

Best Wishes For A Happy New Year To All

THE WAR THIS WEEK

Gasoline Rationing

All motorists in the non-rationed areas of the country were asked by Price Administrator Henderson to observe the same rules in using their cars that are enforced in the rationed Eastern area, as a means of conserving rubber tires until a national gasoline rationing plan can be put into effect. He said it will be several weeks before coupon ration books can be printed to carry out the nation-wide gas rationing recommended by the Baruch Rubber Committee. Unless the nation's 27,000,000 motorists cut their driving "to the bone," Mr. Henderson said, "we're likely to coast right into Hitler's lap."

The Armed Forces

President Roosevelt told his press conference he did not think it would be necessary to call up 18 and 19 year-olds before the first of next year because Army training facilities at present are only equal to the number of men being taken in, but he is discussing with the Army whether enabling legislation will be needed soon. Army Ground Forces Commander McNair announced the number of Army Divisions in existence or being mobilized has more than doubled since January 1.

Transportation

Office of Defense Transportation Director Eastman announced "No special train or bus service, including charter bus service, to football games or other sport events will be permitted. At the same time I am directing that steps be taken by my office to prevent the overcrowding of regular trains serving areas in which such events are to be held." The Interstate Commerce Commission ruled that for the duration all railroad carriers may disregard any present regulations governing length of trains when necessary to assure prompt movement of freight or passengers.

Moscow to Publish Nazi "Black Book"

Foreword Promises Proper Retaliation

MOSCOW—Documents and eye-witness testimony describing the Nazi atrocities committed upon Jews in Poland and in the occupied part of Russia were published here this week in the form of a "Black Book" issued in Yiddish by the government publishing house.

The book gives an authentic picture of the massacres of Jewish men, women and children in the occupied territories and registers the Nazi acts of torture in Lodz, Warsaw, Lublin, Brulshov and other Polish cities. It emphasizes that its material is only a part of the "horrible story which our tortured brothers and sisters in the temporarily seized Soviet territory have to tell."

A foreword to the book points out that "the crimes committed by the Fascist henchmen on Soviet soil and those committed by them in the occupied countries of other freedom-loving peoples will not be forgotten on the day of judgement." It emphasizes that "the facts in the book are given in their stark nakedness without any exaggeration."

Order Deposition To Organize Ghetto

GENEVA—Dr. Heinrich Stahl, former President of the Berlin Jewish community; Rabbi Martin Salomonsky, former director of its relief center, and other officials are reported to have been deported to Theresienstadt, Bohemia, where they are expected to organize the Ghetto for Czech Jews along lines established by the Gestapo.

Other Jewish officials of the former "Reichsvereinigung der Juden"—among them Dr. Arthur Lilienthal, Frau Professor Kora Berlin and Franz Eugen Fuchs, former non-Zionist member of the Jewish Agency for Palestine—are reported to have been sent to Poland.

NEED 400 CHAPLAINS

WASHINGTON—The swift growth of the United States naval forces has resulted in a demand for 400 additional clergymen.

Reform Rabbis Take Strong Pro-Labor Stand in Message

ST. LOUIS—A vigorous endorsement of Congress for its refusal "to pass anti-labor laws" and a demand upon American press that it be "more painstaking" in its reports of the "disputes" between capital and labor are among the highlights of a Labor Day message issued by the Commission on Justice and Peace of the central Conference of American Rabbis, headed by Rabbi Ferdinand M. Isserman of this city.

Although calling upon the government for price control and wage control, the message urges that such control shall be exercised "only where wages are adequate to insure the fair standard of living and opportunities for educational development which God intended that workers and their families should have."

Collection Letter Repudiated by Rabbi

Rabbi Carol Klein issued a statement this week denying that he had permitted the use of his name for the collection of money. "Certain people are collecting money on the evidence of letters with my signature," Rabbi Klein said. "I declare that my handwriting was probably forged, and I have never issued such letters."

Mizrachi Demands Magnes Removal

NEW YORK—A resolution, demanding immediate removal of Dr. Judah L. Magnes as head of the Hebrew University, was adopted last week, at the Hotel Pennsylvania, where the Mizrachi Organization of America, religious wing of the World Zionist Movement, convoked its national executive board, as well as members of the orthodox rabbinate, to take a stand in the matter of the newly organized 'Ehud' "which has betrayed the fundamental principles of Judaism and Zionism in having negotiated with the Arabs without the knowledge or consent of the Jewish Agency, the only recognized authoritative body of the Jewish people in regard to Palestine."

Arabs Show Little Desire to Fight British

GENEVA—The failure of Mussolini's effort to raise an Arab legion to fight against British and Jewish "domination" in Palestine is reported here. The Arabs showed little enthusiasm for such a legion, many of them opposing it in pursuance of the policy of King Ibn Sa'ud, it is stated.

Nazi Manual Cautions Soldiers Against Jews

GENEVA—Nazi soldiers on the Eastern front are cautioned against the "treachery and cunning" and the loyalty of Jewish soldiers in the ranks of the Russian armies, by a German Army captain writing in the Nazi organ, Militaerwocheblatt. The article characterizes the Russian soldier as "a dangerous person even when a prisoner" and adds that all Russians are loyal Communists, "particularly the Jews."

