Ahavath Sholom Carnival Next Week

Booths, refreshments, novelties, public auction and a drawing for a 16-inch television set are features of the Ahavath Sholom Carnival to be held for every night except Friday next week at the new synagogue, corner of Rochambeau Avenue and Camp Street.

The main auditorium of the building has been converted into a midway with accessories reminiscent of a country fair. Free door prizes will be distributed each night.

New merchandise including furniture, clothing and jewelry will be auctioned off every night, while the grand drawing will climax the affair Sunday evening, May 14. Other prizes to be given to drawing winners are an automatic washing machine and a set of matched luggage.

Admission to the carnival is free. Activities will begin each evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Britain Gives Full Recognition to Israel

LONDON — Britain announced today she has decided to grant formal recognition to the annexation of Arab Palestine by King Abdullah of Jordan.

At the same time Britain extended her recognition of the new state of Israel to de jure—or full—status. It has been de facto recognition, or simply recognition of the existence of the new state.

Minister of State Kenneth Younger, making these announcements in Commons, said Britain granted full recognition on two conditions:

1. Britain is unable to recognize sovereignty of Israel over that part of Jerusalem she occupies pending a final determination of the status of the area.

2. Britain cannot regard the present boundary lines between Israel and Egypt, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon as final. Younger said these boundaries were laid down in the armistice agreements concluded separately between Israel and each of these states.

Delegates to the District Grand Lodge Convention to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria the end of this month will be Messrs. Bernhardt, Rabinowitz, Finkle and Ruttenberg. Alternates are Messrs. Goldsmith, Katz and Zimmerman.

The same men will represent the lodge at the Central New England Regional Conference taking place Sunday at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, at which time Arnold Forster, author of "A Measure of Freedom," and director of the Anti-Defamation League Civil Rights Division, will speak. The meeting is open to the public. Tickets for the luncheon, which will be served at one o'clock, may be secured at the hotel on Sunday.

Arthur Kaplan was chairman of the nominating committee. Jennie Goldstein entertained.

The annual meeting was jointly sponsored by the Lodge and Chapter.

Testimonial Planned for Bert Bernhardt

Bertram L. Bernhardt, who is serving as president of Roger Williams Lodge, B'nai B'rith after a tenure of three years, will be honored at a testimonial dinner at Ledgemont Country Club on Tuesday evening, May 9. The dinner meeting will start at 6:30 o'clock.

Close to 200 friends and associates of Bernhardt are expected to attend the affair, Ben Ruttenberg, chairman of the arrangements committee, said this week. Among those present will be members of the board and trustees of Roger Williams Lodge, including personal friends of Bernhardt, and their wives.

Special guests will include Bernhardt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bernhardt, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Daniel Donig; Rabbi and Mrs. William G. Braude, and Rabbi and Mrs. Nathan N. Rosen.

Week's Celebration Begins This Evening

Beginning with Sabbath services tonight, Temple Emanuel will mark its twenty-fifth anniversary with a week of celebration. A special worship service will include an elaborate musical program, an anniversary sermon, and a tribute to Judge Philip C. Joslin, the Temple's first president. Samuel Rosen, president of the congregation will dedicate a bronze plaque in honor of Judge Joslin, following an address. After the services the Sisterhood will give a reception and tea in honor of the occasion.

On Sunday morning the Religious School will observe the anniversary with appropriate exercises, and in the evening, after the annual meeting of the congregation and election of officers, a program will be presented in the Ballroom of the Narragansett Hotel. With Joseph W. Ress presiding, addresses will be presented by Samuel Rosen, Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen and Rabbi Israel M. Goldman of Baltimore, Maryland, first rabbi of the congregation. Rabbi Morris Schussheim of Temple Beth-Israel will give the invocation and a musical program will be presented by Cantor Jacob Hohenemser, accompanied by Arthur Einstein. A feature of the program will be the lighting of candles on the anniversary cake, by past presidents of the Sisterhood and Men's Club. Following these ceremonies there will be a reception for the members of the original board of the Temple, and for the participants in the program.

