Hundreds of Volunteers to Canvass City on BIG Day

Governor Roberts Signs BIG Day Proclamation

Ohio Travelers Read the Herald

The Herald has turned up in some distant places in the past, but a recent occurrence in the Mid-West merits repeating. The story was told by Robert (Pat) Novgrad, formerly of Providence, now a traveling salesman out of Hartford, Conn.

Pat relates that he was on a train running between Cincinnati and Dayton, Ohio when he noticed that a fellow passenger was reading a newspaper that looked suspiciously like the Herald.

Closer investigation revealed that this actually was the case; so Novgrad introduced himself to the stranger, who also was originally from this city, and told of his Providence background.

The two men then continued their journey, each perusing a section of the latest issue.

Governor Dennis J. Roberts signs a document proclaiming Sunday, March 9 to be BIG DAY, when hundreds of volunteers will canvass in Providence and in other Rhode Island communities for Bonds of the Israel Government. Present at signing were, left to right, Benjamin R. Albert, Providence Israel Bonds Committee chairman; Mrs. Bertram Bernhardt, co-marshall; and Saul Abrams, marshal for BIG DAY in Providence.

Jori Registration Starts Monday

Acting on the recommendations of a Camp Jori survey, the board of directors of the Jewish Children's Home and Foundation has announced major program changes for the 1952 camp season.

Alex Rumpler, president of the Foundation, revealed that the camp will go on a three trip basis, each period being of three weeks duration. The fee for the three week period will be fifty dollars, including all expenses, plus a $1.50 health insurance fee.

Rumpler indicated that the new three week periods will allow for better programming. "Children now will be able to enter into the camp spirit knowing that they can finish many projects they start," he said. Arrangements are being made for a three day orientation period at camp for the staff to work out the new program schedule. Experts from the camping field will participate in this institute.

"The Foundation policy of providing camperships when eligibility requirements are met will be continued," Rumpler emphasized. In 1951, 78 children received full camperships. Applications for camperships will be available during the registration period.

Camp Jori, located at Pt. Judith, accommodates 45 boys and 35 girls. There will be a staff of 20 counsellors and a full-time registered nurse. The health insurance policy provides for complete medical coverage.

Arrangements have been completed for the camp to utilize the Sand Hill Cove beach area. This move was made to allow the campers an opportunity to learn basic and advanced swimming techniques. In the past Scarborough State Beach was the camp swimming area.

Rumpler stressed that Camp Jori is open to the entire community and is not maintained for any particular group. The camp

To Meet at 9 A.M. For Breakfast

Providence volunteers for BIG DAY next Sunday, March 9, will listen in on a coast-to-coast special telephone hookup during their pre-canvassing breakfast at the Sheraton-Biltmore at 9 A.M.

The signal for the start of BIG DAY by Rudolf G. Sonnenborn, president of the Bonds of the Israel Government organization, will be followed by remarks from Henry Morgenthau, Jr., chairman of the Board of Governors of the Israel Bond Issue; and Golda Myerson, Minister of Labor in the Israel Government, speaking from Washington, D. C.

Joining with lay leadership in Providence and in other cities and towns throughout the United States in stressing the importance of BIG DAY to the Jews of America and Israel are religious leaders.

They point to the fact that Purim, which begins only two days after BIG DAY, is the holiday that celebrates the rescue of Jews from their oppressors.

On Sunday, volunteer workers will visit the homes of fellow Jews who have not previously bought Israel Bonds, and ask them to mark the Purim holiday by buying Bonds of the State of Israel.

Governor, Mayor Issue Proclamation

The Governor of Rhode Island and the Mayor of Providence both took official cognizance this week of BIG DAY, Sunday, March 9.

Each issued official proclamations calling attention to the importance of the one-day drive for Bonds of the Israel Government. In the document issued at City Hall, Mayor Walter H. Reynolds asserted, in part, that:

"... The entire western free world has thrilled to the emergence of the State of Israel as a new outpost of democracy."

"... Americans in all walks of life have given wide recognition to the needs of the State of Israel by supporting its Five Hundred Million Dollar Independence Bond Issue."

Mayor Reynolds also noted that the purchase of more than $101,000,000 in Israel Bonds during

Mrs. Roosevelt Visits Israel On Mid-East Tour

A visit to Israel was high on the calendar of a recent tour of strategic Middle East countries undertaken by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. Her trip in Israel included visits to settlements, major cities and a first-hand inspection of Israel's growing economic might. During her stay in the Jewish State, the former first lady spent an afternoon with Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion. Amid a discussion of problems facing the Middle East, the wife of the late FDR and Mr. Ben-Gurion enjoyed a cup of tea. Later, Mrs. Roosevelt spent hours touring new colonies springing up in Israel, seeking out and chatting with Israel's leaders tomorrow, her youth. (American Jewish Press Photos from I.S.I.)

Ferdman Family Elects Abowitz

The Ferdman Family Circle held its March meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ferdman of 65 Bellevue Avenue. Mrs. Joseph Fox, social chairman, outlined the program for the coming months.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ferdman, president and secretary, respectively, resigned from their offices. They plan to move to Florida. They were presented gifts and made honorary members of the club.

A social hour followed the meeting, and home movies were shown. Mrs. Philip Fox was the winner of the white elephant raffle.

