DISPENSARY GREAT COMFORT TO POOR

Clinic Aid Open Daily to Hundreds in Need

The North End Dispensary, located at 49 Orms street, was founded in 1908 for the purpose of giving medical treatment to all creeds of people in need, the majority of whom reside in the North End district. It is a great comfort to these people, because of its easy accessibility.

The administrative work of the Dispensary is conducted by a Board of Directors, comprised of members of the Providence section, National Council of Jewish Women. A capable staff of twelve physicians generously give their services gratis, assisted by a paid registered nurse. In addition to the medical services rendered by the staff, free medicines are dispensed.

Patients are recommended by the following agencies: Jewish Family Welfare Society, Dept. of Public Aid, Mother's Aid, and the Public School Department. Physicians also send patients who are unable to pay private fees. Seven clinics are held as follows: Medical and Surgical, daily; Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, Monday and Thursday; Asthma and Hayfever, Monday and Saturday; Rectal, Wednesday; Vaccination, during the month of May.

During one year as many as 7300 patients have been treated at the Dispensary. The Medical Clinic is the largest, having treated 1936 patients last year. The Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Clinic is the next largest. Last year 871 patients were treated at this clinic. Tonsil and Adenoid operations are performed during the summer months. Eyes are treated and tested for glasses, which are secured for the patients at a nominal fee.

At the Surgical Clinic 806 patients were treated last year. Minor operations, that do not require hospitalization, are performed at this clinic. The Hayfever and Asthma Clinic has steadily grown during the past few months. It has become a regular clinic and is held on two mornings each week throughout the entire year. Special attention is being directed to the Hard of Hearing and Rectal Clinics, which are recent additions.

It is the hope of those connected with the Dispensary that it may continue to bring comfort and aid to the sick and needy for many years to come.

BRAZIL SETTLEMENT

Rio de Janeiro (WNS)—Plans for settling 10,000 German Jewish refugees along the Sao Lourenco River in the state of Matto Grosso have been announced here by officials of Matto Grosso. Details of the project are being withheld for the time being.

Two Non-Aryan Women Rule German Society

About six months ago, when the flamboyant General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, premier of Prussia and minister of aviation, forbade the publication or other use of all material in the government archives relating to the Jews during the 19th and 20th centuries without his express permission, it passed unnoticed.

The order was issued in anticipation of his recent appointment as Der Fuehrer's second in command and with powers only slightly less sweeping than Hitler's. Aware that his wife's ancestry, as well as that of the woman commonly believed to be Hitler's mistress, could not pass the rigid Aryan test, the order was sought to gain possession of all damaging documents.

Long before General Goering married Emmi Sonnemann, a third-rate actress, there were whispers that the resplendent General was consorting with a non-Aryan woman. Emigre newspapers delighted in giving currency to these rumors, while in Germany all the enemies of Goering spread the gossip assiduously. Before the Nazis came into power Goering had declared that it is better to wed a prostitute than a Jewess. This pronouncement and his record as a ruthless foe of the Jews helped to ally the compromising story. Strange to say, however, it was an act of Goering himself that

Program Head

SAMUEL P. LAZARUS

At the last meeting of the Dance Committee of the Temple Beth-Israel Sisterhood, held last Monday evening in the Temple, Samuel P. Lazarus, chairman of the Souvenir Journal, gave an encouraging report on the Men's Division. He declared that each member of the committee was working and left no doubt that this affair would be a success. Those assisting are Jacob Licht, Albert Weiner, Philip Berman, Benjamin Chaset, Samuel Baker, Joseph Schlossberg, Hyman Lisner, Maurice Handman, Morris Chusmir and Louis Bachman.

The women reported that everything is being done to make this year's dance an event long to be remembered. The committee consists of Mrs. Anna Goldenberg, chairman; Mrs. Benjamin Kane, co-chairman; Mrs. Joseph Schlossberg, secretary; Mrs. Minnie Nelson, treasurer; Mr. Leo Bojari, decorations; Mr. Leo Weiner, reservations; Mrs. Isadore Singer, printing; Mrs. Joshua Bell, publicity.

The remainder of the committee includes Mesdames: Samuel Baker, Ilie Berger, Louis Bachman, Samuel Briet, Morris Chusmir, Samuel Deutch, Joseph Fowler, Ira Galkin, Arthur Galkin, Joseph Green, Leo Goldman, Jacob Grossman, Leo Grossman, Carl Jagoliner, Oscar Klemmer, Jacob Kenner, Barney Kenner, Jacob Licht, Samuel Lazarus, Rose Marcenson, Morris Nathanson, Morris Narva, Max Rosen, William Smira, Max Sadler, Morris Schiller, Barney Taber and Albert Weiner.

WOULD-BE HITLER

New Orleans (WNS)—Accused of disturbing the public peace and using obscene language in a radio address, the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, who is now uniting all anti-Semitic groups, was arrested here. Later he was released on bail, but will have to stand trial.

aroused suspicion that his wife was a non-Aryan.

For many years there had been a street called Sonnemannstrasse, which was named for Leopold Sonnemann, Jewish founder of the world-famous Frankfurter Zeitung. The Nazi propaganda ministry insisted that it was only a coincidence, but the fact remains that on the same day that Emmi Sonnemann became Frau Goering along Sonnemannstrasse were removed and the street officially "deNazified" on orders from the Prussian authorities. To any one familiar with how the Nazi propaganda machine operates it is obvious that something more than chance was responsible for the disappearance of Sonnemannstrasse.

Until then only rumor-mongers took any stock in the charge that Fraulein Sonnemann was of Jewish ancestry, but the patent attempt to cover up this skeleton served to arouse further curiosity as to her racial antecedents. Her paternal grandparents, Lazarus Seligman Sonnemann of Biberach, Wurzburg, and Vogle Cohn, were married in December, 1833, by a rabbi. A copy of the marriage contract is still in existence. Lazarus and Vogle had three children—Ida, Jacob and August. The latter, who also married a Jewess, was the father of Emmi Sonnemann. (Continued on Page 1)

"SMALL MIRACLE" HAS LARGE CAST

To Be Presented Monday Night at Barker Playhouse

"Small Miracle," the Repertory Players' first production for this year, to be presented November 9th and 10th at the Barker Playhouse, 400 Benefit street, is shaping into one of the best presentations this club has ever offered.

This Grand Hotel type of play, a combination of comedy, and drama that is modern, exciting, glowing with feeling and insight, has a cast of twenty-five characters in it, all of whom are very capably portrayed by the Repertory Players.

Those in the cast are: Abraham Blackman, Dr. James Krasnow, Nathan Grossman, Jules P. Goldsmith, Arthur Kaplan, Simon Kinsley, Alec Gurwitz, Sydney Shepard, Norman Fain, Gerald L. Bronstein, Ferdinand Wachenheimer, Daniel Jacobs, Matthew Millman, Al Lisker, Reetha Hartman, Mrs. James Krasnow, Lillian Greenberg, Zeldia Fisher, E. Sybil Blackman, Dorothy Markoff, Muriel Smira, Frieda Lisker, Mrs. Julius Dworman, Evelyn Snyder, and Richard Loewenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fain, co-chairmen of the ticket committee, are assisted by the following people: Bertha Avedon, Adole Bernstein, Florence Blacher, Elaine Frank, Jenny Halprin, Beatrice Norman, Esther Novograd, Sylvia Reizen, Mildred Sack, Selma Slavitt, Marion Soforenko, Tillie Turcott, and Laura Winograd.

Ku Klux Area Mourns Death of Jewish Mayor

Jessup, Ga. (WNS)—This town of 2,500 inhabitants in the heart of what was once Ku Klux Klan territory is mourning the death of Samuel Cohen, four-time mayor of the town. A native of Poland, Cohen settled here in 1902 and became one of the most popular citizens. He was elected to the town council in 1910, serving until 1918, when he was chosen mayor for the first time. From 1924 to 1927 he was chairman of the board of education. Four years ago he was elected mayor again, and was serving his fourth term when he died at the age of 54. He had also served as president of the Association of Georgia Mayors.

