Lift Palestine Military Restrictions

Institute Speaker

JOSEPH H. KORNFELD

Formerly a Rabbi in Columbus, Ohio, and for many years United States Minister to Persia, Joseph H. Kornfeld will open the series of lectures at Temple Emanu-El, sponsored annually by the Institute of Jewish Studies.

Religion Plays Small Part In Election, Survey Shows

New York (WNS)—The religion professed by voters plays practically no part in their political affiliations in the present national campaign, a survey conducted by the American Institute of Public Opinion shows. George Gallup, director of the Institute, declares in a report on a nationwide poll, conducted by the Institute, in which the straw-voters were asked to specify their religious faith. The poll showed that while a majority of Baptists, Roman Catholics and Jews favored the re-election of President Roosevelt, the members of his own church, the Episcopalians, tend to favor the election of Governor Landon.

Wealthy Jew Returns to Judaism on Death Bed

Budapest (WNS)—An unusual incident occurred in the Jewish community here when Baron Peter von Hatvany, a Jewish convert to Christianity and the wealthiest sugar magnate in Hungary, returned to Judaism just before he died. On his deathbed he called in the Chief Rabbi and had himself converted to the faith of his fathers. He left a large part of his estate to the Budapest Jewish community and to various Jewish charities.

WILL CANCELS ALL CHARITY BEQUESTS

Straus Adds Codicil Because of High Taxes

New York (WNS)—Because of increased estate and inheritance taxes the proceeds of which are used for governmental social programs, Jesse Isidor Straus, late merchant and diplomat, revoked charitable bequests totaling nearly $900,000 which he had enumerated in his 1933 will. It was revealed when the will was filed for probate.

The codicil revoking the bequests also explained that Mr. Straus had during his lifetime "made substantial contributions to various charitable, philanthropic and educational organizations." The canceled bequests include about $165,000 to Harvard, about $330,000 to the New York Federation, $35,000 to the Catholic Charities of New York and $85,000 to Presbyterian Hospital of this city.

The bulk of the estate, the value of which is formally stated to be "over $10,000," pending appraisal, is left to Mr. Straus' widow, Irma Nathan Straus.

LIGHT AND WEINER HOSTS TO BOARD

Jacob Licht, president of Temple Beth Israel and Albert Weiner, vice-president, will host to the incoming and outgoing members of the Board of Trustees of the Temple at a dinner to be tendered them Thursday evening at the Temple.

The occasion marks the completion of fifteen years of the Temple's existence and will launch a program of activities for the year in honor of this notable event. During these fifteen years Temple Beth Israel has been a tower of strength spiritually, socially and communally and its celebration will no doubt be shared in by every Jew in the community as well as by the Temple members.

ROYAL COMMISSION MEETS

London (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The Royal Commission under Lord Peel, appointed to investigate into the present disorders in Palestine and prepared to embark for the Holy Land as soon as order is restored, met for the first time in the Colonial Office, for a discussion of procedure and other preliminaries.

Mussolini Studies Gains in Palestine

Il Duce, reputed to be a mysterious key figure in political maneuvering centering around Palestine, is shown here in an exclusive photograph at the Levant Pavilion of the Lefant Fair at Bari, in Southern Italy. Mussolini, who has frequently expressed his friendly interest in Jewish Palestine, is studying an exhibit describing Zionist achievements in the acquisition of land in the Jewish National Home and in other phases of reconstruction activity.

Labor Spy Incident Clarified by Jonas

Brooklyn (WNS)—An "investigator," and not a "labor spy," was hired by the Jewish Hospital here to "clear up dishonesty and disloyalty" among the hospital employees, Nathan S. Jonas, president of the institution, told a meeting of its employees.

He added that the hospital would refuse to recognize the Hospital Employees' Union, would discharge any striking employees and could not meet demands for a pay increase. The hiring of the "investigator" by the hospital from a strike-breaking and labor spy was revealed recently by the La Follette Senate Investigating Committee.

