11 Million — Largest Sum Ever — Given To Launch UJA Drive

MIAMI BEACH, FLA. — The largest sum ever given to launch a nationwide drive of the United Jewish Appeal was contributed here last week as gifts totalling $11,341,000 poured in at a closing session of the UJA's National Inaugural Conference in the Saxony Hotel to formally open the Appeal's 1952 Campaign for aid to Israel, distressed Jews overseas, and refugees entering the United States.

This record contribution of gifts, which keyed the opening of United Jewish Appeal campaign activity in 5,000 communities throughout the country, exceeded by $1,191,000 the sum given here one year ago when $10,150,000 came forward at a similar launching of a UJA campaign.

Edward M. M. Warburg, General Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, who presided at the session attended by more than 500 Jewish leaders from communities in 41 States, hailed establishment of this new record in individual and corporate giving to the UJA as "another great demonstration by American Jews of their utmost concern for human life and human liberty."

This action, which came in response to warnings by the Appeal's leaders that Israel's fate and future depend to a large extent on success of the UJA's 1952 campaign, was given further impetus by a special message from Israel Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion.

Mr. Ben-Gurion declared that his country "is beset by grave and dangerous difficulties which the young State cannot master without the continuous and selfless cooperation of Jewish men and women the world over." He termed the United Jewish Appeal "that noble instrumentality" whose "healthy, constructive help" has been felt throughout Israel.

Organizations to Supply Volunteers For City's "BIG DAY" Canvass

Ask Bond Purchasers to Devote Few Hours to Aid Israel March 9

Hundreds of Providence residents who have already purchased Bonds of the Israel Government were asked this week to join the "army" of volunteers who will seek to make BIG DAY— Sunday, March 9—a resounding success in this city.

The request came from Saul Abrams, BIG DAY Marshal in Providence.

"With the active help of tried friends like yourself on BIG DAY," his appeal declared, "we shall visit every Jewish family in this city."

"On this one day of the sale of Israel Bonds, we can mobilize many hundreds of new investors in Israel. But we need an army of willing workers to do the job."

"From coast to coast," Abrams told the previous Israel Bond purchasers "one million American Jewish families will devote BIG DAY to the cause of achieving Israel's economic independence, by buying State of Israel Bonds."

Past Israel Bond buyers were characterized by him as those who have "already shown the way for others."

"As one who has invested in the future of Israel," he went on, "you will want to know of our community's plan for making BIG DAY an outstanding success and a unique achievement in our program of providing Israel's pioneers with desperately needed investment dollars."

Volunteers for BIG DAY, it was emphasized, will be asked to devote only a few hours on March 9. They will call on only six people at their homes.

Workers to Get Valuable Prizes

Nearly forty Jewish organizations in Providence will supply volunteers for the BIG DAY canvass in the city on Sunday, March 9.

The hundreds of men and women workers will be eligible for many attractive and valuable prizes, to be awarded at 4 P. M. at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel on that day. In addition, they will be treated to an entertainment program highlighted by top-notch performers.

BIG DAY Marshal Saul Abrams and Co-Marshal Mrs. Bertram Bernhardt announced this week that still more volunteers are needed. Those wishing to give up a few hours on Sunday, March 9 are urged to phone or write at once to the Israel Bond office at 32 Custom House Street, Suite 401, Jackson 1-8914.

The list of cooperating organizations for BIG DAY includes: Ben Gurion Branch 41 B, Beth El Brotherhood, B'nai B'rith Men, Roger Williams Lodge; B'nai B'rith Women, Roger Williams Chapter; B'nai B'rith Women, Hope Chapter; Chesed Schel Amess, Congregation Beth David, Congregation Sons of Jacob, Council of Jewish Women, Cranston Jewish Community, Farband, Hadassah, Hadassah Business and Professional Women.

Also Hebrew Free Loan, Henry Burt Chapter, Labor Zionists; Hillel, Home for the Aged, Jewish Mothers Alliance, Jewish War Veterans, Post No. 23; Ladies Association, Providence Hebrew Day School, Ladies Auxiliary, Hebrew Sheltering Society; Mizrahi.

Also Pioneer Evening Group, Pioneer Women, Poale Zion, R. I. TB Foundation, Sisterhood Ahavath Shalom, Sisterhood Beth Israel, Sisterhood Rabbinical College, Sisterhood Temple Beth El, Sons of Abraham Congregation and Z.O.A.

Joint Defense Appeal Leaves Los Angeles Fund; Plans Own Drive

LOS ANGELES—The American Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith will launch an independent fund-raising drive in Los Angeles, through their fund-raising agency, the Joint Defense Appeal, it was announced this week.

The decision of the agency leaders to go directly to the community for support was made necessary by continuing reductions in the allocations made available to the JDA by the Los Angeles United Jewish Welfare Fund.

The independent fund-raising effort in Los Angeles marks the third time in two years that the JDA agencies have gone directly to the community for support.

In New York, JDA is now preparing to launch its second independent fund-raising campaign since 1951. In Chicago, where JDA had been a participating agency in the Combined Jewish Appeal since 1947, an independent fund-raising effort was undertaken last year.

In a joint statement JDA leaders said the continuing reductions in the allocations made available to JDA from the Los Angeles welfare fund threatened the national programs of AJC and ADL. "The cause of safeguarding Jewry is primary to the total problem of supporting Jewish needs, both at home and abroad. If the American Jewish community, through failure to give adequate support to civic-protective programs, should become weak and unstable, if we should fail in these days of increasing tensions to safeguard our rights against the bigots and the hatemongers, our power to provide for the total needs of Jewry, here and overseas, would tragically diminish."

Set Up Financial Committee To Push MacIver Proposals

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—In the face of strong reiterations from two major Jewish defense agencies that they would not be "coerced" into accepting portions of the controversial MacIver Report, machinery intended to implement the 10-month-long study was in motion this week with the formation of a second committee by the National Community Relations Advisory Council.

The formation of the new committee—this one to tackle finances in the Jewish community relations field—came as the NCRAC disclosed plans to make public in its entirety what was once a top secret blueprint fashioned by the eminent sociologist Prof. Robert MacIver and intended to streamline Jewish defense agencies and eliminate waste and duplication of efforts.

The financial committee's creation followed on the heels of the appointment of an earlier committee, this one to reassess goals in the community relations field. The committee, following the proposals advanced by Prof. MacIver, will delve into the problem of financing in the community relations field with an eye toward bringing income in line with a program of activity.

It is expected that the new financial committee will meet for the first time this week-end.

Only last week, the American Jewish Congress and B'nai B'rith repeated their willingness to help implement NCRAC action agreed upon at last November's plenary session, but warned that they would not relinquish their respective roles of activity on the American Jewish scene.

Plan U. S. Edition Of Israel Daily

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—Two new publishing ventures in American Jewish journalism were on the horizon this week, one the appearance late in the spring of a weekly composite edition of the Jerusalem Post, only English daily published in Israel, the other, a new stab into the shaky field of "behind-the-scenes" newsletters.

The U. S. edition of the Israel daily, the American Jewish Press learned, will make its appearance in May or June. The material for the edition will be gathered from the daily pages of the Post, readied in matrix form and then winged to the U. S. for actual printing, likely in New York City.

Backers of the plan are said to be counting on both newsstand and subscription support to put the new idea over in America.

A more immediate entry into the Anglo-Jewish publishing field is scheduled for next month when a group of news and public relations specialists with the support of backers, present "Contact," an "informative weekly newsletter."

Council Commentator

ROBERTA QUINLAN, television singing star, will be the commentator at the Ninth Annual Fashion Event given by the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, March 18 at the Narragansett Hotel. Donations of clothing to Council's Thrift Shop (the price of admission to the event) earn the money to finance Council's many and varied activities.

