GJC Fund Reaches $1,131,742.

UJA Sets $250,000,000 Goal

ATLANTIC CITY — Asserting that 1949 is the "year of historic opportunity" for the solution of the problems of homelessness and misery of the Jewish people, the Tenth Anniversary National Conference of the United Jewish Appeal last week unanimously adopted a goal of $250,000,000 as the "irreducible minimum" required for mass settlement in Israel; emigration and rehabilitation in Europe and North Africa and refugee aid in the United States.

In calling for maximum effort in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal, the quota resolution concluded with these words: "This is world Jewry's historic hour. This is American Jewry's historic opportunity."

Action on the quota was taken after a committee on the analysis of the budgetary requirements had reported on the minimum funds needed to support the programs of the United Palestine Appeal, Joint Distribution Committee and United Service for New Americans. The total needs presented to the conference by these agencies amounted to $373,000,000 for the current year.

Women Endorse Hebrew Day School

Several women, active in social and religious life in the Providence Jewish community, this week endorsed the Providence Hebrew Day School. In a statement released Tuesday these women, affiliated with various synagogues and temples, asked support for the institution as a means of insuring the survival of the Jewish people.

Their statement follows: "Religious leaders, educators and sensitive Jews feel that now is the time for the American Jewish community to come of age. Growing up—coming of age for a community involves taking upon itself certain responsibilities which it has heretofore either neglected or disavowed.

"A primary responsibility of a community is the instruction of its young. In recent years, Jewish institutional instruction has in the main become inadequate. Young people have not been given enough of Torah to have anything to hold on to or even to cherish. Stronger measures to train and to develop our Jewish youth are necessary.

"In Providence the Hebrew Day School is an attempt to achieve this end. We, therefore, recommend this institution to our community and ask you to support it and to maintain it. Since Jewish education is a primary responsibility of the entire community, the Hebrew Day School should not be regarded as existing only in the interest of a few. Every Jew should support it since it involves the survival of the Jewish people and its Torah.

Sketch Features GJC Celebration

Highlighted by a tableau of scenes and incidents dramatizing its major accomplishments during the eventful 1948 "Year of Destiny" campaign, the General Jewish Committee hit a new high in audience enthusiasm last Wednesday at its closing celebration meeting at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel.

Close to 1000 workers and contributors thronged the ballroom of the hotel to witness the dramatization and to take part in the dancing that followed.

Frequently, during the course of the hour-long dramatization, the audience likewise interrupted with applause to express its appreciation of the efforts of the principals who participated in the tableau.

Original Script

The production, titled "A Year of Destiny—and Providence," was written by Charles W. Pine, under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Charles Reitman, Jules P. Goldsmith and Joseph Galkin.

Mowry Lowe and Morton Blenner read the two principal narrative roles. Also appearing in the script were Archibald Silverman, GJC president; Sopkin, Mrs. Albert Pilavin, Ira Rakatansky, Mrs. Reitman, Mrs. Bertram Bernhardt, Joseph W. Ress, William Strong, Mrs. Samuel Ernstof, Alter Boyman, Irving J. Fain, Galkin, Pine and Goldsmith.

Kinsley to Resume Professional Studies

While no news was forthcoming this week regarding the choice of a new executive director at the Jewish Community Center, Simeon Kinsley, whose resignation was announced last week, explained that the effective date of March 27 that he gave to the Center Board will enable him to prepare for the possibility of resuming his professional studies this spring.

His plans are not crystallized as yet, Kinsley said, but he desires to be free to enter school late in March should he decide to do so.

Kinsley has served the Center as executive director since October, 1945. Previously, he was club director and principal of the Sunday school from 1937 to 1939.

A native of Berwick, Me., he was educated in the schools of Somersworth, N. H. He received his AB degree from Harvard College in 1929, with honors in English, and a master's degree in education from the Harvard Graduate School of Education in 1936. He was a member of the national honorary education society, Phi Delta Kappa, while at Harvard.