Treasury Department Suspends Fascist Organizer

New York (WNS)—Hubert Willard Eldred, an employee in a local U. S. Treasury Department office, has been suspended from his duties following disclosure of his activity in organizing a Fascist group, called the National Veterans Reserve Corps, during the hours at which he was supposed to have been engaged with his official duties. The corps which Eldred was organized was dedicated to combating the menace of the "growing influence of Reds and Jews" in this country.

SAYS SPY CONFESSED HIRING MURDERER

Prague (WNS)—An unconfirmed report in the Czech press that a German spy confessed to the Palestine police that he hired a Turk by the name of Mustapha Jabal to murder Dr. Chaim Arlosoroff in June 1933 has created a sensation here. According to the report, the spy, whose name is Karl Handgren, committed suicide immediately after his confession. The report also says that the Palestine authorities forbade the Palestine press to make the story public. Arlosoroff, Labor leader, was murdered on the Tel Aviv seashore. Two Revisionists were tried for the murder.

URGES MASS EMIGRATION

Kayno (WNS)—Taking a cue from Poland, which is moving heaven and earth to find a place where its Jewish population can emigrate en masse, the Lithuanian press has raised the cry that Lithuania too has too many Jews and must get rid of them.

DEFENSIVE POLICY WILL BE ADOPTED

Orders Coincide With End of General Strike

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—A substantial reduction in the stringent military measures that were recently introduced to curb the disorders in Palestine was announced by the British military general staff to coincide with the termination of the six-month old Arab general strike.

An officer of the general staff in stating that the strong guard put on the Holy Land would be lifted, said that the military had decided to adopt a defensive policy in the situation and "to respond only to unprovoked aggression."

Besides removing the convoy escorts which used to accompany busses in transit from city to city, the troops will also decrease the number of patrols designed to stamp out intimidation and sabotage.

Eliminate Pickets
As part of the new military policy, large cross-country pickets will also be eliminated, and there will be no more searching of villages for arms. Road and railway patrols, which protected rolling stock against the sniper and the saboteur will also be reduced.

In saying that these precautionary measures were being lifted as a result of the end of the general strike, the general staff pointed out, however, that these new arrangements will continue until today, when the situation will be reviewed.

It was further emphasized by the military authorities that the lessening of the precautions did not mean that they would be less alert to emergency situations. If necessary, it was asserted, the former stringent measures will be imposed immediately.

Grapefruit Export Season Tests Strike Strength

Haifa (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The greatest test of the strength of the nation-wide Arab general strike begins this week as the export season for grapefruit opens at the Haifa port and labor is required to transport and load the fruit. The citrus industry, which represents half of the economic life of the country, will ship its products through both the long-established Haifa terminus and the new port at Tel Aviv, built since the Arab strike began.

Tolerance Must Extend To Fascism, Says Sir Simon

London (WNS)—The banning of Fascist demonstrations would be contrary to the British principle of free speech and might pave the way for other repressive government measures which would destroy the British democracy, Sir John Simon, Home Secretary, declared in a Yorkshire speech in which he explained why he did not favor an anti-Fascist law despite the rioting caused in London's East End by Sir Oswald Mosley's Blackshirts.

It is the duty of the police, he pointed out, "to do their utmost to prevent serious disturbances by keeping the rival factions apart and intervening when necessary."

Expressing his dislike of Fascist principles and procedures, Sir John said: "I take the view that the Fascist doctrine is as un-English and as unwanted as the Communist doctrine, but the duty of the authorities is to do all they can with complete impartiality to maintain the freedom of meeting and speech for all doctrines, however foolish and mischievous they may be, provided the law is not broken."

The City Council of Manchester, however, has prohibited the wearing of Fascist uniforms at demonstrations in that city.

The Literary Club of Woonsocket, a group composed of eleven women, is sponsoring the appearance of Lowell Thomas on Sunday evening, November 1, in the auditorium of the Woonsocket Junior High School. Mr. Thomas will speak on the vital subject of the day, which in all probability will be politics.