Orthodox Rabbis Won't Officiate At Traifa Affairs

BOSTON—The widening crack-down by U. S. Orthodox rabbis on religious functions that spurn Jewish tradition gained new force this week with the disclosure that the Orthodox Rabbinical Council of Greater Boston had adopted a policy which barred member-rabbis from officiating at any wedding where the banquet was non-kosher.

The action by the Boston rabbis followed by three weeks an open declaration by the Vaad Harabbonim of Detroit in which that group of Orthodox rabbis announced their refusal to officiate at any function where the "minimum requirements of Jewish tradition are not met."

Elaborating on their stand, the Detroit rabbis assailed a trend toward "ordinary merry-making" at Bar Mitzvahs and weddings while the deep spiritual aspect of the occasions have been set aside. As in the latest Boston development in the widening campaign, the Detroit rabbis assailed failure in some instances to conform with Jewish dietary laws at simchas.

The Boston action, it was disclosed, came as an outgrowth of an unofficial policy maintained through the years by Hub City Orthodox rabbis, of shunning invitations to perform wedding ceremonies because of prior knowledge that a non-kosher banquet would follow the ceremony.

Israel Receives Original Manuscripts

NEW YORK—Original music manuscripts by Darius Milhaud and Ernest Bloch were presented this week to Israel Ambassador Abba Eban (right) by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Governors of the $500,000,000 State of Israel Bond Issue. The manuscripts were given to the State of Israel in honor of Pierre Monteux, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, at a special concert given recently in behalf of the State of Israel Bonds. The Milhaud work is entitled "Le Candelabre a Sept Branches," while the Bloch compositions bear the title "Deux Pieces Pour Quatre Cordes." Both were performed by the symphony orchestra under the direction of Pierre Monteux at the concert for State of Israel Bonds.

BETH-EL BOWLING

by Joe Gutterball
The league's top trio maintained position by turning in good scores last week. Murray Trinkle, with a single of 142, rolled 375. Vin DeCesaris came up with 350 and Allie Shatkin scored 341 for three strings. Divisional team leaders, captained by Lou Feldman and Mal Mickler, continued to set the pace. Other bowlers who improved their averages with high pinfalls were: Aaron Sutton 345, Milt Weisman 343, Howie Nelson 336, Bill Smith 332, Joe Postar 328, Harry Gordon 327, Bill Winoker and Gus Newman 321.

The New Miriam Hospital will have a department of physical medicine to cooperate in community rehabilitation programs.

Camp Centerland Reunion March 23

Campers and counselors who have attended Camp Centerland, summer day camp of the Jewish Community Center, were invited this week to attend the annual camp reunion, on Sunday afternoon, March 23 at the Center.

A program of entertainment is being arranged, with Hal Sayers, comic juggling unicyclist, heading the bill. Sayers rides a one-wheel cycle, performing unusual juggling feats while he does so. Movies of the 1951 season at Camp Centerland will be shown.

There will be no charge for admission. The arrangements committee includes Mesdames Harold Braunstein, Frank Darman, Arthur Newman and Fred Tanenbaum.

Colors used in the New Miriam Hospital have been scientifically selected. The walls of patients' rooms will be painted for eye-ease and quiet cheerfulness. There will also be ceilings of sound absorbent material.

Bloodmobile Collects 110 Pints at Emanuel

Despite the slippery weather that prevailed last Wednesday, 118 persons appeared as volunteer donors to the Red Cross Bloodmobile at Temple Emanuel, and 110 pints of blood were collected, according to Herman F. Feinstein, blood co-ordinator. The Bloodmobile set up headquarters inside the Temple for the day.

Feinstein reported that through the efforts of his committee, 219 pints of blood have been obtained so far from a total of 228 would-be donors. In addition, 205 pledges are waiting for blood appointments, he added. Pledges made through committees of Jewish organizations total 433 to date.

Feinstein issued an appeal to all organizations to intensify their efforts to obtain blood donors. The "direct approach"—either by telephone or personal contact—is the only successful method of getting pledges, he asserted. He further asked all organizations that have not yet named blood chairmen to do so at once and contact him, so that arrangements may be made for their collection of blood.

The co-ordinator reminded the public that all blood collected by the Bloodmobile goes direct to American servicemen overseas, and pointed out that a pint of blood may save some soldier's life.

Center Orchestra To Present Concert

The Jewish Community Center Civic Orchestra will open its 1952 concert series on Sunday, March 16 at 8 P. M. at Nathan Bishop Junior High School auditorium, it was announced this week. The orchestra is under the direction of Harry Ellis Dickson, first violinist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, who will conduct for the third season.

Saul Leibow is chairman of the Concerts Committee, and the program is being planned and directed by Mrs. Saul Elkins. The concert is open to the public.

The New Miriam Hospital will be one of the most modern hospital buildings in America—completely fire proofed and sprinklered.

FCC Refuses Review of Star "Blacklist"

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—The growing campaign against alleged "blacklist" practises in radio and television, the outgrowth of the dropping of actor Phillip Loeb from the Jewish family "Goldbergs" program, suffered a temporary setback this week.

The Federal Communications Commission in Washington turned thumbs down on a request by the Author's League of America that it hear allegations of blacklisting in radio and video. The FCC said the issue of blacklisting "is not properly the subject for a general hearing by the Commission."

An interesting section of the New Miriam Hospital will be the scientifically designed infant formula preparation center.

JWV Commander Visits Far East

JWV Commander Paul Ginsberg points out high spots of his Far East visit to Gen. Matthew Ridgway in Tokyo. (American Jewish Press Photo)

18,000 Jewish GIs Serving With 8th Army, Vet Chief Reports

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—An estimated 18,000 Jewish GIs are serving with the heroic Eighth Army engaged in combatting the Communists in Korea and protecting vital Far East bastions, the chief of U. S. Jewish vets, now on a tour of American installations overseas, reported this week.

The disclosure, first of its kind for the theatre of operations, came from Paul Ginsberg, of Atlanta, Ga., national commander of the Jewish War Veterans of the U. S. Ginsberg, who has been meeting with top U. S. overseas military officials, including Gen. Matthew Ridgway, swapped tales with Jewish GIs assigned to stations in Tokyo, Korea and other Pacific outposts.

In the course of his overseas tour, the first of its nature by a Jewish vets chieftain, Ginsberg attended Jewish religious services, sometimes under combat conditions, and later visited Jewish GIs in Tokyo hospitals mending wounds suffered in battle.

Ginsberg, in reports received here, disclosed that Jewish GIs in Japan were mapping plans for the formation of a Jewish Veterans post in Tokyo, the first of its kind in the Southwest Pacific. Slated to be designated as Post No. 1, Tokyo, the new unit will be commanded by Murray Gray, an officer in the legal section of SCAP Headquarters in the Japanese capitol.

Among other things, Ginsberg reported, the new vets unit will provide entertainment, kosher food and social gatherings for Jewish GIs passing through Japan on route to combat at the Korean front.

Tokyo Jews, Ginsberg added, are engaged in constructing a Jewish community center.

Wherever Ginsberg went, whether at the front or in Japan, he carried a heavy pencil and a pad. The greetings of more than 40 Jewish GIs to their relatives in the U. S. were recorded by the veterans' commander, rushed to JWV headquarters in New York City and within 10 hours were on their way to the respective recipients.

BIG Day Volunteers

DEAR EDITOR:

Eat, drink and be merry on Purim, the sages say, for it is the gayest of Jewish holidays, a carnival time for all.

Falling in appropriately with the holiday is the setting of the one-day Israel Bond campaign of Sunday, March 9—BIG DAY. Purim is the time for giving "shalach mones," and what could be a more suitable gift for the Purim occasion than an Israel Bond?

But BIG DAY, in addition, will be the day that an army of volunteers—an army with banners at least in their hearts—goes forth for Israel and Jewry through the sale of Israel Bonds. Besides aiding the Bond drive, they will add stature and vivid reality to the celebration of Purim.

