Jewish Agencies Request $75,531 for 1937 Budgets

Established B'nai B'rith Palestine Colony

ALFRED M. COHEN
B'nai B'rith Pres.

DR. ISRAEL GOLDSTEIN
National Fund Head

Cincinnati (WNS)—Closing lengthy negotiations between Dr. Chaim Weizmann, Alfred M. Cohen and Dr. Israel Goldstein, the B'nai B'rith has announced a grant of $100,000 to the Jewish National Fund for the purchase in Palestine of a tract of 1,000 acres on which will be established an agricultural colony to be called "B'nai B'rith Alfred M. Cohen Nachlab", in recognition of the long service to B'nai B'rith of the organization's president.

Announcement of the grant by the largest Jewish fraternal organization, which is also a non Zionist group, was hailed as a striking evidence of the faith of B'nai B'rith in the future of the Jewish upbuilding work in Palestine. The colony will provide settlement opportunities for Jewish refugee families from Germany and other lands of oppression. Members of B'nai B'rith in the various countries where it has lodges will be given preference in the selection of the prospective settlers.

JEWS CONSCRIPTED

Madrid (WNS)—Eight hundred young Jews from Tangiers, Spanish Morocco, which is in the hands of the Fascist rebels, have been forcibly enrolled in the rebel army, according to reports in the Madrid newspapers, which add that the Jewish conscripts are being beaten and otherwise persecuted by officers of General Franco's forces.

Home for Aged Elects Officers; Hears Reports

The Fourth Annual Meeting of the Jewish Home for the Aged was held on last Sunday afternoon at the Home, with Samuel M. Magid presiding. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Rabbi Israel M. Goldman and was followed by the reading of the minutes of the last Annual Meeting by Herman J. Aisenberg.

Reports were then read by the following chairmen: Admissions, Mrs. Samuel N. Deutch; Arbitration, Samuel Michaelson; Budget, Charles C. Brown; Finance, Arthur H. Feiner; House, Max Siegal; Legal, Max Winograd; Medical, Dr. Leo Cohen; Membership, Nat C. Cohen; Publicity, Alter Boyman; Memorial, Judge J. Jerome Hahn; Ladies' Association, Mrs. I. S. Low.

Jacob I. Felder, Chairman of the 1936 Carnival, presented a check for $8,059.50, the net profit from the Carnival. This total exceeded that of last year by $2,000 and was received with tremendous applause. The financial report was presented by Abraham Blackman, accountant, and showed a net increase for the fiscal year of $932.64, showing that the Home not only balanced its budget but has a surplus.

Judge Philip C. Joslin, vice-president, delivered a short address, in which he lauded the work of the Home and looked forward to a still greater year of activity, with increased interest on the part of the community. Samuel M. Magid, president of the Home, spoke with pride of the low death rate, which is perhaps the lowest of all Homes in the country, pointing out that we have one of the highest average age groups. He also made acknowledgment to Representative Edward M. McEntee, "Friend and neighbor who was responsible for an annual appropriation of $2,000 and helped lighten the burden."

Isaac E. Feinstein, superintendent, presented a detailed summary of the year's activities, which show that the Home is practically filled to capacity, and that the care given to the residents is of the best. Mr. Feinstein, in his report, issued an appeal to the entire community to give greater material support to the Home so that it might proceed with its program of expansion in order that the many who are applying for admission might receive the necessary medical care.

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Abraham Epstein of New York, Executive Secretary of the American Association for Social Security, and perhaps the foremost leader in the movement for the establishment of Old Age pensions. Mr. Epstein attacked the inadequacy of the present

Tel Aviv Port Receives First Consignment

Tel Aviv (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Another milestone in the development of the Tel Aviv port, which was inaugurated because of the strike of Arab dock workers at Jaffa port and which through now not much more than a jetty is rapidly progressing toward the status of a thriving harbor, was marked when the first citrus consignment ever to be shipped from here was consigned to the Dutch steamer S. S. Rotkerk.