ROOSEVELT EATS KOSHER CAKE

Gift of the East Side Mothers to President

New York (WNS)—New York's East Side, the first stopping off place for a majority of the Jewish immigrants who came to this country in search of religious liberty and economic opportunity, celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Statue of Liberty by a tremendous public celebration, a highlight of which was the lighting of a huge birthday cake baked in a kosher bakery as the gift of the mothers of the East Side to President Roosevelt, who was the guest of honor. As he cut the cake and munched a good-sized piece with obvious relish, he said "this is very good cake."

Previously the President had spoken at ceremonies at the Statue of Liberty where he hailed the achievements of immigrants in American life, paid tribute to their contributions to American culture and declared that "they adopted this homeland because they found a home in which the things they most desired could be theirs, freedom of opportunity, freedom of thought, freedom to worship God."

Considerate Silver Shirts Plan Shelters for Jews

Los Angeles (WNS)—After two years of comparative dormancy, the Silver Shirt Legion of America—"Chief," William Dudley Peley's Colored shirt outfit—bolstered by a mysterious supply of funds, has re-established headquarters in Los Angeles.

The Silver-shirts recently moved into new offices at 315 Lankershim Building, with every appearance of intending to go into the Jew-hating business on a big scale.

Heading the local cell is Kenneth Alexander, ex-motion picture technician, "the Chief's personal representative" in Southern California, and Henry Allen, cadaverous unemployed metallurgist, recently convicted in a local court of disseminating viciously anti-Semitic leaflets.

The offices are comfortably furnished. On one wall of the sanctum, a complete in shirt and pointed beard, glowers. Freely mentioned in conversation is "The Deutscher Haus," hangout for local friends of Hitler, where Allen recently admitted in court, he frequently takes consign-

One-third of the total funds of the Providence Community Fund, about to launch its annual campaign, are spent for health services. The protection of the health of the community by the various health agencies is one of the most important aspects of this community endeavor. It affects not only the direct beneficiaries who cannot afford to pay for these services themselves, but it also affects the health of every member of the community. For example, prompt effective measures to care for those afflicted with contagious diseases may stop the spread of such diseases into many homes in the community, homes of contributors as well as recipients of relief. Among the Community Fund agencies engaged in this branch of work, one of the most important is the Miriam Hospital. Charles M. Hoffman, Superintendent of the Hospital, has submitted the following report:

The Miriam Hospital had its inception in the latter part of 1925. It is the only institution of its kind in Rhode Island maintained under Jewish auspices.

In March 1926 the hospital was incorporated for the purpose of preserving and restoring health; to seek the cause and cure of diseases, and to educate those who would serve humanity, and from its inception the hospital has been an active coordinating factor in the care of the sick—over twenty-four hours every day in the year.

This hospital, in common with kindred institutions, is daily called upon to do a certain amount of free work, for which it receives no return. No profession in the world offers its services more often without thought of remuneration than the medical profession and, of course, the hospital is always willing and anxious to cooperate with the doctors. Very often the demands are more than the hospital can stand, yet if the community is to stand together, this work for the poor must be done. There is still another class of patients received by the hospital who are known to be part-pay patients. These people are able to pay only part of the cost, and they represent one-third of the hospital census.

The Miriam Hospital, during the past ten years, has gradually expanded its services and increased its equipment until today it occupies a position in the community that inspires the respect and confidence of all those who are familiar with its good work. The fact that there are many larger hospitals does not impair the high standing of this institution.

The Miriam is a general hospital, strictly non-sectarian in its scope, and maintains services in general medicine, general surgery, dermatology, (Continued on Page 5)

ments of hand-bills bearing the legend "Get Rid of Roosevelt and His Jews!" "We're not as much afraid of Communists as of Jews," Alexander declares. "There's a lot wrong, these days. The Communists and ourselves both go together, up to a certain point. At that point, they get off on the wrong track."

He placed two books on the floor, one in front of the other. "This," he said, indicating the one farthest from him, "is the state of things that ought to obtain in America, and this," pointing to the one nearest him, "is the Jews. We've got to push the Jews out of the way"—he suited the action to the words—"in order to reach the goal, see! We don't want to hurt the Jews," Alexander further insisted.

"We just want to protect them from the violence that is sure to come when people realize what Jews are doing to them. Why, we're already building stockades at different points throughout the country, into which we'll herd the Jews, when the violence comes. It'll be for their own protection, of course, you understand."

Strictly Confidential Tidbits From Everywhere

By PHINEAS J. BIRON
Do Tell

Now that the election is over, and we can't be charged with stirring up trouble, we can tell you a few things that happened backstage during the campaign. . . This, of course, is strictly confidential. . . The so-called non-existent "Jewish vote" was a tremendous issue in the campaign—don't anybody kid you. . . Some of the advisers to the Republican high command insisted that if Landon was to win New York State he had to get the "Jewish vote". . . The biggest single contributor for that Jewish activity for Landon was Roger W. Straus. . . A clever publicity man convinced him that the best way to speak to the Jewish voters on a Jewish basis was to defend Landon against an alleged whispering campaign that he was anti-Semitic. . . The truth is that Roosevelt, Farley and Charlie Michels—passed the word to leave the Jewish issue religiously alone. . .

The Eastern Landon headquarters issued mimeographed instructions to speakers for Jewish audiences. . . The punch line reads as follows, after a few paragraphs of praise for what former Republican Presidents did to protest against Jewish persecution abroad: "It may be emphasized that this offers a striking contrast to the inaction and silence with which the present administration has regarded the present persecution of Jews in Germany". . .

The joker in this statement is that the Landon supporters in the stationery of the Kansas State Hospital at Ossawatimie (with Governor Landon as chairman of the board), said that only Gentiles need apply for positions in a story in itself. . . Jacob Harzfeld of Kansas City—who, incidentally, made a fine job for Landon—broadcast the story that Carmichael was fired by Landon as soon as he heard about the letter, that the whole hospital system was reorganized and that a "number" of Jews hold key positions in Kansas State institutions. . . What is the truth? . . . It is this. . . That the only Jewish physician in a Kansas State hospital is Dr. Cohen, appointed in 1931 by Governor Woodring, a Democrat. . . That Dr. John Russell, whom Harzfeld singled out as a Jew, is a bona fide Catholic. . . And that the only "key positions" held by Jews are two stenographic jobs. . . This is all in a State that has over 8,000 State jobs. . . And we wonder what impression the full-page ads in the Yiddish papers, inserted by the Landon campaign office, would have made if translated into English. . . They were direct appeals to the Jews to vote as Jews for the man who would take care of their minority interests. . . And, incidentally, the advertisements failed to say "Vote for Bleekley" for the New York governorships, for we were told that an anti-Lehman statement would be a boomerang. . . And now that you are ready to bet that we voted for Roosevelt, let us tell you that we cast our ballot for Norman Thomas. . .

Broadway Notes

The unanimous roasting accorded to "Ten Million Ghosts," Sidney Kingsley's new play, by the critics has given rise to a strange story. . . Because the play, which deals with munitions racketeers, takes some nasty cracks at William Randolph Hearst, it is said the critics pulled their punches because they might some day have to work for America's number-one Fascist. . . Whatever the truth of this, the public has nubbled the nose at the critic's opinion. Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra, and Jascha Heifetz, incidentally, owns a rare collection of Dickens first editions. . .

Missionary Field

The Christian missionary movement among Jews is not as moribund as many people believe. . . The news sheet of the International Committee on the Christian Approach to the Jews boasts that its agents in Poland are studying Yiddish in order to be able to talk to Jews. . . From the same source we learn that the local Jewish missionary is a member in good standing of a synagogue in Southwestern Europe. . . The Swedish Jewish Mission Center in Vienna has opened a new week-end home. . . In Germany, however, all native Christian missionaries to the Jews have been banned. . .

BERNARD LADOW

Bernard Ladow, proprietor of the Carbon Products Company, died last Saturday at his home, 518 Chalkstone avenue. For twenty-two years Mr. Ladow was a wholesale dealer in coal-woods in this city.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Goldie Ladow, two sons, Hyman and Joseph Ladow, a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Richmond of Philadelphia. Mr. Ladow was affiliated with the Howell Street Synagogue and was a member for many years of the Gemilach Chesed Free Loan Association.

EDITOR JAILED

Paris (WNS)—Charles Maurras, editor of the royalist and anti-Semitic paper, Action Francaise, must serve two jail sentences totaling one year for having urged the assassination of Leon Blum, now Premier, the Court of Appeals ruled in rejecting his appeal from the verdict of the lower courts. Maurras' plea for the murder of Blum was made in an article published before Blum became premier.

