GJC to Set '48 Goal At Dinner Wednesday

Featured at Labor Zionist Conclave Here

Headquarters of the General Jewish Committee this week polished off final plans for next Wednesday evening's dinner-meeting, at which the goal for the coming Fall Campaign will be decided upon.

Indications were that events in war-torn Israel will play an important part in the setting of the 1948 quota for this area. Since the recent founding of the new Jewish State, it has become apparent that a greater amount of funds than originally contemplated must be raised—if the desperate needs of the new State are to be met.

The GJC forthcoming fund-raising drive is an integral part of the current $250,000,000 United Jewish Appeal, which also provides for the relief and rehabilitation of European Jews, as well as newcomers to this country.

Unless he is unexpectedly called.

Emanuel Appoints Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen

Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen of Buffalo has accepted the call to become Rabbi of Temple Emanuel, it was announced yesterday by Samuel Rosen, president of the congregation. The invitation was extended at a special meeting of the board of trustees of the temple. It is expected that Rabbi Bohnen will come to Providence September 1.

Rabbi Bohnen will succeed Rabbi Israel M. Goldman who has been spiritual leader of Temple Emanuel for the past 23 years. Rabbi Goldman is leaving to assume the leadership of Congregation Chizuk Amuno at Baltimore.

The new Rabbi is a World War II veteran, having enlisted in the army in 1943. He was chaplain of the 42nd Infantry (Rainbow) Division serving in Oklahoma, France, Germany and Austria. He rose to the rank of major and after the German surrender, did extensive work in displaced persons camps. He also was advisor on Jewish affairs to Major General Harry J. Collins who commanded the American troops occupying Austria.

In Buffalo, where he has been Rabbi of Temple Emanuel since 1939, Rabbi Bohnen was active in all aspects of Jewish and communal work. He was a member of the committee on community relations (Inter-faith Conference) and chairman of the speaker's committee of the Interfaith Group on Religious Education, consisting of representatives of three faiths. Bevin's View

A revolt is brewing in British labor circles against Bevin's Palestine policy.

At a recent secret meeting in London attended by top-level officers of the Labor Party the debate was so sharp that the conference broke up in the midst of a threatened fist fight and threats of resignation.

Bevin was bluntly accused of harboring animosity against Jews to the point of sacrificing socialist ideals and party programs. One Laborite charged that Bevin's antipathy toward Jews was responsible for the rise of anti-Semitism in England and the series of anti-Jewish riots in London and other cities. Even Morrison, father of the infamous Morrison-Grady federalization plan, and Atlee, author of the notorious "Jews are always at the head of the queue" phrase, are considerably cool to the former teamster.

Bevin is shrewd, unscrupulous and determined to crush Israel in line with his brutal warning that "only over my dead body" will a Jewish state be established.

When he saw that U. S. recognition of Israel might precipitate firm UN action against the Arab aggressors he hit upon a device which was as deceptive

Israeli Guns Get to Jerusalem

JERUSALEM — Four Jewish military convoys arrived in Jerusalem this week bringing in heavy artillery to back up an Israeli ultimatum to the Arab Legion warning that unless shelling from the Old City directed at the Jewish sections of Jerusalem ceases, the Jews will shell the Arab-populated Old City.

Arab reports this morning confirmed that, following the capture of Qubab yesterday by Jewish fighters, the main highway from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem is open again to Jewish traffic.

(Later dispatches from Tel Aviv said the road was opened briefly only to military traffic and is not safe for slow, non-military convoys.)

Wells Urges Aid to Israel

WASHINGTON — There can be no hope for peace in Palestine unless the UN partition plan is carried out and gets the official support of the U. S. A., in the opinion of Sumner Welles, former Under Secretary of State.

In his latest book, "We Need Not Fail," published by Houghton Mifflin, Welles charges that the Truman administration:

Has yielded to selfish and mistaken interests in its backing and filling on Palestine policy and

Has gravely injured the prestige of the United Nations itself.

Analyzing the history of Jewish efforts to set up a state in Palestine, Welles declares that both Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt were staunch supporters of an independent Jewish commonwealth, but that under Truman American policy has been largely determined by the armed services, the oil interests and fear that Russia might get a foothold in the Middle East.