BELGIAN FASCISTS RIOT IN BRUSSELS

Brussels (WNS)—Running wild through the main streets of the nation's capitals, a horde of armed Fascists, followers of Leon Degrelle, Belgium's Fascist leader, gave Brussels a taste of Fascist rioting when they staged a tumultuous demonstration in which hundreds of persons were injured and property valued at tens of thousands of dollars damaged.

Degrelle, who is leading a movement akin to that of Nazism, was arrested but was later released. The outbreak might have had more serious consequences had not the government been prepared. Heavy military detachments and strong police squads were on guard in Brussels in anticipation of the Fascist demonstration.

Degrelle had planned a march of 200,000 of his followers on the capital but at the last minute cancelled it. The violence here has thrown the Jewish population into a panic because it revealed for the first time the strength of the Rexist in whose program anti-Semitism plays a leading part.

Comrade to be Honored By Jewish War Veterans

Rhode Island Post No. 23, Jewish War Veterans of the U. S., and its Auxiliary will honor the memory of its departed comrade by dedicating the Abraham W. Sidney Square on Sunday afternoon, at 2:15 o'clock. The square is located at the junction of Douglas avenue, Orms and Davis streets, very near the home in which Abraham W. Sidney was born on June 1, 1894. A short parade will precede the Dedication Exercises and will start from the State House entrance on Smith street. Harry A. Hoffman will act as Chief Marshal and will be assisted by Samuel Mistowsky, as Chief of Staff. The Benjamin N. Kane Cup will be awarded to the best appearing Unit, and the Franklin Auto Supply Cup to the largest Unit in line.

Abraham Sydney attended the Candace Street School, Classical High School, and entered Brown University to study Engineering. In 1915 he decided to study medicine, left Brown University and entered Georgetown University. On December 7, 1917 he answered the call of his country, and enlisted in the regular Army at the Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington. He was promoted to Private First Class in February 1918, and sailed overseas in March of the same year. Immediately after the sign-

COMMUNITY FUND GOAL IS $628,580

Hope to Reach $703,580; Would Increase Budget

Five Jewish agencies, as members of the Providence Community Fund, have requested for the ensuing year, $75,531 as the money needed to carry on their work for 1937. This amount, some $12,000 greater than last year's allotment, will restore a portion of the money taken away during the years when the Community Fund subscription was not sufficient.

The total campaign goal this year is $628,580, the funds for which will be solicited during the campaign, which begins November 15. In order to reach this amount, the agencies for this year must make up for more than $35,000, which was lost in cancelled pledges, removals from the city, and reductions in payments. Allotments will be made this year after the campaign is concluded, for it is hoped that the amount of available money will total $703,580, which will prevent the agencies from restricting themselves to starvation budgets.

This increase of $75,000 is to be considered more as a restoration of past cuts in budgets, rather than a raise over pre-existing amounts. It is estimated that all agencies during the past six years have suffered a loss of more than $110,000 in earnings. Secondly they have also shown a decrease of Community Fund allotments of $78,000.

The 1937 request, if granted, will be distributed as follows among the Jewish agencies: Jewish Federation, $600; Jewish Community Center, $11,037; Jewish Family Welfare, $16,540; Jewish Orphanage, $16,407; Miriam Hospital, $28,631; North End Dispensary, $2,316. The total $75,531 represents an increase of $12,000 over last year's allotment.

This year the Jewish Federation has inaugurated a new procedure in planning for the coming campaign. Meetings, under the direction of Milton C. Sapinsley, Liaison Chairman, and Community Center president, began last May and continued through the summer. During these pre-campaign meetings, arrangements were discussed and made to facilitate the raising of the necessary money.