Raymond G. Franks, Center president, was reported away from the city during the week, and was thus unavailable for comment as to Kinsley's successor.

Abdullah Agrees to Israel Peace Talks

Pine, Fain Head Grays

The reorganization of the Providence baseball club in the New England league this week brought two figures prominent in Jewish communal life into the forefront.

Charles W. Pine of 27 Hillside Avenue was named president of the new Providence Grays and Louis Fain of 111 Lorimer Avenue became vice-president of the new regime. Both served as stockholders of the club during the 1948 season.

Pine, who also will serve on the Grays' board of directors, will be spokesman for the group.

ADA Speaker

HUBERT J. HUMPHREY

Hubert J. Humphrey, newly elected U. S. Senator from Minnesota, who is considered one of the most dynamic members of the 81st Congress, will be principal speaker at the Roosevelt Memorial Dinner, Sunday evening, Jan. 30 at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel. The dinner is sponsored by Providence Chapter, Americans for Democratic Actions (ADA).

Senator Humphrey, a former mayor of Minneapolis, rose into public prominence last summer at Philadelphia when he spearheaded a victorious drive to nail a clear-cut Civil Rights plank to the Democratic party platform.

The sponsoring committee includes: Rabbi William G. Braude, Irving J. Fain, Noah Finkelstein, U. S. Sen. Theodore Francis Green, Sen. Frank Licht, Howard Presel and Milton Stanzler.

Included on the arrangements committee are Charles W. Pine, chapter vice-chairman, Marie Presel, Sophia Glantz Potemkin. Dinner reservations may be secured from Mrs. Philip Taft at 174 Irving Avenue.

Jews Reject Blame For Plane Incident

TEL AVIV — Unofficial sources said this week Israel and Trans-Jordan have scheduled armistice talks to start soon, perhaps today, in the Jerusalem area.

Israel and Egypt are now talking peace at Rhodes.

Informants said military representatives of Israel and Trans-Jordan would attempt to broaden arrangements of the local Jerusalem truce. If the talks fail, it is believed that the three-nation UN Conciliation Commission, which is due in Jerusalem Jan. 24 to seek over-all settlement, will try to mediate.

A UN convoy of food, tobacco and medical supplies left Gaza yesterday for the Faluja pocket, where Israeli troops have an Egyptian brigade trapped, it was announced.

The same convoy will bring back about 250 wounded and sick, who will be allowed to bring their side arms with them, the announcement said.

Israel expressed regret, meanwhile, over the shooting down of five British planes near the Egyptian border Jan. 7, but refused to assume the blame.

Israel sent a memorandum to UN Secretary General Trygve Lie for transmission to Britain.

"Responsibility for the incident lies with those who ordered an operation which... cannot but be regarded as illegitimate and ill considered," the note said.

Catholics Denounce Bronx Hate Sheet

NEW YORK—"Common Sense," the anti-Semitic hate sheet, has been condemned by the Third District of the Holy Name Society, representing nine Bronx Roman Catholic parishes.

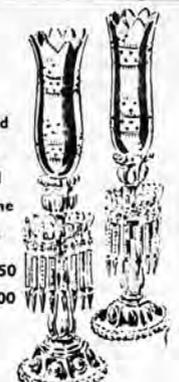

"Although the paper does not directly attack Catholicism, it is anti-Semitic," said the Rev. William M. Daly, moderator of the district organization. "If it would attack one religion, it would attack all."

The publication, a semi-monthly, is published in Union, N. J., by Conde McGinley. Under the pretext of fighting Communism, it has consistently attacked Jews and has recently been used by Benjamin Freedman, the pro-Arab propagandist, to spread anti-Zionism.

FURTHER RECOGNITION

TEL AVIV—The Dominican Republic has officially recognized the state of Israel. The tiny Caribbean nation became the 21st to grant recognition to the Jewish state.