"We made it plain," he writes, "that just as the great powers wrecked the League of Nations by using it as an instrument of their own national policy, and by fulfilling their obligations to the cause of collective security only when it suited their own selfish national convenience, so we are now using the United Nations as an instrument of our own national policy, and fulfilling our obligations to the cause of collective security only when that seems to serve our own selfish and national ends."

5 Killed, 30 Hurt In Arab Disorders

OUJDA, French Morocco — Five persons were killed and 30 injured this week during disorders involving Arabs and Jews.

The disorders arose from a quarrel between an Arab and a Jew over the war in Palestine. Soon the argument ended in fist-cuffs and the Jew injured the Arab. Riots started in several districts of the town.

Police, aided by French Senegalese troops and cavalry, restored order after two hours.

At the recent B'nai B'rith Convention at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City, the thousands of delegates were thrilled to see the flag of Israel flying side by side with Old Glory.

ed back to Palestine within the next few days, keynote speaker at Wednesday's affair will be Reuven Dafni, high ranking Haganah official who served in British intelligence during World War II.

Archibald Silverman, GJC president, will open the dinner-meeting and introduce Alvin A. Sopkin, campaign chairman, who will serve as toastmaster.

Both Mr. Silverman and Mr. Sopkin this week emphasized that the amount of the local quota will be determined by common agreement of those leaders of the Jewish community who are present at the June 16 affair.

"A full discussion of all the factors involved—in which every one present will be invited to take part—will result, we feel certain, in the setting of a realistic goal; a goal that will take into consideration the critical situation in Palestine and the plight of Europe's 1,500,000 surviving Jews—as well as our own charitable activities here at home," declared Mr. Silverman and Mr. Sopkin.

For the world it was advertised that the series of conferences with the American Ambassador was a move toward finding a formula synthesizing the conflicting American and British points of view on Palestine.

Actually his purpose was a sinister one. His aim was to delay UN action in the hope that in the interim the Arabs would succeed in liquidating the Jerusalem campaign and thus gain a bargaining position.

Visitors Prefer South Africa

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyersolm admire the United States very much but prefer Johannesburg, South Africa, as a place to live.

The Meyersolms are visiting with Mrs. Meyersolm's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gerstein of 381 Morris Avenue. The two sisters haven't been together since they left Lithuania 36 long years ago.

Mrs. Meyersolm reported that Johannesburg is a "paradise," particularly for women because of the abundance of servants among the native population.

Mrs. Meyersolm has four helpers

Mrs. Gerstein was at the dock to meet the Meyersolms at the end of their 10,000 mile trip and said because of the long separation she didn't recognize her sister until her name was called. The couple will stay in this country six or eight months, and plan an extensive tour, including a visit to Indianapolis to visit another sister, Mrs. Anna Sacks. They brought regards from two brothers and a sister, all of whom are settlers in Johannesburg.

The Gersteins arranged trips and entertainment in honor of their relatives. Many friends and relatives of the Gersteins also entertained in honor of the Meyersolms. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. William Berman, Mrs. A. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. L. Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Michaelson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Talan and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gregerman.

Oscar Melzer Honored At State

Melzer has been president of the Brandeis Organization, president of Hillel, chairman of the Intercollegiate Zionist Federation of America Chapter, president of the Interfaith Organization, of which he was one of the founders; chairman of the Student War Memorial Union Committee, manager of varsity track, cultural chairman of Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity, associate editor of the college yearbook, and reporter on the college newspaper.

Melzer was selected to be named to "Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges" for the 1947-1948 edition.

Anne's Shopping Letter

Dear Ruth;
Nice to hear from you again — So you finally decided to visit the folks. Could I suggest where and what to buy for travelwear and about — town apparel? Why not Ann Gerber's Dress Shop at 201 Wayland Avenue? I was there only last week — went on a shopping tour with our friend Adele. They have a complete line of summer dresses, pure silk shantungs and two-piecers in rich glowing colors.
I saw three charming numbers among them, royal blue, steel grey and emerald green. Any one of them would be appropriate for travel or wear around town. With cottons leading the women's fashions this year, Ann Gerber's shop carries a selected group of elegant cotton dresses — crisp and cool-looking in an array of refreshing colors. All are washable, and sizes range from 10 to 20. You will want more than one in your wardrobe. See Ann Gerber and you will be pleased.