During the weeks preceding the campaign, The Herald will present brief sketches of the needs of the various Jewish agencies in the city. These will include the Miriam Hospital, Jewish Community Center, the Jewish Orphanage, North End Dispensary and

The exercises on Sunday afternoon will include addresses and greetings from Gov. Theodore F. Green, Mayor James E. Dunn, U. S. Senators Jesse E. Metcalf and Peter G. Gerry, Congressman Charles F. Risk, Mr. Justice Francis B. Condon of the Supreme Court, Mr. Justice Philip C. Joslin of the Superior Court, Mr. Justice Maurice Robinson of the Sixth District Court, Raymond E. Shattuck, Alderman of the Twelfth Ward, Aime J. Forand, Commandant of the Soldiers' Home, Major Maxwell Cohen, National Senior Vice Commander in Chief of the Jewish War Veterans of the U. S., Rabbi Charles E. Sydney of Freeport, L. I., General Henry Dewitt Hamilton, State Department Commanders and Presidents of the Allied Veterans Organizations, Dr. Remington P. Capwell, Captain of the Fifth Surgical Unit and the last man to attend Abraham W. Sidney.

Ten Years of Progress Is Reviewed by Center

Executive Director J. I. Cohen of the Providence Community Center at 65 Benefit Street is receiving congratulations for having completed 10 years of service with the organization. Mr. Cohen came from Buffalo, New York in 1926 to assume charge of the local Center. Under his administration the Center made rapid strides from year to year until today it ranks as one of the important educational and recreational Centers in the city. Mr. Cohen graduated from Brown University in 1919 and awarded Masters Degree in 1926 from the University of Buffalo.

Under his leadership the Center grew to a membership of more than 1500 and a total attendance of more than 100,000 annually. A varied program of activities has been developed for adult, youth and child.

Sunday Evening Programs
The Sunday evening programs conducted for the past 10 years were outstanding authorities on politics, drama, and music have attracted city wide attention. An extensive physical program has been developed. Many adult groups sponsor programs for men, women and young men.

tion of more than 225 children has been established with a staff of 15 teachers. The Center Players has presented a number of short and long plays and operettas during the past 10 years.

More than 20 junior and intermediate boys and girls clubs each supervised by a leader form the backbone of character building work. Vocational classes, library, dancing groups, orchestra, debating and speaking clubs, summer playground are some of the activities initiated by Mr. Cohen.

The Jewish Community Center became affiliated with the Providence Community Fund in 1927.

A board of directors of 40 composed of prominent people in the community administer the affairs at the Center with Milton C. Sapinsley as President.

In looking back upon his 10 years of service in Providence, Mr. Cohen expressed the hope that the next 5 years will bring about greater expansion of Center facilities so that Jewish residents of this community may be adequately served. On a number of occasions, he recommended an establishment of a branch in the South Providence Section of the city. The greatest need today, Mr. Cohen declared, is a modernly equipped building with a large auditorium, gymnasium, lounge rooms, club facilities and a swimming pool. This he hopes will be brought about in the near future.

Mr. Cohen has also been active in many communal enterprises and is a member of several professional and fraternal organizations. He is President of the New England Association of Jewish Centre Executives and President of the Providence Council of Jewish Social Workers.

During the evening were noticed the following smartly dressed young women: Frieda Ernstof, in a gown of heavy green crepe trimmed with fur, Evelyn Cipkin, wearing an orange gown of satin, Claire Ernstof, attractive in black, Naomi White, in silver lame, Beatrice Uloff, in white, accented with royal blue, Eddythe Siegel, in old rose moire, Ethel Golden Chase, smart in navy and white, Ann Namerow in pale green lace, Mollie Kiven, in black trimmed with deep purple, Beatrice Watan Miller, in black net, Ruth Jagolnizer, in a Grecian gown of bright green, Roslyn Weiner, lovely in green brocade satin, Irene Massover, in white crepe with purple chiffon.

New Transportation Plan

Of interest to parents in the North End of the city, is the announcement that those children in the Oakland, Pembroke, Kadciffie, Pinehurst avenues, and Eaton street area can now be transported by automobile to the North End Talmud Torah on Orms street.

Registration for this unique service will be in the vestry of the Synagogue on Sunday morning from 10:00 to 11:30 o'clock.

Community Fund

The Jewish Family Welfare Society... It is worth noting that the Jewish agencies—not to speak of all the others in which there is an equal interest—share in the benefits of co-operative, economical fund-raising. Thus, the total cost of raising the amounts listed above will be far less than if funds were raised separately for each agency. If this same amount were raised by independent bridges, dances, campaigns, etc., the sum that would have to be spent for printing, orchestras, banquets, postage and hundreds of other items would use up at least $5,000 more in contributor's money without accomplishing any more good.