Tickets for this occasion may be obtained from Mrs. Noah Finklestein, president, or from Mrs. A. A. Brown, secretary.

Greece and Turkey Deplore Arab Terror

Saloniki (WNS)—Receiving a Jewish delegation from the Island of Corfu, King George of Greece expressed sincere regrets over the disturbances in Palestine and voiced the hope that the Jews there would soon be freed from terrorism.

BEAT UP FASCISTS— GET JAIL TERM

Two Jews Sentenced for 2 and 4 Months

London (WNS)—Two Jews who were arrested for beating Fascists after a gang of Blackshirts had invaded the Mile End Road district of the East End of London have been sentenced to prison at hard labor for terms of four and two months. 12 Blackshirts are also under arrest.

Proposals to ban public demonstrations for six months and to prohibit the wearing of party uniforms as measures to halt Fascist violence were considered by the cabinet at an emergency session. The cabinet had before it identical letters from the mayors of all East End boroughs asking the government what it intends to do to prevent further Fascist rioting. The Labor Party is calling a conference in the East End to consider the situation.

ALBEE TO INSTALL NEW PHOTOPHONE

Installation of a remarkable new RCA Photophone "High Fidelity" sound reproducing system, which promises to revolutionize all previous conceptions of realism in sound motion picture reproduction, is now in progress at the R. K. O. Albee Theatre. It has been announced by William Brown, manager of the theatre.

According to present plans, the new sound system, identical to the ones recently installed in the Radio City Theatres, will be ready for operation with the first showing of the picture, "The Gay Desperado," starring Nino Martini, on Thursday evening, October 22.

"With the installation of the new 'High Fidelity' apparatus, the R. K. O. Albee Theatre will be one of the first in the vicinity equipped with apparatus capable of faithfully reproducing the finest sound which recent advances in recording have made possible," Mr. Brown said. "Our patrons will be assured of brilliantly natural and intelligible sound and we are happy that we have been afforded this opportunity of better serving the moviegoers of Providence."

News About Current Film Attractions and People

One of Hollywood's leading film directors, George Cukor, says that the film capital of America is faced with a shortage of leading men. New faces among men actors are conspicuous by their absence, he points out. Cukor says male stars are being teamed with female stars because of necessity, not because of box-office. There are not enough leading men to go around and the result is that stars must be drafted to fill the gaps.

Robert Taylor

He says: "I don't know why handsome young fellows no longer seek a career in motion pictures, but it is a fact that they do not. If you will look in the ranks of young civil engineers, professional men, businessmen and brokers, you will find the fellows who might have come to the rescue but chose other fields instead. Now is the golden opportunity for TALENTED young men as the various studios are willing to make screen tests more than ever before."

Now at Fays Theatre

Heralded as one of the most thrilling screen dramas, with a unique romance, and colorful settings, "Bengal Tiger," a Warner Brothers production opens at Fays theatre, with Barton McLane, June Travis and Warren Hall in the principal roles.

The story and screen play by Roy Chanslor and Earl Felton centers about the lives of circus folk both at home before the public under the big Top, and in their private dressing tents. It is the inside story of this colorful clan in the big tents, on their special train during the summer and in winter quarters.

It is a real circus thriller; in fact, the circus acts are performed by actual experts of the sawdust trail. Scenes of the greatest excitement center about the cage of wild animals, where in the story, Barton McLane, a tiger tamer, is so badly clawed that he loses a leg.

On the stage will be presented the "Fun Frolic Revue."

His Proudest Boasts

One of the proudest boasts of Sam Hellman, humorous short story and scenario writer, is the time he taught a world famous baritone to "sing." It happened when Hellman was a resident in Paris.

Here's Hellman's story. "I was out making the rounds of several favorite spots, celebrating something or other. As the evening went on, I felt the desire to sing. I'm probably the world's worst singer, and ordinarily can't carry a tune in a bucket. However, I was crooning my favorite ballad, one I picked up from the native crew on a banana boat in the Bahamas some years ago over my glass of milk. A stranger came up to the counter.

