FDR Receives Program on Post-War Jewish Problems

WASHINGTON — President Roosevelt this week received Judge Joseph M. Proskauer, president, and Jacob Blaustein, chairman of the executive committee of the American Jewish Committee, who presented to him a program containing suggestions on the treatment of the post-war problems of world Jewry as part of the entire peace structure.

The program, drawn up by a distinguished group of historians, jurists, educators and rabbis, advocates among other things, the creation of a commission, under the structure to be devised at the San Francisco Conference, to formulate an International Bill of Rights providing for human rights, racial equality, religious liberty and fundamental freedoms. This commission should have charge of a course of procedure for the implementation and enforcement of the Bill of Rights.

President Roosevelt, after his conference with Judge Proskauer and Mr. Blaustein, authorized them to state that he was "profoundly interested in the establishment of an International Bill of Rights, as well as in the other suggestions contained in the interim report of the American Jewish Committee" submitted to him. The President said that he considers that "this report indicates a serious endeavor to implement the Dumbarton Oaks program," and added that the report would receive his "most serious consideration."

N. E. Welfare Funds Score UJA Dissolution

HARTFORD, Conn. — Opposition to the dissolution of the United Jewish Appeal was voiced in a resolution adopted here at a session of the executive committee of the New England Region of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, with forty representatives of 12 cities present. The resolution read as follows:

"We object to the dissolution of the United Jewish Appeal and demand its immediate reconstruction on these grounds, for these reasons: 1. The dissolution has already created disunity, recriminations and confusion in the Jewish communities; 2. It has already, in some cases, resulted in the withdrawal of local leadership and a loss of funds; 3. That the Welfare Funds, which provide at least 90 percent of the funds raised by the former UJA agencies, feel that they should have been asked, as a matter of right, for permission to dissolve the UJA; 4. Finally, we object to the increased cost which will be entailed by the duplication of fund raising effort."

Defends Justice Against Attacks

WASHINGTON — The charge that Supreme Court Justice Frankfurter was back of an alleged plot to dominate a proposed international court of justice was branded as "idle rumor and fantastic speculation" by Rep. Matthew Neely of West Virginia in an address on the floor of the House.

Attacks on Justice Frankfurter have been made in recent weeks by Rep. Clare Hoffman of Michigan and Rep. Dan R. McGhee of Mississippi. Recalling that Rep. Hoffman had described Frankfurter as "born in a foreign land" and "a member of a persecuted race," Rep. Neely said that in effect "that great and good man is a Jew." At this point Rep. Hoffman arose to deny he had ever attacked any member of the Jewish race as a Jew.

Jewish Youths Die For Moyne Slaying

CAIRO — Eliahu Khakim and Ephraim Ben Zuri have been hanged here for the assassination of Lord Moyne, British Resident Minister of State in the Middle East. The two youths killed Lord Moyne in Cairo on November 6, because, they said, he represented the government responsible for "bad conditions" in Palestine.

Convicted January 18 after an eight-day trial, the two men were sentenced to death January 22 by an Egyptian High Military Court.

Slain General's Father is Rabbi

"Son's Sacrifice Is Not in Vain"

DENVER — Gen. Maurice Rose, who was shot to death in a woods near Paderborn by a German tank man, apparently misunderstood the orders given him when he was on the verge of surrendering after he was surrounded by a unit of a Panzer division, it was revealed by Don Whitehead, writing for the Associated Press.

Gen. Rose's parents, Rabbi and Mrs. Samuel Rose, of this city, when notified of their son's death, said their son's sacrifice would not be in vain.

Rose, who enlisted at the age of 17 during the first World War and won his way to the top from the ranks, earned fame in Africa, Sicily and on the dash through France by his intrepidity and constant desire to be in the thick of action.

Warn Germans on Jewish Prisoners

LONDON — Germany was warned this week that if it mistreats Polish Jewish war prisoners, reprisals will be taken against Germans in Allied-occupied sections of the Reich.

The warning was issued by the Polish Provisional Government in Warsaw. It stated that if Germany does not cease its bestial crimes against Polish war prisoners, especially Jews who are reported to have been isolated behind barbed wire as a prelude to extermination, severest reprisals will be taken against the German population.

Anti-Jewish Feeling Lessens in France

PARIS — The war and the occupation of France have weakened anti-Semitic sentiment in France, declared Andre Brumel, head of the staff of French Ministry of Interior, at a reception in his honor by the World Jewish Congress in New York. The Jewish position in France, he stated, is gradually being regularized in a satisfactory manner.

Conversions in Italy Scored By Rabbis, Press, Congress

ROME — In an appeal to rabbis, the Jewish Agency for Palestine and the World Jewish Congress to curb the tide of conversions among Italian Jewry, the official Hebrew newspaper of the British Army, Lahayal, published by Jewish Palestine's units for the entire European theatre, charges that Catholic clergy which has done "much to rescue Jewish lives....." is not satisfied with physical rescue and seeks to rescue the soul as well.

