BERGER, BOYMAN CHOSEN DELEGATES

Reiter Named as Alternate to World Congress

Among the 57 delegates named to represent American Jewry at the first World Jewish Congress in Geneva this summer are Alter Boyman and Dr. Ilie Berger. The national conference of the American Jewish Congress unanimously endorsed a program to create a permanent central and democratic organization to work for the defense of Jewish rights and the improvement of the status of the Jewish people.

In addition to the 57 delegates there will be 25 additional alternates. Lues Reiter, of Providence, was one of the alternates selected.

Reads of Polish Pogroms, 110-yr. Old Jew Drops Dead

New York (WNS)—A heart attack brought on by reading Yiddish newspaper reports of the recent pogrom in Przytyk, Poland, his native town, proved fatal to Isaac Leib Stein, 110-year-old inmate of the Brooklyn Hebrew Home and Hospital for the Aged. The oldest patient of the Home, Stein collapsed when Abraham Ginsberg 108 years old, began reading aloud dispatches telling of the murder of Jews in Przytyk.

Schmeling—Louis Fight Boycotted by Jews

New York (WNS)—A spontaneous boycott by Jewish fans will prevent the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling fight from grossing the $1,200,000 the promoters expect. Thousands of Jewish boxing devotees who attend the big bouts are refusing to buy tickets. Business establishments which usually buy large blocks of tickets to distribute among their employees have not done so in this case. The promoters admit that the boycott will curtail the box office receipts by at least $300,000.

Jews of Rhode Island Make History in Newport

By JUDGE MAX LEVY
In this, the year nineteen hundred thirty-six, we are to participate in one form or another in celebrating the Tercentenary of the settlement of the colony of Rhode Island.

At this time various religious and national groups have proudly raised their banners on high, and inscribed thereon:

"This is what our ancestors did for our glorious country."
Let us of the Hebrew faith in retrospect of the events which surrounded the founding of our colony and in the glorifications of our Christian forefathers, also historically review the part those of our religious faith contributed to the welfare of our land and the glorious and inspiring drama of its people.

No single event in what may be termed modern times, as it is measured in the life of man, so vitally affected the destiny of the millions of Jews throughout the world as the founding of the colony of Rhode Island.

Dramatic History

The history of the Jew is as dramatic and thrilling as any other in the New World's treasure of adventure, having its beginning in the year Fourteen Hundred Ninety-Two, when Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain ordered their seals to the merciless decree which rendered hundreds of thousands of Jews homeless, and drove them into exile from that unfortunate country. With that supreme irony, of which only history appears capable, the same rules with the same land, and probably the same soil, affixed their seals and signatures to the memorable compact which sent forth Christopher Columbus on that historic voyage of August 12th, 1492, destined to the discovery

Rothenberg, Wise Seek Zionist Party Presidency

TROOPERS PLOT AGAINST HITLER

High Nazi Officials Get Death Notices

Paris (WNS)—Letters threatening them with death have been received by Hitler and other high Nazi officials from the "Roehm Racher" (Revenge Roehm) organization, a secret society of friends of the late Captain Ernst Roehm, the commander of the Storm Troops, who was killed by order of Hitler during the 1934 blood purge, it was revealed by the Paris-Soir.

According to this paper, the "Roehm-Racher" comprise thousands of friends of Roehm who are sworn to avenge his death.

"Wise Will Relinquish Other Posts If Elected

STRAW VOTE FAVORS WISE

Rothenberg Denies Statement Refusing to Run

New York (WNS)—Responding to a petition addressed to him by scores of leading Zionists throughout America urging him to place himself at the helm of Zionist affairs in America due to the situation in Palestine, which requires unity of effort and the utilization of the maximum political and economic resources of American Jewry, Dr. Stephen S. Wise has consented to the use of his name as a candidate for the presidency of the Zionist Organization of America. Dr. Wise's consent was made public in a letter read to one hundred leading New York Zionists assembled at the Commodore Hotel to urge his candidacy.

