Racial Equality

In some quarters the charge was once made that the only reason Jews disliked Hitler was because of his anti-Semitism. But if ever that was true of a few isolated individuals, the charge can have no validity today.

Responsible Jews have always recognized that wherever freedom was threatened for any group all men must spring to its defense or else suffer the consequences.

That is why Jews particularly should be concerned with the dismissal of a number of Georgia educators on the ground that they were advocating "racial equality." Several of them had no other offense noted against them than their interest in the Rosenwald Foundation, which has performed such notable service for Negroes. Others saw no objection to co-educational facilities for Negro and white students.

In the South, this topic is one of the delicate issues never touched upon — even by Jews.

We remember that a rabbi lost his pulpit a number of years ago because he spoke up for the Scottsboro boys.

Jews should have learned by this time that if they haven't the intestinal fortitude to defend the fundamental liberties of any minority they will not deserve the defense of the majority when their own rights are imperilled.

No Pity

In all this controversy about Lindbergh no one has ever heard him utter a word of horror at, or even aversion to, the bloody cause of the defense of the majority.

The Nazis are for nor a word of pity for the innocent men, women and children who have been deliberately murdered by the Nazis in practically every country in Europe.

Secretary of the Interior, Harold A. Ickes, in castigation of the Lone Eagle, puts in words what millions of people have been thinking. He said: "I have never heard him raise his voice for any of the raped countries of Europe — not even for France, where, for a long period, he collaborated with Dr. Alexis Carrel, who is reputed to be a Nazi sympathizer, in developing an artificial heart. I could tell ex-Colonel Lindbergh where he could readily locate an artificial heart with the aid of an X-Ray machine.

"No, I have never heard Lindbergh utter a word of pity for Belgium, or Holland, or Norway, or England. I have never heard him express a word of pity for the Poles or the Jews who have been slaughtered by the hundreds of thousands by Hitler's savages. I have never heard Lindbergh say a word of encouragement to the English for the fight that they are so bravely making for Lindbergh's right to live his own life in his own way, as well as for their own right to do so. As a matter of fact, I have never heard Lindbergh say a word for democracy itself."

Convention Speaker

DR. ISRAEL M. GOLDMAN

Dr. Goldman will be one of the speakers at the Monday session, September 8, of the 44th Annual Convention of the Zionist Organization of America, to be held from September 6 to 9 at the Hotel Gibson in Cincinnati.

Gov't. Overrules Red Anti-Zionists Plan to Continue Talks With Zionists

LONDON. — The Soviet government has overruled protests by leading Russian-Jewish Communists over negotiations between the Soviet government and Jewish organizations in London and Washington, it is learned here from reliable Soviet sources.

According to these sources Jews who had been directors of the former "Yevsektzia," the Jewish section of the Communist party in Russia, were deeply dissatisfied over the growing rapprochement between the U.S.S.R. and foreign Jewish bodies. Many, who are bitter anti-Zionists, felt that the impending release of im-

Beth Din Settles Boston Kashruth Injunction Dispute

BOSTON. — The injunction which barred six nationally known Orthodox rabbis from interfering in the affairs of the Stadium Packing Company, and which attracted attention in Orthodox circles throughout the country, will be withdrawn within a few days and the slaughter house will be open to the inspection of all rabbis according to a decision handed down by a Beth Din which all parties involved were represented.

The controversy came about because Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik, of Boston, argued that he had sole authority in Boston Kashruth matters while a newly formed local Rabbinical council sought the right to serve as "mashgichim," (religious inspectors), in the establishment.

Irving Keller, proprietor of the Stadium Packing, said he wanted his establishment open to any rabbi. Rabbi Soloveitchik then brought down five leading Orthodox rabbis and it is alleged that Keller was threatened with an "issur," (a religious ban) if he did not comply with their demands. The slaughter house proprietor feared the "issur" and decided to take an injunction against the rabbis. A controversy in which the entire Boston Jewish community was aroused ensued.

Sitting in on the Din Torah were Rabbi Abraham Zalmonovitz, Rabbi Eliezer Proiosky and Rabbi Moses Rosen, all of New York.

ART EXHIBITION

LONDON. — Many Jewish artists are participating in an exhibition of contemporary art opened here by refugee artists. The exhibition is attracting considerable attention in London art circles. Virtually all of the European countries are represented.