Statements made during the campaign by Gov. John O. Pastore, former Governor of New York Herbert Lehman, David H. Cohen, famed Middle East industrialist, and other celebrities were read by members of the cast or the narrators.
The entire production was staged in a darkened hall with a spot-light centering on first one—then another—of the principal characters. Lending dramatic impact to the script were several musical transcriptions which rose to a crescendo at appropriate intervals.
Dancing to the music of Al Rosen's orchestra followed the tableau and the serving of refreshments in the lobby.

Rankin Gets A Vote

"Does anyone question that in the big fight of our time John Rankin is altogether on the American side of the battle line?" That is the concluding sentence of an editorial tribute in The Cincinnati Times-Star, to one of the world's leading bigots, published Jan. 6th when it began to be evident that fellow-Democrats would oust Mr. Rankin from the Un-American Activities Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives.

Lest there be any error as to context, we reprint the editorial in full, as follows:

"An effort is being made to force that strident Southerner, John Rankin, off the Un-American Activities Committee.

"Like all members of Congress who have taken an aggressive stand against the Commies, Rankin has had more than his share of abuse. To hear the things that are said against him you would not think his chief fault is a lingering loyalty to the America we have known and which most of us at heart believe in.

"Well, there is one thing to be said for Representative Rankin as a member of the Un-American Activities Committee. That committee was instituted to go after people, Nazis and Communists in particular, who were hostile to the American government. Does anyone question that in the big fight of our time John Rankin is altogether on the American side of the battle line?"

Until the foregoing editorial appeared, we had thought Mr. Rankin's record of bigotry to be so clear that no daily newspaper in America would raise a voice in regret at his departure from the committee and surely that no such journal would dare to characterize as "on the American side" the minority-baiting Rankin. The American Israelite

Bevin and Hitlerism

Mr. Bevin's personal war to crush Jews and destroy Israel at any cost, including the cost of world peace and the death of the United Nations, has led to such lengths as the penning up of 11,000 Jews in concentration camps in Cyprus, because they sought to enter Israel, having been made homeless by the Nazis.

Today they are still homeless—they have traded Hitler's Dachau and Buchenwald for Cyprus and their guards are British soldiers instead of German. Their crime remains the same—they are Jews!

But further: Miss Freda Kirchwey, the able and courageous editor of The Nation, has just unearthed the information that more than 6,000 Nazi prisoners of war have been released by the British to join the Arab and British armed forces arrayed against Israel! Concentration camps for Jews.

Nazi soldiers for brothers-in-arms in war upon Jews! And now a statement from the British Ambassador warning the President of the United States that Britain intends to prosecute her war on Israel, both cold and hot, whether we like it or not.

The sad fact is that we are assisting Mr. Bevin's bloody war, whether we say so or not, and whether we like it or not. The time has come to call a halt.

We are pouring our funds for reconstruction into Great Britain through ECA, so that Britain can pour her funds and her manpower and her military weapons into Mr. Bevin's brutal and shocking pogrom.

At least those funds should be halted at once, until the British Government and the British people have come to a realization of the depths of the crime being perpetrated in their name, by Mr. Bevin and his allies, the feudal kings of Arabia.

Meanwhile, Bevin has been temporarily halted in his tracks by his own indignant Parliament, many of whose members, sickened by his anti-Semitic actions, have called for a full dress explanation and change of policy. It remains to be seen how sincere the House of Commons is in its denunciation of Bevin. Let us hope it is not merely a matter of convenience.

Support the March of Dimes

If we were to read all the editorials currently being written throughout the nation regarding the March of Dimes campaign now under way, we—Rhode Islanders, that is—would realize how very fortunate we have been in recent years. For the disease that has crippled so many thousands of children—infantile paralysis—has miraculously passed us by for the most part while visiting tragedy on other parts of the nation.

Lest we become too relaxed in our attitude toward infantile paralysis because of this good fortune, let us remember that the disease may shift its course and strike here at any time. This should be regarded as a time of preparation—a time when we build our defense against the possibility of future attacks.