"I like that song. Will you teach me the words?" he said. Being an obliging person, I said I would, and patiently taught him the words and an approximation of the tune. We joined forces and continued on our tour of the boulevards, singing our gay tune. As we were saying goodbye, I thought to inquire his name. "Tito Ruffo," he replied. That meant nothing to me until the next night, when Mrs. Hellman dragged me to the opera, and there, as big as life, was my singing companion of the night before, starring in a famous opera. He seemed to be in better voice that night than the previous one."

At the Majestic

Singing, dancing and dimpling her way once more into millions of hearts, Shirley Temple is the new Twenty-first Century-Fox triumph. "Dimples," opens today at the Majestic Theatre.

Shirley Temple

Hailed as Shirley Temple's wonder show, and featuring swinging new song hits and brand new dance steps, "Dimples" is heralded as the outstanding hit in the little star's parade of brilliant triumphs.

An exceptional cast, headed by the irrepressible and inimitable Frank Morgan, supports Shirley in the film, with Helen Westley, Robert Kent, Astrid Allyn, Delma Byron, the Hall Johnson Choir and Stepin Fetchit prominently featured.

Replete with laughter, romance and drama, "Dimples" tells the story of a lovable little street minstrel, Shirley, and her incorrigible but irreversibly funny guardian, Frank Morgan.

With Morgan and Stepin Fetchit contributing hilarious laughter, Robert Kent, Astrid Allyn and Delma Byron youthful romance, Helen Westley and Barton Church providing stirring drama, and Shirley better than even her previous "best," "Dimples" is the greatest in the succession of Shirley Temple pictures.

Coming to the Albee

At the Albee Theatre last Wednesday morning, this correspondence dropped in to preview "The Gay Desperado," that hilarious and entertaining vehicle starring Nino Martini, great Metropolitan Opera singer. Sprinkled in the small audience were music lovers of Rhode Island, representing almost every music club and organization. Martini reaches grand heights in his many music selections, particularly in the solo from Aida. The picture is replete with natural scenic beauty and has excellent casting and direction. We recommend it highly.

Queen Mary Extends Sympathy to Bombed Hospital

Jerusalem (WNS-Palmer Agency)—Dowager Queen Mary of England has sent a note of sympathy to one of the local Jewish institutions which was the object of an attack by Arab terrorists. The Migdal Ladachi Hospital, in the Old City of Jerusalem, sent a telegram of protest to Queen Mary, among others, when snipers fired at the hospital and threw a bomb at it last month.

Yesterday a reply was received from Queen Mary through J. E. F. Campbell, Jerusalem District Commissioner, in which she expressed her solicitude for the affected institution.

PIONEER WOMEN CONVENE IN BOSTON

Delegates of 130 Women's Groups Attend

Boston, Mass.—From 130 pioneer women's groups actively functioning throughout the country large delegations will gather at the four-day sixth biennial Convention of the Pioneer Women's Organization of America that began yesterday at the Hotel Statler, Boston, and continuing through Sunday. An elaborate program of events has been scheduled by the local convention committee, headed by Mrs. Sonia Zipperstein, general chairman. For weeks past, the local groups have been gathering their forces preparatory to welcoming the record-breaking number of delegates and guests expected to participate in the Convention's deliberations.

This year's convocation is of especial significance at this time, in view of the critical problems confronting Jews of Europe and Palestine. The entire program of the Pioneer Women's Organization here and the Working Women's Council in Palestine will be reviewed in the light of the present conditions. The delegates will take counsel together on the problems which face their activities in Palestine, will take steps to solve these problems and formulate policies which will govern future endeavors. They will also have an opportunity to hear and discuss the larger and more vital issues confronting world Jewry today.

At the last meeting of the Women Pioneers, held last Monday afternoon at Arcadia Hall, 109 Washington street, Mrs. P. M. Phillips, gave a resume of the World Jewish Congress held recently at Geneva and brought out very vividly the high spots of the Congress. Progress was reported on the bridge to be given Wednesday afternoon October 28 for Jewish Teachers Seminary and Peoples University project.