Announces Pledge

VICTOR A. FISHEL

New York (WNS)—A pledge of $35,000 by the wine and liquor industry toward the $500,000 fund being sought by the American Committee for the Settlement of Jews in Birobidjan (Ambijan) was announced by Victor A. Fishel, vice president of Seagram Distillers and chairman of the wine and liquor division of Ambijan, in the first of a series of radio addresses designed to familiarize public opinion with the plan for settling East European Jews in Birobidjan. . .

Non-Aryans of Germany

mann, Leopold Sonnemann, for whom the street in Frankfurt-am-Main was named, was Emmi's great-uncle, having been her grandfather's brother. Such was the family background of Emmi Sonnemann. Born at Hamburg at the turn of the century, she was converted to Christianity when still a child. One of her cousins, who lives in New York, and the descendants of her uncle Leopold, have remained Jews, however. As a young girl she disclosed some dramatic ability and her father prepared her for a stage career.

Goering fell in love with Emmi at first sight. Almost immediately he moved to his Prussian State Theatre the director and most of the staff of the Weimar Theatre, in order that he might have Emmi at his side. It was his influence and prestige that led her to the position of Germany's blonde, regal ryan goddess. It was natural that Goering's affair with Emmi should become a scandal in Nazi circles. In October, 1934, he announced his engagement to Emmi, but the marriage was postponed. When Goering sought Der Fuehrer's blessing the chief Brown shirt said no. But Goering also knew of Hitler's little affair with Leni Riefenstahl, and therefore he could defy Hitler with impunity.

When Emmi's non-Aryan parentage became known in Jewish quarters in Germany there was some hope that she might have been cast for the role of a modern Esther. But these hopes were baseless, for she is a through-going Nazi. High-ranking Nazis whose wives are pure-blooded Aryans detest her. Hitler is said to be none too fond of her, but he has to be polite to her because he needs Goering. But that and the rest of the Nazi hierarchy know her to be a non-Aryan in an open secret.

How much of Hitler's tolerance toward Goering's un-Nazi taste in women stems from Der Fuehrer's own predilection for a Jewess is a matter of speculation, but his friendship with Leni Riefenstahl is well known. As in the case of Frau Goering, the Nazi bigwigs have tried zealously to suppress reports of Leni's Jewish origin. And in this case they have been somewhat more successful, chiefly because Leni is much more clever than Emmi. Whatever the truth may be, there can be no denying that she is a non-Aryan. When a French newspaper recently published an article on the love life of Hitler and included the Jewess, Fraulein Riefenstahl, among Der Fuehrer's charmers, the German government made a public protest to France and had the article suppressed.

Leni is about twenty-seven years old. Like Frau Goering, she is a striking blonde and very Nordic-looking, but more of the adventurous type. During the 1920's she was a Communist. A professional dancer of no mean ability, she became interested in moving pictures. In 1927 she obtained a minor role in a film of German mountain life. Later she shared in similar pictures. Officially she is the country's movie czarina. All major functions are photographed under her personal direction. Privately, however, she is said to be Hitler's mistress.

Official Nazi sources have repeatedly denied reports of any friendship between Leni and Adolf. But observers of unquestioned competence say otherwise. It is in her apartment that the Nazi elite gather for important conferences. Few people dared even to hint that she was non-Aryan until she became a key personality in Nazi affairs.

Thus we have the anomaly of two non-Aryan women, one an ex-actress of minor ability but of statuesque physical appearance and the other a former nude dancer and clever politician, dominating the social life of a country where non-Aryans are the lowest of the low.

Says Jews Financed Discovery of America

New York (WNS)—That the "New World" was discovered by an expedition totally financed by Jewish money; the Spanish colonization and early exploitation of the new "land to the West" was very largely financed from the same source; the money for the first expedition (by Columbus) was provided voluntarily and because enlightened Jews believed in the enterprise; and the money for subsequent exploitation was stolen from Jewish sources" are the assertions made by Charles Duff in "The Truth about Columbus and the Discovery of America," a newly published book.

Mr. Duff also declares that "in view of these facts, it might seem reasonable that the Jews, that is to say, a large population of rich, intelligent and peaceful citizens, with a marvelous equipment physical and intellectual for colonizing and indeed a great heritage of experience in this sense, should have been allowed to go to that vast brave new world. But it was not so. Neither Moslems nor Jews nor even Marranos were permitted to settle there."

Zangwill's 10th Yearzeit

London (WNS)—Invited to attend the memorial services for the late Israel Zangwill, celebrated Jewish author and leader, on the tenth anniversary of his death, Bernard Shaw sent a message explaining that since the Jewish question was certain to be discussed and since he was not a Jew, he was not interested. Lord Robert Cecil presided at the exercises. Many of the speakers lamented the fact that Zangwill was not alive to help the Jews in their present hour of crisis. Zangwill's widow said that her husband had predicted that the Versailles Treaty would lead to the present world-wide campaign of anti-Semitism.

Worshiper Killed by Arabs at Mosque of Omar

Jerusalem (WNS-Falcor Agency)—The most shocking outrage that has ever been recorded at the Mosque of Omar, venerated throughout the Moslem world, occurred during morning prayers last Friday when a crowd of worshippers attacked and killed Khalil al Shayib, 35, of Tulkarem, who the infuriated mob suspected of having aided the police in their endeavor to curb the current violence in Palestine. After cruelly beating the victim the mob dragged him through the courtyard of the Mosque, raised him to the highest point of the Mosque wall and then hurled him to the ground. He was killed instantly.

Anti-Semitic Students Run Wild in Lemberg

Warsaw (WNS)—Defying the authorities who have closed the University of Lemberg and the Lemberg Polytechnic Institute as a means of ending anti-Semitic student riots which have already taken a toll of more than 100 injuries among Jews, Nationalist students extended their activities to the Jewish quarter of Lemberg. Marching through the streets, the students smashed windows in Jewish shops and assaulted Jewish pedestrians. The closing of the University followed an outbreak of violence in the classrooms where Jewish students had rebelled against being segregated in "ghetto benches." Some of the injured students are reported to be in a critical condition. A number of non-Jews who came to the defense of their Jewish classmates were also injured.

JEWISH CENTERS WILL CONVENE

Banquet and Dance Planned for Opening Event

The 26th annual convention of the New England Community Centers and the Young Men's and Women's Hebrew Associations will be held in New Haven at the Hotel Taft on November 7 and 8.

Professor Lewis Finklestein of the Jewish Theological Seminary will be guest speaker at the opening banquet on Saturday evening, November 7. Master of Ceremonies will be the Rev. Nathan Heller of Boston who will be followed by a dance, at which S. Byer's Orchestra will furnish the music. Reservations for the banquet and dance may be made directly at the hotel or at the local Jewish Community Center.

At the business session Sunday morning, November 8, reports will be heard from the various committees. Max Kabatznick of Boston will report on district work; J. B. Grossman of Quincy will report on summer camp work; and Judge Lewis Goldberg of Brookline will discuss the work of the Co-operation Committee. The business meeting will be followed by a luncheon at which Judge Irving Lelchman, president of the Jewish Welfare Board, will address the delegates.

An interesting part of this convention will be an Institute for board members, conducted by Harry Cluckman, Executive Director of the Jewish Welfare Board. At this session there will be an opportunity for board members to discuss common problems and future policies. Another promising event is the Youth Panel, in which young people under the age of twenty-one, representing various cities in New England, will discuss their own problems as they are being faced in Jewish Community Centers and Young Men's and Women's Hebrew Associations.

Speaks at Auxiliary

Stressing the advantages and scope of the hospital at the Jewish Consumptive and Cripple Asylum in Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Zelig Gordon, president of the Rhode Island Auxiliary, addressed the local group at a regular meeting in the Biltmore Hotel last Tuesday. Mrs. Gordon attended the first annual convention held in Denver this summer. In several cases, many of them Rhode Island patients, where life had practically been restored after all other efforts had failed, in curing the dreaded White Plague. In her report to the members, Mrs. Gordon also told of the wonderful work of rehabilitation afforded those patients, who though recovered and able to do certain work, could not return to other parts of the country.

