New Militant Spirit and Unity Marks ZOA Conclave

DR. A. H. SILVER

Bishop Warns of Wartime Hysteria

NEW YORK — Scoring religious bias, Archbishop Francis J. Spellman, of New York, warned America to be constantly on guard, lest wartime hysteria give rise to political, religious and racial bigotry. Speaking at the fourth annual Holy Name rally, the Archbishop declared that "every American and true Catholic must be the unequivocal opponent of every species of bigotry, the octopian monter, that can destroy our cherished American inheritance and institutions."

DETAILS OF TALK KNOWN

WASHINGTON — It was reported here that details of the talks between Dr. Chaim Weizmann and Secretary of State Byrnes are known to Zionist leaders in this country.

Editorials

A Legal Precedent

Justice Keiller Mackay, of the High Court of Justice of Ontario, has set a major legal precedent by declaring "void and of no effect" a land sales contract which stipulated that the land must not be sold to Jews "or persons of objectionable nationality."

By partially basing his judgment on the human rights clause of the United Nations Charter, Justice Mackay sounded a challenge to the nations who authored the Charter to ascertain for all time whether the human rights clause was merely sanctimonious piety, or was intended to have obligatory, binding meaning. Incidentally, under this clause, if it be recognized as internationally legally binding, the White Paper clauses barring Jews from buying land in most of Palestine can be effectively challenged. The opinion of Justice Mackay may have international repercussions and be of history-making significance.

The Justice further based his decision on existing Ontario legislation, on the Racial Discrimination Act which prohibits publication of matter detrimental to any sector of the community, and on the Insurance Act of 1937, which forbids racial discrimination by insurance companies. The Racial Discrimination Act deserves study by groups in the United States seeking to extirpate racial discrimination.

In this respect Ontario is well ahead of us, and ahead of England, where group-libel legislation is being studied.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — The Zionist Organization of America has elected Dr. Abba Hillel Silver as president, a choice which means that U. S. Zionists, from today on, officially are dropping moderation and are taking signals from their militant leaders in the issue with Britain over Palestine.

Dr. Silver was elected by acclamation at the 48th annual ZOA Convention, succeeding Dr. Israel Goldstein. That no issue was brought to the convention floor over Dr. Silver's nomination was interpreted by some delegates as proof that whatever disagreement divided Jewish councils before, ranks have been closed on the political line, at least, as a result of the British Labor Government's stand.

Wise Caustic

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, joint chairman with Dr. Silver of the Zionist Emergency Council, but who had differed with him in the past on programs for confronting British Palestine policy, was equally as caustic in denouncing the recent statement of British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and also President Truman's subscription to the committee of inquiry Bevin proposed.

Zionists listened with especial interest to Dr. Wise's address to detect any signs of lingering disagreement. There was none.

Keynote Address

In what was, in effect, his keynote, Dr. Silver denounced the Attlee government's proposed inquiry commission as a hoax to side-step the Palestine problem and as more "British imperial cynicism."

Arabs Protest March of Time

LONDON — The Arab Office in London announced that it has submitted a protest to U. S. Ambassador John G. Winant against the film on Palestine released by the "March of Time." At the same time the Arab Office informed the British Government that should the film be shown in Palestine, it will lead to reprisals. Arab leaders claim that the film "grossly misrepresented" the Arabs in a manner likely "to arouse contempt and antipathy for them."

Affair to Launch General Solicitation

Dr. J. L. Liebman Guest Speaker

With expectations of a capacity attendance at the banquet officially opening the 1945 campaign of the General Jewish Committee of Providence to be held Sunday evening at the Narragansett Hotel, Alvin A. Sopkin, chairman, indicated that the campaign is off to an enthusiastic start. Mr. Sopkin stated that "the spirit of cooperation that has been manifested to date by workers and givers alike, has been encouraging, and if it continues there is an excellent likelihood of reaching our goal of $330,000."

Mrs. Harold C. Sydney, banquet chairman, is in charge of arrangements for the affair. Dr. Joshua Loth Liebman, Rabbi of Temple Israel, Boston, will be the principal speaker. Dr. Liebman, Rabbi of the largest congregation in New England, is considered one of the leading radio orators in America.