Decree Renewal Of Lapsed Visas

CHICAGO. — Rabbi Samuel M. Blumenfield, Dean of the College of Jewish Studies of Chicago is returning after a sabbatical leave of absence to his regular post beginning with the academic year of 1941-42. While on his leave of absence during the last year, Rabbi Blumenfield served as Director of the Department of Youth and Education of the Z. O. A.

JEWS MUST RETIRE

VICHY. — A decree issued here sets September 15 when Jews must retire from professions.

Reopen Refugee Road for Escape

Order Applies to Those Lacking Transportation

NEW YORK, N. Y. (Special Dispatch). — The Washington Bureau of the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society was informed that a measure of relief to a number of refugees in European, West African and Far Eastern ports will come as a result of new instructions issued to the U. S. Consular Service by the Visa Division of the U. S. Department of State. The instructions reopen an avenue of rescue to those prospective immigrants who obtained U. S. immigration visas prior to July 1st, 1941 but could not emigrate before that date.

The technical advisor to the Visa Division informed HIAS that a blanket instruction was issued to the American Consuls in Unoccupied France, Morocco, Spain, Portugal, Japan, Sweden, Shanghai and Trinidad authorizing them to issue visas in proper cases to aliens who received U. S. immigration visas before July 1st, 1941, and which had since expired because of lack of transportation.

In cases where these prospective immigrants are in possession

Benes Pledges Jewish Rights

LONDON. — Jewish rights in a post-war Czechoslovakia will be secured in the same way as those of all other citizens, a delegation from the Union of Orthodox Jews of Czechoslovakia was told by Eduard Benes, president of the Czechoslovakian government-in-exile.

The history of the Czechoslovakian republic, asserted Benes, was a guarantee that its citizens of all faiths will be afforded the opportunity to assist on equal terms in the rebuilding of their common homeland.

Bloc in Congress Imitates Hitler Tactics

Reporter Charges 'Baiting' Expedient

NEW YORK. — Charging that "the malignant political disease known as anti-Semitism has attacked a larger number of Congressmen than is generally realized," Kenneth G. Crawford, Washington correspondent for the New York Newspaper PM, declared that the anti-Semitic bloc in Congress has blocked all United States efforts to aid Jewish refugees.

"The very fact that they talk about the 'Jewish problem' in relation to immigration—as they do behind closed committee doors if not in public—is a symptom," Mr. Crawford stated. "A few Congressmen, particularly Southern Congressmen, indulge in Jew-baiting because they consider it politically smart. Look what good use Hitler made of it.

More of them like Representative Martin Dies of Texas and Senator Robert Reynolds of North Carolina, bait aliens of all faiths.

"The oversimplified argument that every immigrant who comes into the U. S. A. is an American's rival for employment is the sort of thing politicians most fear. The answer that the amount of immigration from Germany even since the war started is negligible, that most of those admitted have non-competitive skills or learning, that they can make a valuable contribution both economically and culturally to the U. S. A. is too complicated for political usefulness.

"Several studies of immigrants in recent years have shown how unreal the danger of competition from them is. An analysis of 1000 typical cases showed that more than half were women, children or aged persons without occupation. Of the rest 147 were merchants whose new enterprises were opening employment opportunities, 78 were professional men. Out of the whole group, only six were unskilled workers. Recent refugees from Germany and the Low Countries have brought with them whole industries and skills that will supply goods previously imported from Europe.

"Hitler, it may be recalled, did not order his bully boys to break up the shops of blue-eyed Nordics and herd them into ghettos. He did not attack, at least not immediately, the conservative capitalists who operated the industries he needed and later look. The people who had reason to seek refuge were the Jews and the leftists. Representative John Rankin and Senator Reynolds could not be expected to like them. But they probably wouldn't have approved of many of the immigrants who have come to America since the Pilgrims. They might not have approved of their own ancestors, had they known them.

"All these facts about the refugees are well known to the State and Labor Department officials who administer the immigration law. Most of these officials, particularly in the Labor Department, are sympathetic with the organizations trying to help the refugees. Yet pitifully little is done about it. The callousness and, in some cases, the alleged anti-Semitism of State Department bureaucrats, have been blamed for this. More likely, their hesitancy to take bold measures within the law stems from a desire to get along pleasantly with Congressmen."

Palestine Issues 850 Certificates

Immigration to Continue Despite War Obstacles

JERUSALEM. — Indicative of the immigration to Palestine which continues despite wartime obstacles, the government announced this week that 850 new certificates would be issued for the three months ending Sept. 30, of whom about 100 will be non-Jews. An immigrant may bring his wife and minor children under his certificate.