Colors used in the New Miriam Hospital have been scientifically selected. The walls of patients' rooms will be painted for eye-ease and quiet cheerfulness. There will also be ceilings of sound absorbent material.

Highlight of the event will be the selection and crowning of "King Ahashueras" and "Queen Esther." Nominations for the royal couple will be made by the youth groups represented on the Council. Final selection will be made by a panel of judges.

Carnival booths will be set up by several youth groups, including Narragansett AZA and BBG, Roger Williams BBG, Phi Delta Sorority, Iota Phi Sorority, Senior Judaea, Gym youth and the Jay-See Club.

GJC Allocations Committee to Meet

The workbook, a detailed 205-page outline of basic information concerning the background and activities of every beneficiary agency of the GJC, is based on budget studies compiled by the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, the GJC's own record of experience with organizations seeking its financial support, and from briefs submitted by these groups.

Included in the workbook is comparative data showing, wherever available, amounts appropriated to these agencies by the following five communities which raise amounts similar to those raised by Providence: Buffalo, Dallas, Hartford, New Haven and Rochester. Every member of the Allocations Committee has been provided with a copy of the workbook to aid in making final recommendations.

The committee, under the chairmanship of Alvin A. Sopkin, president, includes Dr. Ilie Berger, Harry Blacher, Edward Blackman, Dr. Nathan A. Bolotow, Alter Boyman, Benjamin Brier, Mrs. Archie Fain, Irving I. Fain, George Gerber, Henry Hassenfeld, Sydney A. Kane, Arthur Kaplan, Arthur J. ### Mayor, Governor Issue Proclamations

the last eight months of 1951 gave the new state "great impetus on the road to economic independence."

In his proclamation, Governor Roberts declared, in part:

"WHEREAS, the people of Rhode Island have joined with other communities throughout the nation in designating Sunday, March 9th as BIG DAY (Bonds of the Israel Government DAY), on which an intensive one-day effort will mark the opening of the 1952 campaign for the sale of $200,000,000 of these Bonds during the current year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dennis J. Roberts, Governor of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, do hereby proclaim Sunday, March 9th as BIG DAY, and call upon all citizens of Rhode Island to give the fullest possible support to the State of Israel Bond drive on this day and throughout the year."

Jori Registration Starts Monday

policy allows for one trip, with repeat trips being granted only when there are extenuating factors. "In this way, Camp Jori does not supplant a privately sponsored overnight camp," he stated.

Children will be registered beginning March 10. Because of the change in camp periods early registration is necessary to assure a reservation. Appointments may be arranged by telephoning DE 1-1244, the office of the Jewish Family and Children's Service.

The State of Israel $500,000,000 Bond Issue is intended to promote the economic development of the State. The proceeds of the Bond Issue are to be used for the purchase of machinery, raw materials, equipment and other items designed to increase the country's productive facilities so that it may earn and save foreign currency. Of the total amount, $205,000,000 is to be allocated for investment in the fields of industry and power. The sum of $130,000,000 has been designated for agricultural projects; $40,000,000 for the development of harbors, shipping and railroads; $45,000,000 for trade and services including the development of the tourist industry; and $30,000,000 for the establishment of a government mortgage bank for housing.

The balance, after payment of the expenses of the issue, is to serve as a reserve for unanticipated projects or for increased expenditures for the designated projects.

The Government's economic development program involves a total projected expenditure of $1,500,000,000, of which $500,000,000 is to be provided by Israel and other countries, and the balance to be obtained in the United States. The $500,000,000 State of Israel Bond Issue is the largest single source of funds for this program.

With immigration proceeding at the rate of 200,000 a year, Israel requires capital imports to meet the large investment necessary to create permanent employment opportunities and housing for the newcomers. A balanced and mature economy will as a rule produce enough to cover the consumptive needs of its population and to provide for some further investment to increase productivity. But under the best conditions, current production cannot begin to supply the huge capital needs of a population that is increasing at the enormous rate experienced by Israel. Palestine and Israel, therefore, have always had an adverse trade balance—like many young countries facing immigration and development tasks, including the United States, Australia and New Zealand. As immigration increased, so did the adverse trade balance. The import surplus served to meet the investment needs of the economy. For 1949 receipts on current account were (expressed in Israel Pounds, I.L.) I.L. 20,600,000 and payments, I.L. 94,100,000. For 1950 receipts on current account were I.L. 23,800,000 and payments, I.L. 113,400,000.

It is one of the major purposes of the Bond Issue to improve Israel's balance of trade through the establishment of new industrial and agricultural enterprises and through the expansion of production for export as well as for home consumption.

As of December 31, 1950, the funded debt was I.L. 114,200,000 and the floating debt, I.L. 1,300,000. The figures do not include any Treasury Bills, because of their relationship to the Special Defense Budget which has not been disclosed for security reasons.

Israel has never at any time defaulted upon the payment of principal or interest on any debt.

The budgets of the Government reflect the objectives of the State of Israel to provide for the immigration and absorption of a large number of Jews. From May 15, 1948 to March 31, 1949, receipts were I.L. 28,885,000 and expenditures, I.L. 27,529,000. From April 1, 1949 to March 31, 1950, receipts were I.L. 92,876,000 and expenditures I.L. 93,800,000. From April 1, 1950 to January 31, 1951, receipts were I.L. 113,473,000 and expenditures I.L. 112,087,000. These figures do not include Special Defense Budget expenditures or receipts from internal loans financing same.