United States Protests Deportation of Jews

"New Shock to Public Opinion of World"

WASHINGTON—Declaring that the mass deportation of Jews from unoccupied France "provides a new shock to the public opinion of the civilized world", the State Department made the "most vigorous representations possible," to the French Government against the wholesale transfer of Jews to Eastern Europe under Nazi orders.

The American Government's protest was transmitted through the U. S. Embassy in France, it was revealed in a letter from Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles to Morris D. Waldman, secretary of the American Jewish committee, which, together with the American Jewish Congress, B'nai B'rith and the Jewish Labor Committee, had jointly made representations to the Government concerning the plight of Jews marked for deportation from unoccupied France.

Convention to Hear War Events Review

WASHINGTON—The progress recorded by the Zionist movement in the past year, with special emphasis on the contribution of American Zionists to the war effort of the Palestine Yishuv as part of the strategy of the United Nations, will be reviewed in the Presidential message which will be delivered by Judge Louis E. Levinthal to the 1500 delegates and alternates who are expected to attend the 45th Annual Convention of the Zionist Organization of America October 14-18 at the Hotel New Yorker, New York City.

Special Fund to Aid Alien War Sufferers

NEW YORK—"Enemy Aliens" who, for any reason, suffer from the war, will be provided for through a special fund which President Roosevelt assigned to the Federal Security Administration, headed by Paul V. McNutt, it was disclosed here by Mayor LaGuardia in his weekly "broadcast to the people."

The fund will be used to safeguard such aliens from the destruction that might be wrought by the enemy. The Mayor also indicated that aliens suffering from job discrimination might also be aided from the special fund which is later to be supplemented.

Palestinian Joins U. S. Merchant Marine

NEW YORK—Ephraim Cukier, 19, has the distinction of being the first Palestinian sailor to become an officer in the U. S. Merchant Marine. Cukier, whose ship was torpedoed in the South Atlantic some time ago, was rescued by an American tanker after drifting in a life-boat for seven days. He has just passed his examination for the post of third engineer and the Maritime Commission has certified him for immediate sailing. Six years ago the young sailor fled with his parents from Germany to Palestine. He received his training for the sea at the Haifa Maritime School.

Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement is the holiest day in the Jewish year. The day begins on Sunday evening, September 20 and is concluded at sunset of the following day.

It is a day of atonement and fasting, a time set aside for the individual to confess and repent of his sins and to seek atonement for the wrongs he has committed against God and man. The day is devoted entirely to prayer and meditation in the synagogue. A memorial service for the dead in the afternoon service, and the blowing of the shofar, the ram's horn, at the conclusion of the day, are impressive sections of the synagogue service.

This holiest of days is ushered in at the beginning of the evening service by a prayer, Kol Nidrei, widely known because of its specific traditional music. It concludes with a service called "the closing of the gates", recalling the closing of the Temple gates at Jerusalem, and symbolizing the closing of the great day of prayer.

The keynote of Yom Kippur is the divine assurance that guilt can be atoned for by penitence, prayer, and righteous action. Each individual must pray for himself. This concept follows the inherent democracy in Judaism which considers all men equal before their Maker.

This Is The Army

Hit show of the summer has been Irving Berlin's "This Is The Army." Already the impresario has turned over $500,000 to Army Emergency Relief. By the time the run is concluded, and counting in movie rights, song royalties, and other by-products of a successful musical, the total may run above a million.

Of course, this is laudable. Appreciation is due Mr. Berlin, to the men of the Army, who regardless of their civilian professional status now work for Army pay, and all others who have helped in keeping costs to a minimum so returns to the relief fund would be greater.

Deatherage Resigns Defense Plant Job

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va.—An officer of the Army Engineers has disclosed that George E. Deatherage, whose employment on construction of the West Virginia Ordnance Works was criticized in Congress, has resigned.

Maj. B. P. Rogers, area engineer overseeing the building of the $55,000,000 plant, said that the former leader of the Knights of the White Camellia resigned after two months' employment as an engineer for the E. B. Rogers and Sons Co. of Boston. The Rogers Company is construction contractor for the plant. Mr. Rogers declined to amplify the statement that Mr. Deatherage had resigned.

Polish Refugee Gets Smuggling Sentence

BALTIMORE, Md.—Mojzesz Helman, Polish refugee, pleaded guilty in Federal Court this week to a charge of smuggling $9,000 in uncut diamonds into the United States and was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $1,000 by Judge W. Calvin Chesnut.

Mr. Helman and his wife, who entered Baltimore July 30 on a refugee ship from Lisbon, also face deportation.

In asking punishment for Mr. Helman, United States Attorney Bernard J. Flynn asserted his deportation to Europe would be "the worst punishment that could be given."

The refugee was arrested after a customs official discovered jewelry described as worth $50,000 and $2,000 in American currency cached in the false bottom of a suitcase.

