

The War This Week

Ship Building

The White House reported the nation's vast cargo ship construction program is on schedule and "the American people can be assured that the shipyards will do the job assigned to them."

Cost Of Living

The Office of Price Administration said the general ceiling on retail prices, now in effect, is expected to cut the cost of living by 1½ percent. Price Administrator Henderson said the American standard of living will be reduced to the depression-bottom level by the end of 1943. Civilian purchasing power will be about three times the 1932 figure while available consumer goods will decrease 24 percent during 1942.

Civilian Supply

The WPB notified stove manufacturers whose sales for the year ended June 30, 1941, totaled more than two million, as well as those in any of 39 "labor shortage areas," that they cannot produce domestic cooking and heating stoves after July 31. New installations of air conditioning and commercial refrigeration equipment were banned, except for war and essential civilian requirements. Anti-freeze production was limited to 50 percent of 1941 output. Manufacture of colored sheets must cease July 1.

The Armed Forces

President Roosevelt said American forces are getting into the world fight more and more, and in new places all of the time. He said the increasingly far flung fight calls for increasing numbers of transport planes to enable the Army and Navy to get to the rapidly expanding battlefronts. The War Department said a substantial proportion of available flight equipment of domestic airlines will be transferred outright to the Army Air Forces. The air-

Hoarding

A news dispatch tells of a man who registered for a sugar ration book and reported that he had 15,000 pounds of sugar in his possession. When questioned, he said that he had feared a shortage two years ago and had been accumulating his gigantic stock ever since.

That is a particularly glaring example of the kind of action that, if widely followed even on a small scale, will make an extreme extension of rationing inevitable. In other words, hoarding makes scarcities—and scarcities, in turn, make iron-handed government control unavoidable. Some authorities have said that there would be no need for sugar rationing at this time had not purchases by the public increased to an abnormal level.

American merchants have been fighting hoarding. They have been urging the public to buy normally, and to pay no attention to wild rumors which say that practically everything we need will soon be unobtainable. That advice is 100 per cent worth while. If all of us follow it, there will be far fewer shortages, and rationing can be held to the minimum.

Shevuos

In a day of doubt and confusion, of the loss of faith, and the denial of virtues and ideals, the Jewish Festival of Shevuos, or the Feast of Weeks, which Jews will celebrate on May 22, will be especially significant. It commemorates the rededication of the Jewish people to their faith and their religious ideals.

Originating as a festival marking the end of the grain harvest, it developed after the fall of the Temple, in the year 70 of the Common Era, into a commemoration of the Giving of the Law. The Books of Exodus records the giving of the tablets of the Law to Moses on Mount Sinai as occurring early in the Hebrew month of Sivan.

Shevuos is called the "Feast of Weeks" because it falls seven weeks (a week of weeks) after Passover which marked the beginning of the harvest season.

Want Delegates At Peace Table

Ask Recognition of Jewish Status

CHICAGO — A request that accredited representatives of the Jewish people be permitted to participate at the coming peace table in all matters affecting Jewish interests was made last week-end in a resolution adopted by the war emergency session of the American Jewish Congress.

The resolution, offered by Louis Lipsky of New York, urged that the United Nations recognize the international status of the Jewish

N. Y. Paper Errs; Mixes Jews, Japs

NEW YORK — The liberal "New York Herald-Tribune," almost had a hemorrhage last week—as did Leon Henderson—when a news story purporting to quote the price administrator said that Henderson had suggested the public blame "the Germans and the Jews" for wartime restrictions on civilian life. Before many copies had been printed the error had been caught and apologies were rushed to Washington—and the next day, in a prominent box, the "Tribune" explained that the word was "Japs," of course.

Serious Allegations Made Against U. S. Lisbon Consuls

NEW YORK — Deliberate anti-Semitism on the part of American consuls in Lisbon and callous disregard of the consuls for the dire straits of Jews are charged by Varian Fry American representative of the Emergency Rescue Committee in Marseilles, who was expelled from Vichy, France, last September.