The week's activities will be brought to a close with a musical play, based on the Temple's history, entitled, "It's a Wonderful Day," to be presented on the evenings of Wednesday May 10 and Thursday, May 11.

Opera Star to Highlight Dedication Exercises

Richard Tucker, leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Association and star of stage, radio, television and concert hall, will highlight the program of entertainment being arranged for the state-wide exercises on June 14 officially dedicating the famed Roger Williams Colony in Israel.

The event—staged under the sponsorship of the Jewish National Fund of Rhode Island at the State Veterans' Memorial Auditorium next month—is being acclaimed as "a salute to Rhode Island Jewry whose generosity made possible the founding and development of the Roger Williams settlement in war-torn Israel."

The colony, named in honor of the founder of Rhode Island who personified the "brotherhood of man" in the early days of the nation, today is a thriving community. Its people have prepared an official parchment scroll of appreciation for presentation to Rhode Island Jewry at the June 14 exercises.

Tucker's appearance here that evening will add much to the significance of the occasion. His rise

Harry Blacher Heads Home Committee

Harry Blacher is chairman of the membership committee of the Jewish Home for the Aged. An error in last week's Home News page listed Mr. Blacher's name incorrectly.

Five Bowling Leagues

In Monday's Tourney

The Jewish Herald's third annual Bowling Tournament for non-Temple leagues will be held this Monday evening, May 8 at the Washington Alleys, Arcadia Building, starting at 8 o'clock.

This will be the largest tournament ever staged in the five years that this newspaper has been sponsoring the series. Five leagues will compete and each will send 20 men to the firing line. Until now, every tournament has had three leagues and 20 men in action. Monday night, however, no less than 100 keglers will be scattering spares and strikes on 20 alleys.

Competing for the Herald Trophy will be the defending champion Olympic Club, winner of the two previous affairs; Providence Fraternal, veteran of the two tournaments; Cranston Jewish Community Club, Fineman-Trinkel Post JVW, and A E Pi Fraternity. The latter three leagues are entered for the first time. A third win for the Olympics would give them permanent possession of the trophy.

The public is invited to attend the tournament.

The Soviet's About Face

The Soviet change of attitude with regard to the internationalization of Jerusalem came as a pleasant surprise not only to Israel, but also to Britain and the United States.

It was assumed that Moscow favored trusteeship of the United Nations for purely strategic reasons.

As a member of the UN Trusteeship Council, the USSR would gain a foothold in the Middle East were Jerusalem to be placed under UN trusteeship.

This is one of the main reasons why Britain and the United States preferred to have the Jerusalem issue left to Israel and Transjordan for settlement.

Now that Russia announced that it is revising its position with regard to Jerusalem, and no longer favors the internationalization of the city, Britain and the United States are breathing more easily.

This announcement actually means that there is no further ground to fear that the Soviet Government may insist on having its officials—or military units—in Jerusalem as part of the UN decision to internationalize the city.

The withdrawal of Moscow from the former Soviet-Vatican-Arab alliance on Jerusalem is naturally a great blow to the Vatican and the Arab countries.

The resolution to internationalize Jerusalem adopted by the last UN General Assembly is now considered a "dead duck" and will—no doubt—be revised at the forthcoming General Assembly session in September.

By that time there may be some kind of peace pact signed between Israel and Transjordan making it altogether unnecessary even to talk of the placing of Jerusalem under trusteeship.

"One Man's Opinion"

To Emanuel

By BERNARD SEGAL

I suppose it is a sign of getting along in years when you remember the beginning of things. And I remember clearly a night in spring when a friend took me for a leisurely walk around the East Side. The air was filled with the fragrance of blossoms, and the moon was full. We came upon a mound of cement blocks, and gravel bags, and builders' shacks. The moon stood overhead as we lingered by the huge steam shovel, and my friend told me of the new temple under construction.