The American Financial and Development Corporation for Israel with headquarters at 120 Broadway, New York 5, New York, is the principal underwriter for the State of Israel Bond Issue. The commissions or discounts are not to exceed 3½%.

ISRAEL WAITED FOUR YEARS FOR THIS DAY

Four years had to pass—four years of struggle and hard work by the people of Israel, building industries, farms, new cities, new power installations, laying the foundations of a great modern state,—before BIG DAY could be proclaimed.

On BIG DAY, Sunday, March 9th, the Jewish homes in our community will be visited and asked to invest, not donate,—to lend the people of Israel money by purchasing State of Israel Bonds. The money will be returned, with interest.

The people of Israel can and want to be self-supporting. Israel Bond dollars are doing BIG things in Israel. New factories, new projects to exploit Israel's natural resources, new income producing enterprises which use Israel's reservoir of skill and manpower are being built at a fast pace. But more bonds will produce even greater economic progress.

The person who will ring your door-bell on Sunday, March 9th will bring you the story of the people of Israel—more than 1,400,000 strong. Open your door and welcome the authorized volunteer on BIG DAY. Remember, an Israel Bond brings—a rich return for your heart, a good return for your purse.

STAY HOME AND BUY—OR GO OUT AND SELL ISRAEL BONDS ON BIG DAY

Further information, particularly financial information, is contained in the Registration Statement filed with the Commission and in a more complete Prospectus which must be furnished to each purchaser and is obtainable from the undersigned.

BIG DAY Sunday

"... I AM CONFIDENT THAT ON BIG DAY THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMUNITY WILL MOBILIZE ITS STRENGTH ON AN UNPRECEDENTED SCALE TO BRING THE STORY OF ISRAEL BONDS AND THEIR MEANING INTO TENS OF THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN HOMES STOP . . ."

(From cable by Chaim Weizmann, President of Israel)

If present indications are any guide, the outpouring of several hundred men and women volunteers on BIG DAY—Sunday, March 9—to canvass the Providence area for State of Israel Bonds will be a remarkable manifestation.

It will be a showing of strength of Providence Jewry, embracing all groups, for their joint effort with the people of Israel in cementing the establishment of the new Jewish state.

The message from President Weizmann to Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the Board of the Israel Bonds drive in America, an excerpt from which is quoted above, is not a pep talk. Chaim Weizmann is the head of a state, not a sales manager. His words come from the heart of a man devoted to Israel.

BIG DAY will serve as the starting point for the 1952 campaign, whose object is to sell $200,000,000 of the total $500,000,000 goal in Bonds. For that reason it is important to make a good showing.

Several hundred have already enlisted in the Providence BIG DAY "army." But more are needed, and needed quickly. Marshal Saul Abrams and his co-Marshal, Mrs. Bertram Bernhardt, have a big "front" to cover.

So—Go out and sell Israel Bonds on BIG DAY; or, if you can't, stay home and buy Israel Bonds when a canvasser rings your doorbell.

Gifts From Readers

BY BERYL SEGAL

This is Purim week, my friends, and what is Purim without gifts? Were it not for this gracious custom of Shalach Monos, sending of gifts, Purim would be a poor holiday indeed. I have received many a gift from readers, very precious gifts, and I wish to look at them again on the eve of Purim, the festival of Shalach Monos.

Now, gifts are of many kinds, depending on the person giving and the person receiving. In value, gifts range all the way from a toy to a convertible; from a neck-tie to a mink coat. In generosity, gifts run from ten cents to the March of Dimes fund to a million-dollar endowment of a favorite college or a humanitarian project. In purpose, gifts are given for the sheer pleasure of giving, or they are given as exchange for favors received or favors expected.

The gifts I have received are in a class of their own. They are all gifts of words, either spoken or written, given to me from time to time by readers. They were gifts given for pleasure, and the pleasure they brought to me was priceless.

Even now, as I think of them again, the gifts are as thrilling and heart-warming as on the day I received them. What better Shalach Monos can one ask?

Here is the letter from Dr. Herman Grossman, for instance. As lovely a gift as the world has ever devised. The doctor writes:

"I suppose that for lack of Hooper ratings and Gallup Polls, and other similar agencies of information, a columnist must occasionally pause to reflect: 'Who and how many read my column? What do they think of it?'

"The purpose of this letter is to advise you of two people who have read your last Mother's Day column in the Herald with considerable sympathetic understanding. They were my two daughters, Edith, age 15, and Betty, age 10.

On Sunday—Mother's Day morning, my wife was presented with the usual gift packages wrapped in multicolored and beribboned paper. Within the wrapper was a complete clipping of your little story. On a card was written the following ditty:

We thank thee Lord, and Angels too, for making life so sweet.

Sure Sabbath Day could never be due, before Mother's Day's complete.

And to you, mother, heart-felt thanks,

from the little bird in the flaming nest,

And the stranded ant on the river's bank, and the beast whose wound you dressed."

This little poem, of course, refers to incidents related in the story, and Dr. Grossman adds:

"I do not believe that you had a single reader, child or adult, who caught the meaning and the charm and the tender spirit of your story more completely than did those two little girls."