Encouraging reports were given by the chairman of the Donors Luncheon, Mrs. Joseph Kominsky, and the program chairman, Mrs. Isaac Blackman. The next meeting will take place in February on the anniversary of the Auxiliary's founding. A report on the special tickets was also given by the chairman, Mrs. Ben Poulten. Many new members were introduced.

Announcement was made of a complimentary tea to be held in honor of the near future. A rummage sale will be conducted the latter part of this week with Mrs. Louis Lovett as chairman.

CENTER SPONSORS ART PROGRAM

A program replete in Jewish art will be offered by Benjamin Zemach, formerly with the Moscow Habimah Theatre, under the auspices of the Jewish Community Center at a folk play, a dramatic interpretation of "The Beggar" and "The Workers Dance of the Soil" based on Palestinian impressions. He will be assisted by Jesse Bernham.

Max Reinhardt, famous German producer, brought Mr. Zemach to New York to direct the dance program for the play "The Beggar". Mr. Zemach is both an actor and a dancer.

He appeared in the Neighborhood Playhouse in New York, the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, and directed plays at the Pasadena Playhouse. He was also dance director for two motion pictures produced by RKO, including "She" and the "Last Days of Pompeii".

Annual Peace Service

The Annual Peace Sabbath Service will be held at Temple Emanu-El this evening. Rabbi Goldman will preach on the subject, "The Rugged Individual," in which he will discuss the problem of the present strife between the forces of Communism, Fascism and Democracy, and their effect upon world peace and the Jew. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Beth-Israel Study Group

The first meeting of the Study Group of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Israel will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the Temple.

The subject will be a review of the recent novel, "The Brothers Ashkenazi," by E. J. Singer, which deals with Jewish life in Poland during the last two generations, from the rise of Jewish industrialism to the final debacle. These book reviews, which will be given from time to time, have the two-fold purpose of acquainting the participants with current outstanding Jewish literature and also with the current problems of Jewish life as they are reflected through the pages of these books.

In addition courses in Hebrew, Jewish ethics and ancient literature will be offered. The courses are all given by the Rabbi. Admission is open to the public. Application should be made to Mrs. Rose Markensohn, chairman. A cordial invitation is extended to all the Sisterhood to be guests of the first meeting. A social hour will be followed by Mrs. Isadore Singer will be the hostess.

Rabbi to Discuss Balfour

"Balfour Declaration and its Significance" is to be the theme of Rabbi Schussheim's sermon tonight. Zionism has been confused and distorted in recent years with the urgent need for funds for the re-building of the Homeland. As a result the Palestine adventure is in danger of becoming only another expression of the philanthropic urge manifest in Jewish life in recent years. The Rabbi will treat of the transformation, fundamental in character, resulting from the Balfour Declaration and the new attitude towards Zionism. The public is cordially invited.

ARABS DEMAND END OF DECLARATION

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Defeating elements which had sponsored a more moderate policy, the Arab Higher Committee committed itself to demand the withdrawal of the Palestine mandate and the abolition of the Balfour declaration, keystone of the British Jewish National Home Policy in Palestine, before the Royal Commission, headed by Lord Peel, which will begin an investigation of Arab-Jewish differences on November 11.

On the nineteenth anniversary of the issuance of the Balfour Declaration pledging Britain's aid to the establishment of a Jewish National Home in Palestine, the Arab press published a proclamation by the Arab Higher Committee demanding of England that she cancel the declaration. The manifesto by the supreme Arab representative body calls for the cessation of present British policy and the recognition of the right of Palestine Arabs to independence. A second proclamation issued by the Jerusalem Arab Strike Committee, called upon its followers not to strike but to protest the Balfour declaration by flying black flags. The Arab Higher Committee is also issuing an appeal that no Arab register as a witness before the Royal Commission of Inquiry due here soon until the agreement of the committee to testifying has been ratified.

Meanwhile, Arabs threatened to boycott sessions of the Royal Commission unless suspension of Jewish immigration, allegedly promised to them, is not forthcoming.

Wallace Films Barred

London (WNS)—The news that the Nazi film censor has prohibited the showing of pictures based on the works of the late Edgar Wallace, celebrated British author, on the ground that he was a Jew, has created a sensation here. Wallace's daughter, Mrs. Reeves, has issued a public statement denying that her father had even the remotest kinship with Jews.

Malady Proves Fatal

Chicago (WNS)—Philip Levitt, seven-year-old Chicago Jewish youngster, whose parents risked death by serving as human test tubes, in an attempt to develop a serum to fight veridans streptococci, lost his fight for life. Young Levitt had suffered on the way to recovery when he contracted a relapse which proved fatal.

HEBREW COLLEGE MARKS 12TH YEAR

Jerusalem (WNS-Palcor Agency)—The twelfth academic year of the Hebrew University was inaugurated before a large gathering of visitors and students, with President Judah L. Magnes, Rector Hugo Bergmann and Salman Schocken as the principal speakers. The six students and two lecturers who had been killed during the disorders were paid an eloquent tribute by Dr. Magnes. The eightieth birthday of Louis D. Brandeis, Justice of the United States Supreme Court, which occurs this month, was made the occasion for an expression of appreciation of the noted jurist's aid to the Hebrew University during the years of its development. Julian W. Mack, Judge of the United States Circuit Court, who recently marked his sixtieth birthday, was hailed as another of the "close friends" of the University.

The University's scientific achievements were described by Dr. Hugo Bergmann, who was last week re-elected as Rector. Important steps had been taken toward the establishment of a Medical Faculty, he declared. Means had also been provided for the first Chair in Agriculture. With the funds granted by the English Mosses Montefiore Memorial Committee, a Chair in English Literature will also be set up in the University. An addition to the school's curriculum will be one year courses in Jewish history and Palestine studies for foreign post-graduate students, Dr. Bergmann announced.

Young Jewish Women to Meet on Nov. 18

The Young Women's Hebrew Association is sponsoring their third annual Jewish Young Women's Night, to be held on November 18, at the Jewish Community Center under the chairmanship of Elsie Levenor.

The purpose of this event is to bring together the members of the various Jewish young women's groups; the following organizations have received invitations to attend the meeting: Junior Hadassah, Junior Pioneers, Acquettes, N. Alpha Sorority, at R. I. State College, Sigma Alpha Gamma Sorority, Iota Phi Sorority, Gamma Sorority, Junior Hadassah of Pawtucket, the Jewish students at Pembroke College, and the Young Women's Hebrew Association of Woonsocket. All other young Jewish women are invited and urged to attend.

Nazis Launch Drive to Dejuvenate Sciences

Berlin (WNS)—Completion of the Nazi program of anti-Jewish racial legislation and the beginning of a new intensive effort to cleanse the legal and economic sciences from Jewish sciences was announced to the convention of university professors of the National Socialist Jurists' Association by Dr. Hans Frank, Niza minister of justice.

Outlining an eight-point program for eliminating the remaining Jewish judges and lawyers and for removing all legal work by Jews, Frank said the campaign was intended to make it impossible for Jews to have an opportunity to interpret or teach German law.

The eight points enunciated by Frank were: 1—It must be impossible in the future for any Jew to act in behalf of German law; 2—German justice must be reserved for such Germans as are Aryans in the sense of the Nuremberg laws; 3—No publisher must print new editions of German lawbooks by Jewish authors; 4—Works of Jewish authors must be removed from public and educational libraries; 5—All such books must be transferred to the institutes which deal with "exposing the evil influence of Jews and the Jewish nation"; 6—German jurists must not quote Jewish authors, except in cases when such quotations are indispensable to "reveal the Jewish mentality"; 7—Professors of law must not educate their students to look for "clawing, clawing final truth," but as spiritual pioneers of the New Germany for the peace and freedom of the German nation; 8—It must be recognized that "there is no science for science's sake."

Will Hold Tea Monday

The Pioneer Women will hold their next meeting in the form of a tea, Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in Arcadia Hall. Mrs. Harry Chupin, who recently returned from Europe, will be guest of honor.

Mrs. Arthur Korman, Mrs. Rose Heber and Mrs. P. M. Phillips, delegates to the organization's National Convention, held in Boston last month, will render reports. Mrs. Strong will speak on her impressions of Palestine. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Morris Mellion and her committee.