"Four thousand Italian Jews were converted in 1939-40, nearly one out of ten Jews in Italy at the time. There were also many converts among the refugees. "It was to be assumed that with their rescue and liberation, after the days of wrath will have passed, most or many of the apostates would return to their people. Now many months have already passed since the liberation of Rome and other Jewish communi-

Assembly Considers Bills To Outlaw Discrimination

Proposed Legislation Affects Many Phases of Communal Life

Makes Big Haul

Lt. Sidney Goldstein of Glen Cove, L. I., holder of the Distinguished Service Cross and other decorations, who captured sixty-seven Nazis recently in an attack on Nazi positions in the Gothic line.

Rhode Island is now one of ten states considering legislation to prevent discrimination in employment because of race or religion. Based on a similar law which was recently passed in New York and now being considered in Massachusetts, a state commission would be set up to investigate complaints of discrimination not only in employment but in the renting of homes, union membership privileges, education, recreation and social welfare. Court action would be utilized to enforce the anti-discriminatory law.

The legislature is considering two bills, one introduced by Rep. John J. Wrenn and the other, sponsored by Senator William B. Sweeney.

Both measures would make subject to their provisions all employers of four or more persons with such exceptions as charitable and religious organizations and domestic servants. The only important difference between the two bills is that the State and its pol-

Melvin Hoffman Wounded on Iwo Jima by Jap Sniper

Pharmacist Mate Melvin D. Hoffman, USMCR, was wounded in action on Iwo Jima on March 3, the Navy Department notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Hoffman, 19 Welfare avenue, Cranston.

A medical student at Providence College, Hoffman enlisted in the Navy January, 1944, completing his "boot" training at Sampson, New York. After a short stay at Sampson, Hoffman was sent to Bainbridge Naval Hospital in Maryland for further training. While at Bainbridge, he answered a "sea call" and was transferred from Navy ranks to the Fleet Marines, and was sent overseas last July.

Hoffman, in a letter sent to his parents, described the battle of Iwo Jima as the bloodiest engagement ever participated in by the Marine Corps. In a mission with three other corpemen, Hoffman was ordered to render first aid to fallen Marines and in order to reach them, had to travel 50 yards over open field. Running in zig-zag fashion, he was hit in the leg by a Jap sniper and fell in a fox hole. Due to the terrific fire that followed, aid was impossible, and he lay in a self-dug fox hole for thirteen hours before being rescued.

Hoffman was evacuated to the Mariannas and thence to Pearl Harbor and is awaiting return to the States. He was awarded the Purple Heart.

U. S. Has New Mandate Plan

WASHINGTON — The United States Government is going to take to the United Nations' meeting at San Francisco, opening April 25, a fully matured plan for dealing with the complicated subject of mandated territories which include Palestine.

The essence of the change which this government intends to propose and sponsor is that an international body be given the right of inspection in territories being administered by mandatory powers. This constitutes a considerable change from the method in force under the League of Nations whereby, each year, a questionnaire was submitted to the mandatory power and the representatives of that power concerned with the mandated territory had to answer questions.

HAVE 7 SONS IN ARMY

NEW YORK — Mr. and Mrs. Abe Levy of Brooklyn have seven of their nine sons serving in the U. S. Army. The Levy brothers are scattered in units from France to New Guinea.

Editorials

The Apologies Begin

The Russians report a death of Nazi sympathizers among their captives. The Western Allies say they can't find any Germans who willingly supported the Nazi cause. Now a well-known magazine comes forth with the story of a leading Italian diplomat under Mussolini who claims he was against Bennie all the time.

All this was expected. The rats are deserting the ship.

It must be remembered that there was nothing good in Fascism. It was a racket from beginning to end. Those persons clever enough to gain high positions in Fascist councils were nothing but racketeers in the very worst form. It is expected that they will show no compunction about denying what was sold to the masses as a "religion."

These barbarians continue to insult the civilized world by expecting us to believe them. The insult will be ignored when Justice is meted out—Justice, incidentally, which is feared by these same Fascists who know even better than we do the extent of the crimes of Fascism.—Communique.

What You Can Spare They Can Wear

In the home of virtually everyone of our readers there likely is at least one article of clothing that can be spared for Europe's destitute, in answer to the gigantic campaign now being opened in America.

Authentic stories reveal that thousands upon thousands of men, women and children lack those articles of apparel to which we are accustomed. Many of the Nazis' victims are wearing sacks as shoes, many are without underwear and others have long since seen their last outer garments fall from their bodies.

Under the leadership of the industrialist and manufacturer, Henry Kaiser, and with the hearty co-operation of many individuals and organizations, the clothing campaign for Europe's needy has adopted as its slogan: "What can you spare that they can wear?"