(More than 35,000 Jewish refugees from lands under Nazi domination were settled in Palestine since the outbreak of the war in September, 1939, UPA chairman, Abba Hillel Silver announced.)

The government's action was taken under its recently announced policy of issuing three-month quotas containing limited numbers of entry permits for the duration of the war. According to the administration's policy, difficulties in obtaining transportation, coupled with economic problems in Palestine, make it impossible to issue the six-month detailed immigration schedules which formerly were the practice.

In Albee Film

In her current comedy hit, "Tom, Dick and Harry," now showing at the RKO Albee Theatre, Ginger Rogers is faced with the problem of choosing among three determined swains. The choice is not so easy since she loves them all. Shown above are Ginger and Burgess Meredith. The Albee's co-feature is "Lady Scarface," with Dennis O'Keefe and Judith Anderson. The latest issue of March of Time, "Peace" by Hitler, is also being shown.

Mexico's first exhibition of the products of its inventors will be held in Mexico City.

N. Y. Airport Discriminates On Help, Hour Charges

NEW YORK. — The airlines at LaGuardia Field, major Eastern air terminal named in honor of the militant anti-Nazi mayor of New York, refuse to employ Jews, Italians and negroes, it was charged here by The Hour, anti-Fascist weekly.

Expressing confidence that Mayor LaGuardia was unaware that the airport bearing his name was pursuing "racist policies characteristic of the Third Reich," The Hour disclosed that it had informed the mayor of the discrimination policies in effect at the airport.

The publication charged that "the New York State Employment Service specifies in its Confidential Clearance Sheets that only 'white Christians' are eligible for employment at LaGuardia Airport. This applies even to manual work such as that performed by laborers, attendants, porters, etc.

A recent applicant for a painter's job at the airfield was told, it was reported, "neither Jews nor Italians are wanted." It was believed that an official investigation of the employment practices at the airfield would be quickly launched since the mayor has on several occasions voiced bitter condemnation of discrimination in employment.

of transportation facilities, no further application forms need be filed with the Department of State.

The decision rests with the respective Consuls who are authorized to renew the visas without specific approval by the Department.

This ruling applies only to such cases in which immediate definite booking for trans-Atlantic passage has been made and in which the prospective immigrants are otherwise admissible to the satisfaction of the American Consul. It was emphasized that this ruling does not apply to such cases in which the visas had expired before July 1st, 1941.

Soviet Overrules Red Anti-Zionists

prisoned Zionists might be only the prelude to a legalization of the Zionist movement in Soviet Russia.

The former "Yevseks," it is learned, pointed out to Moscow authorities that inasmuch as Jewish affairs in Soviet Russia had long been under their jurisdiction, the present negotiations should be conducted with their knowledge, if not subject to their approval.

The reply of the Government was direct. Present deliberations, it was emphasized, relate to Soviet foreign policy and not to Jewish affairs. They therefore must fall outside the scope of "Yevsek" influence.

Nazi Propaganda Coins Flood L. I.

JAMAICA, L. I. — The flood of Nazi propaganda coins on Long Island swept up a new brand in a nickel on which the profile of the Indian has been turned into a caricature of a bearded Jew.

Secret Service agents, who are tracking down the Nazi campaigners who have defaced quarters and half dollars with swastikas and anti-Semitic caricatures, again warned that the "artists" face 15 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

While Walter Winchell is on temporary active duty with the U. S. navy his column is being conducted by guest columnists. This week's is written: By 'Believe It Or Not' Ripley.

The first gossip column — the statue of Pasquino, a witty barber, was set up in Rome and contributors pasted satirical and witty comments on its base. Thus columnists were born.

The first war correspondent was George Wilkins Kendall, who reported the Mexican war (1846-47) from the battlefield exclusively for the New Orleans Picayune. By means of a special pony express, he was able to scoop all other papers and the war department as well.

A newspaper printed on cheese was published in Gouda, Holland, about 1840. Since the cheese could be eaten, the Dutch readers were said to be in the habit of "swallowing" anything.

A French newspaper published on a large handkerchief was another curiosity, which did not at all startle Paris in the eighties. It was the origin of the "nosey" press.

Another publisher in Brussels, Belgium, had an idea. He printed his paper on rubber sheets, to enable the ladies to read it while taking a bath.

