The French Tragedy

The tragedy of French Jews and refugees who had found sanctuary in France defies all description. All ways of escape seem barred. In no other country was the trap so complete.

The only chance of escape is Portugal or via Portugal to the western hemisphere. But before Lisbon can be reached the refugees have to cross Spain, and there the authorities have refused transit to all save those fortunate enough to possess a Portuguese visa. It is estimated that close on two million applications have been made to the Portuguese authorities.

The sympathy of the civilized world goes out to these helpless victims of Nazism, with the fervent hope that they may be enabled somehow to find some means of escape.

Between Two Evils

Iron Guard members in Roumania have lost little time in exploiting recent events for their anti-Semitic campaign.

Russia's action is cited as the result of British and Jewish intrigue and the populace is urged to take vengeance on the Jews in their midst.

That Roumania could not safeguard her independence by the semi-official sanction of pogroms was evident this week with the Nazi announcement that the carving of the Carol kingdom must be completed by September 15.

This time the cry "Down with the Jews", as a convenient digression, will not suffice to explain the dismemberment of Roumania.

Definitions

Hitler's definition of words changes as his victories increase. Once upon a time the word "plutocracy" intended to describe Jewish financiers counting out their gold and opposing Nazism's professedly benevolent intentions for the sake of more gold.

But since there are numerous gold reserve credits frozen here on behalf of conquered neighbors of Hitler, the Nazis have found it convenient to change the definition of "plutocracy," for under the original meaning the Nazis would be included.

An Example

THE JEWISH MORNING JOURNAL called the attention of its readers to an item which the Lithuanian consul in New York sent to the Lithuanian press in America, and which we believe, deserves the attention of the Anglo-Jewish press as well.

The Talmud Torah at Edmondton, Canada, received a strange request from the Lincoln Lithuanian Club of that city. The 40 Lithuanian families — non-Jewish — became concerned at the fact that their children were growing up in ignorance of the Lithuanian language and cultural traditions. As the teacher of the Talmud Torah had but recently arrived from Lithuania where he was an instructor in a Lithuanian-Jewish government school, the Lincoln Lithuanian Club asked for the services of the teacher and the use of the Talmud Torah building for a weekly Lithuanian class.

The Talmud Torah authorities graciously granted their request, and a class for the Lithuanian children is now meeting every Sunday afternoon at the Talmud Torah. The opening session was attended by the en-

Backs Censorship

WASHINGTON.—Senator Reynolds (D., N. C.), that indefatigable anti-ism man, introduced a resolution to prohibit transmission of "subversive matter" through U. S. communication channels — mails radio, telegraph or other means.

War Over By Oct. First, Dietrich Says

LOS ANGELES. — Arthur Dietrich, ousted press attache of the Mexico City German legation, predicted this week the European War would be over by Oct. 1, with the complete collapse of Great Britain.

After that, he said in an interview, "we will prove that we have no intention of invading either the territories or the rights of the American nations."

"The United States has the right to take over the West Indies owned by England and France. Canada should be an independent nation."

To Put Agitators In Concentration Camps

BUCHAREST, Rumania.—New anti-Jewish measures announced last week provide for special concentration camps for Jews accused of agitating against Rumania's present pro-Nazi regime.

All Jews born in Bessarabia who fled during the Russian occupation were ordered to return there within five days or be taken back forcibly.

HIAS 1940 Campaign Has Goal of Million Dollars

Arrangements for the annual campaign of the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, popularly known as HIAS, were discussed at a meeting held on Monday night at the Narragansett Hotel, under the acting chairmanship of Max Winograd. The program for 1940 calls for $1,000,000. It is expected that Providence will raise $10,000 in the campaign.

A provisional committee was selected comprising the following persons:

Saul Abrams, Dr. Archie Albert, Dr. Ilie Berger, Harry Blacher, Rabbi William G. Braude, Abe C. Fine, James Goldman, Rabbi Israel M. Goldman, Max L. Grant, Henry Hassenfeld, Maurice W. Hendel, Judge Joslin, Benjamin N. Kane, Samuel Kaplan, Arthur J. ## Predict Fall of Petain Government More Pro-Nazi Regime Wanted

NEW YORK. — The belief that Germany would soon dispense with the Petain Government in France and replace it with a more pro-Nazi regime was predicted by Drew Pearson in a radio broadcast. The Nazis would occupy the remainder of France, thus reducing it to a satellite status similar to that of Denmark and Norway, it was said.