In an article in the May 2 issue of The Nation, Mr. Fry gives incidents to sustain his allegations. In the article, called "Our Consuls at Work," he writes of a German rabbi who was told by the U. S.

representative that his visa had expired a day sooner than it actually had. "The poor rabbi had to watch the Excambion sail without him ... It was another three months before his visa was renewed."

Mr. Fry also tells this story: "One of the consuls who turned up a particularly virulent case of anti-Semitism at the embassy. She was having a conversation with one of the secretaries. 'I hope you're not helping Jews get into the United States,' he said.

"What would you do with them?" she asked.

"He hunched his shoulders in the position of a man holding a sub-machine-gun.

"Ptt-ptt-ptt-ptt," he said."

Feuchtwanger Hits U. S. Alien Laws

NEW YORK — Lion Feuchtwanger, noted German-Jewish author who escaped from a French concentration camp and arrived in this country a short time ago, has bitterly attacked the "enemy alien" regulations which do not differentiate between real enemy aliens and aliens who are staunch allies of democracy.

Six Gold Bars Value $18,900 Get N. Y. Man Into Trouble

NEW YORK — What would you do if you had six gold bars valued at $18,900 and realized it was against the law, since 1933, for a private individual to possess the precious metal? Well, that's what bothered Isadore Levy, of this city, and the Secret Service are asking him to explain. Levy was arrested this week

Hospital President Issues Statement

A Federal grant of $197,000 for the erection of additional units to the Miriam Hospital was announced this week by Max L. Grant, president of the hospital.

In revealing the appropriation, Mr. Grant said, "The dream of a hospital under Jewish auspices ranking with the finest institutions in the land, giving service to Jew and non-Jew is about to become a reality with the contribution of the magnificent sum of $197,000 from the United States Government to the Miriam Hospital.

"Naturally this grant from Washington," continued Mr. Grant, "is conditioned upon the community's raising a certain amount of money. There are details to be completed and I am not in a position to make as full a statement as I hope to give after scheduled conferences are completed.

"I can at this time proudly say that the money given to us by the United States was only so given after a most thorough survey and investigation on the part of the government agencies in the medical, engineering and social fields.

"As much as I appreciate this tremendous sum of money which will help in the humanitarian effort that the Miriam Hospital is engaged in, I appreciate still more the significance of the endorsement of the work of the Miriam

Everybody's War

This is everybody's war—and everybody must help finance it. That is the gist of a recent statement by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in which he pointed out to the need for increased purchases by individuals of United States Savings Bonds.

During the next year, said the Secretary, the nation will probably have to borrow upwards of $35,000,000,000. And then he made this pertinent observation: "If the government is compelled to go to the commercial banks for the bulk of these funds, the result will be to increase inflationary tendencies which are already serious...."

"When bonds are purchased with savings out of current income, on the other hand, such savings help to reduce excess consumer income which, if spent for a limited supply of consumer goods, would tend to force prices up. It is for this reason, among others, that we are going directly to the people for as much as possible of the money needed for the war."

The banks cannot do it all—and in the interest of a sound national economy they should not do it all even if they could. It is the plain duty of everyone, out of self-interest if for no other reason, to put every possible dollar into the bonds which pay for fighting our enemies.

Mr. Morgenthau recommends a wide extension of the payroll savings plan for bond purchasing. Under it, you simply allot a definite part of your salary for bonds, precisely as you budget for food, taxes and everything else. Time is short now—and it's up to all of us to buy bonds to the absolute limit of our financial abilities.

"Didn't See That in the Daily Newspaper...."

No, because The Herald prints all the news of interest to our people which the editor of a daily paper may consider unimportant. Read the daily papers — but supplement your reading with the Herald every week, if you want to know what is going on in the Jewish world.

For every organization, every family, every individual there is something to gain from regularly reading...

RATTLESNAKE RATTLE

Axis diplomats have started the groundwork for a peace offensive.