And the "Blanc sur Noir" white on black was a French innovation reversing the usual order by printing its news in white letters on black paper.

And talking of up-to-date news, the French "La Presse Prophetique" was published for the purpose of giving the news of next year. It was not a success because it was published in hieroglyphics.

When the newspaper business was in its infancy, the reporter was called "an emissary," the editor "a register."

"The Romios" of Athens is a daily paper published in verse.

The co-ordinated German newspapers have recently discarded question marks from their headlines, because one editor of Essen, Germany, was sent to a concentration camp. By mistake the headline "Hindenburg Congratulates Hitler," was provided with a question mark instead of an exclamation point.

Suicides are banned from Turkish newspapers.

When I used a picture of the emperor of Japan in my Believe It or Not cartoon, the Japanese ambassador in Washington made a very urgent telephone call to me. He requested that if a picture of the emperor must be used, then it was of the highest importance that this picture be printed on the front page of the newspaper, because it is a Japanese law that nothing must appear over the Supreme Portrait of the Son of Heaven.

I explained to him as gently as I could that this rule cannot be followed in America. His Excellency thought for a minute, and then he suggested that I place over the cartoon a printed admonition to the American public not to set down any objects — such as drinking glasses, pots and pans, etc., on the picture! He was greatly disappointed when I explained that the American public will not be restrained by any such printed admonition.

The Japanese newspapers carry on their staff a special employee called the "prison editor."

Wins $500 Award

NEW YORK. — Isadore Hamlin, 24 year old son of Isaac Hamlin, national secretary of the National Labor Committee for Palestine, who has been chosen as the first recipient of the $500. Benjamin M. Frankel Memorial Award established by the B'nai B'rith as an annual fellowship to be given to a graduate student who intends to devote himself to Jewish service as a career.

He is paid a salary for taking the rap in case the newspaper is fined or sentenced to jail. In such a case the prison editor (whipping boy) goes to jail without interrupting the even tenor of the newspaper.

The Japanese press law provides jail for the offense of "belly treason" another word for "secret disloyalty" of the paper.

Aglait Illunartort (Pages for Everybody) is the title of the Eskimo newspaper published at Nain, Labrador. It is published in the winter only, because in the summer its readers have no time to read, being busy with seal and fishing.

The oldest newspaper was recently discovered in Ostia, Italy. It was published in 58 B. C., was engraved in wax upon stone and contained the following news items:

(Date) 7 days before the calendars of August (July 24). In the land of Cumo born 30 boys and 40 girls. Harvested 500,000 loads of wheat. Supplied 500 labor steers.

Crucified the slave Mithridates for having blasphemed against the spirits of his Master.

Repaid 10,000,000 sesterces for which there is no need.

The real father of newspapers was Julius Caesar, who instituted the famous "Acta Publica," which ran for six centuries.

And so it is in order that Italy should be the first to modernize her newspaper business by introducing the "push-button press," which brings all Italian newspapers totally under the domination of the Italian Press and Propaganda Ministry.

The Germans copied that system with its minister of propaganda and public enlightenment under the famous Dr. Goebbels.

Norwegian Jews Placed in Camps

STOCKHOLM. — A large number of Norwegian Jews, including both native-born and foreign, have been confined in a concentration camp in the North of Norway, it is reported in the Svenska Dagbladet. It is planned to gradually collect all the 1,359 Jews in Norway and place them in this camp, the report adds. Meanwhile, all Jewish businesses have been taken over by the Norwegian administrators.

The Jews in the concentration camp, which is commanded by a Quislingist officer, are employed on agricultural work. Although the inmates are allowed to live without too much restraint, the discipline is rigid, the Dagbladet states.

Neville Laski Wins Libel Suit Against Anti-Semitic Writer

LONDON. — Neville Laski, K. C., former president of the Jewish Board of Deputies, was awarded £525 damages with costs in a libel suit brought by him against the periodical "Truth" and Henry Newnham, a writer for the magazine. Laski charged that Newnham had imputed that he was a coward and had evaded service in the last war, in an article published in "Truth" last August.

The plaintiff's counsel pointed out that Laski had served with the British forces in the last war in Gallipoli, Sinai and France, until invalided out in 1917, after suffering from shell shock. His brother, Harold Laski, British Labor Party leader, against whom Newnham's article was similarly directed, was rejected for military service by a medical board, Laski's counsel explained.