Other speakers on the program will be Mayor Dennis J. Roberts, who will bring the greetings of the city, and Archibald Silverman, president of the General Jewish Committee. Alvin A. Sopkin, chairman of the campaign, will be toastmaster.

Joseph Galkin, campaign director, urged all workers in the initial gifts and business men's divisions to cover all their cards before the banquet. For their convenience, reports may be brought in and submitted at the report desk that will be set up on Sunday in the Narragansett Hotel from 5 o'clock on.

Increased Gifts Necessary To Meet Overseas Needs

The general solicitations division of the General Jewish Committee campaign will get off to a flying start with a workers' rally on Tuesday evening in the Biltmore Hotel foyer at 8 o'clock, it was announced jointly by Joseph W. Ress and Dr. Ilie Berger, co-chairmen of the division. All captains and workers in this division, and any other volunteers in this campaign, are invited to attend.

M. Robert Herman, national field director of the United Jewish Appeal, will be the guest speaker. Captains met earlier in the week to form their teams, and to lay the groundwork for the organization of their work. One of the features of the workers' rally will be the distribution of pledge cards by the captains to their various workers. It is expected that on the day fol-owing the rally, hundreds of workers will go forth in the community, visiting contributors and urging that they give the maximum possible contribution to the 46 Agencies included in the General Jewish Committee campaign. The first report luncheon for this division will take place on Tuesday noon, December 4th, at the Biltmore Hotel.

Laski to Make Short Visit Here

NEW YORK — Prof. Harold Laski, chairman of the national executive council of the British Labor party, will make a five-day visit to the U. S. under the auspices of the publishers of The Nation. He will address the closing session of a conference, "What Is the Answer to the Atomic Bomb?" to be sponsored by the magazine December 1 through December 3.

FDR Requested Nazi Punishment

PRAGUE — The principle that crimes against humanity be included in the indictment of Nazi war criminals was introduced by into President Roosevelt shortly before his death, it was revealed here by Col. B. Ecer, Czechoslovak representative on the United Nations War Crimes Commission.

Roosevelt insisted that atrocities committed against individuals because of their race or religion be considered war crimes, even though perpetrated by the Axis nations against their own nationals, Col. Ecer said.

Agencies to Vote On National Budgeting Plan

PHILADELPHIA — The board of directors of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds voted unanimously to approve the decision of its executive board to have the member agencies vote on the national advisory budgeting proposal at the next general assembly which may be held in Detroit, Feb. 8 to 11.

This decision upheld the agreement reached at the 1942 general assembly which specifically stated that assembly action was necessary to institute full national advisory budgeting. War restrictions on conferences and travel, in force at the time of the last board meeting in June, when a report favoring the submission of the question of national advisory budgeting to the member agencies was approved, made it impossible to plan an assembly hence the agreement to resort to the use of a mail referendum as a wartime substitute procedure.

He saw Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the two atomized cities; covered the first eight B29 air raids; saw the rescue of General Wainwright at Mukden, investigated the House of Geisha Girls.

Truman's request of Prime Minister Attlee that 100,000 Jews, principally from the concentration camps in Europe, be permitted immediately to go to Palestine," the New ZOA president declared.

"But President Truman's request was rejected. We had overestimated the determination of the President. He was persuaded to accept the shabby substitute of an investigating committee, that very hoary and transparent device for delay and circumvention, against his own better judgement.

"Why did he yield? In the matter of Palestine, does our government always yield, at the expense of the Jews, now to the Arab chieftains, and now to the propaganda of the British?

Hadassah to Hear Convention Report

Providence Chapter of Hadassah will hold a meeting this Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Castle room of the Biltmore Hotel, it was announced this week by Mrs. Saul Feinberg, president. Mrs. Feinberg will give her report on the recent national convention which she attended.

We Must Help Them on The Road to a New Life

By ALTER BOYMAN

"We have all read what our boys went through during the war—in the foxholes, in the jungles, in the mud, and of all they had to endure. But very few have really acquainted themselves with what the Jews went through; and when I say the Jews, I mean those remnants who managed to remain alive after five and a half million Jews had been killed. Some of them were on the threshold of the gas chambers and only by miracles they saved themselves.