Memorial Meetings

For Menahem Ussishkin

NEW YORK—Jerusalem and New York will hold memorial meetings on September 23rd in tribute to Menahem Ussishkin who passed away a year ago the day after Yom Kippur. All Zionist organizations have joined to honor the memory of the Zionist "Man of Iron" at a large meeting which will be held in New York City. On the same day, meetings will be held in Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other communities.

Army Officer Lauds
Brooklyn Jewish Boy

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND.—"The Army could use a lot of Itzkowitzs and be better off," a colonel of the American Expeditionary Forces here declared recently, pointing at Louis Itzkowitz, a Brooklyn Jewish boy who "made good as a corporal from the big city."
The American officer praised the Jewish corporal for his mastering the jeep in the training areas of America and England. Itzkowitz, who joined the U. S. Army two years ago, was a metal worker in civilian life as is his father who lives in New York.

War This Week

Marshall, Chief of Naval Operations King and Special Adviser to the President Hopkins conferred with high British officials in London and at these conferences certain vital military decisions directed toward taking the offensive were made. The President, in a radio address, said the power of Germany must be broken on the continent of Europe and "Preparations are being made here and in Britain toward this purpose."

War Production
War Production Chairman Nelson asked war workers to stop taking an extra day off and to refrain from "quikie" strikes over minor grievances because such absences slow production. He said the nation's production record is not nearly good enough. The President by Executive Order prohibited payment of "penalty double-time" pay for work on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, but permitted payment of double-time on the seventh consecutive day of work after 40 hours a week. Under Secretary of War Patterson said U. S. plane production in August was greater than that of Germany, Italy and Japan combined and tank production, already at an impressive high, will be twice as great in December.

Jewish Education Month in September

NEW YORK—A nation-wide "Jewish Education Month" to spur the enrollment of Jewish children in religious schools is being inaugurated with the Rosh Hashanah festival, it was announced by the Jewish Education Committee of New York.

The keynote of the appeal addressed to Jewish parents is "the necessity of safeguarding the Jewish spiritual heritage as a source of moral strength in meeting the challenge of the enemies of freedom and democracy. The war crisis, it is believed, has made Jewish parents more fully aware of the need of educating their children in the traditions of their fathers."

The lively tunes, which are now reaching the radio, and the over-all sense of jollity inherent in the spectacle of a group of boys in khaki sweeping all before them in the glamorous precincts of Broadway, combine to give the war a mite of lift. WE MUST PLUNGE:

Our leaders have told us that as yet we are only ankle-deep in the war. No nation and no man can remain ankle-deep. They either plunge or get cold feet. This means that the sacrifice of civilians must match the bravery of our fighting forces.

A nation lives by the higher values of its soul. Not by the lower prices on its store counters. In 1942, sugar is a luxury and gasoline a comfort. But liberty and freedom are still American necessities. A cuff on your American trousers isn't worth a Japanese cuff on your American jaw.

Our problem at home is not our standard of living. Too many brave Americans have already set us a heroic standard by dying.

The Marines who land on Pacific beaches are in this war deeper than their ankles. And the skies above the channel cannot be protected by price ceilings. The men of Bataan there was no night-shift to relieve the defenders of Wake.

It will cost most of our wealth to win this war. But all our riches to lose it. We must give most of our privileges or lose all of our rights. Captain Collis Kelly made his choice. He went into this war not up to his ankles, but up to his heart. Because he knew what it meant to buy peace on his knees.

NOTES OF A NEW YORKER:

John Mason Brown, the dramatic critic, who went under the surgeon's blade to put himself in condition for a naval commission, will prove to be worthy of the navy. The navy need have no fears about his presence of mind, either. Once when Brown was delivering a lecture in New Orleans—he strolled up and down the rostrum, making gestures as he lectured. He strolled so far he walked off the platform—dumping himself into some laps. Returning to the platform calmly, albeit a bit bruised, he continued with: "To pick up the subject where we dropped it."

Sallies in Our Alley: Gilbert Gabriel, the former dramatic critic, is now an officer in the army—somewhere in Alaska. Before being commissioned some intimates were requested to give the War Dep't the lowdown on Gil's character, fitness and so forth. "How are his morals?" was one query. "He is so moral," replied a ehum. "he should be sent there as a missionary!" One of the Broadway sportsmen was saying the the weather at Saratoga was never important to a gambler "because you can sleep like a top when you're winning." "And," said a veteran "when you're losing—you spin like one." David O. Selznick asked Sam Goldwyn: "Why do you hire so many writers for one picture?" "Because", said Sam, "from each writer I get a germ."

Zeppo Marx of the famed 4 Marxmen was the "kid brother" who was ordered into the act by their mother. Zeppo was too young to be trusted with valuable pieces of stage business or punch-lines—and so he merely tagged along, making faces or joining in the chorus. Of course, he was paid well. While Harpo, Chico and Groucho squandered their coin on their families, fun or at dice games—Zeppo kept salting his away. Eventually he wearied of hamming it and suddenly popped up as a Hollywood agent — buying into a prospering

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Phyllis Hilda Rosen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosen of Emeline street, to Lieutenant (j. g.) Bertram M. Brown, son of Mrs. Lillian Brown of Cypress street which took place at the bride's home on September 6. Rabbi Israel M. Goldman officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Miss Rosen wore white satin. Her gown was patterned on the princess style, and the neckline was square but corded. Her headgear consisted of her mother's veil of illusion, trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bible adorned with orchids.

