club nearest the big city can be reached only after an hour's automobile ride through heavy traffic; playing-off time is by appointment and must be reserved the previous week; delay in starting to play is penalized by losing one's position. . . . Cars must pay parking fees; the annual dues are two or three times the fees charged at Ledgemont; members change clubs so frequently that instead of seeing friends, one always meets strangers, and the drive back to New York is so tiresome that the golfer loses all benefits of playing. . . . We definitely like it here where we are. . . . S. S.

Signs Threaten Newark Mayor

NEW YORK. — A painted sign in foot-high letters, reading "Get Out, Jew," was discovered on the home of Mayor Meyer C. Ellenstein. Another message, "Jew, get out or else," was painted on the sidewalk in front of the house. Mayor Ellenstein said he had received several anonymous letters in similar vein.

Rabbi N. Taragin To Attend Conclave

Rabbi Nathan Taragin of the Congregation Sons of Abraham, will leave on Sunday night to attend a three day conference from June 26 to 28 inclusive, to be held by the Rabbinical Council of America, at Androns Old Mountain House, Haines Falls, New York. The organization is comprised mainly of young Orthodox Yiddish-English speaking rabbis throughout the United States and Canada. Dr. Herbert S. Goldstein is its president. Rabbi Abraham S. Irom of Brooklyn is chairman of the Convention.

Rabbi Taragin will read a paper on "The Orthodox Rabbinate of Providence and Its Problems." It is expected that 300 rabbis will attend.

Mrs. Samuel Berg Again Heads Odessa

Mrs. Samuel Berg was re-elected president of the First Odessa Independent Ladies Auxiliary, at a meeting of the organization held last Monday at their headquarters, 59 Chestnut street.

Other officers elected and installed comprise: Mrs. Samuel Malinow, vice-president; Mrs. M. Miller, treasurer; Mrs. S. Sax, financial secretary; Mrs. H. Pearlman, recording secretary; Mrs. A. ### Man On The Street

Dave "Mose" Sipper has been bossing the best paper corner in these plantations for over 35 years, with the exception of a 28-month lapse the time he served in the World War . . . Dave, or "Mo" as he is known to most of his acquaintances, could muster quite an alumnus of men who at one time or another sold papers at his Dorrance and Westminster street stand . . . The German anthropologist, Otto Hausen, writing in a Nazi-Aryan magazine: "The blonde woman will never urge the man to acquire more and more money so that she can live in ever luxury." . . . (That ain't been our experience with blondes, Otto.) . . . Advertisement in the Worcester (Mass.) Telegram — "Lady, wishes position as housekeeper for widower; no objection to having one child." . . . Line forms on the right! — National Press Club's Goldfish Bowl . . .

Town Talk

Walter Gartner and a New Jersey miss have planned a Fall wedding . . . Edgar Parvey is back in town for a summer vacation . . . The Robert Baker family leaves town on Saturday to take up permanent residence in Maine . . . Benton Rosen is enjoying fine weather on his vacation . . . Irene Green is toiling at the World's

Remember Sarajevo

Twenty-five years ago Wednesday, June 28, Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife were assassinated at Sarajevo, by Gavrillo Princip, a student. The murder precipitated a World war within six weeks. Photograph above, historically famous, shows the archduke and his wife about to enter their car just before the assassination.

Fair . . . 'Tis rumored that Benny Premack has bought a diamond engagement ring . . . Mildred Sack opened an air-mail letter the other A. M. while having coffee, and turned the color of beet-juice when I looked at her . . . Frankie and Mo Pritsker are Block Island-bound for over the Fourth . . .

This and That

During recess from their mah-jong game, Cordei, Blumenthal, Helene Bernhardt and Mrs. Bill Silverman take lunch at the Oak Hill Delicatessen — run by Joe Fortlouis and Mark Schuber — recent arrivals from the land of Hitler . . . The Repertory Players are planning a Beaux Arts ball for the coming season . . . Allen Cross was in town for the funeral of his former partner, Eddie Healey—and spent a day talking over old times with Harry Mineoff and the gang . . . Lackadaisical: More than two years ago when the Spanish civil war broke out, a Barcelona theatre playing a film called "Morena Clara," for the seventh week was forced to close by hostilities . . . Reopening recently, it installed the same film and casually advertised it as playing its eighth week . . .