Here in Providence that "army" already has hundreds in its ranks, men and women who will gladly devote a few hours on Sunday morning, March 9, to that most worthwhile cause. But the "army" still needs more recruits; with adequate manpower (and women power, too) it will succeed.

Quite aside from the fact that BIG DAY volunteers here will share in scores of valuable prizes; aside from their being specially invited to enjoy top-drawer entertainment after the drive; aside from these and still other strictly material incentives—there is the basic, the prime incentive: the gratification that comes with knowing they'll be working for the new State of Israel.

So—Be a BIG DAY volunteer! Call the Israel Bonds office and say you'll "join the army."

Says Israel Needs Foreign Capital

Israel's first Attorney General told a Providence audience this week that the young country can become strong only through the help of such foreign capital as the Israel Bond drive, now underway.

Yaacov Shapiro, a member of the Knesset (Parliament), declared at a rally sponsored by the Labor Zionist Council of Providence that—if there is to be peace in the Middle East—a strong, self-sufficient Israel is necessary.

The rally, held at the Plantations Club Auditorium, drew some 350 persons who purchased nearly $27,000 worth of Israel Bonds. Alter Boyman, Council chairman, was master of ceremonies, and radio comedian Peter Donald of "Can You Top This?" fame entertained.

"You have a great stake in this movement," Mr. Shapiro said in reference to the Israel Bond campaign. "I appeal to you to buy more Bonds than you can afford."

Another speaker, Joseph Goldberg of Worcester, asserted that building up of Israel "is the most effective answer to anti-Semitism in America."

Arrest Teen-Age Leaders in Philly; Probe Parents

PHILADELPHIA (AJP) — The taking in tow of a half dozen instigators of a seig-heiling Nazi-like youth movement here was seen this week by a high Jewish leader as marking the end of the informal organization whose chief pet project centered about terrorizing Jews.

The optimistic note in a still tense situation here was injected by Maurice Fagan, a leader of the Jewish Community Relations Council. Close to developments in an all-out fight being waged by Philadelphia Jewry and police authorities to end outrages against Jews, Fagan told the American Jewish Press that the ability of probers to track down "six or eight active participants" in the Olney High School junior Nazi-like group showed promise of thwarting any attempts aimed at future raids on Jewish youths or other acts of terror.

Even as Fagan made his prediction, investigators had undertaken a probe into the parental background of the youths involved in the Hitler-like movement and others charged with acts of vandalism. The latest probe is twofold, the AJP learned.

First, the investigators are anxious to determine whether the parents of any of the youthful culprits were responsible for encouraging or influencing the juveniles to participate in attacks upon Jewish children and the attempted destruction of synagogues.

Secondly, the possibility of alien backgrounds is being surveyed. Any positive findings in this respect are expected to be forwarded to U. S. officials. Thus far a check into the backgrounds of more than a dozen youths implicated in the terror reign has followed the familiar pattern of broken homes, poor marks at school and other tell-tale factors that go hand in hand with the torch of vandalism.

A welcome break in the wave of juvenile unrest gave local statisticians a chance to take count and compare the extent of increased vandalism and other anti-Jewish acts committed here during the past two hectic months.

The figures showed this: Where in previous months an average of a single case of an anti-Jewish nature was recorded, outrages in the past two months reached six, almost one a week.

Defense Dept. Silent On Bias Reports

NEW YORK CITY (AJP) — Three Weeks after a major national Jewish organization lodged a sharp protest with the Defense Department over a bias by the U. S. Army against Jewish workers in recruiting personnel for American defense projects in the Middle East, Secretary of Defense Lovett has yet to signify his receipt of the protest or formally answer the charges.

A check with the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith by the American Jewish Press disclosed that no reply had been received from the chief of U. S. defense to whom ADL chairman Judge Meir Steinbrink protested a policy which barred Jews from employment in the Middle East lest the Arabs become aroused over their presence.

The bombshell practice was revealed by a high Army official several weeks ago during Senate hearings on preparedness. The officer disclosed that the Army had asked the various state employment agencies to eliminate Jews from applicants for a project in French Morocco.

The New Miriam Hospital will have electric dumb waiters from service areas to patients' areas, assuring quick delivery of equipment.

WHAT CAN ONE DAY MEAN TO YOU?

BIG DAY, Sunday, March 9th

What can one day mean to you?

You may spend it with your family or with friends, enjoying your well earned day of rest. Yes, relaxation is fine... but—

Have you ever realized what it would mean to give one day of your time to help achieve a great objective?

On Sunday, March 9th, BIG Day for Israel will be observed in our community and throughout the United States.

On BIG Day every Jewish family in our town will be visited and asked to share in the building of Israel through the purchase of State of Israel Bonds. These Bonds pay interest—they are an investment, not a donation.

We ask you to give one day of your time to make BIG Day the biggest day of the year for Israel. Here's what we can accomplish:

- Thousands of investment dollars added to the life-stream of Israel's economy.
- Increased speed in building factories, industrial plants and new farms Israel needs now in order to become self-supporting.
- A firm bond of friendship established between our community and the community of Israel.

THE SUCCESS OF BIG DAY WILL DEPEND ON VOLUNTEERS

Further information, particularly financial information, is contained in the Registration Statement filed with the Commission and in a more complete Prospectus which must be furnished to each purchaser and is obtainable from the undersigned.

STATE OF ISRAEL $500,000,000 INDEPENDENCE BOND ISSUE

The State of Israel $500,000,000 Bond Issue is intended to promote the economic development of the State. The proceeds of the Bond Issue are to be used for the purchase of machinery, raw materials, equipment and other items designed to increase the country's productive facilities so that it may earn and save foreign currency. Of the total amount, $205,000,000 is to be allocated for investment in the fields of industry and power. The sum of $130,000,000 has been designated for agricultural projects; $40,000,000 for the development of harbors, shipping and railroads; $45,000,000 for trade and services including the development of the tourist industry; and $30,000,000 for the establishment of a government mortgage bank for housing.

The balance, after payment of the expenses of the issue, is to serve as a reserve for unanticipated projects or for increased expenditures for the designated projects.

The Government's economic development program involves a total project expenditure of $1,500,000,000, of which $500,000,000 is to be provided by Israel and other countries, and the balance is to be obtained in the United States. The $500,000,000 State of Israel Bond Issue is the largest single source of funds for this program.

With immigration proceeding at the rate of 200,000 a year, Israel requires capital imports to meet the large investment necessary to create permanent employment opportunities and housing for the newcomers. A balanced and mature economy will as a rule produce enough to cover the consumptive needs of its population and to provide for some further investment to increase productivity. But under the best conditions, current production cannot begin to supply the huge capital needs of a population that is increasing at the enormous rate experienced by Israel. Palestine and Israel, therefore, have always had an adverse trade balance—like many young countries facing immigration and development tasks, including the United States, Australia and New Zealand. As immigration increased, so did the adverse trade balance. The import surplus served to meet the investment needs of the economy. For 1949 receipts on current account were (expressed in Israel Pounds, I.L.) I.L. 20,600,000 and payments, I.L. 94,100,000. For 1950 receipts on current account were I.L. 23,800,000 and payments, I.L. 113,400,000.

It is one of the major purposes of the Bond Issue to improve Israel's balance of trade through the establishment of new industrial and agricultural enterprises and through the expansion of production for export as well as for home consumption.

As of December 31, 1950, the funded debt was I.L. 114,200,000 and the floating debt, I.L. 1,300,000. The figures do not include any Treasury Bills, because of their relationship to the Special Defense Budget which has not been disclosed for security reasons.

Israel has never at any time defaulted upon the payment of principal or interest on any debt.