That was a little over twenty-five years ago, when we were quite young, and Emanuel was still to be born.

Now this temple observes the quarter of a century with appropriate celebrations, and I shudder to think of all the years that have come and gone since that moonlit spring night more than twenty-five years ago, when my friend, now the organist and choir master of Emanuel, told me of the new temple to come up out of the mound of cement blocks and gravel bags.

In the meantime, Emanuel has become firmly established as a landmark on the East Side, and as a decided factor in the community.

Emanuel is more than a temple in which the members of the congregation gather for worship. It reaches to greater numbers than the members. Many of us have come to Emanuel in the course of the year for purposes other than worship. Emanuel is a cultural center as well as a house of worship.

Thus, through music, through education, through cultural programs, Emanuel has reached out to countless numbers, and has influenced their lives in one way or another.

Thus, the anniversary of Emanuel will be observed by many who are not members of the congregation, and who will not sit at the banquet table on the night of the celebration.

Pittsburgh Conducting Educational Survey

By HENRY DAVIS

In view of the survey on Jewish education being conducted in Providence, the Herald publishes the following story of a similar survey in the Pittsburgh, Pa. Jewish community.

A Jewish education for both adults and children has two objectives: 1—to conserve and enrich Jewish values; 2—to advance Jewish life in its relation to the entire Jewish and American community. The Jewish community of Pittsburgh—recognizing that these objectives must be met—recently initiated a three month study to determine what steps should be taken to augment the strengths and eliminate the weaknesses of its Jewish educational school system.

The survey, authorized and financed by the United Jewish Fund, is being conducted by a Self-Study Committee on Jewish Education composed of representatives from congregations, adult organizations, Jewish educational institutions and the community at large. Two consultants—one each from the American Association for Jewish Education and the National Jewish Welfare Board—are working hand-in-hand with the study committee.

Eight sub-committees have been established to conduct their own discussions and to reach their own conclusions. However, these conclusions will be considered first by the entire study committee before recommending them formally to the board of directors of the United Jewish Fund.

These committees will study and examine the following areas relating to Jewish education: (1) gathering vital statistics on school population, enrollment and at-

We can count on Emanuel to bring to town men of stature in the arts and thoughts, in the Adult Education series. The Adult Education Institute conducted by Emanuel has attracted national attention. In our community the program attracts large numbers who come to study and to broaden their views on topics of timely interest.

Jewish music is taken seriously at Emanuel. It is more than liturgy, and it is enjoyed by more than the worshippers alone. The director of music and the cantor are both creative people, and Jewish music is their calling. They are adding daily to the musical fare of our community, and the annual music festivals at Emanuel bring awareness of this facet of our culture to hundreds.

Emanuel's school for children is today the largest in our community. The two teachers at the head of the school bring to their work an excellent background and great idealism. To them, too, teaching is a calling, and their influence in the cultural life of the community is felt in wider circles than the immediate family of the temple.

Thus, through music, through education, through cultural programs, Emanuel has reached out to countless numbers, and has influenced their lives in one way or another.

Thus, the anniversary of Emanuel will be observed by many who are not members of the congregation, and who will not sit at the banquet table on the night of the celebration.

SYD COHEN:

Between Tournaments

The Inter-Temple Bowling Tournament is history and the Herald's second yearly tourney will take place this Monday evening at the Washington Alleys. That, to all intents and purposes, will ring down the curtain on the keg-kampain of 1949-50.

While the tournament coming up has not yet rivaled the Temple affair in color and importance, it certainly has caught up and surpassed it in size. No fewer than 100 bowlers—representing five leagues—will be on hand Monday. Never before have more than three leagues competed in any one tournament, so this one is certainly a significant event.