Every dime that we contribute to the March of Dimes constitutes a nail driven into the stout walls of these defenses. For we never know when the cure or the antidote for this killer of children may be discovered. Research is the great need—and most of our dimes go into research.

Remember, too—it may be our own children we help to save by joining the March of Dimes.

"One Man's Opinion"

Why Brandeis?

By BERNARD SEGAL

"Why Brandeis?", asks my friend and colleague, M. P., and I begin with the usual "Well, because ...", and find the going not too smooth.

We were talking about this campaign and that drive, of tickets for one cause and a luncheon for another. Then my friend mentioned the five-dollar membership drive now conducted by the Women's committee of Brandeis University. One thousand members are sought in Providence and in Pawtucket whose five-dollar bills will turn into books on the shelves of the new Jewish sponsored University in Waltham, Mass. Similar drives are going on in Boston and elsewhere in New England cities and towns to help Brandeis in obtaining the twenty thousand volumes needed by the students in their studies.

These are not text books. The students buy their own class room books and manuals, as in every other college and school. What the University needs is a well stocked library of standard works in the arts and sciences, source books in the various branches of learning, reference material for research, encyclopedia, documentary folios, and the classics in the world of literature. Without these aids to learning a university is like a shop without the necessary tools.

"But, why Brandeis?" asked my friend, and the question was directed at herself as much as at me. She, a member of the Women's Committee and a contributor to the library fund, wanted to settle the doubts in her mind as to the need for Brandeis or any other Jewish sponsored universities. They are my doubts and those of many more people who watch the trends of the times.

And the answer I attempt to give to this question is in reality a form of thinking aloud with those who may be confronted with the same doubts.

Why Brandeis? Because this country of ours is a union in more than one respect.

Politically we are a union of States and Territories, each voicing a distinct note in the democratic way of life.

Economically we are a union of regions and belts, each contributing its wealth to the bread basket of the nation. The industry of New England, the agriculture of the West, and the raw materials of the South each supplement one another to make America what it is and what it is destined to be to the world of man.

Culturally we are a union of national and religious groups, each adding color and harmony to the life we lead in common in our cities, towns and villages. Any group which fails to add its share to the cultural symphony of the country is leaving a void in the general pattern.

Can one State decide not to send its senators and congressmen to Washington? Such a decision would disrupt the Union.

Can the South fail to pick its cotton, or the mining towns close the coal pits? Such acts would disturb the economy of the nation.

By the same token, can a group fail to add its share to the cultural riches of the nation? The pattern would be incomplete, and the chair would stare empty in the orchestra of the people.

The Baptists and the Methodists, the Episcopalians and the Unitarians, all have founded colleges and universities open to the youth of all the groups in America. Then came the Catholics and established great schools for higher learning in whose halls many a student of Jewish descent finds fulfillment of his hopes and aspirations.

Brandeis, and those to follow in other parts of the country, is the Jewish contribution to this pattern. The time has come for the founding of schools of arts and sciences sponsored by Jewish groups, and open to all who care to come.

So, when the door bell rings and a lady from the Brandeis committee tries to enlist your interest in the project, remember that it is not just one more drive for five more dollars for still another fund, to buy more books, for some new college.

It is all this, and much more.

Man Playing the Typewriter:

From the Headlines: "Krivitsky Slain by Reds in 1941, Chambers Says" ... From this col'm of Feb. 17, 1941: "New Yorkers Are Talking About: How only two months ago Gen. Krivitsky (re-entering the U. S. via Canada after a year's wait for permission) sang lustily to his wife and child as they crossed the border. And how chums now say: 'Why a man so happy two months ago should kill himself, we can't understand.'"

"Lend an Ear," the new revusical click at the National Theater, was showered with many posies—the most quotable orchid being John Chapman's: "It is so good it does not need any names to carry it—but should make some!" ... Song hit man D. Rose's latest ear-dorable ditty is "Manhattan Square Dance"—a hippity-hoppy tune ... Will Rogers' sharpest sarcastickles, aimed at the reviewers: "All it takes to be a drama critic is two seats on the aisle!"