Dr. Wise made it clear that he regarded leadership in the Zionist movement as of such importance that he would relinquish other posts which he now holds, so that, if elected at the Providence convention of the Z. O. A., he will be able to devote himself more completely to Palestine problems.

Zionist observers here generally regard Dr. Wise's candidacy as tantamount to his election at Providence. In the straw vote just concluded in the English-Jewish press under the auspices of the Seven Arts Feature Syndicate, Dr. Wise received a plurality which, it is believed, presages an overwhelming endorsement of him by the Zionist rank and file at the Providence Zionist convention.

Rothenberg Accepts
Responding to a resolution presented.

POGROM ORPHANS NAME MURDERERS

Children Describe Horrible Crimes

Warsaw (WNS)—Heart-rending scenes were enacted in the Radom district court, where 43 Christians and 14 Jews are being tried for manslaughter as a result of the pogrom in Przytyk last March, when the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Minkovsky, the Jews who were killed during the outbreak, took the witness stand.

The eldest of the orphans, 16-year-old Gabriel, identified his parents' murderers, Samuel Minkovsky, 6 years old, and Hirsch, 14 years old, described the horrible events when their parents were killed in cold blood.

Carnival Head

JACOB FELDER

Jacob J. Felder, last night at a meeting held at the Home, was elected chairman of the annual carnival of the Jewish Home for the Aged, which will be held in September.

The goal of the carnival this year is to raise $10,000. Teddy Max will again be general director. Nearly $5,000 worth of tickets have been pledged for by various members of the committee. It was also announced that the feature prize will be a new model Oldsmobile sedan.

Others who will assist Mr. Felder, and their offices are: Bert L. Bernhardt, associate chairman; Max Segal, honorary chairman; William Hyman, secretary; Samuel Michaelson, treasurer; Theodore Max, general director; Isaac E. Feinstein, general secretary; Samuel M. Magid, Hon. Philip C. Joslin, Benjamin I. Kane, Mrs. I. S. Low, honorary committee; Joseph M. Finkle, chairman of publicity committee; Alter Boyman, Joseph Bernstein, publicity committee.

Arms Smugglers Arrested Jewish Dead Number 30

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The disorders in Palestine claimed their thirtieth Jewish victim of Arab violence when Jacob Gerson, who was shot from ambush outside of Jerusalem died in the Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem.

High Commissioner Sir Arthur Wauchope had visited the Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem to express his sympathy to the five Jews who were wounded yesterday in that attack and expressed his hope for their early recovery.

Gerson, a Jewish watchman, was one of two wounded Sunday morning when they were riding in a lorry on the hairpin bend outside of Jerusalem near Motza. A fusillade of shots caught five Jews in that vicinity within a brief interval.

Smugglers Arrested

The arrest of numerous Bedouins caught with scores of rifles and large quantities of ammunition was reported today by the Palestine police, who have been conducting an intensive campaign during the past few weeks to halt the increasing flow of smuggled arms from some mysterious source. The arms are brought over the Palestine frontiers at various points but particularly from Transjordan. It is these smuggled arms which give Arab terrorist bands a plentiful supply for their attacks on Jewish settlements and military detachments.

Two months of wholesale sabotage, arsonings, and bombings by Arabs have caused damages to Jewish property estimated at $150,000, or approximately $750,000, it was learned by the Palcor News Agency. This figure does not include indirect losses resulting from the Arab disturbances involving interference with the normal progress of business and commerce in the Jewish community, and particularly the

JEWISH DAY UNIT ARRANGES PROGRAM

Rabbi Kaplan and Strauss Guest Speakers

As a feature of the national convention of the Zionist Organization of America, and also of the Rhode Island Tercentenary Jubilee, Roger Williams Strauss, son of Nathan Strauss, and Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan, of the Jewish Center, New York, will be guest speakers at exercises at Roger Williams Park and the Touro Synagogue in Newport.