A slightly different scheme will be employed this year to handle solicitation of funds. Responsible individuals in each phase of business will be designated to canvas particular cross-sections of the city's business life. In order to facilitate these new tactics a group of more than 200 business men have pledged their co-operation and have expressed willingness to carry out the plans made by the Liaison Committee which is under the direction of Milton C. Sapinsky.

Mr. Lewis and God

There is something naive and childlike about the atheist's conception of the God whose existence he so paradoxically denies. The very phrase "mythical braggadocio of the sky" which Joseph Lewis, president of the Freethinkers of America, applies to Jehovah, reliance upon whose aid he terms "utter folly," proves that Mr. Lewis, free though he may be by law to think anything he pleases, has not yet reached those heights of freedom which enable the human being to think in abstract terms.

Primitive creatures—such as Australian bushmen and small children—conceive of their God as a white-bearded ancient who is the repository of all wisdom and the source of all protection. Civilization or maturity, however, bring the realization that the God proclaimed by the Prophets of old is not a supernatural individual created by man in his own image but the symbol of a lofty ethical concept adherence to which is the essence of all true religion.

But it would be futile to try to explain modern ethical monotheism, which is the Judaism and Christianity of today, to Mr. Lewis and other such literal-minded people to whom the "Lord of hosts" means only a swashbuckling celestial general at the head of an army of men who have wings sprouting from their shoulders.

Just as it would be too much to expect Mr. Lewis to see in the soul-searching of Jews on Yom Kippur and of Catholics in the confessional anything more than an attempt to propitiate a Fuehrer who lives up in the sky.

Editor's Mail Box

Dear Editor:
If I may be permitted, I should like to offer a few words in relation to the letter of Dr. J. Berger, which appeared in a recent edition of the "Herald." As to his conclusion, might I say that I am inclined to agree that a Jewish Democratic Club may not be the most desirable thing in this community. But, might I add, what of it? The problem of Club or No Club is relatively a minor problem, as compared with the task of Re-Electing Roosevelt.

I want to say that personally I believe, though I am not that a Democrat, nor even one interested in politics, that every Jewish person ought to vote for Roosevelt, not only as Jews, but as Americans as well; not only for what he has done for us as Jews, but also because of what he has done for us as Americans.

In addition, I believe that we, as such thinking people, should give for those candidates in our own state, who have cooperated with Roosevelt and his humanitarian legislative program, right here in Rhode Island during the past two years, and who will undoubtedly support him in the future. To vote otherwise would probably result in depriving Rhode Island of the benefits which should accrue to this state as a result of the Roosevelt legislation.

So, hoping for the success of Roosevelt and those who, together with him, stand for a humanitarian program, I am,

Replies to Schlossberg

Dear Editor:
In reply to the statement made by Mr. Schlossberg last week, permit me to state, that even were all he said to be true, it would merely indicate that during the last 65 years, the Republican party has given positions to a dozen Jewish persons, and that the Democratic party "fired" half of them, and has given responsible positions to sixty more Jewish people. The truth is, however, that there are a few inaccuracies in Mr. Schlossberg's statement. As one example, his statement spoke of "testily disabled" Deputy Sheriff Brown being fired. As a matter of fact, this same Samuel Brown was given a better position than he ever had before, and is out working for Democratic success at the polls. I am glad to see that Mr. Schlossberg admits that the Jewish persons who were employed by the city and state, who were not ordinary ward heelers, who were not on the job by the Democrats. In other words, the Democratic party did not "fire" all Republicans, but only Republican politicians. In any event, his letter admits that the Republicans accusations that "The Democrats won't give any jobs to the Jews," is an absolute falsehood. Thank's for the admission, Joe.
Councilman Samuel C. Kagan.