PEACE MANIFESTO RATIFIED BY ARABS

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The Arab Higher Committee, at a meeting, ratified the manifesto which is to be issued by the Arab rulers appealing for the termination of the 25-week-old strike and campaign of terror.

The striking climax of a long series of negotiations between Palestine Arabs and the Moslem sovereigns of the Near and Middle East, was attended by representatives of local strike committees of Jaffa, Safed, Acre, Tulkarem and Beithlehem, as well as by the editors of the Arabic newspapers.

The proclamation to which the Committee gave its approval asks the Arabs of Palestine to give up their violent protest against the Jewish National Home policy of the British government and to rely on the "good will" of Great Britain for the remedying of their grievances.

By endorsing the proclamation of peace the Arab leaders indicated their willingness to end the general strike, which has already cost nearly 1,000 lives, and many millions in property damages. The text as accepted by the committee did not include the majority of the additions that had been suggested by the Committee to the original draft.

HADASSAH REPORTS 52,000 MEMBERS

New York (WNS)—A membership increase of 6,500 during the past year, the largest increase in the history of the organization, is reported by Hadassah, women's Zionist group, which now numbers 52,000 members in its senior and junior divisions. Mrs. Alexander Lampert of Mt. Vernon, national membership chairman, explains the large increase by the stimulation of Zionist interest due to the present emphasis on the need of establishing a secure haven for Jews in Palestine. Plans for the 22nd annual convention of Hadassah, to be held at Philadelphia from October 18th to 21st, include the discussion of an extensive program of Jewish adult education in the United States.

Communists Assail Mufti for Ending Arab Strike

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The Mufti of Jerusalem and his associates in the Arab leadership are condemned for ending the strike in Communist leaflets distributed in Haifa, which urge the Arabs not to disarm but to continue their general strike and campaign of terror against Great Britain and Zionism.

A delegation of boatmen from the Jaffa port came to Jerusalem to interview High Commissioner Wauchope and to request his assistance in connection with alleged Jewish concentration of all export and import traffic via Tel Aviv and Haifa. The Jaffa harbor, which was not open during the entire period of the 6-month strike, is now suffering from the lack of Jewish patronage.

Hitler Versus Kaiser

The honor of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler is vindicated, and Abraham Kaiser, German Jew who had the temerity to hint in a letter to an American friend that perhaps Der Fuehrer is not God come down to earth, languishes in jail to ponder over his sins.

Special agents of the Gestapo spent months reading mail bound for points abroad in the search of some letter that would "justify" action by the authorities. They waded through tons of messages expressing such noble sentiments as "wish you were here" or "the beer is very good this year."

They studied complicated business documents and, with wide-eyed interest, no doubt, read through passionate love letters. At last they found what they wanted. It took a Jew, the above-mentioned A. Kaiser—not to be confused with the Kaiser—to make them feel they had not toiled in vain.

We congratulate Herr Hitler on the efficiency of his forces, and trust that with the elimination of Abraham Kaiser from circulation all menace to his mail-censoring regime has been removed.

"Precious" Lives

"The life of every Jewish Citizen is so precious to the Polish Government that all violent acts against Jews have always been punished severely."

Premier Skladkowski told a delegation of Jews who called on him to protest against the increase of anti-Semitism in Poland. A curious statement, in view of the record.

To cite a single instance: The record shows that last March a violent pogrom took place in Przytyk, Poland, in which two Jews were killed and scores were injured, and heavy property damage was caused by the pogromists. A number of arrests were made, and three months later, after an extended trial, the court handed down some verdicts.

Long prison terms were given to Jews who had defended themselves and their homes against a blood-thirsty mob. Milder terms were meted out to some of the Poles who had been arrested during the rioting, while other Poles went scot-free. And some time later the convictions of the Poles were reversed by a higher tribunal, while an appeal by the convicted Jews was denied.