Why producers get migraine headaches: A full page ad in Variety reprints a swellalujah review for a movie which appeared in its Hollywood daily. But in the same issue Variety's New York critic raps it! Proving you can't buy a notice with an ad—which founder Sime always argued ... Have another illusion shattered: Despite Lassie's girlish moniker she's a he. Egad, a canine female impersonator! ... Collier's publisher Chenery wires that the mag isn't for sale—and that he's sure we "wouldn't knowingly publish incorrect information." He also says he counts on "our" sense of fairness for a correction. We wish we could say the same for Collier's.

An ABC commentator (out of the Capital) reported that Presidential aide Harry Vaughan "tossed all the protests into the wastebasket." The 250,000 American Gold Star families must have winced if they heard that ... We reminded Vaughan that no person holding office can accept a foreign medal without permission of the congress ... Vaughan's alibi is that "nobody complained" when Argentina medal'd Generals Bradley, Devers and others (it eluded us) ... We reported that Argentina (during the war) helped kill U. S. seamen and others by permitting Hitler and Mussolini's ships to refuel in Argentine waters and to protest to the White House about Vaughan's decoration. ... So he "tossed the protests into a basket." ... Gold Star families, please send this to the President.

Bob (CBS) Trout's deft handling of his query-and-answer shindig ("Who Said That?") keeps it quizzy. ... Jimmy's Duranting is always a giggle-getter. But the lithering kerrecker on his program is strictly ho-humor ... Does the affable Spike Jones ever listen to playbacks of his radio jokes? Oh, Spike! You need a joke ... The girls tell you the most expensive perfume is "Joy."

Russia expects us to recognize her rights in Europe and overlook her lefts in America.

And then there's the most exciting show stealing of them all—the way Harry Truman stole the show Election Night.

SYD COHEN:

Failure of a Noble Plan

In recent months, negotiations were quietly being conducted by a small group of men to purchase the old Ledgemont Country Club and set up a new club for what you might call the middle class of Rhode Island Jewry. Many men were interested and a considerable sum of money was raised toward the project.

However, when the deadline came, when the purchase sum had to be planked down, it found the new group still too far from the required goal, and so the plan has fallen through. The property is being sold to a non-Jewish group, I have been told.

Knowing a little of the time and effort that were poured into the plan by the group of would-be purchasers, I can testify to the bitter disappointment they must feel at their failure. And I can sympathize with them, for they told me of their plans, with which I enthusiastically agreed.

One of their projects was to have been the sponsorship of a city-wide golf tourney every year; furthermore, the new club would have provided as many as 200 golfers with a beautiful place of their own at a very reasonable fee. As told to me, it sounded like just the sort of addition to our sports life that we need.

I had been planning to devote this week's column to the first public announcement of the new country club. Instead, I find myself writing the obituary to the unborn addition to golfdom.

If there is any consolation to be drawn from all this, it is that we do have men in our community who are forward-looking enough to want to tackle such a project and bring it to creation. So I cannot help voicing a note of optimism, and a plea that efforts to create another Jewish country club in this state be kept alive. They will succeed some day.

And to Lou Chase and his associates—better luck next time.

That Stadium Again

From the daily press in recent days, you may have gathered the idea that all is not honey and cream with the Providence Chiefs' franchise. Yet not many know quite how serious the situation is. We sweated blood before we obtained a professional baseball franchise in this city. Now we stand in better than a fair way of losing it.

By the time this appears in print, it may be a secret no longer, but I do know that the franchise is in a bad way and has been for a long time. The stockholders lost a fortune last year and 1949 doesn't promise to be any better. Profitable independent teams are strictly in the minority. None, to my knowledge, exists this close to a major league baseball city.

I won't go into all the reasons behind the current trouble. They are several, and not all pleasant reading. However, it does remain public knowledge that the lack of a stadium is still one of the strongest deterrents of good as well as profitable baseball in Providence. It is safe to say that pro ball never will succeed here unless we get a new stadium.