This celebration on July 5 will be known as Jewish Day. Although Zionist committees are co-operating with the Jewish Day group, the exercises will solemnize the spirit of religious tolerance of the early settlers and the memory of those Jews who participated in founding the Jewish colony in Rhode Island.

On the morning of July 5, busses and private cars will transport those wishing to attend the exercises in Newport. At the Touro Synagogue, Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan will be one of several noted speakers. It is hoped to broadcast the services over a national hook-up. Following the services, a luncheon will be served at the Newport Community Center.

In the afternoon memorial exercises will be held in Roger Williams Park. Roger Williams Strauss, it is reported, will be the principal speaker. There will also be an appropriate musical program.

An unusual concert has been arranged for the evening by the Zionists at the Metropolitan Theatre. Such stars as Madame Sara Osnath-Halevy, Palestinian mime; Bellison and his string quartet, and Cantor Rudinow will present a recital of Hebrew and Palestinian music. Max Grant, is chairman of the concert committee.

Max Winograd, chairman of Jewish Day, announced last Monday night that all organizations in the state are co-operating with the general committee on the arrangements.

Jacob Licht Elected Beth-Israel Head

Jacob Licht was elected president of Temple Beth-Israel at the annual meeting at the temple held last Tuesday. Rabbi Morris Schlossheim was named to serve his 10th term as rabbi.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, Albert Weiner; treasurer, William H. Weiner; financial secretary, Joseph Greene; and recording secretary, Joshua Bell.

Zionist Presidency

ed to him at a luncheon meeting at the Fifth Avenue Restaurant, by a delegation, Mr. Morris Rothenberg, president of the Z. O. A., made the following statement: "I deeply appreciate the sentiments and the confidence in me that are expressed in the resolution presented to me by those assembled here today and the Zionists whom this committee represents. Ever since it became known that I was declined again to assume the office of president of the Zionist Organization of America, I had been urged by Zionists from every part of the country not to lay down the office in the present critical juncture in Zionist affairs. In deference to these demands and my own concern over the present situation, I had been giving the matter serious consideration and had not until now come to any definite conclusion on the subject."

CONTRACT BRIDGE

Samuel R. Finegold

THE TAKEOUT DOUBLE

In those circles where mediocre bridge is played, this bid, the takeout double is glaringly conspicuous, by its proverbial absence. How anyone can ever expect to get beyond the first grade in bridge, lacking knowledge of this bid, is a mystery to us. True, many know that when a double is made early in the game, it is "meant for my partner to take one out," but what holding that bid implies on the part of the doubler is unknown to his partner. Failure also to distinguish between a "Takeout Double" and a "Penalty Double" is also a weakness frequently seen.

For the sake of definitions the takeout double is also called "Informative" double because it gives certain information to one's partner, and the Penalty Double is often called "Business" double because the maker expects to do business in the form of a set. To avoid confusion, and because we believe our terms leave no ambiguity, we shall refer to these doubles as "Takeout" and "Penalty."

The Takeout Double

A double is meant for a takeout provided that:

1. Partner has made no bid
2. The double is made at the doubler's first opportunity.
3. The bid which has been doubled is one No Trump or one of two in a suit. Now remember, if your partner has already made a bid (except pass or double) that your double will now be construed as a penalty double. Once a player has passed and then doubled this is again for penalties. If a player doubles any bid over two it is meant for penalties. This does not mean, however, that ALL doubles below three are takeouts. The most important differentiation is that, if you HAVE bid, the double is for penalties. If you haven't bid and this is your partner's first opportunity to bid, then the double is for a takeout.

ALSO

A player who has opened the bidding with one of a suit may make a takeout double on the next round if his partner has passed. Also, if a player repeats this double (his partner having passed because of an intervening bid) it is STILL a takeout double if the situation conforms to the requirements above. A PASS on the part of a doubler's partner means that this player is willing to play for penalties. This transforms a takeout double into a penalty double.