There is no other course — be flatly rejected by our Commander-in-chief.

There is no other course—because there is no such thing as conditional freedom. A peace offer from a dictator is what a rattle is to a rattlesnake.

The American war policy is both clear and final. We will only return to peace when Hitler can never again return to war. Once we were lulled into false security—but we shall never be swindled out of victory. We shall never lose with a pen what our men have gained by the sword. America remembers Pearl Harbor—and she is determined that Tokyo will never forget. The only Americans who will ever go to Munich will be flying bombers made in Detroit.

Our fleet stands between us and Hitler's war—but our graves stand between us and Hitler's peace. We have learned Europe's lesson—there is no such thing as an honorable treaty with a dishonorable government. The American people will make peace some day—but only a peace that will explain to Colin Kelly's son why his father died.

Things I Never Knew And Still Don't Know:

That the Japs consider four an unlucky number, just as we feel about thirteen over here. (Sho' nuff—the American eagle unloaded his first batch of eggs on Nippon in April, which is the fourth month of the year!)... That a new official edict in England prohibits those rows of X's, representing kisses, at the bottom of letters, because spies can use them

Joint Victory Meeting Arranged

The Jewish National Workers alliance and members of the Gewerkschaften campaign committee will hold a joint victory meeting and celebration of Shevuot at the Narragansett Hotel, Monday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Rabbi Israel M. Goldman will be guest speaker and Zvi Scoliard, former member of the Maurice Schwartz Yiddish Art Theatre group, will entertain. Morris Shoham and Alter Boyman will be presiding officers. Following the meeting, refreshments will be served.

as a code... How we overlooked this for our Literary Lace dept': Alimony—the high cost of leaving.

That the word coined by the R. A. Fliers for those propaganda pamphlets they drop on enemy territory is "Bomphlets"... That the Chinese regard cockroaches as symbols of wealth. (Their logic being that a family must be pretty poor, if they can't afford to feed a few cockroaches)... That the British Medical Journal offers this tip for prevention of colds: Throw your head back and let a few drops of pure medicinal cod liver oil slide into your throat through each nostril. (I'd rather have a cold.)

Whether you know that ice cream manufacturers have concocted a "victory sundae," which is made of red, white and blue ice cream. The plan is to charge 25 cents and give the customer a 10 cent defense stamp as a rebate... That Mrs. Chip Robert, wife of the secretary of the Democratic Committee, recently gave a Washington luncheon for some femme friends. One of the women invited, phoned and asked: "What shall I wear to your luncheon?"... To which Mrs. Robert replied: "Come in an open throat and a back suitable for knifing!"

Whether it will depress you to learn that you have only one chance in 20,000 to be questioned in a Gallup poll. (That's the capitalistic system for you)... That in Australia there are lizards that bark... Whether, after all these years, Jimmy Carney won't finally win the Academy Award for his Geo. M. Cohan portrayal in "Yankee Doodle Dandy," the film dandy... That the recruiting slogan of the Marine Corps at Amarillo, Texas, is: "Join the Marines and see Tokyo."

Whether you know that cats are employed by the U. S. Government with the Post Office Department footing the bill for their keep. (Their job is to keep rats and mice from making a meal of the mail)... That on a highway in Venezuela there's a monument to a wrecked automobile with the inscription: "Slowly one goes far"... That the tag of Ann Sheridan's oomphiliicker, "Juke Girl," is the funniest fun. Annie says to Ronald Reagan: "Let's settle down on a farm and raise tomatoes"... Reagan, ogling her chassis, retorts: "Who's interested in raising tomatoes?"

That if you feel cold in bed because you haven't enough blankets, just cover your head with a scarf and your whole body, feet and all, will warm up in a jiffy. (In these days that alone is worth the price you paid for the paper!)... That when Louis XIV was King of France, for a nominal fee people could come to the palace and watch him eat. (That must have been seeds of fun!)