At the current rate of exchange the Polish zloty is practically at par on our foreign exchange market. To judge by Premier Skladkowski's use of the word "precious," however, it would seem that the Polish sense of value is so far below par as to be practically non-existent.

Editor's Mailbox

"I read the announcement in your last week's issue of the appointment of Samuel Kagan of the Democratic State Committee as Chairman for the Jewish Committee to enlist Jewish voters in behalf of the Democratic Party."

"I believe a grave error was committed by the Democratic State Committee in trying to divide our citizens into separate races to reach the voters for the support of the party, and a still graver error, for any Jew to be singled out officially and accept publicly the position offered to him. We Jews in America are free citizens, and we offer our votes to the men and the party, who best serve the interest of our country and the citizens of our country."

Believe in Religious Liberty

"We believe in the principle of religious liberty, freedom of press and thoughts and expression. We believe in our Democratic principles of a free government. I have just returned from a two-months' trip through France, Italy, Switzerland, Palestine, Roumania, Hungary and Austria. I came into contact with a large group of German-Jewish refugees and Polish-Jews, and I found that what may apply to Jewish party alignment in Poland in order to defeat a Polish Anti-Semitic government, or in Roumania, for the same purpose, or in France to protect their rights, does not hold good in our United States.

"On the boat coming back from Palestine, I had a long conversation with the distinguished United States Senator Copeland of New York. I had no idea that he was an anti-New Dealer. He inquired of me what the people I had met in Europe thought of President Roosevelt and his chances of reelection. I told him that in Europe, and as a matter of fact even in Palestine, they don't know of any other candidates. He was amazed, and gave me the reasons for his position as a Democrat against the New Deal and the Roosevelt Administration.

"On the other hand, when I came home, I found that Dr. Stephen S. Wise, in my mind the greatest Jew alive today, had taken up President Roosevelt's side in this campaign. But he took this as an individual. Roger Williams Straus has taken this question up on the Landon side, so here we are.

"As president of the Rhode Island Council of the American Jewish Congress, I want to protest any attempt of racial issues, being brought to play in this campaign. Our Jews are intelligent enough to know how to vote. They will listen to all the candidates and vote for the best party and its candidate. I condemned a similar attempt two years ago by a Jewish group representing the Republican point of view, to inject a distinct Jewish point of view into that election."

History Repeats Itself

If memory serves me correctly, Jews in Germany were once proud to be known as Germans, and not Jews, but it was little help to them when the axe began to fall, and now we have history repeating itself with the spectacle of the Italian-Jews severing all connections with Jewish Jewry, and desiring to be known as Italians first, last and always. . . . But reading between the lines, we see that the reason for the vow of allegiance to Il Duce's Fascism is more than just a wish to be Italians. . . . It is more a desperate gesture with a hope and prayer of staving off conditions like that in Germany, which some people believe is brewing. . . .

Thirteen Years Ago

Can it be three years since we heard that familiar voice on the radio saying "Vas you dere, Charlie?" . . . It is. . . . And by the way, radio is in its thirteenth year. . . . Just thirteen years ago I bet my pop that if he'd put the ear-phones on he would hear a man singing in New York, and he did! . . . But he fell asleep with them on. . . . Isaac Moses looks like a lost sheep about this time of year. . . . Add signs of fall: Bernie Fay wearing a new Gray Kelley. . . . A card from the Saul Feinbergs, written in Paris, just missed last week's deadline. . . . I wonder if he lost any weight bicycling in Holland, and by the way, Saul, you can mail me my souvenir. . . .