Mrs. Rosen chose royal blue crepe, while Mrs. Brown wore aqua and black crepe. Both of the women had orchid corsages.

Miss Rosen attended Simmons, and is continuing her education by enrolling at George Washington University. Lieutenant Brown is a graduate of Rhode Island State, and was a member of the faculty at Northeastern University.

For a Woman's Fancy

To give you that haughty look of a Graustark dutchess, to keep those pompadoured heads held high (if only for straining their smoothly powdered necks to see who is making that very graceful and dashing entrance) make an appearance in some form of pastel jersey. Especially the new color, white ash. It's the beautiful pale silvery beige that has caused such a furor everywhere. Wear it with mink, or have it echo the moonstruck beaver. White, the color of ermine, stiff shirts and long gloves, seems to be holding its' own in the parade of fashions. My bet is that it still will be high on the list. Among other luminous colors, moonstone grey, light and creamy in value, and apricot, a gorgeous, deep, glowing shade, are rising to unknown heights.

Bumped into Lorraine Fowler several times, and each time I couldn't help sighing enviously at her long torso suit of pretty semi-pastel plaid. She wore luggage accessories. Beatrice Norman looked like a man to play with them. Yup, this is one pair of women, who not only don't talk too much, but they never trump their husbands' aces for more reasons than one. Mr. Rosen never plays cards, and Mr. Seligman plays only when necessary.

Gingham, already popular with young girls for daytime clothes, has now joined the night shift, too. Mighty cute, are the latest in college girls' boudoir clothes. They are blue and white or red and white, checked gingham nightgowns, robes, or pajamas.

So you think that women talk too much. Well, consider this a formal introduction to the two "femmes" who disprove that foolish theory. Step up and take a bow, Mrs. Edith Seligman and Mrs. Mae Rosen! Both of them being very much the silent type, this duet deserves credit, and plenty of it! The two of them as partners, have tucked away the championship at the American Contract Bridge League's 16th annual tournament.

Mrs. Rosen, reluctant to talk about herself, finally admitted that she never had the slightest desire to learn how to play bridge until after her two children were born, at which time she took to it, like the well-known fish to water. At first no one would help her with it, but when she shamed them into it by telling her husband and his friends, that either they teach her, or she would be perfectly justified in calling them "ungentlely."

But, strange to relate, things were just the opposite with Mrs. Seligman. She was born into a bridge-playing family. In fact people used some of the same tactics that Mrs. Rosen did to get Mrs. Seligman to play. She was born into a bridge-playing family. In fact people used some of the same tactics that Mrs. Rosen did to get Mrs. Seligman to play.

Rationing, Shortages Create Economic Crisis In New York Trades; 400,000 Unemployed

NEW YORK—Since America's entry into war, New York State and especially the City of New York, with its nearly 2,000,000 Jewish population has been in the throes of an economic crisis. Mainly affected by the widespread unemployment and "slack" are the so-called "Jewish trades"—the manufacture of which has been discontinued—millinery, tailoring, retail shops, furriers, distributors of articles, brokers, etc. Similar conditions are reported from other large Jewish centers in the East.

The present total unemployment in the city is estimated as affecting 400,000 persons, but there is fear that by Fall this number may be doubled unless there is an immediate mobilization by the Federal Government of the war production facilities of small New York plants. Various explanations are given for this situation: the dislocation of trade due to war, curtailment of credit facilities for deferred payment purchases, competition of the South and West with lower standards of living and scale of wages, a certain amount of discrimination in allocation of war contracts, and bias against Jewish workers.

While it is an accepted—and much advertised by anti-Semites—maxim that war brings riches to Jews, this war has very adversely affected the economic position of America's Jewry. Concentrated in certain trades of secondary importance for the war effort and in services that have been hit by the war; virtually excluded from heavy industry, agriculture, railways and similar branches of economic life, the bulk of the Jewish population finds itself outside the "prosperity" belt of the country.

A number of delegations representing employers, employees and city authorities went to Washington to the best means of alleviating the ton to consult the Government as increasingly critical situation.

JDC Gives $200,000 For Palestine Relief

NEW YORK—An extraordinary grant of $200,000 for war relief purposes in Palestine has just been made by the Joint Distribution Committee, it was announced this week. The grant was made at the request of the Jewish Agency for Palestine and various Zionist organizations.

The critical position of Palestine, a focal point in the Allied defense of the Near East, a statement issued by the Joint Distribution Committee declared, "has given rise to extraordinary relief requirements there. Although Zionist bodies in the United States and elsewhere continue to supply funds for Palestine, they have requested the Joint Distribution Committee to supplement relief funds contributed from abroad and raised locally. In the light of J.D.C.'s historical tradition, which is to bring help to suffering Jews overseas, in whatever quarter of the world they may be, we have not hesitated to make this grant."