Whether you know that in ancient Gaul there were laws making it taboo to get too stout. (If a guy got stouter that the law permitted he was fined)... That a psychologist has figured out that a person who lives seventy years has spent 2,100 hours looking in mirrors. (Who, me?)... That the latest wrinkle is a cosmetic for women to put on their teeth, like nail polish, to give them that toothpaste-and-smile... That in China the nicest gift you can give a man on his 41st and 51st birthdays is chow-chain. (Because it's a symbol of longevity there).

Linen Shower Committee to Meet

DR. ISRAEL GOLDSTEIN

For a Woman's Fancy

By IRENE

A bright spot in a sort of a dreary week, as far as the weather was concerned, was the annual meeting and luncheon of the Council of Jewish Women Tuesday afternoon at the Indian Room of the Narragansett Hotel. Many an underprivileged Jewish child in and around Providence will be happier and healthier this coming year, because of the success of the meeting. As you probably know this group of Jewish women contributes milk to poor Jewish children on record at the Jewish Family Welfare and also to the day camp of the Jewish Community Center.

The program of the meeting included the annual reports, installations of officers and a drawing of a $25 war bond, which was won by Mrs. Gladys Saltzman. Mrs. David M. Small, a member of the national board and second vice-president of the New England Regional Conference, was guest speaker for the afternoon.

Mrs. Louis Yoken, the chairman of the luncheon arrived bright and early, looking very stunning in a smart black dress with a print bodice topped by a silverfox jacket

... A small black and white hat completed the outfit ... Greeting the guests and taking tickets was Mrs. Philip Marcus, the reservation chairman, her casual dress of navy was trimmed with red and white striped taffeta collar and cuffs ... Helping her a great deal was Mrs. Louis Horvitz, looking her darling best in a suit of clear, cool beige, set off with a tiny hat of bali brown ...

Mrs. David Small, the guest speaker, looked very distinctive in a light blue dress, with the always dependable navy coat ... Mrs. Hillel Hassenfeld's dress was frankly on the sentimental side, dreamy black sheer with a ruffle around the neck and the bottom of the slim skirt ... A tiny black excuse for a hat with red flowers on it and a pair of silver foxes over her shoulders surely made a divine picture ... Mrs. Mortyn Zietz was a symphony in grey, her silver-grey dress set off beautifully with a grey plaid coat and chartreuse hat ...

Mrs. Samuel Markoff looked charming in an ensemble of light gold, topped with a sailor hat of the same color ... A black and grey checked tailored suit, topped by a black off-the-face hat made up the sophisticated, but feminine outfit of Mrs. Bernard Abedon ... To prove that spring is definitely here Mrs. Jack Davis arrived in a gay, green print dress ... Tall Mrs. Eske Windsberg arrived in a navy coat, that was smartly trimmed with deep red ... And her navy off-the-face hat gave the outfit an air of elegance ...

Mrs. John J. Rouslin, the co-chairman, was enchanting in a light brown dress-maker suit, trimmed with white embroidery on pockets and lapels ... Mrs. I. Gerber, the retiring president was suave and discreet in a navy dress and jacket, the skirt pleated all around ... Blossom pink trimmings and flowers on her navy hat made the picture complete ... Mrs. Walter Nelson arrived in an epaulet yellow coat and hat, trimmed with brown ... Under it she wore a brown and white striped dress cut on smart, simple lines ...

Young, sleek and utterly refreshing was Mrs. Maurice Botvin ... Her dressy beige suit and hat were set off beautifully by a kelly green bag and matching shoes ... With her was Mrs. Al Blackman, looking well groomed and dashing as ever in a navy dressmaker suit with that very new slim skirt and inserts of gros grain ribbon on the jacket ... Although she carried it on her arm, we got a glimpse of her lovely silver fox jacket ... A flawless outfit was worn by Mrs. Bernard Ziemann ... Her lilac green dress was trimmed with ice cream pink and her black hat was enchanting with a long black veil with pink dots ... A dress of fluid print jersey graced lovely Mrs. Myer Tannenbaum; it was like a rainbow of fresh un-hackneyed colors topped by a black straw hat ...