Will Celebrate

15th Anniversary of Temple Beth-Israel

Jacob Licht and Albert Weiner were hosts to the members of the Board of Trustees of Temple Beth Israel at a dinner served in the Temple last Thursday night at which time the Board was informed by Rabbi Schussheim that this year marks the completion of 15 years of existence of Temple Beth Israel and plans were therefore suggested for the proper observance of this event.

Outstanding will be an annual dinner to be held during the winter at which time representatives from the Seminary and the United Synagogue of America will address the congregation. In addition tentative plans for an annual Bazaar and also a Minstrel Show under the auspices of the Men's Club were discussed. Mr. Licht reported on the improved financial status of the congregation as well as on the outlines of the religious, social and educational activities. At the conclusion of the evening Dr. Hie Berger, honorary president of the congregation, gave an interesting report of his trip to Geneva and Palestine.

"Jews and Politics" Theme of Beth-Israel Discussion

The present political situation in America, involving as it does the interest of national Jewry to a greater extent than ever before in the history of our country, will be the theme of a pulpit discourse by Rabbi Morris Schussheim this evening at the regular service conducted at Temple Beth Israel. In view of its pertinence, the public at large is invited to attend, and give their reactions to the address.

There are many theories current, from the adherents of unites Jewish vote, to those who would completely dissociate Jewish considerations from the political discussion. Just how should the Jew, as an individual and as a community respond to the political setup? An attempt to meet this problem will form the subject matter of the discussion. Cantor Schlossberg will conduct the service as usual. Services Saturday morning will also be read at 9 o'clock.

N. E. Sisterhoods Hold Conference in Worcester

Delegates from Providence were Mrs. Adolph Gorin, Mrs. David H. Gilman and Mrs. Bertram Berhardt. Alternates were Mrs. Nathaniel Rosner, Mrs. Nathan Mellor, Mrs. Gustave Koppe and Mrs. Harry Parvey, ex-officio. At the close of the afternoon session, Rabbi William Braude gave the benediction.

Around the Town

With Leonard Harris

At the Banquet
Providence Jewry owes much to the local B'nai B'rith Lodge for bringing so fine a speaker as Richard Gustadst to our city... Speaking before an all too small audience last Monday evening, Mr. Gustadst ably and with much clearness outlined the work being done by the organization... Many of those listening were greatly surprised with his revelations of anti-Semitic activities fostered by the 85 large Anti-Semitic organizations operating in this country... The Woonsocket lodge was represented by the Mussie Falks and Arthur Korstein and brother Booth... Max Winograd marched in late, as did the Barney Bernards... Irv Fain and Marie Fine looked well as a pair... Sol and Banice Feinberg were there en masse... Max Rosen, Hirsch and wife paid studied attention to the speaker... Jimmie and Pa Siegal and the three Silverman brothers faced the speaker's table... That radiant redhead Mildred Waldman with a strange man, who we later found out was Councilor Salzman of Holyoke...

Years Together
We think that Nat Levitt will announce it very soon, seeing as how his trips to Albany are more frequent... The Harold Silvermans are celebrating their first anniversary... The Hy Cohens have just passed their twelfth year together... Evered and Cowen, their eighth... Arthur Basok walks in the rain as if he enjoys it... The gentleman from Vienna who has constantly maintained that he is an Aryan ought to see to it that his wife stays out of kosher butcher shops, if he is in earnest about keeping up his bluff... Radio man Hoffman is doing a fine job on Zenth radios at his store... Down Memory Lane was held this week at the Providence Biltmore... Sadie Tabor, she of the violin playing, was hostess to a bunch of boys and girls last Sunday night... Sam Pritzker, Meyer Cooper and Jay Fishbein were a few of the gallants in attendance... Says Strong Swing to Roosevelt Seen

ELECTION DAY

"Astute political correspondents have stated that because of the strong swing to Roosevelt and the Democratic ticket, Rhode Island is experiencing an unprecedented exodus of Republican leaders from the ranks of Landon supporters, and from the ranks of the Republican party," said Sidney Rabinowitz today.