Regular Meeting Held By Beth-El Women

A regular meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth-El was held on Monday afternoon at the Temple. The program consisted of greetings by Rabbi William G. Braude, an address by Rev. Allen E. Claxton, who recently returned from Europe, and a soprano solo by Miss Helen Place. Mrs. Samuel Waackheimer, Peace Chairman, was in charge of the meeting, to which members of the Rhode Island League of Jewish Women's Organizations, and the Sisterhoods of Temples Beth Israel and Emanuel were invited.

Reports were given by Mrs. Bertram Bernhardt and Mrs. Adolph Gorman on the morning and afternoon sessions of the 15th Annual Conference of N. E. Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, held in Worcester last week. Mrs. Daniel Snyder, a delegate to the Rhode Island League of Jewish Women's Organizations, reported on the meeting of the League, which was held on October 26 at the Biltmore Hotel.

Rabbi Lazon to Speak on "Message of Israel" Hour

The United Jewish Laymen's Committee, in co-operation with the National Broadcasting Company, will present Rabbi Morris Lazon of the Baltimore Hebrew Congregation, Baltimore, Maryland, as the speaker on the "Message of Israel" hour for the month of November. Rabbi Jonah B. Lieb of Central Synagogue, New York City, will conduct the hour. Mrs. L. Lehman Engel will direct the music.

This program is broadcast every Saturday evening at seven o'clock Eastern Standard Time over Station WJZ and affiliated stations throughout the United States.

JEWISH STRIKE IN BAGDAD ENDS

Bagdad, Iraq (WNS-Palcor Agency)—Bagdad Jews have ended their two-day strike in protest against recent anti-Jewish agitation which has caused the death of at least five of their number during the past month, after being assured by the Iraqi government that energetic measures would be adopted against disturbers.

After an interview with leaders of the Jewish community government officials issued a statement which asserted not only that disturbers would be dealt with, but that investigations would be opened to reveal those responsible "for the endangerment of the country's peace and unity." A simultaneous proclamation of the Jewish Communal Council echoed the government's promise and requested a general resumption of work. Jewish life in the city is resuming normalcy.

STUDY GROUPS TO COMMENCE SEASON

The next regular meeting of Providence Chapter of Hadassah will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Biltmore Hotel. Mrs. Saul Abrams, president, will render a report on the 22nd Hadassah Convention, which she recently attended in Philadelphia, accompanied by a delegation comprised of Mesdames Ben Kane, Rose Markensohn, Herman Swartz and Nathan Temkin. Mrs. Esther Pritsker will discuss "Current Events."

The Study Group will commence its second season on Monday at the Biltmore Hotel. Rabbi Morris Schussheim, of Temple Beth Israel, will again be the lecturer. Rabbi Schussheim's course last season proved very popular with the membership, and a large group is anticipated by Mrs. Markensohn, chairman of education and program, for this year's series. The course includes eight lectures on alternate Mondays, and will deal with the general topic, "Currents in Jewish Life." Next Monday's discourse is titled "Heritage Out of the Desert" and will begin promptly at 2:00 o'clock. Admission to the entire series is absolutely free to Hadassah members.

Give Until It Feels Good

A vacant seat next to your child in school! A card on a house in your neighborhood marked "Scarlet Fever". A District Nurse got there in time—and soon the vacant seat will be filled. But, if the nurse hadn't arrived in time, there might be a card on your house, too, regardless of the size of your pocketbook. That's one thing the Community Fund means to you.

A Jewish orphanage, hospital, family welfare society, community center, dispensary and federation are all sponsored by us as Jews and are supported by us and the rest of the community for the good they do, both direct and indirect, to us and the rest of the community. Likewise, district nurses, boys clubs, other children's societies, other hospitals and health agencies,—40 great charities in all—are supported by the whole community because of the good they do to the whole community. That also is what the Community Fund means to you.

2500 citizens—abolishing all distinctions of race, creed, color and politics—will go to work together next week to raise a minimum of $628,000 for these 40 agencies. Several hundreds of the Providence Jewish community are enlisted in this harmonious army of "C Men" committed to the task of arresting the four real public enemies, Hunger, Disease, Crime and Despair. Several hundred others of our Jewish community, as officers and directors of your charities, will be trustees devoted to the useful expenditure of the more than ten percent of the funds raised. In no country on earth but America, and in no movement except the Community Fund, does such a splendid situation prevail. That also is what the Community Fund means to you.

Will you meet the challenge involved in this great opportunity to serve yourself, your children, your people, your community and your country? Remember that this is one single campaign to support not one but 40 separate agencies for a whole year. A ten dollar gift means only a quarter for each charity. A hundred dollar gift means two dollars a week or five cents a week for each agency. Budget your gift by adding up what you believe you should give to each charity separately and budget your payments according to your personal convenience, over a period of a year.

There is no such thing as giving until it hurts.
Give until it feels good!

MASS MEETING TO FEATURE SPEAKERS

Two outstanding speakers, both well known in Providence, have been engaged to address the Annual Day Mass Meeting to be held at Sayles Hall, Brown University, the evening of November 11 at 8:00 o'clock. The first speaker will be Prof. J. Anton deHaas, of the Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University; the second, Rabbi Louis I. Newman of Congregation Rodeph Shalom in New York.

Professor deHaas is well-known authority in his field of international law, will deal with the confused and dangerous world situation, as Professor deHaas saw it in his column in Europe this past summer.

Rabbi Louis I. Newman, the second speaker, is a native of Providence, and a graduate of Classical High School and Brown University. Beginning a long and varied career in the rabbinate as Assistant to Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of New York in 1917, he occupied other pulpits in New York and San Francisco before becoming Rabbi of Congregation Rodeph Shalom in 1930. He has also served as a special lecturer at Columbia University and is now on the faculty of the Jewish Institute of Religion in New York City.

Rev. W. Appleton Lawrence, recently elected Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Massachusetts, will preside at the Mass Meeting.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Lazarus cordially invite their friends and relatives to attend the Bar-Mitzvah of their son, Morris Harold, to be held at Temple Beth-Israel tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Following the ceremony a reception will be held in the vestry of the Temple.

In honor of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus will hold open house at their home, 227 Warrington street, Saturday night from eight to twelve o'clock.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Ahavath Shalom Talmud Torah held a meeting on October 8 with Mrs. Adler, chairman. Plans were formulated for a bridge to be run for the Talmud Torah on November 12 at Arcadia Hall, 109 Washington street.

Mrs. J. G. Norman will act as chairman of the bridge and Mrs. Morris Schwartz as co-chairman.

A Hallowe'en birthday party was given last week in honor of Karl Perelman. First prize for entertainment went to Barbara Torgan.

Miss Ann Berlinsky, formerly of this city, was married to Sidney Coken, of New York, on Sunday, October 25. Miss Berlinsky is a graduate of the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy.

On returning from a wedding trip, the couple will take up residence in Irvington, N. J.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Anna E. Goldberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goldberg of Pawtucket, to Eli Abrams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Abrams of Providence.

It has been announced that a group of women of the Temple Beth-Israel Sisterhood have volunteered to serve in the Providence Community Fund Drive.

The marriage of Miss Doris Rubin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Rubin, to Irving Ackerman, took place October 25 at the Mayfair Inn. Rabbi Joshua Werner officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Philip Keller.

Mrs. Julius Blood, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Ruth Shaver of Woonsocket was maid of honor. Joseph Ackerman, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Raymond Cohen, Joseph Rubin, Irvin Rubin, Nathan Lipson, Jack Goldstein, Isadore Schwartz, Abe Katz, and Isadore Schwartz. The flower girl was Lois Prehdan and the ring-bearer Albert Glickman.

The couple will make their home at 152 Wesleyan avenue.

The Bar-Mitzvah of Morton Berkowitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berkowitz of Dupon avenue, will take place on Saturday morning at the Ahavath Shalom Synagogue.

Around the Town

With Leonard Harris

Yea or Nay

Now that the election is over perhaps some of us can get down to business, and maybe do some business. And may we remind you that whatever your political feelings were, now is the time for all good Jews to be good American citizens. While we're at it, we feel that we ought to congratulate Lou Adler and Dave Falk, newcomers to the political arena, old war-horse Joe Schlossberg, who came through again, as did Sam Kagan and Howie Presel. To those who didn't run in the money, be patient—in two years you'll get another crack at it.