In awarding damages to Neville Laski, Justice Hawke, who presided at the trial, said the case had a "wicked aspect." Speaking of the obsession against Jews, which was charged to Newnham, Justice Hawke said, "I do not know whether it is a good thing that such a man with obsessions of this kind should be in the journalistic profession." Speaking of Laski, the Justice commented that, "he had made an honorable position for himself."

Metropolitan Opens With Holiday Bill

Reopening for the 1941-42 season, the Metropolitan Theatre will present, starting August 30, for three days, of the holiday week-end, Tommy Reynolds and his orchestra, featuring "Music of Today, in the Style of Tomorrow." Vocalists with the band are Mary Ann McCall and Ralph Young.

On the same bill, the Met will present "The Puerto Rican Tornado." Dioso Costello, recently seen in the films, "They Met In Argentina," and "Too Many Girls." Others on the program will include Frances Faye, Jean Carroll and Buddy Howe.

The first-run screen attraction will be "Country Fair," starring Eddie Foy, Jr., June Clyde and Williams.

Klan Defeated In Legion Election

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — The triumph of liberal forces in the American Legion was seen in the re-election of Isadore Levine as national committeeman in a hotly contested campaign at the annual state meeting.

Mr. Levine, an attorney of LaPorte, has been committeeman since 1935. He was opposed by Robert W. Lyons, an attorney of Indianapolis and Washington, D. C., who was formerly active in the Klan.

The combined pre-war area of France, Germany and Spain was about 2,600 square miles less than the area of Quebec.

Women In The News This Week

BY MARTHA NEUMARK

Orthodox Girl Makes Good
Wherever her father is, he must be gloating with pride as he sees his daughter, Myra Hess, a Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire. One of the great pianists of the world, Myra Hess was awarded the high honor by King George in his recent birthday list.

Once an interviewer asked Miss Hess whether she was of "Jewish extraction." To which she replied that she was much more than that, that she came from an Orthodox home where learning of Hebrew was part of her daily routine as a child. Sadly, she confessed: "I have forgotten it" — and added: "It is impossible for an artist to keep up the Orthodox faith."

Musical Queen

If "Pal Joey" has the S.R.O. sign hanging on the door of New York's Ethel Barrymore Theater many nights, it is not only because of music by Richard Rodgers, lyrics by Lorenz Hart and scenery by Jo Meilziner, Vivienne Segal is a much better reason. Long queen of musical comedy because of her singing gifts, her charm and loveliness, Miss Segal is once again one of the most important performers just west of Broadway.

In the role of "Very Simpson," the middle-aged wife of a baking magnate who lures and then tires of "Pal Joey," Vivienne Segal elicits an enthusiastic ovation every time she finishes a scene and walks off-stage.

Mrs. Morgenthau A Truck Driver
The versatility of Mrs. Henry

Morgenthau, Jr. was revealed the other day when the wife of the Secretary of the Treasury registered in Washington for home defense when the District Defense Council called upon all citizens to indicate what they might do in the "home-front army".

No less laborious a job than that of a truck driver was cited by Mrs. Morgenthau as one of the tasks she would be glad to perform when the country's "unlimited national emergency" takes graver forms. But that wasn't her first choice, however, although she can shift gears, pull brakes, and tinker with a motor with the best of them.

Assistant Civilian Defender

How important a part the women of America will play in the "home-front army" is evident from the new assignment that has come to Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, who has almost as many jobs as Mayor La Guardia, to whom she is now Assistant National Director of Civilian Defense.

This typical New Yorker, with her warming smile, brisk manner and attractive face and personality, is helping to plan how cities can be evacuated, fires put out, communal feeding speeded and other tasks performed that are today the daily routine of England.

Despite a multiplicity of activities she manages to take care of her home, her husband and her son. Though Anna is in her latter thirties, she has retained all the good looks which made her a heart-breaker at 25.

Ladies Aid Ass'n Re-Opening Season

The Ladies Hebrew Union Aid Association will resume its activities once more, when it meets on Wednesday afternoon, September 10, 2 o'clock, at 191 Orms street.

A speaker will feature the program, and several reports will be given. Mrs. Albert Cohen, president, who will preside, has urged all members to be present.

Threats Fail To Obtain Gas

MONTICELLO, N. Y. — Two men threatened station operator Isadore Greenwald with a rifle when he refused to sell them gas. Undaunted, Greenwald seized the gun. Examination proved it unloaded.

"You shouldn't do things like that," warned Greenwald, "Here, take your gun and go."