John Hamilton, chairman of the Republican National Committee, is highly jittery about the effect which the tying up of his name with the anti-Semitic campaign of General Moseley may have had upon the public mind . . . He's sending out carloads of literature proving that he fought the Ku Klux Klan, urged the Rev. Gerald Winrod's defeat in his Kansas Senatorial campaign, and was shocked by reports of Nazi cruelty in Germany . . . Mr. Hamilton is not an anti-semiter, but his dislike for Roosevelt is so deep that he has more than once been indiscreet in his choice of bedfellows . . . Walter Winchell, who has a knack of being penetrating as well as smart, says that if General Moseley is not a Nazi, he is a rat that doesn't like cheese . . . Get ready for sensational headlines on Nazi and Italian military preparations in South America . . . That report about an important Nazi air base in Bolivia, so vehemently denied by the Bolivian government, is only a tenth of the full truth . . . The reason why the hawkers of Father Coughlin's "Social Justice", are so insistently persistent is that they are permitted to keep whatever money they take in . . .

Baroness Held As Hostage By Nazis

At the same time, Nazi authorities informed the Baron, now recovering in Paris from 14 months' imprisonment in Vienna, that his friend would be held as hostage until his part of the ransom agreement has been carried out in full. Baron Louis was said to have refused to sign papers necessary for the beginning of the suits until the Baroness is safely out of Austria.

Honor Untermeyer On 81st Birthday

Scroll Extolls Public Service

NEW YORK. — Samuel Untermeyer described himself this week as still being puzzled, for — as he said on his eighty-first birthday — a scroll presented to him by the staff and patients of the Body and Mind Foundation "does not match any life at all."

The scroll extolled Mr. Untermeyer's public services and philanthropies and was "in recognition of his co-operation as a defender and protector against the furies of intolerance and jealousy."

Mr. Untermeyer, who otherwise did not disturb his daily routine on his birthday, said — when he was handed the scroll:

"I am glad I have reached eighty-one years. I have seen the turmoil and brutality of modern life in my time, and it is my fervent hope that I shall live to see them brought to an end."

Hints Given For A Successful Vacation

"What do you consider the outstanding advantage that the successful summer resort must possess?" This was the question directed to Ben Plotkin, managing director of Pine Brook Lodge of Nichols, Conn. the newest of the adult camps. His answer was one to which all vacationers may well pay heed.

"A resort must be much more than a collection of superlative sports, activities and entertainment features.

"The BEST times ARE had with PEOPLE! "We are particularly proud of PINE BROOK'S swell fraternity of young people, no children, no families. They are not only the source of that gay party spirit that infectious informality, friendliness and camaraderie — and that swell happy family atmosphere — for which PINE BROOK is noted but it is also the indication and proof of presence in such abundance of every natural, recreational, entertainment and other advantage."

BY EDYTHE JAY

Have you seen our women of the week? ... They continue to delight us with their sartorial splendor ... Blonde Fredda Sydney, stunning in a navy wool crepe suit, and white pique blouse ... Her suntanned skin contrasted by a chalk white hat ... Dena Cornfield, in a pinkish-purple shirtwaist frock—beautifully tailored ... At the neckline, she wore a crystal brooch, shaped exactly like one of the Three Musketeers' hats ... Mrs. Joseph Levin was stunning in all-blue outfit the other day — and the exciting note was her original Lily Dache chapeau ... Frances Snell has a penchant for dirndls ... The cotton one she had on the other nite was as merry as Old King Cole ... Its predominant colour was rust — interspersed with pastels ... It had short puffed sleeves, and a becoming square neckline ...

Tailor-Made Girl

Dorothy Berman was a tailor-made girl in a chic navy suit, pleaded all the way around — her hat was navy too ... Gish Levin said hello on Monday, but she went by so fast I couldn't get my pad and pencil out in time to note what she wore ... Lillian Dick is sporting a luxurious bolero jacket of kolinsky ... She wore it one day this week with a green frock ... It was really something noteworthy ... Betty Plotkin, in an impeccably tailored semi-dress suit of navy ... She wore it with a baby blouse of sheer white batiste — and her hat was of toast straw, with a blue veil ... Mrs. Louis Rosenberg, who always looks like a photograph from Vogue, in an ultra smart outfit of blue ... Dorothy Sorrentino, trying on hats ... She was cool-looking in a smart black skirt, and a filmy white chiffon, long-sleeved blouse ... Etta Lavett, eye-catching, in frock of pearl gray and dubonnet ... Edith Aronovitz, in a striking ensemble of navy, red and white — and a stunning red straw hat — the size of a small parasol ...