What better gift can one hope to get? No Hooper or Gallup ever brought a more pleasing rating than the one given to me by the two sensitive young ladies, Edith and Betty. I am grateful.

By the way, we can use a poet or two on the Children's Page. Can we expect some verses signed Edith or Betty by return mail?

I cherish a letter from the poet Abraham M. Klein from Montreal, author of "The Second Scroll," and an invitation to come and spend some time with him on my next visit to Canada. The letter is too lengthy, and the things the poet says in appreciation of my column on the occasion of his visit here are too personal, but on the eve of Purim I place this letter among my gifts, and am humbly grateful.

A lovely Shalach Monos was sent to me by Mrs. Abraham Perelcy. This dynamic lady did not agree at all with my views expressed in one of my columns. But she was kind even in disagreement, and on this day of Purim I wish to thank her for her gift of these lines:

"I cannot agree with you, Beryl, much as I would like always to be on your side, for I know how much the truth means to you, and I doubt that a more honest man abides in our midst".

I could never hope to get a finer Shalach Monos than the one sent to me by Mrs. Morris L. Kellner, in response to my column about the impropriety of arranging organizational affairs on Sabbath or holidays:

"Cigars should be passed to you for hitting on a subject that has bothered a great many of us for a long time. We are grateful for your more than adequate expression in writing about the non-kosher meals served at functions sponsored by Jewish organizations, and by the desecration of the Sabbath and holidays, when there are six other days of the week in which meetings and other important business can be held."

"... It might give you some satisfaction to know that your unseen audience not only reads what you write but also discusses your subjects. At a recent gathering with friends, quite some time was spent in discussing the pros and cons of one of your articles, namely the one about Jewish children singing Christmas carols in school.

The ice making machines in the New Miriam Hospital will produce about 1700 pounds of ice every day.

"Personally, I feel that such discussions are healthy for the community. I thought it would be nice if you knew that some of us discuss, agree, and disagree with your opinions, and that above all we consider them interesting and thought-provoking."

No sweeter delicacies can any man expect to find on his Shalach Monos plate. I was extremely pleased.

Then there was the telephone call one Friday morning, not a minute after the morning mail was delivered:

"Hello, Beryl. This is Hershel." "Who?"

"Hershel Beck. Your old friend Harry Beck".

Now, I have known Mr. Beck these last twenty-odd years. I have always called him Harry, like everybody else. Harry Beck is in a habit of calling me ever so often to tell me when an article of mine pleases him. I value his opinion because he can write a masterful story, and in his desk drawers are stacked away many a manuscript of his. He writes for his own pleasure and he sometimes treats his guests with a reading of one of his stories.

This time Harry Beck called to tell me how well he liked what I had to say about the duty of giving blood to the Red Cross, and that he is forwarding the paper to the president of the Providence Chapter of the Red Cross. That he did, and it brought a charming note from the chapter president.

But I was thrilled by the revelation of the name Hershel. Hershel Beck. Sounds good. Sounds more like a name a mother would call. That makes Mr. Beck and myself animals of the same forest. Hershel is the name for deer in Yiddish, while Beryl is a little bear.

So on this day of Purim I wish to thank Hershel Beck for the numerous gifts he has been sending me through the wires of the telephone.

And then there is the note from Hopp, Alabama. Ever been in Hopp? Would you ever guess that we have readers of the Herald in Alabama? Well, we do, and I received a welcome little gift from the Leo Finkelsteins who live in Hopp.

It seems that the mailing department wrapped up only one section of the Herald addressed to Hopp. The second section where this column usually appears was left out. So the next mail brought a picture postal card from Hopp, Alabama, saying will the office please send the second section because: "We miss Beryl's column." Selma, the office blond, was thrilled with the picture card from that far-away place with an unusual name, and so was I. It is only human to be glad when one is missed in Hopp, Alabama.

And so, on the eve of Purim, I place this postal card too on my tray of Shalach Mones among my treasured gifts, and am grateful for it.

Many thanks, and a good Purim to all.

Touro Fraternal Association began working in earnest last week to line up blood donors for its Bloodmobile Day, to be held Thursday, April 3 at Touro Hall, 88 Mathewson Street.

Officials of the Touro blood drive emphasized that they will attempt to get enough blood pledges to set a new record for Bloodmobile Days. Pledge cards may be obtained from members of the blood donors committee or from Dr. Harold Hanzel, president, and Charles Cokin, secretary.

Non-members also will be welcome to submit their pledges for the Bloodmobile, Dr. Hanzel said.

The New Miriam Hospital will provide facilities for ten resident internes. There will also be a fully equipped interne's recreation room.

The Story of Purim... for the Youngsters

BUT HE ALSO APPOINTED HAMAN TO THE HIGHEST OFFICE OF THE LAND....

AND TRUE TO HIS CHARACTER, HAMAN PROCLAIMED THAT EVERYONE WAS TO BOW DOWN TO HIM....

GREATLY ANGERED, HAMAN OBTAINED THE KING'S PERMISSION TO HAVE ALL THE JEWS IN THE EMPIRE WIPE OUT....

THEN TO DECIDE WHEN THE EXECUTION WAS TO BE, HAMAN CAST LOTS... AND THE THIRTEENTH DAY OF ADAR WAS CHOSEN....

*NOTE: THE WORD "PURIM" MEANS CASTING OF LOTS!!