Be Prepared

When a player doubles for a takeout he FORCES his partner to bid, even if partner has a worthless four card suit and a complete bust. A takeout double is therefore the most important of all prepared bids. Partner's possible responses must be considered, and the doubler must be prepared to either safely pass any bid suit, raise it, or be able to bid another suit without increasing the level of the bidding.

Social Director

DANNY DRAYSON

Maplehurst Hotel, one of the most popular vacation places for Rhode Islanders, is making plans to greet the largest number of holiday week-ends in its history over July Fourth.

In order to acquaint those who have never been to Maplehurst and the White Mountains, the hotel is setting the unusual low rate of $10 for the entire week-end, beginning on Friday, July 3, at supper, and continuing until Sunday, July 5, until after dinner. This will cover every expense, delicious meals and fine rooms.

Maplehurst is happy to announce the return this year of Danny Drayson as social director. He has appeared in vaudeville and in musical comedy. Miss Gloria Jimenez, the popular Cuban singer, will also return and all in all, it looks as if the Maplehurst social staff will be the strongest in years.

Because of the low all expense rate of $10.00 for the holiday week-end it is suggested in order to avoid disappointment, reservations be made now by calling Joe Finkle at Gaspee 2296 or Williams 0231.

J D C CAMPAIGN SHOWS PROGRESS

Contributions Mount to $4000 Mark

The current campaign for The Joint Distribution Committee has made steady progress during the past week and is now approaching the $4,000.00 mark.

Nearly $2,500 has already been sent to New York and it is hoped that another thousand dollars can be forwarded this week.

Milton C. Sapinsky and Adolph Meller, co-chairmen of the campaign, have arranged to keep the office of the campaign open for two weeks more, but for mornings only. Miss M. Bercovitz will continue as secretary of the campaign. The office is at 109 Washington street, Room 207; phone Gaspee 8681. All inquiries are welcomed.

Happy Unemployables

by Maurice W. Hendel

Tom Freegang Kelley, writing in the June issue of "Nation's Business," questions the value of relief in keeping happy our "new leisure class," who find it easier to live on the government's bounty than to waste time and thought in the effort to make a living.

Kelley wants to know what is being done to the unemployed between 18 and 30. Every pool room and night owl lunch has its quota of hangers-on who seldom work, yet who can always dress well and find money for cigarettes and a dime for the numbers. They hang around while indulgent parents and girl friends contribute to these male parasites, and they do not feel the least bit uneasy about accepting these contributions.

Why should they work while we taxpayers are victims of legislation which pays them for plowing under their personal initiative? We started off proudly with the idea that relief and unemployment measures were the answer to our economic ills. Now we are building up debts to be inherited by our children, and our children's children, in order that a part of the

Jew Sells Out to Nazis

Nazi Propagandists Acquire Anti-Nazi Daily

By Pierre Van Passen

Paris (WNS)—The Pariser Tageblatt, hitherto the only exclusively anti-Nazi daily newspaper in the world, passed into the control of the Nazi propaganda machine when its owner, Vladimir Pollakoff, described as a Russian emigre, sold his publication to a group representing the German embassy in Paris.

Mr. Pollakoff is a Russian Jew engaged in a number of speculative enterprises. He controlled the entire stock of the Pariser Tageblatt which is said to have earned him a profit after the first year of publication. The Tageblatt was in its fourth year of publication.

The founder of the anti-Nazi daily was Dr. Georg Bernhard, famous German Jewish publicist, for 30 years editor-in-chief of the Ullstein daily press. The entire editorial staff of the Tageblatt has resigned and has already established a new anti-Nazi daily called the Tageszeitung, of which Dr. Bernhard will become the editorial head.

The purchase of the Tageblatt by the Nazis will have tremendous repercussions in France and might lead, it is said, to diplomatic difficulties if it is substantiated that the German embassy is actually involved in the deal. That the central figure of this disgraceful deal is a Jew is indeed a serious blow to the Jewish leaders who have received such friendly cooperation from the French anti-Nazi groups in their efforts to help the refugees in France.