"All of them were in concentration camps which may be called Hell-Holes. At the present time, fortunately, for all of us, our boys who went through all the suffering of war, are returning to their happy homes; and not only our boys but all refugees from all European countries are returning to their homes. But our Jewish brethren are still in the concentration camps, and those who return to the countries they came from find themselves most of the time in HELL-HOLES. They need our assistance more than ever. The Joint Distribution Committee is doing its utmost wherever possible to bring relief and assistance. The United Palestine Appeal is making every effort to bring to Palestine, with certificates and without certificates, as many Jews as possible.

"The miserable 1500 certificates which will be given by the British Government monthly for Jews to enter Palestine requires hundreds of thousands of dollars a month for transportation alone, which will have to be paid by the Joint Distribution Committee. Then the problem of settling them and bringing them back to normal life will have to be answered by the United Palestine Appeal.

"Therefore the General Jewish Committee Campaign, which is being conducted at present in our community, and which includes the United Jewish Appeal, the HIAS, the ORT, the American Jewish Congress, the Jewish Welfare Board, and 42 more important agencies, should be and must be an overwhelming success.

"It is my hope that every contributor, before making his decision on the amount of his gift, will give careful thought to the urgency of the moment in the lives of the Jews of Europe, and also the importance of the other agencies included in the campaign. Then when he makes his decision he should be satisfied in his own mind, and able to say with a clear conscience that he did his duty."

Returning G. I. is Not Anti-Labor, Says Uhl at Center

Alexander Uhl, foreign editor of PM speaking on the topic, "What Will the GI Want", to 250 members and guests of the Jewish Community Center, including 50 veterans of World War II, stated that the veteran of this war is much more serious and has felt more keenly the tragedies of combat than the veterans of the first World War.

Recalling the experience of the veterans of World War I, Uhl said that the G. I. returning to civilian life is determined not to sell apples. He does not want a handout. Large bonuses are no solution to the problem of economic security for the veteran and responsible leaders in this country do not advocate them.

"We have done a pretty good job," he said "much better than after the first World War, of providing educational opportunities, especially for the younger, unmarried veteran. But we have not made much headway in solving the problem of economic security. The veteran who left school to enter the army and is now leaving the army for a job is finding the most difficulty in finding work.

"Since the United States Employment Service has been returned to the states the responsibility for finding employment for veterans will be in the local community. Local employment bureaus should set up with experience counsellors in charge.

The speaker went on to report on the serviceman's attitude toward labor. He asserted that he found in his talks with GI's here and in the European Battle Theatre, that

Will You Help Feed Michael?

Your Gifts to the General Jewish Committee Drive, Nov. 25 to Dec. 23 Help Keep Children Like This Amazing Refugee Alive

By CORPORAL NAHUM GUTTMAN
(English-Jewish Journalist and a Leader of the Labor-Zionist Youth Movement in the United States)

PARIS — From the not entirely coherent story of Michael's 20-year-old sister, Esther, I was able to gather the above facts about his vital statistics. Michael has been in Paris only a few days and is already becoming a legend.

For Michael is one of the few Jewish children who entered the portals of Oswiecim and lived to see the free world again.

Provided with the full name of the brother and sister, we went to the Lutetin. When we asked for "le petit enfant" the waiter pointed to a young woman sitting at a table with three men. One chair with its back toward us was empty. On that "empty" chair was a tiny morsel of humanity gaily eating his supper. It was Michael.

The supper was a big part of Michael, and must be described. He was in the midst of eating an adult-sized bowl of soup. He finished it and asked for another, with noodles in it. Meanwhile he gulped down some bread and cheese. After eating some meat he returned to his soup. A course of fresh vegetables followed and a dish of cherries. I watched the amazing feat. It was simply impossible for so much food to get into such a small container, but somehow it did.

Physically Michael is a beautiful child. His thin, black, silky hair curls naturally into appealing formations. His eyes are big and black—the most prominent features in his face. But his legs give away his past—they are rickety and bowed.

How Esther saved Michael from the executioners would match the Biblical story of Miriam and Moses. Without even bulrushes for protection, Esther devised her own strategem that saved her brother and herself.

Michael's troubles began before he was born. His entire family, father, mother and three sisters, were deported from Paris in July 1942, when the Nazis began their campaigns against French Jews. The mother was pregnant when the fateful moment came and some months later, she gave birth to Michael—in a concentration camp somewhere in Germany. The family was then transferred to the notorious Oswiecim camp, where they survived intact for over a year. When Michael was three months old, in spite of the separation of the menfolk from the women, one of the inmates was able to perform the rites of circumcision, and Michael was taken into the fold of Israel.