...BUT THE QUEEN HESITATED, FOR AHASUERUS DID NOT KNOW THAT HIS QUEEN WAS A JEWESS....

FINALLY, SHE GATHERED ENOUGH COURAGE AND TOLD AHASUERUS....

BUT IT WAS TOO LATE TO STOP THE DAY OF EXECUTION... SO THE KING PROCLAIMED THAT THE JEWS BE PERMITTED TO PROTECT THEMSELVES....

...AND TO THIS DAY WE CELEBRATE THE FOURTEENTH OF ADAR TO COMMEMORATE A HAPPY PURIM!!!

Holiday for the Month

THE SPIRIT OF PURIM

The Hebrew calendar for the month of Adar has two days marked in red. One date is a fast day, the other is a feast day. Every one knows of the feast, but how many remember the fast?

Monday, March 10 (the 13th of Adar) is the Fast of Esther. This is the day when Queen Esther fasted and prayed that she may find favor in the eyes of the king when she comes before him to plead for her people.

After the fast comes the feast. Monday night and all day Tuesday is the day of gladness, the day of Purim.

Just as Jews observe the feasting and the rejoicing on Purim, so do they also keep the fasting, as Esther asked them to do, for it is written in the Book of Esther:

"Then Esther bade them return answer to Mordecai: Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast you for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night and day. I also and my maidens will fast in like manner."

There is another thing about Purim that Jews observe, and it is good that you, children, remember it, and do it. On Purim Jews send gifts to the poor and the needy. In the hour of gladness and of feasting, we should not forget those who must do more fasting than feasting because of lack of food. This, too, is written in the Book of Esther:

"And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews, both high and far, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month of Adar . . . that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor."

This coming Purim we suggest sending a CARE package to a undernourished child in Israel. There are many of them over there, unfortunately, who seldom eat an egg, drink a glass of milk or taste an ounce of meat.

Send a Shalach Monos, a gift package, to one of those children through CARE. A package sent now will get to Israel just in time for Pesach.

You will enjoy your holiday feasts better by sharing your food with another child.

This really is the true spirit of Purim.

laid hold on the gate to the city, and he plucked up the posts, the bars, and all and carried them off on his shoulders.

Jerusalem, of course, is the capitol city of Israel, and a holy city to Christians and Mohammedans, as well as to Jews.

Galilee is a district in the northern part of Israel. It was known by that name in the Biblical times, and is still called by the same to this day.

Rehoboth, the town in nearby Massachusetts is also a Hebrew name, and it means wide open space, square, road, or streets. There is a town in Israel by that name. The president of Israel, Hayim Weizmann lives in Rehoboth, Israel.

A Lesson in Nature

(A true experience by Howard Solomon, age 13, 62 Chester Ave.)

Do you remember the days when you played Chestnuts? In this game one boy holds his chestnut on a string, while the other boy tries to bust it with his chestnut. Each boy has three turns. If you break the other boy's chestnut, you have a Kinger. Now if you break the chestnut of the boy who had broken three others, then you have four Kingers. The three of the other boy added to your one Kinger makes four.

Well, my story starts during the chestnut season. One day I noticed that my supply of chestnuts was getting low, and there were no chestnuts left on the trees in my neighborhood. Suddenly I remembered a street where I once saw several acorn trees. So, on my way home from school I went straight to that street. My idea was to use the acorns instead of chestnuts. While picking the acorns I noticed a blue jay pecking away at the acorns. I did not think it was important. I guessed the blue jay just liked acorns. I picked all the acorns I wanted and brought them home, and I put them in a drawer, and I left them there for a week.

Then one day I went to get them and I was horrified to find my drawer full of worms. And so I learned a lesson on that day. A blue jay pecks acorns because of the worms in them. The moral of the story is—if you can't use chestnuts, don't use anything. Use no substitutes.

Thank You, Mrs. Makiri

In her notes to the students of the Religious School of Temple Beth El, Mrs. Miriam Makiri called the attention of the children to the special page devoted to them in the Herald.

Here is Mrs. Makiri's note:

"Dear Children—

Did you know that the Jewish Herald is running a Children's Page? This page, in part, is to consist of some articles and stories written by adults for children. But what is even more important—it will be the VOICE of the Jewish children of Providence. YOU, yes you, may write stories, poems, jokes, etc.

"Each and every one of you has talent, but you may not be aware of it. Awaken your sleepy imagination and put down on paper a dream, a plan, a brainstorm, or even a simple tale. Send it to the Jewish Herald, 121 Dyer Street. Then when you become a regular contributor to the Jewish Herald, you might start a scrap book into which all your famous writings can be pasted."

Dorothy's and Marjorie's Project

My friend Dorothy Glass and I have been working on a project we thought you would be interested in. We have been making things and selling them in our neighborhood. We gave the money we made to the March of Dimes (one dollar).

Now we are working on another project, for the Heart Fund. Here are the things we are making for sale:

1. Painted shells for ashtrays;
2. Fudge;
3. Christmas cards;
4. Jack-in-the-bean-boxes;
5. Pot holders, which we are weaving now.

MARJORIE SANIK, Grade 5,
Henry Barnard School.
DOROTHY GLASS, Grade 4,
East Avenue School.

That is wonderful, Marjorie and Dorothy. I wish I lived in your neighborhood. I would like to taste some of your fudge. It must have been delicious.