Yom Kippur Services At Sons of Abraham

Kol Nidre services at Congregation Sons of Abraham Synagogue will be sung by Cantor Moses Saitz, assisted by a double choir, at 6 o'clock, Sunday evening, Rabbi Nathan Taragin announced today. "Are We Repenting?" will be Rabbi Taragin's sermon.

On Monday morning services will start at 7 o'clock. Memorial services will be at 10:50 o'clock. The Rabbi's sermon will be "The Seapegoat of Humanity."

CONFISCATE RAILROADS

GENEVA—Germans are tearing up some railway lines in occupied France and are using the materials to extend and repair railway facilities in the East, it was stated in Swiss dispatches.

New Year Greeting From Secretary Hull

WASHINGTON—To all Americans of Jewish Faith Secretary of State Cordell Hull sent greetings on the occasion of the Jewish New Year.

"On the occasion of the observance of the Jewish New Year", his message said, "I take particular pleasure in extending my greetings to all Americans of the Jewish faith. At this period of anguish for so many of their coreligionists, it is inspiring to see how this esteemed and loyal group of our fellow citizens are united in their determination to contribute in every possible way to the victory against our enemies which will come as a result of a complete defeat of the Axis powers."

Council Sponsors Holiday Radio Program

NEW YORK—The Synagogue Council of America will conduct a Day of Atonement Radio Program over the National Broadcasting Company next Sunday afternoon, September 20, at 4:30 o'clock.

Messages will be delivered by Rabbi David de Sola Pool of New York, former president of the Synagogue Council of America and Adolph Resenberg of Cincinnati, chairman of the executive board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

The musical portion of the program will be under the direction of Prof. A. W. Binder, Professor of Liturgical Music at the Jewish Institute of Religion. The soloist will be Emanuel List, Bass of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who will sing Kol Nidre.

Virtues of Jewish Food Outweighs
Faults, Diet Investigation Shows

How often have you heard that Jewish cooking is heavy and often indigestible. Well, it isn't so. According to a scientific investigation, it was learned that the virtues of Jewish food outweighs its faults.

Jewish meals, containing fish, poultry, vegetables and cheese, provide a balanced diet high in healthful vitamins. At one time, treating food with spices and pickling brines was a luxury afforded only by the rich. Spices came in handy, however, during the days when refrigeration was unknown. Something had to be used to preserve food.

It may be Apocryphal, but it is said that the first unleavened bread was brought about by the flight of the Children of Israel from their Egyptian enemies. Events moved so swiftly that the women who put their bread to rise, took it from its place, and were compelled to carry it with the rest of their belongings. Their journey was long and tedious. The sun was burning and thus the bread baked en route.

At any rate, many of the closely packed, flowery pastries or breads—such as bagels—although endowed with an individual flavor, give an overabundance of starch.

Blintzes have a high fat content and should be eaten sparingly or infrequently by most people. However, the type that is filled with cottage cheese, enriched by egg yolk or entire eggs, could become a really excellent dish nutritionally, if instead of being fried, they were baked like turnovers. The addition of sour cream, would not then be necessary. A fresh vegetable or fruit salad, would help the meal greatly. The meal, then would provide vitamins plus minerals both being major factors as for as health is concerned.

The old Jewish standby, gefulte fish, is good because it contains high amounts of protein, minerals and some vitamins. The flavor in no way detracts from the content.

Instead of the usual abundance of the tea, the use of more milk in the Jewish diet would be more beneficial. Tea is purely a stimulant, but plus sugar, it becomes a slight energy contributor. The fact that lemon provides vitamin C is an incentive to use more of it.

Liver of all kinds should be eaten by all. One warning, though—it should be quickly and lightly cooked.

Vichy Anti-Semitism Halts - Temporarily
Laval Answers U. S. Protests on Persecution

NEW YORK—Protests against the Nazi-inspired Vichy roundup of Jews in unoccupied France have caused a temporary halt in the campaign; Jews have gone into hiding, but Vichy men believed they could all be rounded up at the end of the month when they would have to come out to renew food ration cards.

Besides official protests from the U. S. A., the Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy in France have protested vigorously against Laval's persecution.

Laval is said to have answered the protests of S. Pinckney Tuck, U. S. Charge d'Affaires in these terms:

"America cannot give me any less sons about humanity. We were flooded with Jews who came here during the war. The present operation is merely to send them back to the lands of their origin."

The "lands of their origin" are chiefly Germany, Austria, Poland and Czechoslovakia. In other words it means turning them over to the Nazis.

Russian Diplomats Arrive in Palestine
To Attend Conference On Aid to Soviet

JERUSALEM — Paul Mikhailov, First Secretary of the Soviet Embassy at Ankara, and M. Petrenko, press attache, have arrived in Palestine to attend the conference of the V-League to Aid Soviet Russia.

On their way from Haifa to Tel Aviv, the Russian officials stopped at Kibbutz Maabaroth to inspect that communal settlement. Their unannounced arrival caused a profound stir. They showed great interest in the Kibbutz and its farming methods and, at an impromptu reception in their honor, Petrenko declared: "You've done wonders in your own way and we have every hope for closer relations between yourselves and ourselves." He concluded his address with the Hebrew words: "Shalom Chaverim."