Despite the complaisance of the Petain Government, Nazi dissatisfaction with its attitude was revealed in German broadcasts during the last two weeks from the occupied zone which sharply criticized the regime and apparently sought to undermine public confidence in it. The Germans' disapproval also was revealed by their apparent refusal to aid the Petain Ministry in meeting the grave problem of feeding 20,000,000 persons in a territory normally occupied by about 9,000,000 and which is en-

National Workers Alliance Scores Communist Betrayal

NEW YORK. — The Jewish National Workers Alliance, at its recent convention held here, scored the attempt of Communist lackies to discredit Democratic nations in the eyes of the people, and ordered new officers to see to it that no branch or ladies group of the Alliance in any way be representative in a body, which includes also representatives of

Rothschild Film Produced by Nazis

GENEVA. — The German film company, UFA, has produced a picture called "The Rothschilds." It is supposed to be a history of the family describing how Jews "amass fortunes in order to dominate the world." Much publicity has been given it by the Nazi press.

Earthquake Shakes Haifa and Safad

JERUSALEM, (Palcor Agency) — Palestine, which in times passed has been the locale of several severe earthquakes, this week experienced slight tremors in two of its northern cities.

Haifa, just beginning to recover from the shock of the destructive air raid of the day before, was one of the towns affected. This is the second time this year that the harbor city has been shaken. The other area shaken was Safad, the northernmost town of any size in the country. No damage was reported in either place.

Other Posts in N. E. Notified of Action

To Seek Office of Vice-Commander

At a muster of R. I. Post No. 23, Jewish War Veterans of the U. S., held last week, it was unanimously voted that Paul J. Robin, past commander, be endorsed for vice-commander of the New England Region, or for any other national office to which he may aspire at the National Convention to be held in Boston. It was also voted that notice of such endorsement be sent to each post in New England.

Mr. Robin is well known in New England for his activities in the organization, included among which are: Commander of R. I. Post No. 23, 1931; national Jr. Vice Commander in Chief, 1931; National Chief of Staff, 1932; Chairman of program and publicity committee of the National Convention held in this city, 1930.

As national officer 1931-2, he organized and instituted the following posts in New England: Fall River, Springfield, Cambridge, Lynn, Worcester, Newport and Hartford, and made the contact which later led to the formation of posts in New Britain, Norwich, New Haven, Connecticut, and Portland, Maine.

He is national committeeman of Sons of J. W. V.; chairman of the Legislative Committee of the United Allied Veterans of Rhode Island (1936-1940.); vice-president of the American Jewish Congress of Rhode Island; member of the Rhode Island Senate, 1933-4; was graduated from the College of the City of New York, '18.

Peacetime Draft Backed by Goldstein

NEW YORK. — Peacetime conscription with the proper democratic safeguards was approved by several rabbis in sermons here last Saturday. Prayers of intercession for beleaguered Britain were urged.

"Under proper democratic safeguards, wisely administered conscription may toughen the fiber of our democracy," Rabbi Israel Goldstein said to Congregation B'nai Jeshurun.

"The selection of men for the various types of training," he declared, "must be broad and democratic, insuring that wealth will not be used to win exemptions. Moreover, the wage scale for those who will be conscripted should be made more commensurate with an adequate minimum standard of living than the scale being now proposed."

ODDS and ENDS

City "Wilds"
NEW YORK. — The Madison Square Boys' Club has set up camp in the "wilds" — atop the roof of their clubhouse on 29th street, within easy walking distance of Grand Central Terminal. They have virtually everything they would have at a camp in the woods — except trees. There are tents pitched at one corner of the roof, a fireplace for cooking showers, metal washtubs and even a miniature lake.

Rise and Shine

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. — W. J. Cole, hotel manager is pooh-poohing the heat wave. Any time this season the temperature gets above 90 here, guests at his hostelry will be accommodated without charge, he announced.

Expediency

LONDON. — The war interferes with normal British life in many curious ways. An advertisement of a public ballroom read as follows: "Ladies are not permitted to wear dance dresses." In case of an air raid alarm, everyone must be able to move speedily to shelter.

In Dog House

SALT LAKE CITY. — James E. Henkey, Jr., has put his cocker spaniel, Pepper, in the dog house. Pepper was left at home on guard while the Henkey family went out. A burglar entered the house, made friends with Pepper — then tied her up in the basement so he wouldn't be disturbed while he took $35 cash and checks worth $27.

Among His Souvenirs
BERNE, Ind. — Forty years ago Albert Aeschliman wrote his name on a brick while working on the construction of the Berne School. This week, Aeschliman, now retired, purchased the same brick for a quarter from one of the workman engaged in razing the building.

Synthetic Bombs

COCHRAN, Ga. — Watermelons are commonplace in Georgia, but delivery of one load of them made news. Dedicating a flying school hangar here, pilots in the Civil Aeronautics Authority's training class used the melons as bombs in bombing practice.

Long Deferred

DENVER, Colo. — John O. Yeiser, 3d, and Andrew Sturm Yeiser of Omaha, Neb., returned a room-key to the clerk of the Brown Palace Hotel and said their grandfather, Andrew Sturm of Nehawka, Neb., carried it home 45 years ago. "He's been meaning to mail it back for a long time, but he never got around to it," John explained.