I am not the only writer who has expressed the desire for such a structure. I am not the only ball fan who thinks that way. Increasingly, you can hear men talking in that vein. Yet, there is no concerted action, no unified attempt to force the city to get its house renovated and up-to-date. Providence has a lot of distinction in addition to being the country's safest city. We also are the largest without more than one railroad, and we are one of the oldest in terms of ideas—and there is no city of our size that does not have a suitable stadium.

For how long do we have to contend with these stigmatic conditions? Why don't we wake up and get together? All our clubs and organizations, all our kids and sports-loving figures feel one way about the problem.

The trouble is that when you get this far, you have reached the end of the line. Must it continue that way?

AZA DOWNS ORIOLES

In another exciting basketball game at the Center gym on Jan. 12, Roger Williams A.Z.A. downed the Orioles 18-12 in an important league game. Normie Namerow and Lennie Grossman paced the A.Z.A., while Herb Gold led all scorers with nine points.

Bar Mitzvah

WILLIAM HILLMAN

A dinner party was given at the Narragansett Hotel recently by Dr. and Mrs. Harold S. Hillman of Pawtucket in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, William Chernick Hillman. Among the 100 guests present were Mayor and Mrs. Ambrose McCoy of Pawtucket and Mayor and Mrs. Robert J. Connelly of Central Falls.

New Advisor for Hope AZA

DR. NORMAN I. PANSEY

With the appointment of Dr. Norman I. Pansey as advisor to the Hope AZA Chapter, the entire youth program of Roger Williams Lodge has received a much needed stimulant. In the short time that he has been acting as advisor to the Chapter, there are unmistakable signs of increased enthusiasm and activity.

Dr. Pansey's association with AZA is an interesting story. In 1936 he was instrumental in starting the Roger Williams Chapter of AZA and held several offices in the chapter, including junior advisor. His AZA work was temporarily halted in 1942 when he entered the Army, and his AZA friends tendered him a testimonial dinner in recognition of his splendid work.

As soon as he was discharged from the service he joined B'nai B'rith, although he was still attending school. He is a graduate of R. I. State College and Massachusetts College of Optometry. He has had several articles published by the R. I. Journal of Optometry.

Dr. Pansey is greatly interested in B'nai B'rith and its work and, because of his early association with AZA, his energies will be expended toward helping the

Regional Conference To be Held Jan. 30

The Southern Massachusetts and Rhode Island Regional Board of B'nai B'rith, which consists of a group of Lodges in this area, will hold a conference in Providence on January 30 at 2 P. M. at the Jewish Community Center.

Purpose of the conference is to decide on plans for a District No. 1 Institute Day, also to be held in Providence sometime during April.

All members of the Board, delegates and officers of Roger Williams Lodge, are asked to be present at the conference on the 30th.

Sports Night Will Be Season's High Spot

On February 21, at the Plantations Auditorium, Roger Williams Lodge will hold its annual Father and Son Sport Night. This is one of the finest meetings held each year, and it is due almost entirely to the tireless work of the perennial chairman, Ben Ruttenberg, and his enthusiastic committee.

This year the program is already completed and as the feature the committee has secured the Clown Prince of Baseball, Al Schacht. There will be other well known sports figures for everyone to meet, each with some interesting story to tell; and the master of ceremonies will be the irrepressible Warren Walden, sports commentator for Station WEAN.

The young men who attend are assured of lots of fun, excitement and good things to eat. And, above all, there will be about 100 major prizes... plenty of radios, baseball equipment, sports togs and other things that all boys like to use. It promises to be an evening full of surprises.

For it all, we have to thank Ben Ruttenberg and his committee men, including Ted Markoff, Merle Hassenfeld, Arthur Kaplan, Nate Samors, Bert Finburg, Bert Bernhardt, Maurice Bazar, Coleman Zimmerman and Hy Fienstein.