People and Things

The Al Cokes are expecting to be babyjoyed in the near future. . . . Claire Reizen and the Sandperl sisters spent a couple of hours bicycling coats at Toppel-Carlsons. . . . Lenine Levin copped the honors at the Ledgermont for the season's finale. . . . Meyer Silverman, former resident of Providence, and for the past thirty-six years one of Uncle Sam's army officers, is vacationing with his sister on Providence street. . . . The sound equipment at the Carlton Theatre is all it needed to make it tops in show values. . . . In town for the last few months has been one Mark Sagal, native son of Baltimore, and now a resident of New York city. . . . He is in charge of construction on the new School of Design building. . . . George Jessel is an ace sun-dodger, never having breakfasted before 4:00 P. M. . . . Frances Cohen, Howard McGrath's secretary, wears an ivory donkey around her neck as a charm.

Lucky Doctor

Add lucky stab:—The physician who inoculated Catherine, Queen of Russia, and her son, received $50,000 as a fee, $10,000 for traveling expenses and an annual pension of $2500 for life. . . . Not bad, eh doc? . . . Walter Sundlin

We still know some one who would like to sit at a table cornerwise with him. . . . Al Rice is still keen about his new home. . . . He spends Sunday morning reading the sport section in the front window. . . . Our good friend Kroll of the Hebrew Free Loan was discharged from the hospital last Monday. . . . Scenes Before Election
Phil Baker started in show business by being a stage boy in a play called "The Naval Cadet," in which Jim Corbett, the celebrated heavyweight champion, starred. . . . He was paid twenty-five cents a night for yelling in a prize-fight scene off stage. . . . Any people who remember, say that he was quite an ad libber at that early date. . . . Tops in window attraction ideas is the invisible glass window. . . . Tilden-Thurber sports. . . . The first one in our state. . . . Moe Feingold is a top kicker at Post & Letters. . . . Billy Rose, Fanny Brice's diminutive husband, has a horror of small rooms, and prefers anything, no matter how barn-like, as long as there is enough space. . . . Just now, his office in New York is a warehouse on top of one of the buildings. . . .

In these days before election, some very queer scenes are being enacted by our local Jewry. . . . In building lobbies and street corners, recording constantly seeing groups of dopsters telling why they will or why they won't. . . . Whatever party wins, there will be a few new Jewish faces projected on the political screen. . . .

A Speaker at Heart
Just why a local rabbi refuses to allow announcement to be made regarding the A. Z. A. before his Sunday School pupils, is more than this correspondent can understand. . . . Perhaps he can enlighten us. . . . According to those who heard her, Minna Rabinowitz can give her husband a run for his money any day on a speaker's platform. . . . Sam Summerfield had quite a time the other day, while his daughter dragged him into the drug store on Hope street. . . . An eminent Philadelphia educator asserts all colleges should require their graduates to be re-examined every five years. . . . Those who think should have their degrees revoked. . . . Japan's number one actress had a salary of $125 a month last year, so what are you gals kicking about? . . .

Hadassah Speaker Pleads for Unity Among Zionist Groups

The Fall and Winter term of Providence Chapter of Hadassah, inaugurated at a Luncheon-Rally Tuesday, in the vestry of Temple Beth Israel, got away to a start which argued well for the new season. Covers were laid for 185 members, who assembled to hear Mrs. Archibald Silverman, honorary president and founder of the local Chapter, speak on "Inspiration Out of Palestine."

The assemblage was greeted by Mrs. Ben Kane, chairman of the affair, who also thanked Mrs. J. D. Grossman, her co-chairman and committee for their assistance in arranging the function. Mrs. Saul Abrams, president, conducted a brief business session.

Tribute to Mayor
Mrs. Archibald Silverman proffered her address with a tribute to the late Political Administration.

KAGAN CONDEMNS FALSE PROPAGANDA

In past years, certain Jewish Republican candidates for public office maliciously injected the racial issue into their respective campaigns. From house to house they spread their propaganda to the effect that the Democratic party would never give recognition, in the form of positions of trust, to any Jewish person. This year, the same heinous attempts are being made to distort the issues of this campaign.

It is not my intention to bring religion into a political campaign, nor do I advocate the election of Democrats on the basis of the number of positions or jobs given to Jewish persons. I do, however, desire to make known to the Jewish people of Rhode Island the TRUE FACTS, which absolutely disprove the Republican propaganda.