Consumptive Relief Head to Attend Denver Conclave

Mrs. Zelig Gordon, president of the R. I. Ladies' Auxiliary, Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, left Wednesday for Denver, Colorado, where she will attend the first annual convention of Auxiliary Presidents. The conclave will take place this week-end. Mrs. Gordon is expected back next week.

Youngster, Despite Handicaps, to Play in Recital

Harold Bernstein, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bernstein of Wheeler avenue, Edgewood, has achieved an unusual record during the past year. In that interval, although lame and crippled by infantile paralysis, he has progressed rapidly in the study of violin and will play at the violin recital of the pupils of Hugo Norden, to be held Sunday afternoon in T. H. Hall library. He will play Minuetto and Double by Norden, a composition of his instructor.

Harold is in the second grade of Norwood avenue school. His violin teacher, Mr. Norden, has remarked that Harold has made unusual progress in the study of violin, considering the brief period he has been studying.

Duration of Veterans Carnival Extended

Because of inclement weather, the carnival of the Rhode Island Post No. 23, Jewish War Veterans and its Auxiliary, will be continued through the week of June 27.

The carnival, which is being held at the headquarters of the Jewish War Veterans, at the corner of Niagara street and Congress avenue, opened Tuesday evening. The Jewish War Veteran Junior Band, consisting of 30 pieces, plays each evening between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock. Dancing is held every night in the Post ballroom. Proceeds from the carnival will be divided between the home and relief funds of the Post.

Medical Staff Chosen for Camp Pembroke

Camp Pembroke, the new camp for girls at Pembroke, Mass., has won popular approval by its fine location on the shores of Lake Oldham, its excellent bathing facilities, its ultra-modern electrically lighted bungalows, each containing running water, a flush closet, wash room and trunk closet, its carefully chosen staff, headed by Mrs. Herbert J. Goulston, and its progressive, all-embracing program.

Camp Pembroke has now added A. Daniel Rubenstein, M. D., and Ruth Greenberg, R. N., as resident physician and nurse. Dr. Rubenstein received his A. B. at Harvard College and his M. D. from Boston University School of Medicine. He was house officer and resident at the Brockton Hospital and is house officer at the Boston City Hospital at present.

Miss Ruth Greenberg is at present at the Beth-Israel Hospital, from which she graduated after her training.

Washington Speaks

The World Jewish Congress has entered its last phase. It is no longer a debatable abstract issue. It can no longer be regarded as a subject of discussion between various groups of American Jews. American Jewry, represented by more than 1,100 delegates, at the Washington conference of the American Jewish Congress, has spoken in unequivocal, unmistakable terms.

According to the principles of American democracy, a minority must accept the decision of an elected majority. This decision demands the right for Jewry of the world to gather around one table and discuss the problems which confront it.

Washington having spoken with a fervor that will be echoed not only throughout this land but the world over, it is to be hoped that the groups who until the last moment tried desperately to halt the Geneva Congress will stop and listen. Their main objection that the World Jewish Congress is not representative of all segments of world Jewry can no longer hold water if they themselves will join hands with the democratic forces of Jewry.

It would be indeed an admirable exemplification of American principles if the small group represented by the American Jewish Committee were to bow to the majority. The American Jewish Committee is unquestionably representative of a certain strata of Jewish leadership which can render valuable services to the Jewish cause. Its place should be side by side with the American Jewish Congress when world Jewry meets in August at Geneva.

BOOK NOTES

Esther Levine

"Morning of Life." By Kristmann Gudmundsson. (Doubleday, Doran). In the past few years a number of Scandinavian novels have come our way. There was "The Growth of the Soul," "The Great Hunger," "Kristin Laursdatter," "Peder Victorious" to mention a few. More recently, there has appeared "Beyond Sing the Woods" and now "Morning of Life."

The stories of these novels differ in content and in mood. However, they do have a common denominator—the quality of "earthiness." They have roots which go down deep into the soil of simplicity, sincerity and vitality. The characters, while perfectly realistic in their emotions, their desires and their actions, seem to be cast after a heroic pattern.