Tarleton Names Musical Host

Don Richards noted baritone and concert artist has been engaged for the summer as musical host at the Lake Tarleton Club in New Hampshire. Mr. Richards has just returned from a spring series of opera with the St. Louis Grand Opera Company where he scored a success in his first appearances since returning from Italy.

Proudly the Lake Tarleton Club will present Irving Fields and his piano and his music for the summer at the club. His recently organized group has just concluded an engagement in the Cocoanut Grove at the Park Central Hotel and before that a cross country series of presentations which brought him to California.

on the sports mezzanine of Jean's the other day ... The selection of sports togs was so extensive and smart — and the atmosphere so cool and refreshing — well, really, it was like having a vacation — and not a bit like shopping ...

Re:—Your Recess

And speaking of vacations, if, at this date you feel there's a lull in your life, the best remedy is to plan your two week's recess ... Seek it at the antipodes of where you spend your daily routine ... If an office is your address for the best part of every day, then get out into the wide open spaces ... Perfect your golf game, canter every morning on your favorite mount, ride a bike with a mileage gauge on it, so you can see how many miles you leave behind, dance evenings on an open terrace ... All these diversions go with the summer camps and hotels ... Our vacation editor can give you some interesting suggestions as to where to go ...

On the other hand, if — like social workers, your daily routine keeps you out under the sun, get yourself some stunning town clothes, and go dining in the smart hotels and restaurants; see the road shows that come to town; spend as many hours as you like catching up on your shopping, and during the cocktail hour, sip a refreshing drink at your favorite rendezvous ... Night must fall, and when it does, you'll probably feel that all you want is a spray of lillies, but Sir Someone will buzz your phone, and after a cold shower and a quick change of costume, you're ready for a swell evening in an air-conditioned hotel or club ... Such changes of scene will do wonders for your frame of mind — and will last you until your next vacation — er, we hope ...

Catholics in War on Anti-Semitism

Committee Includes Priests, Teachers To Issue Monthly Tabloid Paper

NEW YORK. — A committee of sixty-five Catholic priests, journalists, teachers, writers, artists, and professional men this week began a war on anti-Semitism.

The first issue of a tabloid-size newspaper to describe the progress of the crusade will be released this month, Dr. Emanuel Chapman, executive secretary, announced.

The organization will be the focal point of a drive, based on Catholic teachings, to show anti-Semitism as a "serious threat to the principles of democracy and Christianity." The group's name is the Committee of Catholics to Fight Anti-Semitism.

In a report on current manifestations of organized anti-Semitism, the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America yesterday urged each denomination to make its own contribution to the stamping out of anti-Semitism.

Dr. Benson Y. Landis, who filed the report, warned that intolerance could not hope to defeat intolerance.

"The relation of an-Semtic propagandists to Nazi methods should be revealed by churchmen wherever possible," he added.

This was stated in connection with the fifteenth anniversary of the creation of the Foundation.

Canadian Censors Refuse to Ban Film

OTTAWA. — It was revealed here that Eric Windels, German Consul-General, has circulated the nine provincial motion picture censor bureaus with a letter requesting that the Soviet motion picture "Professor Mamlock," depicting persecution of Jews in Germany, be banned because it "does not represent conditions as they are in Germany."

None of the censor bureaus have banned the picture, the latest province giving permission to show the motion picture being Manitoba.

The first gymnasium was established in Jerusalem in 174 B. C. and became a famous training ground for Jewish athletes.

N.J. Voters Legalize Betting Machine

Photograph shows typical pari-mutuel horse racing betting machines that became legal this week when the citizens of New Jersey voted favorably on a referendum to have them installed. The vote for the machines is considered a victory for Mayor Hague over Reverend Lester H. Cleo, former state senator and Republican candidate for governor in 1937 who campaigned against the measure.

Jewish Immigrant Boy Reiterates Thanks For Living in America

NEW YORK. — One year ago, youth of a race has no tomorrow. I am thankful that I am happy and free. Martin Marden wrote a Thanksgiving prayer in which he paid tribute to America, which had taken him in—a harassed and bewildered 16-year-old Jewish immigrant.