So far, the Olympic Club has had this annual series sewed up. Twice the tournament has been staged, and twice the Olympics have romped home with the cup. Should they repeat this year, the defending champs will take the Herald trophy out of competition. Sounds! That would make it two cups retired in two weeks, since Temple Emanuel withdrew one a fortnight ago. We'll have to go shopping for some new cups in preparation for next year.

In retrospect, we find that the Olympics took 11 points a year ago, more than twice the combined totals of Woonsocket B'nai B'rith and Providence Fraternal Association. Woonsocket is not entered in this year's jousts, but Providence Fraternal will be on hand for Monday's set-to.

While last year's tournament resulted in a walk-away, the inaugural affair, in 1948, proved to be a more interesting affair, the Olympics winning out only after a hard fight against Fraternal and Knights of Pythias. The scoring then was 7, 5, 4, the Pythians being in the middle.

Individual honors to date have gone to Lou Chase of the Pythians in '48 and J. Smith of Providence Fraternal last year. Interestingly enough, each of these winners posted an identical mark of 352 for the three strings.

Unlike the inter-Temple tournament, there is not yet a cup awarded for individual brilliance. No member or firm of the community has yet come forth to sponsor a cup for the best performance by one man. Maybe some year soon there will be this added incentive. In the meantime, the names of Chase and Smith will shine in the records, if not on a trophy.

That reminds me of a conversation I overheard at the Darlington Alleys two weeks ago when Benjamin Trinkel, donor of the Trinkel award, announced that he will permit permanent ownership of his trophy to the man who wins top honors twice. Up to now it had been taken for granted that, like the Herald trophy, the Trinkel cup would have to be won three times. Mr. Trinkel, however, said he realized it might take a long time before any man won three titles, so he is relaxing the requirements. Now the first repeater will take it home for keeps. A very generous and sportsman-like gesture.

Incidentally, because of the lack of space in recent issues, it was impossible to go into more detail last week regarding the Temple tournament, so we'll add a few notes here for those who may take an interest in such things.

To begin with, of the 180 strings bowled, no less than 114 were 100 or better. Of the 60 team bowlers, there were 47 who rolled 300 or better. And there were 18 men who hit 100 or better in each of their three strings.

On a team basis, Emanuel A had five 300-plus scores and eleven 100-plus strings. Following on down the line, we find these results: Emanuel B—five and twelve; Emanuel C—four and nine; Emanuel D—five and twelve; Beth-Israel A—five and eleven; Beth-Israel B—four and ten; Beth-Israel C—two and eight; Beth-Israel D—four and seven; Beth El A—four and thirteen; Beth El B—three and eight; Beth El C—three and eight; Beth El D—three and six.

Summary: All the men on Emanuel A, B and D, and Beth-Israel A posted 300 marks or better; and Beth El A had the highest number of single strings over 100—13 out of 15.

Let's name the 18 who had 100 or better in each string. By teams they are: Emanuel A—Henry Markoff, Mal Paynor; Emanuel B—Irving Chase, Lou Chase; Emanuel D—Jake Orchoff, Joe Chernick, Mike Miller, Albert Chase; Beth-Israel A—W. Myrow; Beth-Israel B—C. Lefkowitz, P. Gladstein; Beth-Israel C—B. Cohen, A. Abrams; Beth-Israel D—L. Summer; Beth El A—Al Gordon, J. Bilow, M. Trinkel; Beth El B—Weisman.

Lennie Cort of the Casino Alleys took in the tournament, and reported that construction of the new Casino is about to take place. The alleys will be available for the fall season, and Len promised they will be the last word in bowling excellence.

SOFTBALL NOTE: Score sheets printed by the Herald are available for those who are keeping score. Simply stop in at the Herald office and ask for them. Don't be bashful—take enough and send one in for each game. Then we can keep records.