Won't you look about your home today—and speed the answer to that question—in the name of humanity?

Exeter Children Guests at Party

A Passover party for children at the Exeter School was given last Tuesday morning by representatives of the Moes Chitim Organization and the Ladies' Hebrew Union Aid of Pawtucket.

Participants in the program and the arrangements included Rabbi Morris G. Silk, Max Richter and the Mesdames Irwin Shulman, chairman, Rose Fabricant, co-chairman, David Kahanovsky and Samuel Fishbein.

Third Seder Inaugurates Campaign for Histadrut

Approximately 500 persons assembled last Sunday night at Commercial Traveler's Hall to celebrate the Third Seder of the National Labor Committee of the Palestine Histadrut.

Arthur Korman, chairman of the arrangements committee, opened the meeting and introduced Dr. Ilie Berger, general chairman of the campaign who explained the purpose of the drive. Archibald Silverman acted as toastmaster of the evening. Alter Boyman then gave a review of the work of the Histadrut during the past 24 years, particularly of the accomplishments since Hitler's advent to power. "The Histadrut," he said, "built and rescued at the same time."

Lt. Commander Joshua L. Goldberg, a Jewish chaplain with the U. S. Navy, described conditions in Europe, and gave a summary of the Jewish problems of today. "Jewish labor in Palestine," he said, "is doing everything humanly possible to create a Jewish homeland and to save as many Jews as possible."

Greetings were given by Mrs. Frances Goldman, president of the Women Pioneers and by Max Beriman, president of the Jewish National Workers' Alliance. Mascha Benya and Victor Pecker, of radio and stage, entertained with songs and recitations.

Mr. Sanderson, assistant director of the National Labor Committee for Palestine, extended greetings on behalf of the national office.

Broadcast Passover Program "The Seder Table" Given Over WEAN

Women. Parts in the Passover play were taken by Mrs. Matthew E. Segool, advertising chairman for the Council, and Miss Wileen Taber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Taber.

Mrs. Isidor S. Low, Vice-president of the National Council of Jewish Women and R. Franklin Weller, regional director of the Rhode Island Seminar, arranged the program and took part.

British Discover Oil in Palestine

JERUSALEM — The Arab press reports the discovery of "considerable quantities of oil somewhere between the Dead Sea and the Egyptian border." The discovery was made by members of a British oil research group which is conducting boring operations in that region.

Arab Leaders Agree to Very Small State

CAIRO — Leaders of Arab countries have agreed to the establishment of a small Jewish state in Palestine, about the size of Lebanon, in the hope that this solution of the Palestine problem will be acceptable to Jews, it is reported here.

This decision, coming shortly after the talks between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill and the rulers of Egypt and Saudi-Arabia, is taken here to indicate that the governments of Britain and the United States have been informed of this latest plan.

Lebanon covers 3,600 square miles as compared with the 10,429 square miles of Palestine. The population of Lebanon is estimated to be about 700,000.

(Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons this week that the applications of Syria and Lebanon to attend the San Francisco Conference are "under consideration." The requests of these countries to become members of the United Nations are also being studied, he said.)

Mob Prevents Paris Jew From Recovering Home

PARIS — A "mysteriously organized" mob of 600 people this week prevented a Paris Jew from recovering his apartment which was being illegally occupied by a person who had obtained it during occupation, it was revealed here this week. The owner of the apartment had obtained a court order dispossessing the present occupant and was accompanied by police officials who were powerless to disperse the mob.

The incident was disclosed by Juliette Jonvaux of the Movement Against Racism, addressing a meeting attended by 3,000 persons, called by a joint committee of various anti-racist and Jewish organizations to hear a report on the present status of the restitution problem.

NOTES OF AN INNOCENT BYSTANDER

The Intelligentsia: Her critics wonder if Katherine Winsor's tremendous "research" for "Forever Amber" was confined to one book. ### THE FIRST NIGHTS

It was Old Home Week in the theater for the most part. A pair of stage favorites held reunions. After winning 21-gun salutes in the European foxhole circuit, Katharine Cornell returned to a Main Stem pillbox with her famed "The Barretts of Wimpole Street." Time has frayed the script somewhat, but the men on the aisle-thrones greeted a dramatic queen royally. Katharine the Great was crowned with superlatives.

The City Center housed the second revival "You Can't Take It With You." The shenanigans of the katzenjammer family continue to give dimples a workout—although quips about the WPA (remember?) now seem to belong to the Ice Age. Critic L. Kronenberger reported "It is still a pretty good play."

A newcomer, "Lady in Danger," is a cap-and-bell whodunit. However, no one could solve the mystery of the dismal play's missing laughs. It gave every indication of becoming a quick casualty....."The Glass Menagerie" premiered as this paragraph bowed off itical subdivisions would be exempt from the anti-discrimination control in the Wrenn bill, while they would be just like any other employer under the Sweeney bill.