So moving were his words that New York and the nation wanted to see more of this red-haired boy who divided his days between delivering Postal-telegrams and attending Junior high school. The boy turned out to be as earnest as the prayer which included these words:—

"I am thankful that I live in a land where a person may sing the national anthem without having someone tell him that he may not because of his race. I am thankful that I live in a land where the youth of all races have a tomorrow, rather than in my native land (Germany) where the youth of a race has no tomorrow. I am thankful that I am happy and free."

For a month, Martin was a hero. He visited Washington, spoke in scores of high schools in Chicago, Baltimore, Milwaukee. He took a trip through Virginia, and visited the White House. That was a year ago. What about today?

"Today I'm more in love with America than ever," he says. "When I wrote that prayer as a school assignment, I didn't think anyone would read it but my teachers. I still mean every word of it."

Martin's prayer was once broadcast over a nationwide network, and Paramount Pictures later used it as a dialogue in the picture, "Sons of the Legion." "Got a little bit of money out of that," he said this week.

Advises Girls There Is Future in Jewish Fields

NEW YORK. — The American-Jewish girl of today should confine her creative ability to Jewish fields and thus preserve her Jewish cultural identity. This is the opinion of May Berg, and it is significant because, although but 21, Miss Berg is national education chairman of Junior Hadassah, an organization whose program affects some 20,000 young Jewish women.

Matters of Art

Explaining further her suggestions for the Jewish-American girl, Miss Berg said:—

"I think, for example, that the girl with dramatic ability should enter into the Anglo-Jewish theater. The girl who paints should paint Jewish subjects—not the ghetto life but the dynamic Jewish life that we know exists in Palestine today. She should always maintain her Jewish cultural character and not allow herself to become absorbed by other expressions."

Miss Berg is pretty well convinced that young people who are finding their escapes in Communism and other radical expressions and "isms" can be turned into more satisfactory channels by a study of the Old Testament.

Back to the Land

Miss Berg says the Jews already have established in Palestine proof of their ability to engage in basic occupations.

"So very often it is the accusation against the Jews that they cannot participate in, have no aptitude for, such fundamental activities as agriculture," said Miss Berg. "And it is also charged that the Jewish organization is top-heavy."

"Yet the situation in Palestine has shown us that Jews can forego so-called intellectual phases of modern civilization and go back to the land and work it."

520 Jews Find Haven in Bolivia

Promised Homes And Friendship

ARICA, Chile. — Five hundred and twenty Jews, of the thousands roaming the world in despair, found a haven in South America this week.

The British liner Orduna and the Italian liner Orazio brought the refugees yesterday, on their way to Bolivia, where they have been promised homes and friendship.

Awaiting a special train, the refugees, from children to aged men and women, wandered about the streets of this little town. The influx was unexpected because both steamships arrived on the same day, and the refugees taxed the capacity of the town.

At the request of the Bolivian Consulate, the international express which was to take them to Bolivia was held up for two hours yesterday afternoon, but it was possible to find room for only 199 of them on the train.

Chilean refugee authorities rushed extra cars to Arica today to take care of the rest.

Medical Center Has First Circumcision

JERUSALEM. — The first circumcision at the new $1,000,000 Hadassah-Rothschild University Hospital took place last week. The child, son of Joseph Friedman, a constructor worker at the Hospital, was named Maier, in honor of Maier Rothschild. Chief Rabbi Isaac Herzog, acting as "sander," presented the child for circumcision. The blessing was pronounced by the Karliner "wonder rabbi."

The first girl born at the hospital was named Hadassah, for the American women's Zionist organization which helped to finance construction of the Medical Center on Mt. Scopus.

Ben Franklin Kin Helps Synagogue

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. — In 1788, Benjamin Franklin contributed $25 to aid in the erection of a new synagogue of the Mikeveh Israel Congregation in Philadelphia.

More than 150 years later, Franklin's great - great - great - grandson, Franklin Bache Huntington, emulated his distinguished ancestor by announcing a contribution to the building fund of the local Jewish Community Center, ground for which will be broken on June 25. Dr. Ben Zion Bokser is rabbi of the congregation.

REFUGEES HOMELESS

BUENOS AIRES — Two hundred German Jewish refugees, holding visas for Paraguay, were not permitted to land when the three vessels carrying them put in at Buenos Aires.

50 Families Take Refugee Children

NEW YORK. — Fifty Jewish refugee children, aged 5 to 13, arrived here this week on the liner President Harding.