Super Man

ROCHESTER. — A marriage annulment was granted Mrs. Estelle G. Vandemark, 24, this week, when she testified that her husband, Robert, 26, chewed razor blades, ate glass and sewed buttons on his flesh "just to make me nervous." She told the judge that her husband had been a circus freak before entering the automobile agency business.

The Eyes Have It

AKRON, Ohio. — "I didn't want publicity — I realize what I'm doing and don't want a comedy made of it," pretty Mrs. Lillian Danshire commented on her offer to sell one of her eyes for $1,500 to redeem bad checks passed by her husband.

Lost Cause

BERKELEY, Cal. — John Osako, trying to oust a skunk, soaked a rag in chloroform and threw it in his truck. The skunk ate the rag. Liked it.

What Price Sale

WALHALLA, S. C. — An automobile dealer was anxious to make a sale. As a down payment he took: a rooster, a pair of old

Axis Propagandists Attempt To Kindle Arab-Jew Feud

NEW YORK. — The situation in the Palestine-Syria region has every element that makes for an explosion and we are likely to hear of violent fighting in that region in the next few months, perhaps weeks, according to Fletcher Pratt, military expert of the New York Post.

"At the bottom of the whole unstable inverted pyramid of forces is the perennial Arab-Jewish trouble," Mr. Pratt said in an article in the Post. "This was already serious enough last summer, before the war began, so that Britain had to maintain more than a division of troops in the region."

 "At that time Italian propagandists were energetically urging the Arabs to violence, and Italian gun-runners were supplying them with arms," the writer added.

"Italy, now the open enemy of England, need no longer conceal her tracks. The aid she gives to Arab trouble-makers can be perfectly open. Italian airplanes from the Dodecanese are probably dropping supplies of bullets and explosives to the Arabs at very moment, and Italian agents are undoubtedly working in to keep the pot boiling."

Exile of European Jews to Madagascar Urged by Italy

GENEVA. — Article by Alfredo Signoretti, editor of the Turin newspaper La Stampa, advocates that all European Jews be exiled after the war to Madagascar.

"A necessary condition to a new order in Europe is completely to remove all Jews from the continent," Signoretti said. "Precautionary measures taken by German and Italy are not enough. After the war, our military victories, one pocket knife and 26 cents in cash. The payments will be $20 a month — strictly cash."

What Next?

NEW YORK. — A police emergency squad added a new accomplishment to its record this week. Using a jeweler's file, a squad member removed a ring from the swollen little finger of Mrs. Edith Brecher after hospital doctors despaired of getting it off by usual methods. The swelling was attributed to hot weather.

Finale

TREASURE ISLAND, San Francisco Bay. — When the master switch is thrown September 29, cutting off its electrical lighting, gem-like, rainbow-like Oz-like Treasure Island will become a treasured memory — definitely. It was decided this week that there simply would be no extension of the fair after the date set.

Swartz to Head Convention Club

Frank F. Swartz, general agent for the R. I. Life and Accident Insurance Company of Concord, N. H., has been qualified as president of the 1940 Convention Club of the company. Mr. Swartz has sold more insurance than any other agent for the company throughout the United States.

He will leave on Saturday for the Greenbriar Hotel at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, where he will attend the convention. Mrs. Swartz will accompany him, as guest of the company. While on the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Swartz will visit in Washington.

Expect New British Policy on Refugees

LONDON. — Modification of the present internment and treatment of refugees in England is expected. More than 25,000 have been interned of whom 7,500 have been sent overseas.

Scores of tragic cases of hardship and divided families have been disclosed Parliamentary Secretary Harold Nicholson reminded his hearers that the refugees "loathe Hitler as much as we do" "we are fighting this war for the defense of human decency and kindness."

tire Lithuanian colony, and a spirit of genuine friendship and mutual respect developed between the Jewish hosts and Lithuanian guests.

This act of neighborly cooperation is one of those which blesses him that gives as well as him that receives. The example of the devotion of the Lithuanian group to the culture of their ancestors cannot but inspire many a Jew who may be indifferent to the Jewish education of his children.

We speak so much about good-will and anti-defamation, but we do so little to bring together the minority groups for the preservation of their respective cultures and morale and for the enrichment of the common culture of their adoption. Can there be a more effective anti-defamation and civic protective program than cultural cooperation between the various groups in our cities? There is much, very much, that can be done in this respect in many of our large communities.

Part of the energy we spend in arguing that we are not what our enemies charge us to be, might well be utilized for the development of activities where in we could share with our neighbors the spirit which is truly characteristic of Israel and the rich cultural heritage which we do possess. — The American Jewish World.