The budgets of the Government reflect the objectives of the State of Israel to provide for the immigration and absorption of a large number of Jews. From May 15, 1948 to March 31, 1949, receipts were I.L. 28,885,000 and expenditures, I.L. 27,529,000. From April 1, 1949 to March 31, 1950, receipts were I.L. 92,876,000 and expenditures I.L. 93,800,000. From April 1, 1950 to January 31, 1951, receipts were I.L. 113,473,000 and expenditures I.L. 112,087,000. These figures do not include Special Defense Budget expenditures or receipts from internal loans financing same.

The American Financial and Development Corporation for Israel with headquarters at 120 Broadway, New York 5, New York, is the principal underwriter for the State of Israel Bond Issue. The commissions or discounts are not to exceed 3 1/2%.

Two types of Bonds are offered at par as follows:

- (a) Interest Bearing Bonds Denominated as Fifteen Year 3 1/2% Dollar Coupon Bonds. Interest payable May 1 and Nov. 1
Denominations: $500 • $1,000 • $2,500
$5,000 • $10,000 • $100,000
- (b) Capital Appreciation Bonds Denominated as Twelve Year Dollar Savings Bonds, Maturity Value: 150% of issue amount
Denominations: $50 • $100 • $250 • $500

The Jewish Herald invites correspondence on subjects of interest to the Jewish people but disclaims responsibility for an endorsement of the views expressed by the writers.

Where's the Voice of America?

Testifying before the Senate Preparedness Committee, Major General G. J. Nold, deputy chief of Army Engineers, boldly and brazenly admitted that the Army asked state employment agencies to eliminate Jews from prospective workers on construction jobs for bases in the Middle East. Their presence, the general said, might offend the native Arabs. This discriminatory policy is carried to its logical extreme. Since the New York State Employment Service is forbidden by law to discriminate between Jewish and non-Jewish workers, the Army Engineers simply by-passed about 20,000 qualified New York workers and restricted its job procurement to states where there are but few Jews.

What a tragic picture of the demoralization of the traditional spirit of America! Decades back, when the Czarist government discriminated against citizens of the Jewish faith traveling in Russia, church federations, united with outstanding American individuals in a request that the United States abrogate its treaty with Russia. On December 13, 1911, the House of Representatives, by a vote of 301 to 1, passed a resolution for the abrogation of the treaty with Russia. Two days later, the president of the United States instructed our ambassador in Russia to serve notice on the Czarist government of our intention to terminate the old treaty.

But in 1952, a general frankly informs the Senate that the United States Army is officially discriminating among citizens in this country in order to win possible friends abroad. According to the Army's policy, freedom and equality are no longer American principles. They are only commodities to be bartered for other considerations.

U. S. Senator Herbert H. Lehman stated that he would investigate this discrimination of Army labor. We are told that the struggle the world is facing is an ideological one, and that our sons who this very day are risking their lives for America are engaged in the defense of a way of life under which human values and rights are not determined by the color of a man's skin or his manner of worship. Does the Army know this?

The voice of America was raised in no uncertain terms against the Czars of Russia when they discriminated against American citizens abroad. Will the traditional voice of America be heard now when our own Army brass is discriminating against American citizens at home in order to cater to prejudices abroad?

Comedian's First Job Dousing Rabbi's Lights On Shabbos

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A promising young Italian comedian whose first steady job was dousing the lights in a rabbi's home on Friday night, climbed to new successes on the nation's zany comedy scene this week.

Tommy Ford calls himself "The Yiddish-Italian Comedian." When he appears on the stage, his first words are—"How do you like my name? I have an Irish name, a Jewish face—and I'm Italian!"

Ford, whose Tommy-gun-like gags are shooting him up the laugh meter, was born on the Lower East Side. His next-door neighbor, Rabbi Cohn, gave him his first steady job—putting out the lights on Shabbos. With no income tax troubles, young Tommy walked off with two cents and a piece of shtrudel each week.

Ford lost the job, he recalls now with a chuckle, when a little Irish kid from another section invaded the neighborhood, cut the price and eased the Italian lad out of his concession.

A hater of bigots, Ford recently clashed with the manager of a swank restrictive Virginia Beach hotel. The comedian, while registering, overheard the manager refuse to rent accommodations to an elderly couple because—as the manager put it—"a slight restriction" existed.

Ford stopped writing, picked up his bags and made for the exit. The hotel manager, noting his hasty departure, gave pursuit. "I am sorry if there has been anything wrong," the manager said apologetically. "There is plenty wrong," the comedian retorted, "I just witnessed the reception for that elderly couple—and I'm checking out before I check in!"

The manager caught his breath long enough to reply, "Mr. Ford, that doesn't reflect on you."

"Hmfff," Ford said as he made for the street, "If you're restricting that couple today because they are Jewish, someday you'll be restricting me because I'm Catholic!"

Negro Dancers Win Israeli Acclaim

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A Negro dancing star and her troupe gave a quick heave-ho last week to rumors of bias seeping out of the Jewish State by receiving the most enthusiastic public reception of an entertainer to visit here since the establishment of Israel.

Scoring the smash success was Pearl Primus and her dancers. Originally linked to a contract which included eight engagements, the group of 10 performers won such wholehearted acclaim from the Israelis that 20 concerts were held with an extra ten scheduled in various parts of the Jewish State.

The American performers, in addition to appearing in major communities, performed in army camps, immigration centers and hospitals. The Israeli press joined in the raves.

The wide acclaim afforded the Negro star was seen as placing a damper on charges that Negro immigrants and others visiting or settling in Israel faced discrimination.

"One Man's Opinion"

Vulgarity Marches On

BY BERYL SEGAL

The bagels are coming. The lox is in sight. Why don't you hurry, hurry, hurry. Get your tickets tonight.

Yes, my friends, there is good news in Boston today. The Bagels and Yox are coming to town. This concoction, a shabby imitation of Milton Berle at his worst, is now on the road, and Boston is the lucky city to get them fresh out of Broadway.

Isn't it wonderful to live in New England? Just think of the long months you would have to wait if you happened to live in Cleveland, Chicago, or Los Angeles! But don't forget to thank the people who saw to it that you get your Bagels and Yox first stop. Who are they? Why, they are, in order of sponsorship, a Temple in Brighton, a Congregation in Winthrop, and the B'nai B'rith lodges of Greater Boston.

That's what you call a united cultural effort. Come, all you members in good standing, for a night of artistic delight. Come and get your fill with a dish of vulgarity and obscenity spiced with bagels, real fresh bagels, mind you, and stale jokes.

This monstrosity, called Bagels and Yox, was hatched in the summer hotels of the Catskills, and was brought into this world in Miami Beach. Both of these places are important to mention. It gives you some idea of the cultural climate in which the show was conceived and born. Then the show was tested and fitted to suit the tastes of the Atlantic City lox and bagel eaters. From there it moved on Broadway, where it pulled them in for 22 weeks, 3 shows a day.

Now it's Boston, the cradle of American culture, and from there the roads lead to South, North and West, until the last slice of lox is pressed into the last bagel. Judging by the performances of the three cities before Boston, that might be a long time off.

Now, what about the show? What is there in it that gives the customers belly aches from laughter, and yet infuriates every critic and reviewer?

I have before me clippings of the press notices written about the show in New York. Please believe me that I have not selected them to suit my purpose. There are no favorable notices. All the newspapers and journals were unanimous in their condemnation of Bagels and Yox and the sister Jewish-English program called Borscht-capades, still running strong in New York.

The Jewish Frontier writes in an article called "Self-abasement on Broadway":

"Bagels and Yox which is playing on Broadway... gives its customers free bagel and cream cheese and has everything from a ventriloquist whose wooden dummy speaks Yiddish to a serious opera singer who indulges in telling Yiddish jokes. The word bagel is everywhere on the marquee. A tree planted in the theatre has bagels growing out of its branches. "At 8:45 a yell is heard! 'Bagels, Bagels.' The entertainers come down the aisle with baskets of bagel, filled with cream cheese provided by an enterprising cheese manufacturer. Cream cheese and bagel, free, eat all you like... At intermission time the audience is invited to eat bagel and cheese again, this time in the lobby. See, we are one big happy family of bagel eaters."