The measures would make it unlawful for an employer or employing agency to question an employee or applicant about his race, color, creed, national origin or ancestry, or for an employer to use any application form on which such questions appear. Any employer who caused a help-wanted advertisement to be published expressing a preference, or otherwise announced or published a preference would be considered a violation.

A home owner discriminating in choosing his tenants, or a labor union discriminating against groups of its members, or applicants for membership, would be in violation.

The commission—five members in the Wrenn bill, three in the Sweeney bill—would be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate and would be paid not over $5000 a year. It could designate any public agency to investigate complaints.

Participants and Guests at the Seder at Howard

It Happened This Week

Much ado about nothing sums up the fuss that occurred during the hearing on the proposed amendment to permit the construction of the new Miriam Hospital on the site of the old Jewish Children's Home.....Some of the adjacent property owners feared that the Hospital would give up its ideas of building and enter the apartment house business.....Despite evidence to the contrary, action on the request was delayed until the City Council has a chance to alter the ambiguous situation.....Apparently there is no objection to the construction of a Hospital but to the possibility that through a revision of the zoning ordinance a loop-hole will have been created through which an apartment house might be erected in the district.....

fesses that he was born in a "house on the borderline of Poland, Czechoslovakia and Germany....."The kitchen was in Poland, the dining room in Czechoslovakia and the bathroom in Choimany," he explains....."So, we cooked in Poland, ate in Czechoslovakia, and—vell, the bathroom was in Choimany.".....When Menasha was told to do the same act he did last year, he refused, saying, "After all, the ushers and the musicians should be enjoying the show too—no?"

Dilemma

One of the world's greatest figures in music received his first opportunity many years ago when he was called upon hurriedly to substitute for his employer, who had been stricken a few minutes before curtain time. "I was in the arms of a lady, at her apartment, when the call came," he now confesses. "She urged me to rush to the concert hall immediately—that this was an opportunity which might not come again in years. She persuaded me, and I left. The next day I was famous. One doubt, however, shall always torment me," the great musician now sighs. "I'll never know whether she urged me to leave because she wanted me to become famous or because I was a disappointing lover."

And those postwar homes—will the payments on them also be streamlined?

About People

Mrs. Julius Kaplan and son spent the holiday week in New York.....Lt. Louis Shwartz, son of Mrs. Sylvia Shwartz, telephoned home the other night to say that he's back in this country—South Dakota—after completing his assignment in Alaska.....Lt. Ruth Lantner is with the U. S. Army Nurse Corps, stationed at Ft. Devens.....Her brother, Lt. Herman Lantner, has taken up residence in Detroit.....His wife and daughter are with him.....Many of our readers will remember Bernard Goldstein, a lanky youth, who, some years ago was one of the Herald collectors.....News was received this week that Berney was forced down inside Germany and is now a prisoner of war.....Dr. Carl Jagoliner, optometrist, has opened his office in the Woolworth building.....

Discrimination

With two anti-bias bills now in committee in the General Assembly, a number of people are wondering if any Jewish organizations are interested in having them passed.....At a recent meeting of a committee there were only two Jewish representatives, one of whom was present in behalf of a labor group.....Much has been published on the advantages and disadvantages of anti-discrimination laws and something should be done here to investigate the bills that have been proposed to determine whether or not they deserve support.....

Family of Maryland Cohens Has Fought in Every War

CHARLESTON, N. C. — Nathan Shulman, National Jewish Welfare Board director has discovered a family of Maryland Cohens who, since 1776, have been fighting in America's wars.

Two members of the family, in the dim past, came to Charleston in wartime and married Charleston belles.

Today, Major Alan M. Cohen and his son, Sgt. Alan M. Cohen, Jr., are carrying on the family tradition.

Sgt. Cohen, a U. S. Marine, is now at the Charleston naval hospital, recuperating from wounds received in action in Guam. His father, Major Cohen, first served in the Marine Corps as a recruit, back in 1915. Last year, after a lapse of thirty years, he went to Charleston for duty as post exchange officer, enabling him to be reunited with his son.

The first member of the Cohen family to migrate to Charleston was Sgt. Cohen's great-great-great-great uncle, Jacob. Jacob arrived during 1775 and enlisted at once in Captain Lushington's company as a member of the Charles Town infantry regiment. After the war, he married a Charleston damsel.

Another ancestor of the sergeant, one Edward Cohen, fought in the Civil War, but, to the embarrassment of a great many of his relatives up north chose the wrong team. But he came back in peacetime to wed the fair Ellen Mordecai of Charleston, continuing the family custom. Mr. Shulman declined to speculate about the future of this custom, however.