And They All Came

It was a gay time the other nite over at Anna and Joe Fields in honor of son, Herbert's Bar-Mitzvah. I must admit that the guests were of very high quality. So plentiful were the guests that all late-comers were forced to wait in line in the hall until some of the earlier folks departed. It seemed that almost every Jew and Jewess in the city of Providence was there, and having a swell time. Yours truly left early and sober, wanting to be sure to have a steady hand and a clear head for the Sunday eve affair given by the Providence Jewish Council.

Polite Political Patter

In the past, I've often wondered what happens when a Democrat meets a Republican on the eve of an election. Sunday nite my curiosity was allayed when Democrat Archie Smith introduced Republican Dave Adelman to the Providence Jewish Council. Dave's discussion of what part a Jew should play in politics was followed by an exchange of mutual compliments.

(Just like Greek meeting Greek). Receptions to the meeting were immediate and on the spot (and not only in the form of a larger increase in paid memberships). It seems that our Jewish merchants have not received checks from a Democrat meeting a Republican on the eve of an election. Milt Levin had the audacity to get up and speak and confounded all the lawyers present as well as the rest of the audience. Dorothy Waldman acquitted herself in a fine fashion with her vocal solos. I guess those trips to the big city are doing her voice a lot of good. The Korenbaum sisters had their own little style show, and all of them looked charming. Present, too, was Walt Nelson, bidding old friends An Revoir. He leaves today on a winter expedition to Ladador. Eunice Goldsmith, Zella Frier, Selma Zisnick, Sadie Tabor, Marie Roitman and Dot Markoff were a few of the lovely ladies there. Interested spectators were Howie Presel, Billy Matzner and Phil Lieberman. Ruri Kaplan was in charge of refreshments.

Here Today—Gone Tomorrow

Add to disappearing acts: Jessie Midnight Blue Dress Suits, Howard Scott, High Priest of Technocracy, and the Barrie-Barrymore romance. Gertrude Meth, local advertising lady, and a group of us too, is showing the town to a cute kid sister from way up their called home. Hugo Sperber and Herman Pastor shalom aleichem each other to a fare-thee-well the other day in front of the bank. Maybe they both got a dividend.

Mish-Mash

The Woolf brothers, Ben and Dave, shopping shoe windows on the main stem. Ernie Shein won't smoke Turkish cigarette. Frank Golenba is a sucker for imported cheese. Milt Sapinsley sings a pretty fair barytone.

Walter Rutman, our editor, will be back next week minus two ounces of appendix. Ditto Harold Goldenberg. Sam Feingold is a coupon saver. Bob Berstein is pretty busy these days selling cars at his new Plymouth and DeSoto showroom on Weybosset street. My apologies to Norman Fain, who we had as Alfred Fain's twin brother. We meant Leonard. But they're cousins anyway, so it's in the family.

Cauch-Lauf

Picking up a seven-year-old "Herald" we noticed that Charlie Brown was installed as Worshipful Master of the Roosevelt Lodge of Masons. That Mrs. Archibald Silverman was to address an organization. That Sylvia Bl. Mann taught dance and expression for rhythm, poise and grace. That most of Mrs. Krasoff had just gotten married. That our Ledgermost correspondent suggested that Jean Flauer would play well if she practiced more. That Muddy Waldman was playing pretty good baseball for Rhode Island State and that Mat Millman was an asset to the college band.

So They Say

According to Neil O'Hara, there is an average of one M. D. to every 778 people in the nation. But somewhere in South Carolina, the percentage drops to 1.541 persons. Not a bad spot for one of our local M. D.'s. Gag of the week: Boss (to Pat): "So you want to quit working? Aren't the wages alright?" Pat: "The wages are alright, but I'm afraid I'm doing a horse out of a job". Eddie Cantor has guaranteed something like $20,000 to one of the many charitable organizations he is interested in. Gert Rosenhirsch will soon be leaving Providence for New York, where she will elch her permanent address.

We see by a New York dispatch that Nazis are calling "Wally" Simpson a Non-Aryan. What next? Sophie Tucker, who kept Puritanical Britishers rollicking in laughter for months, is to be stoned in the Yiddish section of London last week.

Visiting the Miriam Hospital we found out that nearly all infants are born with blue eyes and it takes at least fifteen weeks to notice any color change in their optics. All joking aside, taxpayer or no taxpayer, it takes a pretty strong heart to say "only $24,000,000,000." Sam Soforenko is eyeing new quarters in the Industrial Trust Building. Ruth Torgan Falk is still furniture shopping. Something not to worry about: If Lemke had been elected President, he was going to serve only one term.

Something New

A questionnaire sent out by "Eye" women's mag, reveals that fifty-eight prominent figures in public life believe that a woman will eventually be president of the United States. There was a wide diversity of opinion as to the type of the woman most likely to be president. But all of the fifty-eight agreed that in time our first executive would be called Mrs. President. H. L. Mencken in his reply to what type thought most likely to be a female president said "Probably the worst type." Add to absent-minded professorship: Albert Einstein one nite after dinner in his Princeton home expressed worried. "I don't know," he said to his wife, "that I was invited to dinner somewhere tonight." Einstein's wife taking the cue went through his correspondence and found the invitation—to dine at the White House. Ah! Five kinds of likes light polo coats and dark brown hats. A corn is convulsing after a fall from a horse. And that's all there is for now.

Daughterhood Formed

The Daughterhood of Temple Beth-Israel was recently organized by a group of young women eager to become an active part of the Temple and to learn more about Jewish Customs and History.

Mia Eve Tanenbaum introduced the idea of such an organization to Rabbi Schlossberg, who was greatly impressed, and who offered to supervise the study of Jewish History, the project chosen by the group.

Social activities will also become a part of the Daughterhood. At the present time, a membership drive is in progress and will continue until the end of the year.

It is the aim of the Daughterhood to become a large and strong body, and all those interested, are invited to attend the meetings.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, November 10th, at 8:15

Meet Marshall Goldberg

When the gridiron season started we gave voice to the feeling that it was about time for another Benny Friedman, Harry Newman or Fred Stington. We also remember saying that a certain highly-touted sophomore back at the University of Pittsburgh might fill the bill if he lived up to advance notices. Did we say it? By this time every football fan has heard about Goldberg whose sensational doings with a football have won for him universal acclaim as a combination of Friedman and Grange. What he did to Notre Dame was a crime. Regardless of what he does during the rest of the season, those who saw him rip and slash and slice the South Benders will be surprised if he doesn't make any man's All-American.

Just 18 years old, Goldberg joined the Pitt Panthers after starring as a freshman. Goldberg hails from Elkton, West Virginia, where he was an All State football and basketball luminary. His father runs a store and a movie house. One of his brothers played for Davis-Elkins and his younger brother is a high school star. Packing 180 pounds, the pride of the Goldberg clan intended to go to Notre Dame, but somehow got re-routed and found himself at Pitt. Known to his teammates as "Mad" because of his daring runs, Goldberg is not only a sensational speed merchant, but a brilliant, hard-hitting driving plunger, an eagle-eyed passer and one tough hombre on the defense. He loves to play football. Experts who have watched him say he's a natural ball-totter. And the crowds go crazy over him.

Good Bye, Macabees

Nearing the end of their tour of the United States and Canada, the Macabees, soccer champions of Palestine, will return home on November 10th after playing a final game at the Yankee Stadium on November 8th. By that time they will have played 11 games here and in Canada. Until October 28th the Macabees had not tasted defeat in international competition, having won 33 and tied two. But in their eighth game in North America, the Palestine boosters were beaten 3-2 by the St. Louis All-Stars in a battle that ended up in a loss for all after which the Macabees walked off the field. The fun began when Epstein of the Macabees took a punch at Simmerman of the All-Stars. It's too bad this had to spoil the tour of the Jewish players for they had made a big hit with American soccer fans.

Thus far they have played to more than 250,000 people, a figure which should climb to 300,000 by the time they sail for home. Among those who have seen them play are eight Tel Aviv business men who followed the Macabees wherever they went. On their showing in this country the Macabees bid fair to give Palestine its first points in an Olympic contest when they go to Tokio in 1940.