"And in between the bagel, the audience roars at such gems of humor as 'Zol dir Shtinken fun kop' or 'Di bobe is shwanger geworden' and moronic pre-war jokes exploded in Yiddish phrases, always vulgar phrases, always

The office of the New Miriam Hospital will be equipped with modern business machine accounting system for financial control, statistics and perpetual inventory.

with obscene winking of the eye at the mention of the word 'Pupik.' "The audience is laughing at Yiddish, at Jewish ways of living, at Jewish weddings and Bar-Mitzvahs, at Jewish family life. In short, the audience laughs at itself. Yiddish is hurled at the audience with the vulgarity of Amos and Andy practicing their Negro dialect."

"Both Borscht Capades and Bagels and Yox depend for their existence on a pandering of the Yiddish language. Both revues wouldn't remain open a second night if the self-abasing use of Yiddish was dropped out."

The Jewish Daily Forward comments:

"The jokes of the vaudeville stage are as innocent as new-born chicks besides the goods dished out from the stage of the Holiday theater (home of the 'Bagels and Yox')." "The Tog (Day) writes:

"Minski's burlesque palace was a holy place in comparison with this thing shown in Holiday theater. What is seen there is nothing but a rough house, a dumping lot for filth and refuse and abuse of all that is Jewish in nature and origin. The cast consisting of boys and girls who are graduates of the Catskills, tells obscene jokes, and shady stories that would make a kosak blush with shame."

The Morning Journal laments: "In that vaudeville on Broadway, called Bagels and Yox, they spit in the face of Jews, and these same Jews roar with laughter. Everything in Jewish life is ridiculed and insulted, and the crowd, a Jewish crowd, claps and is in seventh heaven. The theater is converted into a veritable privy."

An editorial in the Zukunft, a Yiddish monthly of the highest literary standards, says:

"I went to see the Yiddish-English show on Broadway. I was a witness to our moral degradation. I was ashamed not so much of the actors, the clowns, but of the audience. What an audience! I was horrified at the roaring laughter. A stable-full of laughing horses."

"If Jewish zeides and bobes, fathers and mothers, sons and daughters, were actually as vulgar as they are represented in the shows, they deserve to be despised. Night after night malicious slander is poured over the heads of the audience, ridiculing Jewish family life, the Yiddish language, and the crowd, poor hungry creatures, stuff their mouths with free bagels and they screech and they scream, and they roll in the aisles with laughter. For shame!"

And the editorial concludes: "This, my friends, is the hand writing on the wall. This audience did not spring up from nowhere. It is the harvest of a cultural swamp land. It is the creature nurtured in ignorance and in a cultural wilderness."

So this is Bagels and Yox! This is what is coming to Boston now, and is sponsored by a Temple, a Synagogue, and B'nai B'rith lodges!

Now, I have no quarrel with the writers, producers, and players of this monstrosity. This is their face. They cannot look any better. This is their taste, and the show is the creature of their talents.

But what about those organizations that sponsor such an abomination? By sponsoring it, they make it Foshier, and recommend it to Jewish audiences. Is that really the taste of the Rabbis and the leaders of the congregations, and the chairmen of B'nai B'rith of Greater Boston? Aren't they reading the press? Didn't they see this pall of swill before they invited it to their home town?

Be gone, you naive players and writers of the Art theater! Who wants your art? Who cares for your painstaking portrayals, your

Urge Blood As Admission to Games

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—If an "atza" advanced by Jewish veterans to Baseball Czar Ford Frick this week is clouted into action, countless thousands of wounded GIs will reach home and a plate of mom's chow instead of mess hall grub... thanks to home-plate fans.

In a letter to Frick, the Jewish War Veterans of the U. S., delivered this pitch: all major league baseball clubs sometime in the '52 season, they urged, should set aside a five-day week, Monday through Friday, in which admission to games would be gained through the contribution of a pint of blood to assist the war effort. The vets' proposal excluded the week-end when the clubs put away much of the coin in attendance receipts.

Posts of the Jewish vets, the group's executive director, Ben Kaufman, wrote Frick, would go all-out in helping put over the plan. Copies of the letter were also sent Secretary of Defense Bob Lovett and E. Roland Harriman, president of the American Red Cross.

Wedding Held In Cancer Hospital

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A cancer hospital here provided the setting this week for one of the most unusual Jewish weddings in American history.

Officials at the Memorial Hospital Center for Cancer arranged the ceremony after learning that Mrs. Eva Goldstein, operated on Monday, insisted that the June wedding of her daughter, Pearl, to Sidney Kirschenbaum, be held immediately.

With a hospital terrace-room as a setting, the wedding was performed at the bedside of Mrs. Goldstein by Rabbi Max Wittenberg, of the American-Jewish Congregation. Fifty friends, relatives and hospital employees witnessed the quiet ceremony.

The New Miriam Hospital will be distinguished for its modern decor. All furniture in waiting rooms and lounges will be in light colored woods.

ADL Region Fights Daily School Prayers

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—The running battle over proposed daily prayers in the state's public schools reached a near-showdown stage this week with a major region of the Anti-Defamation League on record opposing the plan and a Protestant teachers group here lending the idea its backing.

The New Miriam Hospital will provide facilities for ten resident internes. There will also be a fully equipped interne's recreation room.

Labor Chieftain Marks Birthday

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—The plump, energetic Polish Jew born on Washington's Birthday and who came to the United States to lead sweat-shop workers to economic freedom and prosperity, marked his 60th birthday here last week.

David Dubinsky, one of America's foremost labor leaders and kingpin of the powerful International Ladies Garment Workers Union, AFL, helped the ILGWU attain its envied title, "the union with a soul."

And with that "soul," Dubinsky gave new life to the faltering ILGWU on the brink of disaster just 20 years ago when he first took command. Then, the union's total membership was 40,000, its treasury bankrupt.

Two decades after the magic-like Dubinsky touch, the ILGWU's membership rolls exceed 430,000 members; its treasury boasts assorted finances running up to $140,000,000.

Under Dubinsky's leadership, too, the ILGWU pitched in to aid the cause of Israel in the most trying time; donated sums to rehabilitate orphans in war-ravaged Italy and set up a large array, perhaps the most complete, of hospital and recreational facilities for its membership in the teeming garment areas of the nation.

One of Dubinsky's unique endeavors has been to aid employers in distress. Rather than see the garment manufacture hit rock bottom, thus forcing employees out of work, the ILGWU set up teams of skilled operators to help employers operate their plants better.

There have been occasions, too, when Dubinsky's union actually

Lena Horne To Tour Israel With Symphony

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—Famed songstress Lena Horne will set out to conquer Israel's audiences next May, but she'll leave her piano behind and instead offer blues renditions with—the Israeli Symphony Orchestra!

The unusual arrangement came to light late last week. Miss Horne, the latest in a growing number of talented Negro performers to tour Israel, will return to Paris following her engagements in major cities throughout the Jewish State.

loaned considerable sums of money—at a minimum rate of interest—to employers perched on the cliff of bankruptcy.

Dubinsky himself is active in many Jewish causes, notably the Jewish Labor Committee of which he is a leading force.

Newspaper Dusts Off 2000 Year Old Prophecy

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—A 2,000-year-old story of King Belshazzar's famous feast lifted from the pages of the Old Testament and the prophetic words "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin," were pressed into unique service by the largest newspaper in the world to get across its point that the Truman administration may be doomed.

The Daily News led off its editorial pages with the historic words, giving the background of Babylonian conquest of Israel and their appearance on a wall as the invaders drank wine out of sacred vessels taken from the Jews' temple in Jerusalem.