Haldor Bessason is a real hero, a man who laughs at fear and danger, and performs marvelous feats of daring when he must. He is the sort of man who laughs when nature is kind and invites his neighbors to share his luck. But when nature bares her fangs and crouches ready to leap and destroy, he contemptuously defies her to try and break him.

You would think his neighbors would admire such a man in their midst; but neighbors are not that way. Truly, a man may be a hero to his valet even before he becomes anything but a cause for jealous gossip to his neighbors.

Yet Haldor had no complaints. He felt that life had been good to him. "He had had success in various things and good health; women and children had loved him, and he had got honorable recognition at the last. There was indeed a little gall mingled with the sweet wine of life, but he had drunk, and that was the main thing."

That last sentence proves the Hero in man.

Suggested Reading

"Green Fingers." By Reginald Arkell. (Dodd, Mead).

Do you have a garden? Or, have you sometimes dreamed of having one? Then, by all means, read this very amusing assortment of poems by a garden-port. He may be a mite discouraging but, at any rate, he is amusing.

"The Passion Flower and the Pea" I think that I shall never be So popular that I shall see A Passion Flower named after me.

The famous people of today Are honored in this curious way. In Carter's catalogue, I see That Mary Pickford is a Pea.

Jack Hobbs, Lord Beatty, Nurse Cavell, And Sonny Boy, are Peas as well.

When they name something after me, I only hope that I shall be A Passion Flower and not a Pea.

It's amusing, but is it Poetry?

Around the Town

With Leonard Harris

Now and Then
Ho-hum!—wish I could sleep a couple of more hours, but we go to sleep in a few minutes, so here goes:—Wonder where Ernst Nathan keeps himself now. Never thought Milt Goldberger was that old—Class of '24.

Congrats to Martin Lerner, Joseph Rubenstein and Nate Chaset who are sheep-skin at B. U. Willie Bergman has never been known to hurry. My vote for the most executive-looking executive—Max Grant.

Hobbies
Do any of your people remember when Charlie Kesterman was a fair hand at modelling and sculpturing? Is a noodle-ty due to Bernstein? Ed Davis is on the staff at the Pine Shore House at Dover, N. H. Girl who made good in the big town—Mildred Krickstein—i.e. buyer at Stern's. Harry Leach in his spare moments is an ardent fisherman. Paul Bergman back from his Havana cruise showing a baby-pink face that will slowly replace his sun-seared complexion.

Meat and Health
With the meat-order came the announcement that Selgal's kosher meat market is resuming its fifth season at 10 Kingston road, Narragansett Pier. With endorsement from the local rabinate and Vaad-Hacashruth, all ye good Hebrew summer residents will be assured of strictly kosher and sanitary meat.

Brown Class Night
Last Friday at class night on the hill, Janet Fain danced with her fiancé, Norman Derman. In a white Grecian gown, Claire Keizen swayed along with Eddie Halpert. Teddy Jaffa crossed the campus, shaking hands with many old friends. I was about to say hello to Benny Frucht and Lou Abramson when along came those two well-known Newport boys—George Teitz and Leo Tobak.

Our Into the Crucial World
Passing down the hill Monday morning, some of our charming Pembroke, now out to conquer new worlds—the Paulines Kleinberger and Mellor and Ruthie Tannenbaum, all graduated magna cum laude. Ruthie is going to Smith College next fall. Two stately ladies, Zella Fisher and Esther Kuldin. Madeline Newburger nodded to her family. Mildred Cohen whose solitaire "stole a march" on her diploma. Dave Field and Edward Solferenko, the former a cum laude student, smiled at their many friends. Way back in the line, Eugene Field joined the alumni. Over at Providence College, Seymour Bedrick graduated.

Big Doings
At the Park Casino, Monday night the Julius Musers honored their daughter, Rosalie, another Pembroke.