"AT LEAST YOU WILL DIE A JEW"

"At least you will die a Jew," his mother explained.

As the German situation became more critical and their program of exterminating the prisoners of Oswiecim reached a new peak, this little family was also taxed. The mother turned over little Michael to her eldest daughter, Esther, and said, "I have a clever daughter, she will know what to do."

The clever daughter lived up to her mother's expectations. She saved herself from the gas chambers, on homes, business and farms, re-adjustment allowances, educational and vocational rehabilitation, medical care, widows pensions, dependence allowances and many other benefits under the Government

School Council Elects Officers

At the assembly of the Religious School of Temple Emanuel held recently, the following were elected as officers of the Keren Ami School Council: Charles Sandper, president; Zita Grant, vice-president; Deborah Rosen, secretary; Elaine Lecht, treasurer.

At a subsequent assembly it is planned that the newly elected officers will be installed by the president of last year's Council, Richard Kaplan.

altho a prankish guard locked her up in one of the chambers for a half hour and then released her. Believing she was dead, she waited numbly until he unlocked the door, called her out and laugingly told her she was still alive.

One life-saving technique she is willing to reveal is that of being an "absentee" when the guards went thru the barracks ordering everyone out. Those who were caught hiding were shot—but Esther took the risk. Keeping Michael alive was an even harder job, but it too was accomplished by the "clever daughter."

Just before the Russians swooped down on Oswiecim, several thousands of the inmates—Esther and Michael (the only Jew among them)—were shipped north to Stettin Hof. When the very end of the war approached, they were loaded on a vessel in the Baltic that tried to reach Lubeck. The ship was struck, probably by an Allied bomber, just off the shore and Esther had to swim for it with her little brother in her arms.

SOLDIERS AMAZED AT "WONDER CHILD"

May 3rd, British troops freed them in Lubeck. Esther and Michael were flown in an American bomber to Brussels, and from there were taken to Paris. All along the route, Allied soldiers took pictures of the "wonder child." That you can well believe, for I saw many eyes following Michael at the Hotel Lutetin.

The eight days aboard the ship in the Baltic were as horrible as any in Oswiecim. No food was provided for the passengers. Esther had tucked away a few morsels for Michael, which lasted five days. The rest of the trip he lived on salt water. No wonder he has an appetite.

Michael lives in his own defiant little world. He babbles in Yiddish as any two and a half year old would. He plays normally with a soldier hat, like any other child would. And he has the stubborn trait of refusing to obey when he has made up his mind to refuse. Maybe that is why he is still alive.

Michael is living proof that the Nazis have failed.

Men's Club Speaker

DR. ISRAEL J. KAPSTEIN
Dr. Israel J. Kapstein, associate professor of English at Brown University, will address the Sons of Zion Men's Club this Tuesday evening in the vestry of the Synagogue, it was announced this week. Prof. Kapstein is the author of many short stories and the novel, "Something of a Hero".

SALT WATER TAFFY:

Flat-top crews are very proud of their ships. A mechanic's mate on a carrier was once asked by a civilian how fast his ship could go.....The m. m. intoned with a twinkle in his orb: "To tell the truth, I don't know. We've never really opened her up. All my carrier is required to do so far is to keep up with its planes."

This has become a Navy classic: An ensign and lieutenant on a sub-chaser were feuding because they were both Romeoing the same gal. Each took a turn at making the day's entries in the log book. One day the ensign was surprised to discover the lieutenant had written: "August 14; ensign drunk.".....He hesitated a moment and then wrote: "August 15; lieutenant sober."

An admiral, watching a young sailor labor eagerly but clumsily on the quarterdeck, asked: "How long have you been in the Navy, son?"....."Two months," the boy replied. "How long have you been in?".....The admiral was taken slightly aback, but he good-naturedly answered: "Thirty years.".....The sailor shook his head sympathetically and said: "It's hell, ain't it?"