The words, translated by the Hebrew prophet Daniel, predicted that the Babylonian empire of King Belshazzar was doomed.

Bringing the prophecy up to date, the anti-Fair Deal paper said that it hoped that an upset scored here by a Republican congressional candidate "actually is a piece of handwriting on the wall for Truman." The editorial was headed: "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin?"

Habonim to Form Zionist Youth Group

Plans to organize a Zionist youth group for boys and girls 11-14 years of age were announced this week by Habonim, national youth movement of the Labor Zionist Organization of America. The group will meet weekly at Sons of Abraham Synagogue, with Kenneth Resnick and Joseph Teverow serving as organizers. Members of the membership committee are Harriet Grossberg, Martin Mendelson and Melvin Berman.

In the New Miriam Hospital, operating rooms, delivery rooms, and X-Ray rooms will have modern air conditioning.

Comedian's Takeoff Upsets Yiddishists, But Audiences Howl

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—Yiddish circles here simmered this week over a television comedian's humorous interpretation of Yiddish slang for video audiences.

The words of jest on such words as "fahrbungin," came from comic Danny Thomas, a veteran Catholic showman whose work in the cause of brotherhood and goodwill shines almost as brightly as his own rise as a star. Thomas' latest contribution to brotherhood was the donation of royalties of "Eli, Eli" to a midwest Hebrew school.

Most of the studio in this heavily Jewish populated area thought Thomas' explanations of the humorous expressions near hilarious. But Yiddish circles, though they issued no formal attack, fumed. One spokesman termed it "an outrage and insult to the Yiddish language."

Thomas said it was all in jest; that he meant no harm.

Rebuke Reporter For Race Label

DETROIT (AJP)—Protests by the Jewish Community Council against the use by a leading local daily of a reference to Jews in identifying principals involved in a Communist issue resulted this week in the reprimanding of a major wire service's correspondent, the author of the piece.

Early editions of the Detroit News carried an Associated Press dispatch which identified persons challenging the constitutionality of a New York State anti-Communist law as "eight New York Jews." Strong protests, the Jewish News here reported, resulted in the daily's altering the phrase in later editions to read simply "eight New York residents."

The paper, in turn, called the phrasing to the attention of the AP which traced the article to a correspondent who was called down for the use of the race label in describing the principals.

Ahavath Sholom Plans Carnival

Arrangements for the third annual carnival sponsored by Congregation Ahavath Sholom were made at a breakfast meeting Sunday at the synagogue. Joseph Goldstein was elected to head the carnival committee, with John Newman as co-chairman.

Other officials are Joseph Morrison, secretary; Morris Fishbein, treasurer; and Mrs. Bert Resnick, co-treasurer.

Max Resnick and Mrs. Jack Gershowitz were made chairmen of the solicitation committee, assisted by I. M. Gan, Nathan Goldstein, Samuel Weiner, Hyman Shindler, Louis Fishbein, Samuel Woolf, Herman Rekant, Jack Gershowitz, Joseph Marcus, Samuel Olshansky, Samuel Bornstein and Samuel Hyman. Also, Mesdames Morton Baker, Benjamin Mendelowitz, Joseph Morrison, Steiner, Joseph Goldstein and John Newman.

The next meeting of the carnival committee will take place on Monday evening at 8 P. M. at the synagogue. Members of the congregation and their friends are invited to attend.

DAY SCHOOL WOMEN

The Ladies Association of the Providence Hebrew Day School will have its next meeting next Wednesday evening in the school building.

Mrs. Irving Brodsky will give a book review on Maurice Samuel's book, "Gentleman and the Jew". There will also be a Purim celebration and Purim refreshments will be served.

A feature of the New Miriam Hospital will be a coffee and gift shop for visitors, staff members and convenience of the patients.

Says Aid to Israel Doomed Unless U. S. Jews Embrace Hebrew

ATLANTIC CITY (AJP) — American Jewry was warned this week by a high Israel spokesman in the U. S. that unless it embraces Hebrew, any program of action on Israel's behalf in this country would fall by the wayside.

Expressing doubt that "any program of action on behalf of Israel in this country can endure or afford without the spiritual driving force which originates from the Hebrew language," Dr. J. O. Ronall, Vice-Consul in Charge of Economic Affairs at the Israel Consulate told 400 delegates to the 2nd annual national education conference of the Young Zionist Districts of the Zionist Organization of America that the cultural ties between Israel and U. S. Jewry "ought to be reciprocal otherwise a relationship of 'tensions, difficulties, antagonisms and even serious conflicts' might develop between the Jews of America and the Israelis.

Stressing the Hebrew language as a major tie between the two communities, he urged that the word "Jewishness," meant to express a meaningful Jewish life, be altered to "Hebraism."

"My suggestion," Dr. Ronall told the Young Zionist leaders, "is to use the expression 'Hebraism' to express the specific Jewish strife for truth and harmony in life based on the ethical values of Jewish tradition and history which are inseparable from the Hebrew language in which the Bible is written."

The Israel leader admitted the large-scale perpetuation of Hebrew in the U. S. presented "difficulties, responsibilities and complications," but said the obstacles "are all of a technical nature."

"By that I mean," he said, "it is up to the language teachers to work out the most expedient way to teach Hebrew—there cannot be any question whether or not Hebrew should be taught to those who want to perpetuate Jewishness; the question is a technical one, that it should be taught."

Sophie Tucker's Israel-Bound; Receipts To Charity

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—The plump little Jewish girl who set America agog as the last of the "Red Hot Mommas"—inimitable Sophie—will highlight her 1953 appearances as a part of a worldwide tour with a series of engagements in Israel.

And in the true fashion of a great showman and a friend of the Jewish State, Sophie's receipts for what are expected to be record engagements in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem will go to Israel charities, part of her way of expressing thanks for the invitation to play the country and aid in its development.

Sophie, who recently won the Jewish War Veterans "Woman of the Year" award, is scheduled to appear in England and Scotland prior to making the voyage to Israel.

Foods To Remember

By LEAH W. LEONARD
 (Author of "Jewish Cookery")
 (An American Jewish Press Feature)
 Save the neck skins, whole if possible, to be stuffed and cooked along with the chicken soup, the roasted or baked stuffed chicken, or tucked into the center of baked beans, NAHIT or NAHUT (chick peas), or a TZIMMES of your choice.

HELZEL STUFFING
 Basic Recipe

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup finely cut or chopped

raw chicken fat (melted vegetable shortening or oil may be used)
 2 tablespoons grated raw onion
 A dash of nutmeg or cinnamon, optional
 Combine all ingredients listed by mixing together in a bowl. Now sew up the small end of the chicken neck which has been carefully cleaned. Fill with the mixture to about 3/4 full and sew up the opening. Wash with cold water, then pour boiling water over the stuffed neck to shrink the skin and make it smooth. Place it alongside the chicken to be roasted or plunge it into boiling chicken soup and cook 45 minutes. Remove from soup and brown lightly in chicken fat, then remove the thread from both ends before cutting and serving. Roasting stuffed necks in the oven alongside the chicken, with meat roast or with NAHIT or baked beans is the most satisfactory way of preparing this "specialty." Other stuffings are equally good though not traditional.

CHICKEN GREBEN (Cracklings) may be substituted for other fat.

BREAD CRUMBS may be substituted for flour and an onion, diced and fried light brown in hot melted shortening, added hot to the dry ingredients. Flavoring variations may be made by adding 1/2 teaspoon mixed herbs (poultry seasoning) or a pinch of Saffron.

CHESTNUTS may be roasted, mashed or cut fine and added to the filling mixture.

HARD COOKED EGGS may be placed end to end in half the amount of filling.