KING STUDIES PLAN TO END DISORDERS

Growing Fascist Menace Makes Action Necessary

London (WNS)—Stirred to action by the growing menace of Fascist disorders, the British cabinet, through Home Minister Sir John Simon, has laid before King Edward VIII a series of proposed recommendations for putting an end to Blackshirt rioting. Drafted by a sub-committee of the Cabinet, the recommendations include a ban on all private armies and the outlawry of semi-military uniforms. Preliminary measures for stemming anti-Jewish propaganda are also being considered by the Cabinet.

While Sir Samuel Hoare, First Lord of the Admiralty, and former Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald were denouncing Fascism, Home Minister Sir John Simon agreed to receive a delegation of the Labor Party to discuss means for maintaining order to the East End of London, where Fascist disturbances have been most frequent. A number of scheduled Fascist meetings have been prohibited by the London police.

Summarizing the Miriam Hospital is a most humanitarian institution, carrying a burden of free work, not organized for profit, but only to make both ends meet so that the public may enjoy better health and prosperity.

It should be a matter of intense civic pride to the people of Providence and adjacent territory that their local Jewish hospital provides as skilled and efficient medical and surgical facilities as can be found anywhere in the United States, and from his record merits the wholehearted support of every public-spirited citizen in Providence.

Coming to Fays

A thundering drama of the West with a brand new kind of hero comes to Fays today. Easy-going, pleasure-loving, then braided "yellow" by the girl he loves, Ralph Bellamy is starred in the title role as the playboy turned cowboy who, with triphammer fists and hair-trigger wits, blazes a flaming trail to a thrilling comeback. . . . With single-handed daring Ralph blasts a bandit hand out of the bad lands to win through to a glorious romance with the attractive Mae Clarke, who, as the owner of the valuable Circle V Ranch, is threatened by the unscrupulous villains with whom Ralph has innocently become friendly. . . .

Ralph Bellamy

When Ralph wins a large cash prize by a tremendous mad dash in a cross-country horse race, he is "fixed" by the gang, his attempt to save the ranch is imperiled by a roaring prairie fire, set by the desperate crooks, and it takes a fever-pitched denouement to close the story of "Wild Brian Kent". . . . Adapted from Harold Bell Wright's "The Re-creation of Brian Kent", the popular author's biggest and best-selling novel, the film features in the supporting cast Helen Lowell, Stanley Andrews, Lew Kelly, Eddie Chandler, Richard Alexander and Jack Duff. . . . A great vaudeville show completes the bill. . . .

Rinaldo in Person

Rinaldo, who will appear in person at the RKO Albee Theatre for one week beginning today, will present his own original offering in "Mind Reading" and "Mental Telepathy," which has mystified scientists of both ends of the continent.

Rinaldo's demonstration in this particular field is the master achievement of Twentieth Century Mysticism, as it is presented by one individual, absolute master of his craft. . . . In almost every sort have been made Rinaldo to use his abilities elsewhere than for amusement, but he will have none of it. He claims that his work could easily become a dangerous weapon and so he has confined his mind reading exclusively to theatre and to private performances. His experiments in mind reading will give you something to think about for years to come.

Doris Nolan, a new RKO find, is starred in the feature picture, "The Man I Married." In "The Man I Married," Rena Allen, who reads plays for Robert Hartley, her producer uncle, runs away from a wedding rehearsal to escape marrying Throckton Van Cortland, a stuffed shirt.

Rena runs off to Hartley's country house where she finds Ken Durbin, revising a play which he has submitted to Hartley.

Ken resents Rena's intrusion, although he himself has barged into the house uninvited. He resents generally the interference of all women.

Rena reads Ken's play, when it is returned in the next mail, rejected by Hartley. Rena telephones Hartley to come out for her and, when he does, tells him that Ken's material can be made into an excellent play. When Ken learns of her intervention in his behalf, he becomes enraged at "more female interference" and threatens to prevent Hartley from producing it.

To circumvent Ken, Rena has the sheriff arrest him for unlawfully entering the Hartley house. Meanwhile Throckton trails Hartley to the country home, hoping to find Rena. He gets a slanting cellar door and falls through to be saved by Jack and Jerry, who are sampling the wine bin.

At the dress rehearsal of the play, Ken objects to the changes Rena has brought about, but they prove to be the best spots in the show.

The madcap climax swirls Throckton into a marriage with a hoodlum. Ken and Rena are left with a broad way hit and a wedding on their hands.

Jr. Hadassah Meeting

At a regular meeting of the Junior Hadassah held Monday evening at the Biltmore Hotel, a brief history of the Jewish people was given by Rabbi Morris Schurshelm. Julius Seimoff gave a short talk on the Community Fund.

Nothing Serious
Al Jolson is in a Los Angeles hospital receiving treatment for an intestinal disturbance. "It's nothing serious. I've been working rather strenuously on some radio programs and this brought on a mild attack of nervous exhaustion," the comedian told us.

Back from a long European jaunt with his son, Carl Laemmle declared definitely that he was through with motion pictures and hinted his son, Carl, Jr., may become an independent producer. The elder Laemmle received $3,500,000 when he sold Universal studios recently. Laemmle disclosed that he is now a department store magnate, having stopped off at Grand Island, Neb., where he bought an interest in a store of an old friend. . . . Sol Lesser, President of Principal Productions, has purchased an original story as the next starring vehicle for Bobby Breen.

Coming to Majestic

"Pigskin Parade" with a large and selected cast is one of the features at the Majestic Theatre. Jack Haley is the crackpot football coach of tiny Texas State University, scheduled to meet the big Boola-Boola team in the famous Bowl. With his wife, Patsy Kelly, Jack tries to whip up an eleven that will stand a chance. His hopes are blasted, however, when Patsy gets pie-eyed at a student rally and tackles the star of the team, breaking his leg.

Claire Trevor

To make up for this terrible honor, Patsy uses her wits and persuades Jack to put the star Texas basketball team in the backfield because of their passing skill. And to replace the star she disalbed, Patsy discovers a hill-billy (Stuart Erwin) with the sensational ability of passing a muskmelon 90 yards. He is enrolled at the college and put on the team to throw forwards.

About this time romantic complications between co-eds and pigskin heroes, particularly Johnny Downs and Arline Judge, Anthony Martin and Betty Grable, cause trouble. But everything is straightened out in time for the big game and with singers like the Yacht Club lloyds and dancers like Dixie Dunbar to cheer them on, the Texas boys journey East. The tremendous publicity secured by Patsy's basketball footballers and her bare-foot hill-billy has rocked the stadium. And the crowd goes wild as the gooiest game ever played on a gridiron takes place. Just how it concludes would spoil the smash comedy ending if revealed but, you can promise yourself the faintest climax a football picture ever had!

Nazi Editor Howls That "Wally" Simpson is Jewess

New York (WNS)—The poor Jewish editors who have been racking their brains in vain for a "Jewish angle" to Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson's sensational affair with King Edward VIII have found a "friend" in an unsuspected quarter, the editor of the "American Bulletin" organ of the American National Socialist Party, a Nazi editor.

According to this gentleman the whole affair is nothing less than a Jewish plot. Mrs. Simpson, he says, is a Jewess whom the Jews believe to be "a reincarnation of Esther who saved her people by tricking the King of Persians into signing an order of death for his own people." "Not only is Mrs. Simpson a Jewess," says the Nazi editor, "but she was brought up by a Jewish stepfather in Jewish surroundings and is being used as a catspaw by Jews to win new rights for the Zionists in Palestine."

Invitations have been issued for the Annual Formal Supper Dance of Temple Emanuel, which is to be held at the Biltmore Hotel on Thanksgiving Night. Plans are well under way and reservations are already being made. Mrs. Samuel Reissick is in charge of floral decorations.

KORNFELD COMES TO PROV. SATURDAY

One of the most notable Jews of present-day Jewish life in this country is Dr. Joseph S. Kornfeld, who for many years was American Ambassador to Persia. Dr. Kornfeld will be the opening speaker at the Ninth Annual Institute of Jewish Studies, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the vestry of Temple Emanuel. Mrs. Nat C. Cohen will preside.

In addition to the lecture program which is being held tomorrow afternoon, two study courses are being started next week. They are: A Hebrew Language Course, to be given one afternoon a week for a period of ten weeks. In this course, Elementary Hebrew and Prayer Book reading will be taught. This course will be given by Fred Weiser.