After leaving the Kibbutz, both diplomats proceeded to Tel Aviv, where they visited the labor institutions and attended a concert given by the Palestine Orchestra.

The U. S. Army stocks 142 different sizes of shoes.

Palestine Jews in El Alamein Battle

JERUSALEM—Two sections of the Jewish Transport Company have taken a distinguished part in the battles around El Alamein, which resulted in a retreat by Rommel's forces, according to reliable information received from the Libyan front. The Jewish soldiers, who have participated in the operations since the beginning of the campaign, are serving with the Australian Brigade.

The Jewish units have carried troops into forward battle areas and have been continuously under fire. Jewish units of the Royal Engineers and of the Transport Companies played an important part in the construction of fortified points at El Alamein. The heroism of the Jewish soldiers has been frequently cited in military dispatches.

Hadassah Business Unit Has Board Meeting

A board meeting of the Business and Professionals Women's division of the Senior Hadassah was held last Wednesday evening at the Biltmore Hotel. Mrs. Israel H. Press presided. An outline of the coming years' activities was presented, and appointments to the National Conference to be held October 14 in New York City was announced. Plans for a tea for paid-up members were discussed.

"SHE never should have opened that hand with a heart lead" — "Wasn't yesterday a terrible day?" — "Looks like a real offensive in the Pacific" — "I'll let June go to the Saturday night dance if your Carol can go with her" — "Did you get enough sugar for canning?"

These and a thousand other pleasantries make up the friendly pattern of American life. They are the subjects of many of the one hundred million telephone calls made every day. In normal times they are the life-blood of the telephone industry which employs 400,000 people.

In war time they hamper production and jeopardize security. For the switchboards over which these pleasantries pass are the ones over which go the orders and instructions for the building of ships, the transporting of troops, the dispatch of aircraft, the supplying of munitions of war, the functioning of civil and military authority.

Certainly, the interchange of friendly conversation helps morale, and there's room for a little of it on telephone lines and switchboards. But "little" is the word. If your own family exceeds that "little," you have an opportunity to speed war communications by cutting down on non-essential calling. Will you help?

By Regional Director

Max Winograd was named chairman of the 1942 Providence HIAS Campaign Committee at a meeting held last week at the Biltmore Hotel.

H. M. Kaufman, regional director of HIAS, addressed the meeting. He pointed out the importance of HIAS' "Rescue Through Emigration" program and voiced confidence that Providence Jewry will respond to the HIAS appeal.

Other officers chosen were Dr. Ilie Berger, Harry Blaecher, Alter Boyman, Sidney Kane, Abraham C. Fine, Harry Leach, Milton C. Sappinsley and Archibald Silverman, co-chairmen; Irving Brodsky, secretary; Marshall B. Marcus, financial secretary; and Milton Sulzberger, treasurer.

A large executive committee was also named.

American Troops Arrive in Palestine

JERUSALEM—The Palestine Post, commenting on the recent arrival of Americans in Palestine, writes:

"Americans in Palestine are unmistakable and cannot be overlooked. They have all manner of tasks and duties here. They are specially engaged on technical services and organization and their presence acts as a healthy tonic, much as it did in Australia in the early days of the Pacific war. Their sense of distance for one thing, is on quite a different scale. A flight to America from Africa is regarded with the same equanimity as one from New York to California. They seem to have a soft spot for 'go-ahead' Tel Aviv, though most Americans also—rather secretly—venerate the sites of antiquity."

Expulsion of Jews
From Reich Complete

STOCKHOLM—The Nazi expulsion of Jews from Germany are virtually completed, with only a negligible number of Jews employed in German war industries and considered essential still remaining in the country, it was reliably reported here this week. All others have been deported to Nazi-held Eastern Europe.

Until recently only German Jews over 12 years of age and under 60 were deported. Now, however, even younger and older persons are being shipped on cattle cars to Poland and Nazi-held parts of Soviet Russia. All inmates of the Grosse Hamburgerstrasse, a Jewish home for the aged in Berlin, were deported recently to the Czech fortress prison of Theresienstadt. Included among the inmates was a 95-year-old woman.

Following are the courses offered by the school: The Jewish Family in Marriage, by Rabbi Albert Bilgray; Our People and its Festivals, by Rabbi Morris Schussheim; and The Beauty of the Psalms, by Dr. William Braude.
Graded courses in Hebrew will be given during the first period with Morris Shoham and Bernard Segal as instructors.
Sponsors of the school are The Jewish Community Center, Hadasah, Council of Jewish Women, B'nai B'rith Ladies' Auxiliary, The Pioneer Women and the Sisterhoods of Temples Beth-Israel and Beth-El.
Mrs. Morris Schussheim and Mrs. William Bojar were re-elected chairman of the Board of Governors and registrar, respectively, it was announced this week.

Charge Inefficiency In D. of C. Gov't.

Charging that Washington's system of government is slow, indirect and irresponsible, members of the National League of Women Voters, through its local organization, are demanding that citizens impress upon their congressional representatives, who govern the District of Columbia, that the present form of government is inadequate to handle immediate problems.
A broadside, distributed throughout the country, names five problems that are being ignored. They are emergency housing, health conditions, welfare problems, transportation, and crime.