PLAN FALL AFFAIR

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

She's young in her spirit and heart
She's wise in her manner and mind . . .
The college girl is a definite part
Of the "outside" world she leaves behind . . .

It's a different world . . . The modern college girl hopes to leave the beloved ivied halls, not only a Bachelor of Arts, but a Citizen of the World . . . She's more wordly, more serious, more concerned with what's going on outside her snug little world — the campus . . . She's a joy to have around in circles where well-informed, intelligent folk meet . . . She puts in her two cents worth, and it always makes sense . . .

Her appearance? . . . Fresh, clean-faced, clear eyed, supple bodied . . . well-groomed, shorter hair . . . Unlacquered or lighter-lacquered finger-nails . . . Lipstick, the only make-up she sanctions . . .

However, when it comes to her clothes — she's as wacky as ever . . . She favors the classics, of course, but always keeps her weather eye peeled for something new and different . . .

This year's crop of classics, as always, includes knee-deep sweaters, of English handknitting yarns . . . They're long as all get-out, but are woven so they don't lose all signs of original shape . . . Imported from England, as if that country were not at war, they're a tribute to British pluck . . . Hound's tooth jackets and skirts with wide pleats are right up in front . . . She's mad about plaids, with the reds, blues, yellows and greens . . .

She'll dote on corduroy pinafores and jumpers . . . She'll wear grey flannel slacks on campus, and if she's at a southern school of knowledge she'll be allowed to run wild in long shorts . . . Soft, leathery moccasins have definitely replaced sloppy saddle shoes in her favor . . . And for dress, she's inclined toward lower heels . . .

For informal afternoon dates, she adores soft rabbit's wool frocks, with the classic neckline, and three-quarter length sleeves . . . Still remaining on the conservative side, she can choose a dream of a dress in simple soft black satin . . . For dances, she chooses traditional gowns in the bouffant manner, with a basque look to them . . .

If she's a pace-setter, and a bit on the merry side, right at this moment she's probably thinking up new ideas — for the edification of fashion mag editors . . .

Her disciples will be delighted when she appears sporting a saucy Eton cap . . . Or when she affects plaid cottons shirts . . . Or when she says, "All God's children got pearls — and so've I, even if they're not honest-to-gosh real ones" . . . And then she pulls them out of her drawer, revealing their two-yard length — and then she loops them twice over her head — and so a style is born . . .

She'll love the absurdly long, boldly striped stocking cap, with a tassel to her waist . . . And, then, all of a sudden one day she'll appear in a cap, that has two long braids also hanging down to her waist . . . Some night you may see her at the dorm window, praying like an Indian maid for rain . . . The next day, (if it rains) you'll know why . . . There she is in a stunning gabardine rain coat, bound along the collar, lapels and all down the front, in navy . . . And on her locks, a regulation army overseas cap, also bound in navy . . .

With a bright plaid suit, the background of which is white, she'll wear a canary yellow vest of flannel, and white knee high socks . . . Her sweaters will have V-necks (for Victory) like Bill Tilden's or Fred Perry's best golf sweaters . . . Some of her things will have the rough rider influence . . .

For evening, she may choose something slinky and draped in sophisticated gold silk jersey . . . She's no gaga girl, no sir, but who's to deny she's as individual as her fingerprints? . . .

Anti-Jewish Laws In Syria Revoked by De Gaulle

Decision First Act Of New Regime

Most of Vichy Rulings Declared Null and Void

NEW YORK. — One of the first acts of General Charles de Gaulle, commander-in-chief of the Free French forces, upon taking over the administration of Syria and Lebanon, French-mandated territories, was to declare the anti-Jewish laws imposed by the Vichy Government officials null and void, according to information received here by the Free French delegation.

The Nazi-controlled French Government at Vichy had extended the anti-Jewish laws to Syria and Lebanon but capture of these French mandates by the combined British and Free French forces has resulted in their revocation.

The announcement made public by the Free French delegation here stated: "A message from General de Gaulle from Syria notifies the Free French delegation in the United States that the anti-Semitic and racial laws promulgated by Vichy are considered null and void by the Free French in Syria and Lebanon. The Free French only apply those laws which have been enacted before the 18th of June, 1940, together with the new ordinances of the Chief of the Free French forces."

Phone Operator Wins High Praise

LONDON. — A Jewish telephone operator, Rose Gutzman, was at her post in a Russian city when German troops reached the town. Keeping track by wire of the movements of the invaders, she directed Soviet resistance from her switchboard.

The story of Rose Gutzman is one of many being recorded by the Soviet press, which speaks highly of the exploits of Jews in combatting the Nazis both in the armed forces and in guerrilla fighting. A Jewish divisional commander, Jacob Kreitzer, has been praised for his bravery by Russian newspapers, which also report that the Jewish boxing champion Stern has been awarded a medal of the Red Star for gallantry in action.

Informality Prevails At Triple Lake

Anne Barash, director of Triple Lake Ranch, of Succasunna, near Dover, N. J., has offered the following observations on the trend away from the orthodox and usual in vacations and weekends:

"The popularity of the house party vacation and weekend," she says, "is spreading and justifiably so. The informality and gaiety which develops at a resort whose accommodations are limited to a hundred people, is not achieved at larger resorts.

"Triple Lake Ranch offers the spirit and romance of a Western house party and fiesta. This friendliness is in no small way enhanced by its famed Cowboy Band, "The Rodeo Ramblers," whose singing, swinging numbers excite the assembled "dudes" to dance.

MILLIONS FOR PALESTINE

JERUSALEM. — Under the will of the late Mrs. Pauline Warburg of Stockholm the income of one million kronen out of her three-million-kronen estate has been set aside for institutions in Palestine and other non-European countries which enable Jewish refugees to make a fresh start in life.

Refugee Sisters Re-united

Two refugee sisters, separated for more than two and a half years, were reunited recently when a little girl bearing the tag number, "6", reached these shores from Lisbon. Refugees arrived in the United States receive adjustment and integration assistance from the National Refugee Service.

To Sell Defense Savings Stamps in Retail Stores

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Defense Savings Stamps soon will be on sale in retail stores throughout the country.

Secretary Morgenthau announced the extension of Defense Savings Stamps sales to retail outlets everywhere after a meeting at the Treasury Department when executives of associates representing more than a million stores

At the meeting the retailers endorsed full participation in "Retailers for Defense" Week, September 15 to 20, when the stores of every state will concentrate their efforts to enlist customers to buy Defense Savings Stamps. Before that time, most stores from coast to coast are expected to have Defense Stamps on sale.

Numerous Jews Employed in Vatican

NEW YORK. — Word has reached here that a large number of Jewish scholars and scientists in Italy ousted by Mussolini have been given jobs in Vatican City.

Many of them are now engaged in important research activities in the laboratories and libraries of the Vatican through special appointment by the Pope.

CHARGED WITH SABOTAGE

GENEVA. — Imprisonment for from two to eight months was the term meted out to 240 Jews in Budapest who were arrested and charged with sabotaging blackout orders.

Beats the Draft— Enlists in Canada

OTTAWA. — When the Third Canadian Division arrived safely at a British port, as another sizable addition to British forces guarding the home front, on board ship was Gunner W. R. Goldfein of the Bronx, New York, who had enlisted at Montreal five months ago.

"My number was due to come up," Gunner Goldfein told reporters as the convoy left for England, "and this is one way to beat the draft."

Wounded Soldier Saves Australians

Jumps into Sea at Tobruk to Make Rescue

LONDON. — How a wounded Jewish soldier jumped into a rough sea to rescue a wounded Australian comrade is described here. Although the name of the soldier is not given in the report, his heroism is the stuff of which legends are created.

The Jewish soldier was one of several hundred wounded on a ship that foundered at Tobruk. Several of them were flung overboard as the ship sank. The Palestinian, jumped into the water and grabbed a drowning Australian soldier, dragging him back to the ship despite the tremendous waves which made rescue difficult. The Palestinian almost lost his own life in the rescue of his comrade.

HONOR WILLIAM ZIFF

WASHINGTON. — The International League of Aviators has voted an honor diploma to William B. Ziff, Chicago publisher of aviation magazines, for his contribution to popularization of flying knowledge. Mr. Ziff was at one time a leader of the Revisionist-Zionists in the U. S.

Curious at Shots, Girl is Wounded

BELLEVILLE, Ill. — Next time 15-year-old Virginia Feltman of O'Fallon, Ill., hears sounds that apparently are rifle shots, she'll stay away from the window.

She was awakened early one day by rifle reports and as she walked to the window one of the slugs crashed through the glass, shattered, and struck her in the year. The pellets flattened out when they struck her head. She was not seriously injured.