Can we hear from other children who have been working on such a project?

Brownies Celebrate

The Brownie Troop 150 celebrated the first anniversary on Wednesday, February 13, at the home of Carol Berren. A puppet show of Cinderella was shown. The puppets were made by the Brownies under the supervision of Miss Helen Sternback, their leader. A talent show was also held.

LYNN TANENBAUM, Secretary.

my drawer full of worms. And so I learned a lesson on that day. A blue jay pecks acorns because of the worms in them.

The moral of the story is—if you can't use chestnuts, don't use anything. Use no substitutes.

Topics of the Month

BROTHERHOOD

The President of the United States proclaimed it, and people of good will in every city, town, and village are now observing Brotherhood Week.

The purpose of this special week is to remind people again the simple truth:

All men are created equal.

We are all children of one father.

No one is better than his neighbor, nor worse than his neighbor because of a difference in color of skin, manner of worship, or place of birth.

What does Brotherhood mean to you, children?

Look about you in school. Within the walls of your own school you have the whole country on a small scale. Over there are children whose skin is white, and here are children whose skin is colored. On your left sits a child whose parents come from Italy.

and on your right sits a child whose parents are Irish. You are Jewish, other children are Catholic, Protestant, or do not belong to any church at all.

But all this does not matter to your school. You are all here for the same purpose. You are here in school to develop your minds through study in the class rooms, to develop your skills through work in the shops and in the laboratories, to develop your bodies in the gymnasium. This the school gives you in equal measure, regardless of your skin, faith, or origin. You are judged by the work you do, and not by who you are.

So it is, so it ought to be, in the world outside the walls of the school. There is room for all people, of all colors, of all beliefs. The world was not made for one people only. Those who teach otherwise are the enemies of the people.

FIGURE OUT

ASK ME A RIDDLE

1. I am always one, indivisible. Even if you cut me in half, I am still one. Who am I?

2. I am nine years old when I stand up straight. But I get three years younger when I stand on my head. What kind of a bird am I?

3. We are nothing when we stand in front of you. But we are worth millions to you when we are behind you. Wouldn't you like to know us?

4. I always look the same. You can twist me around from right to left, upside and downside, I will always be the same. Do you know me?

(Send your answers to the Children's Page. Don't forget to give your name and address.)

CRANSTON MEN'S
by Phil Chopak

Bernie Goodman's White Sox came up with the upset of the season when they silenced Joe Potemkin's Yanks, 4-0. Moe Coffman demoralized the Yanks with his anchor strings of 134, 124, 122 for 380, best triple of the night. Henry Stampel pitched in 321. Moe Bernstein's Tigers took over undisputed possession of first place, and their 4-0 victory over the Senators gives them a 4 game edge, the largest lead in weeks. Ed Lang was high man in this match with 355.

Bill Deitch and the Cubs outdistanced the Athletics and won 4, Bill contributing 331. Al Samperil, with 326, was top man for the Red Sox as they clapped the Indians' feathers 3-1. Ben Melion led the losers with 337. The Cards came out of their recent slump to defeat the Dodgers 3-1, as Moe Kessler rolled 360 and Sam Feingold 321, and the Phil-

A new high team single of 591 was registered last week by Howie Fain's team. Meantime, the quintets of Lou Feldman and Mal Mickler continue to set the pace in the National and American Divisions. The race for individual honors has held the attention of the league for several weeks, with Vin DeCesaris improving his hold on first place with a 374 pinfall last week. Murray Trinkle and Allie Shatkin, who follow in the list of averages, turned in 352 and 346 totals.

Stanley Baker and Trinkle shared high single, 142, with Baker rolling 363 for three strings. Other high scores included Joe Alterman and George Dann 349, Jack Applebaum 342, Louis Bloom and Howie Fain 338, Phil Shaulson and Martin Silverstein 334, Fred DeCesaris 331, Dick Barber 329, Perry Shatkin 328, Elliot Olevson 327, Irwin Silverstein 326, Milt Weisman 324, and Doctor Bud Lewis 323.

For the last four weeks Harry Goldberg's Reds and Dave Allen's Phils have been in a first place tie in the National division but this issue was finally decided as the Phils made a clean sweep of this week's match between the two and now have a commanding lead. The Phils were led by Lou Millen 328, Dave Allen 311 and Harry Shore 309.

In the American division the race is tighter than a drum. For the third week in a row Morris Satloff's Tigers scored a shutout and have jumped into fifth place, just 7 points behind the leaders. However, the most amazing showing to date has been made by Sid Brown's Senators. All season long they have been a very poor last and this week they won another match, giving them a record of 14 wins and only two losses in the last four weeks. The Indians have a similar record and have advanced from fifth to second place, just 3 points behind Harold Golden's first place White Sox. For the Indians it was Reeve Zatloff 344, Sam Price 314 and Al Resnick 311, with Izzy Halperin rolling 125 in the third string to give them their victory over Sam Tapper's Cubs. Other leaders: Nate Gordon 354, Gene Silverman 337, Harold Golden 329, Sid Brown and Phil Shaulson 325, Don Cohen 320, Morris Factor 318, Mort Klibanoff 316, Abe Lobel 312, Norman Gordon, Lenny Levin, George Feldman, Speed Kessler and Ise Friedman 309, Irv Kaplan and Lenny Summer 307, Morris Satloff and Max Cohen 305, Billy Edelman and Elliot Dittleman 303, Murray Gordon, Art Pivnick and Max Runstein 301.