They were brought to America by a Philadelphia attorney, Gilbert J. Krauss, as the sequel to a dinner conversation six months ago when 57 persons were enlisted to finance the venture and house the children. Krauss was personal guarantor for them all.

One of the sponsors, Congressman Lee Sacks, of Philadelphia, said the children came in on "regular affidavits within the quota."

Men and women who had come here to meet the boat picked up little boys and girls in their arms and paraded them up and down the pier.

Czech Jews Fined Heaviest in Killing

PRAGUE. — The Jewish community of Kladno will be forced to pay 80 per cent of the 500,000 crown (about $20,000) fine levied on the district by Baron Constantin von Neurath, Reich Protector, for the killing of a German policeman, it was learned from Czech informants this week.

The remaining 20 percent will be collected from supporters of the "Benes" (former Czechoslovak President) system. This means Germans living in the district and those sympathetic toward the protectorate will be exempted from payment.

Support Illegal Entry, Declares Wedgwood

LONDON. — Col. Josiah Wedgwood, Laborite M.P., told a meeting of the Anglo-Palestine Club that Palestine Jews would not be doing their duty unless they "made illegal immigration possible and in the end make it legal." He said that if Tel Aviv's 150,000 Jews wanted a ship in its harbor to land its cargo "no power on earth could stop them."

Nazi Extremists Appear in Prague

Zionist Conclave To Adopt Program

Goldman, Abraham Heller, Mrs. Samuel Michaelson, Morris Shoham, George Pullman, Jacob Licht and Maurice Hendel.

Considerable interest centers about the plenary session Monday night when two speakers, who have just arrived from Palestine, will relate from their personal observation and study the recent occurrences in Palestine and the attitude, spirit and plans of the Yishuv. The speakers will be Dr. Werner Senator and Mrs. Edward Jacobs, both members of the Executive of the Jewish agency.

The keynote of the convention will be sounded by Dr. Solomon Goldman, president of the Zionist Organization of America, whose address Sunday afternoon will point the direction of the political program of American Zionists and of American activity in Palestine's development during the coming year.

American recommendations for Zionist political policy vis a vis Great Britain will be the subject of addresses by Dr. Goldman and Louis Lipsky, member of the Jew-

Honor Memory of Roger Williams

Munroe stated that Prof. Samuel H. Brockunier, professor of History at Wesleyan University, and considered one of the foremost scholars on Roger Williams will be the principal speaker. Prof. Brockunier is author of the book "Roger Williams, Colonial Democrat," now in process of publication.

Officials of state and city, the three religions—Catholic, Jewish and Protestant—will be represented. Dr. Israel M. Goldman, Rabbi of Temple Emanuel, as representative of the Jewish community, will give the closing prayer and benediction at the dedication exercises.

The meagre, mortal remains of Roger Williams, buried in a crude box with the initials "RW" will be transferred to a permanent resting place within the memorial. It is a singular coincidence, Mr. Munroe said, that the original burying place is only a few hundred feet from the memorial.

A copy of the Jewish Herald, with other publications and papers that contain stories of the Memorial and the dedication, will be placed in a record box of the monument.

Ever since 1771, the citizens of Rhode Island have been concerned with the necessity of a memorial to Roger Williams. Unsettled conditions, however, at each attempt, prevented any definitive action on the part of various monument associations. It remained for Stephen Randall, a descendant of Williams, through the founder's youngest daughter, Mercy, to take matters into his own hands. In 1865 he deposited $100 in the People's Savings Bank and set forth his ideas about a monument that someday would be built.

This fund, plus another formed for the same purpose provided $46,000. Other money received included $12,000 from the Providence Plantations Tercentenary Committee and $21,000 from the State of Rhode Island.

The monument is only one unit of a greater memorial. It has been proposed to beautify the lower terrace with walks, fountain, pool and landscaping. A broad flight of stairs would lead to the upper terrace. A parkway extending to Benefit street is also planned which would permit an unobstructed view of the monument.

Japan Will Not Persecute Jews

TOKYO. — Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita, wishing to avoid friction over policy such as the Reich has had, issued a statement at the annual conference of Prefectural Governors, stating that it is not Japan's policy to persecute Jews, and as long as they do not violate the laws will be treated like other foreigners.

He indicated that Jews in Japan owed their immunity from persecution in part to American reactions to German attacks on them.