Mrs. Perry Bernstein chose a navy dress and navy hat, relieved with spic and span white trimmings ... A picture of perfection was pretty Mrs. Joseph Ress in a classic dark plaid suit, set off by a brown hat ... Slim and simple as a primrose was Mrs. Edward Halpert in a warm red coat and black hat ... Soft, smooth rayon crepe made up the beige dress of Mrs. Barney Hochberg, her shoes and bag of the same color made the ensemble outstanding ... Mrs. Moses Mickler arrived in a red and green print dress, topped by a red jacket and large off the face hat of go-green ...

Mrs. Barney Goldberg came in a dramatic dress of black, her hat of the same color was set off with a pink veil ... Over her shoulders she carried a silver fox jacket ... Mrs. Nathan Perlow, the president-elect arrived in a rustic brown coat ... Her turban was of the same fabric with a dash of tan for decoration ... Mrs. Archie Albert looked trim as a sailor's knot in a simple black dress, topped by a brown fur jacket ... Also in a black dress and hat, adorned with frosty white flowers came Mrs. Matthew Seegool ... Very bright and cheerful was the outfit of Mrs. Leo Cohen, her black print dress was accented with a kelly green jacket and hat ...

Hospital Money

That grant of $197,000 to the Miriam Hospital for a new building and facilities was certainly a welcome gift. This is another milestone marking the progress of the hospital since Maurice Stollerman became its superintendent. As Max Grant, the hospital president states in a letter, published elsewhere in The Herald, definite plans for the new construction have not been decided upon. We hear that Abe Blackman is in Mexico for a short stay. Frank Licht, son of the Jacob Lichts, was sworn in as attorney this week.

Gambling

Here is the story that we heard about race tracks in Russia. Erskine Caldwell and a friend wagered on the daily double, which is not unlike our own — except that the bettor must select, in the proper order, the horses which come in first and second. They bet 100 rubles on the daily double, and won. They rushed to the pay-off window and collected only 75 rubles. "How come?" asked the disappointed Caldwell. "Well," he was told, "That's to discourage gambling."

Local Items

Sid Long dropped in this week to pay us a visit. Sid is stationed at Fort Bragg, but expects to be transferred to Fort Sill in Oklahoma, where he will enter Officer's Training School. Among the new arrivals in town this week were baby daughters to the Arthur Rothmans and the Philip Paiges. This is the Paiges' third child and they have named her Hope Iris. Harriett Goodman of Pawtucket and Jerome Forman will say "I do" in ceremonies to be held Sunday in the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue in Pawtucket.

Truth

Here is an incident that tickled our fancy when it was told to us by one of the teachers, who participated in the sugar rationing in one of Providence's colored sections. The applicant attested that his wife "has no sugar at all in our house, not an ounce of it." "Remember now, you're swearing to this," the questioner warned him. "You've got to tell the truth." The applicant hesitated, and repeated: "Gotta tell the truth, eh?" "Yes, you must, or you'll go to jail," he was warned. "In that case, I'll tell the truth," the applicant confessed. "We ain't married."

Jamin Clamon. Mrs. Morris Cohen, the publicity chairman, looked charming and feminine in an emerald-green dress, a plaid casual coat and a yellow hat. Mrs. Saul Rothschild arrived in a red print dress, topped by a navy coat and hat. Mrs. George Gerzog came in a little late, she had on a fabulously beautiful suit of brilliant gold. With it she wore a hunter's green hat trimmed with a large thin veil of the same color. With her came Mrs. Walter Gartner, who looked perfect in a slim black and white dress and on her blond hair she had a gleaming white pique hat.

It's RED for your protection

Only one coal can wear this red spotted badge of quality. And that's the low ash, laundered hard coal, which spells satisfaction with a capital "S" and economy with the big "E".