10 Years Ago This Week

Extracting "1930" from its respective place in the pile of leather-bound yearly files of The Jewish Herald, the writer perused the issue of just ten years ago this week, and has chosen these items for your memory test:

In the Personal and Social column: Mr. and Mrs. Alter Boyman of Reynolds avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia, to Rabbi Max Lasker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Lasker, of this city.

Mrs. B. Rosen of Providence, with her grandchildren Harold and Marshall Edelston, are spending the summer at Point Judith.

Miss Sylvia Fleischman of New York City is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Wachenheimer of Lloyd avenue.

Miss Eva Pullman at her Barrington summer home had as guests over the past week-end the Misses Dorothy and Edith Sass of Providence.

Mr. Aaron S. Helford of this city is registered at the Mannissee Hotel, Block Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Novogroski of Westerly are entertaining Miss Gertrude Jacobson of Malden, Mass., Mrs. Max Makowsky and family of Bristol and Miss Mildred Braunstein of Providence, at their summer home at Misquamicut.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper and family of Fall River have taken Chippew cottage on Seacomet avenue, Island Park, for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Narva of Hamilton street announce the birth of a son, Marshall Alan, on Sunday, July 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rigelhaupt and their daughter, Esther, spent the past week-end with their boys at Camp Brunonia, Casco, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Shore of Pinehurst avenue gave a reception and dance on Sunday evening at the Lantern of the White Duck in honor of the Bar-Mitzvah of their son, Harry. Covers were laid for one hundred and fifty people. Mr. Isador Horenstein was toastmaster of the evening.

Miss Daisy Payton of Conimicut is making a two thousand mile motor trip to Houston, Texas, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Weinstein of that city.

An erstwhile member of the Fourth Estate is Elliot Paris, having written a column called "On the Fairways at the Ledgemont Country Club." . . . Among his jottings of ten years ago this week were:

"The president's tournament is on its last lap this week . . . Leny Levine, after defeating the writer in a spirited 33-hole match, was held even for 18 holes by Dr. Winkler . . . They will play again the middle of this week . . . Simon Lavigne, who has reached the finals by defeating Max Siegal, believes the boys are just holding him in suspense . . ."

Arthur Levy and Harry Wachenheimer played at North Conway last week . . . Arthur sprang a great surprise on Harry, shooting a 99, while Harry was busy going around in 115 . . .

Barney "Four Thumb" Efros left his own golf courses long enough the other day to play a round at Ledgemont . . .

Max Grant, Al Green, Walter Sundlun and Charles "Narra" Brown played a one-club match the other evening . . . Max took the boys over . . . The foursome played so long that they almost had to turn the lights on . . .

Jean Bauer is giving us a fine exhibition of this game of meadow marbles . . . I think she will have us all sitting up and taking notice one of these days . . . (How true, that prediction!)

Varied and sundry news in the ten-year-old issue: "Charles M. Hoffman, superintendent of the Miriam Hospital, and Dr. Joseph L. Belliotti, of the same in-

Pipe Line Terminus Object of Air Attack

Bombs Kill 17 Jews, Injure 19

HAIFA, (Palcor Agency). — Timing the attack to coincide with the augmented air activity begun at dawn on the southern coast of England by her Axis partner, Italy launched a furious air raid against this harbor city, most important Palestinian war objective because here lies the Mediterranean terminus of the Mosul oil pipe line.

Although anti-aircraft batteries sprang immediately into action, the bombers were not driven back until, according to an official count made late in the day, 46 persons had been killed and 88 wounded, most of the latter seriously.

The raid occurred in two sections. Just as in the earlier attack, a group of ten Italian war planes appeared on the horizon at nine in the morning and dropped a number of bombs in the harbor area, avoiding the business and residential sections.

No sooner had this first group of planes been forced to retreat by the anti-aircraft defense, than another squadron of ten planes attacked the residential quarters of the city. One bomb dropped near Hadar Hacarmel, the modern residential Jewish quarter, brought death to three persons—a 22-year-old Jewess name Sarah Elgelstein, a 32-year-old Jewish driver named Israel Glick, and 13-year-old Moshe Wehler. This missile's fragments inflicted serious injuries on 13 Jews and 6 Arabs.

stitution, both of whom are reserve officers in the 301st Medical Regiment, U. S. A., have been ordered to active duty by the War Department. They will proceed to Camp Devens, Mass., on August 3 and report to the 118th Medical Regiment, Connecticut National Guard for two weeks training."

"Louis Lipsky, world famous Zionist leader and former President of the Zionist Organization of America, will be the guest of honor and principal speaker at the mass meeting, which will be held in the Casino at Narragansett Pier on Sunday evening, July 27, at 7:30 o'clock. Hon. Joseph Smith will be chairman of the evening and the committee in charge consists of Jacob S. Rabinowitz, chairman, Dr. Ilie Berger, Abraham Kestenman, Robert Bernstein and Morris Constantine. Jascha Heifitz, who is summing at the Pier, has accepted an invitation to be present."