South Providence Association Thanks Public for Help

The South Providence Business Men's Association this week issued thanks to the public for their co-operation in making possible the early closing hour of 8 o'clock on the first three days of the week.
Stores will be closed for the Yom Kippur holiday, reopening on Monday night, it was announced by John Grossman, president of the association.

Catholic Praises Franz Werfel Book

NEW YORK—An unprecedented tribute to a living Jewish author was heard at a solemn mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral here, when the Rev. Francis X. Shea devoted his sermon to "The Song of Bernadette" and praised Franz Werfel, its author, as holding aloft "a lamp of Heaven, lighting the way through the shadows of the day and the blackout of night."
Rev. Shea called upon Catholics to read the book and expressed satisfaction that it was on the best-seller list.

Mexican Political Labor Groups Protest
Condemn German Persecution of Jews

MEXICO CITY — Indignation at the Nazi massacres of Jews in occupied Europe was voiced by thousands of Mexicans assembled here last week at the Palacio de Bellas Artes, the celebrated Mexican national theatre.
The protest meeting, first of its kind in Mexico, was arranged by the principal political and labor organizations in the country. The prominent speakers who condemned the Nazi persecutors and massacres of Jews included Antonio Villalobos, president of the Mexican Government Party; Vincente Lombardo Toledano, leader of the Mexican Labor Movement and president of the Latin-American Confederation of Labor; Felix F. Palavicini, former Mexican ambassador to Argentina who spoke in behalf of Mexico's intellectual world; General Felix Ireta, representing the Mexican Army; Congressman Felix Diaz Ezeobar, the president of the Mexican anti-Nazi Committee, and other prominent Mexican personalities.

Workmen's Circle School Not Open This Year

Because of difficulties in securing transportation the Workmen's Circle School will not be operated this year, it was announced this week by Beryl Segal.

Here's Nazi Radio Line On Palestine Regiments

ZURICH — Establishment of the new Palestine regiment has brought a reaction from the official German radio, heard here this week.
A Nazi broadcaster on the Freisland station stated that "Lipson (Daniel Lipson, Independent Conservative M. P., who opposed formation of a Jewish army during the debate in Commons on Thursday) who is himself a Jew, doubtlessly expressed the true feelings of the Jews, as they fear nothing so much as the establishment of Jewish fighting units."
The German short-wave radio at Zeesen stated: "If the Jews really wanted to fight, they have had plenty of time to form an army during the last three years. It is a pity that such an army never materialized, because if it had, the favorite wish of the German soldiers might have been fulfilled — crossing swords with the real 'lions of Judah.'"

Famous Wailing Wall Under Minor Repairs

JERUSALEM—Minor repairs to the Wailing Wall, involving the replacement of several crumbling stones in the upper rows which endangered worshippers, will be made shortly, it was announced here this week. An agreement to this effect has been reached by the Chief Rabbinate and the Antiquities Department of the Palestine Government.

It said some priests already have been arrested.

YONKERS—The old package racket of prohibition days worked again last week. N. A. Bernstein, a merchant, was the victim and paid $14.70 for the package which contained seven pounds of waste paper.

He accepted the package, collect, at the telephone request of a man who posed as a dentist in the same office building and said he would be delayed in arriving at his office. Mr. Bernstein opened the package when he learned the dentist was on vacation and had not expected any package.

Refugees Brought Five Billion to U. S.

Say 250,000 Refugees Have Entered Country

NEW YORK—Over 250,000 refugees have fled to the United States since Hitler began to enslave Europe and brought with them, during the period from 1935 to 1942, $5,230,700,000, according to a feature article by S. F. Porter in the October issue of "American Magazine."

Entitled "Refugee Gold Rush," the article gives both a sympathetic and unsympathetic account of the various categories of refugees. Summing up the situation, Miss Porter declares that the refugees "are of all ages, religions and professions. Among them are the bad and the good, the useless and the useful. So far the useless have aroused only antagonism and animosity. But the United States is already benefitting from the visit of the useful, and, if these remain, the contribution to this nation may be tremendous."

PIECES OF HATE

by RICHARD E. GUTSTADT
National Director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith

One of the most cunning and rabid of the Fascists who has been operating for many years, is Joseph Kamp. He heads the Constitutional Educational League which, despite its name, has little or nothing to do with the Constitution, no connection with education, and most certainly is not a league. Kamp has been an intimate associate of most of the outstanding Jew-baiters, pro-Hitlerites and people of similar ilk in New York. His organization distributed the forged Benjamin Franklin Prophecy. As a matter of fact, one of his close friends associated with him in the League is charged in an affidavit of having created the Benjamin Franklin forgery. As is typical of most Fascists of the subtle type, in all of his constant harangues Fascism and Nazism receive an insignificant portion of his attention. He has smeared every liberal individual from President down as being communistic or a fellow traveler. He has escaped libel suits so far only because he has been regarded as a minor termite. In a recent booklet issued by him the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith comes in for a bit of his twisted harping. To any person slightly familiar with the work of this League distortions in statements become immediately apparent. Elizabeth Dilling, Ida Cooper and other questionable Americans are sending postcards to their friends asking them to purchase and read Kamp's earplugs contained in the "Native Nazi." Our friend Kamp may be in for a rude awakening.