Adele is sending her boys to camp again this year. Getting the proper shoes for them has always been a problem with her. She was both happy and relieved when I told her about the boys' shoe department that recently opened in the Thomas F. Peirce & Son Store at 171 Westminster Street. Brown leathers, black leathers — some wing tipped, others moccasin style or straight toe. Sizes range from 2½ to 6 for the youngsters and-for the older boy sizes from 6 to 12. See Mr. Hazelton whenever you need shoes for your boys.

I know your Dad is fond of candy—and since you are going to visit with him may I suggest the famous Russian Casanova candies. Hy Diwinsky's Delicatessen at 795½ Hope Street has a lovely display of these chocolates. There is a deluxe box that retails for $1.50. Rum cherries (boxed) are $1.00 and mints (boxed) are 79 cents. Have Hy deliver a box of candy with your order.

Have a nice time and give the family my best regards.
Sincerely,
ANNE

Syd Cohen:
Sports Musings

With two weeks of play remaining in the softball season, it is now time to take a look at the standings and do a bit of conjecturing as to the possible and probable winners.

In the junior division, at this writing, Pawtucket AZA seems to have the pennant race well in hand. The other teams, closely bunched, are all in contention for playoff spots.

No less than five senior division teams are grouped within a game and a half of the top and it now seems a question of who plays whom in the remaining two weeks. Mal's Baby Shoppe, currently in first place, face the toughest burden of all for the rest of the way, since they meet the second place Gob Shop nine this week and the up-and-coming Arden Caps in the season's finale. They also have a replay with the Blazers.

Gob Shop, once past Mal's should have no trouble with Sackin-Shocket, and so are in a favorable spot. Berry Clothing meets Sackin-Shocket and the Blazers and seems a good bet for a playoff spot. Jake Kaplan's Olympics face the Blazers and East Side Pharmacy and will have to be at their best on both occasions to stay in the race. Arden Caps, besides Mal's Baby Shoppe, play the Blazers.

From here it would seem that Gob Shop is in the most favorable spot to be in first place two Sundays hence. Berry Clothing should be the most serious challenger for second place; and going strictly by the schedule, the Olympics should shade the Capitols for fourth.

Of course, all this can change

The first public demonstration by the students of the Providence Hebrew Day School was held last Sunday at the Plantations Auditorium. Archie Smith, chairman of the affair, traced a brief history of the school and pointed out that the scenes being shown were actual classroom studies.

Dr. Joseph Kaminetsky, education director of Torah Umesorah, delivered an address showing how the Hebrew Day School had become a spiritual Haganah for the Jewish people. Dr. Michael F. Walsh, Director of Education for the State of R. I., praised the afternoon's performances and pointed out the value of religious instruction. Prof. Jacob I. Hartstien, head of the Dept. of Education of Long Island University, concluded the program with an analysis of the educational values presented by a Hebrew day school.

by next Sunday, when the final week's play will be all that remains. The above conjecturing is not our prediction, incidentally. We are going by the schedule. Next week we will look into the crystal ball.

Congratulations to the Beth Israel Bowling League for its Monday night win over the Olympics. That just about makes them city champs.

The sports laugh of the past week probably wasn't heard by enough radio listeners to spoil this retelling. It happened during the Memorial Day broadcast of the Yankees-Senators double header when Mel Allen permitted Al Schacht, baseball's clown prince, to do the play-by-play for a half inning.

Schacht, describing a routine putout, said the first baseman made the play unmolested. Probably he meant to say unassisted. At any rate, when Mel laughed heartily Al set about to explain what he meant by unmolested. He finally said the first sacker made the play without being bothered.

It probably is not generally known, by the way, that Mel Allen's last name is Israel.

Won't Tell

Friends were wishing Bob Ross a happy birthday Tuesday. Bob was celebrating his umptieth birthday. (Guess it's a man's prerogative, too, not to tell his age!)

Cute Hat

If you were at the Cabana Saturday night, you probably noticed a striking blond in a navy dress and a unique hat that tied under her chin. In case you didn't recognize her, it was Frannie Taber and that handsome guy at her side was Sammy Granoff.