The other course is Modern Hebrew Literature, and will give in English a resume of Hebrew Literature from the last part of the 18th century to the present day. This course will be given one afternoon a week by Samuel Kessler.

New Guide Book

New York (WNS)—Carrying out a promise made to Dr. Stephen S. Wise in March, 1935, Rand McNally Company, has issued a new guide book to New York in which offensive references to the Jews have been deleted. The paragraph deleted appeared on page 76 of the old edition and referred to the lower East Side as "Judea" where the "fakers and peddlers who throng the lower part of the town get their supplies and learn how to earn their livelihood even before they have any idea of the language of the country."

Spinach? "It's Wonderful," Says Mary

Mary Theresa Kavin, seven, shown with her brother Edward, after she had eaten the first solid meal in her life. It comprised spinach, chopped beef, mashed potatoes and gelatine. Mary was born without lower intestines and she had to live on liquids entirely after her birth. An operation performed recently has made her entirely normal and she is looking forward to attending school and carrying her lunch.

KING ANNOUNCES ANTI-FASCIST LAWS

London (WNS)—An expression of regret at the disturbances in Palestine and an announcement of forthcoming legislation to curb Fascist disturbances were among the principal points enunciated by King Edward VIII in his first formal address from the throne opening the new session of Parliament.

Confirming previous reports that the British Government is preparing to deal with Sir Oswald Mosley's blackshirts, the King said, "My ministers have come to the conclusion that existing law required amendment in order to deal more effectively with persons and organizations who provoke or cause disturbances to the public peace. A bill to strengthen the law without interfering with legitimate freedom of speech or assembly will be submitted."

With regard to Palestine the King declared that "I deeply regret the serious disturbances in Palestine which necessitated the dispatch of additional troops. I welcome the recent improvement in the situation. A royal commission will leave England this week to undertake an inquiry. I sincerely trust their examination of the various difficult problems will lead to a just and permanent settlement."

There was some surprise expressed that the address failed to indicate that the proposed anti-Fascist legislation would include a ban on the wearing of political uniforms. It is understood that a bill to this effect will be sponsored by a private member of the House of Commons in the event that no such measure is introduced from the government benches.

Banquet and Installation Held by Hebrew Cong.

The South Providence Hebrew Congregation held a banquet and installation of Officers last Monday night, with more than 300 members and guests attending. The arrangements committee was as follows: J. S. Goldman, chairman; J. L. Millman, D. Jewett, S. Weisman, M. Chorney, J. Monjack, L. Rothberg, M. Simons, M. Snow, G. Goldman and H. Foster. Harry Leach was hostmaster.

The officers installed were: Barney Stone, president; Abah Kimnick, vice-president; Simon Friedman, treasurer; Michael Harrison, financial secretary; Joseph I. Millman, recording secretary; Samuel Miller, servant. A special installation for the new cantor, shochet, Rev. Aaron Stern, was performed by Rabbi Joshua Werner. The president, vice-president and treasurer were presented with gifts for their many years of work for the congregation.

Meeting of Ladies Ass'n

The Ladies' Association of the Jewish Home for Aged held their annual meeting last Wednesday with Mrs. Isadore Low presiding. Annual reports were given on all affairs by committee chairmen. Mrs. J. T. Rowdin presented Mrs. Ruth Deerman, who sang several solos, accompanied by Miss Sylvia Premark. Mrs. Low expressed her appreciation of the good work done by the members of the Association. The president, vice-president and treasurer were re-elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Alvin Rice was hostess for the afternoon.

Pope Names Three Jews to Scientist Academy

Vatican City (WNS)—Three of the 70 world-famous savants named by Pope Pius to the newly organized Pontifical Academy of Scientists are Italian Jews. The Jewish members are Dr. Tullio Levi-Civita, mathematician; Senator Vito Volterra, physicist; and Francesca Vezzelli, Professor Levi-Civita, who recently received an honorary degree at Harvard's tercentenary celebration, was born in Padua in 1873. At the age of 23 he became a lecturer at the University of Pavia, remaining there until 1911 when he became professor of Mathematics at the University of Padua. Since 1918 he has been professor at the University of Rome. In 1909 he won the prize of the Academy of Mathematics and in 1922 received the silver medal of the Royal Society of London. He also holds an honorary degree from the University of Hamburg.

Senator Volterra, a native of Ancona, was born in 1863. He was only 20 when he became mathematics professor at the University of Pisa. In 1893 he was invited to be professor of mathematical physics at the University of Turin where he remained until 1908 when he received a similar post at the University of Rome. Author of many scientific works and a former member of the Italian Senate, Volterra risked imprisonment in 1931 when he defied Mussolini's order to all professors to take an oath of allegiance to Fascism. With ten others Volterra refused and was dismissed from his post.

FAMED SOPRANO DIES

Paris (WNS)—Felia Litvinne, Russian-born soprano who was once known throughout Europe as a singer of Wagnerian roles, is dead here at the age of 73. She had appeared in major roles on the Continent as early as 1890. In 1908 she sang at La Scala in Milan under Toscanini. At one time very wealthy, she spent her declining years in poverty.

PROV. SYMPHONY PROGRAM UNUSUAL

Bruckner's "Te Deum" Will Have R. I. Premier

Music lovers of Providence are showing great interest in the coming program of the Providence Symphony Orchestra, directed by Dr. Wassili Lepps. Dr. Lepps has announced the production of Bruckner's "Te Deum" for the first concert of the season, at the Metropolitan theatre on November 17. The "Te Deum" is written for chorus, solo and orchestra. The soloists will be Lucy Marsh Gordon, soprano; Jeanne Lewis Waddington, contralto; George M. Tinker, tenor; Ray Gardner, bass and a chorus of one hundred voices.

This will be the first time that Bruckner's "Te Deum" will be produced in the city of Providence, and music lovers in the entire area are eagerly awaiting this event. Dr. Lepps also has designated January 12 and March 16 as dates for the second and third concert of the Providence Symphony Orchestra. A membership drive campaign is now under way to give music-minded people in Rhode Island an opportunity to become members and participants in Providence's great orchestra. Campaign headquarters are at 140 Westminster street where anyone interested can get information in regard to membership.

Mussolini's Paper Raps Mosley's Anti-Semitism

Rome (WNS)—In an obvious attempt to allay widespread fears that the recent anti-Semitic utterances in leading Italian newspapers presaged the beginning of an about-face by Italy on the Jewish question, Il Popolo d'Italia, personal organ of Benito Mussolini, published an article bitterly assailing Sir Oswald Mosley, British Fascist chieftain, for introducing a racial issue into British Fascism. Generally believed to have been written by Il Duce, the article declared that Mosley's anti-Semitism betrays Fascism by copying the non-Italian forms of Fascism. At the same time, however, Regime Fascista renewed its attack on the Jews by emphasizing that Mussolini agrees with its argument that Italian Jews must sever all connections with the World Jewish Congress and with the Jewries of Spain, France and Russia. The paper also depletes the rumor that an influential American Jew is going to Italy to look into reports of Italian anti-Semitism.

ZION CLUB MEETING

The Flowers of Zion Club, a group of Young Jews, held a meeting last Monday night at Temple Beth Israel, where a Palestine project was discussed. Thelma Kimnick was chosen publicity chairman, with Bernice Pepper and Martha Rubin as assistants. Anita Bernstein was re-elected on the Sunshine Committee, and Martha Rubin and Charlotte Sherman were voted into the Club. Plans were discussed for raising money for the Kerem Hanoor.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Miller of Douglas avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Roberta Estelle, on October 28. Mrs. Miller is the former Dora Weisinger.

JEWIS AID IMPORTS OF NAZI PICTURES

New York (WNS)—Revealing that imports of German films to the United States have substantially increased during the last six months, the Joint Boycott council announced that Jewish distributors and theatre owners are chiefly responsible.

Four theatres in New York showing German films are Jewish owned and theatres in California and other states where Nazi pictures are exhibited are also owned by Jews, the Council declared. Some of these Jews, it was declared, are officers in synagogues and Jewish communal institutions.

The Council has warned these boycott violators that if they do not discontinue the exhibition of German pictures their names will be made public and their homes and places of business will be picketed.