Plan to attend, but remember that it's for members and their sons only.

youth movement. He is probably the best example of how the youth movement helps to build the entire B'nai B'rith program.

Mental Gymnasts, Research Expert To Feature January 26 Meeting

Two mental gymnasts and a research expert will divide the spotlight as Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith, ushers in the New Year with a well planned and interesting January meeting.

The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening, January 26 and will be held at Plantations Auditorium starting at 8:15 o'clock.

Headlining the entertainment will be the famous team of Lucille and Eddie Roberts, billed throughout the country as the Mental Wizards. The team is not new to Providence, having been the featured entertainment at the Sheraton-Biltmore for over a month during the past holiday season. When the Roberts opened at the Garden Room, the somewhat caustic and ever chilly Bradford Swan wrote what for him amounted to a rave notice, so any superlatives used here might not be amiss.

They have appeared in some of the brightest spots along Broadway. When the Hotel St. Moritz, one of the swankiest of the swank in N. Y., opened a new cabaret, the Roberts were selected as the opening attraction and they stayed for several months. Those who saw the act while at the Biltmore were loud in their praise and expressed a desire to see an encore. Those wishes can now be realized.

Second part of the program will be a preliminary report on the current survey being made in Rhode Island on racial bias and intolerance in employment.

Lawrence Spitz, Area Representative of the United Steel Workers of America, will make the report on the findings to date. Mr. Spitz is a brilliant and dynamic speaker. These qualities, backed by the facts, will make for an interesting discourse on this much discussed subject. Mr. Spitz has spent much of his time over the past few years making a study of this situation, and he has some pertinent information to disclose.

The meeting will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock and the Lodge has extended invitations to all members and their wives and friends. Coleman Zimmerman, chairman of the program committee, will be in charge of the meeting, and he reports that everything is in readiness for an entertaining and informative evening.

If you'll glance at the Calendar of Coming Events shown elsewhere on this page, you'll see a line-up of three meetings for February, March and April which represent an achievement in programming.

Represented in these three meetings is a wealth of entertainment and information—there's something for every taste. Also represented is a great amount of work on the part of the program committee, and a large expenditure of money—your money.

We realize that every program will not please everyone, but taken over the course of a year there will be some program to please every segment of the Lodge. That's what B'nai B'rith tries to do—present an activity for every member. That's what B'nai B'rith has been doing since its inception. That's why you should attend every meeting—it will give you additional information about all B'nai B'rith work and will give you a better idea of where your dues money goes.

We suggest that you make every effort to attend these three meetings. We feel confident that you'll enjoy them, and if you have any suggestions to offer on how our meetings can be improved, we'll be glad to have them.

See you at the meeting!
BERTRAM L. BERNHARDT

About Attending Lodge Meetings

(An editorial from the National Jewish Monthly.)

We met a Ben B'rith who said: "I haven't attended a lodge meeting for a year."

"That's nothing to be boasting about," we replied.

"Well," he said, "anyway, I pay my dues."

We told him that dues-paying wasn't the main duty... "You never miss the meetings of the board of directors of your company." We mentioned a certain corporation of which he is on the board. "You are not content just to be a stockholder who's paid up."

No, he said, he never did miss a meeting of the corporation. It was vital to his personal welfare.

"But, sir," we said, "what about your welfare in Jewish life? B'nai B'rith has to do with that in many directions. You go to all the meetings of your corporation to make sure that everything is being run right. Isn't your life as a Jew as important as your life as a stockholder?"

Calendar of Coming Events

The meetings scheduled by Roger Williams Lodge for the months of February, March and April are probably the three most ambitious programs ever attempted by the Lodge in successive months. There has been much time, effort and money expended in securing these top-notch attractions, so we ask that you keep the dates in mind and plan to attend. Here are the dates and attractions.