June Honeymoon

Sunday night climaxed a whirlwind courtship when Ralph Sopkin and Selma Weiss became Mr. and Mrs. The young couple were married in the Garden Room of the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel and are now en route to California on a honeymoon trip. Best of luck, Ralph and Selma.

Beth Israel Bowlers Whip Olympics

Temple Beth Israel Men's Club's Bowling League captured what amounts to the city bowling championship insofar as the Jewish leagues are concerned when its minions subdued the William G. Cutler Olympic Club 8-4 in a special challenge match Monday evening at the Casino Alleys.

The Olympics, winners of the second Herald tourney, had asked for the rolloff with Beth Israel, winners of the last two Herald tournaments involving the Temple leagues.

Neither of the leagues displayed the form that swept aside all opposition in their recent triumphs. With the exception of the Olympic A team, which swept all team and individual honors in a gallant but vain bid to stem the Temple tide, the averages were considerably below what they should have been. The relatively long layoffs by both leagues following the conclusion of their respective seasons must be blamed.

Beth Israel won the match in the second string when three of its four teams swept to victory and broke a 2-2 tie that existed from the first string. Faced with the necessity of a clean sweep of the third string to win the decision, the Olympics bogged down and Beth Israel added to its lead with three more points. Since the four points usually given for total pinfall were evenly divided and made no difference in the margin of victory, the official score omitted them. For the record, however, inclusion of these points would have given the winners a 10-6 score.

While the highly touted A team of Beth Israel failed to hit its stride (in fact, not one man rolled 300), the Olympic A's, headed by Howie Cohen and Merlyn Rodyn made their league's consolation prize a good one. Cohen took high single and high three with 130 and 340, respectively, while Rodyn's 124 and 330 were second best. Cohen also had one string of 125. The team's total of 531 in the third string was high for the night, as was its total pinfall of 1499.

The Temple A stalwarts were not completely outclassed as they rallied for a very important win in the second string with a 513 total.

Team scoring went like this: For Beth Israel—A's took the second string, B's won all three, C's took the third, D's made a clean sweep.

Twenty Beth Israel strings were 100 or better and the Olympics racked up 18 century scores. Only eight men compiled 300 totals, the losers making five of these. In addition to Cohen and Rodyn, the Olympics featured Joe Schwartz, 302; Harry Woloff, 303, and Haskell Frank, 309. Beth Israel's individual leaders were Gorman 311; Abrams, 310, and Wasserman, 314.

More than 30,000 persons read the Herald regularly.

Appoint Women's Division Officers

Keeping pace with rapidly-formulating plans for one of the most historic fund-raising campaigns ever to be launched in the greater Providence area, Mrs. Albert Pilavin, recently appointed chairman of the Women's Division of the General Jewish Committee, this week announced the appointment of the officers of this division.

In making the appointments, Mrs. Pilavin paid high tribute to the outstanding accomplishments of the Division last year. She emphasized, however, that substantially greater efforts must be exerted to meet the crucial needs of the current $250,000,000 United Jewish Appeal drive.

"Our coming campaign is an opportunity for every woman in greater Providence to demonstrate her belief that her own happiness and security as a woman, an American citizen and a Jew is dependent upon the well being of her fellow Jews."

Mrs. Pilavin announced the appointment of the following persons as associate chairmen of the Women's Division: Mesdames Philip Dorenbaum, Saul E. R. Feinberg, Harry Fowler and Henry Hassenfeld.

Mrs. Nathan Samors will serve as chairman of the initial gifts committee with Mrs. Alvin A. Sopkin and Mrs. Samuel Michaelson as associate chairmen of the initial gifts.

The general solicitations division will be under the co-chairmanship of Mesdames Bertram L. Bernhardt, Arthur J. Levy and Mrs. Harold C. Sydney.

Other officers of the Division include: Mrs. Abe C. Fine, treasurer; Mrs. Max L. Grant, recording secretary; Mrs. Samuel Rapaport, Jr., financial secretary; Mrs. Joseph J. Seefer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bernard R. Zeman, telephone squad chairman, Mrs. Charles Brown, advisory committee chairman, and Mrs. Robert Hochberg, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Martin Silverstein, radio chairman.