In the State Government, Jewish people have been given innumerable positions of real responsibility. They can be found in practically every department. As but a few examples of the sixty or more Jewish persons so employed, might I cite, for example: Miss Krevolin, Secretary to Governor Green; Assistant Attorney General Lasker; Assistant Clerk of the Superior Court, A. Louis Rosenfield; Clerk of the Superior Court for Washington County, Morris W. Wein; Paul J. Robin, in charge of Motor Vehicle Inspection; Law Revision Commissioner, Sidney L. Rabinowitz; Chief of Factory Inspection, Abraham Friedman; and last, but surely not least, our own Maurice Robinson, Presiding Justice of the Sixth District Court. In other words, the Jewish people have today not only a greater number of their representatives holding state office than ever before, but also, we find them in more responsible positions, positions of trust, than ever in the history of Rhode Island.

So, likewise, we find in the City of Providence, a greater number of Jewish people in responsible positions than under any Republican administration. We have but to look to the Health Department, the Tax Assessors, the Welfare Department, as shining examples of the recognition which we Jewish people have been given.

As to the Federal Government and the various federal agencies here in this state, we find that for the first time in history, a score or more Jewish citizens of Rhode Island have been given NON-CIVIL SERVICE positions, many of them as executives, and I am glad to say that the record they are making is something of which we may indeed be proud.

I trust these few words will suffice to once and for all dispel that smoke screen of racial hatred which has been spread by our opponents, so that the Jewish people may judge this campaign on the basis of the REAL ISSUES. As a Democrat, I feel confident as to the results of an election so decided.

SAMUEL C. KAGAN.

FORMER PROV. MAN HONORED AT DINNER

Archie Joslin of Rock Hill Lauded by Fellow Citizens

Archie Joslin, formerly a Providence boy, who has lived in Rock Hill, South Carolina, for the past eight years, was hailed as that city's "foremost citizen" at a testimonial dinner, given in his honor by the Chamber of Commerce a few weeks ago.

Mr. Joslin went to Rock Hill in 1929, established the $2,000,000 Rock Hill Printing and Finishing Plant, and headed it successfully during the seven years of its existence. When the plant began operations, 600 people were employed at the combined yearly salary of $300,000. At the present time there are 1600 employees receiving an annual payroll of $1,250,000.

Aside from his business duties, Mr. Joslin entered into many phases of community life. Three years ago he was instrumental in founding a recreation park commission, which built a public golf course, a swimming lake, and a clubhouse near the city. In 1935 he was made a director of the Chamber of Commerce.

Several months ago, Mr. Joslin was appointed treasurer of M. Lowenstein Sons Co., of New York, which concerns the Rock Hill Printing and Finishing Plant, but although business reasons now compel him to take up residence in New York, he promised to call Rock Hill "home."

Nazi Chief Admits That Boycott Hurts

Berlin (WNS) — Admitting that the world-wide anti-Nazi economic boycott has seriously curtailed German exports, Rudolf Hoss, Hitler's party deputy, served notice on the world that the Reich was prepared to engage in dumping on a large scale unless her colonies were returned to her. In an address at a Bavarian party rally Hoss conceded that Germany was again passing through economic stringency and declared that unless her colonies were returned she "would be forced to export at any price, thus impairing the exports of other nations."

Maccabees Win Third Straight Soccer Game

New York (WNS) — Again displaying the brilliant team-work which brought them two straight victories on their American tour, the Maccabee soccer team, champions of Palestine, scored their third consecutive triumph by setting back the strong picked team of stars from the five clubs in the metropolitan division of the American League 1-0.

Cheered on by a crowd of 25,000 at Ebbets Field, the Palestine boosters tallied the only score in the last five minutes when Raoul Machlis, outside drive, kicked past the goalie, Erno Schwarzw, player-manager of the all-stars, and Egon Pollak, manager of the Maccabees, were formally team-mates on the famous Vienna Kachals.