In Woonsocket, both major candidates are openly advocating the election of the Democratic state ticket, it is reliably reported. In Providence, Cianciarulo has withdrawn from the race, in an effort to defeat Sisson, whom he has said, was opposed to all "foreigners."

The outstanding Republican liberal, Sen. Handy, has up to the present time, though he is a candidate for the state senate from Lincoln, failed to support Metcalf and Sisson. He has already publicly stated that the Republican bosses had warned him, if he were to run for governor, he would have to favor the utility companies and put in a one-sided Supreme Court.

"So the reports go, and a Democratic victory is assured," concluded Mr. Rabinowitz.

SOCIAL SECURITY ACT HIT BY G O P

Kagan Says Mill Owners Against Plan

The Republican press and the London orators, having spent weeks telling of the advantages of government saving, are now engaged in a protest against the saving plan which Roosevelt is fostering for the laboring man. Under the Social Security bill, one per cent of the working man's pay is deducted, and put in a special government fund, Councilman Samuel Kagan said today.

If the worker lives to the age of 65, he receives, as a result of his contributions, a pension for the rest of his life. If he should die, his dependents get all the funds he contributed, plus interest. (Just like saving in a bank.) Should he become unemployed, he receives from the government, up to $400 per year.

These funds are obtained not only from the worker's 1 per cent, but also payments by the mill owners, as well as a government contribution.

Until this week, Republican mill owner opposition was aimed only at the contributions by the mill owners. Their sudden concern for labor stems with insincerity.

James McDonald, Guest Speaker at Men's Club

James G. McDonald, League of Nations High Commissioner for German Refugees, will be the guest speaker at the opening meeting of the Men's Club of Temple Emanuel on Wednesday evening.

Mr. McDonald will speak on his experiences as High Commissioner. Through his office he has helped six thousand refugees find new shelter from the Nazi persecutions.

At this meeting a number of leading rabbis in this vicinity will be special guests. Herbert Tiemann, president of the Men's Club, will preside.

Landon Is Not Enemy Of Jews, Says Cohen

In commenting on the William Hard address of last week Sidney Rabinowitz said today:

"In a radio address last week, a Joseph Cohen, who somehow failed to remind the radio audience, that he is now in the employ of Mr. Landon's State of Kansas, spent considerable time in explaining that Landon is not unfriendly to the Jewish people."

"Why," we have been asked, "was such an explanation deemed necessary. Some think it is because of the newswitem carried recently by the largest newspaper in New York, which stated that Mr. Hitler, of Germany, through his duly authorized representatives, urged all Nazi sympathizers in the United States to vote for Landon, as the candidate most in accord with the Nazi doctrines."

Others venture to say it is because of the so-called Landon letter, wherein one of Landon's closest associates, publicly made known the fact that no Jewish children were wanted in Kansas hospitals. Of course, it is known that this associate was fired some four months later, after the letter was publicized. Mr. Cohen has also stated that Mr. Landon does not care for anti-Jewish support. We have been asked whether it means that those persons who, as members of the Senate and the Liberty League, both anti-Jewish, who have contributed close to one million dollars to the Landon campaign, may expect to receive those contributions back. We have further been given to understand, that said money will not be returned.

Rabbi Wise Hits Tactics of Liberty League Fascism

Speaking before 1500 people at a rally sponsored at the Metropolitan Theatre last Saturday night, Rabbi Stephen Wise urged the election of all those on the Democratic State ticket. NAILS CAMPAIGN

LIE! PROVES LANDON NOT AGAINST JEWS

Broadcast of W. S. Hard

I SAID last night that I would present to you this evening a gentleman who would be able to tell you Governor Landon's record on the question of race and religion in politics. I have been able to keep my promise faithfully. I shall present to you this evening, Mr. Joseph Cohen, of Kansas City, Kansas. He used to be a newspaper reporter. He then became—and is—a lawyer. He is chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the Kansas State Bar Association. He is a member of the board of governors of the Greater Kansas City Jewish Welfare Federation. He is Past President of the District Grand Lodge Number Two of B'nai B'rith. He knows his subject.

MR. HARD: Mr. Cohen, what about this Jewish vote?