The Herald recorded with sorrow the passing of Mrs. Harriet E. Jacobs, for many years a prominent figure in philanthropic and welfare work in this state, and wife of Harry Loeb Jacobs, president of the Bryant-Stratton College of Business Administration.

"On Monday evening, July 28th, the Ninth Annual Encampment Committee of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, tendered a testimonial dinner at Jim Smith's Inn, to the Hon. Peter G. Gerry, in recognition of his moral and financial contributions in making the encampment a success."

"Many people are unaware of the fact that headquarters of the Jewish Home for the Aged Building Fund Campaign are still maintained. The office is located at 85 Westminster street, room 407, telephone GAspee 6353. In

Opens Course in Judaism in Virginia

CINCINNATI. — Rabbi Abraham Shusterman of Temple Israel, Tulsa, Oklahoma opened a course, sponsored by the Jewish Chautauqua Society, in the "Religions of Palestine and Arabia-Judaism, Christianity and Islam" last Monday at the now historic University of Virginia in Charlottesville, where only a few weeks ago President Roosevelt made a plea for religious freedom and democracy. The course will mark the 28th consecutive year that the Jewish Chautauqua Society has presented lectures on subjects dealing with Jewish life and culture at the Virginia Institution.

KAUNAS, Lithuania. — Dr. L. Kogan, famous lung specialist and expert on social medicine, has been appointed Minister of Health in the new cabinet of Justas Paleckis, formed following the Soviet occupation of Lithuania.

Sisters Sue U. S. To Prove Citizenship Now Confined In Nazi Camp

WASHINGTON. — Court action has been started here to compel the State Department to issue passports to two middle-aged Jewish sisters. Werva Giegerich and Mrs. Fannie Rubinowicz, now held in Nazi concentration camps, who claim to be natives of the United States. The State Department said the case was still under investigation but that thus far the women's attorney had "failed to produce sufficient evidence to warrant issuance of passports."

According to an injunction filed in the United States District Court by Attorney James J. Laughlin, Mrs. Giegerich, 48, is in a concentration camp at Gars, France, and Mrs. Rubinowicz, 46, is imprisoned in Leszno, German-occupied Poland.

The sisters, according to the attorney, were born in New York City and went to Russia in their early youth. At the time of the Russian Revolution they said they were born in Russia in order to escape imprisonment. For this reason they have been denied passports despite presentation of allegedly authenticated American birth certificates.

Rosen - Axelrod

Miss Evelyn Axelrod, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Axelrod, of 277 Warrington street, will become the bride of Milton E. Rosen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Rosen of 13 Exeter street, at a private ceremony to be performed this morning (Friday) at the home of Rabbi William G. Braude.

Rosenthal - Bliss

The marriage of Miss Roberta Eleanor Bliss, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bliss of Arlington avenue, to John Block Rosenthal of Chicago, occurred last Sunday noon at the Temple Israel in Boston. Rabbi Bergman performed the nuptials in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of summer print, and a corsage of orchids. The bride's mother was dressed in a green and beige polka dotted ensemble, and wore gardenias.

The bride is a member of the class of 1941 at Pembroke College, and will continue her education in the fall. Mr. Rosenthal was graduated last June from Brown University and will enter medical school in September.

The couple is now on a wedding trip by motor to California where they will remain through the summer.

Warn Aliens On Fingerprint Swindle

WASHINGTON. — The Justice Department cautioned aliens last week to be on the lookout for swindlers, who it said, have found a way to capitalize on the alien registration program.

Private individuals are offering, for a fee, to take the fingerprints of aliens, who must be fingerprinted under a recently-enacted law, said Earl G. Harrison, Director of Alien Registration. He issued a statement saying that no fingerprints would be accepted except those made by the proper Post Office officials at the time of registration; that no fee would be charged, and that registration would not begin for several weeks.

LONDON CURFEW

LONDON. — A strict curfew was ordered last week for British subjects of known Fascist sympathies living in the London area. They are required to remain indoors between midnight and 6 a. m. and forbidden to travel more than five miles from home without official permission.

Forgotten for the moment is the game of mah jong
Right now, knitting has come in — but strong . . .
At country club, shore and mountain retreat
Women are knitting — heat or no heat . . .
The purpose is noble — you know, of course
Everyone's knitting for the RED CROSS . . .

Women who haven't wielded a pair of needles for years and years have got into their stride again with the Red Cross and refugee work . . . We could tell you of dozens of them who are doing it, including career girls whose leisure time is a limited thing . . . But somehow they're all very modest about this fine work they're doing and publicity is the farthest thing from their minds . . . Slightly reminiscent of the "Magnificent Obsession," isn't it? . . .