Government investigations have caused many subversive publications to go out of business. Under the present law, should they ever find the circumstances favorable for re-issuing their publications they would have to pay a new entry fee in order to have the paper mailed as second class matter. Several weeks ago Senator Nye, darling of many of the editors of these papers, introduced a bill into the Senate of the United States which provided that no such fee should be charged. The bill is worded very cleverly and refers to those newspapers which stopped publication "because of economic conditions directly or indirectly attributable to the war effort."

Polish leaders in this country, seeking to cooperate with democratic forces, should be advised that the Polish Sea League, which has its national office in Chicago and the district office in New York, reeks with anti-semitism. At a time when all the nationalities in the allied war camp should be working shoulder to shoulder this unwarranted prejudice works to the benefit of Hitler.

Several weeks ago a group of Negroes met on the South Side of Chicago. They were addressed by a Japanese who exhorted them to help Japan in her fight against "the white devils." The negroes were told that they were living in hell and that Japan was ready to deliver them from the bondage and the oppression in which they existed.

Scene Around Town

They were literally standing in the aisles. And I'm referring, of course, to attendance at Synagogues and Temples throughout the city.

Hundreds of servicemen were on leave and their colorful uniforms added a gay pattern to the holiday.

Most of the Rabbis did a swell job in obtaining meals and homes for out-of-town servicemen.

A Providence lass, who was in New York last week-end, went to the Box Office of "This Is The Army" and tried, unsuccessfully to get tickets.

Thinking she might learn of the date when the show played Providence she asked the ticket seller, "When does the show go on tour? Will it play Providence?" "The movement of troops," she was told, "is a military secret!"

Grace Weiner has been promoted to Motor Corp Sergeant in the Motor Corps Service of the Red Cross.

Irene Labush, Ethel Levine and Dorothy Orleck were presented pins this week as evidence that they were now full fledged members of the Red Cross Motor Corps.

Julie Michaelson, daughter of the Carl Michaelsons, has been awarded the Pillsbury Scholarship at the Boston University School of Law.

Ben-ton Feinstein, son of the E. R. Feinsteins, of Cranston, leaves for the Army Air Corps next week.

The motto at the O.H.F. organization is "If you don't bring scrap, you're a sap!"

O.H.F. members now have to contribute to the local scrap drive if they want to get into their own meetings.

The Danes are not so melancholy, according to the following story that reached this country via Sweden.

In Copenhagen recently the window of a Danish bookshop was filled with English books and dictionaries, over which was displayed the sign:

"Learn English Quickly Before Invasion Begins." The angered Nazis quickly ordered the window cleared, and the next day it was filled with German books and dictionaries—and a fresh sign which read:

"Learn German Quickly Before Our Protectors Depart!"

When Dr. Weizmann, taken ill,

Sgt. Meyer Levin Has First Leave

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA—Sergt. Meyer Levin of Brooklyn, who has been fighting the Japs daily since he dropped the stick of bombs from Capt. Colin Kelly's plane which sank the 30,000 ton battleship Haruna, arrived in an Australian city this week for his first leave since December.

Buddy, stocky and powerful built 26-year old Levin, thinks he has a charmed life. He has twice bailed out from planes doomed to destruction, taken part in more than 50 missions of Kelly's eight-man crew who have reached the safety of Australia without a single scratch. The other man is Lieut. Joe Bean, Kelly's navigator, who has been reattached to an American bomber group.

BAN PRIVATE CARS

JERUSALEM—Licenses of all private cars in Palestine will be cancelled as of Sept. 15th, it is announced by the Government. Thereafter only those cars will be allowed to operate that are used by persons connected with prosecution of the war effort.

RESIGNATION DEMANDED

NEW YORK—Statements calling for the resignation of Dr. Judah L. Magnes as president of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem were issued this week by A. L. Goiman, president of Mizrahi; David Wertheim, secretary of the Zionist Laborites and Louis Lipsky.

was being rushed to Mount Sinai Hospital, the ambulance driver turned to Meyer Weisgal, who was escorting the stricken leader, and said: "That guy in there sure is a big man, ain't he?" Weisgal, pleasantly surprised to see that this typically Irish driver knew of Weizmann's fame, assured him, at great length, that his passenger was one of the biggest men in the world.

The driver, who had also served as stretcher-bearer, listened with increasing bewilderment, and finally retorted: "Come, come - he's a bigger - I don't figure him to be much more than 200 pounds!"

And here's a final story for this week. We were visited by a man who had recently escaped from Poland.

He reported that he had left behind him a flourishing business which he was able to establish after the Nazi occupation.

"I smuggled foodstuffs out of Poland into Germany," he confessed. "And then, from Germany, I'd smuggle nails, hammers, saws and machinery back into Poland. I had 15 Gestapo men working for me."

"How much did you pay these 15 men?" he was asked. "Oh, I didn't pay them money," he replied. "I paid them off in sausages!" That's all for now.