MR. COHEN: Mr. Hard, you mean the so-called Jewish vote. I believe that this country has no place for a so-called Italian vote, negro vote, Catholic vote or Jewish vote. Every person who is worthy of the privilege of suffrage should consider the welfare of his country above and beyond the weal of any isolated group or bloc. The responsible leadership among the American citizens of Jewish extraction and the reputable Anglo-Jewish and Yiddish press of this country never have admitted the claims of politicians that there IS any such a thing as a Jewish vote.

MR. HARD: As a matter of fact, Mr. Cohen, I know that very well. Yet the Jewish question has arisen in this campaign.

MR. COHEN: Yes, unfortunately, there has been a studied attempt in this presidential campaign to inject the fictitious and false issue of anti-Semitism. Rumors have been circulated by means of a whispering campaign to the effect that Alfred M. Landon has anti-Jewish leanings. It is a "red herring" of the basest and vilest kind. No one who knows Alfred Landon as I do and has followed his political career as closely as I have, gives it the slightest credence. My activities in Jewish and non-Jewish affairs in the State of Kansas have put me in close contact with Jewish citizens from all over that state. I am sure that I do not exaggerate when I say that I do not believe that there is a Jew living in the State of Kansas, who honestly believes that his Governor is anti-Semitic.

MR. HARD: But how, then, did it all start?

MR. COHEN: Mr. Hard, it all started with an incident that occurred last Spring when the superintendent of the Kansas State Hospital for the Insane at Oswatome, Dr. Carmichael, sent a letter to the dean of the medical school of the University of Minnesota, stating that there was a staff position open but that all applicants therefor must be Gentiles. This letter of Dr. Carmichael's was called to my attention and I immediately took the matter up with Governor Landon. Governor Landon immediately responded to my letter, stating that it was the first he had known about it and advising me that he was turning it over to the State Board of Administration for immediate attention. I was also told the State Hospital had written such an un-American letter warrants the commendation and praise of all good American citizens who believe in our traditional policies of freedom of opportunity for all races and religions.

MR. HARD: So that was the incident, Mr. Cohen. And Governor Landon ended it by rebuking anti-Semitism. But people might say, "Oh, that was just one incident." So, Mr. Cohen! How about Governor Landon's general record on the subject?

MR. COHEN: Mr. Hard, Governor Landon is NOT just an op-home county in which this Jewish clothing merchant said that his store was being boycotted, his wife was being made unhappy. Mr. White said that he sent this letter to Alfred Landon before he decided to run in order that it might be checked up. Alfred Landon did check up this matter and wrote Mr. White that the Jewish citizen was a good man, a self-respecting merchant, who before the Klan came had stood well in his town. Mr. White states that it was this reply from Alfred Landon that caused him to make up his mind to run for governor. Al-in the State Insane Hospital at Osawatome. What has been Governor Landon's general policy in such matters?

MR. COHEN: In many ways Alfred Landon has demonstrated that he does not judge men or women on the basis of race, religion or creed. During his first administration as Governor of Kansas, one of the secretaries in his office was a young woman named Leah Ulamperl, a Topeka Jewess, who later became private secretary to Federal Judge Richard J. Hopkins of Kansas. There are a number of Jews holding responsible positions in state institutions in Kansas who have been appointed to such positions not because they are Jewish, but because they happened to better measure up to the requirements of those particular positions than the other applicants. But let me tell you something of much more importance than any individual instances. Early in Governor Landon's first term as governor, he ordered the State Board of Administration to eliminate from the application blanks for employment in the state institutions any reference whatsoever to the religion or race of the applicant.

MR. HARD: And that's right, of course, Mr. Cohen, from the point of view of Americanism. But let's go a bit beyond political appointments. Let's go a bit beyond patronage. Do you think that racial and religious groups have anything in general at stake in this campaign?