Ben Gurion Chapter Elects First Slate

Bernard Fain was elected president of the David Ben Gurion Chapter of Habonim at the first official meeting of the newly-formed Labor Zionist of America organization at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. The chapter was named in honor of the new prime minister of Israel.

Norman Berkowitz, a member of the Henry Burt Chapter, is the leader and organizer of the new group whose membership is open to young men and women between 15 and 19.

Other officers elected were: Ethel Halperin, vice-president; Miriam Yamuder, secretary; Joseph Schuster, treasurer, and Kenneth Kopelman, chaplain.

Pawtucket Hadassah Delegates Report

Mrs. Louis Cokin, president of the Pawtucket-Central Falls Chapter of Senior Hadassah, was chairman of the resolution committee at the New England Regional Convention of Hadassah in Plymouth last week-end. Mrs. Cokin presented the resolutions to the over 300 delegates at the Sunday morning session.

JDC Honors Bernard Goodman

THE PROVIDENCE JEWISH HERALD, FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1948

Bernard Goodman was recently invited by Albert M. Kahn, national Co-chairman of the SOS Collection of the Joint Distribution Committee to join in planning the establishment of a national Trades and Industry Division to collect relief and reconstruction materials urgently needed by Europe's surviving Jews.

Goodman recently did an outstanding job as chairman of the Trade and Industry Division of the record breaking SOS Collection that was held in Providence on May 23. He is a member of the board of the General Jewish Committee, treasurer of the Miriam Hospital, past president of the Hebrew Free Loan Association, and a member of the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center and Temple Emanuel.

Goodman attended a preliminary meeting of National Trades and Industry leaders last Friday at the offices of the Joint Distribution Committee's world headquarters in New York City.

Goodman recently received a congratulatory letter from Robert Dolins, national director of the SOS Program for his work in the Providence SOS Drive. Special thanks were also extended to the following persons who assisted Goodman; Jack Platkin, Charles Temkin, Edward Kossove, Nathan Newburger, Albert Saltzman, Sidney Flanzbaum, Max Berman, and Charles Strasmich.

Additional Openings at Camp Jori

With the construction of two new bungalows at Camp Jori at Point Judith being pressed for completion by the time of the opening of the camp this summer, there will be additional opportunities for accepting a larger number of children, it was announced this week by Alex Rumpler, president of the Jewish Children's Home and Foundation.

Mr. Rumpler stated, "Every effort is being made to speed up the construction of the new bungalows so that the camp can provide a healthful vacation opportunity to a larger number of children than were able to be accommodated heretofore." He added it is important for all those who wish to avail their children of the opportunity of a two weeks vacation at Jori to register as soon as possible.

Boys and girls of low-income families ranging in age from six to fourteen are eligible for admission. The camp maintains Jewish dietary laws and only kosher food is served. Payment is on a sliding scale basis depending on the income of the individual family. Children in families unable to pay are sent completely free of charge.

The children swim at the State Beach at Scarborough where they are under the careful supervision of qualified Red Cross life guards. The program also includes hikes, dramatics, arts and crafts, athletics, etc.

Registration headquarters are at the Jewish Family and Children's Service, 100 North Main Street, DEXTER 1244. Applicants are requested to call at the office directly or telephone in advance for an appointment.

The first place suite in the Senior Division household has a new tenant this week, the Comets of Mal's Baby Shoppe having moved in by virtue of a twin win over Sackin-Shocket while the erstwhile front-running Olympics were running into a stone wall—name of Berry Clothing. Gob Shop climbed a notch to second by downing East Side Pharmacy while Arden Mfg. Capitols, by virtue of two wins over the Blazers, crept into a three-way tie for third place with the Berrys and Olympics.

Pawtucket AZA swept two games from Narragansett AZA, thereby clinching the championship of the junior division. Pawtucket is undefeated in nine starts. The losses just about eliminated Narragansett from playoff contention. The other four teams, Hope AZA, Grenadiers, Deacon Sluggers and Roger Williams AZA, are separated by a game and a half in their battle for first division berths. The Grenadiers split with Roger Williams and thereby retained their tie status for second with Hope AZA which also split with the Deacon Sluggers.