Among the better single strings were Sam Shaver 118, Mel Wasserman 113, Charlie Steingold 111, Wallace Genser and Harold Levin 109, George Luber, Gene Aronson and Jerry Ruben 107, Norm Bernstein, Harvey Stein and Milt Israeloff 105, and Leo Schwartz and Sam Feldman 103.

Aaron Siegal was high man with 110 for the first string and 295 for high three. Other high scores were Joe Solinger with 100 in his third string, and Louis Sacarovitz with 101 in his third string. Koten and Siegal are tied for second place with a 93 average.

Team 1 won all three games from Team 4 and Team 2 lost all three games, which leaves Team 1 still in first place and Team 2 in second place by five games. Team 4 is third, 8 games off the pace.

EMANUEL BOWLING

by Sid Green

After an absence of three weeks, Sid (Jessie James) Green returned and sparked the Brownsies to a clean sweep over the deflated Braves. Howie Cohen's 127, 128 and 102, Dave Ettine's 120, 127 and 104, and Green's 100, 97 and 114 gave the Browns an edge of 176 pins for the match.

The Indians kept rolling with a 3-1 win over the Pirates as the 1-2 punch of Sherm Price 346 and Zucker 340 kept hitting. Al Chase's 132, 139 and 133 were the strings that broke the Dodgers' backs, as he also broke the total pinfall record with that torrid 404 to give his Yanks four points.

Hot Henry Markoff rolled 112, 123 and 143 but could not do it alone, as his Reds bowed to the Athletics 4-0. The White Sox and Giants split their match with Soxer Bill Golli's 346 and Giant Frank Goldstein's 325 keeping them on an even keel. Harry Chase's 340 paced the Reds to a 3-1 win over the Tigers, as brother Lou Chase's 333 gave the losers their only point.

The Red Sox came up with a good third string and managed to salvage one point against the climbing Cubs, who were led by Dick Chase's 347 and Jack Broadman's 322, while Izzy Solmer was best man for the losers with 345.

Good single strings were rolled by Perlow 128, Milt Price 126, Gerber 122, B. Chase 121, Lou Chase 127, Ross 118, George Miller 119, Kramer 114, Noah Miller 114, Dwares 112, Hy Weinberg 112, Paynor 113, Weiss 110 and Tesler 106.

CRANSTON PLAIDS

by Elayne Chopak

The Pinks have tied the high team three record of 1308 and now place third for high team single with 463. This was accomplished by Bertha Davis with 101, Renee Dreyfuss 100, Lil Woolf 98, and Pauline Kaufman 95.

The Greens are way out in front, again having taken three points from the second place Yellows. Indigo is still a close third.

The New Miriam Hospital will have a department of physical medicine to cooperate in community rehabilitation programs.

High score was 107 rolled by Hope Mellion, closely followed by Charlotte Coffman 106, Isabel David and Fran Rodinsky 105, Kay Jagolinzer 103, Kathleen Miller and Bev Sugerman 102, Charlene White 101, Selma Dubey and Sally Levy 100, Jeanette Silverstein 98, Sippy Kessler 97, Harriet Gorfine and Evelyn Lerner 95, Gladys Filler 94, Sally Potemkin and Lil Silverman 93, Doris Kirshenbaum and Elaine Silk 91, Gloria Cohen, Dot Bookbinder and Gert Smith 90.

FINEMAN-TRINKLE AUX.

The Spades are still leading the league, followed by the Jokers. Tied for third place are No Trumps and Hearts, followed by Diamonds.

Arline Abrams 99, Harriette Zarchen, Roz Luber and Phyllis Sholowitz 97, Charlotte Miller, Irvin Ross and Eleanor Dittleman 96, Jeanne Alterman 94, Anita Weitzner 93 and Phyllis Bernstein 92.

SYD COHEN:

Quotes From the Southland

You look at the snow falling outside, and shiver as you think of the icy blasts of wind; you turn the thermostat up a little higher, and settle down with the latest copy of the Sporting News, with all the baseball gossip and big league doings from Florida, Arizona and California.

Is it possible, in the midst of all this cold weather, that the 1952 season is with us? The answer, in one succinct word is—yes.

The groundhog pokes his nose into the world in February, and it really doesn't matter whether he sees his shadow or not. No one cares. Not really.

Another animal rouses from his hibernation this first week of March, and the whole world sits up and takes notice. The baseball fan is about to become his roaring, optimistic, intensely partisan self again.

All is not completely joy in the when it comes to promising spirit and hustle. Boudreau is off to a flying start.

Get a load of Phil Cavaretta of the Cubs:

"Not a man on the club has a job cinched. I don't care if he's been with the Cubs for ten years. Furthermore, it doesn't make any difference to me how long he's been in the major leagues. I'm going into 1952 with an open mind. Every player has to win his job out on the field."

Truly a startling pronouncement. It hasn't been heard since way back in 1951, when two or three other managers who had to stand pat with nothing spouted forth with the same kind of blubber.

Chalk up another original for the Cubs:

"Never before in the history of the Cubs has a team reported in such superb condition . . ."