Olympic Bowling

By JACK JACOBSON

For the first time in 16 weeks Gabby Green was absent from the Olympic bowling matches, and for a change it was so quiet you could hear a pin dropped. In fact many a pin dropped as many of the keggers rolled their best scores in the eight years that the club has been in organized bowling. Of the 40 bowlers, 13 joined our newly formed "300'ers group"—Rodyn 380, Malatt 364, H. Levine 332, Cofman 340, H. Cohen 335, N. Gordon 333, Sharpie Holland 325, M. Satloff 329, L. Chernack 314, S. Boren 311, J. Hochman 315, R. Zatlouf 303 and S. Sax 301.

It was an especially good night for Merlyn Rodyn and Moe Malatt, as they came close to breaking Jacobson's 157 with scores of 150 and 144, and Rodyn's 380 total was only 15 short of Joe Schwartz' high three.

The Rodyns and Gordons are picked to fight for top honors this if and both are well on their way as they share first place in a triple tie with the Cohens at six points; Jacobsons, Levines and Schwartzes have four each, the Avens and Lobels—1.

Olympic Bowling

- Auxiliary -

By ROSLYN JACOBSON

The Steingolds must have cast an evil spell over the heretofore undefeated Levines, or probably given them the whammie, because, try as they might, the Levines' total pinfall of 1208 couldn't hold a candle to the mighty 1246 rolled by the Steingolds.

Star bowler and winner of high three at 297 was Helen Lehrer of the Steingold team. Helen, after receiving instructions from sister Ann S. to make a strike, did exactly that, and not once but twice. She claims she always does as her sister tells her.

The Zawatskys didn't do too well this week; in fact, I might say they were snowed under by the Hochmans, though they went down fighting to the finish. High single of 111 went to Esther Blonder of the Hochman team, and we don't want to overlook Ida Bernstein's 107 or Helen Lehrer's 110.

Sisterhood Names

Emanuel Bowling
 By JACK PLATKIN
 Murray Friedman, Henry Markoff and Morris Filler, who represent the interests of the Yankees in the Emanuel bowling league, made a clean sweep of their series with the Tigers much to the annoyance of one Leo Nussefeld.

Billy Dwares' Cards have to share the top spot with Ed Lavine's Indians, and that is sad indeed, in as much as this "Connie Mack" of the bowlers was bowling at his best for the last few years, just to be part of a winning combination.

Some single string scores were Al Chase 121, Woiler 124, Zachs 120, Paynor 122, Temkin 127, Zucker 125, Press 122, Silverman 127. Several good three strings were rolled by Al Chase 340, Art Weiss 352 and Frank Goldstein 352.

Beth Israel Bowling
 By SAUL HODOSH
 I think I must have the ability to give the "Kiss of Death" in view of this week's results. After handing the first half of the league crown to Conn. last week, Army took them on, picked their bones clean and emerged with a 4-0 victory and now they hold the top spot by one game.

Jack Steiner also treated himself to a part of the evening's festivities as he hit the high single for the night and season with 149 and continued with two more good strings for the evening's high three with 360. Meyer Epstein and Nat Ginsberg helped their averages with three strings of 332 and 321 respectively. Good single strings were turned in by Sam Segal 116, E. Lovett 115 and Joe Perry 114.

Lest we forget the other half of the world, Howie Nelson carved out a fancy 265 for three strings, and some of the onlookers felt he had been watching me too frequently.

By JACK APPELBAUM

Well, it finally happened. Weissman's "four points per night" streak has finally been broken!! Last Thursday nite they only won three points!! They came mighty close to LOSING three points, only a last box spare by Milt just gave them three. And whose team do you think did it?? Why, my team, of course. That is, Allie Shatkin's.

Al Rosen's team went crazy again and hit a new high three of 1854. (I erroneously reported last week that young Charlie Silverman's team had scored a new high three of 1875. That was their score including their handicap. I'm sorry.) Nice going, Al.

As most of you already know, Monday evening, January 24, our mid-season Stag Frolic of the bowling league is being held in the vestry of the Temple at seven o'clock. There'll be loads of food, and some entertainment will be provided by Norm Salhanick, Mac Carter, and yours truly.