As a result of this knitting interlude, Fashion believes women will find they're so good at it, that they'll run up little numbers for themselves in spare moments . . .

Which is a good idea . . . Because from sports to Glamour, there's a wardrobe angle which can be covered by the clever knitter . . . Among the new patterns there are more complete dresses than ever before — smartly styled things with all the sleek new lines . . . Lumber jackets and long jackets and short bolero jackets are among the fall patterns with a distinctly 1940 look . . . Sports cardigans appear in intricate looking, but easy-to-do stitches . . . There are professional-looking "tweed" suits and chic evening sweaters glittering with jet or sequins . . . Almost anything you knit will be a hit . . .

Have you (or should we say of course you have?) gone through the annoyance of losing a glove . . . Much more satisfactory if we lost both at the same time, so's we wouldn't have one to haunt us every time we opened our glove drawer, don't you think? . . . Tennyrate, one of the New York store advertises something that is a boon to us femmes who simply can't hang on to our gloves . . . It's a little "leash" that fastens on to any purse . . . Keeps gloves from straying, keeps you from holding, soiling them in your heated hands . . . Made of gold-plated chain with ornament of turquoise, jade, amber, pearl, or coral . . . Very inexpensive, very satisfying . . . Interested? . . . Write us at The Herald for information concerning same . . .

Hints for the hostess: Tom Collins glasses made by hand of thick, rather bubbly glass, nine inches high — which in a glass is pretty big . . . They are slender and nicely shaped, and look like just the right contrivance for making a long drink last a long time on a hot afternoon . . .

Paper plates than can be burned after meals are a great saving in the doing of the worst of all household jobs — dish washing . . . The newest paper plates are rectangular and have shallow wells in them — to keep sauces and gravies from running together . . . The old complaint against paper plates — that they get limp and fold up, particularly at buffet suppers — doesn't hold for these new ones because metal trays that fit them exactly come with them . . . Even very useful for cold suppers, and for buffet suppers with company . . . The metal trays shouldn't need washing after meals — at the most, a quick wiping with a damp cloth

Patriotic jewelry is all the rage these days with all of us wanting to show everybody else that we think the U. S. is a pretty swell place . . . Some of the jewelry, made of rhinestones, simulated rubies and sapphires, all mounted in open-back setting in national motifs, is thumpingly patriotic . . . There are waving-flag pins some of them correct with all the forty-eight stars and thirteen stripes . . . A large and ferocious rhinestone American eagle clutching his sheaf of arrows is probably the most dazzling; anybody who wore this couldn't leave any doubt as to her patriotic leanings

Attention college girls: "We're readying a couple of columns especially for you and your wardrobes . . . Will you watch for them? . . ."

Noted Writer Reported Killed

NEW YORK. — Franz Werfel, world-famous German-Jewish novelist and author of "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh," who fled to France from Germany, has been seized and shot by the Nazis, according to a British broadcast heard here by the National Broadcasting Company. The broadcast said, however, that the report has not been confirmed.

Another report here from London said that Mr. Werfel's British publishers have made fruitless attempts to find the author. He was last reported at Vichy, France.

Conclave to Take Up Racial Attacks To Also Study Mob Violence

WASHINGTON. — Means of combating racial and religious attacks will be one of the points discussed at the national Conference of States on Law Enforcement Problems of National Defense to be held at the Justice Department August 5 and 6. This study will be included in the session which will discuss treatment of espionage, mob violence, violations of civil liberties "and interferences generally with the effective operation of law enforcement and the national defense program."

The treatment of aliens, their registration and position in the community and industries will be another point discussed. Speakers will include Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, Governor William H. Vanderbilt, John Lord O'Brian and J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Obituary

SAMUEL RESNICK

Word has been received from Newark, N. J. of the death of Samuel Resnick, 47, of 141 Sessions street, this city, who was found dead in his berth on a train, on which he was returning from a visit to California.

While funeral arrangements, at press time, were not complete, it is believed that services will be held on Sunday.

Mr. Resnick was a member of the firm, Bowers and Resnick, Maiden Lane, wholesale florists. He is survived by his wife, Edith, and five children: Albert, Frank, Leo, Ann and Helen.

ISAAC ROSE

Funeral services were held this week for Isaac Rose, 73, of 514 Blackstone boulevard, a leader in Jewish community affairs and active for many years in the work of charitable and religious organizations, who died on Sunday after a long illness.

Born in Russia, Mr. Rose came to this city in 1863. He was formerly in the clothing business on North Main street, had owned the Star Clothing Company of Central Falls and the Rose Clothing Company of Pawtucket. He was owner of the men's furnishings' section in the old Dimond

Divorced

DR. MAX LERNER

WILLIAMSTOWN. — According to word received this week, Dr. Max Lerner, professor of political science at Williams College, and formerly editor of "The Nation," was divorced on Tuesday in Reno, Nevada, by his wife, Anita Marburg Lerner.