This is news. It won't happen again until every manager gets a decent look at his boys. No later than the end of this week, and that will be pretty late.

Saul Rogovin, earned run king of the American League, checked in at the White Sox camp with 225 pounds where only 204 should appear. Getting right into the spirit of things, Rogovin solemnly promised to be down 20 pounds when—get this—he faces the Cleveland Indians in the opening game of the season.

Comment — How many ball players can you remember who lost that much in spring training and remained effective? Most of the time they stay fat. Wanna bet that Saul won't make the opener?

And speaking of the Indians, Hank Greenberg has picked up right where he left off last year. He started predicting a pennant for his boys in the spring training camp, proclaimed it loudly throughout the season, shouted it from the rooftops while the Yanks, with their feet on the ground, snuck away with the marbles—and immediately started forecasting a pennant for Cleveland in 1952 while the Yanks were still drinking their victory beer.

Hank said it again this week. Well, at least he has convinced a large group of writers.

Paul Richards says his White Sox will win the pennant. Rogers Hornsby says his Browns will finish ahead of the White Sox. The Yanks claim they can win again. Looks like the American League is eliminating the second division.

The St. Louis Cards are learning how to bunt. Eddy Stanky, new manager, says games are won and lost by bunting, and he intends to do the winning because of it.

This remarkable statement would go into the Hall of Fame alongside the immortal "You can't tell the players without a program," except that at least 42,378,496½ managers before him have done the same thing.

Incidentally, during his extensive bunting session, "the most impressive old-timers ever had seen or listened to," Stanky patiently and calmly explained to Pitcher Alpha Brazile why the southpaw was wrong in letting a pitch go by with the squeeze play on and a runner tearing home from third.

Funny, I thought ballplayers learned things like that before they stopped saying "I ain't gonna say 'dese' and 'dose' no more."

I've got Stanky all wrong. I would have imagined that when a temperamental guy like that heard a 10-year man like Brazile say he took the squeeze pitch because it was off the plate, said 10-year man would be trampled in the dust, absorb an automatic $250 fine, and take a terrific tongue lashing as long as Stanky could wield the lash.

Ah, but this is spring training. It happens every year. And if you think that is something, wait till you hear of all the super rookies your favorite club has coming up this year. Coming soon—direct from the Southland.

In the New Miriam Hospital there will be oxygen outlets in the wall beside each patient's bed. Oxygen will be supplied centrally from basement storage tanks.

Defends "Bagels and Yox"

Dear Editor:

I just read Mr. Segal's criticism on "Bagels and Yox" and while I have no personal interest in the show, nor in any of the actors, I want to state that my husband, my friends and I spent an extremely enjoyable evening in New York watching that show.

As for "Vulgarity Marches On", which was the title of his review, if laughing at oneself is being vulgar, then I would rather be "Me" than Mr. Segal. My cultural standards are on just as high a plane as Mr. Segal's. I read good books, I play the piano better than average, I sketch fairly well and paint in oils. I enjoy a good laugh and love to hear other people laugh. Just what objection has Mr. Segal to laughter? I have heard from people who know him personally that he is a scrapper and thinks nothing of "spitting in your eye", as they put it. Well—then he should be prepared to take it as well as dish it out.

I consider his review a personal affront to my taste, as I recommended the show to many people, and they all enjoyed it as much as I did.

Mr. Segal said that the Jewish people laugh at themselves. What is wrong about laughing at ourselves? Are we so perfect? It has been this ability to laugh at our own imperfections that has helped us to survive through the centuries. Our rabbis know this, and all men who think know this, and three cheers for everyone who recommends "Bagels and Yox". Everybody knows there is a humorous side to Jewish life which Mr. Segal seems to have overlooked entirely. Do we always have to be straightlaced and serious? The trouble with the world today is that there are too many tears and too little laughs.

And why should Mr. Segal express himself so emphatically? Who ever said he is a critic? He needed various quotations from different periodicals and papers to bolster up his own opinions. Mr. Segal, I strongly recommend that you do a little thinking on your own.

I sincerely hope that the people of Providence will not take Mr. Segal's criticism too seriously and go to see the show. I can promise them an enjoyable evening. Perhaps Mr. Segal should see it again. Some of the Jewish witticisms might have been too deep for him the first time.

INDIGNANT.

Favors German Reparations

Dear Editor:

Rabbi Abraham Chill has been quoted in the Bulletin as opposing Israel's claims for reparations from Germany for Jewish property looted under the Nazi regime. His attitude is based upon the feeling that by so paying, Germany will then be able to claim that her sins have been expiated. This attitude is also held by extremist factions in both Israel and this country, and is fully exploited by them.

Israel has emphasized again and again that negotiating for the restitution of looted Jewish property can never, by any means, be considered the equivalent of forgiving the Germans for the slaughter of six million Jews. In the U. N., Israel has consistently voted against the integration of Germany into the fraternity of nations until such time as Germany shall make moral reparations by changing its attitude.

That Israel must deal directly with the Bonn government is certainly an unpleasant prospect for all Jews. Since, however, no other nation has shown a willingness to act as intermediary, no other course is open. Knesset, the parliament of Israel, has acted wisely in voting 61-50 in favor of conducting direct negotiations.

Certainly, on moral grounds, the property or its equivalent value of the Jews who have been exterminated belongs solely to the surviving Jews of Europe, not to Germany.