As the Softball Season Got Under Way

The Providence Jewish Softball League inaugurated its 1950 season Sunday morning with all ten teams in action. The Technoprint Old Timers, last year's champs, opened their campaign against Richard's Clothing. Shown here is the first play of the game, as pitcher Harold Hirsch of Richard's throws out shortstop Bobby Goldis of the Old Timers. The teams split their twin bill.

Softballers Open 1950 Title Campaign

What kind of ball game do you prefer? Name it, and chances are you could have seen it Sunday at one of the five ball parks where the Jewish Softball League season was officially opened.

It had everything from pitcher's battles to slugfests—and a game that was protested.

The protested game occurred while the Cadillac Textile Olympics jumped off to a flying start by downing Miller's Delicatessen twice, 17-16 and 12-5. Miller's protested when the umpires called in the winning run from third base with two out in the last of the eighth because Zil Friedman left the catcher's box in taking a pitch-out on an intentional pass.

That decision climaxed a wild affair in which the Olympics overcame a 15-10 Miller's lead in the sixth and Miller's tied it up again in the seventh. Lowell Leonard and Ralph Winn hit 3-run homers for the winners, while Norm Pomerantz slugged five hits, including a homer, for Miller's.

Cadillac Textile opened the second game with a six run first inning burst and Lefty Abe Lobel coasted to an easy win on a 6-hitter, including a Friedman home run. The Olympics had 13 assorted blows.

The champion Technoprint Old Timers, minus last year's pitching ace, Bernie Davidson, split their games with Richard's Clothing, winning a wild and wooly 12-10 affair, and going down in a close battle, 4-1. Warren (Red) Foster bested Harold Hirsch in the opener, although touched for four hits by Decoff. But Hirsch got revenge in the nightcap, relieving Press in the second after the Old Timers had scored one run and loaded the bases with two out, he stopped the rally cold and pitched shutout ball the rest of the way.

Court House Auto Laundry (last year's Sackin-Shocket Post) and Windsor Rhodes split a double header, the auto polishers going eight innings to win the opener 8-7 and the Pawtucket youngsters rallying for a 4-1 win in the nightcap. Court House put together three consecutive singles by Laubush, Pearl and M. Seltzer in winning the overtime battle. Hank Levin belted a homer. Seltzer twirled a sparkling 5-hitter in the second game to even up his record. Resnick yielded all of the winners' runs in the fifth frame.

Arden Jewelry and Etcoff Mfg Co split their games. Etcoff winning the opener 17-5 behind Lefty Davidson, the league's outstanding twirler last year. Arden's came back in the nightcap with an 8-3 win. Noah Miller presiding on the hill. Jack Pearl was Arden's big hitter, while Dave Rubien had a homer for Etcoff in the first game. Esquire Formal Wear's Comets wore themselves out running the bases against Lincoln Woods Dairy, the new league entry from Pineman Trinkel Post. The Comets were the winners 13-8 and 18-8, the nightcap being called after five innings. Nate Ludman, Leo Greenfield and Len Lerner did the pitching for the winners.

OLYMPIC BOWLING
by Howard Cohen

The Rodyns became second half champs by taking the I. Levine's 3-1. Al Zawatsky was the spirit of the victory with 121, 103 and 108 for 322. "Hesh" Golden also posted a 332. Ralph Winn rolled three strikes in the last box to hit a 141 single, but chopped his other two strings to bits to post 327 for the losers.

H. Cohen's men took the nite off to rest up for the Roll-off with Rodyn and so lost four by forfeit to J. Schwartz.

B. Cohen's gang finished second after a rush at the top fell short by three points. They took a 3-1 win from the Leonards with the boys bowling for averages and a spot in the first twenty. Bob Rose, 314, and B. Cohen, 304, were high. Leonard was high for his side with 325.

Good singles: Leonard 133; S. Rose, 113; B. Cohen, 127; Greenberg, 118, and Golden, 116 and 113.

Schedule: Banquet May 4; Herald Tournament, May 8, Washington Alleys.