NAHIT
 (also called Nahut, Chick Peas Garbanzos and Chechi or Cecci)

These are yellow chick peas that are easy to prepare for cooking by soaking overnight in cold water before boiling in fresh cold water, slightly salted, till tender enough to crush between thumb and forefinger. They do not cook apart no matter how long they are boiled. For best results, soak in cold water overnight, then drain well.

To each cup of soaked chick peas add 1/2 cup cold water and 1/4 teaspoon salt and cook in a pressure cooker at 15 pounds pressure for 10 minutes. Reduce pressure by letting cold water run on the cooker a few minutes. The Chick Peas or NAHIT are ready to prepare in several ways.

TZIMMES NAHIT
 (Rumanian Style)

- 1 cup cooked nahit
 - 1/4 cup long grain rice
 - 3 cups water
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup honey
 - 1/4 cup brown sugar
- Combine and cook over moderate heat 25 to 30 minutes or till rice is tender. Turn into a casserole and bake uncovered

All areas of the New Miriam Hospital will have sound conditioned ceilings.

15 minutes at 400°F or till nicely browned on top. Serves 4.

Variation: Add 1 pound of brisket of beef and an onion to 2 cups soaked chick peas. Cover with cold water and cook 1 1/2 hours or till meat is tender. Turn into a casserole, add the honey and sugar, and a thickening made by browning 2 tablespoons flour in 2 tablespoons shortening. Bake till nicely browned. STUFFED HELZEL may be tucked into the center of the NAHIT.

BOWLING

CRANSTON MEN'S by Phil Chopak

The Yanks came from third place to tie for the lead when they defeated the Phils 4-0. A score of 136 on Hal Warren's last string gave the winners the fourth point on a lone pin. The Tigers, in second a week ago, figured in the first place tie when they took 4 points from the Giants, while the Pirates, last week's lead team, dropped to second place when they got on the wrong end of a 3-1 match with the Cubs who lifted their standing to tie the Phils for fourth place. Dodgers in the past two weeks have slipped from the top to third place; their efforts for this week brought them a single point while the Indians were winning 3.

Jerry Fish was high man for three strings with 335, Hal Warren close up with 332, Al Samd-peril 324, Bernie Wexler and Ben Mellon 318, Henry Stampel 317, Ira Davis 315 and Aaron Davis 313.

Irv Berenbaum topped the high singles with 137. Len Chernack rolled 119, Moe Bernstein 118, Mike Miller 117, Murray Potemkin and Ed Feinberg, 113 each, Jack Dreyfus, Bill Deitch, Joe Cohen, Ed Lang, Ed Berman and Hy Wasserman all had 112, Wally Schwartz 111, Joe Agar 110, Hal Aven 109, Joe Potemkin and Ben Lerner 108, Ken Sackett 107, Max Levy, Hal Dubin and Julian Holland 106, Art Seigel, Al Silverstein and Dave Feinberg 105, Nate Schwartz 104, Al Sydney 103 and Stan Weinman 102.

FINEMAN-TRINKLE by Jack Jacobson

Unnoticed and previously unheralded, the Athletics team of Chookie White, Leo Schwartz,

Gene Aronson, Morris Factor and Art Pivnick has gradually moved from the second division into a threatening position for the league lead and are now only 4 points behind the first place White Sox.

In the National division Harry Goldberg's Reds and Dave Allen's Phils continue to win and stay in first but Braves stars Les Friedman (329) and Phil Shaulson (322) remain hot and have jumped their team to third place, 6 points behind the leaders.

Morris Satloff rolled 325 with the result that the Tigers took 4 points again and have won 11 points of the last possible 12. Satloff was ably assisted by teammates Don Cohen 336 and Murray Gordon 322.

Other outstanding totals were Irving Levin 356, Harry Shore 341, Mort Klibanoff 336, Gene Aronson 334, Sam Miller 332, Reeve Zatlhoff and Lou Millen 329, Sid Brown 322, Dave Allen 319, Arky Burrows 317, Max Cohen, Irv Schaefer and Morris Factor 315, Art Pivnick and Phil Feldman 311, Sam Tapper and Norm Bernstein 307, Sam Shaver and Jack Jacobson 305, Al Resnick and Sam Feldman 303, Chookie White, George Feldman, Joe Fishbein and Mel Wasserman 301.

Good single strings were Speed Kessler 120, Billy Edelman 118, Murray Segal 115, Harvey Stein 112, Moe Goldman and Ernie Krasner 110, Gene Silverman, Wallace Genser and Justin Robinson 108, Arnold Kleinman, Norm Goldberg, Irv Kaplan and Nate Gordon 106, Lew Kaplan 104, Sam Price, Stuie Steingold, Lennie Levin and Harry Goldberg 102.

FRATERNAL BOWLING by Ben Medwin

Unity, by knocking off Loyalty for three games, pulled into a tie with them for top spot in the league standings. Security, taking three from fourth place Liberty, was only one game behind the league leaders. Capt. Chaiken's 335, Delerson's 329 and Seltzer's 328 helped bottom team grab three from third place Fraternity.

Top man for the night was Jafa with 351, and H. Wagner's 321 helped him top the league for this week, with 106 average and Chaiken very close behind.

Other high threes were Pedliken 324, Garrick 320, B. Labush 311 and Rose 301. Some singles were Lisker 123, Levin and Azroff 114, Strumfeld 113, Tolchinsky 112, Smith and Gladstone 109 and Medwin 104.

BETH ISRAEL BOWLING By Evelyn L. Krasnoff

Beck Sachs scored two strikes on a spare reaching a high single of 120. Other high singles were Betty Frye 106, Lillian Glasshoffer 105, Jean Sachs 104, Mildred Millman 102, Selma Nasberg 101, Helen Hodosh 96, Jennett Winkelman 92, Dot Stampel 93, Florence Coken 91, Etta Abrams 91, and

SPORTS WORLD

Back in the United States again after his turbulent trip to Australia, tennis star Dick Savitt is at last getting the opportunity to explain his position in the sizzling dispute that focused on him. At the same time he is faced with planning for his future tennis

Millie Raiser 90. High threes were Beck Sachs 284; Mildred Millman 278 and Selma Nasberg 277; Vassar and Pembroke tied 2-2. Wellesley took 3 points from Hunter, and Radcliffe downed Smith 3-1.

EMANUEL BOWLING By Sid Green

The Athletics swept their second straight match in two weeks, this time at the expense of the Browns. Led by the continued inspired bowling of Billy Botvin, and ably assisted by Murray Davis's 355 and Mal Paynor's 353, they won four.

Pirate Nussenfeld 316 and Pappy Platin 315 tried hard, but the Red Sox took a 3-1 win from the Pirates as Al Chase's 367 and Charley Blackman's 324 were too much to overcome.

A Press's 113, 113 and 100, and Bill Gillis's 349 provided the White Sox with three points over the Braves with Al Gordon's 334 the only resistance the losers showed.

The Cubs managed to salvage one point in their match with the Yankees, and the Cards did the same against the Reds. Leo (without hair) Miller's 122, 114, 103, and Jack Broadman's 119, 123, 104 gave the Cubs their only point of the evening, while Milt Price and Miles Goldberg paced the winners.

It looked like the Giants were off and running, as Jagoliner's 131 and Milt Whitman's 122 enabled them to take the first string, but the opposing Tigers were not to be denied as they clawed their way to the other 3 points, with Tiger Lou Chase's 344 and Reizen's 320 doing the most damage.

The Indians tightened their hold on first place with a clean sweep of 4 points, with "Chief Knock-em-Down Pins" Sherman Price rolling 134-119-102 and Chief Scalper Zucker chopping down a very neat 134-122-118. The Dodgers' best efforts were turned in by George Miller 338, and Mr. Mann 322.

FINEMAN-TRINKLE AUX. by Sylvia Price

Sally Summers' Hearts have finally crept out of the bottom, a spot they held all season, by moving up to 4th place. The Spades, which have held first place all season, now have 55 points to their credit.