There are many tales about haughty ensigns getting their come-uppance. One of the best concerns the new one who behaved as if he were a combination of John Paul Jones and Lord Nelson. His captain decided to take him down a few pegs.....During a heavy storm he ordered the ensign to go on deck and figure out the ship's position by dead reckoning, a task which is practically impossible. Finally the ensign returned and presented the results of his computation. The captain studied the report for a moment and then bellowed: "Take off your hat, sir! I see by your findings that we are in the middle of Westminster Abbey!"

Chalk up another defeat for censors: A Navy wife was irked by blue-pencilers, who continually cut up letters from her sailor-hubby. But she had her revenge. She sent her husband a letter in the form of a jigsaw puzzle. The censor worked for hours piecing it this happened in the South Pacific during one of the war's biggest battles. Guns were firing in all directions and bombs were falling when one gunner suddenly got the hiccups. He turned to a buddy and shouted: "Hey, I've got the hiccups. Do something to frighten me!"

Overheard conversation between a navy flier and a submariner: "What did you see up there?" asked the sub-man....."No angels," replied the flier. "What did you see?" "No mermaids."

Rabbi Wise Warns Against Revival of Fascism Here

NEW YORK — Fascism which met its greatest defeat in the war may yet score its greatest triumph in peace, declared Dr. Stephen S. Wise, president of the American Jewish Congress, last week at the Greater New York annual conference.

Referring to historical instances in which the utter military defeat of a movement had been followed by the ideological survival and resurgence of the doctrines for which it stood, Dr. Wise warned of the alarming expression of neo-Fascist thinking in many parts of the world. The history of Fascism in Europe, with its ugliest manifestations and tactics, is now being re-enacted before our very eyes in Buenos Aires. Events of the past two weeks at home—the Daily News—O'Donnell incident, the barring of Hazel Scott by those who

PROCLAMATION THANKSGIVING DAY

By JOHN O. PASTORE, Governor

This is the season of Harvest Home. ALMIGHTY GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, has brought us through the turbulence of world combat in a war which has reached the roots of all human life.

Victories have been won less by extraordinary genius in the few than by the faithfulness of the many. Every class has had its share in conflict and the plain man, whom Lincoln so loved, has been as important to the Nation as any high ranking authority.

We should give thanks humbly that we of the home front have had the privilege to achieve the heroic in patience, courtesy, unselfishness, serenity and iron courage.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude to the hosts of men and women of fighting vigor, inspired audacity and tenacious endurance, who have played the foremost part in this country's share for the preservation of the civilization of the world.

Our blessings are myriad in this great, rich land of ours which has not suffered under any bomber's moon. Freedom of thought and speech are ours. We may worship God as we wish. Our roofstones and rafters are intact, our hearthstones undesecrated. There are tangible evidences everywhere of bursting granaries, fattened kine, strutting fowl, shelves of preserved fruits and garden's wealth, simple, homely returns of labor in the fields and vineyards, the garnered yield. Now the field lies fallow, resting, and we consider, giving thanks.

We should be thankful as never before for these, for sunlight, air, water, for sanctuary of the unviolated home, renewal of companionship with loved ones returning after long absence, for the overthrow of evil, the destruction of madness in God's own time, and draw comfort from deep wells of faith, believing that right, indomitably bulwarked by might, has brought Victory.

Remembering these blessings and in observance of an honorable custom which the Colonists instituted, as they wended their watchful way to solemn, simple rites of Harvest Home, I JOHN O. PASTORE, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, DO NOW PROCLAIM beseaching our people to gather in places of worship and in their homes reverently upon this day for the renewal of abiding faith in order that a finer spirit may prevail throughout our land in the mammoth task of shaping and preserving lasting peace, with constant memory of those warriors who have offered their all in our country's defense and of those whose gift has been accepted.

JN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed this 30th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five, and of Independence the one hundred and seventieth. (SEAL) (Signed) JOHN O. PASTORE, Governor

Seek Methods To Counter Bias

Chicago, New York Suggest Plans

NEW YORK — Civic administrators and educators in New York City and Chicago are studying methods to counter growing racial intolerance among public-school students and workers in large urban centers. Chicago's Mayor Kelly's Committee on Race Relations, composed of sixty representatives of civic, church, labor and business organizations, has suggested a "Dumbarton Oaks" plan for racial tolerance in employment, calling for removal of all union membership discriminations based on race, color or creed; inclusion of fair employment practice clauses in all collective bargaining contracts; and vigilance against discriminatory layoffs during reconversion.