MR. COHEN: Mr. Hard, I am supporting Governor Landon for President as an American citizen and not as a Jew. However, looking at this campaign strictly from the standpoint of one who belongs to a minority group, I believe that there is a real threat and danger to minority groups, such as Jews, Catholics and negroes, in the disrespect which President Roosevelt has shown for that document which is the shield and protector of all minority groups—the Constitution. Majorities can take care of themselves in a representative democracy. They have the voting strength to do so. It is the minority groups, though, that stand to lose when inroads are permitted on the fundamental law which guarantees to us social, political and economic equality and insures our freedom of speech, press, assembly, and religion. The record of Mr. Roosevelt is so replete with constitutional invasions as to demonstrate beyond a doubt that he does not regard the Constitution highly. Such developments lead inevitably in the direction of coercive government. They set the stage for the exercise of arbitrary governmental powers in violation of constitutional guarantees and in violation of the rights of racial and religious minority elements. This tendency, in my opinion, should not be encouraged, but on the contrary should be checked and stopped at the polls on November three.

Gov. Landon Re-Iterates!

HIS STATEMENT CONDEMNS AGENCIES STIRRING UP RELIGIOUS FEELINGS

By Associated Press

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 1.—Gov. Alf M. Landon disclaimed today support of any element "endeavoring to bring racial prejudices and religious bigotries into American life."

In a formal statement, issued without comment, the Republican Presidential nominee said:

"My attention has recently been directed to the activities of a number of agencies which, for selfish purposes or political reasons, are endeavoring to exploit prejudice between groups of American citizens.

DISCLAIMS THEIR SUPPORT

"I have no use for any elements who are endeavoring to bring racial prejudices and religious bigotries into American life, and state frankly that I disclaim the support of any such organizations or groups.

"If ever the day should come in this country that would see persecutions of any racial group or sect because of race or religion, contrary to the Bill of Rights, I would stand among their defenders."

that Dr. Carmichael was a southern Democrat who had been appointed years before under the administration of Governor Hodges, a Democrat, and, like so many heads of such institutions, had been held over from administration to administration without regard to politics.

An investigation was made of the administration of the hospital affairs by Dr. Carmichael, resulting in a request for and the acceptance of the resignation of Dr. Carmichael when it was learned that a gas company in which he had an interest had sold excessive quantities of gas to the state hospital. Since Dr. Carmichael's resignation, a Jewish physician by the name of Dr. John Russell has been given a position on the staff at the State Hospital at Osawatome. It is strikingly peculiar how often facsimiles of the Carmichael letter have been published throughout the country, in the press, and in pamphlet form, without giving the true facts concerning same. I believe that Governor Landon's quick action when he learned that the head of portunistic friend of minority groups. His record shows a consistent policy of fairness, liberality and tolerance. In 1924 the Ku Klux Klan was at the height of its political strength in Kansas and boasted that it had captured both candidates for governor of Kansas on the Republican and Democratic tickets. William Allen White of Emporia, always a staunch advocate of tolerance and fair play, endeavored to get the gubernatorial candidates of these parties to come out forthright and denounce the Klan. Failing in his efforts so to do, he announced on an independent ticket for the governorship and ran for that office on the sole and only issue of "out with the Klan." Southeastern Kansas and particularly Montgomery County, where Alf Landon lived, was a hot-bed for the Klan. I have it on the authority of Mr. White himself that one of the decisive incidents that got him to announce on the independent ticket for governor was a letter which he received from a Jewish clothing merchant in Alfred Landon's

Alfred Landon supported Mr. White for the governorship and took charge of his campaign in southeastern Kansas. William Allen White has (his to say about Alfred Landon's support of his candidacy:

"He (meaning Alf Landon) could not stand injustice. He could not live happily with himself in an atmosphere of bigotry and intolerance. He did not have to support me, he owed me nothing. But he had such forthright courage, such tender sentimental regard for the dignity of the human spirit, that he could not rest silently even by acquiescence in the gross civil injustice which was being heaped upon these people, the Jews, the negroes and the Catholics by the Ku Klux Klan."

MR. HARD: Mr. Cohen, that's just one more case in which William Allen White and Alf Landon have been together in the cause of human individual rights. But that's by the way. Forgive me, I'm asking you questions. Here's another:
