In Hibernation

With America settling down to work in the war of production and defense, subversive group organizers are emerging from their holes to which they had been driven in the first flush of patriotism following the declaration of war.

America First leaders held their first secret meeting in New York last week. Pamphlets were distributed on "the Jews," "that man," "those British" and "What are we going to do about it." In a previous organization gathering, when Charles Lindbergh was guest of honor, the Lone Eagle is reported to have said, "Germany was the natural bulwark against the threat of Communism and the yellow race in Europe."

And more recently, the Hour, anti-Fascist magazine, revealed that the Christian Front had been given orders to enter every patriotic organization in America. In the Civilian Defense organization Christian Fronters are boasting they have found the ideal war-time vehicle for propaganda purposes.

In most communities this danger is negligible. In Brooklyn, however, there is fertile ground. There large numbers of Christian Front stormtroopers, notorious in the past for their collaboration with the German-American Bund and other Nazi agencies, have followed the suggestions of Coughlin's Social Justice magazine, and joined that city's defense groups.

Similarly, prominent individuals, who, prior to the outbreak of war, were outspoken Fascists or anti-Semitic, are permitted to lead communal drives on behalf of this country's war effort. From these groups come the Quislings when the going is rough.

Men like Lawrence Dennis, John Geis, Edwin S. Webster, Jr., don't change their spots. In most instances they find it convenient to camouflage them until the time is ripe for action.

Ain't It the Truth

"A man who is holding up construction of a bomber or a tank because he refuses to hire a Jew or a Negro is just as much a saboteur as a man who throws a monkey wrench into the machinery," it was stated by Eugene Davidson, field representative of President Roosevelt's Committee on Fair Employment Practice. The Committee appealed to organizations and individuals to report cases of racial or religious discrimination in defense employment.

Jews and Japan

Japanese moves against the Jews, not only in controlled countries but in Japan, are motivated by the totalitarian pattern which the land of the setting sun has copied, lock, stock and barrel, from the Nazis.

In Harbin, Japanese authorities staged an anti-Jewish demonstration. Leaflets were distributed demanding the expulsion of all Jews from Manchukuo and the confiscation of Jewish property. In Shanghai, all Jewish residents have been ordered to register with the police. At the request of the Gestapo refugees, Jews or otherwise wanted by the secret Nazi police, were turned over to Himmler's henchman for extradition to death. All funds of Jewish relief organizations have been confiscated.

LEIB JAFFE

Local Zionists Meet on Sunday

Providence Zionist District will meet on Sunday night, 8 o'clock at the Biltmore Hotel, at which time Mr. Jaffe one of the earliest Zionists in Russia, will appear as guest speaker.

While still at school, Mr. Jaffe worked closely for many years with the late Theodore Herzl. He was a member of the First Central Committee of the Russian Organization, held an important place in the literary, cultural and organization work of the Zionist movement in Russia, and served as president of Moscow Zionists.

In 1920 he immigrated to Palestine, where he edited a daily paper. Since 1926, he has been the managing director of the Keren Hayesod office in Jerusalem.

Ask Ford to Halt Misuse of Name

Claim KKK Material Bears Magnate's Name

NEW YORK. — Although praising Henry Ford's recent repudiation of anti-Semitism, Leon M. Birkhead, national director of Friends of Democracy, asked the auto magnate to take legal steps to prevent the further use of his name on anti-Semitic literature, including "The International Jew," a Ford publication.

In a telegram to Mr. Ford, who condemned anti-Semitism in a letter to the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith Birkhead (Continued on Page 2)

DR. CHAIM WEIZMANN

Arabs Will Profit In British Victory

But Jews Must Be Encouraged to Settle

NEW YORK. — Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of the Jewish Agency for Palestine and of the World Zionist Organization, outlined the Zionist post-war demands for a Jewish State in Palestine, in an article in the January issue of Foreign Affairs.

"The Arabs," Dr. Weizmann stated, "will greatly profit from a British victory by obtaining independence in Syria and Libya, and as large a measure of national unity as they are capable of achieving. On the other hand, it is essential to obtain such a settlement in Palestine as will help to solve the Jewish problem — one of the most disturbing problems in the world."

"The Arabs must, therefore, be clearly told that the Jews will be encouraged to settle in Palestine, and will control their own immigration; that here Jews who so desire will be able to achieve their freedom and self-government by establishing a state of their own, and ceasing to be a minority dependent on the will and pleasure of other nations."

In that state, there will be complete civil and political equality (Continued on Page 2)

American First Members Meet Secretly in New York Harbor.

NEW YORK. — In the first of a series of meetings, some 65 American Firsters gathered here last week, to make arrangements for the continuation of the organization under another name and front, it was revealed this week by the newspaper PM.

Officially the America First Committee was disbanded by its national governing board on December 9, two days after Pearl Harbor. John Geis of Hampstead, L. I., notorious anti-Semite, moved from guest to guest displaying a pamphlet. After one guest read it, he carried it to the next one. "We didn't see the pamphlet," the PM reporters said, "but someone who did told us it said the Jews were the cause of the war; the Jews were the war's biggest profiteers."

The guests talked of "those damned Jews," "that man," "those British," "the Reds" and "what are we going to do about it."

Mrs. Catherine Larkin, America First outdoor speaker and a Christian Front supporter from Brooklyn, was there. She was (Continued on Page 2)

Boston Groups to Organize School-Time Religious Study

BOSTON. — A special committee comprising representatives of the Boston public school system and various religious groups is to be organized shortly to work out a definite program for week-day religious instruction of Boston children on school time.

No opposition to the basic idea of such instruction was expressed at the Boston School Committee's hearing last week attended by representatives of Roman Catholic, Jewish, Protestant, and Christian Science churches.

With all four religious groups, as well as the School Committee, approving the general idea of providing week-day religious instruction under church auspices for Boston public school children, the major question was what specific procedure could be agreed upon for launching the plan.

At the hearing unanimous sentiment seemed in favor of moving slowly in establishing a program, so that administrative problems could be ironed out smoothly.

A question facing the new interdenominational committee is whether to dismiss all school children at a single given hour each week or whether to release different classes at staggered hours during the week.

The Jewish delegation at last night's hearing seemed to favor the dismissal plan. The Protestant group advocated staggering the hours so that a corps of teachers could be organized by the churches to teach on a full-time basis.

No child would be enrolled in the courses without approval of parents.

RAID OFFICES

VICHY. — The Gestapo has raided all Kehilla Buildings in Berlin, Vienna and Prague, closed their emigration departments and confiscated all funds.

Prisoners Edit Anti-Nazi Paper

LONDON. — A new twist in Russian propaganda is revealed by news here that German war prisoners in the U. S. S. R. have started an anti-Hitler, anti-Nazi paper which condemns the anti-Semitic racial laws of the Third Reich.

Announced by the Moscow radio, the news broadcaster told of the anti Nazi movement among German war captives. He stated that the newspaper, called Des Freie Wort (The Free Word) is but one of the many propaganda weapons of the German prisoners.

Zionist Donates Silk Stock to U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — In an effort to "translate patriotic enthusiasm into practical action," Boris Margolin, prominent Zionist of New York, who heads the Tioga Silk Company in that city, in a letter to President Roosevelt, donated as a gift to the United States Government their entire stock of Japanese raw silk sufficient to make 10,000 yards of parachute cloth, the headquarters of the Zionist Organization of America announced here. In addition, the firm offered without charge to weave and process the silk into parachute fabric.

The offer was accepted in behalf of the President by Mr. Douglas C. MacKeachie, Director of Purchases of the OPM, who expressed the appreciation of the United States Government of the "loyalty and patriotism manifested by your offer."

Queen Wilhelmina Host to Refugees

Moe Berg, Major Leaguer, Made Good Will Ambassador

NEW YORK.—Moe Berg, baseball player, has been appointed good will ambassador to Central and South America, and his traits make him an ideal choice for his new job. There's something about him that commands respect.

Berg is a tall, well-set-up, handsome citizen, very conservative in dress. In fact, he always looks the same, explained by the fact that all his clothes are cut to the same pattern, and of the same material. It is said that when he went to Florida for training he methodically changed from black shoes to white before leaving the train — which was his only concession to the Florida climate.

He speaks very softly out of the corner of his mouth, barely moving his lips, and gives the impression that everything he says is very confidential. He stands very straight and moves his head very little, substituting oblique glances with his eyes. Although never a star, he has managed to stay in the major leagues in one capacity or another since 1926. He never could hit a lick, but is rated a smart catcher, and in 1932-33 and 34 set a league record of 117 errorless games. He loves baseball, but never did believe in overwork and was inclined to become downright exasperated when he believed he was being forced into unnecessary labor.

You can not only repudiate the anti-Semitic articles which bear your name, but you can take legal steps to stop their publication and distribution. For those articles, which are still being published here and in many other lands under the title of 'The International Jew,' constitute one of the most powerful pieces of all anti-Semitic propaganda. In fact, this book is currently being issued by the Ku Klux Klan in the form of a series of pamphlets with your name on the cover."

"Considering the strategic and economic importance of Palestine, the inclusion of the Jewish state within the British Commonwealth of Nations would be to the interest of both. But we should also be ready if necessary, to consider joining, under proper safeguards, in federation with Arab states."

WHEN IT'S RED IT'S READING

HATING FATE:

The President of the United States has announced a completed objective. It is: The United Nations. Twenty-six nations have united to win a war and to keep the peace that follows war. What the nations refused to learn from concentration camps and torture chambers of one continent, they have learned on the bitter battlefields of all.

Dictators fight for power; diplomats for prestige; and militarists for victory. But the Common People always fight for peace. Not an armistice between nations, but peace of soul between men.

That is why the present struggle is a total world war, because the dictators' New Order is a campaign against world conscience. The panzer attacks to break a military line are less important than the propaganda efforts to tear the fabric of law and order. The Common People today are fighting for their stake in law and order.

Men from all over the world are fighting side by side for their countries. Because they want to live in dignity side by side for their God. And when final victory comes, it will be the job of the diplomats not only to bring peace to nations—but peace to men.

For the Common People of the world are awake. The enemy is out in the open. They know there is nothing to hate—but HATE!

INNOCENT BYSTANDER:

Judge Joseph Guthrie, of Kansas City, tells the one about the show that came to town and was pretty bad. The audience almost to a man groaned and grumbled most of the evening.

Except, that is, one spectator, who just kept staring at the stage. His neighbor who kept growling, "This is awful," finally turned to him and said: "You haven't anything to say — what do you think about it?"

"I am here on a free seat," was the dry reply, "but if this thing gets any worse—I am going to buy a ticket and raise hell."

Newman, financial secretary; Mrs. D. Rubin, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Carl Michaelson, assistant corresponding secretary.

A social hour followed the business session, with Mrs. David Rubin, hospitality chairman, and her committee, in charge.

Jessie Boyce Landis, star of "Papa Is All," the Theatre Guild comedy about the Pennsylvania Dutch, had to spend a great deal of time around Lancaster learning dialect, customs, etc. She passes along this legend, typical of the people there. To appreciate it even more, she says the Dutch rarely keep money in banks. They usually hide it around the house or in the barn.

Anyway, this concerns an elderly pair who arrived at a real estate office before April 1 — They were buying a farm, the price of which was $17,000.

"I guess," Mama said blandly, "we must have brought the wrong stocking."

Archie Smith Named As Temporary President

A Providence Chapter of the Mizrachi Organization of America was organized last Saturday night at the Sons of Jacob Synagogue, with the election of the following temporary officers: Archie Smith, president; Nathan Gordon, vice-president; Getzel Zaidman, secretary; Philip Abraams, treasurer; Rabbi Morris G. Silk and Rabbi Carol Klein, honorary chairmen.

Gedalia Bublick, honorary president of the National Organization, addressing the meeting, set forth the Mizrachi as an organization seeking redemption of Israel. Mr. Bublick pointed out that Orthodox Jewry, in the past "has not adequately supported the Jewish National Movement, and that Mizrachi offers the medium through which they may participate in the Zionist movement without compromising their traditional ideology." He further stressed the necessity of building a strong Jewish Agency through the three branches of Zionism—Poale Zion, Mizrachi and General Zionists.

Rabbi Klein, Rabbi Silk and Mr. Smith were named delegates to attend the Congress for the Sabbath to be held at the Pennsylvania Hotel in New York City on February 8 and 9.

Y., became the bride of Louis Trutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Trutt of this city, last Saturday night at a midnight ceremony performed in the Brooklyn Jewish Center, Brooklyn, N. Y., by Rabbi S. Levinthal. The altar was banked with fir trees and palms, while the canopy was fashioned of white snapdragons and seasonal blossoms. A reception preceded the ceremony, while dinner and dancing followed.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride was attractively dressed in a gown of heavy white faille, en train, cut with a full skirt, leg o'mutton sleeves, and a sheer yoke. Bowknots were used on the bodice and skirt of the gown. Her long bridal veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a white Bible, adorned with white bouvardia.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Shirley Mishler of New York, who was dressed in bouffant gown of pink net, with a pink lace bodice. Her pompadour headdress was styled of pink feathers and net, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids included Miss Harriet Siegel, sister of the bride, Mrs. Samuel H. Decorations throughout the Ballroom were of southern smilax, woodwardia fern and palms, and tall baskets of seasonal white blooms. During the ceremony, Mrs. Benjamin Hurwitz sang "Because," and "I Love You Truly." Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a Princess gown of ivory slipper satin, en train, designed with long light-fitting sleeves, and a square neckline edged in satin rose petals and seed pearls. Her headdress, fashioned in the coronet manner, was of orange blossoms and from it fell a long veil of ivory tulle. She carried a white Bible, adorned with white orchids and bouvardia.

Mrs. Aaron J. Oster, sister of the bridegroom, was in attendance as matron of honor. She wore a fitted frock of powder blue Chantilly lace and tulle, and a Dutch cap of matching lace. She carried a spray of orchids.

The Misses Shirley and Ethel Feldman, sisters of the bride, were maids of honor, the former wearing a Grecian gown of royal blue and gold, and carrying an arm bouquet of Spring flowers, and the latter dressed in a simple frock of aqua and carrying a Colonial bouquet. Judith Oster, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, wearing a dress of pink taffeta and tulle, a floral coronet, and carrying a basket of rose petals.

Arnie Leach attended his brother as best man, and the usher corps comprised the Messrs. Jacob Alprin, Irving Goldman, Irving Leach, Frank, Harry and Julius Licht, Sidney Nulman, Samuel Solinger and Harold Weinstein, all of this city, Al Clamen and Larry Goldstein of Ontario and Ralph Ostrofsky of Boston.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of black Chantilly lace and marquisette, contrasted by an orchid corsage. The mother of the bride wore a gown of steel blue romaine crepe, with a bodice of silver embroidery, applied in the leaf motif. She also had an orchid corsage.

About 325 guests were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach are now on a wedding sojourn to Florida, and upon returning will take up residence on Warrington street.

Honor Bride-Elect

For a WOMAN'S fancy

BY EDYTHE JAY

For a "winterlude" that's gay

Go where the snow will stay . . .

Snow and its concomitant sports assume a greater importance this winter because of the trend toward shorter and more frequent vacations, pressured by the war . . . And snow centers are prepared to handle the increasing numbers who are learning not to run away from the white petals that make their way down from way up above. . . .

Skiing, to be sure, cannot be learned in a day or week . . . Those pictures seen in the movies of championship skiers may turn you envious, or may turn you away from the sport with a snap decision that you'd never be able to do it, and that you'd probably perform like Melvyn Douglas in the Garbo-Garbo film . . . Don't believe it . . . There's fun even in learning to ski on gentle slopes and your chest will swell with satisfaction as you begin to tackle steeper grades . . .

However, even if you don't know a gelande-sprung from a slalom gate, it's still fun and a thrill to watch a ski competition . . . To do it, of course, you've got to travel . . . The hickory-shod athletes seldom venture into the cities . . . And when you travel to the ski country, you'll discover a bountiful land of entertainment, as well as sport . . .

Skiers are hearty folk who like to cram their competitive week-ends with rounds of pleasant diversion, and there's always a welcome sign hung out for all . . . Hospitality is the watchword of the snowlands . . . There's nothing so spontaneous in devil-may-care gaiety as the skiers' ball at the big tournament, with the open fireplace roaring in the largest barn in the village, and songs to weld the bonds of friendship. Tobogganing continues to be a sport which furnishes thrills galore in a 40 or 50 miles an hour dash down a smooth run . . . For those who remember the good old days and love them, there are moonlight rides through white forests in an old-fashioned sleigh . . . And of course, there's skating, more popular than ever, and dog-sledding and ski-joring—riding on skis behind a spirited horse . . . And then, too, there's fishng through the ice . . . You'll find a pal to go along no matter what you choose . . . Skiers, first of all, learn to be companionable—it's the secret that keeps them carefree and healthy and enthusiastic . . .

Ski jumping, perhaps, provides the biggest thrill . . . The aerial skiers quit terra firma in sensational style and travel 200 to 250 feet in the air on large hills . . . Leaping shows are plentiful in the East . . .

The slalom is a picturesque event, which may be witnessed in toto from one vantage spot . . . It's held on a cleared hillside, with the competitors required to combine delicate control with speed, as they run downhill between beflagged poles that outline the zigzag course . . .

There's topnotch snow skirmishing all across the northern part of our nation this year . . . There's a crisp tang in the air up there and lots to see and do . . . The sunny, rolling snow-capped hills are there beckoning you, and hope to bid you welcome to a healthy brown ski-tan, to keep you fit and to build your strength and stamina . . . (Footnote: As we live and breathe—this sounds like a travelogue . . .)

Scene Around Town

BY HENRY DAVIS

The veneer of politeness and cooperation was ripped off last Monday nite at a meeting of the Community Council Group . . . The session adjourned after midnight in an uproar, leaving matters still unsettled . . . It's about time the Jewish community was informed of the goings-on, since they will be the ones affected by the final decision . . . We were notified this week that Mrs. Archibald Silverman was named honorary vice-president of the United Palestine Appeal, and also she and Mr. Silverman were elected members of the Administrative Committee by the 1200 delegates at the Convention . . . Soon, local theatres will be carrying a movie short of Walt Disney's Donald Duck, who will, in his inimitable dialect, give a little lecture on patriotism, to try to get across the thought that tax-paying in a democracy is a privilege rather than a burden . . . And here's a motto for defense workers: "A man who relaxes can't pay his taxes and is helping the Axis" . . .

Here are a few odd items of army news, all concerning new candidates for the Air Corps . . . Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Kouffman entertained this week for the doctor's brother, Maurice, who has successfully passed his examination for Aviation Cadet, and is now en route for training at Kelley Field, Texas . . . Harry Schlossberg, son of the Joe Schlossbergs, left last Saturday for Air Corps training at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., while Harvey Salk and Harold Goldenberg will be stationed in Alabama . . . Dave Hassenfeld is in the Army Ordnance Department in Boston . . . The Harold Cohens held open house last Sunday nite to honor their daughter, Arline Marcia, on her very first birthday . . . The Wallace Eakers are the proud parents of a daughter born this week at Miriam Hospital . . . Max Charren this week-end will leave for Miami Beach . . . Fay Winograd and Leslie Rosner were quietly married last Saturday nite . . . Irving Abrams flew back from Chicago this week, after attending a food convention there . . .

Rosenfeld Will Benefits Beth-El

Dedicates Fund for Educational Purpose

Under the will of the late John J. Rosenfeld, filed this week in Providence Probate Court, funds from the residue of his estimated $100,000 personal estate are left to the Congregation Sons of Israel and David (Temple Beth El) for educational purposes.

The money is left for the express purpose of erecting a building which will advance the educational purposes of the congregation and serve as a lecture room, Sabbath school and for similar purposes.

The building, to be known as the Rosenfeld Memorial, will bear a bronze plaque inscribed: "This building given by John J. Rosenfeld in memory of his mother, Anna Rosenfeld, and his wife, Elizabeth Mary Rosenfeld."

To the R. I. Hospital Mr. Rosenfeld left $20,000 to found four free memorial beds, two of which are to be known as the Anna Rosenfeld beds in memory of his mother and two to be known as the Elizabeth Mary Rosenfeld Beds in memory of his wife.

Some of America's new medium sized tanks have hulls of cast steel, with no rivets in the superstructure.

O. HECKWITH HUNTING plays a memory game with the telephone. Guesses again if he gets the wrong party. Knows that when he mixes things up an operator will cut in and set him right. Part of her job, isn't it? She gets paid, doesn't she? Well, then—!

Heckwith is hereby informed that telephone users make 117,544 calling errors every 24 hours in the New England area this company serves. It takes 21 seconds to correct each error, on the average. That's 2,468,424 seconds . . . 41,140 minutes . . . 685 hours needlessly used up every day. Enough operator-time and switchboard-time to serve an entire city the size of Manchester, N. H. And your telephone company faces a shortage of equipment due to priorities!

Moral: Use the telephone directory — call numbers carefully — save vital time for vital activities.