In New York, Superintendent of Schools John Wade endorsed a program based on ten principles of action set forth by the presidents of various religious teachers' associations. The program called on the head of each school to set an example of unbiased relations with members of different races or faiths; "to encourage discussion among pupils of religious holidays of Jews and Christians; to present courses including specific references to the contributions of each race to art, literature and music; and to minimize school incidents when possible. The Teachers' Union also called on Superintendent Wade to remove from public school texts the anti-Semitic portions of Chaucer's classic "Canterbury Tales."

To Have Workers' Rally Tuesday

GJC Campaign is nearing conclusion. These divisions are headed respectively by Benjamin Brier and Arthur Kaplan, and under their capable and conscientious leadership, have done an outstanding job. Beginning with November 27 the general solicitations division, headed by Dr. Ilie Berger and myself, starts its phase of the campaign to cover the larger group of people who make up our community. In order for our goal of $330,000 to be reached, each member of our Jewish community will need to give, as I know he will, in larger amounts than he has ever given before.

"It is not enough to make a token contribution, we are dealing with 46 causes, with human lives—children—their very physical existence, their homes, their welfare, and their hopes for a permanent place to build a decent life, depend on us. This calls for the greatest sacrifice on the part of every Jew who has the slightest feeling for what is going on around us. Our profound gratitude at the end of this inhuman war should redouble our efforts to help the unfortunate victims—for who else is to help these Jews but we.

"I feel confident that the responses of our community will be gratifying; I feel confident that the people will recognize that a campaign for 46 organizations, including the Joint Distributing Committee, United Palestine Appeal, the National Refugee Service, the HIAS, ORT, Jewish Welfare Board and 42 others will merit contributions that are substantial and commensurate with their importance. Give! Give until it hurts! Let us not bargain with human lives."

First Jewish Wedding on Okinawa

Stilwell Gives Bride in Marriage

There was a Jewish wedding on Okinawa last month—the first and maybe the last, as far as anyone can foresee; and it was Gen. Stilwell ("Vinegar Joe") who gave away the bride and sweetly planted two four-star kisses on her after the ceremony.

The bride: Capt. Gretchen Ruth Boddy, commanding officer of the Nurses Corps of the 375th Station Hospital on Okinawa; the groom: Capt. Edward Siegel, physician.

The officiating rabbi: Chaplain Herschel Lyman, a graduate of the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati.

The bride and groom had known each other for four years—in the States, in Panama and in the Ryukyus, and, finally, the war being over they got around to being married.

Levin resisted all offers for these pistols, brought them to England and showed them to the Customs officer who gave him a document attesting that they were legitimate booty.....When he arrived at LaGuardia Field, Levin was asked by a Customs man: "Any loot?"....."Sure. Story of Chaim Weizmann on WFCI Tomorrow

The story of the man who made some of the greatest scientific discoveries of the age and who refused lifelong wealth and the highest honors at Great Britain's command for the sake of his ideal for a Jewish homeland is told in this week's presentation of "The Drama of Palestine," radio series. The man is Chaim Weizmann, leader of Zionists throughout the world. His story is two-fold: That of the great chemist who contributed important formulas that twice helped to save the civilized world from savagery, and that of the noble, humble being who asked for no reward but the promise of a home for his people.

"The Story of Chaim Weizmann" will be heard over Station WFCI on tomorrow evening at 7:15.

*"It's nice of you
to want to help"*

Of course, it's mainly up to the telephone company to see that you get good service. That's what we're in business for. But, in these days, when our switchboards and operators are so very busy, we sure do appreciate the friendly courtesy of people who want to do all they can to help get better service — for themselves and every one. Here are a few helpful habits in using your telephone:

- 1 LOOK UP THE NUMBER — Wrong numbers waste your time and tie up telephone facilities.
- 2 PLAN WHAT YOU'RE GOING TO SAY — You save your own time, and other people's, too, by planning your conversations in advance.
- 3 SPEAK CLEARLY — Use your normal tone of voice, speaking directly into the mouthpiece.
- 4 ANSWER PROMPTLY — Every one saves time and annoyance when telephones are answered promptly; it's a courtesy we all appreciate.