The couple was married in New York July 30, 1928. Mrs. Lerner was given the right to resume her maiden name. Custody and support of their three minor children were settled in an agreement made out of court.

Prior to becoming editor of "The Nation" in 1936, Dr. Lerner was lecturer in the department of government at Harvard. He joined the faculty at Williams in 1938.

He is author of "It Is Later Than You Think," "Ideas Are Weapons," and numerous articles on social science problems, some of which expound his thesis that solution of the problem of economic security in America is the most effective means of combating the threat of totalitarianism.

Until his retirement last fall, he had been in the real estate business for fourteen years. He was an owner of the Strand Theatre and the National Realty building.

He was an honorary life member of the Masons, Redwood Lodge, an honorary trustee of Temple Beth-El; honorary member of the Board of the Jewish Children's Home; member of the board of the Jewish Home for Aged, and a member of the Ahavath Shalom Synagogue.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Susan Finberg Rose; a daughter, Mrs. Thelma R. Shein; three sons, Lester, Harold W. and Jerome B. Rose, and five grandchildren.

SAMUEL NEEDLE

Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home for Samuel Needle of 316 Mineral Spring avenue, Pawtucket, who died on July 30, at the Pawtucket Hospital.

Surviving him are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Sadie Ballon of New York, Mrs. Anna Brown of Boston and several grandchildren.

Rabbi William G. Braude and Rabbi Sydney Ballon, grandson of Mr. Needle, officiated at the funeral. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

No Un-Americanism In Byoir's Actions

Justice Dept. Closes Case

WASHINGTON. — A Justice Department official statement said today that an investigation of Carl Byoir, New York publicist, had "disclosed no evidence whatever that he has been engaged in any un-American activities" as charged in the House by Representative Patman, Dem., of Texas, on June 11.

"No basis for action has been found and the case is regarded as closed," the official said.

Patman charged that "the evidence is sufficient to convince anyone that Lieut. Col. Carl Byoir was hired to establish here in the United States the greatest espionage and spy system ever organized on the face of the earth."

Byoir said he was "most happy" over the outcome of the investigation and added that "Mr. Patman, of course, had attacked me in the hope of discrediting some of the opposition to his now dead chain store tax bill which I frankly opposed as a public relations counsel."

Muriel Goldblatt intends to rewrite the recent popular song to read, "North of the Border up Canada Way." . . . She decided it was the wrong time of year for a trip way down south to Virginny, and plans to leave for the Northern woods the middle of August . . .

Comings and Goings

The Sam Summerfields, she the former Edythe Bergel, are being congratulated on the birth of a second daughter, Joan, in Boston last week . . . Dr. and Mrs. Ilie Berger have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Mantel of Paris, Germany . . . Mrs. Mantel is the doctor's sister . . . Evelyn Halprin and Ruth Bernstein are at Spoffard Hotel . . . There, they may meet Mildred Sack and Dorothy Berman . . . Braving the surf at Narragansett Pier, we spied the Kestenman brothers, Max and Louis, with their respective families . . . Mina Uditsky visited Gotham during her vacation . . . Harold Seader reversed the order and came to town from the Hub for the week-end . . . Sadie Moskoll is off for Block Island next week . . . Rose Markensohn is on her way to California . . . Nate Sonkin, who's been accepted at the University of California, where he'll study medicine will be leaving for the coast next week . . . Incidentally, Dr. Irving Blazar was among those who successfully passed the R. I. State Board Examinations this week . . .

It Happened Here

Met Bernard Goodman in the bank the other day, and he told us one of those incredible, but true stories, which is news-worthy . . . T'other morning he was parking his car on Exchange Place, when a friend came up to him . . . Said he'd changed suits that morning and had forgotten all his money at home, and would Benny lend him a dollar . . . Of course Benny did, and after chatting a few moments with the chap, went into the Red Robin for breakfast . . . After the elapse of almost an hour Benny returned to his car, and noticed on the running board a roll of bills . . . Nonplussed, he counted it and found it totalled $225, and it suddenly dawned on him it was his own money, which had dropped out of his pocket when he had given his friend the money he'd asked for . . . That roll of bills had been on the running board about fifty minutes in broad daylight in one of the business sections of town, and no one had spotted it . . . Which goes to prove something or other . . .

Divertisements

Ku Klux Klan and Bund Plan Merger

Urges U. S. Give Up Trade With Germany

Cartel Support Also Advocated

NEW YORK. — Declaring that Europe is more dependent on the raw materials of the Western Hemisphere than the Americans are on European trade, Dr. Joseph Tenenbaum, chairman of the Joint Boycott Council of the American Jewish Congress and the Jewish Labor Committee, urged severance of economic relations with Nazi Germany, its satellites and its victims "until Nazism is destroyed."