High bowlers were Jeanne Siegal, Charlotte Miller and Hindy Lozow 106, Hope Himelfarb 105, Arline Abrams 100, Sally Summers and Jeanne Alterman 99, Ervina Ross, Phyllis Sholovitz, Adrienne Aronson and Arlene Slack 98, Harriette Zarchen 96, Eunice Greenfield, Irene Price and Millie Pivnick 94.

career. One of the world's great tennis players, Savitt stopped at his Orange, N. J., home to catch a quick breather before plunging into the national indoor tennis championships in New York. Savitt was top seeded in the men's singles division.

Upon arriving in New York by plane, Savitt had plenty to say concerning being kept off the Davis Cup team in the Australian matches. He branded as false the statements that Ted Schroeder, who got the nod instead, had won in 18 of 20 practice sets between the two stars. The Jewish court champ maintains that Schroeder had absolutely no claim to being picked. Dick also expressed dissatisfaction at the way he was treated in Australia and said that he doesn't feel like playing in that country again.

As for the future, Savitt has a full program. Coming up is a trip to Europe this spring for the French championships and the Wimbledon tourney.

Nat Holman, whose nickname "Mr. Basketball" is a permanent feature in court circles, built his reputation by turning out top teams. Thus it would be natural for Holman to feel stifled without the full basketball program to which he is accustomed. But that is the situation that exists now as a result of the basketball scandals that shook the sports world. Holman is practically a man without a team. A City College of New York squad exists, but in a strictly de-emphasized way. Holman is urging that the City College officials reconsider their position and begin giving more attention to basketball. He wants the game to pick up from the position to which it has dropped at CCNY.

Equally difficult as a coach without much of a team is a team without its star player. Syracuse in the National Basketball Association found this out with the temporary loss of star Dolph Shaves. Dolph's importance was always realized when he was around. But with him out of the line-up his value has been pointed up even more sharply. Due to a wrist fracture, Dolph had to drop out of play at a critical stage of the league race and the Nats immediately began to suffer for it. Dolph had been one of those named to participate in the East-West NBA all-star game in Boston, but was sidelined. Max Zaslofsky of the Knicks got a chance to play and was one of the high scorers.

JWV Auxiliary Visits Bristol Home

A visit to the Bristol Soldiers Home was made last week by the ladies of Sackin-Shocket Auxiliary 533, Jewish War Veterans. Refreshments were served and games played.

A bridge is being planned by the organization on March 12 at Congregation Beth-David. Table and door prizes will be awarded.

SYD COHEN:

Little League Is In Your Neighborhood

It seems a long time since this column first began to push the Little League idea in Providence; but it actually has been only a year and a half, and I suppose that is not a long lapse—now that Little League has finally come to the various sections of the city. You undoubtedly read about the meeting held last week, wherein the Providence Little League committee, under the leadership of Joe McGee, organized several leagues on a neighborhood basis. Since then West Warwick has announced plans to join the fold.

Providence already has one league in operation—in the Mount Pleasant area. A new league, tentatively considered to comprise the North End and Wanskuck section—will meet on Wednesday evening, March 5 to elect officers and push its organization.

Two days earlier, on Monday, March 3, the East Side-Fox Point organization will meet at Nathan Bishop Junior High School. South Providence-Elmwood Little League will begin its existence at about the same time.

If you live in the West Warwick area, contact Ambrose Smith, at the sports desk of the Pawtuxet Valley Times. It was Amby who mentioned that community's plans for this year while we watched Sunday's hockey game from the press box.

Sponsors — at $300 per team — seem to be the least of our needs. The Little League idea is sweeping the city as it has so many other parts of the country. Managers already seem to be plentiful, although more still are needed. . . . and fields . . . And other necessary personnel. There is a lot to be done—all of it without any financial return. If you are interested, attend your neighborhood meeting, or contact George Katz, Harry Platt or this writer.

I am personally very proud of the part taken in the development of Little League by a group of Jewish men, and if any men ever deserved public recognition and acclaim for an important public service job, it is this bunch.

Leading off the list must be the group of fellows from the Comets Club, who helped me get the ball rolling a year ago. The groundwork laid by these men was the foundation on which Little League now is being constructed. Thanks to their efforts, the selling job was done in 1951; and because of that, the organization job now should be completed swiftly and well.

Harry Platt has been in the forefront since the very first meeting last year. Harry worked hard, getting sponsors, lining up an important field and contacting many important men, including George Katz of Juvenile Court and Judge McCabe. He arranged for the showing of movies, obtained literature, addressed various parents' groups, and much more.

It is George Katz who must get most of the praise for this year's success. When I called George about a month ago to see if he could lend a helping hand, he offered to arrange the first meeting, but implied his participation would have to be limited thereafter. Well, George called that meeting, and another, and contacted sports commentators, and made a recording which you heard on the air last week, and lined up so many of the influential public figures who were needed to serve on the committee—in fact, he did all the background work.

Katz did a marvelous, swift and efficient job, and I hereby extend my personal admiration and praise.

One more man must be mentioned. He is Dr. Dave Cohen of Westerly, who first contacted me about Little League while he was serving the first of his two years as president of the Westerly outfit. Dave brought an entourage to Providence last year to explain the set-up, and he and his wife and two other Little League officials braved the sloppy and dangerous weather of last week to drive in and further explain to our big gathering in the Journal auditorium what must be done.

So deeply imbued with Little League is Dave that he has become, at the invitation of national Little League headquarters in Williamsport, Pa., an official representative who goes around the State to communities asking for assistance with their programs, as we did last week.

A final word to show what all of us are really doing this for. At the meeting last Thursday, there were several youngsters in attendance. Apparently, they thought the organization meeting was for players as well as adult administrators.

During the question and answer period that followed Dr. Cohen's discussion, one of the boys finally got up enough nerve to raise his hand and ask the paramount question:

"When do tryouts start?"

For the answer to that and all other questions, attend your sectional, or neighborhood meeting next week.

The Kid Mellows

During the very same week that this column devoted itself to a defense of Ted Williams, and suggested a Day be held in his honor, the Sporting News reported in a small story hidden on one of the back pages that a small group of fans had suggested that the Splinter be so honored.

Last week's edition had a much larger story, well forward in the paper, reporting that the fans' "Day for Ted Williams" movement is growing fast. Even the Kid seems to be mellowing. Ted admitted in an interview—not that famous one with Curt Gowdy—that he is very happy with the reception he received in Boston during the Sportsmen's Show. The fans, he said, were wonderful, and they showed up by the thousands to see and try to meet him. He indicated that his mail, too, has been heartening.

It wouldn't be too surprising if he finally tipped his cap this season—though not in the direction of the press box.

Net Star Swamps Ex-Wimbledon Champ

NEW YORK CITY (AJP)—Jewish tennis star Dick Savitt this week added another victory to his string of net triumphs by easily defeating 1931 Wimbledon champion Sidney Wood here.

The Orange, N. J. player, himself the 1951 Wimbledon title holder, walked off with the win. Wood found himself unable to cope with the depth and pace of Savitt's ground strokes.

There will be installed in the New Miriam Hospital thousands of feet of stainless steel counters and cabinets in treatment rooms, surgical areas, X-ray rooms, and laboratories.

I'm Proud of My Husband

There have been many times that I have had cause to be proud of my husband.

At first — because he was so handsome — so good — so strong.

Later I came to appreciate his steadfastness — his integrity.

As the years passed — there were many other qualities — other deeds that made me proud.

And, today, again — I'm proud of my husband.

Today he established a memorial for our loved ones in the New Miriam Hospital.

A memorial in the New Miriam Hospital gives in two ways. It honors your loved ones and it gives to the community necessary additional hospital facilities. Memorial opportunities are still available. For details consult any member of the Memorial Committee.