Dr. Tenenbaum advocated support for the Government's proposal of an inter-American cartel to buy the surplus production of all the American republics and thus control foreign trade.

"The adoption of strong measures to stop all trade with Nazi Germany and its allies would result in an absolute shortage of materials which the dictatorships could not overcome, while the Western Hemisphere would face only the problem of affecting relative adjustments of production and compensation for a period of time," he said.

Fear New York Anti-Nazi is Slain

NEW YORK. — Fears that Walter E. Ebeling, 31-year-old Yorkville anti-Nazi theater manager, had been slain and his body hidden in the woods near Lafayette, Ind., increased when blood-stained clothes, found the morning after his disappearance, were identified as similar to those he was wearing.

Ebeling was last seen July 9 when he left South Bend, Ind., to visit friends at nearby Eagle Lake, Mich.

New York police said a description of the clothes found by Indiana police tallied perfectly with Ebeling's.

Map 'Americanization' Rally For 50,000 Sympathizers

NEW YORK. — The Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League this week advised J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of further details concerning the merger of the German-American Bund and the Ku Klux Klan on August 18th at Camp Nordland, Andover, N. J. The League had previously supplied the Newark office of the F. B. I. with the story of the deal between the organizations.

The Bund-owned camp has been "rented" for Sunday, August 18, to the Invisible Empire by Wilhelm Kunze, August Klapprott and Mathias Kohler, Bund leaders.

A huge "Americanization" rally is scheduled to take place at which over 50,000 members of the Bund, the Klan as well as assorted sympathizers will, according to officials of the Bund and Klan, be present.

Dr. Young, Grand Kailiff of the Klan in the New Jersey area, admitted that the contract for "renting" Camp Nordland had been signed and that preparations for the rally were under way. His admission came as the climax to months of secret negotiations between Bund leaders and Dr. Young and Arthur H. Bell, Grand Giant in New Jersey.

Investigators of the League uncovered the plans for the joint Bund-Klan rally which were cloaked in secrecy until Young was finally forced to admit that the deal was set.

Named to Board

NEW YORK. — Dr. Stephen S. Wise, president of the American Jewish Congress has been named a member of the Board of Directors of the United States Committee to Care for European Children, it was made known this week.

Mrs. Wise, the President of the Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress, has been an active member of the body since its inception.

It is expected that hundreds of homes will be offered to the committee for the care of the children by the Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress. England resort one of the most luxurious camps in existence. Its attractive pine protected lake front cabins assure cool comfort day and night and its three mile crystal pure lake offers bathing and boating to suit the most discriminating. Pine Brook covers six hundred and fifty acres and offers scenic grandeur surprising for such a convenient location.

Special Jewish Agency Unit Aids Movement to Palestine

GENEVA. — The difficult problem of getting Jewish immigrants into Palestine in wartime is being met by the establishment of a special immigration department by the Jewish Agency for Palestine. Branch offices of this department have been set up in all European states with a central co-ordinating office in Geneva.

Fear German Spies

According to Charles Barlas, head of the office here, at the outbreak of the war there were 2,600 certificates for immigration to Palestine in the hands of Central European Jews, each certificate good for one family. These were canceled by the British Government because of the danger of German spies entering Palestine in the guise of Zionists.

Arabs Against Immigration

The number is necessarily small, because the English have to take into consideration economic and political factors in Palestine, such as the protest of the Arabs against further immigration.

For the period January-March, 1940, some 840 immigrants entered Palestine by way of Trieste with certificates obtained through this office. About 200 of these were Jews from Lithuania who, because of war and blockade, had to fly by plane via Stockholm and Amsterdam to Marseille, where they embarked for the Holy Land.

Italy Closes Borders

For the period April-September 9,000 certificates have been granted to Jews in neutral and Allied countries. Whether and how they will get there is a difficult problem, as Italy has now closed her borders to the Zionist immigrants.

16 Refugee Children Model Town Guests

All Facilities Free of Charge

WASHINGTON. — Sixteen refugee children arrived at the Greenbelt, Md., "Model town" built by the Government on the outskirts of Washington, to be guests of the community for a two-week vacation. Most of them are children of prominent Jewish professional people who fled from Vienna, Nuremberg and Frankfort, and they include the son of Walter Kulka, noted pathologist, and the sons and daughters of Judge Freyberg.

According to the Pittsburgh Outlook, members of the Greenbelt Citizens' Association, only a few of whom are Jewish, underwrote the children's trip, paying transportation expenses and opening all the town's recreational resources free of charge.

It was feared for a time that Maryland's refugee laws might forestall Greenbelt's offer to take the children and help adjust them to American surroundings, but J. Milton Patterson, director of the Maryland Department of Public Welfare, stated that "neither the licensing nor the importation laws apply in this case."
